

Educational Injustice in America

Jonathan Kozol

Jonathan Kozol is America's premier writer on issue of educational inequalities. With over twelve books written since his first in 1967, and more in the works, he has captivated readers for generations with his honest assessment of the public schooling of America's urban youth.

Thursday, October 28, 2010

7:00 pm

Hardie Auditorium in Palmer

Free to Public

Rhodes College

—1818—