

BTW And Carver In Nashville To Battle For Title

Two Memphis teams, Booker T. Washington and Carver, are in Nashville to participate in the annual State High School Basketball Tournament which starts today (Thursday) in the spacious Tennessee State University gymnasium, and there are many sports observers who are predicting that one of these fast-moving machines will grab the title.

Eight teams, the winners and runners-up of each of the four regional tournaments just completed in the state, will be battling it out for top honors.

The Booker T. Washington Warriors, coached by William Fowlkes,

EASTER SEALS AIDED HIM

Mrs. Venson Is Pushing Easter Seal Campaign

The $80,000 Easter Seal campaign staged annually by the Tennessee Society for Crippled Children and Adults is underway. It was announced this week by Mrs. Ethel Venson, one of the campaign directors.

She called on all Memphians to respond generously to door-to-door solicitations which will be conducted on March 10.

Letters requesting contributions also are being sent to last year's contributors. Executive Director Paul R. Regan said.

Two other ladies are working with Mrs. Venson in the door-to-door campaign, Mrs. Ted Lewis and Mrs. William Harris.

Funds collected in Memphis and Shelby County provide counseling and medication for 500 people who have epilepsy and helps finance speech and hearing therapy for 1,500 children and adults. Mrs. Venson said crippled children will receive camping this summer and many crippled adults will receive aid unavailable through other agencies.

won the Region 3 tourney Saturday night by beating Carver, 67-64, in Covington, Tenn. Both teams, by finishing one-two in the regional meet, are eligible for the state tournament. Calvin Haliburton is Carver's coach.

Burt High of Clarksville and Cameron High of Nashville will represent Region 2. Burt turned back Cameron in the Region 2 meet.

Austin High of Knoxville will be one of the teams representing Region 1. Also High is the other Region 1 team.

Region 4 is represented by Mercy High of Jackson and West Denmark.

The Washingtonians sort of backed into the state tournament, but with them falling to win the Memphis Prep League race and finishing third in the district tourney.

But they proved their greatness at a time when it really paid off, and that was against Carver High of Memphis last Saturday night in the finals of the regional.

The two teams had met before in the district meet in Memphis with Carver coming out on top after Washington had exhibited magnificent power in the first half. In that game, the Warriors looked and played like pros in the first half. But, in the second half, it was a different story. They appeared to have run out of steam.

But, not so in the finals of the Region Three tourney Saturday night in Covington. Although pressed all the way by a fine Carver five, Booker T. Washington's men played like champs and gained the right to go to Nashville for the big one.

Hundreds of Memphians will be in the Capital City to root for the Bluff City boys.

Booker T. made it to the Region 3 finals by beating Mt. Pisgah, 74 to 69, on Friday night. Mt. Pisgah dumped Douglas of Memphis, 62-48, Thursday night. Carver stopped Frazer, 75-60, after Frazer had eked out a 47-45 win over Woodstock.

Booker T. Washington's victory in Covington is food for excellent barber shop arguments in Memphis. BTW was nowhere around when the Memphis Prep League race was decided. Douglas and Carver tied for the city championship. In the district meet here, which involved Memphis high schools, BTW came in third and Carver knocked off Douglas for the No. 1 spot.

Which goes to prove us best to keep your betting money in your pocket.

Club Leaders In City Rally To NAACP Program

Machinery is in motion for the launching of the Memphis NAACP's annual membership campaign on Sunday, March 19, it was announced this week by Mrs. Maxine Smith, general chairman.

Meanwhile officers and members of the Memphis branch are urging all Memphians to refrain from purchasing anything in the downtown area during the Lenten season. A resolution supporting this move was adopted at the last monthly meeting.

An NAACP social hour last Thursday night in the Universal Life Insurance Company cafeteria attracted representatives from nearly 75 clubs in the city. More than 100 club leaders were present.

Under the direction of Mrs. A. W. Willis, program chairman, the social hour served as a means of giving club leaders a better understanding of the NAACP program and also as a means of linking them closer to the organization.

The approaching membership drive and the non-buying season were stressed at this hour.

Among those speaking at the social hour were Jesse Turner, branch president; A. Maceo Walker, the Rev. H. C. Nabrit and Mrs. Callie Stevens.

Many door prizes were given at this event.

Crump Hospital Will Hold Open House, March 19

Crump Hospital at 853 Jefferson, a unit of the city of Memphis Hospitals, is old enough for a fifth birthday celebration. Fitting anniversary ceremonies will be conducted Sunday, March 19, with open house for the public from 1:30 to 4 p. m.

The anniversary ceremony will start at 2:00 p. m. with Dr. M. K. Callison, dean of the University of Tennessee College of Medicine, delivering an address. Hospital employees with service of five to 10 years will be presented pins by Commissioner James W. Moore.

A history of the hospital will be given by Dr. Leland Atkins, member of the executive advisory committee.

Oscar M. Marvin, administrator of the hospital, said visitors will be permitted to tour various departments where displays will depict their activities.

Representatives of the press, radio and television were guests of the hospital at a luncheon on last Monday.

Mrs. Roosevelt Will Address Tuskegee Meet

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala. — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will address the public meeting of the 49th annual John A. Andrew Clinical Society here, April 25, Tuskegee President L. H. Foster announced this week.

It will be the second visit to Tuskegee for Mrs. Roosevelt who visited here with her husband while he was president shortly before World War II. On a later visit, President Roosevelt inaugurated a polio unit at Tuskegee Institute's John A. Andrew Memorial hospital.

The annual clinic combines specialized study in both medicine and dentistry, and attracts many of the nation's outstanding specialists in both areas.

The clinic was begun in 1912 when the National Medical Association met here. The Clinical Society was formed in 1918 in a successful effort to insure continuance of the clinic of medical experts.

DIRECTOR — Dr. Walter W. Gibson, chairman of the natural science division and professor of biology at LeMoine College, will direct a Summer Science Training Program for high school students at the college. The program will be conducted on a $10,575 grant from the National Science Foundation.

PUSH NAACP DRIVE—Lieut. George W. Lee, center, has agreed to serve as co-chairman of the NAACP's 1961 membership campaign which gets underway on March 19. Mrs. Maxine Smith is general chairman and is serving her second consecutive year in this post. Congratulating Mr. Lee for accepting are Atty. H. T. Lockard, left, NAACP State president, and Jesse H. Turner, right, Memphis NAACP branch president. The goal this year 15,000.

Where Will Bishop Be Buried? Church Followers Won't Say

Memphis followers of Bishop Sherrad C. Johnson, founder and pastor of the Lord Jesus Christ Church of Apostolic Faith at 2472 Carnes Avenue, appeared reluctant to talk this week about his reported death somewhere in the British West Indies.

"The church does not believe in funerals for its members and officials. They just turn the bodies over to undertakers and bury them."

Asked about Bishop Johnson's body and what would be done with it, Mrs. Etta Walker, the church mother, said: "I don't know anything about a body. Call the church in Philadelphia if you want to know anything."

She added: "I don't know who will be the next pastor, and I'm not worrying about it."

Edward McKenney, supervisor and general overseer, said: "There's nothing in the Bible about funerals. That's why we bury our people without funerals."

He said he knew nothing about burial arrangements for the late Bishop Johnson and had no idea who his successor would be.

Bishop Johnson was known to have been ill. When he left here the last time he visited Chicago, Philadelphia and Florida before going to one of the British Islands.

The bishop came to Memphis in 1954 and started the church at the Carnes Avenue address. He is said to have been in charge of several churches in Arkansas and in Mississippi.

He helps them to plan for their futures.

TENT DWELLERS TO MOVE MAR. 21

Baptist Convention To Move 8 Families To Permanent Homes

Officials of the National Baptist Convention, U. S. A., Inc. went ahead with plans this week to move at least eight families from "Tent City" to permanent farm homes in Fayette County.

Moving date is still March 21, according to Dr. A. E. Campbell, a vice president of the Convention and pastor of Columbus Baptist Church in Memphis.

The Memphis minister said he and other Convention officials are in the process of purchasing two large farms in Fayette County. Nearly 400 acres of land will be available to evicted tenant farmers if the deal goes through.

The convention paid $35,000 down on a $60,000, 400-acre farm several weeks ago but negotiations for the site have not been completed.

At a recent meeting in Hot Springs, Ark., the Convention set aside $30,000 for a "farm aid plan," the money to be used in purchasing farmland and farm equipment for "Tent City" dwellers who were ousted from their tenant farm houses because they exercised their rights to register and vote.

Baptist churches throughout the country are raising money to help the Convention carry out its plan to help needy tenant farmers in Fayette and Haywood counties.

Dr. Campbell said $1100 has been deposited from church collections in Tri-State Bank and that more is coming in.

He said each farm family will be given a house, between 50 and 80 acres of land, livestock, farm equipment and seed. These families will be permitted to buy these farms and will be allowed to pay for them whenever and however they can.

John H. Harden Listed As Fair In Saturday Shooting

JOHN H. HARDEN

ATLANTA, Ga. — (SNS)—Physicians at Hughes Spalding Hospital Monday listed the condition of John H. Harden as fair, after having been wounded Saturday night when a customer shot him in the right shoulder and lower part of his stomach.

Harden, 52-year-old former owner of the Atlanta Black Crackers baseball team and presently owner of Harden's Service Station at 265 Auburn Ave., was shot at 8 p. m. Saturday night when he ordered John H. Jackson, 28, of 451 Bedford Pl., to move his car from the station premises.

Eye witnesses stated to police that Jackson drove into the station in a 1952 Plymouth to have a tire fixed and an argument ensued over the fixing of the tire.

Homicide Squad Detective E. P. McKillop stated that Harden told Jackson to move his car from the premises and Jackson refused. It was alleged that Harden then ordered one of his workers to back the tow-truck up to Jackson's car and move it to the street.

Police reports indicate that witnesses stated Jackson came out of his car firing his Smith and Wesson revolver in his body. Patrolman W. B. Jones possibly averted the gunman from shooting Harden a third time, as he was on

Survey Reveals Steady Growth In 2 Churches

The number of Negro Catholics in Memphis is increasing. It was revealed in a survey made this week by The Memphis World.

The oldest Catholic church in the city for Negroes is St. Anthony's which held open house Sunday at its new site, 1100 Volentine Avenue. The parish had been located at 327 Hill for 60 years before moving to make room for St. Jude Hospital.

A school, chapel and rectory have been erected on the new site. A church will be built later. More than 400 persons attended the open house Sunday.

St. Anthony's membership has increased more than one-third in the last four or five years, a spokesman said. The church membership now is 500. Father Alois Hugel is pastor, and Father Gebhard Schmid, the assistant pastor.

St. Anthony's school has an enrollment of 200. Sister Ann Cabrera is principal of the school which goes through the eighth grade.

Referring to the growth at St. Augustine Church and School on Walker Avenue, Father Theodore Wieser said in 1957 "We started with nothing and now we have between 1300 and 1400 members in the church and over 400 enrolled in the elementary school."

At Father Bertrand High School on Kerr Avenue, 215 are enrolled. A recent national survey revealed that the number of Negro Catholics in the United States is increasing at a faster rate than the number of white Catholics. Negroes in the Catholic Church in this country now number 653,217.

Action Applies To Gov't, Firms In U.S. 'Business'

By RAYMOND LARR, United Press International
WASHINGTON — (UPI)—President Kennedy set up a new committee Monday — backed with sanctions — to prevent racketeering in government buying and in hiring by private firms doing business with the government.

It was the first action in the field of civil rights taken by Kennedy since his inauguration.

He issued an executive order which he said created "greatly strengthened machinery for dealing with racial or religious discrimination in employment."

The order combined the President's committee on government employment policy and the President's committee on government contracts into a new "committee on equal employment opportunity."

MEDICAL AID PLAN FOR AFRICA
WASHINGTON — (AP)—A national Negro professional association recently met at the Howard University College of Medicine to draft tentative plans for providing medical and dental aid to Africa. The proposed program is based on the idea that Negro medical personnel, because of their racial identity, would be of great value in stabilizing the medical programs of the African Organization for participating in the discussion were the National Medical Association and National Dental Association.

Republicans Thought Kennedy Had Messed Up!

When workmen removed those big letters that spell GEORGE W. LEE from the branch post office on Mississippi near Crump, inquisitive Republicans started calling, wanting to know if President Kennedy was responsible. The callers appeared satisfied when they were told GEORGE W. LEE's name would be returned to the identical spot as soon as the letters received a paint job.

DR. JOHN JORDAN, the North Memphis dentist, was so overjoyed that he gave out cigars for two days. His wife, Nedra, who taught math at LeMoine College in 1958-59, presented him with a fine son Thursday night in Nashville where she has been attending the graduate school of Fisk University.

A memorial to the late Dr. J. W. GOLDEN was unveiled at Centenary Methodist Church. One hundred Methodist Hymnals were given to the church in memory of Dr. Golden by a friend John A. Parsons, banker, civic leader and churchman.

Free Science Course For 60 High School Students Will Be Offered This Summer At Le Moine College which is being conducted at LeMoine on Saturdays for junior and senior high school teachers in general science and mathematics. The funds for this inservice institute was made possible by a $9,000 grant from the National Science Foundation.

The National Science Foundation has granted LeMoine College the sum of $10,575 for support of a Summer Science Training Program for Secondary School students, it was announced by President Hollis P. Price.

Students accepted for the training program will not be required to pay tuition and their expenses will be subsidized. Dr. Gibson said a select group of professors will be employed to teach the classes.

You May Be Eligible For Social Security Payments Under New Rule

Recent changes in social security law allow payments to many people previously denied. Anyone who has worked for social security within the past six years, but was turned down because of too little work credit, may now be eligible.

According to the W. Harris, district workers may get social security checks because the work requirements are now easier to meet. Many workers born after 1936 and many survivors of workers who died since 1963 will be helped by this change in the work requirements.

Mr. Eames said that no one knows exactly how many are in the Memphis area. His staff is trying to locate all those who will be helped by this change.

Anyone in the Memphis area who was turned down for retirement or monthly death payments within the last six years, should go by the Memphis office. The social security people can check and see if the new changes will help. The office is at 188 Jefferson Ave. The phone number is JA. 5-8231.

Faster Action In Airport Cafe Suit Is Sought

Negroes eat in airport dining room in Atlanta, Knoxville, Durham and Charlotte, but not in Memphis.

Jesse Turner, NAACP branch president and executive vice-president of Tri-State Bank of Memphis, filed suit in federal court after he was denied service April 28, 1959, in the main dining room of the restaurant at the Memphis airport.

The case is moving slowly and Mr. Turner and the NAACP are seeking speedier action.

A three-judge panel has ruled that the case should first be ruled on in state courts. Last week, the NAACP appealed the judges' action to two higher courts.

Attorneys Russell Sugarman, Jr., of Memphis, and Thurgood Marshall and Constance Baker Motley filed notice in Federal District Court here that they would ask both the United States Supreme Court and the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati to hear the appeal.

Mr. Sugarman explained that the necessary data will be on hand in either court for swifter action even if the Supreme Court should decide first which tribunal will handle the case.

Children Aided By Elvis' Show

At least four agencies operating chiefly for Negroes received checks this week from the Memphis Charity Show Committee. The committee is distributing $51,578 raised by Elvis Presley during his recent appearance here.

Orange Hound Day Nursery and Goodwill Homes for Children received $1,493 each. They were among the first 23 agencies and organizations approved for participation in the receipt.

When Elvis agreed to put on an extra show, a matinee for teenagers, it was decided that these funds would go to organizations which applied for participation after the Jan. 19 deadline. Benefiting from these funds were Josie Mahan Day Care Center and the Abe Scharrif Branch YMCA, 6611 Ave.

ALPHA MEN ENTERTAIN FOR NATIONAL FIGURE

Alpha men rolled out the red carpet Sunday night of last week for Atty. Belford Lawson, a past president of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity who is nationally and internationally known as lawyer. Only there was very little rolling to do as the beautiful and spacious South Parkway residence of Dr. and Mrs. Theron Northcross (where Alpha men entertained for their long-time member and friend) has permanent red carpeting throughout the front area of the ultra modern home. Members and their wives reminisced with Mr. Lawson and were heard and seen in the living-dining area, the den and in the back bar room.

Making the informal welcome to Mr. Lawson was Dr. Northcross the local president. Other Alphas and their wives and dates attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans, Mr. L. C. Swingle, Mr. Willie Lindsey, Mr. Thomas Doggett who escorted Mrs. Mavis Gholston, Mr. and Mrs. James Swearingen, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Becton, and Mr. Louie Briscoe.

Mr. Fred Brown, Mr. Geo. Cox, Mr. Geo. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young, Mr. A. B. Owen, Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Winfrey, Mr. B. McCoy, Mr. Cheophus Hudson, Mr. Arthur Bright, Mr. William Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Onzie Horner, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. S. Ish, Atty. "Ben" Jones, Atty. and Mrs. A. A. Lattin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mr. Wallace Wilburn, and Mrs. George Peterman.

Mr. and Mrs. Leotis Peterman, Mr. Herman Rankins, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rivers, Mr. Thomas Perkins, Mr. Herbert Thomas, Mr. Jones Smith, Atty. and Mrs. Russell Sugarmore, Jr., Mr. Lewis Twigg, Jr., Mr. Gene Washburn, Mr. George Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Westbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Whalum, Otty H. T. Lockard, Mr. Edison Morris and Mr. Jesse Neeleys.

ZETA PHI BETAS GIVE ROUND OF SOCIAL EVENTS LAST WEEK-END
A FULL SCHEDULE of activities were planned by members of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority last week-end when the local graduate chapter of the sorority observed "Finner Womanhood Week" by bringing to Memphis two of their National Officers for the annual occasion.

On the opening evening of the social functions... Zetas gave a brilliant and gay formal at Currie's Tropica... with approximately five hundred guests dancing until 2 A. M. to the music of Ben Branch's orchestra.

Almost first to be noticed were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Harrison (she speaker for the Public Program) who hail from Houston with the Zeta's president, Mrs. Loretta Katso... and the general chairman of activities, Mrs. Bernice Calloway and her guest, Mrs. Gladys McCleave Johnson of Los Angeles.

Noticed around in spots were several new faces... and many members of other Greek organizations (especially did the Zeta's brother, the Phi Beta Sigmas) turn out in large numbers.

COCKTAILS ON SATURDAY
Cocktails were at the elaborate and new contemporary residence of Mr. and Mrs. Onzie Horne Saturday evening following the Zeta's sorority monthly meeting. Members then honored Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Julia Polk, the Zeta's South Central Regional Director who came from Jackson, Miss and they did (as did all of the guests) marvelled over the tremendously modern and versatile living and dining area of the home... They later moved to a back den that joins the compact electric kitchen where a couch that is surprising and delightful... and where a floor-to-ceiling view over-looks a huge back patio where many of the guests preferred to stand because of the heat. Most of the guests moved early in the evening to the full length basement rumpus room... Here guests stood around the bar. Others danced in a large area enclosed by seats... while still other groups formed conversation groups along the wall seats.

Mr. Horne, who was charming and gracious in a bright satin cocktail pajamas, received at the entrance with Mr. Horne who wore a colorful dinner jacket with guests (all) shopping to admire the enormous of other handsome pieces and a marble statue of Buddha that stood out from the entrance hall.

Among those attending the cocktail party were Mrs. Maggie Jordan, Mrs. Mabel Hudson, Mrs. Carlotta Stewart, Mrs. Dolora Thompson, Miss Cornelia Saunders, Mrs. Pearlina Saunders, Miss Birdie Lenoir, Mrs. Casandra Hattie Mrs. Grace Horner, Mrs. Annie Naylor with Mr. Naylor, Officer and Mrs. Elmo Berkeley, Mrs. Bertha Ray, Mrs. Margaret Cox, Mrs. Zana Ward, Mrs. Carlee Boyde and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis, (she vice-president of the chapter).

Mr. and Mrs. George Cain (she Lar enia who was in charge of the beautiful buffet tables that stood near the basement bar... Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Callian, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Callian, Jr., Miss Elma Clanton, Miss Yvonne Hawkins, Mrs. Mattie Ward, Mrs. Dovie Burnley, Mrs. Bernice Calloway, Mrs. Loretta Kateo, Mr. and Mrs. James Somerville, Mr. and Mrs. Sherick Stanback, Miss Hazel Pyles, Mr. A. Utko Quarles with whom Mr. and Mrs. Harrison stopped. Mrs. Lillie Threats escorted by Mr. Andrew McCoy, Mrs. Ethel Wynn and Mrs. Mildred Heard.

PUBLIC PROGRAM AND RECEPTION
MRS. LUELLIA HARRISON, Executive Secretary of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was guest speaker at the Zeta's Public Program... Terific and magnificent were the over-worked (but correctly) used words heard after the brilliant educator's speech Sunday at the new St. John (McLenore) Church. The vibrant speaker talked directly to her entire audience.

Another treat for the large and capacity audience was the short talk made by the Regional Director who is charming and dynamic.

Mrs. Kateo, local basileus, introduced the speakers and mentioned their Eye-Glass project that truly stands out in Memphis.

The Occasion was given by Mrs. Maudine Seward... Organ Preludes were by Mrs. Loretta Peterson, daughter of the Basileus... and one thing for sure she can play the organ. Other members taking active parts on the program were Miss Cornelia Sanders and the Zeta Ensemble.

Zetas who greeted the large crowd in the lower level reception rooms of the pretty new church were Mrs. Kateo, Mrs. Calloway, Mrs. Juanita Lewis, Mrs. Maggie Jordan, Mrs. Hazel Pyles, Mrs. Marguerite Cox, Mrs. Maudine Seward, Miss Birdie Lenoir, Miss Cornelia Saunders, Mrs. Nanilee Banks, Mrs. Dorothy Berkeley, Mrs. Ora Johnson, Mrs. Julia Johnson, Mrs. Mildred Heard, Mrs. Frances Harris, Miss Yvonne Hawkins, Miss Pylee Bolden, Mrs. Carlee Boyde, Mrs. Lucile Brewer, Mrs. Bernadine Holmes, Mrs. Ethel Wynn and Mrs. Susan Brittenum of Holly Springs.

Mrs. Doyle Burnley, Mrs. Mildred Horne, Mrs. Larcenis Cain, Mrs. Ellen Callian, Mrs. Frankie Cash, Mrs. Celia Chaplin, Miss Erma Clanton, Mrs. Hattie Debro, Mrs. Lucille Woods, Mrs. Cassandra Harris, Mrs. Leatha Haley, Mrs. Bertha Payne, Mrs. Annie Prazier, Mrs. Sara Dixon, Mrs. Mabel Hudson, Mrs. Juliette Jones, Mrs. Orleans Knox, Mrs. Birdie Lenoir, Mrs. Annie Naylor, Miss Hazel Pyles, Miss Uloka Quarles, Mrs. Bertha Ray, Miss Cordia Sweet, Mrs. Jereldine Taylor, Mrs. Delora Thompson, Mrs. Mattie Ward, Mrs. Zana Ward, Mrs. Lillie Threats, Mrs. Carlotta Watson and Mrs. Lillian Whitney.

SOCIAL HOUR FOR NAACP MEMBERS IS GAY PARTY
Members of the Memphis Branch of the NAACP got together at a beautifully planned social Thursday evening in the reception and dining area of the Universal Life Bldg... with the company's caterer serving open face sandwiches... hors d'oeuvres and frappe after a few brief speeches made by Mrs. Jesse Turner, President of the Branch... Mr. Evander Ford, a student at LeMoyné... Mrs. George Stevens, Rev. H. C. Nabrit, Mr. A. Macro Walker, co-chairman of the membership drive... Mrs. Jesse Turner and Mrs. A. W. Willis, Jr. who gave our prizes... Mrs. Willis was general chairman of the event... Mrs. Lawrence S. Wade, who was M. C. of the evening, was in charge of publicity and arrangements.

Prizes were won by many of the Club Presidents or representatives who were special guests of the evening.

Mrs. Ann Willis, very much on the scene, received with her husband, Atty. Willis and a few other key members who were of course) Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Turner.

Atty. and Mrs. Russell Sugarmore, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Vasco Smith, Mr. Maceo Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wade, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Flowers, Mr. Frank Kilpatrick, Dr. and Mrs. I. A. Watson, Jr. and Rev. A. Gladney, and Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Flowers.

GET ACQUAINTED NIGHT AT CUMMINGS SCHOOL

Mrs. Helen Hooks, principal at Cummings and members of the faculty and student body were most gratified at the overwhelming success of their first public endeavor, a "Get Acquainted Night," sponsored February 27 and the affair was attended by a record breaking group of parents, friends and well wishers. The auditorium was filled to its capacity long before the hour to begin with spectators eagerly awaiting with evening's performance... and second on program was a tasty dinner.

Mrs. Hooks suggested that because of the inclement weather, the second performance be deferred until Tuesday. The program was presented in two parts... the first being a unique presentation of the school's philosophy and objectives. The second party consisted of an original skit based on the combined theme of "Brotherhood" and "Outstanding Contributions of the Negro and his responsibility as a citizen in the community... Reverend Samuel Herring, pastor of St. Paul Baptist Church at Greenwood and East McLenore, was speaker of the evening.

PIONEER CITIZEN VISITS MEMPHIS
MRS. MARY OWENS, a pioneer citizen of Memphis returned home for a visit after 16 years in Chicago... Having lived in Memphis for over 50 years, Mrs. Owens has been in the city for the past three months where she has been lavishly entertained in the beautiful Florida State residence of a daughter - in-law, Mrs. Silona McKee Owens.

A former member of the St. Andrew A. M. E. Church for more than 50 years, Mrs. Owens has attended services here every Sunday since her arrival here before Christmas. She is a first member of the Ruth Circle Club of St. Andrew and holds the distinction of being an honorary member.

On February 18th, Mrs. Owens was honored at a well planned luncheon given by a grand son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Weathers who also reside at 1254 Florida Street... Friends taking part in the gay evenings were Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong, Mrs. Lillie Todd, Mrs. Gertrude Allen and Miss Louise Martin.

Mrs. Owens will return to her Chicago residence March 18th and will resume her duties as Stewardess in the Coppins Memorial A. M. E. Church where the Rev. S. S. Morris, Jr. is pastor in Chicago.

MRS. BUDDY (Helen) TARPLEY and her mother - in-law, MRS. JENNIE TARPLEY are back after attending a Golf Tournament in Miami. The Tarpleys, who often take week-end trips, were guests at the swanky Sir John Hotel... Of the many celebrities seen during their almost two weeks on the beach were Harry Belafonte, Sammy Davis and Damita Jo who are starting in Florida this month. The Memphis Matrons also shopped in Florida.

MR. AND MRS. JESSE MULLINS arrived here Friday evening for the week-end with their baby son, Keith who has been here since school started in Chicago with Mrs. Mullin's parents, MR. AND MRS. GEORGE GILCHRIST. The Mullins were seen around with several of Mrs. Mullin's friends, Mrs. Othella Sawyer, Mrs. Mildred Williams and "Your Columnist"... and the couple spent much of their time with his relatives, Mrs. Helen Tarpley.

THEY'LL BE MOVING SOON—Mrs. Jimmie Lee Mason and her family anxiously await March 21, the date that the National Baptist Convention, U.S.A., Inc., will move them and seven other families from "Tent City" to permanent farm homes in Fayette County. These tenant farmers were forced to live in "Tent City" after they were evicted from farms because they exercised their rights to register and vote. The Baptists are purchasing two large farms and will put each family on 80-acre plots, according to Dr. A. E. Campbell, a vice president of the Convention and pastor of Columbus Baptist Church in Memphis.

Jazz Concert At Le Moyné College, March 18, Features 2 Big Orchestras

Bruce Hall on the LeMoyné College campus is going to rock with modern jazz when the two orchestras directed by Onzie Horne and Larry Muhoberac appear in a Jazz Workshop in Concert, Saturday night, March 18, at 8:30. The jazz festival is being presented by Fred Cook of WREC-TV and sponsored by the LeMoyné Student Council.

Tickets are being sold by LeMoyné students and may be purchased at the LeMoyné business office. They will be on sale in the box office of Bruce Hall on the night of the concert.

Onzie Horne, who has a big following in Memphis, will present an orchestra composed mostly of high school band directors. The following band directors will hold forth for Mr. Horne: Herman Rankins, Carver High, baritone, tenor, alto sax and baritone horn; Gilbert Caple, Wonder High School (West Memphis), tenor, alto sax and bassoon; Emerson Able, Manassas High, alto, tenor sax and flute; Herbert Thomas, teacher of vocal music at Carver High, trumpet, alto sax and French horn; Roy McLemore, also of Carver, trumpet, baritone horn and French horn; Nelson Jackson, band director at Douglas High, piano and bass horn; and Robert McGhee, Mitchell Road School band director, bass and cello.

Other members attending the February meeting were Mrs. W. H. Watkins, Mrs. N. M. Watson, Mrs. A. Ross, Mrs. A. G. Gisson, Mrs. Marie Adam, Mrs. C. M. Roulhac, Sr. Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Speight, Sr. Mrs. J. H. Stewart and Mrs. W. H. Westrook.

Tennessee Social Club Gives Gifts
The Tennessee Social Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Lovella Riley, 363-E So. Lauderdale. Devotion was led by Mrs. Elizabeth Bailey. Mrs. Maggie Patrick offered prayer.

Next meeting is scheduled to be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Walker, 834-L Lenox. The meeting was dismissed by Mrs. Carter and presents presented by Mrs. Walker.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bailey is president and Mrs. Mary Buford is secretary. Mrs. Sammie L. Carter is reporter.

PORTER JR. HIGH NEWS

P. Collins Harold Taylor

Hi there all you cats and dolls. Here we are back bringing you up to date on the news around Porter. So without further delay, on with the news.

SPOTLIGHT: This week we spotlight one of the most delightful young ladies at Porter. We speak of none other than Miss Katrina Worham. Katrina is a member of 8-4 class. She is a member of the Student Council and plays clarinet in the Senior Band. Katrina is a Principal's List student and is the wonderful tall-back of our band. Three cheers for Katrina.

SPORTS NEWS: The Porter Lions ended up their home season on a winning note. During the entire season the Lions only lost three games. All three of these were by slim margins. On one of these games the Lions got revenge. Woodstock beat us by one point in their home gym. When the Aggies played us for Homecoming we beat them in a real tight game.

EXTRA, EXTRA: Everyone talking about it. Have you heard it, it's the new Teachers Choir. Some of the soloists are Mr. C. Curry, Mr. W. Hawkins, and Mr. Swearingen. The pianist is Mr. H. Winfield.

DANCE NEWS: The Student Council is planning to give a Spring Sock Hop in the near future. The President says a feature of the dance will be the teachers' come. So come on out to the Lion's Den.

POPULARITY POLL: (BOYS) 1. Melvin arter, 2. James McIntyre, 3. Lacy Saunders, 4. Charles Little, 5. Robert Miller, 6. Andrew Spencer, 7. Clarence Wilson, 8. Stanley Hill, 9. Hugh Porter, 10. Jerry Smith.

(GIRLS) 1. Emma Blue, 2. Charleetta Hart, 3. Pearl Parker, 4. Maxine Calloway, 5. Patricia Sanders, 6. Rose Jones, 7. Diane Evans, 8. Nellie Hamilton, 9. Marva Beckwith, 10. Fannie Webb.

Propose New Raises For City Teachers
If the Memphis Board of Education's proposed budget is approved, new teachers with a bachelor's degree hired next September will receive $3,700 a year. Beginning teacher with a master's degree would be raised from $3,900 to $4,000. The proposed budget calls for raises of $100 to $150 for all teachers.

WOMAN IN TEARS AT KIDNAP TRIAL

Tommy J. Jones, 34, who went on trial in Federal Court this week on a charge of violating the kidnaping statute, heard a tearful woman testify that he drove her Memphis to Mississippi, assaulted her and then took her watch and her car.

The woman said the gave Jones a ride on Nov. 5, 1959 at Ford and Peebles Road. Once in her car, Jones forced her at knife point to turn over the wheel to him and drove her across the state line, the young woman said.

Jones, who lives at 709 Marianna, claims the woman went with him voluntarily.

Dear Grace: I made jelly last fall and now it is covered with mold. Is it still good to eat?

Answer: Yes, you can salvage it. Here's what you do: skim off the mold on each glass of jelly, and then pour a quarter-teaspoon of grain alcohol over the jelly, rolling the glass so the entire surface is covered. Touch a match to it; and when the alcohol has burned off, re-parafrine jelly at once, and store in a cool, dry place.

Dear Grace: I am quite fond of Hollandaise Sauce, but can't make it. I have followed the recipe step by step but my hollandaise sauce always separates. How do you prevent this?

Answer: Continue to follow your recipe, but check this: never let your water boil under the sauce and never have the watered high enough to touch the bottom of the pan or bowl the sauce is in.

Next time your sauce separates, remove it from the heat immediately. Add an ice cube and beat.

Dear Grace: Are soft drinks harmful to children?

Answer: The nutritive value of soft drinks is very low. They contain only sugar and calories. When children are permitted to drink a lot of carbonated beverages they crowd out the nutritionally important foods.

For example, when children drink a lot of soft drinks, they begin to prefer them to milk. Then they miss the calcium, phosphorus and many other nutrients that milk offers and are apt to be good health.

Dear Grace: Why is beef fat sometimes white and sometimes yellow?

Answer: The color of fat is determined by the kind of food the animal eats. Cattle that eat large portions of grain store more carotene in the fat. Carotene is yellow or gives a yellow color. Cattle on a ration high in grain have white fat with a low content of carotene.

HINT TO WIVES:
For a quick custardy sauce, use instant pudding, add 1/2 cup more milk than called for in directions. Flavor with nutmeg or grated lemon rind.

One-Woman Show On Way To Owen

It requires three suitcases to carry Corbelle Babler's collection of obituaries across the country. Her appearance here on Friday, March 24, at 8:00 p. m. in the Roger Williams Hall auditorium of Owen College will be an exhibit of costume accessories as well as a dramatic recital.

Make-up and Hair styles have something to do with it of course. She sits down at her on-stage make up table, puts lipstick on or takes it off, does something astonishing to her eyebrows, combs through her short hair and fluffs it up, or puts a hairnet on it and flattens it down, but it is always the apron or the glasses or the hat which completes the picture.

Many of the hats, aprons, shawls and glasses have histories each possessing an interesting story.

Miss Babler's suitcases are insured, but still she tags along behind the porters who carry them, standing out in the cold to watch them go on or off planes and trains. She never checks them anywhere. They were put off at the wrong station once and since then she guards them like a watchdog; the things they hold could never be replaced.

Tickets for Miss Babler's performance may be purchased at the College bookstore.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt Nominated For The U.N. Assembly

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, widow of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, was recently nominated by President Kennedy to serve on the U.S. delegation to the 15th United Nations General Assembly session.
Another precedent was broken in that President Kennedy failed to nominate for the post a member of Congress.
Mrs. Roosevelt has been active for many years in the field of good relations and is also widely known for her column "If You Ask Me" appearing in magazine features.
Along with her late husband, Mrs. Roosevelt was a part-time resident of the South, having spent much time at Warm Springs, Georgia, where F.D.R. recaptured his old-time vigor to serve as Governor of New York and longer than any other man in the nation's history as Chief Executive of the United States.
This is a good appointment, a good woman who seldom if ever carried on the wrong side of issues.
She can be trusted in this new field and it goes without the shadow of a doubt that she will give excellent account of such a vital and responsible stewardship.
We hope for her a useful tenure and that the world may feel the warm hand of one dedicated to the cause of a genuine and lasting peace.

The City Of Savannah Sets A Pace

(From The Atlanta Daily World)
The city of Savannah, in opening its golf courses to Negroes and the naming of a Negro minister to its Park Commission, sets a laudable example for other municipalities. The Rev. Oliver Wendell Holmes, minister of the First Congregational Church of Savannah, is the reported appointee.
Savannah in the past has demonstrated a spirit of liberalism in many of its aspects of civil liberty.
Now, this move on the part of the city is in line with what the President of the United States has recently advocated, in that it is expected for the various communities to fall in line voluntarily with the process of redress and better relations.
This is as it should be. No honor can be expected where a people or a municipality would prefer force and pressure to do what must be done in time.
We all want better relations. We are striving in this thing together and it has just been proved that sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander in much of the repeal of segregation legislation at the Georgia General Assembly.
This is a commendable pace and it is hoped that in the next gubernatorial race any candidate who seeks to stand upon a platform of intolerance, or one in which he would promise the people a further circumventive course as to the mandate of the courts, will be opposed decisively.
By this process will we come into the heritage of better relations and a more casual study of what will enhance our economic and fiscal structures.
We commend the city of Savannah for the example set and hope that much wholesome sentiment may spring from this course she voluntarily decided upon.

Pool Robert Frost's Citation By The President Might Arouse A New Poetry Renaissance

The famed poet, Robert Frost, was already in his own right a master of what he surveys in the field of creative literature long before he attempted to read a poem at the inauguration of President John F. Kennedy. But it is something somewhat new under the sun for a President to take time out as did President Kennedy to discuss poetry and salute Robert Frost over a nationwide TV hookup, as was done on last Sabbath.
Teddy Roosevelt loved poetry. Mayor Brand Whitlock of Dayton boasted of a picture of Paul Dunbar on his walls.
Thusly, the 86-year-old poet laureate will come into new laurels.
For ages, one was able to become acquainted with a nation's history by the reading of the contemporary poets of the era. Robert Burns still is the best source for information about old Scotland; Charles Dickens has embalmed for the ages the life and times of old English customs as dealing with the poor and the Negro poet Paul L. Dunbar is fast becoming the lone authority embalming in literature the soul and mind of the primitive Negro. Mr. Lincoln is quoted as referring to Harriet Beecher Stowe as "the little woman who caused the civil war."
Men of letters should feel proud that in these stirring times they have a kindred spirit in the White House, or at least one who will take time out to read and encourage poetry. Julia Ward Howe in another era stirred the world in her "Battle Hymn of the Republic."
Too often it has been thought that the poet was not essential to civilization; he was fast dwindling into that disappearing character, with baggy trousers, so few "shekels in his jeans" as to make them jingle when the poet is being spanked.
In fact, the present age had just about swamped poetry and as a result there are few if any worthwhile poems around this atomic age; those late inventions of labor saving devices and the transformation of the farms from singing plowmen plodding meekly behind the mule to huge tractors and diesel heavens hurling the clouds and revolutionizing one of our choicest pastoral enterprises into a commercial mechanism. We have come far from "the maddening crowds' ignoble strife" of Thomas Gray's pastoral elegy in a country churchyard.
Now, let the poets rush in here and now and save this civilization from that impending disaster of space monsters and splinted domes.
Maybe, JFK writes poetry himself.

Reset Hearing In $50,000 Damage Suit By Ex-Model Against Doctor

LOS ANGELES - (ANP) - The claims she was struck on the back of the head when Dr. Swan mistakenly took her for another woman with a look alike hairdo. She is being represented by Atty. Stanley Malone.
The incident occurred at the Memory Lane cocktail lounge on Feb. 8.
Mrs. Bacon, the mother of a small child, claims she was toppled from her head on a bar stool and landed with a thud on the floor. She asks $50,000 punitive damages and $15,000 general damages.
Dr. James Swan, through his attorney Carl Earles, asked for the delay since his witnesses were unable to appear when the complaint came up in the city attorney's office last week.

MY GRACE IS SUFFICIENT
TEXT: "The Lord said unto me, My grace is sufficient for; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly, therefore, will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me." (11 Cor. 12:9)
The realization that he needed strength to overcome his weakness. The new power he received was the grace of God. When we pray for God's help we become stronger, for his grace is sufficient. Jesus said "watch and pray that ye enter not into temptation." Paul said, "God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will, with the temptation, also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. Let us say: I know God's grace is sufficient for me."
PRAYER: Dear God, help us to trust in Thee; forgive us our weaknesses that we may realize that your grace is sufficient. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Urge Early Action On New Post For Weaver

NEW YORK - (UPI) - Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., urged early action Saturday to create a Federal Department of Urban Affairs headed by Robert C. Weaver, administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

"It is about time that we start giving our cities the kind of support and leadership they need at the national level," Humphrey said in a speech to a conference on metropolitan problems.
"Our cities must have vigorous, coordinated federal financial support with a dynamic cabinet-level Department of Urban Affairs as a focal point for research, information advice and leadership," he said.
President Kennedy mentioned an Urban Affairs Department in his election campaign.

Jobless Highest Since 1941 In U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Unemployment rose by 320,000 in February to 5,705,000—highest figure since the summer of 1941.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, reporting the latest job figures, said unemployment climbed more last month than it normally does this time of year.
At the same time, however, the number of Americans with jobs rose to 63,655,000 in February, up 203,000 over January and a new record high for the month, Goldberg said.
Goldberg explained that unemployment and employment both increased because of a flow of additional job seekers into the labor market.
The cabinet officer said the 20-year high in unemployment underscored the need for quick passage of President Kennedy's program to combat the recession.
The seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment, a key index to business activity, rose 2-40th of 1 per cent to 6.8 per cent of the labor force, Goldberg said.
He said this was the highest since 1958 when it rose to 7.5 per cent.
The total joblessness figure eclipsed the former postwar peak of 5,437,000 idle workers recorded in June, 1958.
Goldberg said 1,624,000 of the jobless had been looking for work for 15 weeks or more. Of that number, 674,000 were out of work for 27 weeks or longer. The length of time unemployed workers are idle is another important measure of the economy's vitality.
The labor secretary also announced he would make a one-day tour of areas with high unemployment in Minnesota on March 15. He said he would confer with the governor of Minnesota and other public officials in Minneapolis and in the depressed Mesabi iron ore range.

Reports Earnings

NEW YORK - (UPI) - Earnings of Celanese Corp. of America fell about 12 per cent to $2.07 a share last year, the company reported Tuesday.
Total earnings were $19.9 million or $2.07 a share compared with $22.8 million or $2.44 a share in 1959. Sales declined sharply, from $265.2 million to $264.1 million.
NEW YORK (UPI) - Federal Judge Irving R. Kaufman refused Tuesday to delay full integration of the Lincoln Elementary School in nearby New Rochelle, N.Y.
Kaufman denied a stay sought by the New Rochelle Board of Education of the judge's order directing the board to submit a desegregation plan of the 94 per cent Negro school by April 14.
At the same time Kaufman refused an order sought by the parents of 11 Negro students to permit the students to register in other New Rochelle schools in the meantime. The children have not gone to public school since September.

New Bus Route

Belle Air located in the Corry Rd. School District.
The section is directly south of the Elliston Heights area which is appealing for better bus service. Residents of the Elliston Heights area say they have to walk two blocks through a cemetery or over an unlit road to catch a bus.
Alonzie Johnson, president of the Norris View Civic Club, said the new bus service starting on March 19 will circle the entire area of the 800 homes in the Corry Road-Norris Road section. A Memphis Transit Authority official attended the meeting Tuesday night and listed the route the buses will take and the schedules. Mr. Johnson said he and his club officers have been negotiating with bus officials for nine weeks.
"Many of the people out here are walking two miles to catch a bus," he said.
The new bus schedule will aid some of the residents of Elliston Heights.
The Norris View group also was successful in holding off a proposed shopping center for that area.
Officers of the club, other than Mr. Johnson, are: Mrs. Ethel Copeland, secretary; Mrs. Herring, vice president; Ammons Jordan, treasurer; Charles Chandon, publicity; and Sam Walker, photographer.

LETTERS TO THE Editor

LUMUMBA WAS OPPOSED TO COLONIAL IMPERIALISM

To The World Editor:

The recent gruesome assassination of Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba has had grave and serious repercussions in Africa and throughout the world. An ardent African nationalist who spent a major part of his political life in fighting colonial imperialism conceived by Africans to be the worst form of political and economic enslavement ever known to man, he was slain by some agents influenced and bought over by the foes of African self-determination, freedom, and solidarity.
The death of Lumumba has been a shock too, and is being mourned by all sincere Christians and all decent and peace-minded people all over the world who morally oppose of bloodshed and murder, whether in Africa or any where else, as a means of solving some internal political problems.

Today many of the enemies of African freedom have realized that it was a gross political error to kill the man whom over 200 million Africans regarded as one of their greatest leaders and saviors.
Ever since the death of Lumumba certain writers have filled their hot pages with some false and wrong notions of the philosophical belief of the late African leader. Some even went so far as to accuse him of "election fraud" in the Congo, which charges are as groundless and futile as some of which have often been made about elections here in America.

Falsely labeling an opponent or an enemy is not new. Throughout the ages it has been traditional for some disgruntled individuals to find a label for some leaders who held some liberal or progressive views contrary to the accepted traditional patterns. Christ, for instance, was labeled a "Belezebub"; and, today probably would have been cited as a "communist" for his positive opposition of those in his days who amassed wealth to themselves while the majority of their fellow men and women were starving and dying.

It must be remembered that over two hundred million Africans are dedicated and determined to destroy all forms of colonial imperialistic activities in Africa and to develop and utilize the rich resources of their continent for the general welfare of their own people whether the Western powers take a positive stand against colonial slavery in Africa or merely passively abstain from voting against a U.N. resolution for African freedom.

It must be further remembered that while Africans emotionally oppose state ownership of all means of production and distribution in which greed, power struggle and inefficient totalitarian management often lead to discontentment, poverty, and mental and political enslavement of the individuals concerned, they also emotionally oppose any system which would put the bulk of the wealth of the land in the hands of a few greedy persons leaving the majority to "know to them" for jobs, leaving the remaining million of jobless to starve and die of disease, malnutrition and ignorance.

Since the African continental philosophy is the middle-of-the-road between these two extremes for the preservation of the dignity and worth of the African personality, Africans have therefore decided to stay out of the West-East dilemma.

Any attempt therefore from any quarter to force Africa into the cold war will eventually boomerang into a most destructive global cataclysm which all sane people everywhere abhor and are doing everything possible to avoid.

THE FIRST WORD ON THE CROSS

TEXT: "Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do." - Luke 23:34.

Throughout this Lenten Season may we sit at the foot of the cross as watchers, as listeners.
We cannot sit at the foot of the cross, looking and listening, without thinking.

We are sitting at the foot of the cross, Calvary, the world's foulest spot and yet the world's most hallowed spot... on a black Friday, yet the world's Good Friday. At the cross our burdens are laid down. The long road ends. Sins are forgiven. And the heavens are opened.

The Son of God, the Son of the open air and sunshine, carrying His heavy burden, despised and rejected, misunderstood and scorned, lonely and sorrowful... moved into the depths of shadows.

There in the shadows they stretched Jesus on a cross-piece, hammered huge nails through His palms and feet, raised the cross beams, and with a sickening thud resulting, dropped the foot of the cross into an open hole.

On either side, suspended on crosses, were two men whose looks revealed their past characters. The fear of death was on their faces. Their curses pierced the air. Behold the central cross! There we have the look of innocence and piety.

He speaks strange words. The strangeness of it all baffles the human mind. What happens? The man Jesus, on the central cross, prays for His murderers. His own nation, and all generations. Jesus, turning from the tapestry of faces, murmurs to the sky.

His murmurs were the first spoken words on the cross: "Father forgive them; they know not what they do."
They didn't know. So often our foes assail us. They know not what they do. Had they known they would not have crucified the Prince of Peace."

As we sit at the cross may we realize that we may be forgiven. We may be restored into the fellowship and friendship of God through Christ Jesus. Then He will walk with us and talk with us and cause us to realize we are God's own. God will treat us as though we have never sinned. He will walk with our failures, as if we had never failed.

As God forgives us, may we forgive others - may we be able to say, "The mercy to others show, that mercy show me."

"Lord, have mercy upon us and forgive us," we cry as we sit at the foot of the cross; beholding Him die like a God that He was, with a prayer of forgiveness for others. We weep bitterly and repent in our folly.

Forgiveness. What is forgiveness? It is the restoration of the fellowship with God. God forgets our ugly past. We read, "I will forgive their iniquities and will remember their sin no more." He will treat us as we had never sinned tomorrow.

There is a fascinating story of two sons - one a wastrel, one a worker.
The wastrel, the younger, came home, his garments stained with the filth of the hog pen. The older son, stained at all, save the innocent soil of the field.

Yet it was the prodigal who entered the banquet hall - while his hard working brother shut the door in his own face. Why?

The father loved them both. The door to the banquet feast opened on its own accord to the prodigal because he came with his confession in his heart and on his lips. "I have sinned."

"That same door was shut in the face of the other brother - shut by the older brother's own hand, because he came with this confession, "Lo these many years do I serve, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandments."

There you have it, confessions, one, I have never sinned - the other I have sinned.

U.N. Ordered To Stay From Ports

By WILLIAM ANDERSON
(United Press International)

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) - The Congolese government ordered the United Nations Tuesday to keep its ousted troops out of the key supply ports of Matadi and Banana and to clear all U.N. aircraft movements with Congo authorities.

The government move stirred speculation that U.S. Air Force planes might run into trouble Wednesday when they are to begin airlifting 600 Tunisian U.N. troops reinforcements into Leopoldville.

It also prevented a U.S. troopship, now cruising in international waters off the Congolese port, from docking at Matadi to take aboard Indonesian U.N. troops leaving the Congo.

Western embassies were concerned lest some of the Congolese antagonism against the U.N. be transferred to the U.S. Navy and Air Force which form the means of transport for U.N. units into and out of the Congo.

DIRECT TASK FORCE

A Washington announcement said that a four-ship U.S. Navy task force, diverted Monday from a South African goodwill mission and ordered to head for the Congo, was pulled back and ordered to resume its previous course. The announcement said the U.N. did not need the task force.

The Congo's acting interior minister, Albert Delvaux, issued the order to U.N. troops to keep out of Banana and Matadi, the Congo delta ports from which they withdrew after weekend battles with Congolese forces.

In addition, Delvaux said, he told the U.N. that henceforth it must clear its plane movements with a responsible Congolese government minister.

U.S. SHIP AWAITS CLEARANCE

Asked about possible repercussions of the Congolese move, a U.N. spokesman here said: "We are quite firm that a U.N. force must be exempt from any national control."
The U.S. troop transport, General Le Roy Ethinge, continued to cruise off the Congolese coast, while awaiting clearance to take on U.N. Indonesian soldiers. But Delvaux said no pilot will be furnished the U.S. ship until the future of Matadi and Banana as U.N. supply ports is settled.

A 1,000-man force of U.N. Moroccan troops was reported to have set out for Matadi Monday but it was said to have halted after the main Congo army base at Thysville threatened to send out 2,000 troops to stop it.

A report that the Thysville forces were offered by Belgian nationals was denied today by a Belgian Foreign Ministry spokesman.

Hearing Set For Boy In Drowning

OCALA, Fla. - (UPI) - Juvenile Court Judge Lewis O. Myers Jr. set a hearing for Wednesday afternoon for a 10-year-old white boy who pushed a Negro child into a water-filled rooftop Sunday, causing him to drown.

Authorities quoted other children at the scene as saying the Negro, Iraee Williams, 11, told the white youth he couldn't swim.

Court Gives New Orleans School Chief 21 Days To Prove He Won't 'Interfere' With Desegregation

Promises Judges He Won't Attempt New Interference

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—A federal court, apparently anxious to avoid stirring Louisiana segregation problems more than necessary Friday gave state Superintendent of Education Shelby Jackson until March 24 to prove he won't interfere with the Orleans Parish School Board.

The court set aside contempt proceedings against an apparently subdued Jackson after he told three judges he "will not interfere" with the desegregated school system.

Judge J. Skelly Wright said Jackson obviously "experienced some emotional turmoil in making his decision." Even Jackson's attorneys seemed unable to agree on what Jackson promised to do.

One attorney said Jackson would deal with the school board recognized as the operating one by the court. Another said Jackson could not do this without violating laws passed by the state legislature.

The state legislature unsuccessfully dismissed the elected board and set up its own committee to handle New Orleans schools. But the federal court has kept the board in office through restraining orders.

The judges told Jackson he did not have to reorganize the elected Orleans Parish School Board as the legal board, but would have to accept it as the operating board under current court injunctions.

"What this situation needs is a little calmness. Let's not stir the waters more than they have been," Judge J. Skelly Wright said.

The court dismissed as moot the charges against Jackson, Lt. Gov. C. G. Aycock and House Speaker Tom C. Clardy who were in contempt for refusing to provide funds for paying New Orleans teachers. The teachers were paid Monday.

School Board's Policy Rapped By Local NAACP

The local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has sent another letter to the Memphis Board of Education protesting the board's "continued failure" to desegregate the city's public school system.

A suit seeking to integrate the schools is pending in Federal District Court here and has been set by Judge Marion S. Boyd to be heard in April. However, the NAACP feels that the Board should voluntarily comply with the law of the land and desegregate the system.

"We have watched with growing dissatisfaction for some indication from you of an intent to operate the Memphis School System in harmony with both the spirit and the letter of the national law," the letter said. "We would like to voice a most vigorous protest over your continued failure to accept your responsibility, both as American citizens and as elected officials even to commence efforts to effectuate desegregation in the school system."

SEGREGATED EVENTS HIT
"We most particularly protest the continuation of your policy which permits the sale, through the school system, of tickets for segregated events, such as the Shrine Circus, which is held in the Municipal Auditorium, and therefore encounters no legal excuse for segregation."

"We wish to protest the continuation of your policy which segregates the school children of Memphis when they compete in city-wide, state, and national programs, such as spelling bees. This particular policy has the practical effect of denying Negro contestants the chance of competition and recognition beyond the local level."

"We also wish to vigorously protest the policy concerning the designation of school holidays which permits school children to participate in segregated events sponsored by private groups, thus your policy of giving Negro children a school holiday so that they may participate in the Cotton Makers Jubilee, a segregated affair, and whose children a school holiday, so they may participate in the Cotton Carnival, a similar segregated affair, we find highly offensive."

SCHOOL BAND POLICY HIT
"We further protest your policy of permitting school bands to participate in segregated parades, such as those connected with the Cotton Carnival and the Cotton Makers Jubilee, and we urge that this practice be discontinued immediately."

"We feel that the example set by your present practice does instillable harm to the citizens of Memphis, both young and old, who look to you as a guide for Americanism."

"We most earnestly urge that you revise your policies to the end that the school system of Memphis shall no longer be operated in disregard to the Supreme Law of the land."

The letter was signed by Jesse H. Turner, NAACP president, and Rev. H. Clark Nshiri, chairman of the NAACP Freedom Committee.

James C. Somerville The 2nd Beauticians To Celebrate Third Birthday Meet In Ripley

James Carroll Somerville II, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Somerville Sr. of 5078 Horn Lake Rd., celebrated his third birthday with a party last Saturday at Lakeview Country Club.

The club was elaborately decorated for the occasion, with multi-colored balloons across the ceiling and three long snake balloons on the walls. A huge St. Patrick's Day shamrock over the fireplace read in big letters, "Happy birthday, James II."

James II was "a perfect host," greeting guests and thanking them for the lovely gifts, including a check from his aunt, Miss Gladys M. Murphy of St. Louis, Mo. A special treat was home-made popovers sent to James II from Mrs. Glida Helm.

Young guests present included: Gerald Green, Barbara Rose Smith, Lucille P. Williams, Peggy Hollingsworth, William P. Owen Jr., Lynn Marie Earis, Phillip Earls, Cheryl Y. Brooks, Renita Haywood, Judith Williams, Henry and Kimberia Hamilton, cousins of the honoree; Letitia and Dilworth Weathers; Cecil C. Aughtery Jr., and Marsha Lynn Aughtery, also cousins of the honoree.

Others on hand were: Keith Springfield, Denise Springfield, Audrey Fletcher, Theodore Fletcher Jr., Steven Berkley, Ronald Magrane, Roy Anthony Betts, and Mary Sue Betts, Karen Osborne, Donna Osborne, Barry Somerville, the honoree's cousin; Carolyn Middlebrook, Walter B. Middlebrook Jr., Derek V. Clark, Roger Clark, Debra J. Scott, Harold Scott, Hazel Scott, Maurice Scott, Gwendolyn Gallian, Larry Blackmon, Renea A. Lamonde, John Childers II, Gail R. Childers, Sharon L. Boyle, Vicki Denton and Calvin Newborn Jr.

Adults on hand included James II's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Murphy; and his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Somerville; Clarence W. Somerville, James II's uncle; and Mrs. Thelma Betts.

The Monday morning session will be held at Enora's Beauty Salon, when Mrs. Emma Benniefield of Chattanooga, one of Tennessee's "Top Ten," will be guest artist for the clinic. This will be highlighted by a hair style show Monday night at the Bruce School auditorium.

The West Tennessee Beauticians are asked to give their support. Mrs. Lucy Lee is the director, Mrs. Josephine Cunningham, president; Mrs. Sarah Bachelor, dean, and Mrs. Ula Belle Neely is the chairman of publicity.

Methodists Set 1962 Meeting On Race Relations
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Southern Methodist church leaders gave their approval Wednesday to plans for a meeting of white and Negro ministers and laymen in 1962 aimed at improving race relations.

Florida State Rep. Robert T. Mann of Tampa said the conference would be held at Lake Junaluska, N.C., at an unspecified date next year. He said the meeting would bring church leaders together to study various topics in the field of human relations, particularly race relations and labor-management conditions.

Mann, chairman of the committee on human relations for the Southeastern Jurisdictional Council of the Methodist Church, said he received approval for the conference from the council's executive committee.

"Any church's responsibility is to help its member understand diversity of viewpoints and apply Christian principles to minimize the intensity of feeling which accompanies differences of this kind," said Mann.

The council started a two-day conference Wednesday after releasing plans for a multimillion dollar campaign to build 677 new Methodist churches in the Southeast during the next 10 years.

Over Half Million Negro Catholics In The U.S. Now

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The Roman Catholic church now has 653,217 Negro members in the United States, according to an official report released Friday by the Commission for Catholic Missions among the colored people and the Indians.

The report said the number of Negro Catholics increased by 37,000, or about six per cent, during the past year. It said this gain was "far larger than the increase in any other Catholic group in this country." The overall Catholic gain in membership was 146,212, or 3.4 per cent.

One-third of the increase in Negro membership resulted from conversions, the report said. One of every eight converts to the church last year was a Negro.

Although the number of Negro Catholics has been growing steadily since World War II, the overwhelming majority of America's 18 million Negroes continue to be affiliated with Protestant churches, particularly in Baptist and Methodist denominations.

Little Rock Told To Speedup Integration

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — The Eighth U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, on Thursday ordered the Little Rock School Board to speed up the desegregation of the city's schools. The court upheld arguments by attorney for 14 pupils, who had contended the board established "a governmental framework to prevent desegregation."

The speedup ruling reversed a September 2 ruling by U. S. Judge John E. Miller of Little Rock, who had held the board was acting in compliance with the law. The higher court ordered Miller to retain jurisdiction which he had rejected in the September decision.

The appellate court while bringing the new order, said the previous failure of the board to make progress toward desegregation might be justified. The court cited the 1958-59 school year when Central High School operated under supervision of U. S. troops, and were also completely closed during portions of this period.

"However," the ruling continued, "as we approach the 1961-62 school year, sufficient time has elapsed to compel affirmative action in this regard to the end that there may be integration in more than a token fashion."

This court had previously upheld the constitutionality of the Arkansas Pupil Placement Law, but it ruled Thursday the board must make some changes in its application of the act.

The ruling declared "The standards and criteria of the pupil assignment law cannot be given application to preserve imposed segregation. The obligation to desegregate is not met by applying placement or assignment standards, education theories or other criteria so as to produce the result of leaving the previous racial situation existing as it was before."

Thus the school board was reminded it was under an injunction requiring they take affirmative steps on their own initiative to facilitate and accomplish operation of the school district on a non-discriminatory basis.

Assignment law must be applied objectively in making assignments of the court added the pupil assignment law must be applied to "all students in the Little Rock school system."

Tenn. State Alumni Spring Dance This Saturday Night

The Memphis Chapter of Tennessee State A & I University Alumni Association has scheduled a dance, "Swinging Into Spring," for Saturday night beginning at 10 p.m. at Currie's Club Tropicana.

Bands from the event will benefit the group's scholarship fund. All Tennessee State students home on "spring break" are expected to attend the affair. The public is invited.

The following students have received scholarship aid from the proceeds of last year's activity: Betty Cash and George Hardin of Manassas; Otis Hayes and Sallye Coe of Washington; Evieta Jones of Melrose and Zuma Jones of Hamilton High.

Frank J. Lewis, former Melrose basketball coach and now principal of Grant School, is president of the Memphis A & I unit. Tickets are on sale at Stotler's Drug Store, Paul's Tailoring Company, Jeff's Pit Barbecue, Domino Sundry and at the door of Currie's Club.

Major Redden, Of Tuskegee, Passes

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala. — Major James W. Redden, administrative assistant to the president of Tuskegee Institute, died of a heart attack at his home early Tuesday morning. He was 46.

Assistant professor of air science here at the time of his retirement from the Air Force in 1958, Major Redden began his military career in 1941 when he entered the Infantry School at Ft. Benning, Ga., and later became a rated aircraft observer.

Subsequent military duty included company commander of the 372nd Infantry Regiment at Ft. Benning, squadron executive officer for the 477th Bombardment Group during World War II, and special assignments in Washington and the Far East.

Funeral services were observed at 10 a. m. Thursday from the St. Andrews Episcopal Church here where he was currently a member of the vestry. Interment was in Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Va.

Dr. R. P. Jackson Indicted On Taxes

ATLANTA, Ga. — (SNS) — Dr. Roosevelt P. Jackson, prominent Atlanta physician and Surgeon, was one of two Georgians charged by District Attorney Charles O. Road with U. S. income tax evasion.

Road charged Dr. Jackson with failing to make returns on income for the years 1957, 1958, and 1959 totaling more than $102,000.

The other man, Redden L. Parramore, a Valdosta oil distributor, was charged with failing to file returns from 1954 through 1957 on $265,000.

Nixon To Make GOP Address To Californians

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — (UP) — Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon next week will make his first address on current political affairs since the Nov. 9 election, it was announced Friday.

John Krebbiel, Republican state chairman, said Nixon would be keynote speaker at the GOP state central committee meeting March 11 in Sacramento.

Nixon, who was in Los Angeles arranging final details for a job and a new home, will speak to more than 1,000 Republican leaders from throughout California at the meeting. Krebbiel said.

Former President Eisenhower and Nixon reunited Saturday for the first time since leaving office at a luncheon at Eldorado Country Club in Palm Springs, Calif.

Eisenhower and his wife, Mamie were hosts for Nixon and his wife, Pat. The Nixons flew home to southern California Tuesday night.

Boy Scout Official Will Be Presented

James L. Williams, III, new Boy Scout officer of the Central Division of Chickasaw Council, will be presented to all Scouters of this area Friday night at a get-together meeting in the Urban League, Beale and Lauderdale. The affair will get underway at 7:30, according to the Rev. J. A. McDaniel, division chairman.

Dr. Williams succeeds J. A. Beauchamp, who was retired this year. Mr. Beauchamp is now managing editor of The Memphis World.

Minorities Played Down In Textbooks

Forty-eight leading high school texts on history and civics have been criticized by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith as "lacking a realistic and constructive portrayal" of minority groups.

Several of the books are used in Memphis and Shelby classrooms. A study made by the League is critical of textbook presentation of the role of Jews, Negroes and immigrants.

The study found the position of Negroes "largely ignored."

LeMoyne And Knoxville Will Clash In Chicago, March 25

MEMPHIS WORLD • Saturday, March 11, 1961 • 7

Along The Sports Trail

BY SAM BROWN

This is the season of the basketball championships, the various tournaments and the play for team supremacy whether it is in the pro ranks, the college level or the high school brand. Then too, we have plenty of junior high and pee wee games.

On the local scene, the LeMoyne Magicians give a good account of themselves on the college level, finishing well up among the first ten of the SIAC, although, because of a technicality, they were ruled ineligible for the tournament at Tuskegee, nevertheless, they are the pride and joy of Memphis fans and the loyal LeMoyne followers. According to some of the keen students of the game, the Magicians stood a good chance of going places in the tournament, but fate intervened.

The Carver High School team along with the Ochsley High team brought fame to their respective schools by finishing in a tie for first place in the Prep League, and will be referred to through the years as co-champions of the league for 1961. The teams ended the regular season play with identical records, 11 victories and 3 defeats.

Both entered the Regional playoffs for the chance to represent the Region in the State Tourney now underway at Nashville. Douglas was defeated in the first round of play of the Region tourney and was eliminated from the state competition. Carver, however, entered the finals, only to be stopped by the Booker T. Washington Warriors. So it is Carver and Booker T. representing the Region in the state meet.

Although, Washington bested Carver in the finals, to our mind Carver has the potential to go all the way in the state. We don't propose to take anything from the Warriors, a team worthy of the Region championship, yet, we feel that Carver did not play their best game in the finals. It could develop that these two teams might meet for the state title.

Other teams in the tourney will be out to stop the two fighting teams from the Bluff City, so, both Carver and Booker Washington might consider themselves marked teams. We learn that Pearl High of Nashville will not be one of the teams opposing the Memphis entries. Pearl High was eliminated in the first round of the Region playoffs. It is well known that Pearl High has been a power in the state tourney many years.

In just a few days now, baseball will occupy most of the space on the sport pages. With the first exhibition game of the season coming up Saturday between the Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals, the eyes of baseball followers will be focused on these two teams. A few days later more exhibition games will be played across the country to the baseball-hungry fans.

Most of the teams have now signed their many prima donnas, and the serious business of getting in condition is entered into, and most of the managers are looking forward to the long and hot pennant race, some with hopes of copping a pennant, while others hope to better their position of last season. One thing, they all have in common and that is Hope reigns eternal in all of them!

Many fans will be watching the performance of the outstanding stars of the game who are said to have signed for fabulous salaries. With such incentive as the pay check, the players will be out there giving their all and trying to justify the salaries they will receive. Then too, many a youngster will be thrilled by these players' performances as well as the salaries.

On the local scene, Memphis fans will be forced to accept the semi-pro league variety of baseball, as pro baseball is dead for the Bluff City. With the Red Sox and the Memphis Chicks having called it quits, so far as the game is concerned this year, fans will be flocking to the various parks and play grounds for their baseball, or just to see some of the major league elites for their week end games.

The Semi-Pro League promises to go all out for the game this season. The league officials realize the opportunity they have to bring first class baseball to the public and the chance the league has to develop some of the young talent hereabouts. More and more teams are signing up with the Semi-Pro League each week.

Bishop Wilkes Warns College Of Struggle

ATLANTA, Ga. — (SNS) — Bishop Wilkes, chairman of the board of trustees of Morris Brown College, gravely warned an audience of students, faculty, and some trustees Monday morning that the college faces the greatest challenge in its history — one of survival.

The bishop was the initial speaker for the 1961 Founder's Day Observance which continues through Friday, March 10.

Bishop Wilkes said that Morris Brown is in a "highly competitive academic quality" that the A. M. E. Church has assembled and held together. Then as he moved into the theme, "Development and Challenge," he referred to the college's strides in science, education, medicine, music, the military and athletics, and to the state of the college faces the greatest challenge of its existence, that is, one of survival in a highly competitive age. "Never before has quality education meant so much in our world struggle for survival," declared the speaker.

Bishop Wilkes had words of praise for the Morris Brown teachers who have sacrificed for the education of youth and for the students who have achieved academically.

The speaker concluded by insisting strongly that the day of mediocrity is over and that the day for the average student is passing for tomorrow in education is here.

COBRAS, SIX WARRIORS, NO!—This could be the cry of the Carver Cobras (pictured) when they enter the state basketball championship tournament scheduled for March 15-18 in Nashville, Tenn. The Snakes, co-champions of the Prep League and champions of District One, were scalped 67-64 by the Washington Warriors in the battle for the championship of Region III at Covington last week. Both the Snakes and the Warriors will participate in the tournament and it is possible that the two league teams will meet for the fifth time (They're now tied at 2-2), and possibly in the state championship match.

Savannah State Trips Benedict For NAIA District 6-A Crown

ATLANTA, Ga. — (SNS) — Savannah State won a bitterly-contested NAIA District 6-A Playoff Saturday night in defeating Benedict College, 84-67 in the Morehouse College Physical Education and Health Building.

It was the second straight triumph for the Tigers, who won the inaugural playoff defeating Morris Brown College, 76-71.

The second triumph of the Tigers was a majestic one. Savannah State held command of the game from start and never surrendered the lead to the SIAC tournament champions.

Savannah State and Benedict were deadlocked at 41-41 at halftime, but the Oceansiders refused to give ground and pulled ahead to 54-41.

Redell Walton, the gilded SBAC pointmaker, took scoring honors with 38 points. His closest challenger was Benedict's Timothy Shine who bucketed 23.

Savannah State will represent NAIA District 6-A in the March 13-18 NAIA Championships in Kansas City, Mo.

Smashing Winds Miss Tent City

An elderly couple and an infant boy were killed Monday when strong winds, reaching 75 miles per hour, swept through West Tennessee. The deaths occurred in the small community near Stanton in Haywood County.

The winds of hurricane force missed Tent City in nearby Fayette County. More than 100 people could have been killed if the strong gusts had taken a course through Fayette.

In Haywood County, Fireman Handle, 60, and his 61-year-old wife, Mrs. Emma Gooden Handle, were killed when the wind picked up the mattress on which they slept and carried it into a barbed fence about 150 yards from where the house stood. Gerald Giles, 8-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Hesse Giles, was killed when their house caved in.

The forceful winds left many injured throughout the area and caused property damages estimated in the thousands.

Johansson Tells Hopes Of Beating The Champion

United Press International

PAIM PEACH, Fla. — (UPI) — In-somnar Johansson said Tuesday he hopes to recapture the heavy-weight crown from Floyd Patterson Monday night with a full-strength, 200-pound attack featuring long-range left jabs and explosive rights.

In a press conference in the Holiday Inn here, a determined Johansson said he would be at full strength this time and a very different fighter from the one who was knocked out in the fifth round by Patterson in their second fight last June 20.

"I weighed only about 194 for that fight," explained the 28-year-old ex-champion, who bears the shadow of a black left eye suffered in training about a week ago.

"My left jabs were much too short in our last fight," continued brown-haired Ingo in the blue blazer and striped blue and white seersucker slacks. "I not only made the mistake of keeping too close to Patterson last June, but I didn't move around enough either. The movies showed I was practically standing still in the fifth round."

His news conference Tuesday, for the benefit of sports writers and before his next to last sparring television men, was held shortly before 10 p.m.

After nearly seven weeks of training here at this handsomely-appointed luxury motel, he will finish his sparring Wednesday and taper off gradually with gymnasium exercises and roadwork until the bell sends him into the ring at the Miami Beach Convention Hall for his third title fight with champion Patterson.

"I mean, said that the U.S. government income tax suit against him for nearly $500,000 had not interfered with his training because "that's a problem for my lawyers to worry about."

He said he already had received an advance of $250,000 on Monday's fight and it had been deposited in a bank in Switzerland.

Rifle Tournament Held At NC A&T

GREENSBORO, N. C. — A team representing the Army ROTC at Davidson College last Saturday won the North Carolina State Invitational Rifle Tournament held here at A. and T. College.

The team scored 3862-points to win the State Championship for the second year in a row, edging the University of North Carolina Air Force ROTC team which scored 3828-points.

The tourney which drew nine teams in addition from Wake Forest, North Carolina State College, Duke University and A. and T. covered two days of firing, the session being held on Saturdays, Feb. 18 and 25.

Lee Beadle, Arlington, Va., a freshman student in the Air Force ROTC at the University of North Carolina, took top individual honors. In the two sessions he scored a total of 772-points out of a possible 800-score.

Other teams finishing in order, included: University of North Carolina-Navy, 3601; Wake Forest College, Army - 3552; North Carolina State College, Air Force, 3540; A. and T. Army, 3501; Duke University, Navy, 3466; North Carolina State College, Army, 3450 and A. and T. Air Force, 3338.

Alumni Clubs Of 2 Colleges Staging Post-Season Tilt

LeMoyne College's Magicians are going to play a post-season basketball game. They will meet Knoxville College of Knoxville, Tenn., in Chicago, Ill., on the night of March 25.

The game is being sponsored and promoted by the alumni associations of the two colleges.

Announcement that the game would be played came as cheering news to LeMoyne Coach Jerry C. Johnson and his charges who had been down in the dumps after being banned from the SIAC cage tournament at Tuskegee.

The ban came after it was discovered that LeMoyne's freshman substitute center, Algor Taylor, of New Orleans, had attended the Louisiana State University Extension School for a brief period before enrolling at LeMoyne.

The two alumni clubs in Chicago are going all out to make the LeMoyne-Knoxville game a sell-out attraction. The clubs hope to stage this game annually in the Windy City.

It will be a homecoming occasion for one of LeMoyne's players, Robert Hamble, who made LeMoyne's starting five and was one of the "standout" players during the regular season, is a graduate of Chicago's Parker High School.

LeMoyne was third in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference race going into her last game of the season. It was at this time that Taylor was ruled ineligible. Knoxville finished seventh in the conference race.

Knoxville and LeMoyne met twice during the season, each winning one.

Kenyatta Still Restricted By Fearful Kenya

NAIROBI, Kenya (NNPA)—Jomo Kenyatta, the man whom whites have accused as having been behind the Mau Mau movement to terrorize whites in 1952 to leave Kenya, must live in a remote part of the country under restrictions "until the new Government is working well," Sir Patrick Renison, the Governor, declared Wednesday night.

Kenyatta was sentenced to seven years at hard labor in 1953 and allowed to leave prison in 1959. Since then he has been banished to Lodwar, a primitive place in the Northern Province, 310 miles from Nairobi. He is 63.

He is to be moved to Maralal, 160 miles north of Nairobi, in pleasant country, 8,500 feet above sea level. The Governor said this would "allow more people to see him."

The British Colonial Office hastened to deny that this meant he was free to see all visitors. It said: "Applications to visit Kenyatta will continue to be subject to the same procedure as at present."

The Governor's permission would have to be obtained in each individual case.

During the campaign, in which Tom Mboya, leader of the Kenya African National Union, scored a sweeping victory, the Governor was subjected to political pressure for Kenyatta's release. He said Wednesday that the campaign had prevented the progress in Kenya which might have justified the risk of releasing Kenyatta.

Another factor was Kenyatta's refusal to make any statement or reveal his thinking about issues concerning African nationalism.

A few hours before the Governor spoke, Mr. Mboya said that if Kenyatta was not promptly freed there would be a head-on clash between African leaders and the Governor. It has been expected by most African and Asian leaders.

Illinois NAACP Branches Work For F.E.P.C. Law

JOLIET, Ill. — (ANP) — The Illinois Conference of NAACP branches has launched a statewide campaign for passage of a fair employment practices law.

Illinois is the only great industrial state without a fair employment act outlawing discriminatory job practices.

"Joblessness and depressed areas," said Dr. L. H. Holman, state NAACP president, "are nothing new to the Negro in Illinois. Negro living standards have been depressed for too long in this state—with or without recession."

More than 1550 NAACP leaders from every part of the state have resolved to mobilize the one million Negroes in Illinois into a program of concerted action to outlaw job discrimination.

The first step in this action program, Holman reported, already was taken. "We organized a statewide FEPC Task Force committee who mapped plans which are being implemented by our 47 branches."

AN NAACP-FEPC button campaign is underway statewide. More than 11,000 persons will wear the buttons to symbolize their support for this campaign.

"Lip-service is out this year," added Holman.

Hampton President Holland To Be Inaugurated Apr. 28

HAMPTON, Va.—New frontiers for higher education will be examined at a conference April 28 to be held with the inauguration of Dr. Jerome H. Holland, president of Hampton Institute.

Dr. Holland will be inaugurated in ceremonies to be held Saturday, April 29, making him the ninth president of the 93 year old college on Virginia's lower peninsula.

At the all day conference on Friday, leading educators, civic leaders and government officials will examine and discuss "New Frontiers For America's Private Colleges."

During the conference the speaker will seek to identify and examine frontier policies and practices which should be considered by America's private colleges as they prepare for bold and imaginative leadership in the years that lie ahead," according to Dr. William H. Martin, dean of faculty and chairman of the inauguration committee.

Among the speakers will be Joseph W. Cohen, director, Inter-University Committee on the Superior Student, headquartered at the University of Colorado; Lester B. Granger, executive secretary, National Urban League; and Frank P. Graham, U.S. representative to the United Nations for India and Pakistan.

A former president of Delaware State College, Dover, from 1953-1960, Dr. Holland, 44, assumed the presidency of Hampton Institute July 1, 1960. He is a graduate of Cornell University where he earned the B.S. and M.S. degree. As an undergraduate, he was elected to both the Junior and senior honorary societies, thereby opening the doors to membership for others of his race.

On the external side, subjects to be considered are mobilizing community resources, promoting concepts of freedom and democracy, and promotion of peace and international understanding.

At a banquet session Friday evening, Dr. Benjamin E. Mays, president of Morehouse College, will give an address on "Future Role of the Negro Private College." Dr. Mays is also president of the United Negro College Fund which has 32 member colleges in the South, including Hampton Institute.

The inaugural exercise will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. with Dr. Holland delivering the inaugural address.

A delegation of white and Negro citizens, most of them members of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Council on Human Relations, a group that seeks to promote interracial good will, visited the trustees Jan. 15 and questioned the racial admission policies of the colleges and the need for continuing both Charlotte and Carver colleges.

Charlotte college, now housed in what was once Central High School, serves a largely white group of students.

Carver college, now in the Second Ward High School building, serves Negro students.

The Symbols Of Easter

It wouldn't be Easter without baskets of brightly colored eggs, but how did they come to be associated with this great holiday of the resurrection?

World Book Encyclopedia's religion editor, Mrs. Francine Klages-Brun, reports that eggs represent the new life that begins in the spring about Easter time. The ancient Persians believed that the earth had hatched from a giant egg. Persians and Egyptians used to exchange colored eggs with their friends. Early Christians adapted the custom of coloring eggs for fun.

Some legends credit the Easter bunny with bringing the eggs. The rabbit, too, is an old symbol of birth and new life. Moreover, the rabbit, or the hare, has long been associated with the moon. It may have become an Easter symbol because the moon determines the date of the holiday.

Lighting candles at Easter was a custom in Rome back in the 300's. One Church father declared that "on the night of the resurrection no one should sleep and everyone should have a light, for on that night the Redeemer made everyone free from the darkness of sin and the grave." The large paschal candle used in Roman Catholic services represents Christ risen from the dead as the light of the world. It is blessed and studded with five grains of incense, symbolizing Christ's wounds.

One of the traditional Easter foods and a figure in many decorations for the holiday is the lamb. This symbol comes from the Jewish Passover, or Passover, celebration. The Jews used to sacrifice a paschal lamb in the Temple at Jerusalem during Passover. Early Christians saw in this sacrifice a forecast of the sacrifice of Christ. They referred to Him as "the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world" (John 1:29).

The most universal symbol of Easter, and of Christianity itself, is, of course, the cross. Many ancient peoples, such as the Phoenicians, Assyrians and Persians, considered the cross a religious object. To some American Indians it is said to have been a mystic symbol of the four cardinal points of the compass. At the time of Christ, however, it was representative of the most shameful and cruel form of execution. The death of Christ transformed it from an object of humiliation into a symbol of glory.

Charlotte Colleges Are Desegregated

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—(ANP)—Trustees of Charlotte and Carver Colleges, now segregated declared formally last week that the two institutions are open to all qualified students.

"Race," the trustees said, "is not a factor in determining entrance qualifications."

A delegation of white and Negro citizens, most of them members of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Council on Human Relations, a group that seeks to promote interracial good will, visited the trustees Jan. 15 and questioned the racial admission policies of the colleges and the need for continuing both Charlotte and Carver colleges.

Charlotte college, now housed in what was once Central High School, serves a largely white group of students.

Carver college, now in the Second Ward High School building, serves Negro students.

Florida Governor Not To Oppose Bill To Sell Racial Segregation

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Rep. W. H. Reedy of Eustis said Wednesday Gov. Farris Bryant has promised not to oppose his bill to appropriate $500,000 for a publicity pot to send North the "true facts" about racial segregation in the South.

Reedy said he feels this amounts to a gubernatorial endorsement and he will proceed with plans to ask the 1961 Legislature to pass the measure over the 1959 veto of ex-Gov. LeRoy Collins.

"I have no doubt we can pass it now," Governor Bryant has indicated he might have some misgivings about spending money for the "hard sell" program on segregation. But Reedy said Bryant gave no indication of this in a conference with him.

He said he told the governor he would not push to override the Collins veto if Bryant would rather he didn't.

"The governor said he had no objections and told me to go ahead," he said. He said Bryant asked for a copy of the bill to study.

Problem Keeping Reds From Congo, Williams Says

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo — (UPI) — G. Mennen Williams said Thursday one of the big problems facing the United Nations here is not so much preventing the Congo from going Communist as preventing Communism from coming to the Congo.

The touring U. S. Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs told a news conference that "I am firmly convinced the only instrument for a working solution here is the United Nations." He said the U. N. could halt Communism from taking over this troubled area by helping the Congo to develop its own institutions and abilities.

"Congoese leaders are aware of the Communist threat and are dedicated to fighting it," the former Michigan governor added. "I am hopeful that the United States and other powers will help the Congo maintain its independence."

He emphasized that U. S. policy is to "work with and strengthen the United Nations." Asked if he thought U. N. operations in the Congo should be headed by a military rather than a civilian chief, Williams replied:

"I have not thought that out at all. I feel the civilian operation is the apex of the United Nations. It's not final but that is my philosophy."

He side-stepped a request for his views on "the future of areas with white minorities" saying: "I've already discussed that question. Let it ride."

TENN. BAPTIST LIMIT TENURE OF PRESIDENCY

MEMPHIS, Tenn. The Tennessee Baptist Missionary and Education Convention has voted to limit the tenure of the presidency of the convention to four consecutive one-year terms.

The vote was contained in a resolution of the Convention constitution adopted today at a session held in the Eastern Star Baptist Church here.

According to the revision, "neither the President of the Convention nor the President of any of the respective auxiliaries of the Convention shall be eligible for reelection to more than four consecutive one-year terms until at least one year has elapsed."

In other actions the Convention voted approval of a Master Plan for the development of Owen College. The Convention operates the college, located at Vance and Orleans Streets here. The plan calls for construction of a new dormitory and student union building in the first phase. Estimated cost of this construction is $300,000. The entire plan is expected to cost between five and six million dollars.

The Convention contributes $70,000 annually to the support of Owen College, and is its chief source of income. About 250 churches are affiliated with the Convention.

Juvenile Delinquency

By the NNPA NEWS Service

"No judge is God. They are human beings clothed with certain authority, and they look at this boy, who looks contrite. He may be in need of treatment."

A judge looks at another youth and he is angry and snarling and defiant and all he may need is an arm around his shoulder.

"And this willy-nilly sentencing — throw him in the can, get rid of them, get them out of circulation — is the easiest thing for any judge to do."

But a judge who is concerned, thoughtful and does not want to be frustrated wants to see the X-rays and the analyses so that he can determine where to operate.

Some of the physicians have made a juvenile court judge to send away some poor defendant for the rest of his life to an insane institution. He never would have known about it without the benefit of a thorough investigation.

It is pretty much as though everybody coming into a hospital were immediately ordered to surgery without the benefit of X-rays, some can certainly be treated with medicine and, if medicine fails, then surgery.

Plan Exploration Crafts To Moon, Venus And Mars

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Space Agency plans to launch a dozen moon exploration craft and five or more Venus and Mars probes in the next few years.

In the same period it also plans to put six weather and 11 communication satellites into orbits around the earth.

Other goals include establishment of a manned scientific laboratory on an earth orbit in 1968-69, dispatch of a three-man space crew around the moon and back in 1969, and landing a manned craft on the moon in 1971.

Officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration NASA discussed the agency's plans at hearings this week of the Senate Space Committee.

Moon exploration projects plans include:

FIVE IN TWO YEARS — Rangers: Five 750-pound craft to be launched in 1961 and 1962. The first will go up in July, August or September this year. The last, Three Rangers will attempt to make "hard landings" of 300-pound instrument packs rugged enough to survive impact at 300 feet per second. The instruments will include seismometers to study lunar vibrations and quakes if any, for periods of one to three months. The mother craft, before crashing to destruction, will take television pictures of the moon from an altitude of 2,000 miles to impact. Data and pictures will be radioed to earth.

Surveyor: Seven 2,600-pound craft to be launched in 1963-66. These craft will soft land 750-pound probes at 40 feet per second. The surveyor instruments, more complex and sensitive than Rangers', will analyze moon matter and take TV pictures in both color and black and white.

Sunday School Lesson

CHRIST IS WITH US

International Sunday School Lesson for March 12, 1960. MEMORY SELECTION: "If a man loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him." — (John 14:23).

LESSON TEXT: John 14 through 16.

Today we endeavor to help people understand the relationship between the Holy Spirit and the Spirit of Christ, and we discuss ways in which we may make Christ's presence real to us in these days and times.

Continuing our studies in the Book of John, we see how Jesus prepared the disciples for future witnessing. We study, in effect, the transition of Jesus in the flesh to Jesus in the Spirit, and the resulting widening of Jesus' scope to influence the lives of his followers.

John is stating irrevocably and with passion, that the Spirit of Christ is universally present to all men who trust in Him. His power and wisdom is available to untold multitudes the world over, and is not confined to the simple crowds of Galilee. Salvation is available everywhere. John depicts the glorious unity of man's spirit with the Spirit of Christ in the Father.

The theme of the three chapters we are studying today is, in short, the presence, power, and help of the Holy Spirit. The early church believed vividly and vigorously in the swift, dramatic return of Jesus — his Second Coming. The early church, however, was sorely disappointed; Jesus did not return as soon as expected. But in Chapters 14, 15 and 16 John has the answer for those in the early church, and for us also, in the abiding presence of the Spirit. Christ is with us now and always. John grasped the inner, permanent, spiritual meaning of Jesus' return, and in these chapters he has discussed it for our profit and edification.

John, in stressing the fact that the coming of the Spirit universalized Jesus, also delineates the Spirit's work. "He will convince the world of sin" (16:8). The Holy Spirit has an accusing as well as a comforting work. There is divine opposition to all evil, and when we oppose evil, God through His Spirit is working with us. If we fall into evil, God, by His Spirit, warns us. When we are attacked by evil, God, in His Spirit, succours us.

The Holy Spirit will come to our aid in hitherto ungrasped situations. Today we live under conditions unknown to the simple Galilean life Jesus, and we need light on how to make effective Jesus' ideals and the Gospel message. The Christian religion is not static, and we must know how to understand it in terms of changing conditions. But this change must come about according to Christ, through the evidence of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit gives us foresight and insight to deal with new matters, which come before us according to the true Spirit of Jesus.

The central theme of Chapter 16 is that we, possessing Christ's Spirit, and abiding in Him, "may bear more fruit." To bear fruit through the Spirit, we must literally immerge ourselves in the Spirit of the living Jesus and find life, strength and sustenance in Him. In order for us to bear this fruit, we must lead disciplined lives, in a determined effort to mold our lives in Jesus' image.

In these chapters John cries: Pray, and what you deeply desire in God will be done. Obey, and you will live in the love of God as one lives in a beautiful dwelling. Rejoice, because the unquenchable joy of Christ's Spirit surges in you. Love, and you become more than just a disciple, more than merely a learner at Jesus' feet. You will become Jesus' friend, suffer, and you are sharing through the Spirit the sufferings of our crucified Saviour; and this last is, indeed, the supreme gift of the Holy Spirit — the sharing of Jesus' pains for the salvation of men.

School Issues Dominate Only Two Of 12 Southern Assemblies

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — The school segregation - desegregation issue dominated only two of the 12 Southern and border state legislatures in session during February.

Southern School News reports in its March issue. And these two — Georgia and Louisiana — passed bills softening their "segregation or no schools" stand.

For the first time since 1957, Arkansas legislators convened with desegregation in only a minor role, although Gov. Orval Faubus proposed two constitutional amendments on the subject.

Correspondents for the monthly publication of Southern Education Reporting Service reported that the legislatures in Delaware, Maryland, Missouri, Oklahoma, West Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and South Carolina had little, if any, school-race legislation up for consideration.

Another indication of a changing attitude on the issue in the region appeared in a Gallup poll. Gallup reported that his latest survey in the South found that 76 per cent of the persons questioned "say they believe now that the day will come when white and colored persons will generally share the same public accommodations in the Southern States." The copyrighted report noted that only 45 per cent of the Southerners interviewed in 1957 held this view and 53 per cent in 1958.

The same report on the survey said that the change "will very likely be highly unpopular." All Gallup testings of Southern opinion since 1954 consistently have recorded at least 71 per cent in opposition to the Supreme Court ruling in the school segregation case.

The courts continued last month to be a source of important developments on the issue. President Kennedy figured in two legal moves a suit seeking to block the use of
