A Few Words From An Old Handbook (1933 - 1934)

SUGGESTIONS TO FRESHMEN

Be friendly, speak to everybody, whether you know the person or not.
Try to learn every student's name.
Learn the college yells and songs.
Systematize your daily program.
Pay your debts promptly.
Lend little money and borrow less.
Be a booster, not a kicker.
Don't spend too much time uptown.
Dress neatly at all times.
Write home often.

Remember you have mother who cares.

Who's Who

PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE
James H. Daughdrill, Jr.
Halliburton Tower, third floor

The President is the spokesman of the college, to the Board of Trustees, alumni, and the community, as well as chief officer of the administration and faculty. Receptive to student opinion, interest and suggestions, he can be found walking around campus in his spare time, which is becoming more scarce. His secretary will make appointments for those with special concerns.

DEAN OF THE COLLEGE
Robert G. Patterson
Halliburton Tower, second floor

Student petitions for exceptions to ordinary academic procedures, such as dropping or adding after course deadlines or changing examinations schedules, go to the Dean’s Office. The Dean’s List (3.6+) honors exceptional academic performance. The Dean also communicates to students placed on academic probation or suspension. Working with the faculty members and individual departments, he seeks to maintain the variety and standards of the educational program, to secure new faculty members, and to safeguard student and faculty freedoms and interest. The Dean is happy to make appointments with individual students concerning academic matters and welcomes suggestions for improvement in the program of the college.

DEAN OF STUDENTS
Anne Marie Williford
Halliburton Tower, second floor

Dean Williford offers all assistance at her reach to all students. This is the office to find when in any kind of bind or simply when seeking a helping hand. Her office hours are posted, and appointments can also be made if she is not to be reached. She deals with most Residence Halls structuralism and other red tape which winds between students, faculty and administration.

ASSISTANT DEAN OF STUDENTS & DIRECTOR OF THE STUDENT CENTER
Bo Scarborough
Halliburton Tower (second floor) & around

Bo handles the student—related problems that do not fall within the realm of Dean Williford. This includes student organizations, social programming, the calendar, student counselors, town students, WUB, BSA, et al. He is not hard to get in touch with, always within shouting or talking distance of students.

- A MAP of the campus should be available when you arrive for orientation.
Absences

The college expects but does not itself enforce daily class attendance by the Students. Any professor may, and some do, require class attendance if he/she so desires. Speak with your professor regarding his/her policy. (They're generally good people. ed.)

Academics

Your best plan is to "know your catalog", it will save you time and worry. On pages 34 to 43 of your catalog are the requirements for graduation and the academic regulations of the college. Read them carefully.

During orientation you will find out who your colloquium leader is, and he/she will serve as your faculty advisor. This simply means they will assist you in planning the courses you want to take and should take. Fellow students (upperclassmen) however, are also a very valuable source of information, they can tell you what a professor is like (great, easy, boring, spacy, etc.) and what the class will entail (papers, tests, etc.). Your student counselor should be very helpful in this respect. Other excellent sources of information are professors and department chairmen, they can best tell you about their courses, their departments, and what kind of career might be available. Take advantage of all these sources of information, everyone will be happy to help you.

Any questions you have concerning the requirements for a major in a certain department should be directed to the chairman of that department (whose name is noted at the beginning of each department section in the catalog).

Questions you have concerning the scheduling of classes, credit received, transfer hours, grades, etc. should be directed to the Registrar, John Turpin.

Special attention should be paid to the information on page 35. Every student must fulfill these requirements. It is good to get these requirements out of the way as early as possible so later on you can concentrate on your major. Read carefully the A, B, C, D, E, and F of Requirements for degrees. If a course listed in the catalog is not followed by one of the letters designating that it would count for degree requirements then it will not count. See the example below.

How to Decipher Your Catalog

(1) 111-113L. (2) Biology of Cells. (3) (I) (4) [3-1] (5) D1

(1). The course number is 111-113L. The 111 is the class number for the lecture, and 113L is the Lab number. Before registration each term information will be available about when and where classes will meet. This information is given by the course number.

(2) The title of the course.
(3) The term the course will be offered - always in Roman numerals. This course, Biology of Cells, is offered only first term.

(4) The number of hours credit for the course, in this case 3 hours credit for the lecture class 111, and 1 hour credit for the Lab 113.

(5) This tells you that this course will fulfill part of your degree requirements (see page 35 or 43 and you will find D1. D is Natural Science and the 1 is for Biology).

Southwestern is on a three term system of 12-12-6 week terms. The normal course load in a 12 week term is 4 courses, and for a 6 week term it is 2 courses. An overload or underload of courses must be approved by the Curriculum Committee. Classes usually meet for three hours each week. Either on Monday’s, Wednesday’s, and Friday’s for an hour, or on Tuesday’s and Thursday’s for an hour and a half. During the six week term classes meet Monday through Friday for the six weeks.

Admissions

As incoming students you are probably better acquainted with the Admissions Office personnel than with the Dean of Students or any other administrative person. Admissions counsel prospective students and help those who are accepted to prepare for their entrance to the SW community.

With the beginning of the new year, the cycle begins afresh and new students will be recruited for next year’s class. You can help Admissions in 3 ways:

(1) Giving names, addresses and high schools of prospective students to Admissions.

(2) Talk about SW to your high school friends.

(3) Following up contacts and giving tours on campus. Stop by 100 Palmer and tell Mary Jo Miller if you are interested.
Alma Mater

Dear Alma Mater, kind the fate
That links our lives with Thee,
For God's own power that made Thee great
Is the truth that makes us free;
Thy torch has touched our hearts with flame,
Our yearning souls refined;
Through Thee we learn the higher aim,
And train the truer mind.

O Leader to the larger light,
Southwestern, 'neath Thy wings
Thine own in rev'rent love unite,
And each his tribute brings;
And dreams, such dreams as old can dream,
Keep lighted in our hearts the flame
Once kindled there of Thee.

Athletics

Varsity athletics are guided by the principals of the College Athletic Conference (CAC) composed of Principia, Millsaps (who? ed.) Rose-Hulman, Centre, and Southwestern. The CAC stresses the concept of athletics played by non-athletic scholarship students. (Ya gotta love the game! ed.)

Varsity sports for men include basketball, football, baseball, tennis, track, soccer and golf.

Women can and do play on our team. Varsity sports for Women have included basketball, volleyball, badminton and tennis depending on how many want to play.

Everything happening in the Athletic Department will probably be revitalized due to the new Athletic Directors and coaches. (Maybe students will attend the football games to watch the team instead of the Pep Band. ed.) Look for new programs and courses because upperclassmen will be just as much in the dark as you are.

Intramurals. More than 1/2 the school participates in the intramural sports. Men and women play flagball, basketball, volleyball, softball, and track. Flagball begins the second week of school. Information will be in the dorms, Student Center, or with your R.A. or Dorm President. Individual competitions are held also, such as tennis, ping pong, and pool. Ask an upperclassmen to point out the 18-hole Frisbee golf course around campus.

P.E. Check your catalogue, but also check with the coaches to be sure your course is being offered.
Bookstore

This is located in the Student Center and is the place that you will find the textbooks you need for class. Lines are always long the first of the term (you can say that again! typist.) Plan to spend some time and money there.

You will also find T-shirts, supplies, stamps, jewelry, and a photo service available. Hours are: Monday - Friday 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Business Office

101 Palmer

Officially, the Business Office is administratively responsible for the financial affairs of the college, including all fees and tuitions. Any questions concerning insurance, use of college vehicles, and guest room reservations (there are 2 motel-like rooms available on campus for guests at a minimal cost) should be directed here.

Camping Equipment

The SGA and Student Center have purchased some equipment that students are welcome to use. Because of the limited number of items available, reservations are essential and can be made with Professor Ken Wagner (Biology Department, Frazier-Jelke) or Lee Ensign (a student, 104 Bellingrath).

Items available:

- 2-man tents (50 cents per night)
- 2 sleeping bags (50 cents per night)
- 4 back packs (50 cents per night)
- cooking pot free
- a fuel flask free
- 1 back packing stove (25 cents per night)
- 1 lantern (25 cents per night)

Only Earthquakes and Grizzly bears can be used as excuses for damages, otherwise students must pay for all damages.

Cashier's Office

105 Palmer

Pay your tuition, fees, fines, and parking tickets here. Dorm students may cash checks up to $15 but Town Students are asked to cash checks at their own banks. You can set up a student deposit account here. (Most people like to do this because of its convenience. Plus, if they have not gotten their money during the office hours, they won't have it to spend. ed.) Stamps and scales for weighing letters and small parcels are available here. Hours are:
Monday - Friday 8:30 - 3:30

Chaplens

Explore around Bellingrath and Voorhies dormitories to find them.

Commons

We're all guinea pigs in an unique social experiment that will bring all students, town and dorm, together more often. Over the next three years, Common residential groups will be established:

Townsend Common - utilizing Townsend and Voorhies
Robb Common - utilizing Robb, White, Ellett, Neely and Bellingrath
University Common - utilizing University, Evergreen and Trezevant
New Common - utilizing New Dorm and Glassell

The odd combination of dorms is to achieve a balance between men and women. Led by the D.P.'s and R.A.'s, the Commons will become inclusive, non-restrictive social units. Each Common will grow on their own: form intramural teams, have parties, form extracurricular film programs, or bridge group, depending on the interests of the Commonites.

New commuting students will be assigned a Common just as dorm students are now assigned a residence hall, so everyone will be involved.

Counseling

Fred Pultz - career planning (home: 685-7191)
Dennis Heitzman - personal counseling (home: 276-6084)
The counseling center will find a new home upstairs in the Student Center in September. They make themselves available for personal and confidential counseling, but also career guidance. They have a large number of college catalogues from across the nation and are glad to help you find out about graduate schools. Dr. Pultz and Dennis (as we call him) also hold seminars throughout the year.
(how to study, transactional analysis groups).
Sometimes a friend is your best counselor, but know that your R.A. and Dorm President are there to listen and help.

Eat

REFECTORY

The place where minds and stomachs meet, the refectory takes more verbal abuse than any other thing on campus. Meals have improved so that you can almost guess what you’re eating. Occasional picnics, banquets and new dishes relieve the monotony, plus the Saturday steak night make the weekends worth living for.

For town students and guests, meals are reasonably priced and meal tickets are available (see Town Student). No identification card is necessary, but if you’re not a dorm student, the Honor System requires that you pay for your food.
New recipes, complaints and compliments may be directed to Jack McCormick, the new and enthusiastic SAGA food service manager.

LYNX LAIR

From hamburgers to yogurt, the Lair serves an interesting variety of food with an in-house flavor at reasonable prices. The Lair is in the Student Center and has become the special gathering place for faculty and town students. At night, the Lair often draws those on a study break, bridge players, and other goof-offs.

The hours of serving food vary slightly depending on the crowd and weather, but generally run from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Vending machines that work 95% of the time are in the Lair and are available during the hours of the Student Center.

MR. ROACH’S STORE

This hole-in-the-wall store under the refectory has pop, candy, good coffee plus other odds and ends. Mr. Roach, who was placed by a program for the blind, keeps the store open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Financial Aid

Bill Jones - director

The decisions of the Financial Aid Committee are based on the Parents’ Confidential Statement form. Awards or adjustments can be appealed by submitting a request to the Committee through Bill Jones. Students sit on this Committee along with faculty members to award grants and scholarships.

Students who are working on campus through the Work-Study program receive their checks once per month from this office. Be sure to know whether you have Work-Study or campus employment because there is a difference.
This office works extremely hard for students by doing everything possible to obtain aid for everyone. Take your financial problems to them and get them to help you.

Fisher Gardens

A quiet place for self-reflection, deep thoughts, picnics and frisbees.

HELP!

In a state of panic:
1. open window as far as possible,
2. inhale deeply, expanding the diaphragm to capacity and,
3. tune your vocal chords to the gamut of your repertoire.

If a crowd fails to gather, I suggest you climb the Haliburton Tower and try again. Should this also fail, maybe things aren’t as bad as they seem (you could be at the University of ABCDEFGH . . . ).

INFIRMARY

The Infirmary has 13 beds available to sick students with 24 hour health care extended to all full-time students living on or off campus. Dorm Presidents and R.A.’s will handle any night emergencies and R.A.’s have simple remedies available for dorm students (aspirin, heating pads, etc.). Flu shots are offered starting in October (this might be worthwhile considering the strain predicted to hit the U.S. this year. ed.) for a small fee to cover the cost of the medicine. Student Health Insurance claim forms may be obtained through the Business Office.

College physicians are available at different times each day but usually are there for a few hours each morning. (Bring your own Ace bandages so you won’t have to buy one during the flagball or basketball seasons. ed.).

Many students study here as there are large tables in the reading room, carols in the stacks, and comfortable couches in the lounge downstairs.

Books are checked out for 2 weeks with fines at 5 cents per day. (Note: the fines is one-half if paid at the time of returning the book.) Reserve books (“Man” students check this) may be checked out for 2 hours and for overnight after 4:30. Overnight due time is 10:30 a.m. the next morning with huge fines of 25 cents for the first hour and 5 cents every hour thereafter. (There’s a lot over there if you take time to explore: private study rooms upstairs, Playboy, records, etc. ed.)

Many students go to the Memphis Public Library on Peabody which is a great escape from campus. It’s disadvantage is its 9 p.m. closing hour. It is in cycling distance. The Memphis State Library is farther but just as good. SW students can check books out there so books aren’t too hard to find if you check all 3 libraries.

Lost & Found

First, check where you left it—refectory, classroom, under your bed... Then try Cashier’s Office, Security, Student Center Office, and your Dorm President or R.A. The SFA newsletter often has info so check there.

Mail

The mailroom is in the Student Center. Town students and dorm student have boxes so everyone has a box number. Find out what’s happening at home and at school: check for letters and announcements in your box.

Memphis is a "BIG" city, and there lots of good and not-so-good places to eat. From a poll conducted Term III, 1976, the Handbook will recommend these eating establishments. Use your Memphis phone directory to find addresses.

Musician's Outlet

Southwestern Singers under the direction of Tony Lee Garner are selected by audition during Orientation in Tuthill Hall. This past year included many concerts, a tour, and a trip to Rumania. According to those who are in it, it is great training and fun as well.

First Generation, a modern branching of the Singers includes choreography and costuming in its performances. A very professional-looking group that performs on campus, in the amphitheater or refectory during dinner, as well as off campus.

The Madrigal Singers are the 16th and 17th century version of the Singers who contribute a unique facet to SW music.

The Concert Band, a serious but non-pressuring outlet for those interested in playing for enjoyment. The band usually has at least two concerts per year, a Christmas carol sing-along and spring concert performance. The size and instrumentation depends on the participation.

The Pep Band is a student disorganized and directed group of misfits and "hams" who provide the half-time satires for the football games. Kazoos, combs and paper as well as real instruments are carried on the field and included in show.

Uncommon House sponsored by student organizations allow talented individuals to perform on stage in the Student Center. Held every-once-in-awhile, the dates will be announced.

RESIDENT ADVISORS

Katherine Bullard
Melanie Hart
From John Turpin's mouth: "Read Your Catalogue." A cooperative man who enjoys good conversation with students on his lunch hours near the amphitheater. His office is 107 Palmer, and all you've heard about him is true. (Make your own judgement after you register.)

Telephone: 274-0036

When in doubt, give them a call; especially when you need to get into a building, or when you need help, or when you should report a routine occurrence.

Social Life

What can you expect? The odds are in favor of exactly the opposite of your expectations. You'll first experience Orientation with your class and some transfers. Fresh planning in May makes Orientation look like a good all-around introduction to the campus community.

Social life is often spontaneous, yet also formal including ways that are right for everyone. The cross-section of life-styles at SW is amazingly wide and it is not hard to develop friendships with a variety of people. Many "dates" are campus movies and parties, Greek parties and open houses, or a night at a local bar. Stag or drag, people move freely, especially your freshman year.

New freshmen and transfers are the object of the Greek "rush" - enjoy it in spite of your future plan of joining or not joining.

A good mix of the worthwhile and worthless are available either on campus or off, depending on your interests. Getting along is easy providing, as one rising senior male counseled, you "talk about religion, politics, Bruce Springsteen, anything but your hometown or major".

In sum, social life at Southwestern comes easy if you relax and don't take it too seriously.

Student Organizations
Each student organization has some form of bureaucracy to administer its purpose and each one needs and welcomes freshpersons to come in and revive their group, many with no stipulations. Past experiences are helpful at SW, but there's every opportunity to find new ones in the upcoming years.
Should you have difficulty determining differences between groups, take heart because you're not the only one.

BLACK STUDENT ASSOCIATION

President: Linda Balfour

The BSA promotes and coordinates the efforts of black students. Open to all students, membership is entirely black and its interests are of those involved. The BSA channels communication whereby black students may participate more in campus social life and help recruit and orient new black students to SW. BSA sponsors campus-wide programs including an annual Black History Program during Black History Week. The "Black House" for meetings and programs is near the Security Shack.

DILEMMA

Dilemma is an annual student-run weekend symposium which will be held March 5, 6, and 7. It is designed to bring guest speakers to campus to present their views and expertise in formal speeches, with further interactions in smaller informal seminars. Dilemma has attracted such individuals as

The idea of Dilemma was conceived by a SW student ten years ago (our Assistant Dean of Students) and it has continued to be totally organized and staged by students and financed by private contributions, whereas most other campus symposiums receive designated school funds.

The Dilemma ‘77 Steering Committee met in May a select a broad topic for a central theme. Dilemma ‘77 will concern itself with the South touching history, literature, and other areas that the Steering Committee feels will interest students. Suggestions, ideas, and physical help are always welcomed. Check upstairs in the Dilemma office in the Student Center.

DRAMA CLUB

Jim Peebles

With a unique combination of faculty and students, the Drama Club attempts to produce as many as possible works of the performing arts. The Club has been active in the planning and production of the Renaissance Festival held in early May.
The Honor System at Southwestern is an opportunity. Because the freedom and responsibility which the Honor Code allows us, we are able to strive personally for the fullest possible expression of individual harmony with community life.

Within the Honor System, we as students have found a moral ideal by which to guide our actions. In the light of this freedom and individual responsibility, the Honor Council has a positive judicial role within the College community.

The Honor System applies to all phases of campus life. The four basic violations of the Code are cheating, stealing, lying in official matters, and failure to report a violation. Please read the Codebook (and Constitution) of the Council, as a basic understanding of the Honor Code is important.

Please feel free to ask any member of the Council questions which might come to you. The Council is made up of Southwestern students who are concerned and interested.

THE HONOR COUNCIL 1976-77

INTER-VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The IVCF works as a fellowship to promote Christian discipleship and outreach. The chapter meets as a whole on bi-monthly basis for programs, speakers, and activities. On a weekly basis, students participate in one of the several core groups which meet under student direction for Bible study and fellowship. During the school year, IVCF sponsors several retreats and an international missions conference.

KINNEY

Julia Allen, Director
Lynn Reecer and Brian Sudderth, coordinators
The Kinney Program is a student-coordinated volunteer community service organization which provides an opportunity for students to work in local service projects. Among the projects in which students can become involved are hospitals, scouts, Big Brother Program, programs with crippled or handicapped youth, criminal justice volunteer agencies, and visitation with the elderly. Career interests may be pursued in certain projects, but Kinney also provides the student with a means of knowing and serving the Memphis community.

Students who are interested in giving a little time each week in volunteer service should attend the Kinney orientation meeting at the beginning of each term or go by the Kinney office, 306 Student Center.

(Kinney is a way to give yourself, your time to Memphis. 200 students participated third term to make Kinney outshine any other student organization. ed.)

PHOTOGRAPHER'S GUILD

The Photo Guild acts as an undercover camera club. Darkrooms for developing are available to members. Information concerning this club must be found by asking around as the editor was unable to locate the President. (Who is it?)

SOCIAL REGULATIONS COUNCIL

The name sound a good bit more ominous than the actual Council. Social regulations of Southwestern are designed to keep rigid rules at a minimum and build responsibility within the individual living in the community. The basic function of the SRC is two fold. The first duty is to initiate social rules and regulations within the students and submit new rules and ideas to the Administration for final approval. The second task is judicial in nature; enforcement of standing regulations. Hopefully, the latter task is kept to a minimum by student use of common sense and thoughtful actions. The SRC also encourages communication between campus groups and also between students and the Administration.

The SRC is designed to allow student to govern their own social habits. It is hoped that enough consideration is used by all students to keep judiciary action at a minimum.

Sophomore: Carolyn Crenshaw
Daniel Cogswell
Junior: Sara Bailey
James Lemmers
Senior: Gary Gaines
Robin Mattis

Freshman representatives will be elected early next year.

STUDENT CENTER

Explore all three levels!

Top - Counseling Center, T.V. Room, Student Organization offices, Bo's office, rest rooms.

Ground - Lair, Bookstore, East Lounge, Mailroom, drinking fountain, Student Center assistant's office.

Basement - Student Publications, rest rooms, pool and ping-pong tables, Language Lab, (proposed location for the Pub).

STUDENT CENTER ASSEMBLY

Bobbo Jetmundsen, President
Jill Fuzy, Vice-President
Lee Sanow, Secretary

This group works to make the Student Center a lively center for students to gather (which might see the addition of a Rathskellar or Pub sometime soon. ed.) The group, with their small budget, sponsors a variety of activities for the student body: beer busts, bingo, movies, a Derby Day, 50's dance and a semi-formal. Officers are elected from within the group, but general membership comes with participation.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

Steve Wade, President
Bobbo Jetmundsen, Vice-President
Alice Smith, Secretary
Francis Cleavenger, Treasurer

The SGA is a part of SW life, and every student is an automatic member. Activities are allocated by Commissions, each Commissioner creating and carrying through projects in his/her area. Students are on faculty committees as well as Trustee committees and have places where suggestions, complaints and compliments can be voiced. The SGA does more than is known to most students because it is organized on an individual basis, so students often have to search out individuals. Regular meetings are at 6 p.m. Sunday nights in the Student Center.

ATHLETIC COMMISSION
Kathy Whitaker

Concerned with the athletic interests of the student, it serves as a link between the student and the athletic department. Any or all questions concerning varsity, intramural and individual sports often can be answered through the Commission. Bleachers, soccer and intramural equipment were purchased for student use by the Commission.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Trustees hold the ultimate authority for Southwestern. Meeting three times per year, delegates from Presbyterian synods meet to discuss institutional advancement, faculty and student affairs, financial matters, and other business pertaining to the college. Three students who are selected by the SGA serve on each committee of the Board. Three students are elected from the student body to sit on the Board with voting privileges. The students: Bill Harkins, Joellyn Forrester and Katherine Bullard were elected for 1976-77.

EDUCATION COMMISSION
Gary Minor

Taking an active role for a change this year, the Commission will handle questions of curriculum and educational development.

ELECTIONS COMMISSION
Sallie Pompe

This Commission handles the details of every student body election: publicity, poll duty, vote counting. Elections are held throughout the year for various offices and instructions for candidacy are posted. Position are available on the Honor Council and SRC for freshmen and elections will be in September.

PUBLICATIONS
John Benoist
The opportunities available to you in publications at Southwestern are nearly unlimited. The Publications Board elects two freshman representatives each fall, all of the seven publications welcome freshman workers, and this year, selection of Jaime Ronderos (rising sophomore) as editor of the Sou'wester demonstrates how quickly freshmen can move to the top.

The Publications Board is the governing body over all publications. It selects new editors each spring, allocates money and settles conflicts in editorial policy. To a large degree, editor selection and funding determine the nature of the publications, so the Pub Board wields a lot of power. Members of the Board include the seven editors, class representatives, and the Commissioner who is elected by the student body.

As would be expected, some publications are more active than others. The Sou'wester and SFA are published weekly and the others only once a year. To get involved with any publication, meet the editor and offer your help. If you don’t know what to do, stand around until you get the hand of things and then jump in. Pick out your favorite from the list below:

Campus Directory - includes the address, phone number, and mug shot of each student, faculty and staff member. Most work is concentrated in the first weeks of school, and freshmen are needed to help match pictures with names.

Ginger - the campus literary magazine, is an outlet for student creativity in poetry, prose, graphics and photography. Material is collected all year by the editor and published once or twice annually, depending on the material available.

Journal - selects student papers and essays recommended to the editor by the faculty. An editorial board with student and faculty members reviews all proposals, and those selected are published in the spring. There is some talk of publishing the journal semi-annually in the future.

Handbook - you be the judge, you’re holding it.

Lynx - the campus yearbook, is a photographic essay using student photography to review the school year. Differing considerably from most high school annuals, the Lynx should be of most interest to photography buffs.

Sou'wester - is the student newspaper. The camera-ready copy method requires student typesetting, proofreading, and layout. The editors welcome help with that on Tuesday and Wednesday night. Writing stories is an ongoing process, and doing it provides an excellent introduction to the workings of the college. However you decide to get involved with the Sou'wester, you will find it exciting.

Student-Faculty-Administration Newsletter (SFA) - includes general announcements and the weekly calendar of events. To submit an announcement, fill out an announcement form in the Student Center lobby and leave it in the collection box.

RELIGION COMMISSION

Bonnie Allen

Separate from Inter-varsity (I-V), the Commission will provide opportunities for broadening the horizons of your life in the light of the religions of the world. The Commission will host seminars and retreats aimed at giving you a chance to get outside your own beliefs and explore new ideas.

SOCIAL COMMISSION

Jim Pagan, Billy Matthews

Don Ramier

The Social Commission might also be called Entertainment Ltd., for it is its function to sponsor various campus events open to the entire student body. The Commission differs from the Student Center Assembly because they have separate and unequal budgets. Some attractions hosted by the Social Commission include: Homecoming Dance, feature-length movies, Common Houses and student talent entertainment.

TOWN STUDENT

Mark Carlton

1) There are lockers for town students in the basement of the Student Center.

2) Town students will have on-campus mailboxes, located in the Student Center. All town students are encouraged to check their mailboxes each day for important announcements and notices.

3) There are rooms for town students in the dorms. These rooms, one for women and one for men, are for the specific use by town students, and are very helpful for things like Homecoming weekend, exams, big tests the next day, too drunk to drive home after a party, etc.

New town students (as well as "old" town students) are encouraged to become active in the Commons next year (see Commons). This is designed to enhance the on-campus activities for both town and dorm students. Hopefully, the Commons will provide an opportunity for town students to be on-campus more than usual and become more active than in past years.
WELFARE COMMISSION

The Student-Catch-All and Referral agency is the Welfare Commission. Organized on a who-can-help-this-time level, various projects under the all-inclusive title, welfare, can be worked out. Voter registration and the upcoming election will be primary concerns of the Commission during Term I.

WOMEN'S UNDERGRADUATE BOARD

WUB highlights women in SW community as well as women in general. WUB is going to try to function on two levels: 1) to provide various entertaining social events (ice cream social, square dance) 2) to provide provocative educational experiences (seminars, Women’s Weekend). (The organization has gone through many changes within the past years and as a result, is open, flexible, and looks to be a energetic group. ed.)

WLYX

On the FM dial: WLYX at 89.3 with a power of 2.75 kilowatts and WSWM at 91.7 with a power of 10 watts are licensed to Southwestern. WLYX has developed a following in the community (Memphis State Student Center tunes in our station) and is noted for its classical, jazz, and “progressive rock” program. The broadcasting studios are in the fourth tower of the gym.

ROOTERS' CLUB

The chief roofer for next year needs every man in school to carry out his scheme. Systematic, loud, continuous yelling goes a long way toward winning the games. It gives spirit to the players and urges them on. Rooting has won in the past and let's make it do so in the future. LET'S ALL ROOT, ROOT, ROOT for the home team. (from the 1913-1914 Handbook, in case you want to revive the old tradition. ed.)

Afterword & Staff Credit

The material for this publication was accumulated by asking a representative of an organization to submit a short description of his group to the editor. Where this was not possible, I have written the passage. Occasionally, you will see the abbreviation for editor where unsolicited comments were added (now, if you read this before you read the rest of the booklet, you know that a person named “ed.” did not write this book, and you can advance to GO and collect $200).

Other sources that you can consult for further information include: Catalogue, upperclasspersons, and freshpersons of the opposite sex (the info may not be too reliable, but it will likely be more entertaining).

I have a marvelous array of individuals to credit who gave me invaluable assistance in preparing this handbook of sorts. Special thanks go to Li Li Chung and her magic fingers; Steve Collins, coach; Brian Sudderth and Bill Harkins, midnight patrolmen; GLR III and his 1974 Handbook; Term III and its crazy inspirations. Many special VIP’s enlisted their services and deserve my sincerest thanks and they are: Sandy Deeser, Lisa Longmire, Barbara Ashcroft, Larry Crawford, Paul Ainger, Bonnie Moore, Jim Porter, Diana Scarborough, and my mother.

(Many, many thanks to editor Annie Stein for her untiring enthusiasm and efforts to put this Handbook together as one of SW’s initial gestures of welcome and help to freshpersons. typist.)

DEDICATION

Selfishly, I dedicate this Handbook to the Class of ‘77 (such an odd number appropriately defines the Class); Seniors have worked three hard years and would not take anything to be a freshperson again, so they must leave to make room for more freshpersons. May the Seniors bring a life at SW that suits you and fulfills your need for the years ahead.
