Kyrie (from Memorial)

with the Rhodes Singers

René Clausen
(b. 1953)

Kyrie eleison, Christe eleison, Kyrie eleison.
Lord, have mercy, grant us peace.
Adonai, O Lord have mercy.

Stabat Mater (from Four Sacred Pieces)

Giuseppe Verdi
(1813-1901)

*Stabat mater dolorosa
juxta crucem lacrymosa, dum pendebat filius.
Cujus animam gementem
contristantem et dolentem per transiit gladius.*

The grieving Mother
stood weeping by the cross
where her Son was hanging.
Her spirit cried out,
mourning and sorrowing,
as if pierced with a sword.

*Sancta mater, istud agas crucifixi fuge plagas
cordi meo valide;
tui nati vulnerati,
tam dignati pro me pati,
poenas mecum divide.*

Holy Mother, let it be that the stripes of the crucified may pierce my heart.
With thy injured Son
who suffered so to save me, let me share his pains.

*O quam tristis et afflicta fuit illa benedicta
mater unigeniti!
Quae moerebat et dolebat,
pia mater, dum videbat
nati poenas inclyti.*

Oh, how grieved and struck down was that blessed woman, Mother of the Son born of One!
How she mourned and lamented this Holy Mother, seeing her son hanging there in pain!

*Fac me tecum pie flere, crucifixo condolere,
donec ego vixero.
Juxta crucem tecum stare,
et me tibi sociare
in planctu desidero.*

Let me weep beside thee,
mourning the crucified
as long as I shall live.
To stand beside the cross and to join with thee
in weeping is my desire.

*Quis est homo, qui non fletet, matrem Christi si videret in tanto supplicio?
Quis non posset contristari,
Christi matrem contemplari dolentem cum filio?*

What man would not weep to see Christ's Mother
in such humiliation?
Who would not suffer with her,
seeing Christ's Mother
sorrowing for her son?

*Virgo virginum praeclara, mibi jam non sis amara,
fac me tecum plangere.
Fac, ut portem Christi mortem, passionis fac consortem, et plagas recolere.*

Virgin famed of all virgins,
be not severe with me now;
let me weep with thee.
Let me bear Christ's death,
let me share his suffering and remember his blows.

*Pro peccatis suae gentis vidit Jesum in tormentis et flagellis subditum.
vidit suum dulcem natum moriendo desolatum, dum emisit spiritum.*

For the sins of his people
she saw Jesus in torment, beaten down with whips,
saw her gentle Son
dying in desolation,
breathing out his spirit.

*Fac me plagis vulnerari, fac me cruce inebriari
et cruore filii.
Flammis ne urar succensus, per te, virgo, sim defenses in die judicii.*

Let me be wounded with his blows, inebriate with the cross and thy Son's love.
Lest the flames consume me,
be my advocate, Virgin,
on the day of judgment.

*Eja mater, fons amoris!
Me sentire vim doloris,
fac, ut tecum lugeam.
Fac, ut ardeat cor meum
in amando Christum Deum, ut sibi complaceam.*

Let me, Mother, font of love,
feel with thee thy grief,
make me mourn with thee.
Make my heart so burn
for love of Christ my God that it be satisfied.

*Christe, cum sit hinc exire, da per matrem me venire ad palmam victoriae.
Quando corpus morietur, fac, ut animae donetur
paradise gloria. Amen.*

Christ, when my time is finished, grant, through thy Mother, that I win the palm of victory.
When my body dies
let my soul be granted
the glory of heaven. Amen.

How goodly are thy tents O Jacob, thy dwelling places O Israell
As for me, in the abundance of thy loving kindness
I will enter thy house.
I will worship toward thy holy temple in reverence of thee.
Lord, I love the habitation of thy house and the place where thy glory dwells;
as for me, I will worship and bow down,
I will bend the knee before the Lord, my Maker.
As for me, may my prayer unto thee O Lord be at an acceptable time;
O God, in the abundance of thy loving kindness answer me in the truth of thy salvation.
Bless ye the Lord, who is to be blessed:
Blessed is the Lord, who is to be blessed,
for ever and ever!
Hear O Israel, the Lord is our God,
the Lord is One!
Blessed is the name of his glorious Kingdom
for ever and ever!
And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.
And these words,
which I command you this day,
shall be upon your heart;
and you shall teach them carefully to your children, and you shall talk of them when you sit in your home
and when you walk by the way, when you lie down and when you arise.
And you shall bind them as a sign on your hand and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes; and you shall write them on the doorposts of your house and upon your gates.
Who is like unto thee among the mighty, O Lord?
Who is like unto thee, glorious in holiness, revered in praises, doing marvels?
Thy children beheld thy sovereign power;
'This is my God!' they exclaimed, and said:
'the Lord shall reign forever and ever.'
O Rock of Israel, arise to the help of Israel,
our Redeemer, the Lord of Hosts is his name,
the Holy One of Israel.
Blessed are thou, O Lord,
Blessed is He and blessed is his name,
Who hast redeemed Israel. Amen.

We will sanctify your name in the world just as it is sanctified in the highest heavens
as was written by your prophet:
And they called one to another and said,
'Holy, holy, holy
is the Lord of Hosts,
the whole Earth is full of his glory!'
Thou our most glorious one, O Lord our Lord, how glorious is thy name in all the earth!
Blessed be the glory of the Lord from his place!

One is our God, He is our Father,
He is our King. He is our Saviour; and in his mercy He will let us hear (his promise) in the presence of all living:
The Lord shall reign for ever,
your God, O Zion, for all generations.
Praise ye the Lord!

Let the words of my mouth and my meditation be acceptable before thee,
O Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer. Amen.
Lift up your heads, O ye gates, lift them up, ye everlasting doors,
that the King of glory may enter.
Who is this King of glory?
The Lord of Hosts, He is the King of glory.
Selah.
Moses commanded us the Law,
an inheritance for the congregation of Jacob.
O House of Jacob, let us walk together in the light of the Lord,
Hear O Israel, the Lord is our God,
the Lord is One!
Thine, O Lord, is the greatness and the power,
the glory, the victory and the majesty;
for all that is in heaven and earth is thine, O Lord, thine is the kingdom and the supremacy, thou art master of all.

Magnify the Lord with me and let us exalt his name together:
his grandeur is above earth and heaven;
He has lifted up a horn to his people, to the praise of all who love him,
to the children of Israel, the people near unto him.
Praise ye the Lord!
The Law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul;
the testimony of the Lord is faithful,
making wise the simple;
the precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart.
The reverence of the Lord is pure, enduring for ever.
It is a tree of life to them that grasp it,
and those that uphold it are made happy.
Its ways are pleasant ways and all its paths are peace.

We bow down
and worship and give thanks
before the supreme King of Kings, the Holy One, blessed is He.

On that day will the Lord be One and His name One.

O Rock of Israel, arise to the help of Israel,
our Redeemer, the Lord of Hosts is his name.
the Holy One of Israel.

Lord of the universe, who ruled before anything was created, at the time when all things were made at his wish,
 then was his name proclaimed King.
 And after all things shall have come to an end
 He alone, the revered one, shall reign.
 He was, He is
 and he will be, in glory.
 He is One, and there is no other to compare with him, to consort with him;
 without beginning, without end,
 to him belong power and dominion.
 He is my God—and my Redeemer liveth—and a Rock in my suffering in time of trouble;
 He is my banner and my refuge.
 the portion of my cup on the day when I call.
 Into his hand do I commend my spirit when I sleep and when I awake, and with my spirit my body also;
 the Lord is with me and I shall not fear.

May the Lord bless you and keep you. Amen.
 May the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. Amen.
 May the Lord turn his face unto you and give you peace. Amen.

Program Notes

Memorial by composer René Clausen is based on subject material which reflects the horrific events of September 11, 2001 in New York City and was written in 2003 for the Raymond W. Brock Commission for the American Choral Directors Association National Convention. “Kyrie” is part of the last sub-section of the work entitled “Petitions” and is an introspective musical prayer for mercy, mutual understanding, and hope for the future.

Stabat Mater is one of four sacred choruses Giuseppe Verdi wrote towards the end of his life and is based on a text that dates from the thirteenth century. The first section expresses deep pity for the mother of Christ, as she stands beneath her son’s cross, and anger at those who have caused his death. The poet then prays to the Madonna to allow him to share in her sorrow, with an eye to surviving the Final Judgment. At the end, the poet addresses Christ directly, praying for a place in Paradise. Verdi does not dwell on the words, moving through his text with admirable economy and almost no repetition.

Ernest Bloch was born in Geneva in 1880 and died in Oregon in 1959, and was a man whose varied interests and strong feelings were constantly reflected in his music. It is probably as a ‘Jewish composer’ that he is best known, and although definitions of Jewish music tend to be complex, suffice it to say that there is evidence that his self-styled ‘Jewish works’ contain genuine ethnic traits in both manner and matter.

The six-note motif G-A-C-B-A-G, heard at the very outset, developed within the ecclesiastical Mixolydian mode, and permeating the entire work, has been found in one of Bloch’s early manuscript books, with the comment ‘for a possible Jewish service’ written above it. However, it was not until 1927, while Bloch was a director of the San Francisco Conservatory, that he began to make specific plans with the help of Reuben Rinder, Cantor of the city’s Temple Emmanuel since 1913. As a result of his influence Bloch received a handsome commission from Gerald Warburg (to whom the work is dedicated) to write a Sabbath Morning Service for that Reform congregation, based on the text of the American Union Prayer Book for Jewish Worship. In addition, Bloch received an annual grant from the Stern family (prominent patrons of the Arts in San Francisco) that would last ten years from 1930 on condition that he devote himself exclusively to composition.

It is the text, taken from the Books of Psalms, Deuteronomy, Exodus, Isaiah, Proverbs, and from post-Biblical writings, that provides the formal framework of this, the most expansive of Bloch’s ‘Jewish works,’ set for Cantor (a baritone instead of the more usual tenor), mixed chorus and large orchestra (triple and quadruple wind, sizeable percussion section, celesta, harp and strings). There are five parts, and each is divided into a number of sections, preceded or linked by orchestral preludes or interludes which represent congregational meditation.

Although the overall musical style is akin, in many solo and orchestral passages, to the passionate nature and 'oriental' character of Bloch's earlier Jewish Cycle—as exemplified by the wide dynamic and emotional range, melismatic figures and reiterated notes, exotic scales and modes (containing augmented seconds and fourths) and harmonic patterns (such as parallel perfect fourths and fifths), ostinati and ritual flourishes, 'snap' rhythms, syncopations and cross-accents, and frequent changes of meter—there is nevertheless a clear Western conception in the simplicity and directness of much of the choral writing. This work is a landmark in the evolution of Jewish music.

The first performance was broadcast by Radio Turin on 12 January 1934, and the first performance in England took place on 26 March 1938, when G. D. Cunningham conducted the City of Birmingham Choir and Orchestra, with Roy Henderson as soloist.

William Skoog, conductor

William Skoog is in his second year as Professor of Music, holding the Elizabeth Daughdrill Fine Arts Endowed Chair, serving as Chair of the Department of Music and Director of Choral Studies at Rhodes, where he conducts the Rhodes Singers, Chamber Singers, and the MasterSingers Chorale, performing often with the Memphis Symphony Orchestra. He previously served as Director of Choral Activities at Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green, Ohio; Indiana-Purdue University, Fort Wayne, Indiana; and Southwestern Michigan College, Dowagiac, Michigan.

Dr. Skoog is sought after as a clinician and his choirs have toured nationally and internationally, and performed at various regional, national and international choral festivals including: the Rome International Choral Festival, the Lucerne International Choral Festival, and Dvorak Festivals. He has conducted the Tuscan Chamber Orchestra, the Santa Maria Orchestra (Switzerland), the Prague Radio Symphony Orchestra, the Moravian Symphony Orchestra, and the Memphis, Toledo and Fort Wayne Symphony Orchestras. Earlier this year, Dr. Skoog conducted a special Presidents' Day concert at the Kennedy Center in Washington D.C., and has received an invitation to conduct the Salzburg International Choral Festival in 2012. Skoog holds a Doctor of Arts in Music from the University of Northern Colorado, Master of Arts degrees in conducting and voice pedagogy from the Lamont School of Music, Denver University, and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music and in Theatre from Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minnesota.

Rhodes MasterSingers Chorale History

The Rhodes MasterSingers Chorale is a semi-professional choral ensemble made up of music professionals, community members, faculty, staff, students and choral alumni of Rhodes College. The purpose of the MasterSingers Chorale is embodied in our philosophy:

“Choral performance offers a most personal and universal expression. A singer’s voice is connected to their body, and the sounds made by a choral ensemble are sculpted from the breath of each individual singer and blended into one voice. A choir is the only musical instrument that can present a text in harmony. This harmony creates sonorities of limitless beauty that inspire, challenge, soothe, excite, and delight.”

Since 1993, MasterSingers Chorale has presented major choral-orchestral works throughout the region. In 2004, MasterSingers Chorale made their Carnegie Hall debut with a performance of Morten Lauridsen’s “Madrigali,” “O Magnum Mysterium” and “Lux Aeterna.”

Auditions are held at the beginning of each semester (August and January) in the Rhodes Music Building, Hassell Hall. For more information, please visit our website (www.rhodes.edu/academics/5061.asp).
