Our Story

Before its move to Memphis, The College was located in Clarksville, Tennessee, where it had its origins in the Clarksville Academy, founded in 1837. The Academy conveyed its property in 1848 to the Masonic Grand Lodge of Tennessee and was merged into the new Masonic University of Tennessee, a degree-granting institution of higher education. This institution became Montgomery Masonic College in 1850, and in 1855, its name was changed to Stewart College, in honor of its president, William M. Stewart. Under President Stewart's leadership the operation of the college passed from the Masonic Lodge to the Presbyterian Synod of Nashville.

Under the "Plan of Union" of 1873, the Synods of Alabama, Arkansas, Memphis, Mississippi, and Texas, joined the Synod of Nashville in a cooperative effort to reorganize Stewart College after the Reconstruction Era and to operate it as a single Presbyterian college for the entire area thus represented, which was at that time commonly considered to be the Southwest.

In 1875, Stewart College became Southwestern Presbyterian University, developing alongside the undergraduate curriculum a School of Theology, which remained in operation until 1917. When the College moved to Memphis in 1925, it adopted as its official title Southwestern At Memphis, denoting a liberal arts college.

In 1973, a general reorganization of boundaries of synods within the Presbyterian Church instituted the College's present relationship with two larger synods. The former Synod of Louisiana is now part of the Synod of the Red River, and the former Synods of Mississippi, Alabama, and Tennessee are now part of the Synod of the Mid-South. Rhodes College relation to the Presbyterian Church in the United States has remained unbroken since 1855.

In the summer of 1984, a special session of the Board of Trustees convened to consider changing the name of the College due to possible confusion with other institutions named Southwestern. After much debate, the Board voted to change the name of the College to Rhodes College, in honor of Peyton Halle Rhodes, a former president of the College.

Administration and Services

The administration is the group of people who try to keep life here at the college possible. In general, they are cooperative if you have a problem. I suggest you make an appointment with any one of them before you go to see them.

President of the College

James H. Daughdrill, Jr.
329 Halliburton Tower (x3730)

The President is the chief spokesperson of the College as well as the chief officer of the administration and faculty. As head representative of the College, President Daughdrill has many demands placed on his time. As a result of this, he has delegated responsibility to the appropriate officers of the College. You should consult these offices before going to the President.

Executive Vice-President and Dean of College Affairs

David Harlow, Dean
329 Halliburton Tower (x3730)

A new office created this year, the executive V-P is the chief operating officer and handles the day-to-day operations of the College. Most of the Deans report to him, and he reports to the President. Dean Harlow represents the College in State and Regional associations, and co-chairs the Cabinet meetings.

Dean of Academic Affairs

Harmon Dunathan, Dean
225 Palmer/Gooch Hall (x3795)
Hours: 8:30-12:30, 1:30-5:00

This office seeks to maintain the variety and standards of the educational system, to secure new faculty, and to safeguard student and faculty freedoms and interests. It deals with all academic matters, including the Dean's list and academic probation.

Associate Dean of Academic Affairs

Robert Llewellyn, Dean
221 Palmer Hall (x3795)
Hours: 8:00-5:00

This office assists the Dean of Academic Affairs on such matters as petitions of variance (course under or overloads), the faculty-advisor system, and official student records. Any questions pertaining to these matters should be addressed to Dean Llewellyn.

Development

Don Lineback, Dean
423 Gooch Hall (x3850)
Hours: 8:30-5:00

The Purpose of the Development Program is to encourage parents, alumni, and other constituent groups to provide voluntary and monetary support to Rhodes. The gifts received go into equipment, books, etc. and reduces by about 40% the tuition that would have to be paid otherwise. Student involvement includes working on a phone-a-thon, serving as Ambassadors, and doing work that receives attention outside of the college.

Administrative Services

J. Allen Boone, Jr., Dean
103 Palmer Hall (x3760)
Hours: 8:30-5:00

Dean Boone oversees the Offices of Personnel & Purchasing, Physical Plant & Security, Bookstore, Accounting, Cashier, and manages all of the College's business and financial operations.

Registrar

Glenn Munson
108 Palmer Hall (x3885)
Hours: 8:30-3:00

Drop by this ever-busy office and you'll find: class schedules, exam dates and times, drop/add forms, pass/fail forms, declaration of major/minor forms, petitions for direct inquiry and over/underloads, transcript request forms, waivers for academic regulations, and just plain general information.

Cashier

Richard Huddleston
105 Palmer Hall (x3735)
Hours: 8:30-3:30

This multi-purpose office handles payments of tuition, fees, fines, phone bills, parking tickets, and (strangely enough) Lost & Found items. The most frequently used services of the Cashier's office, though, would be check cashing (up to $25) and quarter distributing. In addition to these things, every student at Rhodes has an interest-free student account (if one wishes to use it). Withdrawals of more than $35 from the account requires a day's notice, however.

Admissions

Dave Wottle, Dean
100 Palmer Hall (x3700)
Hours: 9:00-5:00

As you already know, this office is responsible for rounding up a quality student body. The success of admissions relies somewhat on the student Admissions Representative Organization (ARO). ARO is responsible for giving tours, housing prospectives, and organizing phone-a-thons.

Financial Aid

Art Weeden, Director
109 Palmer Hall (x3810)
Hours: 8:30-3:00

One of the most important offices to students, the Financial Aid staff handles state and government assistance, scholarships, loans, and work-study assignments. Any questions involving such matters of assistance should be taken to the Financial Aid office staff.

Dean of Student Affairs

Tom Shandley, Dean
229 Palmer/Gooch Hall (x3815)
Hours: 8:30-5:00

Dean Shandley is the Head of the Student Affairs Division and a member of the President's cabinet. He is the Student Affairs liaison to the Student Assembly, Social Regulations Commission, and Honor Council. Any student complaints should be taken to Dean Shandley in the Student Affairs office.

Associate Dean of Student Affairs

Ron Kovach, Dean
229 Palmer/Gooch Hall (x3815)
Hours: 8:30-5:00

Dean Kovach is in charge of the Resident Advisor system, housing, and all Parent's Programs at the College. Any questions or complaints about the RA's, room draw, or general living conditions should be directed at him.

Director of Student Activities

Laura Miller
001 Tuthill Hall (x3552)
Hours: 8:30-5:00

Laura's the fun-loving, hard-working person who assists the Social Commission in making life bearable in this academic hell we live in (you'll probably meet her out on the dance floor at a party!). In addition to this very important job, she also works with the orientation system, the Greeks, and the student organizations. She also (whew!) works with Head Residents Brent Nair and Toni Cappiello on the monthly Commons Events that help us "bond" a little. She's a very useful person to get to know.

Student Services

Center for Counseling and Career Services

301 Briggs Student Center (x3800)

Hours: 8:30-12:00; 1:00-5:00

Director of Counseling Services

Libby Robertson, Ph.D., Personal Counselor

Professional and completely confidential counseling is available to any student here at Rhodes. This includes personal counseling, crisis intervention, community referral services, personal development groups, and study skills assistance.

Coordinator of Student Development Programs (TBA)

The Coordinator of Student Development Programs will work in conjunction with the Director of Counseling Services to provide programs and services that assist and facilitate student growth and development. Responsibilities include campus outreach programming, student organization advising, personal counseling and consultation.

Director of Career Services

A full range of career services are available to all Rhodes students. These range from career and placement counseling to employment opportunities to vocational testing for interests and skills. The Center also runs a recruiting program, sets up job interviews, has graduate school listings, and offers work-shops on things like resumes and job-hunting. In addition to these long-range concerns, the Center keeps listings of summer, part-time, and full-time jobs and keeps a list of students interested in baby-sitting and tutoring for prospective employers.

Chaplain

(TBA)

306 Briggs Student Center (x3804)

The Chaplain is available to all individuals and groups, no matter the religious perspective, for guidance and direction. Through twice-weekly worship services, individual counseling, special events and programming, and promotion of the various religious organizations on campus, the Chaplain seeks to enhance the spiritual well-being of the college. In addition to these duties, the Chaplain is the director of the Kinney Program. Chapel is held at various times in Voorhies Chapel and the sanctuary of Evergreen Presbyterian.

Resident Advisors

The RA's are a fairly important part of dorm life. They do things like make you turn your music down, check your room for dorm damage, and give you toilet paper. To give you some idea of what they do in addition to these duties, they help you move in and out, give you light bulbs, are the source of first aid supplies, act as liaison to the physical plant, and provide an ear to talk to whenever you need it. An RA will be on duty every night in your dorm from 10:00 p.m. until morning in case you or someone you know is in dire need.

Facilities

The Burrow Library

Lynne Blair, Director (x3900)

Hours: Monday-Thursday	8:00 a.m. - midnight
Friday	8:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Saturday	10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Sunday	1:00 p.m. - midnight

Information/Reference Service

Bill Short (x3927)

Hours: Monday-Thursday	8:00 a.m. - 9:30 p.m.
Friday	8:00 a.m. - 9:00 p.m.
Saturday-Sunday	No Information Staff

Media Center

Lemuel Russell (x3968)

Hours: Monday-Thursday	9:00 a.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Friday	9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Saturday	10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Sunday	1:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.

The Burrow Library is set up just like any other library. The reference room is the large study room, books and study carrels are in the stacks, the unbound periodicals are on the main floor, and the bound periodicals are downstairs (the 1st floor).

CHECKOUT—Checkout procedures are fairly standard. When you first get your student I.D., the library will give you a sticker with a number to put on the back of it. This number is your permanent library identification. When you check out a book, you simply give them the number and the book is yours to keep for two weeks (remember, though, you must know your number or you don't get the book). You do get fined for late books, by the way.

RESERVES—In many of your classes, the professor will have articles, books, and various other publications put on reserve at the Circulation desk. There are regular reserves, those that have a two hour limit but can be taken out overnight (to be returned by 10:30 a.m.), and there are Library Use Only reserves, those that can only be used in the library for two hours. Overdue fines for regular reserves are 25 cents for the first hour and 5 cents for additional hours. Fines for LUO's are 1 dollar for taking them out of the library and additional 1 dollar late fines.

MACHINERY—There are photocopying machines on the main and bottom floors, a change machine on the main floor, Infotrac® source computers on the main floor, and microfilm/fiche machines on the bottom floor.

Media Center

The media center, located on the bottom floor, contains a veritable plethora of video tapes, some voice recordings, TV's, VCR's, and some record players. There is a larger viewing room, a smaller viewing room, and a room with some TV's and record players. Preference is given to academic viewings but regular, lay-person use is permitted (and even encouraged). The video tape collection contains both educational and popular selections.

CHECKOUT—One of the new services the media center offers is tape checkout. All you have to do is surrender your student I.D. and you can take a movie home. All tapes considered feature films are available for 24-hour checkout.

Department and Off-Campus Libraries

In addition to the Burrow Library facilities, many departments have libraries that house materials peculiar to their area. Off-campus, the Main branch of the Memphis Public Library is just down the street at McLain and Peabody. Rhodes also has an agreement with Memphis State, Christian Brothers, Memphis College of Arts, LeMoyné-Owen, Harding Graduate School, and the Memphis Theological Seminary that allows us to use and checkout their books.

The Buckman Library

Located in the Math Building, the Buckman Library is a little library that has study spaces, technical Math books, a Vax terminal, and a cool spiral staircase.

The Chemistry Library

Located on the Main floor of Kennedy, the Chemistry Library has very specific Chem books and a Vax.

The Music Library

Located on first floor Hassell, the Music library houses the tapes and records used in the music classes and has listening carrels for on-site listening.

MSU Library Hours: Monday-Thursday	7:45 a.m. - midnight
Friday	7:45 a.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Saturday	9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.
Sunday	1:00 p.m. - midnight

The Computer Center

Charles Lemond, Ph.D., Director
300 Palmer Hall (x3890)
Hours: 8:00-5:30

Rhodes offers a variety of computers for personal use, from the huge VAX785 to the intensely personal Macintosh.

VAX785—The VAX is a huge computer that has a wide array of programs and services stored on it. The Computer mail service is run through this (DECmail) and everyone on campus is assigned a user name so mail can be sent to them. The VAX mainframe and printer are located in 300 Palmer. VAX workstations are located around campus and the main workroom is in the lower floor of the library (open 24 hours).

IBM—An IBM PC lab is located on the lower floor of Kennedy. Printers are available there but programs must be brought in.

MACINTOSH—The Mac is the “official” computer of Rhodes. The Mac lab is located on the first floor of the Math building and has 14 terminals, 2 Imagewriters, and a laser printer for student use. There are many programs available on the Mac and it is very easy to learn to use (this whole book is a testament to that). If you’re interested in owning a Mac, the College has a student purchase plan, just ask anyone in the computer center about it.

Bookstore

Jane Darr, Manager
Debbie Jordan, Assistant Manager
Missy Clifton, Textbook Manager

Main Store—Briggs Student Center (x3535)
Hours: Monday-Friday 8:30-4:00
Textbook and Supply Annex (x3896)
Hours: Monday-Friday 8:30-4:00

The main bookstore is located on the main floor of the Student Center. Here you will find all that Rhodes College "stuff" your parents want so much along with magazines, paperback books, candy, greeting cards, and other strange miscellany.

The Annex is the boxy metal building behind the Student Center. It is here that you will find textbooks, school supplies, junk food, and real expensive academic toys. This place will become the bane of your existence at the beginning of every semester.

Textbook totals will range anywhere from $100 to $250. Used books are offered in as many titles as possible. In order to insure that you get the right books, the Bookstore encourages you to attend class first. A full textbook refund is available within the first 15 days of class each semester so you may return books you don't need. You must present your receipt and books bought new must be clean and unmarked. Used books are bought back (if they want them) at the end of every semester.

Payment to the bookstore and annex is fairly standard. Cash, cheques, and credit cards (MasterCard and Visa) are accepted. A really popular option, however, is the credit plan. Upon approval, a student can charge purchases to accounts to be paid later (usually by parents).

Mailroom

Jane Darr, Director of Mail Services
Mailroom phone x3239

Located in the basement of the Briggs Student Center, the mailroom offers a variety of mail services to commuter, part-time, and full-time students. All classes of mail, including parcels and other accountable mail (registered, certified, etc.) are received and secured for you in the mailroom. In addition to this, express mail deliveries like Federal Express and UPS are delivered here. Packages that are too large to fit in the mailboxes are held and a pink notice slip is given. Package pick-up hours are:

Monday-Friday 8:30-12:30
3:00-4:30

All mail is picked up and distributed by 10:30 a.m. every day. Special hours apply on either postal or college holidays.

An additional, very important service the mailroom offers is Campus Mail. Notices, announcements, and the like are distributed through Campus Mail. All you have to do to send Campus Mail is put the full name of the recipient on the paper and put it in the Campus Mail slot.

Refectory

Scott A. Ownby, Director
Burrow Refectory (x3541)
Dial-a-Menu (x3634)

Hours:	Mon-Fri	Sat & Sun
Hot Breakfast	7:00 a.m.-9:15 a.m.	8:00 a.m.-9:00 a.m.
Continental Breakfast	9:15 a.m.-10:15 a.m.	9:00 a.m.-10:00 a.m.
Lunch	11:00 a.m.-1:35 p.m.	11:30 a.m.-1:15 p.m.
Supper	4:30 p.m.-6:35 p.m.	4:30 p.m.-6:15 p.m.

Like it or not, the "Rat" is where we eat. Besides your everyday fare, ARA (the food service) plans picnics, international dinners, holiday meals, and study breaks during exam weeks. The Food Commissioners and a food committee work with ARA to improve our mundane existence and, if you're really dying to know what we're having for lunch or dinner, you can call Dial-a-Menu.

The Honor Code applies to the Rat. Off-campus students can purchase meal tickets at the cashier's table. It is also against the Honor Code to take utensils, dishes, or food out of the Rat for later use.

The Pub

Briggs Student Center (x3820)

Hours: Monday-Friday 10:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m.
7:00 p.m.-12:00 midnight
Saturday & Sunday 7:00 p.m.-12:00 midnight

The Pub is home of the PubLynx Grill, a small stage, and an unused bar. The PubLynx offers a variety of high-cholesterol, high-calorie fried foods along with frozen yogurt, regular yogurt, and fruit. In addition to these foodstuffs, an ItzaPizza franchise was opened here last year that delivers to your door. Although the PubLynx is run by ARA, payment is separate from the meal plan so you must pay as you go.

Besides being a place to eat greasy food, the Social Commission and other student groups often have bands and DJ's play in the Pub for open parties. Just see Dean Kovach about securing it for your party.

Rhea Lounge

Located on the main floor of the student center, Rhea Lounge is a big room with lots of comfortable couches, a big-screen TV, VCR, and grand piano. It can be used whenever the student center is open and is usually the sight of mass "soap" watching groups and movie screenings on the weekends.

Health Services

Doris Gill, RN, Director of Health Services

Moore Moore Infirmary (x3895)

Hours: Monday-Friday
Saturday-Sunday

Nurse on Duty: Monday-Friday

Strategically located next to the Rat, the Infirmary extends health care to all full-time students. Flu shots are offered in the fall for the price of the serum. Allergy shots can also be administered in the Infirmary. Bring your medication, with directions, to the Infirmary when you arrive on campus. A small fee is charged for the disposable syringes. Make sure you bring a large enough supply of all medications to last until you return home; out of town prescriptions are NOT refillable.

Some routine medications and services are furnished free of charge as part of the Health Service's function but you will be charged for most things. Special services, X-rays, and lab work are billed directly to the student. If you have to go to the emergency room, be ready to pay cash or check from a local bank; out of town checks are not accepted. You will also need your health insurance information (name and number). Night emergencies should be reported to your RA, and he/she will contact the nurse.

You need to keep a supply of bandaids, Tylenol or aspirin, and a thermometer in your room in order to avoid a walk to the Infirmary every time you scratch yourself or feel ill. Students are encouraged to begin learning how to care for minor illnesses and injuries, thus avoiding costly doctor visits in future life.

The nurse's hours vary daily according to the Nurse Practitioner's visits. SEE THE NURSE FOR AN APPOINTMENT WITH THE NURSE PRACTITIONER.

Physical Plant

Brian Foshee, Director
Austin Building (x3870)
Hours: Monday-Friday 8:30-5:00

The Physical Plant is located at the intersection of Snowden and Gym Drive, behind the Austin Building. This service-oriented department is responsible for maintaining all building systems, mechanical systems, housekeeping, grounds maintenance, and the operation of the campus motorpool and storeroom. Special Services assists in setting up college functions such as seminars, lectures, etc.

Any problem with your room or the residence halls in general should be directed to the RAs and they'll put the work order in with the Physical Plant.

Security

Bill Nourse, Director
Austin Building (x3880)

Security is, as its name implies, the protector of the student body, faculty, the physical plant, and all our cars.

Security also enforces the traffic and parking control regulations of the College. All vehicles which are operated on campus must be registered with Security. This applies to all students, regardless of whether they are campus residents or commuter students. There is no charge for a parking decal. To avoid penalties, vehicles must be registered and parking stickers affixed during the first week of school. Temporary parking permits are available for students and others who will only have possession of a vehicle for a short time. Students are responsible for being familiar with and abiding by the current Rhodes College Parking and Traffic Regulations and the procedure for appealing citations.

Security also implements the College's policies for access to buildings outside of normal working hours. Students with a need to be admitted to an office, laboratory, or department library after hours should request that their instructor place them on an access list for the area. Students on the approved access list may contact Security to be admitted.

In general, Rhodes is a fairly safe place but you have to remember that you are in Midtown Memphis. Parking in a dark area, leaving your door unlocked, and walking around by yourself after hours is generally discouraged and could have unfortunate results.

Mallory Gymnasium

Chuck Gordon (x3940)

The Gym is where we go to sweat and do terribly painful things to our bodies. The Mallory Gymnasium is home to two racquetball courts (reservations recommended), dance rooms, class rooms, a weight room, the main gym floor, and an upper gym. The outside facilities include a quarter mile track, the Alburty swimming pool, and six omni-court tennis courts. The entire athletic staff (see Athletics) has their offices there and are ready to assist you in your athletic endeavors, whether they be weight work-outs or a visit to the trainer. We recommend you call ahead, though.

Residence Halls

This is it, your (almost) personal space for the next 9 months. Freshman and transfer men live in Glassell Hall and first floor Townsend Hall. Freshman and transfer women live in Williford Hall and first and second floor Bellingrath. Visitation is open in all Halls except on third floor Williford, where visitation is restricted to 12 midnight. We're big on responsibility.

There are laundry rooms in all Commons areas (50 cents wash, 25 cents dry at the time of writing) and there are usually vending machines in the laundry rooms. Both curtains and carpeting are offered in Williford, Robinson, and New Halls. Stewart has carpeting and blinds. All the other dorms are pretty bare so you have to supply carpet and some kind of sun-blocking material to cover your windows. The beds in most of the halls are oversized but you may want to wait to buy fitted sheets* just in case. There are NO pets allowed (except fish, with roommates permission). Any of the other zillion questions you may have about your accommodations on campus can probably be answered by your orientation leader in late August.

*Rhodes' women's group sells sheets at Orientation that will fit the long beds.

Hall Survival Provisions: What to Bring and What to Leave at Home

Just a few things you may consider purchasing, stealing (just joking, Honor Code, remember?) borrowing, or creating (as if you haven't already) for your stay:

- lots and lots of quarters
- some information about your roommate—call him or her as soon as possible and decide about the phone, microwave, television, stereo, etc.
- plastic crates to stack your textbooks in if you live anywhere except Robinson, New, and Williford—the rest of the Halls don't have bookshelves
- sporting equipment (tennis racquet, bicycle, basketball, etc.)
- a VCR for all those evenings you feel like entertaining or just vegging out
- a small refrigerator for beverages(!) and leftover pizza. Refrigerators are available for rent from the school for about fifty dollars
- a backpack is pretty much an essential, you never leave home without it

- an answering machine, for taking all those messages while you're in the library!
- a message board for your door for the people who happened to be in the neighborhood when you weren't
- power strips are the only type of extension allowed and, of course, there aren't enough plugs in our rooms to sustain the modern age of appliances
- your other standard necessities, the TV, stereo, desk lamp, and phone
- maybe some sandals for showering in and a robe for walking around (open Halls, remember)
- consider buying school supplies at home or at some discount place, the Bookstore's not too cheap
- maybe a cholesterol tester to make sure you don't go over 300 after eating in the Rat and Pub for a few weeks
- sheets, blankets, pillows
- any personal items to make your room a "home"
- toiletries and a plastic bucket
- dictionary, thesaurus, etc.
- and, last but not least, a computer. Nothing could be a greater help than this miracle of modern technology

Athletics

Chuck Gordon, Director
Mallory Gymnasium (x3940)

Gym Hours: Monday-Thursday 8:30 a.m.-10:00 p.m.
Friday 8:30 a.m.-6:00 p.m.
Saturday 10:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
Sunday 1:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.

Pool Hours: Monday-Friday 6:30 a.m.-8:00 a.m.
12:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m.
Saturday 10:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m.
Sunday 1:00 p.m.-6:00 p.m.

Varsity Athletics

Rhodes offers eight varsity sports for men: soccer, football, cross country, basketball, baseball, tennis, track, and golf. Women are offered six sports: soccer, cross country, basketball, volleyball, tennis, and track. Anyone interested in participating in a varsity sport should contact the appropriate coach in the gym.

Men's Tennis, Assistant Basketball Matt Mitchell
Athletic Trainer Brian Gerry
Intramural Director/Sports Information Director Venita Redstrom

Admission to all home athletic events is FREE to all Rhodes students and faculty.

Intramurals

The intramural program involves over sixty percent of the student body, some faculty, and some staffers on campus. If you asked, most people on campus would say here is where the real competition takes place! In the fall, flag football (A & B Leagues), some soccer, and intertube water polo is played. Racquetball (ladder), basketball (A, B & C leagues), and volleyball (A & B) are played in the winter. Softball (A & B) and tennis are played in the spring. All but flag football are co-ed and teams may be formed by anyone. Last year, a team competition was started where the best single team in all the combined sports is declared the overall intramural champions, so start getting your teams together now!

Club Sports

Rugby

President: Robert Heck

Rhodes College has a rich Rugby tradition. They regularly beat teams from schools like the University of Tennessee, Alabama, Memphis State, and have never lost to Ole Miss. A few years ago, they won the Governor's Cup in the Mardi Gras tournament in New Orleans. Anyone ready to get rough, get in a scrum, and tap some kegs should start pumping up for the Rhodes Rugby Club.

Tae Kwon Do

Student Coordinator: (TBA)

The Tae Kwon Do club at Rhodes is alive and kicking (ugh). Anyway, we've had the club here for a few years and it is a good way to learn self defense and gain confidence. They enter competitions in the Mid-South and won many awards last year. Everyone is welcome to come over to the gym and learn the finer techniques of Far Eastern martial arts.

Equestrian Team

Student Coordinator: Michelle Hollis

The Equestrian Team was founded a few years ago in order to give an outlet for horse enthusiasts. The actual riding is done at Shelby Farms, a few miles away. Anyone interested in continuing or just learning horseback riding should contact Ms. Hollis.

LaCrosse ClubPresident: John Matsek

The LaCrosse Club is a very active sporting organization that seeks to foster an appreciation for Canada's national sport and to build a winning team here at the College. They play in and host tournaments here in addition to just practicing a lot. So, if you're from the north or the middle Atlantic states and have played before or you've never even seen the game played, think about suiting up for us, it's great fun.

The Rhodes College CheerleadersCoordinator: Beverly Hayden

The Cheerleaders are a student run organization that cheers at the football and men's basketball games. Try-outs for the following year are held in the spring. If a need comes up to add cheerleaders for any reason, additional try-outs are held. If you have any questions, call Bev.

Things To Do . . .

Besides Study, Party, and Sleep

There are a lot of things to do here at Rhodes besides study, party, and sleep. Organizations make up a big part of the life of a student and we have one for most any interest. Below is a listing of some of the possible organizations you might be interested in, whether it be academic, political, or just for fun. You'll meet most of the leaders of these organizations at the activities fair during the first few weeks of school.

Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society Faculty Sponsor: Kevin Ogle

The purpose of this organization is to increase and promote awareness of Science and Chemistry in modern society and technology. Members are usually people interested in Chemistry and Biochemistry. In the past, the group has toured places like Buckman Labs and Plough Industries. Besides that, they meet at professors houses to eat and have a good time.

Astronomy Club President: Max Finch

This club meets once a week for observing sessions, weather permitting. This is a sort of recreational club so all you unscientific but curious people out there are more than welcome to join. Of course, if your bedtime is before 9:00 p.m., you won't be able to join because that is when the meetings are, on top of the Physics (Rhodes) Tower.

College Bowl Staff Coordinator: Ron Kovach

For all you Jeopardy! fanatics out there, this game's for you. Each year, the Student Assembly holds the school "Quiz" bowl competition in order to find a team to represent the school at the Regional Competition. Usually held at the beginning of the second semester, the questions for the competition come from Time Magazine and Reader's Digest (so you don't have to worry about impossible questions). Last year, our Rhodes College team finished second in the Region behind Duke and qualified for the Nationals in Minneapolis. So start watching Jeopardy!, maybe you'll be the next Alex.

Health Professions Society

Presidents: Jay Copeland & Carl Orthoefer

The HPS is made up of students who are interested in pursuing medicine, dentistry, physical therapy, or any of the other allied health fields. The primary goal of the organization is to provide the information interested students need to pursue their chosen career. Speakers from local medical schools and practitioners from different fields are often asked to come to the HPS meetings.

International House

Advisers: Dr. Kathryn Wright & Dean Ron Kovach

President: Linda Fisher

The International House is an organization for people interested in international language and culture. The club sponsors parties, visits to local restaurants, and fund raisers for local charities. They also sponsor weekly language tables—tables where only a particular foreign language is spoken. Meetings are once a month.

Model United Nations Association

President: Kristal Marlow

The MUN Association is the largest and one of the most active clubs on the Rhodes Campus. They send delegations to the Arkansas MUN, Midwest MUN in St. Louis, and sent an award-winning delegation to New York a few years ago. The President, Kristal Marlow, was also picked as one of the thirty delegates from the U.S. to go to Moscow for the International MUN last year. In addition to sending delegations around the country, the MUN Association sponsors the Midsouth MUN for high school students in the Midsouth area. Membership is open to anyone interested so grab your placards and join up!

National Association of Accountants

President: (TBA)

The Rhodes College NAA is the student affiliate of the Memphis Area National Association of Accountants. The group meets monthly in a technical meeting to discuss business and listen to area speakers from the accounting and other professions. More casual events are held periodically. Membership is open to the whole student body.

Philosophy Club

President: (TBA)

The Philosophy Club stemmed out of a desire to encourage philosophical, critical, and rational discussion, and increase the awareness of philosophy in every day life. Activities sponsored by the Club are open to everyone.

Russian Club

President: Pat Stuart

The purpose of the Russian Club is to promote the understanding of Russian language, culture, and people. Membership is open to all and the meetings are informal and fun.

Rhodes College Student Personnel Association

President: (TBA)

The RCSPA is affiliated with the American Society of Personnel Administrators; the local affiliate is the Memphis Personnel Association (MPA). Students in the RCSPA have the opportunity to attend monthly MPA meetings which feature speakers on current topics in human resource management. The student chapter also holds regular meetings with speakers and sponsors field trips to local corporations. The RCSPA is an excellent way for students interested in human resource management to learn more about it and meet professionals in the field. The MPA awards a scholarship each year to a worthy RCSPA member.

Student Investment Group

President: Stephen Kerr

The Student Investment Group was founded in order to promote an understanding of financial markets and investments through hands-on investing. Activities include a competition between investment "teams" and classes to prepare qualified and interested students for the Series 7 exam, a requirement for all licensed brokers. Membership is limited to 20 Econ/Business majors.

American Marketing Association, Student Chapter

President: (TBA)

The Rhodes College American Marketing Association (AMA) is an organization of students interested in business management, marketing, and advertising. The group meets monthly to discuss business and hear prominent speakers who are executives from corporations such as Federal Express and Ward Archer Advertising Agency. Each chapter of Campus Green provides students with opportunities for involvement as well as education regarding important environmental issues.

Campus Green organizes an aluminum and paper recycling program which is designed to illustrate the need for eliminating waste while producing tangible results. All proceeds from the program are put back into the college community. In order to provide further education and awareness, Campus Green also hosts guest speakers monthly. Membership in Campus Green is open to all interested students.

Bacchus

Student Coordinator: Coll Wise

Boost Alcohol Consciousness Concerning the Health of University (BACCHUS), a national student organization, seeks to encourage responsible alcohol use within the Rhodes community. BACCHUS strives to offer diverse social opportunities, educational information, and other programs which promote alcohol awareness. In the past, BACCHUS has sponsored a National Collegiate Alcohol Awareness Week, Coffee Houses, several lectures, and has disseminated brochures to the College campus. BACCHUS functions are open to all students, faculty, staff, and administrative personnel.

Souper Contact

Student Coordinator: Sara Hawks

Souper Contact operates a soup kitchen on a weekly basis at St. John's Methodist Church in Midtown. The purpose of the organization is threefold: to provide a nutritious meal for Memphis' needy; to develop healthy relationships between Rhodes' students, faculty, and the community; and to heighten campus awareness of hunger issues. In order to incorporate the entire student body, ARA periodically offers an alternative meal of soup, bread, and water in return for their assistance with Souper Contact activities. In addition, interested Rhodes community members are encouraged to help with preparation of the weekly meals.

COMMUNE

Executive Committee Chairperson: Mike Lewis

COMMUNE (Committee for the Organization of Mental and Metaphysical Unity in a National Environment) is an outdoor-oriented, experiential education group which approaches leadership development and growth of personal well-being holistically. COMMUNE exposes members of the Rhodes community—students, faculty, staff, and administrators—to a variety of natural environments, to provide instruction concerning the methods of proper treatment and peaceful coexistence with the inhabitants of these ecosystems, and to provide instruction and experience whitewater rafting, a bike trip, camping, attending the NAPPS Storytelling Festival, a games day, skiing, rock climbing, and a campus-wide folkfest. COMMUNE offers the Rhodes community an exciting opportunity to experience the natural world, a world unfamiliar to many city dwellers.

Society for Creative Anachronism
Student Coordinator: K Y Watkins

If you've ever wanted to be a knight or a fair maiden, here's your chance. The SCA is a group dedicated to preserving the medieval culture we've all grown to know and love. They host and go to fairs where people battle in real chain-link armor (make it yourself) and generally live up the knight life (ugh).

LINK

Moderator: JoAnn Lynen

LINK is composed of representatives of numerous organizations concerned with social and political action. Its purpose is threefold: to coordinate calendars of various organizations to reduce competition for students' time, to encourage and facilitate collaborative programming, and to co-sponsor campus-wide events in conjunction with other organizations' special interest weeks, such as Alcohol Awareness Week, AIDS Awareness Week, and Memphis in Dismay. Some of the most active participants are: CSPA, Bacchus, Campus Green, COMMUNE, SMART, Habitat for Humanity, Concerns on Stage, and Souper Contact. Last year, LINK co-sponsored ARA Appreciation Day with the Food Commission and collected food from the Malone and Hyde Food Show to benefit MIFA and Souper Contact.

WLYX, FM 89.3

Director: Everett Rice

WLYX is Rhodes' student-operated radio station. The 3500-watt signal reaches almost all parts of Shelby County.

WLYX offers primarily jazz, classical, and rock programming. On weekends, the station also plays bluegrass and folk music, and some inspirational programs.

Student participation is encouraged in all aspects of programming, production, and broadcasting. Interested persons should come by the studios on the third floor of the Student Center. No experience is required or even necessary.

DILEMMA Symposium

Student Coordinator: (TBA)

Operated exclusively by Rhodes students and financed by private contributions, the DILEMMA student symposium features a series of lectures and seminars designed to serve as a forum for intellectual confrontation on human issues—social, political, controversial. Presented to the campus and Memphis community each spring, past speakers have included President Gerald Ford, Ralph Nader, Eugene McCarthy, and Rev. Jim Lawson. Topics as diverse as American capitalism, the mass media, civil rights, and legal issues facing American medicine have been discussed. With a 23-year history, DILEMMA is one of the longest running events at Rhodes and, since all work is done on a volunteer basis, possibilities for student involvement are unlimited.

Kinney Program

306 Briggs Student Center (x3804)
Director: (TBA)
Student Coordinators: (TBA)

The Kinney Program is something very special to Rhodes. It is a student-coordinated and staffed volunteer community service organization that involves about one-fourth of all students who attend Rhodes. On any given day, Kinney volunteers can be found tutoring at elementary schools, taking a “little brother” to the zoo, or “clowning” at hospitals. These students are bound by a common desire to help others—to look beyond personal needs and wants—and the incentive to channel that motivation into a regular and responsible program of community service.

In addition to the satisfaction that comes from such work, the Kinney Program also gives students an opportunity to sample career fields in which they might be interested or to gain valuable on-the-job training. There will be first and second term sign-ups for interested students. Always feel free to walk in the office and volunteer for a service or work project, for no appointment is necessary. Kinney provides a vital service to the Memphis community and also to the individual desiring to help. Do consider working with the Kinney Program—not only will you be helping others a great deal, but the satisfaction and growth will benefit you substantially.

Literary Arts Festival

Chairperson: Anisa Cottrell

The Literary Arts Festival is an annual spring fling of authors brought together by a student organization. Past literary artists have included Marion Zimmer Bradley, Chaim Potok, Allen Ginsberg, and Ellen Gilchrist. In 1990, the Festival had a local flavor when it featured Ole Miss artist in residence Barry Hannah and our own Prof. Edward Allen. Included in the festival are question and answer sessions, workshops, readings, and receptions.

Students interested in advertising, marketing, and English are urged to join the group to help with the different aspects of planning the Festival, but the only interest you really need to have is that of having a good time. It is entirely student run and funded by donations solicited by students from local organizations and businesses.

Musical Activities

There are many outlets for musical expression here at Rhodes. Besides the recitals, concerts, and guest performances given by voice and instrument students, the Rhodes College Singers perform music from various periods of choral literature. The Singers appear at several campus and city functions during the year, travel to churches and schools on a tour of the Mid-South each spring, and go on a foreign tour every third year. Singers is a popular activity, and auditions are held each fall.

Other opportunities include performing with local ensembles, professional groups, and our own Wool Socks (barbershop quartet). Consult the music department if you have any questions about what you can do.

The Theatre

Rhodes College's McCoy Theatre provides excellent opportunities for students interested in any aspect of theatre from acting to technical support. The theatre facility is unique in the Mid-South, offering space that can be configured in a number of ways to accommodate a variety of set designs and arrangements for seating. Productions are cast primarily from the student body and students may be involved in many areas of backstage work.

The McCoy Season Subscription Series brings local actors, directors, musicians, and Rhodes students together in productions throughout the year. The McCoy has brought many productions to the Mid-South for the first time, including SWEENEY TODD and NICHOLAS NICKELBY. Last year, the productions ranged from the innovative BLUE WINDOW to the classic CYMBELINE.

One of the special events which finds its permanent home in the Theatre is the much-lauded McCoy Visiting Artist Series. This series brings nationally and internationally known performing artists to campus not only to perform but to visit with students, hold discussion/lecture sessions, and conduct workshops.

Visual Arts Society

Faculty Sponsor: Betty Gilow

The purpose of the Visual Arts Society is to encourage the appreciation of the visual arts in and outside of the Rhodes College campus. It supports art-related activities including student and regional artists' exhibitions, critical lectures, films, and campus art. The Society promotes the Lillian and Morrie Moss Endowment for the Visual Arts by participating closely with the preparation and presentation of each visiting speaker in the Moss Lecture Series. Membership is open to all interested persons and meetings are held weekly.

The Rhodes College Dancers

Student Coordinator: Kimerie Tate

The Dancers, formerly the Jazz Club, are a student run dance-performance group. The meetings are on Saturday mornings in the gym. Past performances include half-time at basketball games.

The Student Health Advisory Council

Student Coordinator: (TBA)

This organization keeps the Rhodes community up to date on their health and ways to improve it.

Habitat for Humanity

Student Coordinator: Annette DuBard

Habitat is a very popular organization that builds houses from donations and fund-raisers and provides them to families in need for a meager payment.

Concerns on Stage

Student Coordinator: (TBA)

COS is a student run organization that puts on social awareness productions. Most of the people involved are in the theatre but all you really need to join is a concern for the welfare of society.

Chess Club

President: Najeeb Jan

The Chess Club sponsors get together where the members get to (!), you guessed it, play chess. One of the most popular variations is speed chess, where each move has to be made in a very short time span. It speeds up play and your thought processes.

Rhodes Pep Band

President: Belinda Woodiel

The Pep Band was just formed last year by our own Belinda and Mike. It provides an outlet for all those former band members who are just itchin' to dust off their French Horn and go play at football and basketball games. All students and faculty members are encouraged to join in.

Religious Organizations

Baptist Student Union

President: Angela Holland

The BSU is an active Christian organization open to all denominations. It is a group that meets weekly for Christian fellowship, informal Bible study, and group discussions on topics concerning the pressures of college life. The BSU has raised money for missions, attended regional and state conventions, taken part in intramural sports, participated in social ministries in the Memphis area, and gone on three special project team missions to New Orleans, St. Louis, and Atlanta.

Catholic Student Association

Student Coordinators: Debbie Glenn & Kay Horner

The CSA sponsors a Mass that is celebrated every Sunday morning at 10:00 in Tuthill. Directly after mass there is a coffee for fun and fellowship at which time coffee, tea, hot chocolate, and doughnuts are served. The CSA is also involved in sponsoring cookouts, retreats, Bible studies, and studies in the Catholic faith. Everyone is welcome to attend any CSA function.

Evergreen Presbyterian Fellowship

Advisor: Reverend Kirby Hill

Evergreen College Fellowship meets Sunday evenings right after supper, from 5:45-7:00, at Evergreen Presbyterian Church. A newsletter keeps interested students up to date on activities. ECF seeks to offer a balance of study, fellowship, and service opportunities. It is characterized by singing, snacking, discussion, praying, cooking-out, and a whole lot more. ECF has a fall and spring retreat, and everyone is welcome.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Student Coordinator: Bryan Nerren

The purpose of FCA is to give athletes and interested non-athletes the opportunity to incorporate Christian values into everyday living through the discussion of topics chosen to help meet this end. Most of the members of FCA are athletes, however, non-athletes can participate also. FCA usually meets on Wednesday nights, and everyone is welcome.

Rhodes Christian Fellowship
Student Coordinator: (TBA)

Rhodes Christian Fellowship, by encouraging ecumenical diversity of thought, strives to nurture the continued spiritual fulfillment of Rhodes' Christian community. In keeping with its vision of a fellowship group and service organization, RCF works at the Church Health Center bi-monthly and sponsors a fifteen-minute chapel service on weeknights at 10:00 p.m. Anyone who is interested may come to the weekly meeting Tuesday nights at 9:00 p.m. in the New Hall Social Room.

Honor Societies

Mortar Board

President: Misty Wakeland

Mortar Board is a national honor society of college seniors. The society recognizes in its membership qualities of dedicated service to the college community, superior scholarship, and outstanding leadership.

Although it is an honor to be selected for membership in Mortar Board, the society is not merely an honorary one. When an individual accepts membership, this acceptance indicates a person's agreement to accept the responsibility of being an active participant in the chapter. The chapter regularly participates in service activities for the college, as well as for organizations in Memphis.

Omicron Delta Kappa

President: (TBA)

The purpose of ODK is to recognize leadership in college activities and to undertake various activities for the good of the college. An emphasis is placed upon the development of the whole person, both as a present member of the college community and as a prospective contributor to society.

Student members are chosen from the junior and senior classes, and not more than three percent of the student body may be elected to membership. Members must have distinguished themselves in such activities as scholarship, athletics, publications, creative and performing arts, religious activities, and campus government.

Order of Omega

President: Johanna Kahalley

Order of Omega is a leadership honor society for members of Greek organizations. Its purposes are to recognize and promote student leadership, to encourage contact between fraternity and sorority members, and to bring together faculty, alumni, and students on a common level of understanding and interest. Members are chosen from the Greek system where they must exemplify high standards of scholarship, leadership, and service.

Phi Beta Kappa

Secretary-Treasurer: Prof. Terry Hill

The Rhodes College of Phi Beta Kappa, Gamma Chapter of Tennessee, was established at the College in 1949. Rhodes College is one of only 240 colleges and universities in the nation to be awarded a chapter on this prestigious honor society. For over two hundred years, election to Phi Beta Kappa has been a recognition of exceptional academic achievement in the liberal arts and sciences. Rhodes College students are elected to Phi Beta Kappa by the members of the chapter chiefly on the basis of outstanding academic achievement. Students are eligible for election in their senior year on the basis of seven semesters work at Rhodes, or in exceptional cases in their junior year on the basis of five semesters work at Rhodes. Students who have transferred from other colleges with chapters of Phi Beta Kappa may be elected on the basis of at least four semesters of residence at Rhodes College and grades of comparable quality at the Phi Beta Kappa colleges previously attended.

Omicron Delta Epsilon

President: (TBA)

This international Economics Honor Society was created to recognize scholastic excellence in the field of economics and to establish closer ties between students and faculty within and between participating colleges. Undergraduate membership is limited to junior and senior students who are making the study of economics one of their major interests, who have completed at least twelve hours of coursework in economics, who have at least a 3.5 average in all economics courses attempted, and who are in the top third of their class. However, members need not be economics majors.

Pi Kappa Lambda

Faculty Sponsor: Prof. David Ramsey

The Pi Kappa Lambda honorary music society was established in the spring of 1949. It recognizes outstanding achievement in music and may elect no more than twenty percent of those members of the senior class majoring in music.

Psi Chi

Faculty Sponsor: Prof. Robert Strandburg

Psi Chi is a psychology honor society that recognizes and encourages excellent scholarship in the field of psychology. Declared psychology majors whose GPA ranks in the top third of their class and who have taken at least three courses in psychology are considered for membership. Past Psi Chi projects have included a "Dream Analysis Dinner", a series of talks on career options for psychology majors, and a psychology tutoring service.

Sigma Iota Rho
President: (TBA)

The purpose of Sigma Iota Rho, a national honor society in international studies is to recognize academic excellence and to promote information about and study of contemporary international issues. Students are eligible for membership in their junior and senior years, and must have a 3.2 cumulative GPA and a 3.3 within the major. Membership is limited to no more than forty percent of the majors in any one graduating class.

Sigma Pi Sigma
President: (TBA)

Sigma Pi Sigma is a national honor society for physics majors, and its members are elected by the physics department. Almost all Sigma Pi Sigma events are closely associated with the activities of the Society of Physics Students in order to have as many people involved as possible.

Sigma Tau Delta
Faculty Sponsor: Dr. Beth Kamhi

The Tau Sigma chapter of Sigma Tau Delta, a national English honor society, was established at Rhodes in 1984. The purpose of this society is to promote the study of literature in English and to recognize outstanding achievement in this area.

Student Power

Rhodes Student Assembly

#6 Tuthill

The main purpose of the Rhodes Student Assembly is to provide a body to represent the needs and concerns of the Rhodes students to the faculty and administration. With its many members, the Student Assembly can involve itself effectively in many areas of campus life. Meetings are open to the entire campus and students are strongly encouraged to attend.

The Student Assembly sponsors the College Bowl, oversees the allocation of Student Assembly funds, coordinates the Student Life, Special Events, Budget and nomination committees, appoints students to serve on Board of Trustees and administrative committees, directs the various commissions, and generally entertains any matters of student interest or concern at meetings and campus-wide forums.

The executive officers as well as the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Representatives are elected by April 1st of the academic year. Commissioners and Board of Trustees Representatives are also elected at this time. The five Freshman Representatives are elected in the Fall.

The following is a list of current Rhodes Student Assembly officers:

President Marjorie Thigpen

Vice-President Mal Johnson

Treasurer Melissa English

Cabinet:

Recording Secretary Annie B. Williams

Corresponding Secretary Rob Jarret

Parliamentarian Joey Dudek

Publicity Coordinator Kim Patten

Class Representatives:

Senior: Susie Geist, Patrick Farr, Darby Moore,
Todd Bobo, Kelly Crane

Junior: Annete DuBard, McPhail Hunt, Catherine Cooper,
Jennifer Holyer, Vince Gardner

Sophomore: Heather Dorris, Drew Henry, Vo Johnson,
Amber Khan, Dina Facklis

Freshman: (To be elected in the Fall)

Commissioners

Elections Commission

Commissioner: Shilpa Reddy, Maria Sorrells

This commission handles the details of all the student body elections. There are three main elections per year, one in the fall for freshman representatives, one in October for Mr. and Ms. Rhodes, and one in the spring for the Assembly, Honor Council, and SCR positions. Elections are announced two weeks in advance and petitions from the commissioner are available at that time. Voting is by secret ballot; the Honor Code applies.

Religion Commission

Commissioner: Robin Bandel

The Religion Commission works closely with the Chaplain to promote spiritual growth and religious activity; the commissioner also assists the Chaplain in organizing weekly chapel services. The commission also coordinates the affairs of the Religion Council which is composed of leaders from the various religious-oriented groups on campus such as the BSU, ECF, the CSA, the FCA, the RCF, and Break (First Evangelical Christian Church).

Social Commission

Commissioners: Phil Hemstreet, Cindy McCraw, Allen Bell

This commission is responsible for drawing together the various art and talent groups at Rhodes as well as bringing in musical (reggae, jazz, folk, progressive, etc.) groups, lectures, and comedians from across the country. Some traditional attractions include Homecoming, Uncommon House, Rites of Spring, and feature-length films. The commission is comprised of students who take an active interest in Rhodes' social life.

Publication Commission

Commissioner: Stephanie Kinkaid

Senior Representative:

Junior Representative:

Sophomore Representative:

Freshman Representative:

There are many opportunities to get involved in publications here at Rhodes. The Pub Board, the governing body over all publications, selects new editors each spring, allocates money, and settles conflicts in editorial policy. Members include all editors, class reps, and the commissioner.

There are currently five student publications at Rhodes meeting a variety of interests and needs. Students are entrusted with maintaining a balance between freedom of expression and responsible journalism. All students are encouraged to work on all aspects of publication—writing, layout, art, etc. It takes a variety of skills to put a publication together. The publications are:

The Lynx (Peter Pappas & Greg Palmer, eds.)

The Lynx is the college yearbook. Like your high school yearbook, it takes much work to put together and Peter and Greg need all the help they can get. Experienced students are especially welcome (although enthusiasm is the only real requirement).

Sou'wester (Liz Orr & Johnathan Smoke, eds.)

The Sou'wester is the weekly reporter of important news and opinion of the Rhodes community. It covers sports, activities, and other strangeness that goes on. They always need reporters so get the little pad and recorder ready.

The Southwestern Review (Stephen Karnes, ed.)

This is the campus literary and visual arts review. A special preview is published in the final fall issue of the Sou'wester and the regular book is published in April. It prints everything from short stories to poems to new journalism along with photographs and other one dimensional art. Here is your chance to get your work published!

The Campus Survival Guide (Stephen Karnes, ed.)

Formerly titled "Campus Life", it is commonly thought of as a torture device for the temporarily insane.

Confluence

This is an outlet for all those interesting scholarly papers people write during the year. If you think your paper for religion or philosophy is so good you want people to read it, this is the place to go.

Honor Council

The freedom and responsibilities of the Honor System are shared by all members of the Rhodes community. Far beyond the visible benefits such as unproctored exams, take-home tests, the security access system, and the refectory meal plan, the honor system demonstrates a commitment to truth and value by all Rhodes students and provides an atmosphere of honesty and respect that is unique to Rhodes.

The Honor Council, composed of a president and fourteen class representatives (one of whom serves as vice-president), are elected by their peers in campus-wide elections. The freshman class will elect two representatives, one male and one female, during the first few weeks of school. The recording and corresponding secretaries are appointed by the president.

The Honor Council plays a positive judicial role within the system. Its responsibility is to foster and protect a spirit of honor at Rhodes. It carries out this responsibility by being available to the community when questions arise and by acting as a court in cases of alleged dishonesty.

The Honor System applies to all phases of campus life. The four violations of the Honor Code are lying in official matters, cheating, stealing, and failure to report a violation. If a person is found guilty of an Honor Code violation, the Honor Council imposes a penalty based on:

1. Its duty to assure the effectiveness of the Honor System for the Rhodes community
2. Its duty to the accused and his/her ability to re-enter campus life under the Honor System, and
3. The severity of the offense

The Honor Council is authorized to expel, suspend, or probate Honor Code offenders.

Each student is furnished with an Honor Council constitution (located in the Student Handbook), which should be read carefully and saved for reference. The Honor System enriches and benefits the Rhodes community in a vital way. By its very nature, it demands full support and participation. Please feel free to contact any member of the Honor Council when questions or situations arise. The Council is composed of Rhodes students who are concerned, dedicated, and interested in hearing from you.

1990-1991 Rhodes College Honor Council

President	Paul Ollonger
Recording Secretary	Maureen McCabe
Corresponding Secretary	Elizabeth Pearce
Senior Class Representatives:	Craig Brewer, Sherry Hawkins, Brad Haynes, Kim Pine
Junior Class Representatives:	Bill Jordan (VP), Sarah Hughes, Mike McQuillen, Lacey Taylor
Sophomore Class Representatives:	Pat Nelson, Jeanne Chadwick, Doug Bacon, Thais Davenport
Freshman Class Representatives:	(To be elected in the Fall)

Social Regulations Council

As a member of a community of residents, you are expected to maintain a certain degree of respect for both your fellow students and the campus facilities. As entering freshmen you must sign a pledge to this effect. The Social Regulations Council (SRC) is designed to make community life at Rhodes as harmonious as possible, stressing an individual's personal responsibility rather than strict rules and guidelines. However, there are basic courtesies expected of all students at Rhodes and the SRC will, upon complaints by individuals, investigate and take judiciary action whenever necessary.

1990-1991 SRC

President	Veronica Lawson
Senior Class Representatives:	Andy Nix, Cooper Hipp, Shilpa Reddy
Junior Class Representatives:	Rob Roebuck, Chris Emanuel, Lane Southern
Sophomore Class Representatives:	James Scherer
Freshman Class Representatives:	(To be elected in the Fall)

College Service

Administrative Advisory Committees

Administrative Advisory Committees are organized through the administration. Student candidates are suggested to the administration by a committee consisting of Student Assembly Representatives.

Each year administrative advisory and consultation groups are asked to participate in and facilitate the work of different administrators. Although the groups are advisory and not legislative, the input of the members is very important in the life of the College. Convenors will be sensitive to your busy schedules. Unless otherwise noted, term of service is one year, meetings are at the call of the Convenor, and the President appoints all members to the committees upon recommendation of the _____ who receives recommendations from the respective convenors.

Committee Responsibilities:

Budget Team

—To provide consultation and advice to the Dean of Administrative Services regarding projected income and allocation of financial resources to further the purposes of the College.

—To recommend priority requests of capital needs.

—To make emergency requests and recommendations for handling these.

Campus Appearance Improvement Group

—To advise and provide consultation to the Dean of Administrative Services regarding the appearance of the buildings, grounds, and facilities of Rhodes.

Commencement and Special Events Advisory Group

—To help plan special events such as Commencement, Opening Convocation, etc., and to advise the Assistant to the President for College Relations.

Computer Center Advisory Group

—To advise and provide consultation to the Director of the Computer Center regarding the use of computing resources.

Homecoming Advisory Group

—To provide consultation and advice to the Director of Alumni Programs regarding on-campus arrangements for the annual Alumni Homecoming Weekend.

McCoy Visiting Artist

—To provide consultation and advice to the Assistant to the President for College Relations regarding the scheduling and administration of the McCoy Visiting Artist Series.

Physical Education and Athletics Advisory Group

—To advise and provide consultation to the Director of Athletics.

Residence Hall Renovation Advisory Group

Admissions Representative Organization

Student Interns:

ARO is the student organization responsible for helping the Admissions office in the new student recruitment process. Members of ARO help house overnight guests and give campus tours and participate in phone-a-thons for prospective students. ARO also coordinates Symposium Weekend for 200 applicants. Freshmen are invited to participate in ARO during their first term on a limited basis with the goal of being representatives during their second term.

Board of Trustees Committees

Student candidates to Board Committees are recommended by a student nominating committee based on applications taken by the Student Assembly at the end of the year. The committees are: Buildings and Grounds, Development, Enrollment, Faculty and Educational Programs, Finance, and Students and Campus Life.

Faculty Committees

Student representatives to Faculty Committees are voted by the student body at the end of the school year. The Faculty Committees are: Administrative Policy Committee, Admissions and Financial Aid, Curriculum Committee, and Library Committee.

Orientation Leaders

Orientation leaders are chosen at the end of each school year to help the next year's incoming freshman and transfer students make their transition to the Rhodes community. Leaders arrive on campus early at the end of the summer for New Student Orientation, in which they meet with parents and new students, give campus tours, and answer general questions about Rhodes life. Approximately thirty to forty leaders are chosen each year by application.

Local Attractions

Beale Street

Birthplace of the Blues. One of the most famous "streets" in America. You can see statues of W.C. Handy and Elvis, Shwabs dry goods store, and various street corner performers.

Graceland

332-3322

By now you've probably had literally hundreds of people ask you if you're going there so why not go ahead and go (unless, of course, you hate Elvis, which gives you a good excuse)?

Memphis Zoo and Aquarium

Look across the street (or, rather, smell across the street).

Mud Island

576-7241

A veritable plethora of attractions. Take a monorail across a canal to visit the Memphis Belle, the Mississippi River Museum, Bud Boogie Beach, and a neat 5-block long relief replica (in concrete) of the lower Mississippi River. Often the site of late summer and spring concerts.

Sun Studio

521-0664

That's right, another Elvis attraction (well, almost). The site where Elvis, Jerry Lee, and Carl got their start (and U2 visited many years later).

Stroh's Brewery

797-2200

Can you imagine? A whole tour of the plant where this quality beer is produced!

Memphis Queen Line

527-5694

Take a ride on an authentic Mississippi paddle wheeler (featuring "expert" commentary by the captain).

Southland Greyhound Park

(501) 735-3670

If you've never bet on racing dogs before, here's your chance. Go experience the unbeatable atmosphere and the thrill of the cry "here comes Rusty!"

Recreation

Adventure River Waterpark

382-WAVE

25-acre waterpark with all your usual waterpark kinda stuff.

Libertyland

274-1776

As you might've guessed by its name and the last four digits of the phone number, this is Memphis' patriotic amusement park.

Putt-Putt Golf and Games

386-2992 and 366-7888

This place has pretty much anything you'd ever want to do. Activities include: 3 putt-putt courses, go-kart racing, video games, batting cages, driving ranges, and Pebble Beach video golf.

Pink Palace Museum and Planetarium
454-5600

A museum of natural history with exhibits ranging from mechanized dinosaurs to a nature walk.

Memphis Brooks Museum of Art

Located in Overton Park (across the street), the Brooks is an excellent museum that just finished an addition and a renovation to the older section.

Memphis Botanic Gardens
685-1566

Year-round displays featuring a 4 acre Japanese garden, 10 acre arboretum, and a 4 acre wildflower garden.

Shopping

Chickasaw Oaks Plaza
323-8777

30 small specialty shops ranging from fine clothing to antiques to a Ruby Tuesday's in an 18th-century setting. Located in East Memphis off Poplar.

Hickory Ridge Mall

795-8844

Large Mall that seems intimate. Offers 120 shops, four major department stores, four-screen cinema, and an awesome double-decker Venetian carousel. Located in East Memphis off Winchester.

Mall of Memphis

362-9513

Your basic Big Mall with 4 major stores, 160 shops, ice skating rink, and movie theaters. Located in Southeast Memphis off I-240.

Mid-America Mall

526-6840

The only open-air mall here. Offers over 80 stores and restaurants in the downtown area.

Oak Court Mall

682-8928

The newest and most expensive mall of them all. Lord & Taylor is its anchor store and Godiva is where you get chocolates here. You need to go if only to see their Big Marble Ball.
