

Rhodes College and the Department of International Studies

Present

Ambassador
Victor H. Ashe

“Poland’s New Role in Europe Today”

February 16, 2010

7 p.m.

Rhodes College

Frazier Jelke B

Victor H. Ashe was the 24th U.S. Ambassador to Poland. He graduated from Yale University with a BA in History and received his law degree from the University of Tennessee College of Law. Ambassador Ashe’s history of public service includes serving 31 years in Tennessee state and city elective offices. Most recently, he has been nominated by President Barack Obama to the Broadcasting Board of Governors.

Rhodes College

—1848—