Tennessee Delegates To Attend Voters Meeting

Delegates from Tennessee are expected to attend a Midwest Conference of Negro Voters, which is being sponsored by the Chicago League of Negro Voters, March 11-13 at the Washington Park Y.M.C.A., 5000 S. Indiana Ave., Chicago, Ill. Among delegates from Memphis expected to attend is Atty. Russell B. Sugarman, Jr.

President Lemuel E. Bentley, a prominent Loop attorney, said, "We feel it altogether fitting and proper to announce the Midwest Conference of Negro Voters on the birthday of Abraham Lincoln who took office one hundred years ago and during that tenure in office issued the proclamation that freed our forefathers from the iron chains and the biting lash of the slaveowners. Today, one century later, we find the Negro voter shackled by the fetters of political bondage. We have dedicated our lives, talents and resources to the destruction of those bonds and we have found men and women from communities throughout the land who are of like mind. It is our hope that the result of the Midwest Conference of Negro Voters shall be the sounding of one black voice which shall echo in every vale and hill or our native and re-echo throughout the length and breadth of the world in Nov. 1960. So that wherever men of color will hear they smile and lift their heads in dignity and acquiescence."

Atty. James Walton, press director of the CLNV, stated that the Rock Island County League of Negro Voters, the Democratic Minority Conference of California, and Negro voters' leagues from Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Minneapolis, Minnesota and Erie, Pennsylvania will be represented at the conference. He expects all of the midwestern states to be represented and delegates from Tennessee, Arkansas, Alabama, California, Kentucky and Texas.

"Island In Sun" Again Is Banned In Memphis

"Island in the Sun," a picture starring Harry Belafonte and Joan Fontaine which deals mildly with interracial love, has again been banned in Memphis.

Mrs. Judson McKellar, chairman of the Board of Censors, said the film is "obscene." The picture was also banned in 1957 by another Memphis censor board which said the film was "too frank a depiction of miscegenation."

"Obscenity" was the grounds for the Board banning another picture this year entitled, "Hideout in the Sun," which is a nudist film. The Board has been reluctant to ban pictures because of recent decisions of the United States Supreme Court. Mrs. McKellar said to ban films now, the Censor Board stated. However, "Island in the Sun" reportedly has not been banned on those grounds anywhere else in the nation.

Rev. DeLyles Suffers Serious Heart Attack

Rev. P. W. DeLyles, pastor of Greer Chapel AME church, 1480 Ash St., was carried to the E. H. Crump Memorial hospital last Monday after he suffered a heart attack at his home, 434 Lucy St., last Wednesday.

He was not permitted to have visitors.

A son, William R. DeLyles of Detroit, Mich., and a sister, Mrs. Lula Clinck of Alburgue, Mexico, were on their way to Memphis.

The wife of the minister, Mrs. Bertie DeLyles, is well known for years of work in the AME church.

Rock-Roll Singer, Jesse Belvin, Buried In L. A.

LOS ANGELES, Calif. — Rock and roll singer Jesse Belvin, whose Cadillac crashed in Hope, Ark., Feb. 6, killing him and his young wife, Joe Ann, was buried here after funeral services attended by more than 5,000 people.

A rumor was spread shortly before the burial that the popular rock and roll idol was the "victim of an Arkansas racist." The Los Angeles Tribune reported that Belvin, idol of white as well as Negro teenagers, "was hated by racists. His appearance in Southern towns was a signal for close police surveillance to prevent white teenagers who had followed Belvin on radio and television from attending and mixing with the Negro entertainers."

Belvin's wife, 22, the mother of two young children, died in Hope five days following the accident. Her body was flown here, where Belvin had lived since he was only two years old.

Kenya Faces Critical Days A Second Time

NAIROBI, Kenya — (UP) — Kenya faced its most critical days since the Mau Mau terrorism. Well informed sources believed an explosion might come with the return this week of European and African delegates now winding up a constitutional conference in London.

"There is undoubtedly tension in the colony at the moment," the Nairobi Sunday Post said editorially Sunday, noting "the strange influences at work in the African political scene in Kenya."

The newspaper said the unrest "is partly of a racial character. We have to keep calm and we shall continue to do so at least on the European front."

Taking up the same theme, one neutral diplomat said it was as well the London conference did not end last week as scheduled.

"Had the delegates returned on Saturday, when the Africans are off-duty and the European community was vigorously celebrating the weekend there would have been a much greater chance of violence than is the case in midweek," this diplomat said.

But other observers said there is a good chance that the London negotiated solution for a multi-racial Kenya society will ride out the threats of violence. However, nobody discounts the possibility of extremists in either camp starting demonstrations.

Man Accused Of Assaulting Woman

A 31-year-old Negro man was arrested Tuesday night and was charged with criminally assaulting an ill, 30-year-old white woman.

The man, identified as Jearul Moore who lives on Reed Hooker Rd., near Eads. The woman claimed that Moore assaulted her twice. She said she was ill with flu. She said she was alone in her home at 10:30 a. m. when Moore, a sharecropper, entered. She accused him of assaulting her twice.

BORN IN TEXAS

Belvin, who was 27, was born in Texas, but his parents moved here 25 years ago. His biggest song hit was, "Good Night, My Love."

At the time many teenagers stamped by the hallmark of rhythm and blues aficionados, with dark glasses, gassed hair and hep walk. One youth viewed Belvin's body four times, and mused each time: "You really laid out, cool, daddy; you really laid out cool."

An unidentified woman in dark glasses reached into the casket to smooth the singer's hair back and said, "So long, baby."

FORCED DISCLOSURE OF NAACP ROSTERS 'UNCONSTITUTIONAL'

Supreme Court Also Strikes Down 2 Ordinances On Taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) won a Supreme Court victory Tuesday in its fight to withhold its membership lists from southern authorities.

In a unanimous decision, the court struck down as unconstitutional two tax ordinances in Little Rock and North Little Rock, Ark., requiring local NAACP groups to file financial statements and to disclose their membership roles.

The court held that the measures were an unwarranted violation of the right of NAACP members to freedom of assembly. It also agreed with the NAACP that disclosure of its roster would subject its members to harassment and possibly bodily harm.

The Little Rock ruling was the highlight of the first court decision session in four weeks. The justices have been writing opinions and hearing oral arguments in a variety of cases.

In the Little Rock case, the court set aside fines imposed on two NAACP officials — Mrs. Daisy Bates, Arkansas NAACP president, and Mrs. Biedle Williams, head of the North Little Rock branch — for failing to produce their membership roles in accordance with the ordinances.

In an opinion written by Justice Potter Stewart, the court held that the women "cannot be punished for refusing to produce information which the municipalities could not constitutionally require."

In a separate concurring opinion, Justices Hugo L. Black and William O. Douglas said the ordinances violated the constitutional rights of freedom of speech and assembly.

They said these rights "are beyond abridgment, either by legislation that directly restrains their exercise or by suppression or impairment through harassment, humiliation, or exposure by government."

OTHER DECISIONS

In other major actions, the court: — Ruled that employees of a company may engage in work slowdowns and other harassing tactics during union-management negotiations. The 6-3 ruling overturned a ruling of the National Labor Relations Board in a case involving agents of the Prudential Life Insurance Co., Newark, N. J.

— Gave the federal government permission to become a party in two disputes among Great Lakes states over Chicago's use of Lake Michigan water.

— Struck down a Texas state law imposing a tax on companies leasing property from the federal government. The court acted in a case involving the Phillips Chemical Co., which leased government land in Moore County.

— Ruled that the Benedict Coal Corp., St. Charles, Va., must pay the United Mine Workers Welfare Fund $76,504, plus interest, in royalties on coal mined from March, 1950 to July, 1953. The company contended it did not have to pay the money because the union violated its contract.

Evers Passes Out 400 Union Cards To Sanitation Workers

Hand bills and blank Union membership cards were passed out to approximately 400 garbage collectors Tuesday afternoon at the city dump which is located beyond the city limits on Lamar St., on Route 78. According to a report.

The hand bills and cards were reportedly passed out by representatives from Local Union No. 94 of the Teamsters Union. The representatives were headed by O. Z. Evers of 3018 Crystal Ave., who is not a member of the local union however, he has been selected to organize the garbage collectors in their attempt to organize themselves into a union, according to Evers.

Evers said that the passing out of hand bills and union cards to be filled in by the garbage collectors was a test to determine how many men want to join a union.

Evers said he expects to call a meeting to elect officers within the next 10 days. He stated that one of the foremen at the city dump attempted to prevent him from passing out the hand bills, and asked him to leave the area, to which he said he replied: "Do we not have a right to be here? We are taxpayers."

"Evers said two other foremen" told him he would welcome the idea of the collectors being unionized because it would raise their wages which would tend to raise their own wages. He said he did not know the foremen by name.

Evers said the sanitation workers told him; "we are not afraid anymore to let it be known that we want a union because that is the only way for us to get decent wages."

Rev. King Denies Again That He Owes Ala. Taxes

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., Wednesday said that perjury charges against him in his home state of Alabama were ridiculous.

He said the perjury charges came about over the state's claim that he had failed to pay his taxes. "I have always scrupulously paid my taxes," King told a news conference at the Ambassador Hotel. "If there was an error made it was certainly not on my part."

He said his actions in the integration movement caused the legal action against him.

"In Alabama, people are always looking for anything and everything to prevent the desegregation movement," he said.

AME Bishops Urge Rights Bill Action

PHILADELPHIA — (ANP) — Congress was urged to pass effective civil rights legislation and support was given the student sit-down demonstrations at Jim Crow lunch counters by the Bishops council of the AME church last week.

Seventeen prelates of the church, meeting for the last time before this denomination's general conference in Los Angeles in May, also voted to join in the formation of an interracial church movement in Africa.

The council approved the acceptance of an invitation from Archbishop DeBlanc, Capetown, South Africa, archbishop of the Church of the Province of South Africa, to join with other religious communities in the formation of an ecumenical church movement in South Africa.

Bishop Francis E. Gow, AME native South African prelate, brought the invitation to the council session, underscoring the fact that this is the first attempt toward interracial church union in the province.

STRIKE CONCERN

President of the council, Bishop George W. Baber, Philadelphia, voiced the concern of the bishops.

Self-Employed May Get Break On Income Tax

WASHINGTON — (UPI) Chances were considerably brighter Monday that Congress might give doctors, lawyers, farmers, shopkeepers and other self-employed persons an income tax break to help them build up retirement funds.

The Treasury has reinitiated in its outright opposition to such legislation and now is drafting a proposal of its own.

Informed sources said the Treasury plan would be presented soon as an alternative to a House-passed bill strongly opposed by the administration.

PERMITS DEFERMENTS

The House measure would permit self-employed persons to defer payment of incomes taxes on certain amounts placed in retirement funds.

The deferment would apply to 10 per cent of income but could not amount to more than $2,500 annually except for older persons near retirement. They would get a better break.

An estimated 6 million to 7 million self-employed persons have no company pension plans.

High Court To Study Bus Restaurant Bias

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court agreed Tuesday to look into a challenge to racial segregation in restaurants of interstate bus terminals.

The court will hold arguments in the case later this term and will follow with a written opinion.

The case stemmed from an experience of Bruce Boynton, a Negro student at Howard University, during a bus ride earlier this year from Washington, D. C., to his home in Selma, Ala.

When the railroads bus reached the Richmond, Va., terminal, Boynton went inside in search of lunch. Instead of waiting in the crowded restaurant for Negro patrons, he sought service in the white restaurant.

After a waitress explained she could not serve him, the assistant manager asked Boynton to leave. He refused, was later arrested and fined $10 in the Richmond Police Court. The Richmond Postings Court affirmed and the Supreme Court of Appeals rejected his petition for a writ of error.

He was convicted of violating a state law making it an offense to remain on "the premises of another" after having been forbidden to do so.

The U. S. Supreme Court held years ago that racial segregation on interstate buses is unconstitutional, as well as fines by a bus company to the same effect. It later ruled that segregated railroad dining cars violate the interstate commerce act.

But there has been no ruling on segregated restaurants in interstate bus or railroad stations.

In appealing to the high tribunal, Boynton said "State criminal machinery has been used to enforce discrimination."

He was represented, among other attorneys, by Thurgood Marshall, prominent New York lawyer for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Conference For Superior Students At Southern U.

BATON ROUGE, La. — A South-Wide Conference, under the auspices of the Inter-University Committee on the Superior Student will be held at Southern University, February 22-24, it has been announced by Dr. Felton G. Clark, president of Southern. The conference will be geared to "Planning and Maintaining Programs for the Superior Student."

Dr. Clark, in his announcement, stated that representatives from colleges and Universities, primarily for Negroes throughout America, will participate and attend the conference.

The President said, "Interest in this conference has been influenced by the national concern for the identification and encouragement of the talented. In addition, there is a reason to believe that existing among Negro youth is a significant number of potentially talented students, who because of certain deterring cultural factors, are not discovered."

CARNEGIE SUBSIDY He added, "We are extremely fortunate in having the sponsorship of the Inter-University Committee on the Superior Student, which itself is operating on a subsidy of the Carnegie Corporation. It is the key national effort in the movement to chart and guide the newly emerging programs for dealing with the gifted. Although its work has included several such regional conferences in the far West, the East, the Middle West and border states, this will be the first conference in the deep south and the first embracing the country's Negro colleges as a unit."

Major addresses, during the conference, will be delivered by John Hope Franklin, chairman.

YOU ASKED IT

By GRACE WILLIAMS

DEAR GRACE: My doctor has told me that I must lose thirty pounds. He didn't give me a diet to follow, but told me that I should cut out all sweets and starches. Does this mean that I shouldn't eat potatoes?

Nutritionists say that you should choose your foods by the company they keep — that is, when selecting foods for a diet chose the ones that have more than calories to offer. Potatoes keep good company — they are a source of vitamin C, niacin, and thiamine. Actually, one medium-sized baked potato yields only about 95 calories. So, one potato a day, minus the gravy and sauce, with one teaspoon of butter equal about 135 calories. Most women can lose weight safely on a 1500 calorie diet — which means that a medium-sized buttered potato would give the diet safety value as well as much needed minerals and vitamins.

DEAR GRACE: I have some wild ducks that have been in my freezer for several months, now. I plan to have some friends in for dinner and serve them. Can you give me a menu that goes well with wild duck?

Traditionally wild rice is served with wild duck; however if your budget doesn't permit it, brown rice is suitable. For a vegetable serve French-cut green beans. For salad, a mixed salad of greens.

DEAR GRACE: It seems that you have quite an argument going about milk and fish. Well, I don't know about that, but I have always heard that you should never give milk to a person with fever. Is that right?

Milk should form the basis of the diet for persons who are ill or well. The person's temperature has no bearing on his ability to take milk.

HINT TO THE WIVES—When making cocoa don't throw away the film that forms on top of the cocoa. It has food value, too — use a rotary egg beater to mix it with the rest of the drink.

Farm Employment Down By 263,000 In January
Bad weather in some areas and the continued decline in the number of farm operators appear to have been mainly responsible for a decrease of 263,000 in the number of hired and family workers on farms in January as compared with a year ago, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports. The estimate is based on a farm survey made during the week of January 24-30. Only 5,006,000 persons were at work. This compares with 5,269,000 in December, and 5,269,000 a year ago. There was a drop of 140,000 from the same week a year ago in the South, where Negro workers make up a sizable proportion of the labor force. In Florida a freeze did considerable damage to the vegetable crops, reducing the number of workers needed by 13,000. But in southern Alabama potato planting continued, while the tung nut harvest neared completion in Louisiana and Mississippi. Pine seedlings were being set in the woodlands of the Southeast, and it was almost cotton planting time in the Lower Valley of Texas.

Special Labor System To Seek Rights Practice

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. — The AFL-CIO Executive Council has set up a plan to secure compliance with the federation's constitution in civil rights cases.

The council approved a system under which AFL-CIO Pres. George Meany will appoint special subcommittees of the council to handle each case of alleged violation that has not been resolved at a lower level. The special subcommittees will deal with the international unions involved and report back directly to the Executive Council.

This new procedure replaces the system in force since merger whereby problems of compliance with directives to eliminate discrimination were handled by a subcommittee of the federation's Civil Rights Committee.

At the present time, here is one case before the council involving Local 28 of the Intl. Brotherhood of Electrical Workers in Washington. Meany will function as a subcommittee of one in this case.

The federation president, in discussing this case and the civil rights program generally at a press conference, said "We're making progress, perhaps not as fast as we'd all like, but there is definite progress."

Disabled Vets Make 'Operation Comeback'

WASHINGTON — More than 300 of the nation's most severely disabled veterans are taking part in an "Operation Comeback" that demonstrates that virtually no man is beyond rehabilitation, the Veterans Administration reported Monday.

They are veterans of World War II and Korea, so badly handicapped by their wartime disabilities that they cannot attend school, as have more than 10,000,000 of their fellows in arms.

Nevertheless they are receiving VA training for lives of independence — in their homes, in sheltered workshops, in rehabilitation centers.

Policeman Forgets Rule And Prisoner Escapes

WASHINGTON, D. C. — (ANP) — District police are trained to hold a prisoner from behind by his belt to prevent his escape, but last week Policeman Patrick Farrell for holding a pickpocket suspect only by his coat, which enable him to twist away and escape as he was being placed in a police wagon.

Explaining the efficiency of the belt and trouser hold, Deputy Chief George Wallrodt said: "To escape, a prisoner should have to jump out of his trousers."

Ghana, Ivory Coast At Odds over Sanwi Region
ABIDJAN, Ivory Coast — (ANP)—Like its fellow French community nation of Togoland, the Ivory Coast is incensed over Ghana's proposal to annex a portion of its territory. However, Ivory Coast Premier Houphouet-Boigny has said that Ghana "has neither the right nor the means to claim, and even more, to hope to annex the smallest plot of land in the state of the Ivory Coast."

Second Youth 'Invasion' Of Africa Coming

NEW YORK — (ANP) — Eleven countries in West Africa will be "invaded" this summer by 180 college students from 74 schools and every section of the U. S. and parts of Canada, and of every nationality, color, race, and religion.

They will be participating in a study-work tour proudly boasting the code name of "Operation Crossroads Africa," whose primary aim is to promote understanding and friendship of young American and African students for each other and their countries through working together.

LARGER THAN '1958 INVASION'

The tour is a repeat of a 1958 invasion of West Africa, but on a larger scale. The first tour numbered 60 students, divided in five groups, which visited Liberia, Ghana, Sierra Leone, Republic of Cameroon (then the French Cameroons) and Nigeria.

This year, the students will also take in Senegal, Guinea, Ivory Coast, Togoland, Dahomey and the Congo Republic. The minimum age of participants is 17.

As was the first study-work group, the second contingent will be led by the Rev. James H. Robinson, pastor, Presbyterian Church of the Master, New York; with the Rev. Israel Mowshowitz, rabbi, Hillcrest Jewish center, Flushing, L. I., as associate director.

Louisville Mayor Seeks End Of Jim Crow Ban

LOUISVILLE — (ANP) — In an effort to preclude enactment of an ordinance that would prohibit racial discrimination in theatres, hotels and restaurants, here, Mayor Hoblitzel has agreed to try to get business men to agree to a voluntary lifting of the racial ban.

The mayor promised to call together his Civic and Religious Advisory committee for a discussion of the issue with owners of the affected establishments.

Hoblitzel said that he and his wife often eat at integrated restaurants at the airport and the Fairgrounds, and have noticed no problems there. He added: As a city, Louisville has set everybody a fine example. If integration is to be carried further, I don't think the City should take the lead. It should be up to a citizens group. It is the citizens' problem, but it is not a City problem.

The ordinance was introduced by the city's only Negro councilman, William W. Beckett. Negroes here are wary of any voluntary lifting of the ban.

They feel that because there would be no violation of the law involved, many places would probably continue their racial policy and Negroes therefore would have no assurance of service when they entered the establishment.

Sunday School Lesson

COURAGE FOR CHRISTIAN WITNESSING
International Sunday School Lesson for February 28, 1960.
MEMORY SELECTION: "Take your share of suffering as a good soldier of Christ Jesus." (2 Timothy 2: 3.)
LESSON TEXT: Acts 21: 17 through 22:29.

Today's lesson will attempt to help you answer the following question: How can churches keep lines of communication open in order that we may better understand one another?

Our study of the Bible today illustrates clearly the trials and tribulations, and brutality, endured by Paul at the hands of the people who questioned his teachings. We read of divisiveness within religions; in Paul's day there was a strict Jewish law against bringing a non-Jew into the sacred precincts of the Temple. In the verses we are studying today, Paul is accused of taking a Gentile into the holy place forbidden to him, and public sentiment took its toll against the apostle.

We might have hoped that the Christian churches would have been able to avoid the pitfalls of the Jewish Temple, as set forth in the lesson we are currently studying. However, history gives ample evidence that the various churches have again and again succumbed to the temptation of closed doors and closed minds.

In the past hundred years we have come a long way in understanding between the numerous and varied branches of religion, but there is still room for improvement as we look at the question in the day and age in which we live. Today the denominational divisions remain, but bitter and acrimonious division is, for the most part, a thing of the past. Despite this growing together, however, there is an uneasiness in the mind of every thinking Christian that we have not yet gone far enough. This sense of uneasiness stems from two sources. First, we are realizing that our denominational divisions in some areas of the world serve as a possible hindrance to missionary expansion. Non-Christians make up two-thirds of the world's population, and they are increasingly asking embarrassing questions about common worship that we discover afresh that it is Jesus Christ that makes us one. Second, we need to witness to each other. In other words, we need to talk. One denomination does not agree with another on many things. We need to talk together, and this calls for us to both listen and speak. Third, we need to work together. In this way we can best meet the calls of human need which should be one of the fundamental concerns of a Christ-literate.

JORDAN LIFTS BAN ON BILLY GRAHAM

AMMAN, Jordan — (ANP) — The ban against Evangelist Billy Graham is being lifted by the foreign ministry. It was imposed last year on the grounds that the evangelist allegedly had "anti-Arab tendencies."

Only by heeding these basic rules can we ever hope to establish harmony among different denominations which are, after all, just branches of one great tree—Christianity as typified by Christ Himself.

Roosevelt Denies Ike's Committee Got Meany Offer To Break Bias

Says Recent Statement Politically Inspired

NEW YORK (NNPA)—John Roosevelt, member of the President's Contracts Committee, Tuesday denied that the committee had ever received an offer from George Meany, AFL-CIO president, to break racial discrimination in construction unions in the District of Columbia.

Asked how he accounted for Meany's statement that the committee had ignored his offer, Mr. Roosevelt hinted that the action was politically inspired. "I don't know, frankly," he replied, "but I understand there is an election coming up in November."

At a press conference in Bal Harbour, Fla., where the AFL-CIO Executive Council was meeting, Meany said Monday that he had personally offered to get a fully trained colored electrician for the contractor to break the color bar maintained by Local 26 of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers in Washington, and that he had since had "no word" from the committee, of which he is a member.

Holding a press conference in his apartment, Mr. Roosevelt said: "I categorically state, after checking very carefully, that neither myself, the committee, nor the Labor Secretary (James P. Mitchell) ever received a letter from Mr. Henry relative to this matter."

SON OF LATE FDR
Mr. Roosevelt, son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, is chairman of the committee's subcommittee on Washington affairs. Mr. Mitchell is vice chairman of the full committee, of which Vice President Richard M. Nixon is the chairman.

Mr. Meany has been a member of the committee ever since it was established in August, 1953. Mr. Roosevelt pointed out, "but he has never attended a single session of the committee or subcommittee."

He suggested that if Meany had attended meetings, "he would have been better informed" and would not have made his statement.

"We have bent over backwards in trying to cooperate with Mr. Meany," Mr. Roosevelt said, even going so far as to suppress a press release last month at Mr. Meany's request, which showed that Local 26 "had adopted a very uncooperative attitude in our efforts to solve this problem."

Mr. Roosevelt noted that representatives of Local 26 had failed to appear at three meetings called to discuss the matter. He explained that under hiring practices in the District of Columbia, building contractors hire electricians only after they are referred to them by the union.

The committee is charged with policing employment by Government contractors to get compliance with a nondiscrimination clause in their contracts.

Court Rules Levittown Can't Bar Families

TRENTON, N. J. — (NNPA) — The New Jersey Supreme Court ruled that colored families cannot be barred solely on the ground of color from buying homes in Levittown, N. J., or in any other publicly-aided housing project.

In a unanimous decision, the high court upheld the judgment of the Appellate Division of Superior Court, which ruled that the 1954 amendment to New Jersey's anti-discrimination law bars racial discrimination in housing financed with Federally insured mortgage loans.

Julius Waldstein, chairman of the American Jewish Congress Committee on Law and Social Action and attorney for three colored complainants, called the decision a "decisive victory for equality" and demanded that William J. Levitt, mass builder, "accept this decision as final" and abandon his policy of "selling to white families only."

Attorney General David D. Furman, who defended the constitutionality of the New Jersey anti-discrimination law, said builders who benefit from tax dollars should not discriminate between Americans.

"The decision by the Supreme Court," he said, "is a vindication of that principle of our democratic way of life."

But Ira Goldman, an attorney for Levitt and Sons, builders of Levittown, said the decision will probably be appealed in the Federal courts because it "involves serious questions of constitutional law."

"Carnation is the milk that whips like cream—with far fewer fat calories," Miss Thrift explains to a student. "I prefer it to any other brand for recipes like Whipped Sundae Salad." (Recipe at right.)

Home Economics Director tells why...

"Carnation is the milk I use like cream —with 1/2 the fat calories!"

Miss Pinkie Thrift is chairman of the home economics department at Southern University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. "In class we use Carnation to make favorite dishes taste extra special—as if they'd been made with cream," Miss Thrift explains. "Wonderfully smooth cream sauce, for example. Meat loaf that stays moist through baking. And an easy, delicious butter sauce that needs no flour or butter because Carnation itself is so creamy-rich. It whips, too—higher than whipping cream!" A special method of evaporation gives today's Carnation the consistency of golden country cream —with 1/2 the fat calories

"Cream itself couldn't make coffee taste richer—yet Carnation has only 1/2 the fat calories," Miss Thrift emphasizes. Carnation in the red and white can is the world's favorite brand of evaporated milk.

By MARION E. JACKSON

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala. (SNS)—Florida A. and M. and North Carolina A. and T. have resolved their differences and will square off again on the gridiron during 1960.

There appears to be a meeting of the minds between Jake Gaither of FAMU and Bill Bell of NCA&T. For a while it appeared that the Rattler-Aggie series would go down the drain.

They tell me: Jackie Robinson who broke the color line in organized baseball has had to cut down on some of his activities (vice-president, Chuck - Pull - O'Nuts, Chairman of the NAACP Freedom Fund, newspaper columnist, radio commentator and frequent banquet and TV appearances, etc.)

If the Continental League operates in 1961, Atlanta would have the biggest parking the circuit. That's if the Georgia Assembly approves a stadium authority.

Other park capacities were listed as New York, 55,000; St. Paul - Minneapolis, 35,000; Toronto, 35,000; and Buffalo, Denver, Dallas - Fort Worth and Houston with 35,000 capacity ball parks.

TRIVIA: Douglas Porter, Alfred Priestley's assistant at Xavier, is studying at Indiana towards his Master's degree in P. E. Willie Mays is reputedly making $85,000 a year. I hope fervently the report is true.

As you know the Dodgers and Giants are in California, two pro clubs the Rams and the 49ers are domiciled there, and the Pro All-Star game is a fixture.

The booming professional sports market in California has brought a horde of new residents, but the most publicized defection was that of Willie Mays, who returned east charging racial bigotry in housing.

CLARK AND MOREHOUSE FALL IN FIRST ROUNDS

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (SNS)—Second-seeded Morris Brown caught fire after a slow start and bloated to a 91-68 win over Alabama A. and M. in yesterday's initial play in the 27th annual Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's basketball tournament.

The Purple Wolverines' first unit lacked the spark in the opening phase of the contest, but came back after five minutes rest and set the torrid pace. They led at the half, 38-33, and were never again threatened.

RISLEY SWEEPS 11TH STRAIGHT AS MONROE FALLS

BRUNSWICK, Ga. — Coach L. J. Lomax's Risley High School Tigers romped to their 11th straight victory Friday night by taking the Monroe High Tornadoes in camp, 55-33, at Albany. The Risley girls dropped a 42-22 decision to the Monroe lassies.

Wednesday night, the Tigers battered the Wayne County High quint, of Jessup, 63-29 for their tenth win-in-a-row, at the Risley Gymnasium.

Robert Caine, who has not seen much this season, came off the bench and did a rebounding job in addition to contributing seven points.

Mass. He had attended one of the best high schools. For a while it was feared he would flunk out.

Nevertheless, Boston University professors realized this would be a tragic for a youngster of such Olympic potential, so they set up a study program for the lad with instructional guides to aid him over the hump.

KEYNOTE: The eyes of the nation will be focused on California in a bi-partisan way next summer. Two of the publicized presidential aspirants are from that state—Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Pat Brown.

Ignoring the political aspects, and turning to the positive realism of seeing California as the "capital of sports" with massive attendance records being chalked up in Los Angeles and San Francisco, this melting pot state will be very much in the news.

The National Basketball Association has been eyeing West Coast franchises until the circuit experience a turnstile collapse for two exhibitions in the state.

The booming professional sports market in California has brought a horde of new residents, but the most publicized defection was that of Willie Mays, who returned east charging racial bigotry in housing.

The college basketball point-shavers who got something like $100 for holding the score down were blacklisted. Charlie Van Doren and the quiz show intellectuals who received small fortunes for cheating on TV will never be punished in any manner whatsoever.

NEW YORK (UPI)—John Thomas' seven-foot, two-inch high jump climaxed an astounding spree of record-breaking in the National AAU track championships Saturday night when four world indoor records were broken and another was tied twice.

Little Al Lawrence of Australia erased the three-mile record when he ran 13:26.4; Irvin Bo Robinson of the Philadelphia Flyers smashed Jesse Owens' broad jump record with 25 feet, 9 1-2 inches; Hal Connolly blitzed the weight throw record with 71 feet, 2 1-2 inches; and Paul Winder and David James tied the 60-yard dash record of 6.1 seconds.

In addition, Hayes Jones of Eastern Michigan equalled the meet hurdles record of 7.1 seconds in nipping Olympic champion Lee Calhoun in a photo-finish.

Thomas, the brilliant sophomore who hadn't expected much Saturday because he had a bout with flu this week, cleared 7-12 cleanly on his second attempt. The leap, which was given an ovation by the 13,567 fans at Madison Square Garden, broke Thomas' own indoor

Officials At Interracial Game Passive

PUNTA GORDA, Fla. — (UPI)— Authorities said Monday they were powerless to break up a racially integrated softball doubleheader here Sunday that was played in a white park.

Police Chief Sim Holt said, "We didn't know which way to handle it." He said no arrests were made.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Bill Keller said the white and Negro youths refused to respond when he told them they would be criticized and it would be best if they finished their game at a Negro field.

While the youths played, white and Negro girls mingled on the sidelines. The game was conducted on friendly terms as the Negroes defeated the whites in both games 8-5, 7-5.

FOURAH BAY COLLEGE LIFTED TO UNIVERSITY STATUS

FREETOWN, Sierra Leone — (ANP) — Fourah Bay College, established in 1827 primarily to provide theological training, has received a royal charter from Queen Elizabeth of England lifting it to the status of university college.

Cary Weisger of Duke University scored a major upset when he won the 1,000 yard run in a routine 2:12.8. Ed Moran of the New York A. C., who had announced he was shooting for the world record, stumbled and almost fell on the first turn but recovered and was in the lead when Weisger spurred past him in the stretch to win by two yards.

Tuskegee Institute, a three-time SIAC tournament winner, comes to Atlanta hoping to atone for its first round failure in the 27th annual showcase. The Golden Tigers won the conference tournament championship at the inaugural extravaganza in 1934, repeated in 1944 and were winners in 1948, during the reign of the late E. H. Adams.

Tuskegee Institute bowed in the opening round of last week's tournament to Benedict College 91-84 in the quarter-finals. This one was a close one all the way and the outcome was never decided until the final moments of play.

Morris Brown resumed drills Monday night and will probably be at full strength for their opener against Tuskegee Institute.

SAFETY HINTS FOR THE NEW PUPPY

By Bob Bartos
Manager, Friskies Research Kennels

That new Christmas puppy isn't as indestructible as he appeared roughhousing around with his litter mates at the kennel. His bones and muscles are soft like a baby's. It's important, therefore, not to let him jump from high places such as a chair or sofa.

Don't let the children maul him. Don't haul him up by the front legs alone. Under the trump with one hand and under the chest with the other is the safe way to lift him.

A young puppy, like a baby, will swallow almost anything within reach, so keep your floors free of such small and dangerous objects as needles, pins and hairpins. Don't leave insect powders, cleaning chemicals or solutions around where they can be sampled.

When walking your puppy on the street be sure to keep him leashed. A young pup, unlike most adult dogs, has no discretion where cars are concerned. A puppy's roly-polyness belies the speed with which he can suddenly dart into the path of traffic. Remember, leash laws, which are designed primarily to protect people from being pestered by dogs, also protect your dog against the danger of cars.

While puppies love toys that are all their own, make sure that those you give your pet are of the right type. Those made of leather or hard rubber, providing they're too big for him to swallow, are safe. Sponge rubber toys are taboo. A gift that will help prevent your pup from becoming lost is a dog tag, engraved with your name and telephone number. You can obtain a sturdy metal tag by sending your name and number, together with 25 cents, and one Friskies "pup-head" trademark, to Friskies Dog Tag, Dept. "P", Box 30, Pico Rivera, California.

Cats' Chances Depend On Mood Of Butler

HOW LONNIE BUTLER feels about the situation should have a tremendous influence on the outcome of the championship game scheduled for tonight (Friday) at Melrose gymnasium.

Butler is the 6-4 ballhawk for Frank Lewis' Melrose Golden Wildcats whose sometimes stellar play has probably proved the difference this season between a winning team and a losing team.

The countdown has already begun, and when the whistle sounds fans will observe the situation closely to see whether ballhawk Butler is what he is cracked up to be. The opposing team is William O. Little's Douglass Red Devils who will be out to stop Butler and company and take home Douglass' first championship in sports since the Prep League was organized.

Butler, who has defeated every other team besides the jinx Booker T. Washington Warriors, will come into the contest with a well-balanced squad which has a more impressive record than Melrose in that it has defeated its opponents by larger margins than have the Wildcats. This factor, plus the fact that the Red Devils whipped Melrose by more than 10 points in the first meeting of the two, gives the Douglass boys the edge.

And they do have ballhawk Butler—whose scoring of 32 points against the Warriors in Melrose's

75-65 victory Monday at Blair Hunt gymnasium proved the difference. That has just about been the Melrose story all season—up when Lonnie's up, and down when Lonnie's down.

DANGEROUS KID
Wednesday night Douglass was scheduled to clash with Jake Peacock's sneaky Lester Lions at the Melrose gymnasium. The game will be for the championship of the league.

THUNDERBOLTS END THEIR LOSS STREAK
Monday night the Fr. Bertrand Thunderbolts ended a 26 game losing streak in the League by humiliating the gone-to-the-dogs Hamilton Wildcats, who were picked by preseason experts to capture the circuit title. The Thunderbolts downed the hapless Alvin Junior, Oliver Ingram crew by a score of 50-44 as shocked wildcat fans looked on. It was Hamilton's ninth circuit defeat of the season against only four victories.

In another scheduled league game for tonight (Friday) Manassas, which whipped Geeter 49-45 Tuesday night, is scheduled to entertain Bertrand.

Along The Sports Trail

BY SAM BROWN

In a few days major league baseball players will be in the midst of their spring training conditioning themselves for the coming pennant races for 1960. Several Negro players will be on hand at all the major league camps, veterans and rookies alike will be working hard to be in condition for opening day.

Baseball has much to offer the promising youngsters with ability and at the approach of spring, many of these stars of the future turn their thoughts to time when they will be a member of one of the major league teams. They entertain high hopes of becoming the Willie Mays, Hank Aaron, Ernie Banks, Sam Jones, Charlie Neal and the rest of the future.

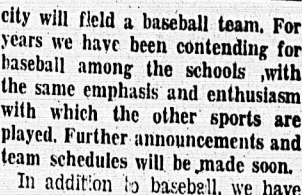

Yet, the pathetic thing as it applies to the opportunities the young ball players have now is so many of them don't want to apply themselves and develop their abilities, can't bear the idea of starting at the bottom to work up, nor make any sacrifices to become major league prospects. Many of them are inclined to think some miracle will happen that will lift them into the upper brackets of big salaries over night.

Americans spend millions of dollars yearly for baseball and athletic entertainment, and the athletes who are willing to work hard give their all to reach the top are the ones who are rewarded with the big salaries. Several of the top-salaried players next season are Negroes. According to reports, Willie Mays will be the highest player in the game, with a salary of $80,000.

Among other players in the big money bracket are Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs whose salary is reported to be $60,000; Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves is reported to have signed for $50,000; Sam Jones, pitcher of the San Francisco Giants $30,000, Minnie Minoso, outfielder of the pennant winning White Sox $40,000 and many others earning salaries far above that they might earn in any other endeavor, or any other sport.

True, the top basketball players earn good salaries, but only the very best basketball players have reached that charmed circle. Football players are paid excellent salaries and Negro football players are making good in the pro ranks as more and more opportunities are offered the good player as he leaves college. Still, it is baseball that offers most to the player of exceptional ability.

We are happy to learn the Prep League of the city will play baseball this year. According to announcement all the schools of the city will field a baseball team. For years we have been contending for baseball among the schools, with the same emphasis and enthusiasm with which the other sports are played. Further announcements and team schedules will be made soon.

In addition to baseball, we have just learned that efforts are being made to inaugurate golf in the city schools, with the young golfers competing for golf honors for their respective schools just as the young athletes for honors in football and basketball.

Reports have it that the facilities at the Fuller Park golf course, will be available for the youngsters, both for their practice games as well as for tourney competition. Robert Wright, manager of the Fuller Park course and club house has been working on the idea for some time, and now with the encouragement and blessing of the School System, the organizing of the teams and a break in the weather are the only holdbacks.

So, the high school youngsters of the city will now have a full athletic program the year round, and those who don't make the football, basketball or track teams, can look forward to some of the other sports in which they can take part. Athletics have a place in the life of every normal youngster, and can prove beneficial to him.

Manassas downed Hamilton 70-39 to capture the tournament title in the title game of the third annual Tri-States High School Basketball Tournament at the Hamilton gym in the boys' division.

Fayette County Training School of Somerville, Tenn. took first place in the girls' division by turning back Walton Chapel of Sardis, Miss. 52-9.

Manassas led all the way over Hamilton as Major Wilson, the Tigers' scintillating center hit for 24 points to lead in the scoring. Fredonia, Miss. 62-37; Holly Springs, Miss. tripped Coldwater, Miss. 66-59.

In the Semi-finals in the afternoon, Hamilton defeated Holly Springs 56-47; Manassas topped Woodstock 54-46. In the girls division, Fayette County Training School downed Senatobia 67-15, and Walton Chapel edged Coldwater 14-11.

Two Memphis Lads To Golden Gloves Tourney

Two Memphis amateur boxers will participate in the Chicago, Ill. annual Golden Gloves Tournament Feb. 29-March 4, it was learned yesterday.

The two pugilists are Clayton Palmore, a welterweight, and Otwell Toles, a featherweight. They are being sponsored by the Cynthia Christian Club here which has presented amateur boxing at Abe Scharff YMCA the past several months.

Roscoe Williams, Abe Scharff YMCA boxing tutor who is trainer for the young boxers, said he and the fighters plan to leave tonight (Friday) along with Herbert Hunt, Williams' assistant.

CANT REPRESENT MEMPHIS
Because of a technicality, Palmore and Toles will not be able to represent the city of Memphis. They will be forced to represent the Chicago YMCA with honors received — if any — going to the Cynthia Club here.

Williams said he was also "training" for the Tri-State Boxing Tournament in which he said he hopes to enter another team. Asked whether he intended to end the domination of William W. Cox and the Kortrecht Community Club which made nearly a clean sweep in the Tri-State event last year, Williams said: "I really don't know whether Mr. Cox plans to enter a team this year."

Williams said he would have further comment later on whether he plans to terminate the Kortrecht control, should Kortrecht re-enter the Tri-State tourney. "It seems that everytime I mention the name William W. Cox and his team, the fireworks start to sparking," he said.

MOST YMCA BOYS BEATEN
Most boys who entered the Tri-State tournament under the banner of Abe Scharff YMCA last year were defeated by Cox's machine. The YMCA club at that time had the highest rating of any other Memphis squad.

"I did not know at that time that I was the target," Williams said. "Now I know it."

President continues quotas on woolen imports.
