Briggs Student Center Dedication

MAY INAUGURATION OF DR. DAVID ALEXANDER

THE THOMAS W. BRIGGS STUDENT CENTER, located on the site of old Fargason Field, will be dedicated on May 2.

MAY 6-7-8

ALUMNI DAY PROGRAM

The first weekend in May is a big one for all alumni. This is the weekend planned for the Alumni Day program. It begins on Friday night, May 6, with an informal reception at 8:00 p.m. in the East Lounge of the Thomas W. Briggs Student Center. Honored guests will be members of the Class of 1916, who are celebrating their 50th reunion.

Saturday, May 7, is the day for election of officers for reunion classes and for the executive council of the Alumni Association. At 12:30 p.m. there will be a luncheon for the Class of 1941 in the Catherine Burrow Refectory. At this time another luncheon will be held for the Class of 1916 in the Bell Room. Following these luncheons, there will be a campus tour, which will leave from Burrow Library about 2:00 p.m.

At 1:00 p.m. Southwestern will play a baseball game on the campus. There should be some exciting moments for avid fans.

A party on the Thomas W. Briggs Student Center patio will be held from 5-6 p.m., honoring special 5th year reunion classes (1896, 1901, 1906, 1911, 1916, 1921, 1926, 1931, 1936, 1941, 1946, 1951, 1956, and 1961). All alumni are cordially invited to attend.

Alumni Supper

Next on the agenda is an alumni supper to be held in Mallory Gymnasium at 6:30 p.m. Members of special reunion classes will be seated at reserved tables. The informal gathering will be welcomed by President Alexander, followed by a talk by Mr. James W. (Jasper) Wood '41, district chairman of the Alumni Challenge Campaign in Nashville, Tennessee.

From 8:30 to midnight there will be a dance at the University Club honoring the members of the class of 1941 and companion classes. Admission is $1.50 per person.

On Sunday, May 8, a church service will be held at 11:00 a.m. in Hardie Auditorium for members of the Class of 1941 and their families, with the Reverend Mr. Jac Ruffin conducting the service. All alumni are welcome.

It is hoped that all alumni will be able to attend this year's Alumni Day weekend, chat with former classmates, visit the campus and see the new Student Center, attend the activities planned, and in general, just have a good time.

The inauguration of Dr. David Alexander '53 as Southwestern's sixteenth president will take place on May 3, 1966.

The dedication of the Thomas Winston Briggs Student Center will take place at 2:00 p.m. on Monday, May 2, after which the building will be open for tours.

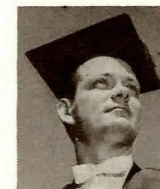

Shannon to Speak

At a banquet in the Briggs Student Center on May 2, Dr. Edgar F. Shannon, Jr., President of the University of Virginia, will deliver an address.

The following morning, Tuesday, May 3, registration of official delegates will begin at 8:30 on the first floor of the Richard Halliburton Memorial Tower. At 10:00 a.m., Dr. W. Taylor Reveley, president of Hampden-Sydney College, will address a convocation in Evergreen Presbyterian Church. Dr. Reveley taught at Southwestern 1946-49, 1952-63, and served as Dean of Admissions from 1961 to 1963.

Inaugural Luncheon

A luncheon for official delegates, their wives, and other guests will be held at noon on May 3 in the Neely Mallory Memorial Gymnasium.

The impressive academic procession will move from Palmer Hall at 2:00 p.m. to the south terrace of the Richard Halliburton Tower, where the inaugural convocation will take place. This will be followed at 4:00 p.m. by a reception on the Palmer Hall terrace.

Working long hours to ensure the success of Dr. Alexander's inauguration, is the inaugural executive committee composed of Dr. Fred Neal, Dr. Jack Russell and Dr. M. L. MacQueen '19, supported by a large number of faculty and staff members, their wives, alumni, students and members of the Board of Directors.

Chemistry Ph.D. Degrees

Southwestern's chemistry department can boast the largest number of majors, compared with other departments, to continue in graduate school and receive the coveted Ph.D. degree. Nineteen Southwestern chemistry majors share the honor, according to Dr. Raymond T. Vaughn, department chairman, and the latest records on file in the alumni office.

Following are our Ph.D. chemistry alumni, their Southwestern class years, their graduate schools, and years that the graduate degrees were received:

Jack P. Montgomery '99—U. of Va. '03; George M. Rawlins, Jr. '25—George Peabody College '34; James Ogden Baine (deceased) '31—New York U. '35; Charles F. Simmons '32—Ohio State '37; Harold G. Cooke, Jr. '36—U. of Ill. '40; Edward Charles Hermann '42—M.I.T. '49; Henry D. Baldrige, Jr. '44—U. of Calif. '50; William F. Symes '47—Columbia '51; Robert Earl Stobaugh '47—U. of Tenn. '52; David M. Vaught '49—U. of Utah '63; John D. Pera '49—U. of Ind. '60; Harris E. Petree '51—M.I.T. '55; Elizabeth Faye Sinclair '51—Duke '56; Richard D. Gilliom '56—M.I.T. '60; Morris T. Reagan '59-'60—Johns Hopkins '65; Lawrence A. Fury '60—Vanderbilt '64; Rann Lawton Vaulx '60—Duke '64; Harvey Gene Anderson '61—Duke '65; and John Jacobus '62—U. of Tenn. '65.

"To Meet Tomorrow"

A fifteen-minute 16mm sound/color movie, "To Meet Tomorrow," is presently available to alumni groups, churches and civic organizations at no charge.

Interested groups or individuals may write, or call collect, the Office of Public Relations at Southwestern.

FACULTY NEWS DOCTORAL DEGREES

Two professors have recently been added to the list of Southwestern professors who hold Ph.D. degrees. They are Charles G. Oakes, assistant professor of sociology and present acting chairman of the department of sociology and anthropology, and Julius W. Melton, Jr., assistant professor of Bible and religion.

Dr. Oakes received his B.A. and M.A. degrees in sociology from the University of California at Berkeley, and his Ph.D. from Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. In addition to his position at Southwestern, Dr. Oakes is on the faculty of the University of Tennessee College of Medicine in the department of preventive medicine, where he is a research medical sociologist.

Dr. Melton holds a B.A. degree from Mississippi College, and B.D. and Th.M. degrees from Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia. He studied at the graduate school of Ecumenical Studies of the University of Geneva, Switzerland, and received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Princeton University. He is an ordained minister and a member of the Central Mississippi Presbytery, Presbyterian Church, U. S.

NEWCOMERS TO FACULTY

Two new professors have joined the faculty of Southwestern for the spring semester. They are Mr. Kevin R. Cadigan, acting assistant professor of history, and Mr. Michael Eisenstadt, visiting instructor in classics.

Mr. Cadigan, born in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, received his B.S. degree from Northwestern University, and M.A. from Michigan State University. He has completed three years of work toward his doctoral dissertation, which he is writing for Oxford University.

Cadigan

Mr. Cadigan is a member of two academic honorary fraternities, Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Alpha Theta. He held the Beit Senior Research Scholarship at Oxford University for the period 1963-65.

He and his wife Judith live at 649 University.

Michael Eisenstadt, who is a native of Brooklyn, New York, received his A.B. degree from Brooklyn College and his A.M. from Harvard. His particular field of research is Pre-Socratic Philosophers and Plato.

Eisenstadt

Mr. Eisenstadt was a teaching assistant at Harvard from 1961 to 1963, and a teaching assistant at the University of Texas from 1964 to 1966.

DR. MacQUEEN RETIRES

Dr. Marion L. MacQueen, for many years chairman of the mathematics department, will retire this June. Dr. MacQueen, who holds the E. C. Ellett Chair, received his B.A. degree from Southwestern in 1919, his M.A. from the University of Wisconsin in 1923 where he was an instructor, and his Ph.D. from the University of Chicago in 1933.

Dr. MacQueen is the senior member of the faculty in point of service, having taught at Southwestern Presbyterian University in Clarksville and moved with the college to Memphis in 1925.

Dr. MacQueen is active in many organizations and is a member of various honorary societies. A Phi Beta Kappa, he is also a member of Sigma Xi, Chi Beta Phi and Gamma Alpha, national honorary scientific fraternities. He belongs to the American Mathematical Society, the Mathematical Association of America, the National Council of Teachers of Mathematics, the Tennessee Mathematics Teachers' Association and the Tennessee Academy of Science.

He served in 1959-60 as Director of an In-Service Institute for high school mathematics teachers sponsored by the National Science Foundation. He has taught in summer institutes for high school teachers of mathematics at Memphis State University and the University of Tennessee. He served as secretary of the faculty from 1945 to 1965, and as chairman of the faculty committee on Research and Creative Activity since 1949. For a number of years he has also served as college archivist.

Dr. MacQueen and his wife, the former Grace Gilfillan '27, live at 637 McConnell Street in Memphis. They have two sons, Leigh '55 and Robert '60.

After working hours, Dr. MacQueen busies himself with gardening, carpentry, and design of printed booklets and pamphlets. He has written many papers and articles for scientific journals.

After retiring at Southwestern, he plans to teach a course in mathematics for high school teachers for about eight weeks during the summer at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Next fall he will become a visiting professor of mathematics at Hampden-Sydney College in Hampden-Sydney, Virginia.

SITTING PRETTY

The distinctive Early American chairs shown below with the Southwestern seal in gold and cardinal red may be purchased in the office of the Dean of Alumni and Development, Dr. Alfred O. Canon. Designed for use in the homes or offices of Southwestern alumni, they are made of Northern Yellow Birch with DULUX ebony semi-gloss finish and trimmed with thin gold lines.

The Boston Rocker, which is priced to alumni for $30.00 plus freight, is a new addition to our stock and makes a comfortable chair for living room or den. It measures 22¾ inches between arms.

The Arm Chair comes with either cherry arms at a price of $35.00 plus freight, or with black arms at $33.00 plus freight. It measures 20 inches across the seat. The Side Chair is 17 inches in width and sells for $21.00 plus freight.

WILKINSON ELECTED

Russel S. Wilkinson, president of Wilkinson and Snowden, Incorporated, a Memphis real estate and investment firm, has been elected to the Executive Committee of Southwestern. The announcement came from A. Van Pritchardt, chairman of the Executive Committee and Board of Directors.

Wilkinson

Mr. Wilkinson, an elder at Idlewild Presbyterian Church, is chairman of the Master Gifts Division of Southwestern's Ford Challenge Campaign.

He was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy and served as Commander of a naval carrier during World War II. In 1942 he was an associate professor of naval science and tactics at Tulane University.

Mr. Wilkinson is chairman of the Board of Directors of Downtowner, Inc., and is a member of the Board of Directors of Parkview Manor.

Married to the former Teresa Lilly '35, the Wilkinsons have a daughter, Terry, who will be graduated from Memphis Central High School in June.

Professor Identified

The February issue of the Southwestern News featured a photograph of the 1929-30 faculty. One member of the group was nameless in the caption, but has since been identified by a number of alumni. He is Horace B. Davis, economics, who is dean of the faculty of the social sciences, University of Guiana, Georgetown, British Guiana.

Phi Beta Kappa Awards

Alumni Membership

Recently elected to alumni membership of Phi Beta Kappa by the Southwestern chapter are two Southwestern graduates, Professor James E. Roper '48 and Dr. William Harlin McBurney '40.

Mr. Roper, Associate Professor of English at Southwestern, received his master's degree from Yale.

Dr. McBurney received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard, and is currently Professor of English Literature at the University of Illinois.

Alumni membership in Phi Beta Kappa is based on a period of not less than ten years as an alumnus, clear evidence of the possession of distinguished scholarly capacities, and by contribution in the humane sciences or pure literature.

Members-In-Course

Ten Southwestern seniors, including four Memphians, have been elected members-in-course of Phi Beta Kappa, a national honorary scholastic society recognizing outstanding men and women who have completed a minimum of seven semesters, with a cumulative grade average of at least 3.5.

The high honor was bestowed upon: Susan Mayer, Edward Scrimger, Jr., Michael Utley, and Raymond Vaughn, all of Memphis, Carolyn Crane of Jackson, Tenn., Myra Cowan of Nashville, Tenn., Harriet Hall of Belzoni, Mississippi, Lona Martin of El Dorado, Ark., Harold May of Little Rock, Ark., and Charles McLean III of Sheffield, Ala.

Former Board Members

Two former members of Southwestern's Board of Directors passed away recently.

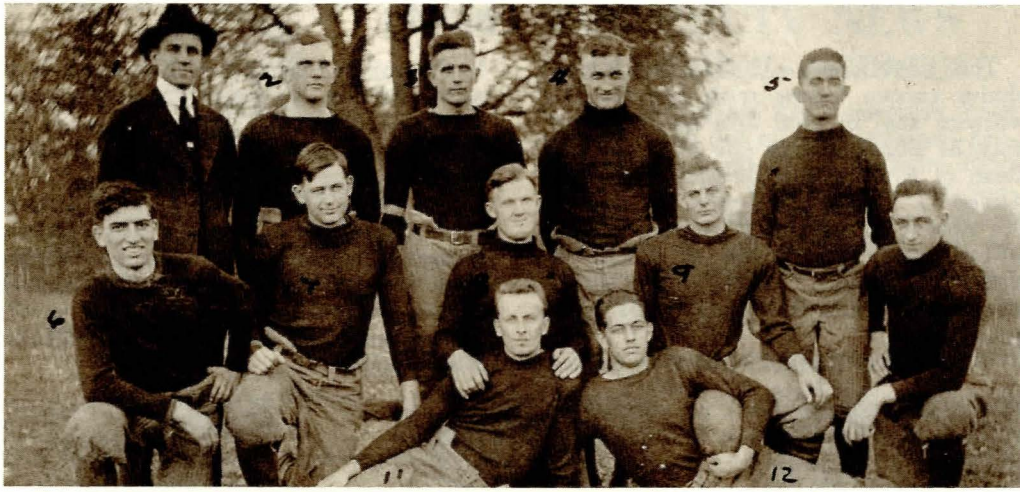

Mrs. Everarde Jones, Sr. of Tchula, Mississippi, the first woman from Mississippi to serve as a member of Southwestern's Board, died in early January. She served from 1951 to 1963. Her son, Everarde Jones, Jr., is a member of the class of 1945.

Mr. Robert Ewing Harwell of Nashville, Tennessee, who served as a Board member from 1950 to 1958, died on February 14 in Greenfield, Mass., while he and his wife were visiting a son.

It is with deep regret that we write of the tragic death of Frances McDonald McGregor '62 (Mrs. John M.). Frances and her mother, Mrs. F. P. McDonald of Mobile, were passengers on the BOAC jet airliner that plunged into Mt. Fuji on March 5, killing all 124 aboard. Mrs. McDonald had won a trip for two in a sales competition, and had invited Frances to accompany her. They left Memphis for San Francisco on February 24, and were due back March 15.

Frances was married to John McGregor on December 28, 1965 in Mobile's Central Presbyterian Church. John is a member of the faculty of Tech High School, where Frances taught English and was the faculty sponsor for the senior class, charged with supervising all class activities. They made their home at 38 North Idlewild, Apt. 12, in Memphis.

1915 SOUTHWESTERN PRESBYTERIAN UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL TEAM: (1) Robert E. Carroll, mgr., (2) Samuel D. Griffith, (3) Benton L. Boykin, (4) Ben N. Shaw, (5) Jonnie E. Cardwell, (6) Benjamin L. Wallace, (7) William H. McAtee, (8) David S. Archibald, (9) Jack W. Sargent, (10) John A. Edmiston, (11) Joshua S. Lack and (12) Coleaton U. Leach, capt. (Photo courtesy of Mrs. J. V. Cobb, Sr.)

Additional Student Center Grant

Mrs. Thomas W. Briggs and the Thomas W. Briggs Foundation have donated $50,000 to Southwestern, according to President Alexander. This sum, one-half presented by Mrs. Briggs and one-half by the Foundation, will be utilized by the college in the completion of the Thomas W. Briggs Student Center. Mrs. Rosanne Beringer is President of the Foundation, as well as Welcome Wagon International.

The beautiful collegiate Gothic structure is named as a memorial to Mr. Briggs, founder and former president of Welcome Wagon International. He passed away in March, 1964.

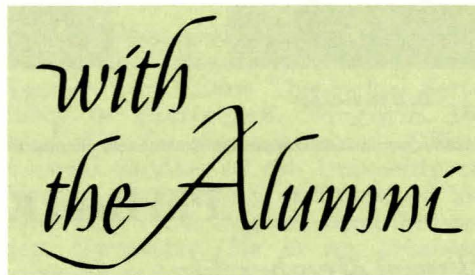

A 34-acre tract of land, given to the college by Mr. Briggs and sold for the appraised value of $370,000, made the Center possible.

Additional funds for the two-and-a-half story Student Center were provided by students, parents of former and current students, other friends of the college, and alumni.

LOYALTY FUND NOTICE

In the June, 1964 issue of the Southwestern News it was announced that the Southwestern Loyalty Fund would operate on a fiscal year basis, effective July 1, 1964. This is to remind all our alumni that records on alumni giving to the Loyalty Fund are being kept by the fiscal year (July 1 through June 30). Gifts received during this period will be reported for the fiscal year beginning and ending on these dates.

55th Reunion May 7!

Samuel Edgar McFadden is a Presbyterian minister, living at 301 Marginal Street in Somerville, Tenn. He earned his B.D. at the Louisville Presbyterian Seminary in 1914 and was honored with the D.D. by Southwestern in 1933. His favorite hobby is flower-gardening. He and Mrs. McFadden are the parents of two sons and two daughters. Both sons, Samuel E. McFadden, Jr., Ph.D. of Gainesville, Florida, and W. James McFadden, of Atlanta, are alumni, and one daughter, Mrs. Collier S. Harvey, Jr. (Betty Ann McFadden), of Kingsport, Tenn., is a Southwestern graduate.

Class of 1916

50th Reunion May 6, 7, 8!

Tyrone T. Williams, Box 5, Tunica, Mississippi, writes that he is planning to attend the alumni activities in connection with the reunion May 6-8.

Sidney Venable, executive secretary of the Homes of New Castle Presbytery, Inc., Wilmington, Delaware, and recently retired General Presbyter of the New Castle Presbytery, has written to say that he is hoping to be able to come, if a fund-raising campaign will permit.

Class of 1926

40th Reunion May 7!

Jack Redhead is to be the speaker at Idlewild Presbyterian Church during Holy Week, preaching at 7:30 on the evenings of April 4, 5, and 6. Pastor of the Frist Presbyterian Church in Greensboro, N. C., and one of the outstanding speakers in the Presbyterian Church, U. S., he will receive a warm welcome from his myriad Memphis friends and admirers.

Class of 1929

John Kimbrough Johnson has accepted appointment as chaplain to the U. T. Medical Units in Memphis and the hospital community, after having served for ten years as associate pastor of Idlewild Church. He holds the B.D. and Th.M. degrees from Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary and was honored with the D.D. by Centre College. The Johnsons live at 2240 Jefferson . . . she is the former Katherine Griffith. There are four other couples in the class who are married to fellow '29ers. They are Anne (Gilliland) and Brice Draper, 47 Treeborough Drive, West Hartford, Conn.; Dorothy (Vanden) and Leroy DuBard, 2965 South Pharr Court, N.W., Apt. 806, Atlanta; Lucy (Farrow) and Warner Hall (Warner has a Ph.D. from the University of Edinburgh and the D.D. from Southwestern) of 727 Queens Road, Charlotte, N. C.; and Minnie (Lundy) and Walker Wellford, 135 St. Alban's Fairway, Memphis.

Class of 1930

Margaret McKinstry Yost (Mrs. William), 3633 Cowden Avenue, is listed in the current edition of "Who's Who of American Women." After graduation from Southwestern, Margaret obtained a degree in library science from Emory University in 1932. She was desk assistant at Cossitt Library from 1927-31; branch library assistant, New York Public Library System, in 1932; high school librarian for Memphis city schools from 1932-36; librarian, Southern College of Optometry, 1936-40; reference librarian, Arkansas Library Common, 1951-58; serials librarian at Memphis State University from 1958-60; assistant librarian at Mooney Memorial Library, University of Tennessee Medical Units, 1960-61; and has been associate librarian there since 1962. Her husband was the late William Franklin Yost, D.D.S., and she is the mother of a son, W. F., Jr. (his wife, incidentally, is a Southwestern alumna also), and of a daughter, Margaret.

Class of 1931

35th Reunion May 7!

Jeff Davis was recently named to the board of directors of the Bank of Georgia in Atlanta. He is vice president and general counsel for Southern Bell Tel. & Tel. in Atlanta, president of YMCA of metropolitan Atlanta, teaches the Men's Bible Class at First Presbyterian Church, and is active in various professional organizations as well as being an avid fisherman. Mrs. Davis is the former Jerdone Kimbrough, class of 1934. They live at 3651 Rembrandt Road N.W. in Atlanta, and are the parents of two sons and one daughter.

Erle Howry, co-owner of one of Memphis' most successful book stores, The Book Shelf in Poplar-Highland Plaza, recently announced the opening of a downtown branch. Located at 148 Madison, the downtown Book Shelf features technical, business, and merchandising books, in addition to current fiction and non-fiction trade books. Manager is Robert Metcalf III '64.

Lucille Work Ingram (Mrs. R. A.), 630 South Perkins Road, recently informed us that Frances Arthur MacLeod (Mrs. Malcolm L.), 14201 N.W. 17th Avenue, Miami, has co-edited a book, "Reading Forward—An Approach to Writing," published in 1965 by the Wadsworth Publishing Co. of Belmont, Calif. Both Frances and her co-editor, Josephine Curto, teach at the Miami-Dade Junior College. Their book is a compilation of material designed to be used in writing classes. Lucille says she is hoping to get Frances here for our 35th Class Reunion on Alumni Day, May 7.

Harold Ohlendorf of Osceola, Ark., a member of the board of directors of the National Cotton Council of America since 1960, was recently re-elected to another term. The election was held at the Council's annual meeting in Jacksonville, Fla.

Class of 1932

Newly elected vice-president of the Memphis Real Estate Board is Franny Durham Etter (Mrs. Barton). Franny and Marjorie Raymond Coleman (Mrs. F. Woodrow) '33 are partners in the firm of Coleman-Etter, one of Memphis' outstanding realty companies, located at 111 Racine.

Paul Tudor Jones attended the annual conference of the North American Area Council of the Alliance of Reformed and Presbyterian Churches, held in January in Atlantic City. The Council is an international group made up of representatives of 12 Reformed and Presbyterian churches of the U. S., Canada, and the Caribbean. Memphis was selected as the site of the 1967 meeting of the group. Accompanying Paul was his wife, "T" (Hudson).

Class of 1934

Ruth Park Simmons (Mrs. Ed) is educational chairman for the National Women's Council of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. One of Memphis' best known women realtors, Ruth owns and operates her own company, located in the Mid-South Building, and since 1960 has taught real estate principles in extension courses at the University of Tennessee. She was named Saleswoman of the Year in 1954 by the Memphis Real Estate Board, and in 1963 and 1964 was a member of the board of directors of that organization. In 1961 she was the recipient of the Outstanding Alumni Service award from Southwestern, and she is one of four Memphis alumnae listed in "Who's Who of American Women," IV Edition, 1966-67. In her capacity as educational chairman for the National Women's Council, Ruth will prepare educational programs on all phases of real estate, which will be presented to women real estate agents all over the country. Ruth will attend special meetings in Chicago in May and Miami in November. Ruth married a fellow member of the class—she and Edward are the parents of a son, Edward Dana Simmons, Jr.

Delegates to the 134th annual convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Tennessee named a 12-member diocesan bishop and council, including clergy and lay leaders from all areas of Tennessee. Two lay members and two clerical delegates were picked to serve terms varying from one to four years on the council under a reorganization program. Future members will be elected to four-year terms. Charlie Crump was named to the council, and he and Shep Tate '39 were named delegates to the 1967 General Convention.

Robert Johnson was in a group of Memphians who went down to the opening of Holiday Inns of America's multi-million-dollar motel at Freeport, Grand Bahama, last October. In his delightful "Good Evening!" column in the February 22nd "Press-Scimitar" he wrote, in part, "Wednesday night through late Sunday afternoon, I was fortunate enough to revisit. This island, its development, has fascinated me for more than two years, since I first learned what was happening there. I not only wanted the sun, sand, and sea, but was also curious to know what had happened since last fall. Well, it's fantastic, the sea is still there and the beautiful beach. Sailboats cruise off shore with colorful sails, and there was one rig zipping up and down with a man dangling from a parachute. All the fun and sun is still there, the pace of the island is quicker. There are Memphians all over the place, behind the scenes. Saturday night was incredible . . . every room on the island was filled . . . When I was there before there were a score or so of people swimming or sunning by the pool. Now the patio is thronged . . . Little pink and green and blue houses are springing up. Before, I had questioned some Negro natives about how they felt about this sudden influx of foreigners with their money and luxury, and some were not too happy about it, telling me they still lived in slums. This time I talked with a cab driver who owned his own cab, owned his own three-bedroom brick home, he told me proudly. Housing for the natives was part of their discontent, Kemmons Wilson, ("Mr. Holiday Inns") told me they know the problem, are starting out with a model village of houses which would exceed FHA standards in this country, selling from $4,000 to the $10,000 range, and you couldn't buy them for that in this country. There are smart shops, and prices are still reasonable for the most part."

Word came in February from Charlie

Maxey, 305 Baker, Webster Groves, Mo., that he and Mrs. Maxey, with their daughter Susan (17) and son "CLM, III" had spent the Christmas holidays with Jane Randall ("Randy") Maxey, their eldest and a member of the class of 1967, who is taking her Junior Year at the University of Hawaii. Charlie wrote. "We hit the Big Island (Hawaii) two days after eruptions and assorted earthquakes. Luckily the National Park men had dumped a lot of old lava in the fissures (road cracked from 1 foot to 6 feet and we were the third car allowed through. Blinding sulphur smoke was still coming up through the cracks, but we crawled and choked our way through). Coming back we took Chip to Disneyland, Rose Parade and game. Sat next to LSU lady professor who had been co-hostess with Helen Gordon the week before in Baton Rouge."

Charlotte Stange Grider (Mrs. John M.), 587 South Belvedere, is another distinguished alumna whose name appears in the Fourth Edition, 1966-67, of "Who's Who of American Women." Secretary and director of Arco, Inc., realtors since 1962, Charlotte owned and operated the realty firm of Byrd-Stange Co. during the ten preceding years. She is a former second vice president and director of the Real Estate Board of Memphis, a past president of the Women's Council of the Real Estate Board, and a past regional vice-president, governor, and state president of the Women's Council of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. In 1951 she was chosen as Tri Delta's "Woman of the Year." Charlotte was married in 1936 to the late William H. Byrd, who was killed in a plane crash eight years later. Their children are: Bill, Margaret (Mrs. Roy Barnes), Bob, and Patsy (Mrs. M. S. Pintchuck), a former student at Southwestern. In January, 1965, Charlotte was married to Capt. Grider, USN, ret.

Class of 1938

Lewis R. Donelson III is general counsel for the first Negro-controlled legal reserve life insurance company in the South, which held its initial board meeting in Mobile in January. Mobile was announced as headquarters for the American Professional Life Insurance Co., organized last July. It already has $2.5 million of insurance in force.

Class of 1939

Al Wunderlich was cited as Memphis' Outstanding Citizen of 1965. The honor was presented by the Civitan Club, which cited him for "a lifetime of extraordinary dedication to family, church, business and to meeting the needs of mankind and community," and gave him an engraved plaque commemorating the citation. Among those paying tribute to him were Dr. Peyton N. Rhodes and Robert M. Metcalf '36. In March, Al was being congratulated upon his election as the new president of Memphis Rotary Club. Joe Patten, Jr. was elected treasurer in the same election.

Class of 1940

A letter from Lizette (McCall '43) and (Dr. Ralph Bethea, Baptist Hospital, Box 723, Mbeya, Tanzania, told of Ralph's treating 170 patients in one day in an area four hours drive from Mbeya. He was accompanied by a missionary to preach, an African pastor to teach, a male nurse to heal, and someone to pass out tracts and Bibles. They stayed overnight, sleeping on cots set up in the mud-brick, dirt floor Baptist church. Ralph said this area was a very poor one and the people who were able paid a flat fee of 45 cents to be treated. His comment was, "So many and such very sick people." The letter continued, telling of two Masais patient converts among the 125 inpatients in the hospital at Mbeya, one of whom had returned to the door steps of the hospital saying, "Teach me more so that I can go and preach to my tribe." Lizette wrote, "Although he still wears his tribal markings of the long stretched ear lobe, and the characteristic tribal statue of a tall slender and brave warrior, he no longer wears his one-piece coverlet of red cloth, or his long hair coated with cow dung or his body painted with red ochre. Now he returns to his atheistic tribe carrying a Bible instead of a spear, bearing a brilliant smile in place of a hard crusted stare." The Betheas, with their six sons, have been in Tanzania, where Ralph is a medical missionary, for the past year. The preceding year they were on sabbatical leave in Memphis, after four years in Indonesia.

Bill McBurney is one of the two alumni recently elected to membership in the Southwestern Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa and, as the "News" went to press, planned to be present for initiation ceremonies in late March. 25th Reunion Celebration May 6, 7, 8!

Class Reunion Committee has met several times and is planning a BIG reunion weekend, highlights of which are these: 1941 Class Luncheon at 12:30, Saturday, May 7; guided campus tour immediately following the luncheon; double-header baseball game, on campus at 1:00 p.m.; patio party for ALL alumni at 5:15 on the patio of the Briggs Student Center; annual Alumni Supper (with our class all seated together) in the gymnasium at 6:30; dutch treat dance at the University Club from 9 till midnight with our "companion" classes (1938-44) particularly invited to join us; and, on Sunday morning, a family church service in Hardie Auditorium at 11 o'clock.

The Class Luncheon is always a favorite part of the 25th reunion—all class members and their husbands/wives are guests of the college on this occasion, and specially invited guests are professors who were here "in our day." Frank England will be our master of ceremonies and Billy Murphy the star speaker. Frances Manire Winchester, Elizabeth Ricker Wallace, Elise Smithwick Miles, and Ki Farnsworth Cavender are working on some other entertainment which promises to be hilarious, and maybe a bit nostalgic too. The piece de resistance at the supper will be the address, not long, mind you, given by one of our illustrious class members, none other than James Wayman ("Jasper") Wood, eminent C.L.U., now of Nashville. After the dinner we move on to the University Club and a combo playing the music of the forties. And, in case that's not enough to stir fond memories, we'll be joined by members of all the classes who were in college with us, and Pat Davis and his committee will be in charge of further entertainment, which we predict no one will want—or, indeed, would dare—to miss. Henry Boothe is chairman of arrangements for the Sunday morning family church services, and Jac Ruffin, pastor of Natchez's First Presbyterian Church, will deliver the sermon. We hope all of you will have your reservations in for the entire weekend!

Class of 1944

She and her husband and three children live at 113 Rolling Green Road in Greenville.

Class of 1947

Dr. Milton Addington, a consulting psychologist for business and industry, has an unusual hobby — he writes songs, mostly rock 'n' roll. Composing since he was a child, "Mitt" has had between 25 and 30 recordings and has collaborated frequently with Allen Reynolds '60. Along with Dr. Bob Cannon, Mitt has written a children's Christmas song entitled "Elmer the Elf" which has been around about two years. They are planning to publish a book to go along with the record next year. Mitt did the vocal himself and it is performed by him and the Merrymakers. When asked whether any of his clients looked askance at a psychologist who writes rock 'n' roll, he replied, "They have their hobbies, and they don't mind mine. I want to make it clear that I don't spend all my time writing songs—just about one night a month." The Addingtons live at 5372 Dee Cove with their two children, Brent, 13, and Anita, 4.

Class of 1948
