PROUDLY WE PRESENT OUR SEAL

Circular in form, the red and black seal of Southwestern is centered by a black shield representing faith. Quartering the shield is a St. Andrew's Cross denoting Christianity, and in the middle of the cross lies an open Bible, the heart of Southwestern's being. Each of the shield's four divisions bears a symbol representing a period in the college's history—as a Masonic College at Clarksville, founded in 1848; as "Stewart College" (1855-75); as "Southwestern Presbyterian University" (1875-1925), and finally as "Southwestern at Memphis" when it was moved to Memphis.

The intertwined sprigs of oak and laurel under the shield signify strength and victory. Surrounding the shield on the other three sides are the words "Truth, Loyalty, Service"—the fundamental precepts of Southwestern.

THROUGH THE YEARS

Southwestern at Memphis is a four-year college of liberal arts and sciences. It is owned and controlled by the Synods of Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, and Louisiana of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The college was founded in 1848 at Clarksville, Tennessee, by the Masonic Grand Lodge of the State. The first President was W. M. Setwart, a prominent Mason and Presbyterian. When it was found that the Masons could no longer financially support the college, the work was taken over by the Synod of Nashville. The name was changed at this time to Stewart College in honor of the President.

Dr. Charles E. Diehl was named President in 1917, and capably held that office until 1949, when he was succeeded by Dr. Peyton N. Rhodes.

About 1900, the Presbyterian Church began to realize that the college was badly located to serve its territory. This led to the moving of the college to Memphis. The citizens of the city donated a large sum to help in the moving of the institution.

Not until 1921 did a woman receive a degree from Southwestern. Prior to that time Southwestern had not been a co-educational institution.

Today Southwestern holds a prominent place in the educational life of Memphis, adding much to the city and its citizens.

SOUTHWESTERN'S ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, kind the fate, That links our lives with Thee, For God's own power that made Thee great Is the truth that makes us free; Thy torch has touched our hearts with flame, Our yearning souls refined; Through Thee we learn the higher aim, And train the truer mind.

Thy stalwart towers of solid stone, Thy vaulted arches strong, Inspire our Loyal hearts each one To fight against the wrong; Our lives reflect the beauty of Thy stately cloistered halls, And characters grow genuine That dwell within Thy walls.

O Leader to the larger light, Southwestern 'neath thy wings Thy sons in rev'rent love unite, And each his tribute brings; And dream such dreams as old men dream, And visions young men see, Keep lighted in our hearts the flame Once kindled there of Thee.

All students are expected to attend the Opening Convocation in the Hubert F. Fisher Memorial Garden on the campus at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday, September 22.

SOUTHWESTERN'S RULES AND REGULATIONS

Rules are kept to a minimum at Southwestern. The following are traditional proprieties and customs.

Conduct befitting of a lady or gentleman is expected of all Southwestern students. Rowdiness, drunkenness, and other improper conduct will result in the expulsion from the college of all persons involved. No liquor is to be served at any Southwestern dance or party, and the bringing of liquor into any college building is strictly forbidden.

1. No smoking is permitted in the halls, cloister, classrooms, or women's social room of Palmer Hall.

2. There will be no card playing in the social room of Palmer Hall.

3. No books are to be taken into Chapel.

4. Boarding students may keep cars on the campus only by strict adherence to the rules set forth in the catalogue.

5. Shorts and slacks are not to be worn by women students on the campus, except when participating in athletics or decorating.

6. Cars must be parked in the parking area behind Science Hall.

7. College Convocations for all faculty and students will be held each week of the session, except during examinations, Monday through Friday from 10:30 to 11:00 a.m. Monday, Tuesday and Thursday assemblies will be convocations for worship, Wednesday will be a student assembly and Friday will be dedicated to a program of fine arts. The Saturday period will be open for called student assemblies. Attendance upon all but the Saturday meetings will be required. Anyone who is late to Chapel or who leaves before Chapel is completed is automatically absent.

8. In order to change a course, a student must have the permission of the instructor and the Dean. If any irregularity is involved in the course change, a student must present a petition, with his faculty advisor's signature on it, to the Classification Committee. Discontinuing a course without permission automatically suspends a student. More information may be obtained in the catalogue. 9. In order to graduate, a student must have completed 124 semester hours of work, with 124 quality points. Quality points are given by grades as well as hours. An 'A' counts three quality points per hour, a 'B'-2, a 'C'-1, and a 'D' or 'F' counts none. Therefore, an A in a three-hour course is 9 quality points; in a four-hour course it is 12 points.

10. The grade point system of averages counts 'A' as four points, 'B' as three, 'C' as two, 'D' as one, and 'F' as none.

REGULATIONS REGARDING ABSENCES

Regular attendance is essential for success in academic work and is required of all students. In order to allow for emergencies, such as illness and other unexpected and unavoidable contingencies, absences in each course not exceeding the number of credit hours in the course are not penalized. Protracted or repeated absences which are unavoidable may be excused by the Dean.

The faculty will report all absences not later than the Monday after the absences occurred. Students seeking excuse for absence must present a written request to the Dean within one week after their return to classes. Applications for excuse are made under the Honor System.

Absences on the two days before and after stated holidays count double.

In cases of continuous or excessive absence from class, without valid explanation, the professor concerned will make written recommendation to the Dean that the student be dropped from the course and receive the grade of F. If upon investigation it develops that the student has discontinued the course without permission, the student will be dropped therefrom and his parents will be officially notified.

One third hour of academic credit will be deducted from the student's total number of credits for each unexcused absence in excess of the unpenalized number of absences. If the fractional deductions exceed one-half hour, one additional hour will be deducted.

In the case of students absent when representing the college officially, the responsible official will report these absences to the Dean for excuse.

LIBRARY RULES

Hours: Monday through Friday, 8:20 A.M.-10:00 P.M. Saturday, 8:20 A.M.-5:00 P.M.

When a student takes out books from the library he must sign for them himself, and he is held responsible for all books charged to his name.

Books are loaned for a period of two weeks and may be renewed once. The number of books a student may borrow is unlimited.

Fines are charged on books kept overtime at the rate of 2c a day on 14-day books, and 15c for the first hour and 2c each additional hour on reserve books. If, however, the fine is not paid when the book is returned, the charge is made at the rate of 5c a day on 14-day books and 25c for the first hour and 5c for each additional hour on reserve books.

If a book is lost, the matter should be reported at the Circulation Desk at once. If the book is not found, the price of the book plus one dollar for cataloging cost will be charged.

Reference books, periodicals and records may not be taken from the library at any time.

A student's library record must be clear, or he will not be permitted to take his final examinations.

Reserve books are those upon which a professor places a restricted circulation so that they will be available for the use of an entire class. They may be used only in the Reading Room and the study carrels on the Main Floor level during the day, but may be taken out for overnight at 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday, to be returned at 9:00 a.m. the following day, and at 12:00 noon on Saturday to be returned at 9:00 a.m. the following Monday. In signing for a reserve book the student must indicate where he will be using it in the library so that he can be easily located.

Books used in the carrels may be left there or at the Circulation Desk, and are not to be replaced on the shelves. If a borrower wishes to leave books in a carrel for future use, he must have them charged at the Circulation Desk. They will not be picked up for shelving if they have been properly checked out, but the borrower leaves them in a carrel at his own risk. When the library is closed, books may be returned through the chute provided on the south wall of the entrance loggia.

Smoking is permitted in the Browsing Room, in the seminar and conference rooms on the second floor, and in the listening rooms and student lounges on the ground floor.

When the small rooms on the second floor are not in use for tutorial conferences, they will be available to groups of 2, 3 or 4 students who need to study together. Keys for the rooms are available at the Circulation Desk.

A folder about the new Burrow Library has been prepared as an aid to the use of the library and will be available to all students.

The Honor System of Southwestern applies in the library as well as in other phases of academic and campus life.

This restriction does not apply to homecoming or other occasions that merit open houses given by all the sororities and/or fraternities for the college as a whole.

10. Men and women students are permitted to visit fraternity or sorority houses between the hours of 4:00 and 8:00 p.m. provided that there are always present in the lodge being visited by mixed groups at least eight individuals. 11. Both fraternity and sorority houses are to be reserved for the exclusive use of men and women respectively during the morning hours and until 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and until 1:00 p.m. Saturday.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

History of Student Government

During Southwestern's early years in Memphis, all student body affairs were handled by an organization known as the Boosters Club, a democratic organization whose membership consisted of the entire student body. The club was presided over by a president, a vice-president, and a secretary-treasurer. All matters to be passed on by the student body were brought before the Boosters club: each student was entitled to one vote.

In the spring of 1927, the Boosters Club changed its name to the Student Assembly and formed the Student Council of Southwestern to simplify the handling of its many questions. The formation of this council marked the beginning of a new era in student government at Southwestern. It was the function of this new council to consider all questions of importance and to pass upon their worth before these were formally presented to the student body. The Student Council is the executive committee of the Student Assembly and has become synonymous with representative student government at Southwestern.

The first council's constitution provided seats on the council for the president of every student organization; new organizations could petition for seats. In the 1947-48 college year, the council then in office decided that it was too large and not equally representative. The first step in the re-organization was the change of the name "The Student Assembly" to the name "The Student Body of Southwestern." Then a new and much more exacting and complete constitution was drawn up. Representative seats were given, and a small and more smoothly working Student Council was established. All of these changes were voted on by the entire student body and passed overwhelmingly.

This is your seventh Student Council Handbook. It is published for your help and information.

ELECTIONS COMMISSION

The Elections Commission is in charge of all student body and class elections. The Commission is responsible to the Student Council, and is composed of one member from each fraternity, sorority and independent group. Its purpose is to regulate student body elections of all kinds, and to insure fair elections by supervising conventions and balloting and by penalizing individuals or organizations not adhering to the regulations passed by the commission. The vice-president of the student body is automatically president of the Elections Commission.

President......Reg Germany

The student body elects each spring persons to wear the popularity titles of:

Miss Southwestern	Best All-Around Boy
Most Stylish Coed	Most Popular Boy
Most Attractive Coed	Most Handsome Boy

The second week in April, two conventions meet (one made up of representatives of the sororities and fraternities; the other appointees of the Student Council) to select candidates for the Student Body officers. Each convention nominates one candidate for each office, and additional candidates may be nominated by petitions submitted to the Elections Commission and subject to the regulations of that group.

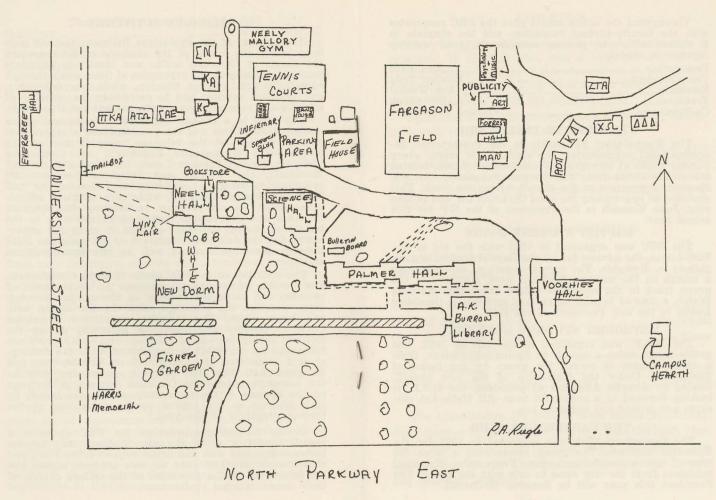

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

The purpose of the Protestant Religious Council is to keep before the minds of the students of Southwestern the claims of Christian truths and ideals; to stimulate increasing loyalty to and expression of those ideals through honest thought, genuine worship, wholesome fellowship, and unselfish service; and to coordinate the working of all religious organizations on the campus for these ends.

The PRC is a student organization composed of an executive committee and the president and a representative from each of the religious organizations on the campus—The Westminster Fellowship, the Canterbury Club, the Baptist Student Union, the Methodist Student Movement, the YWCA, and Religious Seminar. All campus-wide religious activities are directed by and channeled through the PRC, while each religious organization directs its own program. In this way vital religious activities and experiences become more available to the individual student and each student is given the opportunity for the fullest development of his religious faith through denominational as well as interdenominational activities.

The activities of the PRC center in three commissions. The worship commission encourages the development of personal and corporate worship on the campus through dorm worship, the blessings asked in the dining hall, and hymn sings. The thought commission stimulates Christian thought and discussion especially during the fall and spring periods of religious emphasis, which are sponsored by the PRC in cooperation with the facultystudent committee, the Committee on Convocations and Religious Activities. The outreach commission provides the means to extend the Christian witness to everyone on the campus, in the community, and in the world, by such projects as the annual service drive, one of the biggest programs of the year.

During freshman orientation the PRC sponsors a hearth supper whereby the new students may become better acquainted with the organization of the PRC, and church night at which time the new students attend and are introduced to the personnel of the college church of their denominational preference.

 $\mathbf{24}$

Throughout the entire school year the PRC cooperates with the faculty-student committee and the chaplain in a sincere effort to present consistently good worship services in chapel.

Secretary	Mary Ann Wachal
Treasurer	Bill Shenk

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

The Westminster Fellowship is the Presbyterian denominational organization for students. It meets every Sunday night at Evergreen Presbyterian Church, located across the street from the campus. Frequently the WF sponsors a program at the church during the week. This provides an opportunity for good Christian fun and fellowship. Joan Womack is the President of the WF for this school year.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

The BSU was organized in 1953 with the aid of Mr. Tom Logue, the adviser for all the Baptist student organizations in Memphis. The regular meetings are held once a month on the campus. Twice a week members of the group meet in the mornings before school for Morning Watch, a time of helpful prayer and meditation. Geraldine Dozier is the new President of the BSU.

METHODIST STUDENT MOVEMENT

The M.S.F. was organized in the fall of 1952. The group meets twice a month at Springdale Church. Once a month dinner is served the group by the ladies of Springdale. Under the leadership of the new council, headed by Annelle Albritton as president, the M.S.F. is looking forward to a successful year. All Methodist students are invited and urged to join.

THE CANTERBURY CLUB

The Canterbury Club was organized in 1953 for the Episcopal students. The group meets once a week for supper and a helpful program. Frequently, Episcopal ministers from the city come to talk with the group. The President this year will be Suzanne McCarroll.

ATHLETICS

The "S" Club, an organization whose membership is composed of all men who earn a letter in any of the varsity sports, handles all the concessions at the various intercollegiate games. They also award trophies to the outstanding athletes on the campus.

Southwestern fields varsity teams in football, basketball, golf, tennis, baseball, and track.

A comprehensive intramural program including such sports as basketball, softball, tennis, and volleyball. These events are scheduled at different times throughout the year so that there is one tournament in progress at all times.

THE HONOR SYSTEM

The Honor System was instituted at Southwestern early in the history of the college. When the college was moved from Clarksville, Tennessee, in 1925, the Honor System was one of the traditional institutions brought by Southwestern to its new home in Memphis. From time to time minor changes in phrasing and procedure have been made, always with the purpose of strengthening and fostering the same high spirit of honor and integrity which characterized the student body from the earliest years.

THE HONOR COUNCIL

Article I. Name and Purpose

Section 1. The name of this body shall be the Honor Council of Southwestern at Memphis.

Section 2. The purpose of this Council shall be to foster a spirit of honor at Southwestern; and to investigate and to act upon cases of cheating, stealing, or lying (in official matters) on the part of students in connection with academic work or campus life.

By-Laws, Article IV. Instruction

Section 1. To insure the cooperation of the faculty in the support of the Honor System, the Council shall, at the first of each semester, discuss the system with the faculty, reminding them of their obligation to report violations, asking them to request the full written pledge on their work, asking them to remind students before each test that the test is to be pledged, and to clarify in the minds of their students which work is to be pledged and which work is not to be pledged.

Section 2. To insure the full understanding and support of the Honor System by the Student Body, the Council shall, each summer, send letters of instruction to incoming students; explain the system during freshman orientation; request that fraternities and sororities include the Honor System in their pledge training; conduct a special chapel program before semester examinations; see that each student has a copy of the Honor Council Constitution; place printed cards outlining the system in each classroom at Southwestern; place several large placards about the campus proclaiming the Honor System; and empower the president of the Honor Council to meet with the Student Council from time to time to discuss the system.

MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION

Part-Time Employment:

The popular notion that the average person can work his way through college needs to be exploded quickly. Veterans had trouble even with the aid of the GI Bill. Only under very unusual circumstances can a student make enough money to pay his way through college. There are a number of loans made to students who are qualified to receive them, and these are fully explained in the College Catalogue.

However, part-time employment is available for a limited number of students in the Lynx Lair, in the Dining Hall, in the Library, in the Alumni Office, and in the Administrative Offices. Full information about such work may be obtained in the Registrar's Office. Your Room:

When you arrive you will find your room very bare. A bed, a few chairs, a bookcase, a study table, and a dresser or wardrobe is about all you will find.

However, you can decorate the room to suit your own taste. A rug, some pictures, and some inexpensive drapes can do wonders. A radio will help, too. Other odds-andends will make the dormitory a better place in which to live. You may as well plan to do some decorating to make your room more livable; it will probably be your home for the next few years.

Your Social Life:

Probably one of the greatest problems of your undergraduate years will be in determining just where you should draw the line in your social activities. It is practically a matter of physical impossibility to participate in all of the social functions that take place in the campus during the year. So, there necessarily must be some wise budgeting of spare time in order to live a full social life and not neglect your school work. By all means, don't stay away from all social events, but, on the other hand, don't let your social life interfere with your studies. You come to Southwestern to learn, not to attend social functions.

Mail, Food, Dry Cleaning:

There are mail boxes in each of the women's dorms. In the men's dorm, the mail boxes are located on the first floor of Robb Hall. Your address at Southwestern will be:

Southwestern at Memphis Memphis 12, Tennessee

For letters "to-be-mailed," there is a box at the University Street entrance of the campus. Stamps may be obtained in the Lynx Lair.

The school dining room, where all dorm students are required to eat, is located in Neely Hall. The Lynx Lair will serve short order meals and sandwiches at any hour during the day.

Route men from several nearby laundries and dry cleaning establishments make regular calls at all the dorms. There are also some laundries located within walking distance of the campus.

FRESHMAN REGULATIONS

All freshman students of Southwestern and all transfers are required by the Student Council, through the authority vested in it by the administration of the college, to observe certain regulations which are designed to instill in new students the spirit of the college. Regulations will apply equally to men and women with certain variations.

Familiarization with freshman regulations is the duty of every student who is required to comply with them. The following regulations will take effect on Monday, September 21.

1. Standard freshman caps (for boys) and baby bonnets (for girls) MUST be worn on the campus and in the buildings, day and night, with the exception that they will not be worn during chapel, in classrooms, in laboratories or when engaged in athletics.

2. Large legible signs, at least eight inches by twelve inches in size, must be worn, bearing the student's name and that of his home town.

3. The west and north doors of Palmer Hall may not be used by all new students during the hazing period.

4. A test will be given to freshmen concerning material in this handbook during the orientation period.

5. No emblems, marks, letters, or pins of high schools may be worn at Southwestern.

6. Freshmen will at all times attempt to grow up.

7. At no time will freshmen be allowed to walk on the grass anywhere on the campus during the hazing period.

8. ALL NEW STUDENTS WILL SPEAK TO EVERYONE ON THE CAMPUS and learn the names of all the seniors.

9. All new students are required to be able to sing the Alma Mater and Fight Song by Sept. 22.

10. All new students will be held responsible for any questions pertaining to this handbook.

11. Freshmen men are to answer the telephone in the men's dormitories at all times.

12. Freshmen are required to remain seated until upperclassmen have left the auditorium after all chapel services.

13. Freshmen should expect to be hazed by upperclassmen. This will include such things as entertainment in chapel, after dinner singing, carrying of books, etc.

14. Transfers will adhere to rules 2, 4, 8, and 10.

15. All new students are to get the signatures of 50 seniors, 50 juniors, and 50 sophomores.

16. All new students will be required to attend all football games. THE ROLL WILL BE TAKEN.

Upon failure to live up to these regulations and requirements, a girl will be brought before the Women's Undergraduate Board.

Boys will be brought before a committee composed of the Vice President of the Student Body and members of the Sanhedrin.

Written reports of violations should give the violator's name and the offense.
