Subject: [PRAYERS AT WORK] Feb 15-19, 2010

Monday, February 15, 2010 -- (Meditation: Deuteronomy 28:9) Heavenly Father, I pray for my country. How fortunate I am to be an American! I am glad we begin our national ceremonies with prayer to You.

I am glad the Bible is the authority for swearing-in at inaugurations.

Give wisdom and courage to our President. Guide the minds and hearts of the members of Congress. And may we be a country that lives by, "In God We Trust." Through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

Tuesday, February 16, 2010 -- (Meditation: I Corinthians 10:13) God, help me to be honest with myself, and with You, in this world of the Big Sell, the Glad Hand, the Smiling Face, the Nifty Dress, and the arrogance of self importance. I pray to be delivered from temptation, that I may serve You completely. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Wednesday, February 17, 2010 -- (Meditation: I Peter 5:6-7) God, help me to receive the surprises of each day with open arms and a yielded heart. Whether the surprises come to me as sorrows or joys, as illness or health, as challenges or successes, help me to understand that in ALL these things, YOU are God, and You work all things together for good. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Thursday, February 18, 2010 -- (Meditation: I Peter 5:2-3) God, You have given me skills and abilities, and put me in a leadership position. But it is an awesome responsibility. So much is expected of me, and I expect so much of myself. Help me to use my time and influence to do those things that are important to You. Through Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

Friday, February 19, 2010 -- (Meditation: Psalm 33:12-15) Heavenly Father, thank You for the joy of living in America . . . for the opportunities it provides . . . for the good jobs that most people have . . . for competition that makes us do a good job . . . for the rewards of achievement . . . for the good benefits that many people have. And God, I pray for those who do NOT have jobs . . . for those who work without benefits . . . and for those who have been thrown out of work. These are trying times in our country. Help America to provide an increasing number of jobs, and to provide for those who need a hand-up. In Jesus' name. Amen.
