

MY YEARS IN CUBA

Margaret Randall

Lecture: Thursday, October 11, 7 p.m. - Blount Auditorium

Poetry Reading: Friday, October 12, Noon - Barret 034

Acclaimed writer, poet, feminist and gender activist

Margaret Randall reads from and discusses her memoir, My Years in Cuba.

*Randall, who lived in Cuba from 1968 - 1979, is the author of more than 100
books of poetry, prose, essays and photography.*

Sponsored by: The Departments of English, Anthropology and Sociology, and Gender and Sexuality Studies, and the Spence L. Wilson Chair in the Humanities

Free and open to the public

Rhodes College
—1848—