

Fisk Prexy To Be Present At Freedom Forum

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—When President Eisenhower receives America's Democratic Legacy Award from the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith on November 23 in Washington, Fisk University will be represented by its President, Dr. Charles E. Johnson.

Dr. Johnson will attend the Freedom Forum of the Anti-Defamation League, commemorating the 40th anniversary of its founding in a series of functions to be held at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D. C., on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, November 21-23. On Saturday night and Sunday afternoon and evening three forums will be conducted which will deal with some of the principal problems in the field of human relations during the past 40 years.

The program includes sessions on anti-Semitism, discrimination against Negroes in America, the threat to civil liberties in America. Keynote address will be delivered by Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, Archibald MacLeish, Hon. William Hastie, Dr. Lewis Webster Jones (President of Rutgers University), Senator Hubert Humphrey and Victor Reuther. Dr. Johnson will participate in a panel consisting of George Mitchell of the Southern Regional Council, Julius Thomas of the National Urban League and Dwight Palmer of General Cable Corporation.

President Eisenhower will be present on Monday evening, November 23 to receive the Award and this program will be part of a one-hour television show which will be telecast by major networks nationally from the ballroom of the Mayflower Hotel.

Mr. Barney Balaban is Chairman of the Committee of Sponsors of the 40th Anniversary Committee.

MISS ALABAMA STATE — Miss Geraldine Johnson, demure Alabama State College Senior, will reign as "Miss Alabama State" when the "Hornets" engage the Tuskegee "Tigers" in the annual Homecoming Football Classic, Thanksgiving Day, in Cramton Bowl, Montgomery, Ala. Miss Johnson, a music major and an art minor, is a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority and participates in the Campus Society of Musicians.

PRESIDENT VOWS TO CLEAR REDS OUT OF GOVERNMENT BY 1954 ELECTIONS

IKE PLEASSED OVER CANADIAN TRIP

Will Maintain Silence About White Case

WASHINGTON—(NS)—President Eisenhower said Wednesday he hasn't another single word to say in the Harry Dexter White spy controversy and that he hopes the problem of Communists in government will be cleaned up by the time of the 1954 Congressional elections.

GRATIFIED WITH the results of his goodwill trip to Ottawa, President Eisenhower turns on his famous grin and makes a "V-for-Victory" sign from the window of the special train that took him back to Washington. The President's conference in Canada ended in complete agreement on American-Canadian continental defense plans. (International)

The Chief Executive told his news conference that he doesn't intend to open his mouth about the furious charges and countercharges hurled since Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr. on Nov. 6 accused ex-President Harry S. Truman of promoting White though aware he had been branded a spy.

Mr. Eisenhower, when asked to comment on the contention of GOP National Chairman Leonard W. Hall and other Republicans that Red infiltration under Truman would be a main issue in 1954, made this reply:

ISSUES MADE BY NEEDS He said issues in political campaigns are not made by individuals and that included the President of the United States. He said that as he saw it, issues are made by the needs of the country.

The President added that obviously certain phases of our agriculture are in bad shape, that certain tax revisions and reforms are coming up, and that federal expenditures are matters of great concern. He quickly issued a statement brushing aside any seeming conflict between his attitude and the President's.

Mr. Eisenhower said his administration is proceeding strongly and earnestly in its pledge to clean out subversives and that he is trying to do it without doing injustice to any individual.

He declared the rooting out of Reds was a presidential responsibility which was being pressed vigorously that he was confident the problem would be solved long before next election day.

TWIN APPLICATION The President made it plain that his remarks on Communist infiltration applied both to the continuing drive to eradicate subversives in the government and to the Truman-Brownell battle over the White case. He said emphatically he does not believe Americans can live in fear of each other forever. He declared also that the country could not afford to destroy inside what it is seeking to protect from outside attack.

The GOP chairman said: "I couldn't agree with the President more. We promised the people in 1952 that we would clean up the mess in Washington and certainly the most important part of that mess was Communist infiltration of our government."

"If we do not do our utmost to have every security risk out of the Federal Government by November, 1954, we will have failed to keep our promise. The President's statement is, to me, indicative of the administration's determination

Dr. Howard Lashes Out At "Spineless" Leaders

Dr. T. R. M. Howard, president of the Mississippi Regional Council of Negro Leadership and chairman of the board of directors of the United Order of Friendship of America, lashes out against spineless Negro leaders and unfair state leaders in keynote address.

CLARKSDALE, Miss., Nov. 15, '53 — Dr. T. R. M. Howard of Mound Bayou, Miss., in his keynote address before 1500 people attending the opening of the annual Grand Convocation of the United Order of Friendship of America, gave a stinging rebuke to what he describes as the spineless Negro leadership in the state of Mississippi. He stated that the shedding of unsegregated blood at the ends of the earth for the cause of democracy should call for equal rights of all peoples in this democracy, regardless of race, creed or color. We have fooled ourselves, said Dr. Howard, into believing that there is such a thing as separate but equal facilities in matters pertaining to human rights. There is not such a thing as separate but equal facilities in education or anything else pertaining to the rights of the individual. There is no use and homesick. America was geared to war in the early forties, and every man in uniform was made to feel important. Mrs. Goodman points out. That is not true today, so USO is even more essential. USO services here and overseas are financed by the United Defense Fund which seeks this year $20,225,000, chiefly through Community Chest or United Fund campaigns.

Sees USO Program More In Demand Since War

NEW YORK—The truce in Korea hasn't lessened the need for USO services in this city, according to Mrs. Edward Goodman who served as a USO hostess all through World War II and came right back on the job when USO was reactivated after fighting began in Korea. Today's servicemen need friends, just as did those who served in World War II, Mrs. Goodman declares. They are just as young, she says, and many are just as lonely

JERK SAVES WOMAN

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla.—Patrolman H. W. Fording made a futile attempt to break up a traffic jam at railroad crossing here recent ly. When he saw nothing could be done before a southbound train roared through he ordered Mrs. Hildegard F. Powell, 52 to jump from her car which was jammed on the tracks. Mrs. Powell was too terrified to move, so the patrolman opened the car door, grabbed Mrs. Powell and started running. Just as the train hit the car and demolished it

Ground-Breaking For Teaching Hospital, Nurse's Home Sunday

Ground-breaking ceremonies for the two-million-dollar Negro Teaching Hospital and Nurses Home at Jefferson and Dunlap will be observed Sunday, November 22. Speakers will include Mayor Frank Tobey; Dr. A. L. Johnson, past president of the Bluff City Medical Society, and Dr. B. F. McCleave, president; Dr. L. W. Diggs of the Community Council Health Division; L. C. Sharp, executive secretary of the Negro Chamber of Commerce; T. C. D. Hayes and Rev. J. A. McDaniel, executive secretary of Memphis Urban League.

Also participating will be representatives of local church, school, newspapers and labor groups. The 125-bed institution will give Negro physicians modern facilities for treatment of their patients and offer Negro interns and nurses a place to learn their professions under University of Tennessee guidance.

Given 99-Year Sentence In Murder Case

Joe Hale, 41, a farmer of Millington, Tennessee, charged with the shotgun murder of Reba H. Starnes, (white) a Millington Service Station Operator on April 30, was given a 99 year prison term by an all-white, all-white criminal court jury here Tuesday. Hale is alleged to have admitted the killing of Starnes last April because the service station operator refused him a $5.00 loan. Equality Must Come Despite Court Action, Horton Says

BY WILLIAM GORDON Managing Editor, Atlanta Daily World

ATLANTA, Georgia — (NS) — Supreme Court action, regardless of the ruling, should not retard efforts to work for equality for all citizens, Myles Horton believes.

The director of the Highland Folk School in Monteagle, Tenn., told a Hungry Club forum yesterday that he refuses to associate himself with any group that fails to work for the rights of all people.

FIVE-WEEK WORKSHOP Mr. Horton spoke on the results achieved from a five-week workshop in race relations held at his school in Tennessee.

The fact seventy-one people spent a total of five weeks in the Tennessee mountains, less than one hundred miles from the birthplace of the Ku Klux Klan. Indicates the possibility for community action, he said.

SCHOOL CASES Discussions were concerned with steps and methods to take following the Supreme Court's decision in the school segregation cases.

"About two-thirds of the seventy-one men and women taking part were from the South," he said. Half of these were white. The workshop participants included public school teachers, labor organization officials, ministers and just plain citizens of public life.

The people were told, before coming, Mr. Horton said, that the workshop would be concerned with the public school issue and that the invitation was directed toward those in position to provide community leadership.

This leadership, he also indicated, would be the type to provide guidance for an orderly transition from a segregated to an unsegregated public school system in the South.

Mr. Horton believes the people within each community have it within their power to influence school boards to make the best possible decisions and to elect people to boards that have the best interests of all people.

The real sentiment, he adds, is not being expressed by political leaders but is locked up in the hearts of the people.

COMMON OBJECTIVE The problems of racial disunity, can best be worked out on local

LOCAL COMMUNITIES Highland Folk-School director also believes that the public school issue cannot be over emphasized. He adds that effective action will have to be initiated at the local level and that the pattern of integration adopted will be determined largely by the local communities.

Demagogues do not express the will of the people, Mr. Horton said. The real sentiment, he adds, is not being expressed by political leaders but is locked up in the hearts of the people.

Eartha Kitt Scathes LA Mayor For Censuring Act For Royalty

HOLLYWOOD—(NS)—Songstress Eartha Kitt Wednesday demanded an apology from Mayor Norris Poulson of Los Angeles for saying her entertainment before the King and Queen of Greece was too spicy.

Her demand was given an oblique support by the Regal couple over whom a full-scale filmland controversy has developed.

Said Queen Frederika when asked in Belen, N. M., if she considered the Hollywood entertainment off-color: "It was lovely."

Said the King: "Not at all."

Los Angeles City Councilman Gordon Hahn touched off the dispute yesterday when he complained that part of the entertainment program offered the King and Queen at a recent Los Angeles banquet in their honor was "repugnant to decent citizens."

Miss Kitt flared: "In attacking the program presented by a group of the nation's most popular artists, the Mayor casts a reflection upon the entire character of popular music and nationally accepted entertainment in America."

Miss Kitt said her sultry renditions of "I Want To Be Evil" and "Santa Baby" for the King and Queen but pressed amazement that the songs could "offend anyone," adding: "I'm Just An Innocent Little Girl."

The Mayor agreed with the Councilman in substance, if not in degree. Eddie Rio, head of the American Guild of variety artists, which must authorize the appearance of entertainers in such free-of-charge programs as the one staged for the Greek Monarchs last Saturday, said, "It'll be a cold day before I ask another entertainer to appear at a civic function for free."

AROUND THE TOWN

By LAVERNE WILLIAMS

The usual Canteen dance given each and every Monday night was a success as usual. Tiff Green with his well known band supplied the music.

This week we are starting something new, that is we are going to pick out some girl or boy who attends the dance regular. This week we picked out a young girl by the name of Miss Maxine Hall of 91 W. Person who is a junior at Booker T. Washington School.

Miss Hall was dressed in yellow and brown, with all matching accessories. She is a very popular young lady around school and the neighborhood in which she lives. This week the Gentlemen just couldn't be found to have their testing so young men left get on the right step next week so we can have a popular young man and lady.

Those who attended the dance were: Maggie Ross, Bobbie Hill, Melvina Hall, Helen Adair, Annett Robinson, Jimmie Lee Jones, Alvin Leo, James Smith, James (Kaki) Polly Porter, Gloria Hunter.

Miss Wright, World Employee, To Be Honored

Miss Ernestine B. Wright, employee of the Memphis World, will be feted with a Birthday Dinner in her honor Monday, November 23, at the residence of Miss Katie Jean Williams, 492 N. Fifth Street, at 5:00 P. M.

At 9:00 P. M. she will be feted with another Party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lucas. Those expected to be present are: Honoree, Miss Ernestine B. Wright, Miss Katie J. Williams, Miss Margaret Robinson, Miss Mildred Robinson, Mr. Kyle Alexander, Mr. J. W. Turner, Mr. R. B. Foster, Mr. James Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lucas, Miss Katie Wright, Mr. George Wright, Jr., and Alfred Jones, Laverne Stone James Thompson and Richard Bledsoe.

GLENN'S HAVE SON HOME FOR THANKSGIVING

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Glenn of 1388 Hemlock Street, are happy to have their son, Airman 3rd Class Wilford Elmer Glenn home for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Wilford who has been in service for 10 months after joining the Air Force in February of 1952, is now stationed at Victorville, California, where he will return on the 28th of November, and resume his studies in Medicine.

Wilford attended Booker T. Washington High School and was a graduate of the June 51 class He also was a student of LeMoine College majoring in medicine.

During his stay here he has attended the Memphis-Jackson Methodist conference which was held at Mount Olive Cathedral on Linden and Lauderdale.

Some of those that helped Charles entertain were: Ophelia Poston, Ann Spraggins, Louis Bolden, Betty Lou Neal, Saul Holmes, Loree Payne, Tommie Dailey, Delores Myles, Harris, James Catron, Anthony Katoo, Frank and many others. A tasty menu was served.

THE SPHINX SOCIAL CLUB, met Sunday at the home of the president Miss Ann Spraggins. A tasty menu was enjoyed by the following members:

Virginia Poston, Mattie Redmond, Deloris Myles, Barbara Harris, Edith Peete, Jean Wright, Jean McKinney, Joyce Friend, Pansey Holloway, Annie Pearl Daniels, Evelyn Mays, and Geraldine Stevens.

Mrs. Linda Page, the charming teacher from New York was present in the costumeology Club, Tuesday November 17th. She made an interesting speech concerning the fashions, posture and matters of teenagers.

Some of the points she highlighted were: (1) Main attraction for a banquet (if semi-formal) most of the time you are seated and your top appearance is highlighted. (2) Rhinestones are not for day wear only after-five. (3) Short girls shouldn't wear long dresses. The view is bad.

(4) Tall girls should wear heels to overcome their tall shyness. Miss Page is a perfect example for charm. Her charming teaching has become her ordinary habits. She told of the perfect dress wear for school, dances and other affairs. There were many other pointers she mentioned but these were the main ones.

Misses Dorothy Mae Davis and Jimmie Ruth Echols both seniors of Washington were responsible for Mrs. Page's visit. They are the only persons attending Mrs. Page's costumeology class. Mrs. White is the costumeology teacher.

Here are some brief reminders-The Cavaliers Dance on the 9th of December.

The Zephyr's After Thanksgiving Ball on the 27th of November.

Also get ready for the club anniversary because I hear they are getting ready.

Bring out the end of all food rationing next summer.

Brief Filed Monday On School Segregation Cases

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(NNPA)—Under applicable decisions of the Supreme Court, provisions of state constitutions and laws requiring racial segregation in public schools are clearly unconstitutional, the NAACP declared in its brief on reargument of four of five school segregation cases.

The single 235-page brief was filed Monday in the cases which arose in Kansas, South Carolina, Virginia and Delaware.

The brief for the pupils and their parents who brought suit to enjoin segregation in the District of Columbia public school system has not yet been filed.

Neither the Justice Department nor the states and the District of Columbia have yet filed their briefs in the five cases which are set for reargument December 7.

Answering the questions posed by the Supreme Court last June 8 when it ordered the cases reargued, the NAACP asserts that "the historical evidence surrounding the adoption, submission and ratification of the Fourteenth Amendment compels the conclusion that it was the intent, understanding and contemplation that the Amendment proscribed all state imposed racial restrictions."

Colored children involved in the four state cases "are arbitrarily excluded from state public schools set apart for the dominant white groups," the brief states, adding: "Such a practice can only be continued on a theory that Negroes, qua (as) Negroes, are inferior to all other Americans."

"The constitutional and statutory provisions herein challenged cannot be upheld without a clear determination that Negroes are inferior and, therefore, must be segregated from other human beings. 'Certainly such a ruling would destroy the intent and purposes of the Fourteenth Amendment and the very equalitarian basis of our Government.'"

Questions 4 and 5 of the court's order asked whether, if it should be decided that segregation in public schools is unconstitutional, the decrees should provide for immediate or gradual integration; whether the court should enter detailed decrees, what issues the decrees should cover, whether the court should appoint a special master to hear evidence and make recommendations as to the decrees, or whether the cases should be sent back to the trial courts and, if so, what instructions should be given those courts.

Answering these questions, the NAACP proposed no compromise with segregation. "This court should decree invalid the constitutional and statutory provisions here involved requiring segregation in public schools," its brief said, adding:

"After careful consideration of all of the factors involved in transition from segregated school systems to unsegregated school systems, appellants (petitioners) know of no reason or considerations which would warrant postponement of the enforcement of appellants' rights by this court in the exercise of its equity powers."

"The brief states that the appellants have no desire to limit the discretion of the court. They concede that the court has power 'to mold its relief to individual circumstances' in a proper case. FIRST CLASS CITIZENS

"But the rights established by these appellants are far outside the classes as to which, whether for denial or delay, 'a balance of convenience' has been or ought to be struck," the brief states.

Attorneys for the appellants say they have discovered no case in which rights to learn and grow and to be treated as first-class citizens, "once established, have been postponed by a cautious calculation of conveniences."

The NAACP says it is "unable, in good faith, to suggest terms for a decree that will secure effective gradual adjustments" because no such decree will protect appellants' rights.

The first question which the court directed lawyers to discuss was what evidence is there that the Congress submitted and the State legislatures and conventions which ratified the Fourteenth Amendment contemplated or understood that it would abolish segregation in public schools.

Answering this question, the NAACP declared: "The Fourteenth Amendment was intended to destroy all caste and color legislation in the United States, including racial segregation."

In support of this contention, the NAACP argues: 1. The era prior to the Civil War was marked by determined efforts to secure recognition of the principle of complete and real equality for all men within the existing constitutional framework of the Government.

2. The movement for complete equality reached its successful culmination in the Civil War and the Fourteenth Amendment.

3. The principles of absolute and complete equality began to be translated into Federal law as early as 1863.

4. From the beginning, the 39th Congress, which convened December 5, 1865, and proposed the Fourteenth Amendment, was determined to eliminate race distinction from American law.

5. The Fourteenth Amendment was intended to write into the organic law of the United States the principle of absolute and complete equality in broad constitutional language.

6. The Republican party in the 39th Congress was determined to prevent future Congresses from diminishing Federal protection of the rights guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendment.

7. The treatment of public education during the 39th Congress the status of public education at that time must be considered in the light of that time.

During the congressional debates on the Civil Rights Act of 1875, veterans of the 39th Congress directed lawyers to discuss whether the framers of the Fourteenth Amendment understood that future Congresses, in the exercise of their power under the enforcement clause of that amendment, might abolish segregation in public schools, or whether it would be within the judicial power, to construe the amendment as abolishing such segregation of its own force.

The NAACP said, in answer to this question, that there is convincing evidence that the State legislatures and conventions which ratified the Fourteenth Amendment contemplated or understood that it prohibited state legislation which would require racial segregation in public schools.

If the evidence submitted does not dispose of questions 1 and 2, the court then asked the lawyers to discuss the questions of whether it is within the judicial power, in construing the amendment, to abolish segregation in public schools.

Answering this question, the NAACP said the normal exercise of the judicial function calls for a declaration that the state is without power to enforce distinctions based upon race or color in affording educational opportunities in the public schools.

The five school segregation cases were argued before the Supreme Court last December 9, 10 and 11. They were ordered reargued last June 8. The cases were originally set for reargument October 12, but Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., on August 4 requested postponement of the reargument to December 7.

The court, at the time it ordered reargument of the cases, invited Mr. Brownell to file an additional brief on behalf of the United States and to take part in the oral argument. Mr. Brownell immediately announced that he welcomed the opportunity to do so. The Justice Department had filed a joint brief in all five cases prior to the original argument.

The five cases involve the validity of racial segregation in public elementary and high schools in Virginia, Kansas and Delaware and the District of Columbia.

Churches Urged To Help Needy

Does your club or church group plan to help a needy family this Christmas? If so, please call Miss Jeanne Moore, Director of the Christmas Bureau, at 38-2431. She can tell you whether some other group already has planned to help the family you have selected, or can tell you of some needy family who is not yet on any one's list.

The Christmas Clearance Bureau is sponsored every year by the Community Council of Memphis and Shelby County. Through its confidential registration file, duplication of giving is eliminated; so that one needy family does not receive help twice while another equally needy, receives none. Clubs and others helping the needy are urged to register their families so that all those in want may be helped as wisely and efficiently as possible.

The Christmas Bureau may also be able to help you find some special ways to be a good Santa Claus this Christmas. Through cooperation with social agencies in the community, the Bureau knows the special needs, other than food and clothing, of many persons of modest circumstances. Your Christmas dollars might buy, for instance, music lessons for a year for some talented youngster, or a hearing aid for an aging needy person. Such gifts can bring joy not only at Christmas, but throughout the year.

JACKSON, Miss.—Approximately 680 members of the New Homemakers of America, representing District Two of the State of Mississippi, met at Jackson College Friday, November 13, for their annual conference.

These young women represented 28 chapters of the N. H. A. organization in this district. The N. H. A. official organization is set up for junior and senior high school home economics students in the seventeen states where separate schools are provided for Negro girls and boys. In June, 1952, there were 1123 chapters in 16 states, with a total membership of 45,194 members. Mississippi has ranked third in total membership in the Nation for several years, being surpassed in total membership only by Georgia and Texas. The purpose of the N. H. A. is to promote individual growth by developing physical, social, and moral qualities; to promote better home living; to provide wholesome recreational activities; and to act as a unit for giving service to the school, the community, the State and the Nation. Each chapter works hard in an effort to live up to the motto: "Better Homes for a Better Nation."

The meeting was called to order by the President of the District, John McCarthy of Bowman High School, Vicksburg. The standardized opening ceremony was led by the chaplain, Barbara Ann Starling, Yazoo City. President Reddix of Jackson College greeted the group and welcomed them to the use of the facilities and services of the College.

Officials, Scribes Will Stage Forum

BLACKSHEAR, Ga.—(GNS)—City officials and members of the editorial staff of the Waycross daily newspaper are scheduled to take part in a forum-discussion-to-be held at a Negro school here December 14 at 8 p. m.

Those scheduled to appear on the event slated at Lee High School are Lee S. Purdom, Mayor H. H. McGregor, T. H. Strickland and possible editor Carl Broome.

Homemakers In Meeting

JACKSON, Miss.—Approximately 680 members of the New Homemakers of America, representing District Two of the State of Mississippi, met at Jackson College Friday, November 13, for their annual conference.

These young women represented 28 chapters of the N. H. A. organization in this district. The N. H. A. official organization is set up for junior and senior high school home economics students in the seventeen states where separate schools are provided for Negro girls and boys. In June, 1952, there were 1123 chapters in 16 states, with a total membership of 45,194 members. Mississippi has ranked third in total membership in the Nation for several years, being surpassed in total membership only by Georgia and Texas. The purpose of the N. H. A. is to promote individual growth by developing physical, social, and moral qualities; to promote better home living; to provide wholesome recreational activities; and to act as a unit for giving service to the school, the community, the State and the Nation. Each chapter works hard in an effort to live up to the motto: "Better Homes for a Better Nation."

Monday night November 16 for Charles Gregory at his home. This affair was given by Virginia Poston. Charles is leaving for the Navy.

Some of those that helped Charles entertain were: Ophelia Poston, Ann Spraggins, Louis Bolden, Betty Lou Neal, Saul Holmes, Loree Payne, Tommie Dailey, Delores Myles, Harris, James Catron, Anthony Katoo, Frank and many others. A tasty menu was served.

THE SPHINX SOCIAL CLUB, met Sunday at the home of the president Miss Ann Spraggins. A tasty menu was enjoyed by the following members:

Virginia Poston, Mattie Redmond, Deloris Myles, Barbara Harris, Edith Peete, Jean Wright, Jean McKinney, Joyce Friend, Pansey Holloway, Annie Pearl Daniels, Evelyn Mays, and Geraldine Stevens.

Mrs. Linda Page, the charming teacher from New York was present in the costumeology Club, Tuesday November 17th. She made an interesting speech concerning the fashions, posture and matters of teenagers.

Some of the points she highlighted were: (1) Main attraction for a banquet (if semi-formal) most of the time you are seated and your top appearance is highlighted. (2) Rhinestones are not for day wear only after-five. (3) Short girls shouldn't wear long dresses. The view is bad.

(4) Tall girls should wear heels to overcome their tall shyness. Miss Page is a perfect example for charm. Her charming teaching has become her ordinary habits. She told of the perfect dress wear for school, dances and other affairs. There were many other pointers she mentioned but these were the main ones.

Misses Dorothy Mae Davis and Jimmie Ruth Echols both seniors of Washington were responsible for Mrs. Page's visit. They are the only persons attending Mrs. Page's costumeology class. Mrs. White is the costumeology teacher.

MRS. T. J. (RUTH) BEAUCHAMP ENTERTAINS OFA OFO BRIDGE CLUB WITH BRUNCH

One of the gayest parties of the Fall season was a "BRUNCH" given by Mrs. T. J. (Ruth) Beauchamp at the YMCA last Saturday morning at 10:30, when she entertained members of the OFA, OFO Bridge and a small circle of her friends with a handsome "Brunch Party."

Gold and yellow Fall flowers centered a long table overlaid with an exquisite white lace cloth and glowing white tapers stood on either side of the table. After an elaborate service was served by caterers, punch centered the long table.

Mrs. Beauchamp, who entertained in an attractive dress-makers suit, was assisted in receiving by her sister, Miss Martell Trigg who wore a pretty grey and Mrs. Gerald Howell who wore a striking chiffon taffeta frock.

Club members there were Mrs. Harry Cash, Mrs. Phillip Booth, Mrs. Floyd Campbell, Mrs. John Outlaw, Mrs. Charlie Tarpley, Miss Rosa Robinson, Mrs. Claborn Davis, Mrs. Marvin Tarpley and Mrs. W. W. Gibson.

Guests included Mrs. Stanley Ish, Mrs. Harry Haysbert, Mrs. T. R. M. Howard of Mount Bayou, Miss. Mrs. Marjorie U. Ulen, Mrs. Victoria Hancock, Mrs. A. B. Carter, Mrs. Betty Bland, Mrs. Hollis Price, Mrs. W. H. Young, Mrs. H. Johnson, Mrs. Maceo Walker, Mrs. Emmitt Simon Sr., Mrs. Adie Jones, Mrs. Taylor Hayes, Mrs. B. G. Olive Jr., Mrs. Wm. (Addie) Owen, Mrs. A. A. Latting, Miss Grace Collins, Mrs. Bob Roberts, Mrs. J. S. Byas, Mrs. John Gammons of Marion, Arkansas and "Your Columnist."

MISS RUBY HARRIS TELLS PLANS FOR HER WEDDING

Foretelling one of the most beautiful weddings of the early winter season is the announcement today by Miss Ruby Lee Harris of plans for her marriage to Mr. Rufus Taylor Gadison. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Rosa Harris Clark and the late Mr. Rufus Harris of Memphis, Tennessee. The groom-elect is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gadison of Elaine, Arkansas.

The wedding, one of the outstanding ceremonies of the Christmas season, will be solemnized on Saturday December 19 at 6:30 in the evening at the Metropolitan Baptist Church with the Reverend Samuel A. Owen, pastor of the church officiating.

The ceremony will be preceded by a program of nuptial music presented by Mrs. Beryl Branch Glover, organist and Mrs. Addie Goss, vocal soloist.

The bride, to be given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Rufus DeWitt Harris, Jr., will wear an exquisite imported chantilly lace gown featuring a portrait neckline with a scalloped bertha collar to fall around the shoulders and sprinkled with rhinestones, seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bodice will feature a basque waist-line forming a point and will be buttoned down the front. The full gathered skirt to be worn over hoops, cuts away and shows the accordion pleated satin slip and is scalloped all around the long cathedral train. Her full length illusion veil, extending the entire length of the train, will fall from a bonnet lace covered with pearls, rhinestones and pearls. She will carry valley lilies centered with white purple throated orchids.

BRIDESMAIDS will be Miss Martha Anderson, Miss Almazine

Davis, Mrs. C. C. Sawyer, Mrs. N. A. Nabrit, Mrs. George Toles and Mrs. Arthur Flowers.

FLOWER GIRLS will be Little Peggie Ann Prater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Prater and little Willie Mae Preston, daughter of Mrs. Mary Boone Preston. Mr. Willard Bell will attend Mr. Gadison as best man. Groomsman will be Mr. Charles Pinston of Cordova, Tenn. and Memphis who will arrive home from Nashville where he is a medical student at Meharry two days early; Mr. Frank Gray, Mr. Robert Waller, Mr. Aldean Powell, Mr. Odie B. Davis, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Benjie Tate.

A number of parties will honor the couple just before the wedding RECEPTION HOSTESSES

Serving as hostesses at a reception to be given by the bride's mother immediately after the vows are heard will be Mrs. Rubye Greene, Mrs. Dorinda Gray, Mrs. Marletta Harris, Mrs. Sadie Davis, Mrs. B. F. Jones, Mrs. Dorothy Harris, Mrs. Gloria Howard, Mrs. George (Ruth) Mims, Miss Ruth Crump, Miss Alice Gilchrist, cousin of the bride-elect; Miss Grace Collins, Miss Gladycy Roberts and Miss Emily Naomi Creswell.

Miss Harris was graduated from Manassas High School and Le Moyne College where she was a member of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. She is also a member of the Sequins Club. Since graduation Miss Harris has been a teacher at Florida School.

Mr. Gadison was graduated from the High School Department of Arkansas State College. He attended Arkansas State College and was graduated from Southern University with a major in Animal Husbandry. He is now connected with the Jet Home Appliance Company, but plans to study early next year towards a doctorate in Veterinary Medicine. Mr. Gadison was a veteran for three and a half years in World War II.

MRS. MILDRED RILEY ASSISTS WITH RECEPTION HONORING WALTER WHITE IN LITTLE ROCK, ARK.

Mrs. Mildred Riley, Pet Milk Home Consultant, returned to Memphis by Delta C. and S. Airlines Saturday evening after a trip to Little Rock where she assisted Mrs. Ruth Jefferies, Little Rock Pet Milk Consultant and Mrs. L. C. GEORGE GILCHRIST'S FAMILY SEES HIM IN CARDINAL RAMS GAME

George Gilchrist, Jr., Memphis boy who is now a player with the Chicago Cardinals, was thrilled when his family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gilchrist, Sr., and his popular sister, Miss Alice Gilchrist arrived in Chicago last week end in their shiny car for the Cardinal-Rams game played at Comiskey Park on Sunday afternoon and seen on TV by thousands of football fans all over the nation. Alice, the Delta's new president of the local graduate chapter and Home Economics Instructor at Manassas High, was thrilled over the "Cardinals' Party" that she attended with her brother George in the Comiskey Club Room Sunday and the entire family over the swanky dinner dates with George and his friends.—They could hardly realize that they were with a real celebrity instead of Brother Gilchrist as he is known around here where he was graduated from Manassas. B. O. T. H. George and Alice are graduates of Tennessee State University.

Bishop Still Finds Bars On Entrance To South Africa

Prelate Stands To Lose Permit To South Rhodesia

LOS ANGELES — (ANP) — Bishop Frederick D. Jordan of the AME Church has run into further complications centering on his attempt to enter southern Africa.

Southern Rhodesia has granted him a visa to enter that country for 30 days, but Northern Rhodesia as yet has not acted on the Bishop's request for a visa.

The Southern Rhodesia permit is contingent upon Bishop Jordan's filing a schedule of his entire trip, including visas granted for all the countries he will enter. So, unless Northern Rhodesia acts, the AME prelate of two African districts, may lose his Southern Rhodesia permit.

VISA TO ENTER
Bishop Jordan has made two attempts to enter Southern Rhodesia. The first ended when the government of Northern Rhodesia grounded Bishop Jordan on grounds he did not have a visa to enter that country.

Bishop Jordan said at the time he had no intentions of entering Northern Rhodesia; consequently, he had not filed for a visa. He did, however, have one for Southern Rhodesia. He intended going directly there without stopping in Northern Rhodesia.

The bishop was assigned to preside over two AME Church districts in Africa by the quadrennial conference of the church held in Chicago in 1952. He, however, never has been allowed to preside over the districts.

OPPOSED ENTRANCE
Bishop Jordan has had trouble obtaining permission to enter Africa because of the racial situation present there. The South African government of Dr. Daniel F. Malan has consistently opposed his entrance. The government wants the church to train a native African to run the African districts.

A group of bishops last week went on record as opposing the apartheid (complete segregation) policies of Malan. The Bishops of the Church of the Province of South Africa (Anglican Church) in a statement condemned the policies. The statement said in part:

"We believe that it is morally wrong to follow a policy which has as its object the keeping of any particular racial group in a permanent position of inferiority, and we believe that racial discrimination as practiced in this country is directed to this end.

SYSTEM OF CASTE
"It is wrong that the opportunities open to a man should be determined by the racial group to which he belongs, and not by his own character and abilities. Such a policy seems to us to lead to a system of caste against which the Christian church has always set its face.

"It has been suggested that it would be possible to keep the different racial groups separated, and yet to give each group equal opportunities for economic and cultural development. We do not believe that this is practicable."

Another church group is scheduled to take action on the race issue in Africa. It is the Dutch Reformed

Perry Howard Still Controls Miss. Patronage

WASHINGTON — (ANP) — Perry W. Howard last week spiked rumors that he may be stripped of his patronage power.

The GOP national committeeman from Mississippi said that neither the White House or the GOP national committee had given him any indication that such a move was in the offing.

"I have too much confidence in the President to believe that he will accept the 'Lilly White' in the South, which proved so disastrous to the Republican party under Hoover," Howard asserted.

"I have had no such word from the White House or the chairman of the GOP National Committee, and unless and until I have such word, I have no comment whatsoever," he added.

Howard recently won a court victory over the "Lilly White" group over whether that group or his "Black and Tan" faction was the official GOP party in Mississippi.

The court ruled that the "Black and Tan", an almost all-Negro organization, was the real Republican party of the state. The "Lilly White" group is composed of white persons.

In commenting on the decision recognizing Howard as the head of the real GOP party, a white editor for the Jackson Daily News, supported Howard's claim. Among other things, the editor said:

"If we are to have a Republican party in Mississippi Perry Howard is entitled, because of long and faithful service and the rule of seniority, to be its titular head."

"Perry is a damned-sight better Republican than those who are trying to take his job away from him. Moreover, boys, you gotta join up with Perry. He isn't doing any joining up with you. Politics being what it is, that's how it is."

British Officers End School Segregation Report On Kenya

LONDON, England — (ANP) — Oliver Lyttleton recently made a report on progress being made and plans for the future of natives in Kenya.

In a speech before the House of Commons, the secretary of state for the colonies said the Mau Mau situation today is not as bad as he feared it might be, but that it falls short of what he hoped it could be. On plans for the future welfare of Africans in Kenya, Lyttleton said the government planned to use more African labor, bring about land reform, help natives get started in business and provide adult education and rural training.

However, against leaders of the Mau Mau, the British official said reprisals will be taken. One penalty be the loss of land which will be given to the Kikuyu tribe as a whole.

On progress against the Mau Mau, Lyttleton said in most areas security once again is the responsibility of the civil administration and police. However, he admitted that some members of the secret society have merely gone to other areas. This transfer partially explains the situation in Nairobi, he said.

As a means of preventing other outbreaks of Mau Mau activity in Nairobi, the government has made that city a special police district, with a commissioner of police. The Kikuyu reserves also are being closely administered. Mau Mau supposedly sprang from the Kikuyu tribe, which includes about 1,500,000 persons.

Fort Valley State Is Active In Community

FORT WAYNE, Ind. — Following an address by Herbert Hill, labor relations assistant of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, delegates attending the annual convention of District 9 of the International Union of Electrical and Radio Workers, CIO, unanimously passed a resolution "in support of the immediate abolition of racial segregation in the public schools of our country, whether such segregation be the result of legal enactments or practice and tradition."

The resolution, adopted on November 8, further asserted the convention's "full support of the NAACP in the great national struggle to destroy the legal basis of racial segregation in the United States as being incompatible with the social goals and aspirations of the American labor movement."

The convention voted a contribution of $100 to the NAACP "Fight for Freedom" and called upon all affiliate IUE locals in the district, comprising Indiana and Michigan "to aid and assist the NAACP by providing financial contributions."

Fort Valley State Is Active In Community

FORT VALLEY, Ga. — The sphere of influence of Fort Valley State College is extended into many areas by faculty participation in community affairs. During the past week, President Troup attended the meeting of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities in Columbus, Ohio. Locally, Dr. Troup and Dr. Ellison participated in the meeting of the Georgia Farm Bureau Federation at Camp John Hope. On Sunday, Dean Blanchet delivered the morning message at the College Community Center, and Dr. Crooks was the "Youth Day" speaker at Trinity Baptist Church.

Mr. Bryant and Mr. Bywaters worked with the Fort Valley Hospital Authority in raising funds for the Peach County Hospital. As a result of the appeal to the faculty, Dean McCaskey pledged $100 to the newly opened hospital and other members of the faculty have subscribed generously to the drive. Dean Blanchet and Miss Lee served with the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in evaluating Turner High School in Atlanta.

Dean W. R. McCall was guest minister recently at Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama.

Mr. W. O. Macomson who serves as statistician for the Georgia Negro Chamber of Commerce is assisting this group in the development of a training program for the improvement of business standards.

F. T. A. SPONSORS "HOW TO STUDY" SERIES

The F. T. A. has sponsored a series of meetings on effective study habits. Professors Banks, Davis, Ellison and Myles have led in the series and pointed out ways of mastering assignments and improving reading skills. Mr. John Hutchins is president of the chapter and Mr. W. A. Smith is adviser.

Senior students are participating in a business and educational activities in the capital city.

Progress Being Made Against Racial Bars

BALTIMORE, Md. — The right of every American to enjoy freedom to seek the truth is still limited, but substantial progress in removing superficial and arbitrary handicaps which have hindered democracy is being made, Dr. John H. Fischer, school superintendent, said Wednesday.

Dr. Fischer delivered the address during an American Education Week assembly held at Morgan State College.

Discussing "Good Schools Are Your Responsibility," the public school official stated that freedom is one of the nation's greatest gifts and that it must be nurtured by each new generation.

"We have the gift to seek progress," Dr. Fischer emphasized, and declared that progress will be made only to the extent to which we believe that "people are good."

He called America's educational system, which guarantees an education for each child, the finest in the world, and said that "no other system can compare with our high school educational system."

Dr. Fischer was introduced by Dr. Houston R. Jackson, assistant superintendent. Other program participants were Isaiah Fletcher, president of the Milton Lewis Calloway Chapter of Future Teachers of America. Dr. Gladys H. Bradley, James S. Kennedy, and President Martin D. Jenkins.

CBS Prexy Resigns Frat Because Of Race Bars

NEW YORK — (ANP) — Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System resigned from the Phi Delta Theta fraternity last week because of that organization's "discriminatory" restrictions on membership.

Stanton wrote the fraternity's national headquarters at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, that his action stemmed "directly and solely from an article of the fraternity's constitution" which allegedly bars membership to persons "not of pure Aryan blood."

Stanton said he had been trying unsuccessfully for years to have the fraternity's constitution changed in regard to membership. He said his letter of resignation was "in effect, an admission of defeat."

At Columbia Broadcasting System headquarters in New York, Stanton's racial policy is well known. Without fanfare or advertising, Negroes have been absorbed in the far flung radio system in many phases, both in production and in general office work.

Several upper echelon CBS officials have Negro secretaries and throughout the big building on Madison Avenue, colored workers are employed in many capacities.

Even in the technical production end, CBS has moved ahead in hiring and actually putting colored workers on its staff. In the public relations department of the radio division, it is noticeable that a colored writer works in close conjunction with the staff and has as his regular assignment 20 radio shows.

Experts To Tell Senate Story On Delinquency

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Witnesses ranging from psychiatrists to housewives and anthropologists will tell Senate investigators next week what they know about juvenile delinquency in the United States.

Chairman Robert C. Hendrickson (R) N. J., of the Judiciary Subcommittee conducting the inquiry said today the hearings starting Wednesday will produce witnesses representing a cross-section of American life.

WILL GIVE TESTIMONY

Hendrickson said U. S. Narcotics Commissioner Harry J. Anslinger will give testimony about teenage drug addiction.

The chairman also announced that Dr. Martha Eliot, head of the U. S. Children's Bureau, will be called to sketch in some details of what Hendrickson called a "broad picture" of juvenile crime.

A committee aide said the group hopes to hear from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover or FBI Director statistics—but that there is some doubt whether he will appear.

PROBATION OFFICER

Initial hearings are to continue for three to five days.

Hendrickson stated that Eliot will be supplemented by commentators from "people who work in different kinds of vineyards" in every part of the country.

Included will be a psychiatrist, a juvenile court judge, a police officer, a housewife, a probation officer, an anthropologist, a sociologist, a social worker, and the superintendent of a training school for delinquent girls.

Over 76 Million Dollars Needed In 1954 To Fight Polio

Warren Writes First Opinion For High Court

WASHINGTON — (ANP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren delivered his first U. S. Supreme court opinion last week in the case of Hugh A. Voris, deputy commissioner of the Bureau of Employees Compensation of the Department of Labor against Charles Elkel and B. D. Harris, doing business as the Southern Stevedoring and Contracting company.

In this case, Earl Porter, a stevedore employed by the company, was struck by an electric fixture in December, 1949 while loading equipment in the hold of the S. S. Southern States. The loading equipment truck an electric fixture which, in reeking, ignited some sulphur and created a flash fire. The men fled in terror from the hole and while Porter was on the ladder he was struck by a beam and knocked to the floor, with resulting injuries to his back and shoulder.

Several workmen on the stevedoring gang saw Porter on deck immediately after the injury and realized that he was unable to walk. Some of his fellow workers carried him to a nearby automobile and his foreman, Ernest Wisby, drove him home.

When Porter asked to be carried to a doctor he was told that he could not reach one until 7 o'clock the following morning. Porter is said to have then crawled into the house instead of walking because of the pain he suffered. Wisby did not return to take the claimant to the doctor the next morning, and after two or three days when he requested medical treatment Wisby is said to have told him that only the time-keeper had the authority to send him to a doctor.

HEAD MAN OF MANHATTAN — Mr. and Mrs. Hulan E. Jack exhibited smiles of confidence on election night as they voted near their Harlem home. By the end of the day, Jack, who came to this country from the West Indies at the age of 17, became the first Negro Borough President in New York City's history. GI's Come To Aide Of Mentally Ill Youngsters

FRANKFURT, Germany — (ANP) — The lot of some 51 mentally deficient children today is brighter because of the efforts of some Negro soldiers stationed at nearby Darmstadt-ebertstadt.

The soldiers, members of the United States Army 547th Engineer Combat Battalion, started contributing money, toys and food to the children, offsprings of parents Adolph Hitler brought from all parts of Europe as slave labor, last Christmas. Housed in a new wing of the Godelau mental home, the children range in age from 4 to 13.

When the new wing was opened, most of the children were without clothes or the rudiments which made life happy for children, according to Tom Muttters, in charge of the hospital. He also is liaison officer for the International Refugee Organization which built the wing at a cost of some $30,000.

The money the UN commission for Refugees provided for the care of the children was not enough; consequently, the lot of the inmates probably would have remained a sorry one if the Negro G. I.'s had not come to their aid.

Hearing of the plight of the children, the soldiers responded by collecting money and donation invalid beds. This occurred just prior to Christmas 1952. And since then the soldiers have consistently helped the hospital.

During the winter months which followed, they made another donation of money. At Easter there were more toys and candy. And still later the group of the 547th constructed a play ground fully equipped for the boys.

In praising the contribution of the soldiers to the happiness of the displaced mentally ill boys, Charles Pearman-Wilson, UN Commissioner said in part:

The joy which has been brought into the lives of over 50 children has been entirely due to the initiative and kindness of these United States soldiers.

Here is a case of human understanding and charity in the real meaning of the words. It is not the action of one man but that of a group of foreign soldiers in a country completely unfamiliar to them in every way.

The U. S. soldiers of the 547th Engineer Battalion learned of a small spot of the deepest depression in the refugee world, and of their own free will they eliminated this depression.

Despite the generosity of the colored soldiers, the home for the boys still is in need of funds.

Over 300 Persons Attend Convention At Tuskegee

BY WILLIAM GORDON
Managing Editor, Atlanta Daily World
TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala. — (SNS) — Upwards of 76 million dollars will be needed to help fight polio in 1954. This fact was brought out during the recent pre-campaign conference of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis held on the campus of Tuskegee Institute.

After five years of the worst polio outbreak in history, more patients, roughly 270,000 of them, will be needing all the dimes and dollars available to help nurse them back to normal life.

MOST ARE YOUNGSTERS
Many of these patients, it was disclosed, are youngsters who have not yet reached their tenth birthday.

Under the supervision of Charles H. Bynum, director of Interracial Activities, more than 300 persons from 17 different states came to Tuskegee November 9-10 to get a better knowledge of organizational methods for fund raising. Headed by Mr. Bynum, many of these people shared in discussions, pointing out how they met the crisis in their respective communities and how they stimulated interest in fund raising to fight polio.

SEVENTH IN SERIES
The Tuskegee conference was the seventh in the series of meetings. Many of those who came to the recent conference had been working in the interest of infantile paralysis ever since the foundation had its inception. Pin awards were given those with over five years longevity.

After more than fifteen years of fighting the disease, the American people, have for the first time, taken the offensive against the dreaded disease. Conference delegates were told. This has been made possible because of the following:

PATIENT CARE
First of all, there is the vast program of patient care maintained by the National Foundation. The March of Dimes money helps in paying for the cost of polio victims who need assistance. This is carried on regardless of race, creed or color. The stories behind the work of the Foundation's patient care program are numerous.

"POSTER GIRL"
Little Cynthia Musgrove of Pompano Beach, Fla., and the "poster girl" for the 1954 campaign, is an example of what the National Foundation is doing for polio victims. When she was still quite a baby, she was stricken with polio. The local chapter was notified and she was placed in a local hospital near her home. In less than eleven months, the Foundation spent more than $5,000 on this child. When this is multiplied by the vast patient load of 270,000, the number the Foundation is supporting from year to year, the need for funds is further dramatized.

Hulan Jack Has Big Position

NEW YORK — (ANP) — When Hulan Jack takes office on January 1, 1954 as Borough President of the Borough of Manhattan, he will be the first Negro on the Board of Estimate, the top policy making body of the world's second largest city.

As Borough president, Jack will have direct charge of 1,721 employees many of whom will be appointed, but his main tasks will be the upkeep of Manhattan Borough's more than 500 miles of streets and a like mileage of sewers.

The salary is $25,000 per annum.

NAACP PLEASSED BY BAN ON SEGREGATION

NEW YORK — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is "greatly pleased" by President Eisenhower's announcement that the Navy's non-segregation policy is now "completely effective," Walter White, NAACP executive secretary, said recently.

"This is most commendable," he declared, "and demonstrates what can be done through courageous, decisive action."

In his announcement, the President said that Robert B. Anderson, secretary of the Navy, reported that of 80 Navy installations on federally-owned property in the South, only one, Charleston, S. C., retained partial segregation. At Newport News, there was segregation in lavatory facilities in non-federal property used by Navy personnel. Conditions at these two installations will be remedied either next month or early in January, Secretary Anderson reported. In making the announcement, President Eisenhower congratulated the Navy Secretary "on a job very well done."

Mr. White expressed "regret at the unnecessary and possibly harmful delay in eliminating segregated washrooms at the Charleston Navy Yard and washrooms and toilets in a building located on non-federal property by the Navy at Newport News.

"It is difficult," he continued, "for us to understand why elimination of this segregation cannot be achieved immediately. It seems to us that all that needs to be done is to remove the Jim Crow signs which should be a matter of minutes. We fear that such gradualism may be interpreted by the proponents of segregation as weakness on the part of the Navy and an invitation to further delay. We hope that Secretary Anderson will act vigorously to eliminate these last vestiges of indefensible segregation."

Jenkins, Illinois Solon Is Denied Judgeship Post

CHICAGO — (ANP) — Charles Jenkins, state representative who lost his bid for one judgeship, will not be appointed to the Municipal court vacancy because of legal technicalities.

Rep. Jenkins was a candidate in the Nov. 3 elections for Judge of Superior Court. A Republican, he lost the race. After the elections, however, Gov. William Stratton said he would appoint Jenkins to a Municipal court vacancy.

But it seems that the Illinois Constitution prohibits such an appointment during the term of a state legislator. Jenkins is closing his last term with the Illinois legislature.

Because of his plans to retire, the veteran legislator sought the Superior court judgeship.

In the elections the Republicans made poor showing among the South side's Negro population, which in the main is Democratic. Although Jenkins has been described by both Democrats and Republicans as "one politician in a million" most colored persons refused to scratch their ballot and vote for him.

His illustrious career in the legislature included a chairmanship of the important Appropriations Committee and the authorship of one of the most important bills to be passed by the Legislature. It is the Jenkins Amendment which stops funds to schools in the state which deny admittance to persons because of their race, religion or national origin. The amendment is credited with being the main force toward breaking down segregation in most Illinois schools.

Although Gov. Stratton now will not be able to appoint Jenkins to the vacancy on the Municipal court

Georgia Federation Day has been set for Sunday, November 29 and all Clubs throughout the state will observe the occasion with varied programs. Many are planning city-wide teas, group worship and radio presentations as features of their special activities. It is hoped that this overall observance will be carried out in the most sincere spirit in all of the club members. Why not designate this week as one in which you will organize a new club in your city or in some city in which there is no Federated group.

A full agenda has been prepared for the approaching Executive Board Meeting of the Georgia Federation which will be held on Saturday, December 12 at the Training School for Colored Girls just beyond the city limits of Macon. Miss Stevenson and the girls at the school are making elaborate plans for our entertainment. (In a conference with Miss Stevenson last week she expressed the urgent need for a couple who would accept employment at the institution. A modestly furnished cottage is available for their convenience).

Our state historian, Mrs. Nimmons of Griffin, is still seeking authentic data that will bring our organization history up to date. We hope that this can be done within the next few months as we plan to stage a pageant depicting our activities through the years at our 1954 convention in Albany.

It was interesting to have Miss Mabel Evans, who is a native of Terre Haute, Indiana visit in the city two days this week. She is the daughter of a pioneer clubwoman on the national level. Her mother, the late Mrs. Alice Wilson Evans, was at one time president of the North Central Region of the National Association as well as chairman of the Executive Board of the National.

Miss Evans too has been affiliated with the organization since she was in her teens. At present she is associated with the Wheat Flour Institute, the first Negro to be employed as Nutritionist with the Institute. She conducted a two day lecture series at Albany State College and made brief visits to the Monroe High School, the River Road Elementary School and the Dougherty County Fair where several educational exhibits were displayed by communities, schools and individuals.

It wasn't any joke, the Two five-pound daughters joined Christine and Dolores 5, and Robert and Richard, 2, as members of the Trufant family.

Christian Science Lesson Sermon

That man's true nature is found only in his reflection of God will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday, November 22nd in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "SOUL AND BODY." The Christian Science Society of Atlanta extends a cordial welcome to all.

The Golden Text is from Matthew (6:22) "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light."

The Bible reading includes the account from Matthew of Jesus healing the palsied man, concluding with this verse: "But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men". (Matthew 9:8).

The following passage will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The spiritual man's consciousness—and individuality—are reflections of God. They are the emanations of Him who is Life, Truth, and Love. Immortal man is not and never was material, but always spiritual and eternal." (336:14).

IF IT HAPPENS... Obey These Atomic Bomb Attack Reminders

Drop to floor... get under bed, desk or workbench.

Don't rush outside right after a bombing.

Don't take chances with food or water in open containers.

Obey wardens... go to assigned shelter.

For further air raid instructions, get your 1954 ST. JOSEPH CALENDAR, ALMANAC, WEATHER CHART, FREE, FROM YOUR FAVORITE DRUG DEALER.

Suppose you wanted to brief yourself and your family quickly on "what to do and what not to do in case of an atomic bomb attack?" Suppose, too, that you wanted to keep a brief and helpful summary of air raid instructions where you could conveniently put your hands on it at a moment's notice.

Where is more of an opportune source to refer to such timely advice on saving the lives of yourself and your loved ones than in a calendar, hanging handily in your home and containing a printed air raid chart and atomic bomb attack safety precautions?

Such is one of the outstanding new features in the 1954 St. Joseph Calendar, Almanac, Weather Chart, now available, free for the asking, at your drug dealer.

On the back page of the 1954 St. Joseph Calendar is a replica of the official Civil Defense Air Raid Instructions Chart with suggestions on what to do in this emergency in the home, at work, at school, in the open and in vehicles. Printed alongside are some "do's" and "don't's" for preservation-of-life-and-property in the event of an atomic-bomb attack.

Among the simple things to do during the ordeal of an atomic bomb raid, the 1954 St. Joseph Calendar suggests: "Drop flat on ground or floor to keep from being tossed about and to lessen the chances of being struck by falling and flying objects." And among the "don't's" is this advice: "Don't take chances with food or water in open containers. When there is reason to believe they may be contaminated, stick to canned or bottled things, if possible."

The air raid safety instructions are just one of many informative features found in the 1954 St. Joseph Calendar, Almanac, Weather Chart, which also contains daily weather forecasts, planting and fishing charts, times of sunrises and sunsets, moon phases, signs of the Zodiac with horoscopes and other practical knowledge.

Your drug dealer will supply you free with a 1954 St. Joseph Calendar, Almanac, Weather Chart, or write directly to Plough, Inc., Memphis, Tenn.

THE TIP-OFF

BY EMORY O. JACKSON

BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—(SNS)— Recognition of women in the campaign for upgraded citizenship is illuminating the current news news scene.

In Mobile, Ala. November 8 the Alabama State Conference of NAACP Branches gave a citation to Mrs. Eunice M. Taylor, widow of the late Dr. John F. Taylor and grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star, in connection with her vital contributions to the campaign to liberate the status of the Negro group. One day the details of the work done by Mrs. Taylor along this line and over opposition can be revealed. Women of the Order of Eastern Star, in connection with her and authentic programs designed to broaden and fortify democracy.

On that same date in Birmingham, the Alpha Phi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity presented the "Outstanding Citizen of the Year" award to Mrs. Ruby Hurley, NAACP regional secretary. She is located in the South where she is directing regional activities aimed at developing an appreciation for the equal rights of American citizens. Her work has won the attention and the commendation of the Omega group.

Secretary of Labor, James P. Mitchell, in a speech Nov. 13 before the National Council of Negro Women, assembled at the Department Auditorium, Washington, D. C. pointed out that six of the 22 Negro appointments to "important Federal posts" have been women.

The woman's vote is emerging as an argument in the campaign to liberalize the harsh Alabama poll tax. Mrs. Venice Tifton Spragus, Birmingham's "native daughter" and high-ranking National Democratic Committee staff worker, is back in the city working chiefly with club groups. Senator Jimmy Faulkner of Baldwin County who is expected to announce this week his candidacy for the Alabama governorship has been speaking among P-T-A and other dominantly women's group. The awakening in Alabama, politically speaking, is among the women.

Sigma Phi Chapter, Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Montgomery, Ala., honored the three-year-old "Women's Political Council" last Saturday in recognition of the substantial and spectacular work performed by the group in voter-registration and other civic projects. Slowly but surely, the concerned leaders, conservative and liberal, are pointing to the importance of the ballot in good race relations, in cleansing politics and in widening ing and elevating the opportunities of the humble man. Even Dr. James Lee Dickey, featured October 24 in The Saturday Evening Post observes: "The ballot is the Negro's open sesame to the future." One might take exception to the Dickey thesis, as Roy Wilkins, administrator of the NAACP, does.

Montgomery is located in the nine-county Second Congressional District which has an estimated total of only 1,932 Negro voters although 73,457 Negro citizens of voting age are in this district. Lowndes County is without a single Negro voter. There are less than 300 Negro voters, according to figures in the survey by Dr. J. E. Pierce, Baldwin, Escambia, and Monroe counties which embrace the Alabama 21st Senatorial District served by Senator Faulkner. There is only one Negro voter in Monroe County.

Here is the citation presented by Omega to "The Women's Council": "It was a glorious day in 1950 when the fertile mind of Mrs. Mary Frances Fair Burks conceived the idea of the organization of women's groups to function in the area of government and politics on the community level. The three years of your existence have proved you to be an organization with hopes, aspirations, and determination to impress upon our women citizens the sacredness of the ballot in our American way of life.

Your organization has had for its main purposes: to stimulate women in more participation in government and politics as a means of improving civic conditions and human relations, and to urge women to become aware of the fact that the rights, opportunities, and responsibilities which they wanted, could be realized only through proper use of the ballot and not through idle talk and wishful thinking.

Through the dynamic leadership of your founder and the organizing ability of Mrs. Mary Cross, the following chapters have been organized: The Susan B. Anthony Chapter, Mrs. Jo Ann Robinson, president; the Norma Boyd Chapter, Mrs. M. A. Jackson, president; and the Deborah Chapter, Mrs. Catherine Neal Johnson, president.

Since your humble inception, your activities have been many and varied. You have sponsored a registration contest in 1951 and again in 1952 which resulted in more than one hundred new voters being added to the rolls. You have named couriers whose responsibility it has been to interest voters in the 1952 Presidential election. You have held a mock election which gave thousands of persons their first opportunity to operate a voting machine; you have inspired the organization of "Club 21" among college students to emphasize the importance of becoming registered voters upon

Perry Holds Pro Football Rushing Lead

PHILADELPHIA —(ANP)— Joe Perry of the San Francisco 49ers continues to be by far the nation's leading ground gainer in pro football, according to the latest National Football League statistics. He has blasted opposing lines for 599 yards in 115 attempts for an average of 5.2 yards per carry. Third in rushing is fullback Dan (Deacon) Fowler of the Los Angeles Rams, with 444 yards in 100 carries for a 4.4 average. He was last year's ground gaining champion. His teammate, Paul (Tank) Younger with 273 yards in 68 carries for a 4.7 average.

In punt returns Woodley Lewis Jr. of the Rams rates third with a 12.7 average for returning 16 kicks 203 yards, and Emilen Tunnell of the New York Giants ranks ninth with a 6.3 average for returning 27 punts 171 yards. Tunnell is third in kickoff returns with a 34.29 average for 240 yards on 7 kicks; Lewis is ninth with a 25.5 average on 510 yards on 20 kickoffs, and Wally Triplett, formerly of the Chicago Cardinals is tenth with a 25.3 average on 253 yards on 10 kicks.

Perry is eighth in scoring with 42 points, and Horace Gilliom of the Cleveland Browns is fifth in punting with a 42.9 average on 43 punts.

A BIG REASON WHY THE CLARK PANTHERS ROLL is Ivan "Little Eye" Mullins, 208 pound tackle who hails from Greenville, Ga. Returning from Air Force service in Korea, Mullins promptly found a first-string position last year and with the realization of his abilities he has, this year, spelled "holy terror" to would-be ground gainers. The largest man in the Clark line, he is one of the reasons for defensive play of the Panthers who have held opposing teams to an average of 115 yards per game. At the same time, his timely blocks and an overwhelming will to win has enabled the Epps-men to average 233 yards per game and to win five of seven. Under the tutelage of Coach Epps, he is preparing to make MBC feel his wrath on Turkey Day.

Saperstein Sends Marques Haynes To Philly Warriors

NEW YORK—(ANP)—When Abe Saperstein sent his stellar dribbler Marques Haynes to the Philadelphia Warriors last week, on the surface the deal looked fishy. But the explanation by Milton Gross in the New Post completely illuminates the subject. Says Gross: "There is more than the transfer of a player from one pro team to another involved in the shift of Marques Haynes the Globetrotters flyer dribbler, to the Philadelphia Warriors. The obvious reason is that Haynes has lost his value to Abe Saperstein's fabulously successful exhibition team, but the less apparent reason is that the Warriors must be bolstered at the gate or they will not survive beyond this NBA season.

"Either the Warriors make it this year, get out of the red and get into the black, or not at all," Saperstein said, explaining the transfer of Haynes to Eddie Gottlieb. "Saperstein should know. He's a major stockholder in the Warriors who play more exhibitions against the Trotters than any other NBA club. I've got to help the NBA to stay in business," Saperstein said. "If they fall out, they'll hurt us."

So the truth is out. Gottlieb and Saperstein who made fancy dough promoting separate colored teams, baseball and basketball refused at any time until the gate got very low to hire any colored player for the NBA team, the Warriors, which they jointly own.

well—although the Giants drafted Brown out of school. But being their 28th chance in the draft showed they didn't want him too badly. Now the Giant forward walk can't do without Brown. His smashing play, speed and alertness saved the Giants embarrassment time after time in the slushing mud against the Browns. But that's the kind of game Brown plays: all day long. Write down that name for future reference. Roosevelt Brown, tackle 230 pounds from Morgan State college.

Brown Now Mainstay For N. Y. Giants

NEW YORK—(ANP)—Brightest spot in a disastrous football year for the New York Football Giants is the spectacular showing of 230-pound tackle Roosevelt Brown, graduate of Morgan State college. Brown, who was the Giants' 28th choice in the football draft has broken into the first string offensive lineup from his first showing in training camp. Steve Owen, who was something of a terror himself at tackle, took a liking to the Giant rookie. Special attention was given Roosevelt to bring him up to pro standards. Brown learned fast, but there are still some finer points for him to pick up.

Experts predict all-star status for Brown if he continues improving. Already he has made Giant fans forget some of the former stars who operated in that tackle slot. And it proves that being an All-American in college doesn't get you to first base with the pros. In fact, the Giants' No. 1 draft choice hasn't shown to advantage at all—and others highly regarded as potential stars have been miserable flops. But not Brown. He came to the Giants much in the fashion of another of their stalwarts, Emilen Tunnell.

Caroline Sets New Conference Rushing Record

CHICAGO—(INS)—Big Ten football statistics showed Wednesday that J. C. Caroline, Illinois' star sophomore back, has set a new conference rushing mark of 821 yards. Caroline's total—with a game to go—displaces the seven-game record of 774 yards established by Alan Ameche of Wisconsin in 1951. J. C.'s mark is based on 127 running attempts and he is threatening to eclipse another Ameche mark—147 rushing attempts in a single game. The Illinois star now has a total of 127.

Even closer to Ameche's running attempts total is Paul Giel of Minnesota. Giel has a total of 137 running tries in six games, with a game to go.

Bill King Is Kingpin In Kentucky Victory

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—(ANP)—Bill King scored three touchdowns as the Kentucky State Thoro-breeds swamped Knoxville 32 to 6 Saturday. He tallied on a 95-yard return of a kick, on a three-yard plunge, and an eighty-yard pass from Yates McCorkle. McCorkle also passed 38 yards to Sam Patch for a Kentucky State TD. Charles Glenn also scored for the winners on an 11-yard sprint. Moses Ross scored the only Knoxville tally by bulging his way for four yards.

N. Y. Giants May Bring Up Crowe

NEW YORK—(ANP)—According to trade rumors around 42nd and Sixth Avenue where the New York baseball Giants offices are located, big George Crowe, reserve first baseman with the Milwaukee Braves will be wearing a Giant uniform next Spring. A hush-hush package deal, also involving Vern Bickford, Braves pitcher, for three unnamed Giants, perhaps Bobby Thompson, is said to be brewing. It is known that the Braves want outfielders to help Bill Bruton, and the Flying Scot would fill the bill, being much happier playing the pastures than as a converted third baseman. The Giants, too, would be helped since a regular first baseman would release Whitey Lockman for outfield duty where he is best. Crowe, who made a hit with Milwaukee fans when he played there in the old American Association days, never got a chance to show what he could do if given a regular job at the bag. Moving up to Boston, he had to play second fiddle to Earl Torgerson, and when the Braves shifted to Milwaukee, Crowe understudied Adcock. Given a chance to play regularly in New York, where he makes his home, the bespectacled Crowe could blossom into stardom and help the shaky Giants.

Chicago Cardinals Hold Rams To Tie

CHICAGO—(ANP)—With 26,674 fans looking on in amazement, the Chicago Cardinals surprised the high voltage Los Angeles Rams with a 24 to 24 tie. Playing inspired ball, the winless Cards held the powerful LA rundown. Pete Pinos of Philadelphia took over this week as the top pass receiver in the league with 780 yards on 46 catches. In the passing statistics, Cleveland's Otto Graham upped his average gain per pass from 10.69 yards to 10.86 to maintain his lead. He has completed 113 of 174 tosses for 1,889 yards. Joe Perry of the San Francisco 49ers stayed on top in rushing with 637 yards on 128 carries.

VIRGINIA UNION UPSETS VAUNTED HAWKS 15 TO 7

A startling upset win posted by the Virginia Union University Panthers over the Maryland State College Hawks left the season's list of unbeaten teams composed only of the Florida A&M University Rattlers, Southern University's Jaguars, and the Prairie View Panthers, all of which copped leads in last Saturday's activity to retain their exalted rank. The Virginia Union eleven had only three wins and a stalemate in seven starts before humbling the mighty Hawks. The margin of victory was 15 to 7. Prior to Saturday, the Hawks were untopped in seven starts this season. FAMU, Southern and Prairie View, the nation's only undefeated-undefeated eleven, must play each other and from the results of these games will be determined the mythical National Champions.

Among the tied but unbeaten football powers, Elizabeth City fell, but Lincoln (Mo.) and Tennessee State who tied each other in the season's opener won easy games. On Saturday, November 21, the Southern Jaguar Cats will face the Florida A&M Rattlers in a tilt that may decide the mythical national championship. The following week Southern will face currently unbeaten Prairie View, and on Dec. 5, Florida A&M will battle the Panthers in the Orange Blossom Classic. Prairie-View defeated Grambling 32 to 0. The Panthers also have defeated Bishop (40-19), Jackson (61-0), Wiley (32-0), Morris Brown (27-15), Arkansas AM&N (34-0), and Texas College (27-7) for 253 points against 47 for opponents. ELIZABETH CITY FALLS

Elizabeth City, previously tied twice and victorious four times, lost its first game to Winston-Salem 16 to 12. Before meeting Elizabeth City, Winston-Salem had won only one game this season, tied one, and lost five. Only other teams in connection for national honors are unbeaten but one-tied Lincoln (Mo.) and Tennessee State. LIONS DON'T LOSE

For the second straight year Lincoln finished the season without a loss by walloping South Carolina State 33-13. The Tigers tied Tennessee State 19-19, and defeated E. Illinois State (31-0), Central State (33-0), Kentuck State (25-0), Langston (20-0), Texas Southern (25-7), Alcorn (48-0), and Jackson (27-13) in other games. Lincoln has scored 288 points to 53 for its foes. Tennessee State derailed Morris Brown 34 to 7. Besides its 19-19 tie with Lincoln (Mo.), Tennessee State has defeated Virginia State (25-7), Langston (8-0), Allen (44-0), West Virginia State (13-8), Central State (31-8), and North Carolina College (19-0) Season's totals: 193-47.

Giant Rebuilding Job Seen For Baltimore Orioles Club

Baltimore's Major League baseball experiment begins with an inherited last-place team, the erstwhile St. Louis Browns. The following article, tells how the club's front office hopes to achieve a mountainous rebuilding job. BY JOHN BARRINGTON International News Service Sports Writer.

BALTIMORE—(INS)—Strange as it may seem, the Baltimore Orioles inherited, along with the old St. Louis Browns' franchise, the most extensive farm system in the American League. The Browns owned San Antonio of the Class AA Texas League and had working agreements with 11 other clubs in lower classification minor leagues. In addition, the Orioles retain title to 18 players who belonged to Baltimore's ex-International League team. Only three National League clubs, the St. Louis Cardinals, Brooklyn and Milwaukee, have more affiliates.

But a farm system is no better than the players it produces. And the development of its own young players offers the Baltimore Club its brightest hope of eventually building a pennant contender. General Manager Art Eilers is the first to concede that trades with other clubs may be of questionable value to the Orioles. Eilers, who came to the Orioles from the Philadelphia Athletics, explained: "I don't know as much about the Baltimore players as the other clubs' representatives know and passing attack in check and displayed power of their own. Starring on defense for the Cards was George Gilchrist, Jr., whose parents from Memphis, Tenn., watched him from the stands. Also appearing in the Chicago lineup were fullback George Spinks and half-back Willie Carter.

Wolverines Still Have Hopes Of Ending Season With .500 Mark

BY JOEL W. SMITH ATLANTA, Georgia (SNS)—The Morris Brown College Purple Wolverines, who go against the Bluefield State College "Big Blues" here Saturday afternoon, still have hopes of finishing the season with a .500 percentage. Game time will be 2:30 P. M., at Herndon Memorial Stadium. The Wolverines will line up against the "Big Blues" with an overall 2-4-1 win-loss-tie record. Against SIAC competition they have a 2-1-1 record, which means they have bowed to three teams outside their own loop and one conference opponent. To rescue their season and wind up one of the toughest schedules in the history of the institution with a respectable .500 mark, they must not only whip the "Big Blues" Saturday but must squeeze by the Clark College Cardinal and Black Panthers in the annual Thanksgiving Day Classic five days later. With Clark "loaded," this is a big order. PURPLE MENTORS STRESS DEFENSE AND FUNTING

Morris Brown Mentors Brush Up Defense For Bluefield State Tilt

Currently preparing for the inter-loop battle against Bluefield State, Head Coach Edward J. Clemens and his capable assistants are devoting long hours to pass defense and are working their punters overtime. They are also sharpening their offensive weapons. Faced by Capt. Allen Gary and Co-Capt. Alvin Neeson, the Morris Brown forward wall is expected to continue its sparkling defensive and offensive play. The Purple lineem have been inspired by the sensational running of Brandon Southern, Jr., Willie Ellard, and Charles Ammons. They know that if they open the holes and make the blocks, these blocks can go all the way. Line will be Paul Bishop, Joe Ed-Teaming with Capt. Gary and Co-Capt. Neeson on the starting monsoon ends; John Reynolds, tackle; Ralmon Jones, guard; and James Abram, center. Also slated for action on the line are: William Harman, Howard Glover, Cecil L. Myles, James C. Davis, Walter Atkinson, Joseph Glencamp, John L. Hunter, Fred Orr and John Anthony Thomas.

Florida Normal Wallops Savannah State 58-0

SAVANNAH, Ga.—Nov. 16—The Florida Normal and Industrial Memorial College Lions spoiled Savannah State College's homecoming by humiliating the Tigers to the tune of 58-0, here, last Saturday. The Lions started to work on the Tigers early in the first quarter when Albert Cherry from Lake Wales recovered a Tiger fumble on Savannah's own 29 yardline. Thomas Brown, a Bartow lad picked up 24 yards before being tackled, and Leon Scott from Pensacola carried the ball over, but fumbled just in time for Albert Cherry from Lake Wales, Fla., to recover it for Florida Normal's first TD. The extra attempt by Scott was no good.

At the latter part of the first quarter, the Lions showed their strong defensive power by holding the Tigers bid for a TD on Florida Normal's 25 yardline. With less than two minutes of playing time left in the quarter Thomas Brown and Lindsey Heard pooled 81 yards, but not enough for a second TD as the whistle blew. Florida Normal's second TD came early in the second quarter after an 18 run by Brown. The extra point was made on a pass from Luther Rose of Bartow to James Bradley, Lake Wales. Before the quarter ended the Lions picked up 6 more points as the results of a 23 yard pass from Harrison to Robert Jones.

Savannah State threatened the Lions during the latter half of the second quarter by pushing Florida Normal's crew back to their own 18 yard line; an interception by Fred Flair, an alert defensive end from Dunellen stopped this drive. The Lions after gaining possession of the pigskin on their own 12 yard line ran the ball back to the Tiger's 44 yardline with his Harrison doing the carrying. Florida Normal once again smashed through the Savannah defense for another TD as Waymon Selmore picked up 23 yds followed by Harrison's 20 yd drive. At the end of the second quarter the Savannah State College Tigers were trailing the Florida Normal Lions by a score of 25-0. The third quarter began with Flo-

Power May Be Yankees' Man Of Question Marks

BY AL WHITE

NEW YORK — (ANP) — Vic Power, the most controversial figure in baseball and a thorn in the Yankee's bunch of minor league roses, has given the Yankees just what they want — an excuse to get rid of him rather than bring him to the Stadium — if they so desire.

And examining the Yankee action regarding Power, this may be it. It is a fact that the Yankees refused to bring Power up until pressures from many sources revealed their lethargy in the Power case. These pressures included dropping off of Negro patrons, newspapers and magazine stories calling the Yankees biased and worst of all the extreme anxiety of other clubs to take Power off the Yankees hands.

All of this added up to one thing. The Yankees just had to bring up the Puerto Rican or Jose Jimenez. If the Yanks had lot of time lapse catch them, Power was lost as a Yankee and subject to drafting by another club.

At Kansas City last year, Power's salary wasn't "big league" so as usual, he signed to play winter ball in Puerto Rico with the team that he had just left. Organized baseball rules allow minor league players that privilege but when they are signed by a major league team, they can't play winter ball unless the team that owns the new contract gives permission. So when Power signed to play in Puerto Rico, the Yankees had not claimed or purchased him. After that purchase, Power requested permission from George Weiss to play winter ball. Weiss refused at first and Power declared he had to play because he "had to eat."

Reluctantly, Weiss then gave permission—after a delay but that could be the straw the Yankees were grasping after since they declared and have some writers also declaring that Power's attitude is his big drawback.

However, Weiss readily consented for Yankees players Bill Renna, pitcher Bill Miller and their famous Cuban baby, Frank Lela, to play in the same league with Power.

Willie Miranda, sub shortstop for Rizzuto, will play in the Cuban leagues. And he had no trouble getting consent to play there. Strangely enough, a Yankee farm team manager, Harry Craft of Kansas City, who handled Power manages a team in the Puerto Rican League.

And once again the Yankees have the problem of what to do with Power in their first base glut. With Johnny Mize vowing he'll retire and rookie Gus Triandes failing to make the grade at first, the Yankees are still well fortified with their present crop of players at that spot. So Power will have to try to crash the outfield (third base is sewed up first base is a possibility—so Power has a tough job ahead.)

Not so with Elston Howard. He might be made into a catcher. He has no problems commensurate with those facing Power who is in a tighter spot than Jackie Robinson was in breaking in.

Lyle's On The Limb

By GEORGE LYLE, JR.

PHILADELPHIA — (NPA) — The sudden change in the weather here had all of us scurrying around digging up overcoats, rubbers and "long Johns which have been reposing in the corners of closets awaiting the advent of winter, and when it "advented" it did so with a vengeance.

In football the weather was sloppy enough to bring to mind that Saturday a few years back the storms cancelled many games, leaving but a few of the most foolhardy who braved the elements to watch the few games that were played.

Last week the races at Garden State were called off and a few of the high school games were also cancelled. But the typewriters are still clacking away and the guys who cover your favorite sports are still on the go, digging up the stories for you to enjoy.

The Philadelphia Athletics have come up with a change of managers. Likeable Eddie Joost is now at the helm in place of cigar-smoking Jimmy Dykes. From the association I had with Joost in the past I'm sure that we have naught to fear as far as players of color are concerned. He is a square shooter in my book—and that speaks for itself.

With Bob Trice already on the roster, look for another player from one of the other American League teams to be purchased during the year to join him. There have been rumors that Harry Simpson of the Cleveland Indians is being considered. His mate, Larry Doby, and Luke Easter may wind up with the Senators.

In basketball, big Don Barksdale should have made up his mind about joining the Boston club by the time you read this. If he does join the team, they'll have one of the hottest combinations on the court with easy Ed MacCauley, Bob Coussey and Chuck Cooper.

Locally, the Warriors, though still a holdout in the matter of placing a colored player on the club, will surprise with a player or two next season. That I have on good authority for the coach-owner, Eddie Gottlieb.

He reports that negotiations to purchase a player from the Harlem Globetrotters have fallen through, but he has his eye on a youngster in college who should be available next season.

While in Chicago the other week I bumped into a couple of guys who are well known in the East, in sports—Dan Burley, one-time sports editor of the Amsterdams News, and William I. (Bill) Gibson, formerly managing editor of the Afro-American Newspapers.

Also chatted with Enoc Waters, an old Philadelphia and schoolmate, who edits the Chicago Defender now. He was a member of the Illinois Athletic Commission until the State administration chartered. The trio sent their best regards to their friends back East.

Watched Buddy Young, George Tallaferrro and the Baltimore Colts drop a closely fought game to the Detroit Lions. The Colts really got the bad breaks on that one.

On Sunday the New York Giants with Emlen Tunnell, that peerless defense man; Roosevelt Brown, late of Morgan State, and Leo Miles of Virginia State (I thought I had the Philadelphia solidly sold on him) were soundly trounced by the Eagles at Connie Mack Stadium here, 30 to 7.

For the locals, Ralph Goldston will be back in action shortly. The Harlem Globetrotters took the court at Convention Hall Saturday night, meeting the Solar in the opener to an NBA game which saw the Warriors meet the Fort Wayne Pistons.

The current edition of the Trotters is led by Abe Saperstein to be the greatest ever and includes Bill Garrett of Indiana, just out of the armed forces, and two high school lads, Willie Gardner of Indianapolis and Joel McRae of LaGrange, Ill.

On Monday I took over the platform at Ben Franklin High for a repeat performance with some outstanding personalities from the world of sports, who talked at the morning assembly program.

Grambling Tigers Ready To Meet Ark. State Saturday

BY COLLIE J. NICHOLSON

GRAMBLING, La. — (Special) — The Grambling Tigers are tempering last minute preparation with caution as they make final adjustments on the single-wing weapon for the annual homecoming classic with Arkansas State Saturday afternoon.

The two clubs will go native at 2 P. M., before a crowd of at least 10,000.

Grambling hasn't won a homecoming game in three years and Eddie Robinson's spear-bearers are set to drive against State with a vicious disregard for consequences. Robbie's crew will enter the fray in high favor to close their campaign on a high note, but they'll need a few happy breaks and a wink from lady luck to rear a king's defiance.

Such circumstances usually supply the pattern for a slam-bang ball game.

For 11 members of the Tigers' squad, the homecoming experience will mark the end of the line. "They would like nothing better than holding the Lions to a modest point total before giving out with their loudest scoring salvo."

Tiger seniors are "Belpepper" Patterson, an all-American performer in every respect; Robert Dillard, Bobby Robinson, Henry Crosby, Captain Donald Moore, Ruben Williams, James Wallace, Grover Lewis, Julius Cockerham, D. J. Jones and Robert Carter.

They'll do their utmost to devise correct abra-ca-dab-ras for keeping Grambling off the hot seat. Arkansas will counter with Dave Walton, Sherwood Williamson, Hardy Thrower and Eugene Winbusch. With such leather handlers available, Arkansas will be far from

PASSES PROVIDE VICTORY MARGIN FOR MOORE - MEN BY JOHN HOWARD

A homecoming crowd of 6,000 saw a powerful running Arkansas A M and N backfield coupled with a hard-charging line turn back a traditional foe from Langston University, Oklahoma, 19-0 here Saturday, November 14. The "Zip" Gayles team threatened twice all afternoon as the Lions backfield ripped off yard after yard through the visitors line.

The A M and N Lions got their first marker two minutes after the game had started when Langston's brilliant halfback, Curtis Clay from Little Rock, fumbled on his own 30 yard line. Seconds later, Quarterback Sherwin Williamson set up the touchdown on a pass to Hardy Thrower who stopped on the 22.

Then Williamson heaved a short one to Joe Davis who picked it out of the air and raced across the goal line for the initial score.

The visitors' Raymond Crawford ripped downfield from his ten yard stripe on the punt and stopped on the 49. Then Clay, halfback Ted Morris and Veran Sharp moved the ball to the Arkansas 30. Four incomplete passes later, the Lions took over and failed to gain. Davis decided to kick.

In the second quarter, the Lions' Joe Davis, Dave Walton, Eugene Winbusch and Frank Evans moved the ball to Langston's 25. Then Williamson threw a pass intended for Darwin Davis which was intercepted by Griffin Jones on the five.

The Langston's attack bogged down deep in their territory and on the punt, Joe Davis ran it back from the A M and N 40 to the Langston 21 stripe. Quarter back Williamson took to the air and on two throws to teammate Dave Walton and Darwin Davis moved to Langston's 12. A penalty against Langston put the ball on the one yard line and a short pass from Williamson to Joe Davis accounted for the second marker. Darwin Davis kicked the extra.

Again in the third quarter, Walton, Davis, and magnificent Frederick Edmond, who demonstrated his running skill by bruising the Langston line at will, put the oval on the one-yard line.

Quarterback Williamson went over on the first play to bring the score to 19-0. The Oklahoma team caught fire again the fourth quarter a 12 twice moved deep into Arkansas territory. But Arkansas held.

Coach LeRoy Moore, former student of Gayles, was the happiest man in the stadium. It was his first encounter with his former teacher in college play and he had defeated his Alma Mater in his initial try.

The pre-game activities were sparked by colorful demonstrations by 10 bands who participated in the traditional downtown parade earlier Friday.

Two queens, "Miss Arkansas State" Jewel Kendall of Augusta; and Mrs. Gladys Cotran, "Miss Alumni" were crowned by Co-Captains Felix Stuckey and Darwin Davis during pre-game ceremonies.

During half-time the crack ROTC unit from Langston put on a gun drill which brought cheers from the 6,000 fans.

The Langston University 60 piece band put on a half-time show along with the Arkansas A M and N College marching band.

Outstanding linemen for A M and N were Robert Johnson, guard; Stuckey, guard; Herman Bluford, end; Frank Evans, center; and McKinley Nash, guard. Ends Charles Hornbeck and William Roach along with tackle Harvey Jones and guard Alfred Luster bolstered the line for the Langston eleven.

BY S. W. AUSTIN Southern university Jaguar Cats the pride of the Southwest, will be on display at Tallahassee, Florida, when they clash with the Florida Rattlers in a most crucial contest between two leading and unbeaten eleven's.

Boasting a perfect eight-game record, the redoubtable Cats will meet the Rattlers in a grudge battle that probably will determine the National Negro Football Championship. Southern has exhibited a powerful offense and a strong defense, the latter yielding but 77.8 yards per game.

Numerous times during this torrid season scouts of both schools have viewed each other, and after each showing both of these aggressive squads have comeback stronger the following week.

The lumbering Cats have had their many wins despite a successful season. A large number of injuries have turned up causing the Jaguars' staff to reshuffle the gridlers so as to get maximum efficiency. During the third-week of practice Co-captain Turner Thomas, leading All-American candidate, sustained a broken leg which erased him from the roster for the remainder of the season.

Coach A. W. Mumford makes no secret of the fact that his Cats are really gunning for this all-important intersectional clash. His charges will face long and strenuous workouts as they prepare for the deadly Rattlers. It has also been reported that the Floridians consider the Jaguars to be the most potent of all their enemies, and they are working overtime printing to avenge last year's defeat.

In 1950 Southern encountered the Florida squad which was eyeing a national crown, and this highly thrilling battle ended in a 0-0 stalemate. During the '51 campaign, which was a weak one for the Jaguars, Florida breezed to a 36-6 verdict, but the Cats bounced back last fall to spank the Rattlers 25-13 under the lights here.

SOUTHERN TO BATTE PANTHERS FOR CIRCUIT TITLE The Prairie View Panthers, defenders of the Southwest grid title, will lay their coveted crown on the block here November 28, to see if the Southern Jaguar Cats can check their string of conference victories which date back to the 1951 tilt won by the locals.

This championship affair has occurred on many occasions during the past ten years, and everytime, with one exception, the Cats have been the victors. The champions are undefeated to date, and now the winning of three football titles in a row is uppermost in their minds.

SOUTHERN TO MEET XAVIER IN FINALE The melodramatic Pelican-State Classic, an event which draws the largest attendance of all games played between any of Louisiana's Negro colleges, will unfold in New Orleans, December 5.

Traditionally this game between Southern University's Jaguar Cats and Xavier University's Gold Rush has never wanted for spectators. Regardless of the strength of either squad, there is always a keen rivalry that compels supporters of both schools to see what will happen this year.

Xavier has won but one of these contests in the last decade and was loser in 1949 by an overwhelming 89-0 score. The Gold Rush smacked the Cats 22-8, two seasons ago and dropped last year's tilt 19-13 in a game of thrills.

Although these two teams are less than 90 miles apart very little attention is given to each others' progress, but both squads look forward to a "slam-bang" finale. Southern will parade 17 seniors on the field for the greater part of this highly spirited contest, and if all goes well, the Crescent City fans will get a first look at the Cats' freshmen line.

Says Russian Engineer Grads Outnumber Ours

SHALIMAR, Pa. — (T N S) — Sen. George Smathers (D) Fla., said that Russian schools will produce 50,000 trained engineers in 1955, compared with only 17,000 in the U. S.

Speaking at the dedication of a new high school near Eglin Air Force Base, Smathers said in a prepared speech that the trend could lead to a "new dark age" in America.

He said his statistics were based on the "best information obtainable" and added that the U. S. cannot "tolerate" the three-to-one ratio. He declared: "We prided ourselves for our ability to discover, develop and produce, but our advantages will vanish, possibly taking our freedom along with it unless we awaken and meet the challenge."

Negroes Apply For Admission To La., State Trade Schools

BATON ROUGE, La.—(SNS)—According to an attorney for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People 21 Louisiana Negroes have applied for admission into two state schools for whites.

Dr. Howard Lashes

Jackson, did not express the views of the "good Negroes" of the state I would be happy if the Governor would give us the definition of a "good Negro."

Will Maintain

to keep our pledge." SEN. JENNER'S STATEMENT Senate Internal Security Chairman William E. Jenner (R) Ind., who is guiding a probe of the White case and eight other incidents of Communist espionage, had this comment on the President's remarks:

The Business Future

The economic experts are almost unanimously agreed that business in 1954 will not be as good, in many lines, as in 1953.

Moreover, there are several large crop surpluses dominating the farm picture and the prices received by farmers have continued to decline steadily for over two years—thus complicating the problem of predicting farm conditions in 1954.

There are two ways of looking at the present economic situation in the United States. The optimistic viewpoint is to point to recent business announcements, showing that 1953 is going to be a record profit year for American business.

One can recall that many economic experts predicted a recession during the last half of 1953, and, so far, no such recession has occurred.

In summary, then, we must conclude that it is too early for anyone to become alarmed over business prospects in 1954.

The Other Threat

Recently, a Congressional group proposed that a study be made of Communist activities in the South.

It is hardly likely that anything significant will turn up. Communism in the South is a very scarce occurrence.

That is not to say, however, that there is no un-American activity going on here.

In a war of ideas—such as the current "cold" one between Democracy and Communism—the brutal bomb is not the key weapon; it is, of course, a threat.

From our American representatives who have toured the critical East, for instance, we have learned the extent of our losses in such countries.

If any investigatory action is indicated, then, it should be an investigation of every bombed Negro home—every disenfranchised Negro voter—every brutalized prisoner.

If this type of investigation can uncover the causes of the above injustices and correct them, we will have spent our time wisely and profitably.
