Course Objectives

I. For each student to develop and write an original interpretation that deals with the main issues of the question "Why Hitler?" (1) How and why was Hitler appointed to the office of Chancellor on 30 January 1933? (2) What were the subsequent moves made by Hitler to convert his position into a dictatorship, and why was this dictatorship accepted, even embraced, by the German nation? (3) Why did Hitler use his dictatorial power for the purposes of expansion, domination, and extermination, and what were the consequences of his policies for his followers, for his victims, and for the world at large? In all of this, we will be looking at ways that historians assess responsibility for the Second World War and the Holocaust.

II. To develop the skills necessary to accomplish the main objective:

A. in the critical assessment of a wide variety of secondary sources
B. in interpreting selected primary sources
C. in writing persuasively and in making effective oral presentations

   3. Ian Kershaw, Hitler. 1936-1945: Nemesis

III. Book Review Project

For this project, each student will select, from a list of approved titles, a book to read and review. These works of scholarly interpretation are available in Barret Library. Students will select their books on the basis of an order determined by a random drawing, to be held in class on Thursday 12 January. The review project will be accomplished according to the following stages:

A. A formal critical review of the book, written in conformity with guidelines and instructions that will be distributed. The critical review will be due in class on Thursday 26 January.
B. A revised/formatted critical review is due on Tuesday 7 February.
C. An oral presentation of the book review on the date indicated on the book sign-up sheet. The report will be tied to the assigned reading for that day as indicated in the "Schedule of Classes and Assignments" (below).

IV. Interpretive Essay Project

Over the course of the semester each student will develop and write an original interpretive essay on the main issues encompassed in the question, "Why Hitler?" There will be three main phases in developing the essay:

Part One: How and why was Hitler appointed to the office of Chancellor on 30 January 1933? Part One will be due on Wednesday 15 February.

Part Two: How did Hitler convert his office into a personal dictatorship and why was his dictatorship accepted, even embraced, by the German nation? Part Two will be due on Friday 21 March.

Part Three: Why did Hitler use the power of the German state for the purposes of expansion, domination, and extermination and what were the consequences of the enacting of his policies? Part Three will be due on Wednesday 26 April.

Parts One, Two and Three, with all parts revised and integrated into a coherent essay, along with a general introduction and a conclusion dealing with issues of ultimate responsibility will be due on Friday 5 May by 11:00 A.M.
