Rhodes College

Rhodes is a small college with a broad world perspective. We expect our students to excel academically, participate in leadership and service opportunities on and off campus, conduct themselves with honor, and prepare for rich professional lives where learning never stops. The educational experience we provide is like no other in the country.

Learning at Rhodes, as at most liberal arts colleges, is vested in the hands of the faculty who choose to be here because they value the experience of teaching and mentoring. They are gifted in the classroom and generous with their time outside it. But learning doesn't stop with scheduled classes and office hours. Our outcomes-focused curriculum impels students to take classroom skills into the community, where they connect knowledge with practice and learn effective leadership through service, internships, international travel and research. And it means returning to the classroom with the discoveries, problem-solving skills, contextualization, engagement and motivation they have gained through their experiences.

In the words of Becky Saleska '06, "The lines between 'academic and extracurricular' have been blurred at Rhodes. Gone are the days of morning classes and afternoon activities. Our classes have collided with the real world. We learn through service and we serve through learning. It's the best kind of education we could possibly have."

Rhodes Student Body

- 1,725 students, representing 37 states and 2 foreign countries; 77% from outside of TN; 77% live on campus
- 49% admissions acceptance rate
- Minority students make up 12% of the entering class
- Active Students: 90 student organizations sponsor 250+ events each year; 80% participate in community service; 60% participate in academic internships; 65% participate in sports (27% varsity)

Academics

- Student/faculty ratio: 11:1; Average class size: 15
- 24 departmental and 8 interdisciplinary majors and 27 minors; BA or BS degree, four-year program of study in liberal arts and sciences; MS degree in accounting
- Most popular majors: Business Administration, Biology, Political Science, English and International Studies
- Many study abroad, internship and research opportunities
- Very successful graduates: twice national average acceptance rate to medical school (AMCAS data); over 95% admissions to business, divinity and law schools (Career Services surveys); top employers: Ernst & young, Morgan Keegan, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Teach for America and Youth Villages

General bachelor's degree requirements—128 credits and the ability to:

- Critically examine questions of meaning and value.
- Develop excellence in written communication.
- Understand how historical forces have shaped human cultures.

- Read and interpret literary texts.
- Participate in the analysis of artistic expression or in the performance or production of art.

- Intramural & Club Sports: 65% participate in at least one of 10 club and 8 intramural sports
- NCAA Division III Southern College Athletic Conference

Athletics Facilities

The Bryan Campus Life Center (BCLC) officially opened on March 17, 1997, to Rhodes students, faculty, staff and alumni. The $22 million facility has become the centerpiece of campus life at Rhodes. Within the facility, there is the newly renovated Mallory-Hyde Gymnasium; a 6,900 square foot fitness room; a multi-sports forum that can accommodate basketball, volleyball, baseball, golf, track and tennis; an indoor track; three racquetball courts; two squash courts and six locker rooms. Also within its walls are the Lynx Lair, an upscale snack bar and grill for students, and the McCallum Ballroom for lectures, dances and special events.

Immediately adjacent to the BCLC is Alburty Pool. Originally installed in 1977, Alburty Pool received a new deck and pool house with the construction of the Bryan Campus Life Center. The twenty-five meter pool contains six lanes and is heated. In 1998-99, for the first time, a bubble was placed over the pool to allow the men's and women's intercollegiate swim teams to practice during the winter, as well as provide some additional lap swimming time for students, faculty, and staff.

The Bryan Campus Life Center also has become the nerve center for Rhodes Athletics. Lynx athletes and coaches have substantial locker room, spacious offices and a tremendous training room. The state-of-the-art, 6,900 square foot fitness room combines free weights with resistive cardiovascular equipment to meet a variety of needs for all users. There is also a state-of-the-art sound system and four televisions equipped with cable for users' viewing and listening pleasure. Colleges with fewer than 5,000 students average 1.3 square feet per student in their fitness facilities. Rhodes far exceeds this standard, providing 4.9 square feet per.

Fargason Field is home to Lynx football. All Rhodes home games are played before the 3,300 capacity stadium. The field is settled within the college's newly renovated track facility which boasts one of the region's highest quality outdoor tracks.

Rhodes presently offers alumni memberships to the Bryan Campus Life Center. For more information about the facility and membership availability, contact David Hicks at (901) 843-3438.

SEASON PREVIEW

The Lynx finished the 2006-07 season with a 16-10 overall record and lost 73-68 in the SCAC semi-final round to NCAA Tournament representative Oglethorpe. The Lynx return three starters and 11 letter winners in 07-08. Rhodes is led by senior shooting guard Ashley Farrell (Collierville, TN), who has been selected as a 2007-08 All-American by Women's DIII News magazine. Farrell also was picked as the pre-season Player-of-the-Year for the SCAC by the same publication. Last season Farrell was named to the D3Hoops.com All-South Region team, after averaging 19.0 points per game and a SCAC-leading 3.3 steals per game. Farrell currently ranks fifth in Rhodes women's basketball history in career scoring, with 1,226 points.

Rhodes also returns starting sophomore point guard Becky Atnip (Greenfield, TN) and starting forward Kristen

Lytle (Nashville, TN). Atnip proved she can handle the point guard duties for the Lynx last year. She started the last nine games of the 06-07 season, and averaged 9.5 ppg, 2.1 apg and shot 78.8% from the foul line.

Lytle averaged 9.0 ppg and 4.2 rbg, and shot 34.2% from 3 point range. Senior guard Brittany Solar (Pawcatuck, CT) also started 16 games in 06-07, before an ankle injury limited her minutes the last 10 games. Solar is expected to start again at the wing position and give the Lynx a very experienced back court. In the Lynx three guard offense, Solar can play any of the three spots.

Sophomore guard Becca Clarin (Clarendon Hills, IL) will also compete for a starting guard position in 07-08. As a freshman, Clarin averaged 4.8 points and 2.7 rebounds per contest. Seniors Anne Bradshaw (Houston, TX) and Cameron Whitaker (Elm Grove, WI) will both anchor the post duties. Both Bradshaw and Whitaker received valuable minutes last season, and together this duo will provide the Lynx a solid 1-2 punch in the post.

Senior Haynes Kleimeyer (Peachtree City, GA) will give the Lynx exceptional depth at the power forward spot. Kleimeyer's versatility allows her to play the small forward position and sometimes she will be utilized in the post. Sophomore Jessica Sprenkel (Zionsville, IN) will give the Lynx additional depth at the forward position.

Senior Megan Flatt (Carlisle, IA) and sophomore Lauren Oxner (Memphis, TN) give the Lynx additional depth in the backcourt. Both Flatt and Oxner have the ability to play both guard spots. The Lynx also added five freshman; Lakeya McGill (Lexington, TN), Olivia Ryan (Grey, ME), Shelby Kramer (Germantown, TN), Alyssa Nucaro (Valhalla, NY) and Anna Simpson (Richmond, VA).

MATT DEAN
Head Coach

Matt Dean enters his 6th season as the head women's basketball coach at Rhodes and 16th overall, after leading the Lynx program to a 76-52 overall record during his first five seasons at the helm. In 2005-06 the Lynx finished 18-8 overall advancing to the semifinals of the SCAC tournament and tying the school record for wins in a season. In 2002-03 Dean was named Co-SCAC Coach of the Year after the Lynx finished 15-9 and third in the SCAC. Dean returned to Memphis four years ago after a one-year stint as the head men's coach at Denison University.

During that season in Ohio, he led the Big Red to its first NCAC conference tournament appearance in 4 years, and helped Denison win seven conference games and record its best conference finish since 1997-98. Prior to that, Dean was an assistant coach in the Rhodes men's program for 9 seasons--during which time the Lynx posted a 152-74 record, including a NCAA tournament appearance in 1993.

A native of Davenport, Iowa, Dean graduated from Drake Univ. in 1989 with a bachelor of arts degree in Broadcast News Journalism. He earned his master of science degree in Higher Education Administration from Drake in 1991 after serving 2 years as a graduate assistant in recreational services.

Dean's collegiate coaching career also includes guiding the Rhodes women's field hockey program as head coach from 1999-2000. He led the Lynx to a school-best overall record of 10-7 in 2000. Prior to that, he also served as head coach of the women's golf program, leading the Lynx to a SCAC Conference championship and earning the SCAC "Coach of the Year" award in 1996.

Coach Dean and his wife, Julie (also a Drake graduate), have two sons--Tyler (12) and Ryan (8).

AMIE CAHILL
Assistant Coach

Amie Cahill starts her first season as the women's assistant basketball coach at Rhodes College. In May of 2007 Amie graduated from Rhodes College after playing four years of Varsity Women's Basketball under Head Coach Matt Dean. A starter since her sophomore year Amie was named Captain by the coaching staff and her fellow players for her junior and senior year. As an assistant coach Amie will continue to help lead the Rhodes Women's Basketball Team.

Amie attended Rhodes College as a pre-medicine Biology major and English minor, receiving a Bachelor's of Science degree upon graduation. During her year as Assistant Coach Amie will also be applying to medical school

JOHNNY AUSTIN
Assistant Coach

Johnny Austin enters his sixth year as a member of the women's basketball coaching staff in 2006-07. As an assistant basketball coach, Austin joins Coach Matt Dean on the sidelines for the 3rd time (and 3rd sport) during his 16-year tenure at Rhodes. In 1996, Austin was a part of the Rhodes women's golf coaching staff and the first SCAC title for the women's golf program. In 2001, Austin also joined the field hockey coaching staff, and was a part of the 2001 KIT championship. Austin is employed full-time at Rhodes as a Commander in the Campus Safety Division.

DREW GIBSON
Head Athletic Trainer

Drew Gibson enters his first years as the Lynx Head Athletic Trainer for the 2007-08 season after serving as the assistant trainer last year. Gibson graduated from the University of Memphis in 2001 with a degree in exercise science, where worked with the football and baseball teams as a student trainer. He also served as a training camp intern with the Miami Dolphins in 1999. Gibson recently completed his Masters in Sports Psychology at Murray State University, where he worked with the women's basketball and baseball programs. Drew, 26, is a Certified Athletic Trainer and resides in Memphis.

Coach Dean: "An excellent rebounder and defender, Jess will compete for minutes at the backup power forward position. She has increased her shooting range and strength since last season. Jess has nice post moves and can play in the high post or on the block."

Coach Dean: "Cameron will get quality minutes at the center position in 07-08. She has improved her back to the basket part of her game, and has the ability to face the basket and shoot with great range. We will need the continued development of Cameron if we are to reach our potential as a team this year."

SOUTHERN COLLEGIATE ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

SCAC PROFILE

The Southern collegiate Athletic Conference (SCAC) was formed to provide an association through which the member institutions may encourage organized competition in intercollegiate sports among teams representative of their respective student bodies. Members of this conference share a commitment to priority of the overall quality of academic standards and quality educational experiences.

The conference was founded and began operation on September 1, 1962, as the College Athletic Conference (CAC). Centre College, Southwestern at Memphis (Tennessee) (now known as Rhodes College), The University of the South (Sewanee), and Washington and Lee University were the four charter members of the conference. Later in 1962, Washington University of St. Louis became the fifth member and the CAC remained unchanged until 1972.

Following membership changes throughout the 1970s and 1980s, the conference went through restructuring and renaming. With the addition of Millsaps College and Trinity University in 1988 and Hendrix College and Oglethorpe University in 1991, membership reached a then all-time high of eight. In 1991, the conference renamed itself the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference, its first full-time commissioner Steve Argo was hired, and a conference office was established in Atlanta, Georgia. The SCAC added Southwestern University in 1993 with participation beginning in the 1994-95 academic year. In 1997-98, the SCAC added DePauw University with participation beginning in 1998-99.

Just this past year, Austin College and Colorado College were confirmed as members of the league with participation beginning in the 2006-07 academic year. Birmingham-Southern College has been approved as the 12th member of the SCAC with play in 2007-08.

The conference and its member institutions are committed to maintaining high academic standards. The member institutions are committed to the principle that a quality college athletics program is beneficial to the well-being of an institution in that it benefits the entire campus community as well as the student-athletes.

With nine member institutions maintaining Phi Beta Kappa chapters on their campuses, the SCAC boasts some of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the nation. SCAC schools are consistently ranked among the top 50 colleges and universities in the nation in such respected publications as Barron's, Peterson's, Princeton Review and National Review College Guide.

SCAC member institutions maintain consistent enrollments through very selective admissions standards and continuing quality education.
