LEGACY OF DR. KING

A reception and book signing will follow the program, which is free and open to the public.

Rhodes commemorates the life of Dr. King with a look at how his life and death affected college students and what his legacy has meant in their lives. Prof. James C. Lanier moderates an alumni panel: Bruce Lindsey '70, former senior aide to President Bill Clinton; Gloria Brown Melton '69, associate dean of Student Affairs at Michigan Technological University; Herman Morris '73, president of Memphis Light Gas & Water; Deborah Sale '70, vice president for external affairs at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York; and Gibson "Nibs" Stroupe '68, minister of Oakhurst Presbyterian Church in Decatur, GA.
