Day Care Center Is Seeking Funds

Memphians are being asked to give financial support to Jessie Mahan Center, Inc., a five-year-old day care center for children of working mothers located at 829 Delmar.

"Although the center is a member of Shelby United Neighbors, this support does not cover the (entire) cost of operation. Additional funds are needed during 1963 and it is hoped that our friends will help us to keep Jessie Mahan Center at the peak of excellence it has established to date," said Mrs. W. B. Dunham, vice president of the center's board of directors.

The center is chartered by the State of Tennessee and employs a staff of four full-time workers. It caters to an average of 35 children.

Jessie Mahan Center also serves as a working project for teachers, college students and student nurses. Mrs. R. Q. Venson is president of the Jessie Mahan board and Mrs. H. H. Jones is director of the center.

Colorful Style Show Attracts Full House

Lincoln League Applauded For Presenting Big Attraction; Miss Carruthers Directs

The Lincoln League, composed of Old Guard Republicans and headed by W. C. Weathers with the veteran George W. Lee serving as chief executive, pulled a crowd Sunday afternoon to Atlanta Life's air-conditioned auditorium for a Freedom Tea and Fashions for My Lady honoring 16-year-old Dorothy Jean Bryant who holds the League's title of Miss Spirit of Emancipation.

It was a colorful show of hats and dresses, properly worn by a bevy of well-trained models. A sprinkling of men were in the packed audience enjoying the exhibition just as much as the ladies. Directing the show was the talented Miss Eunice Carruthers who featured some of her own hats from Carls's Boutique, a fashionable shop for women at 682 Vance. Carls's is co-owned by Miss Carruthers and Miss Slate, one of the several models.

Also presented and dreamed over by the audience, were gowns designed by Jon Destiny of Detroit. A colorful souvenir booklet, crammed with advertisements and patrons, was available. It contained a long and interesting piece penned by the versatile Mr. Lee under the title of "Inside the Memphis Revolt."

The booklet also listed officers of the club and its members by wards and precincts.

Nurses Win Dining Room Dispute At John Gaston; Leaders Balk At Double Shifts In City Schools

NAACP, Civic Groups Urging School Board Drop Its Plan

What action, if any, will the NAACP-sponsored group take if the Board of Education does not put an immediate end to its plan calling for staggered hours at five all-Negro city high schools?

A mild whisper going around town is that the NAACP might push for a boycott of the designated schools Douglass, Melrose, Carver, Manassas and Hamilton. The staggered-hour system was carried out last school year at Douglass and Melrose.

A. W. Willis, of the NAACP, who explained the staggered-hour procedure Sunday to members of the Bluff City and Shelby County Council of Civic Clubs, made no mention of a boycott. He said "If the Board does not go along with us we will have come back and decide what action we'll take."

NAACP officials and civic club members carried their protest Tuesday afternoon to the Board of Education.

The staggered-hour system works something like this: One group of teacher and student begin the school day at 7 a. m., continuing through 2 p. m., and the second group report at 9:30 a. m. and dismissed at 5 p. m.

William D. Galbreath, president of the School Board, explained that the Board of Education expects to save about $3,500,000 by using the extended school day program.

He said the program has nothing to do with race or segregation, that one of its purposes is to make full use of all classrooms throughout a

Rockefeller Bids For GOP Lead; Hits 'Radical Right' In Party

By RAYMOND LAHR

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller rocked the Republican party again Monday with his outspoken bid for leadership of the anti-Goldwater wing of the GOP.

He did so with his statement in Albany Sunday hitting out at the "radical right lunatic branch" and saying the Republican party is in "real danger of subversion" by this group.

The governor's action appeared to be another move to put him back in competition for the presidential nomination after the eclipse he suffered after his remarriage two months ago.

Although the "radical right" was the specific target of his statement, his remarks obviously were directed largely at Republicans who want to nominate Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona for president. Goldwater had no comment on the statement Monday, but his supporters interpreted Rockefeller's action as a challenge.

BACKS STRONG RIGHTS

In previous moves last week, he invited the National Governors' Conference to adopt a strong civil rights program and to disapprove a set of proposed states rights amendments to the federal Constitution.

He is prepared to use the governors' conference at Miami Beach next week for a further airing of his views.

In his statement Sunday, he warned the GOP against becoming "a party of extremism, a party of sectionalism, a party of racism, a party that disclaims responsibility for most of the population before it even starts its campaign for its support."

This was an answer to the argument of Goldwater backers that the GOP cannot compete with the Democrats for the vote of Negroes and other minority groups in the populous northern cities.

CLAIMED NATIONAL Goldwater partisans deny, however, that their man is a sectional candidate. They argue that he would be the only truly national candidate because he has greater appeal than other Republicans through the South.

While also denying that they are writing off any states or votes, Goldwater supporters clearly are basing their strategy on the senator's strength in the South, the Midwest and Rocky Mountain

Desegregation Asked In Miss. Public Schools

NEW ORLEANS — (UPI) — Attorney for a group of Negro parents, including the widow of a slain integration leader, asked the U. S. 6th Circuit Court of Appeals Tuesday to order desegregation of public schools in Jackson, Miss., next September.

Larger Eating Place In Four Months Open To All Nurses

John Gaston Hospital will soon have "one dining room for all professional personnel, regardless of race," Oscar Marvin, hospital administrator, said this week.

He said a second floor dining room, now used by white personnel, is being enlarged. When it is completed in about four months, both Negro and white nurses will eat there.

The administrator said the second floor dining room is too small to accommodate all nurses now. Negroes nurses at present are required to eat in a basement dining room.

About two weeks ago, Negro nurses began boycotting the first floor dining room, now used by white personnel, because of the garbage that is removed.

Many of them began bringing their lunches eating them elsewhere in the hospital or on the grounds. This brought an order from hospital officials that lunches must be eaten in a dining room.

Mr. Marvin said he wrote the order because eating outside a dining room in a hospital is unsanitary and that food remains attract flies and roaches.

He said although nurses can buy inexpensive lunches in the dining room they are free to bring their

Universal's Home Office Entertained

Following the very entertaining variety show put on in April by members of the Universal Life Insurance Company Home Office staff, the Sub-Forum Committee advanced the idea of a similar show by "Future Universalites." The results were amazing—and superbly entertaining. Eighteen acts rounded out the hour-long show which brought the "house down."

Calvin Lawson, Jr., son of Mrs. Fay R. Lawson, opened the show with a solo, "On How I Love Jesus." Henry Bridgeforth sang "Red River Valley," while Eleanor Bridgeforth did a modern tap dance to the tune of "Green Onions." Their mother is Mrs. Bernice Bridgeforth.

A modern dance version of Peter Gunn by Wayne Lovelace, nephew of Mrs. C. E. Rowan, was excellent. Tedre Kerr, son of Mrs. Vernita Kerr, played a clarinet solo. Mrs. Mildred M. Jones was represented by daughters Janice and Rhonda. Janice sang "Come and Get These Memories," while Rhonda danced to "The Twist" with Mrs. Aleta Getewood's small son, Kenneth.

The daughters of Mrs. Evelyn Lewis, Karen and Deborah, rendered instrumental solos. A modern dance to tune of "The Bounce" was gracefully and lively done by Christie Haynes, niece of Mrs. Dorothy Johnson. Mrs. Bessie O'Conner's siblings—Cathy and Donald—danced to "Green Onions," following Donald's solo, "What's Your Name?"

Eugene Smith, nephew of Mrs. Marene Stamps, and Jerry Mitchell, his friend, showed the older folk the advantages of Youth: they can do The Limbo, and quite well, too. The Jerry Benson Troupe danced "The Bossa Nova," followed by a display of modern dance steps. Members of Jerry's troupe were:

Columbus, Georgia Agreement To Halt Protests Collapses

COLUMBUS, Ga. — (UPI) — A reported agreement that would have halted racial demonstrations here fell apart Tuesday with announcement that the Negro Youth Council would continue racial protests "to eradicate segregation in Columbus."

Leon Cox, Georgia field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Tuesday agreement was reached at a meeting Monday night for a 30-day suspension of demonstrations until local Negro leaders could formulate a plan for desegregation. The meeting was attended by local Negro leaders and representatives of the national NAACP.

The 30-day suspension plan, however, was rejected by the Youth Council, a militant Negro integration organization here. Earlier it was reported that the agreement called for a 60-day suspension of demonstrations, but Cox said 30 days was the figure agreed upon by him and the adult Negro leaders but then rejected by the Youth Council.

The Youth Council issued a statement saying it would suspend demonstrations "when there is tangible evidence that good faith negotiations are being carried on in an effort to eradicate segregation in Columbus."

Negroes entered a normally white public park Tuesday and used facilities there. A group of seven Negroes returned to the Bradley Memorial Library which usually serves white patrons only. There were no incidents. The library has been the scene of racial incidents for the past several days.

Bourdelle Exhibit Big Attraction

By VIRGINIA SIMMONS NYABONGO
NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Nashvillians and Tennesseans and their neighbors from adjoining states have until July 26 to see, study and enjoy the works of Emile Antoine Bourdelle (1861-1929), with Rodin, a major romantic French sculptor of modern times.

Bourdelle's sculpture breathes and has a moving quality that penetrates the viewer's imagination. His sketches for sculptures reveal a deft comprehension of anatomy, a high degree of scientific, calculating pre-planning, and his own Promethean flame.

The monumental impact of his work is felt initially in "Fighter, Defenders of Montebian in the Franco-Prussian War 1870-71." The force of the Warrior's hand, his massive body, the dynamic control of muscles, reverberates Victory, no alternative to freedom and independence.

With equal artistry, Bourdelle captures the sensitivity of Beethoven's hand, the virile face of Ingres, masks, busts, heads - "Liberty," "Eloquence," "Ruth," and figures called "Strength."

The Beethoven theme runs thru Bourdelle's whole career. He creates a long series of masks and heads of Beethoven including "Project for a Monument," "Beethoven with Long Hair," "With Crown," "Draped Figure," "Beethoven, la Pathétique."

A religious note in Bourdelle's work is seen in his studies of the Virgin. Especially impressive are his "First Study for the Virgin," "Noble Burden," and "Virgin of the Offering."

A timely status for French independence Day is the "Street Danbers on Bastille Day." Seen in the Round, Bourdelle's work is the epitome of grace.

Bourdelle's studies of human form, from his penicils to his statues have about them something of a voluptuous abandon and yet they show restraint, mature command of emotions and materials as in "Penelope," "Maternity," "Dying Love," and "Hercules the Archer." One may say of his art in general as of "Bust of a Young Boy (1896), "He sees, he hears, he feels." In the "Dying Centaur," Bourdelle achieves the mastery of portraying a "Grievous Wound."

Some enchanting, smaller sculptures of Bourdelle include the "Harpist," "Grave Harvester," and "Enochite." Especially inspiring is the "Sappho" and exhilarating, "The Wind."

The Bourdelle collection, circulated by the Charles E. Mackin Galleries, New York, came to Nashville from the Allentown Art Museum, Allentown, Pennsylvania, and will be seen also at the art institute in San Antonio, Texas (August 9 - September 30, 1963). Fogt Art Museum, Harvard University (Sept.

Gorine News

After a festive Independence Day weekend, the students of Gorine College have settled down to books once again. Each student is working hard to learn everything there is to offer so nothing will be left behind.

During the past few weeks, Norman Trisvan, the exciting male hairstylist from New York, has been in our midst. Mr. Trisvan is a genius with a comb. Many of our students got a sample of his work. A style show was given on July 3, in connection with the National Beauty Culturist's League. In the style show were many exotic hairstyles given by Mr. Trisvan.

We were happy and proud to know that our manager, Mrs. Vassie Edingborough won a diploma for Porc. Gorine certainly put its best foot forward.

Since the commencement, we have acquired six new students—Gloria Dean Williams, Gertrude Koen, Calvary Malone, Robert Wiseman, Antonio Coleman and Betty Do Donerson. To these new students, we say "Welcome to Gorine College!"

Bluff City Society

THE V. S. M. A. MEETING IN NASHVILLE

The Volunteer State Medical Association met in Nashville the latter part of June. Traditional procedures were somewhat jolted at his convention. For the first time in the history of the 67 year-old organization a woman was elected to the presidency of that august body. Memphis' Dr. Clara Branner holds this honor. Not only is she president of the state body but of the Bluff City Medical Society as well. The second rarity was the decision of this group to hold the June, 1964 meeting in Memphis instead of Nashville which is customary.

The Auxiliary to the V. S. M. A. was presided over by the outgoing president, Mrs. Julia M. Atkins of Memphis. Mrs. Now becomes chairman of the executive board. We must say that she was efficient and forward thinking in the administration of her duties. The business meetings were rapid-paced and to the point with much being accomplished.

Especially informative was the panel discussion held the second day of the convention where Mrs. J. W. S. Ish, Jr., member of the Memphis Council on Human Relations, and Miss Katherine Jones, executive director of the Tennessee Council on Human Relations, told of efforts being made in their respective communities toward enlightening people and encouraging them to respect the rights of others. They listed a number of results gained in the field of public accommodations, amusements and labor.

Highly enjoyable was a trip to "Cheekwood," one of the showplaces of Nashville. It was once owned by the Cheek family—owners of Maxwell House Coffee Co., and donated by them to the city of Nashville to be used as a museum. It is more of a palace than a mansion and it would be hard for most of us to conceive of the wealth, lavishness and pomp of one dwelling with so much luxury. The grounds make up a park with listed trails etc. After a delightful lunch was served "al fresco" on the marble terrace the group made a tour of the building and grounds (including the fascinating Art Gallery) before heading back to the city.

Representing Memphis in addition to Mesdames Atkins and Ish were Mrs. Ophelia Byas, Mrs. W. A. Blison and yours truly. Also holding up for Memphis at the V. S. M. A. Golf Tournament were some avid golfers—each bringing home a trophy: Dr. A. E. Horne, Dr. Edward Reed and Dr. W. O. Speight, Jr. who had first place in flight one.

Mr. A. J. Dancy left last weekend for a short vacation in St. Louis, Mo. where he plans to take in some major league ball games and to visit with his niece and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Seymour. He will be joined there by his sister, Mrs. Maude Duval of Indianapolis, Ind.

Booker T. Jones, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Booker T. Jones of 666 Edith Avenue, is vacationing in Los Angeles with his mother. We wonder... will he cut his vacation short to appear at Chicago's Regal Theater where he has been offered $6,000 for a three-day stint in August?

Memphis is proud of young Booker—not only for the success of his recordings ("Green Onions"—"Bo Time" and others) but equally as proud for the record he has made for himself at the University of Southern Illinois. The past two semesters there he maintained an honors average (Dean's List) in a school where the scholastic competition is keen. This proves what those of us who've known him all along have said—Booker has a level as well as talented head on his shoulders. His parents should be proud as well as thankful to be blessed with such a son!

Mr. and Mrs. George Mims are here for a month's visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Twigg, Sr., of 1766 South Parkway

East. After this time they will leave for New York City where Mr. Mims has accepted a teaching position at Hunter College. Mrs. Mims is the former Miss Clara Ann Twigg.

EDITH AVE. CLUB HAS ANNUAL PICNIC

Last Friday night neighbors gathered on the adjoining lawns of Mrs. A. J. Dancy and Miss E. Naomi Creswell, of 685 and 689 Edith respectively, to enjoy the easy camaraderie of members of the Edith Ave. Club and their guests. The well-kept grounds were lovely with the bloom of colorful flowers and shrubs, revolving colored lights, and summer furniture. The latest sounds in stereo were enjoyed to the fullest by the small fry, children of members and guests alike. Even the three-year-olds tried to keep up with the latest innovations in dance patterns!

Menacing clouds and drops of rain forced some to seek shelter inside, but they emerged minutes later—determined to sample the piping hot chicken, French fries, soda, etc., that make a picnic—a picnic. The weather man smiled and provided perfect atmosphere for the rest of the evening.

Seen mingling from yard to yard were the Clubs' president, Mr. J. A. DeWalt, and his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Everlena House—Mr. and Mrs. Roy O'Walt, Mr. Booker T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dancy and their daughter and son-in-law from Beaumont, Texas, also their children and the Dancys' other guest—Miss Maridella Reeves;—Atty. and Mrs. B. L. Hooks with Mrs. Juanita Arnold and her son, "Twiffy"; Mrs. Annette Edwards and her guest, Mrs. F. B. Grant of Compton, Cal.—a former Memphisian; Mrs. Rose Willis with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McClellan with Mrs. Ann F. Benson; Mrs. Katie H. Kirksey, Mrs. Jack Humes; and Mrs. Leon Moore and guests—Mrs. Oliver Johnson, Jr. and Mrs. Roberta Thomas.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cole; Mrs. Mollie Carter with her sister, Mrs. Arnett Lee, and guests, Mrs. Jean Harris, Mr. and Mrs. George Rawlings, and Mr. Edward Bolton; Mrs. Katie Powell, Mrs. Ethel Hill, and Mrs. Lucille Rhine Woods, Mrs. Ethel Venson, Miss Naomi Creswell, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Tureaud and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Bergeron; Dr. Wm. L. Phipps, Mrs. A. K. Smith and her grand daughter Adrienne; and Mr. Wm. Robinson and his guests—Mrs. Mamie Pamphlet and Mr. Fred Osborne.

Sorely missed was Mrs. Mattie Johnson, who was ill. Ill at Crump is Miss Jane Johncan of 1265 Dunnivant. She is the sister of Mrs. P. L. Buford, who informs us that Miss Johncan is somewhat better.

In town is former Memphisian Mrs. Nellie B. Humes, who is visiting her sister—in law, Mrs. Henry Humes, of 660 Edith Ave. The visiting Mrs. Humes will spend time with her many friends while in Memphis.

At Collins Chapel Hospital, Dr. B. B. Martin is reported to be slightly improved.

ANGELA OWEN FLIES TO AUSTRIA

Miss Angela Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Owen, flew July 12th to New York—then took a B O A C flight to London, England. There she changed planes for Salzburg, Austria. At Salzburg she took a train to Strobl, Austria and finally reached her destination—the University of Vienna, located on beautiful Wolfgang Lake.

At the University, Miss Owen will take courses in psychology and German for six weeks. Her attendance there is an honor in itself since only a handful of prospective students are accepted from all points of the globe for each session.

At the completion of her studies she will return to Paris for a short stay and then fly directly to New York. In New Rochelle, N. Y. Angela expects to visit her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Robert F. Morton and their daughters then Home!

Mrs. Thomas H. Hayes, Jr., left for Los Angeles to visit her daughter and son-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Groves and their two children.

Mrs. Groves is fondly referred to in Memphis as "Elen Ann."

The monthly meeting of the LOS DOCE AMIGOS was held Monday, July 8, 1963, at the home of Mrs. Julia Atkins, 1940 South Parkway East, with Mrs. Joan Golden serving as hostess. Business of the evening consisted of making plans for a fabulous dinner party in November.

Members present were: Mesdames Deborah Patterson, Geraldine Miller, Denise Hawkins, Ernestine Brownie, Dessie Lee, Joan Golden, and Julia Atkins; also the Misses Ann Fletcher Bobble L. Nelson, Lois Gilder. Two of the members are out of the city for the summer months; Mrs. Pearl Hines—Delaware and Mrs. Shirley Smith at Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. Robert Tabron of Flint, Michigan and daughter Cynthia left this week after having spent two weeks with his mother, Mrs. Lillie Tabron, and his sister, Mrs. Betty Taylor of 1082 Smith Street. Mr. Tabron is an assistant in a physician's office in Flint.

We feel sure that our readers are interested in hearing news concerning the whereabouts and well-being of our girl Jewel Gentry (Mrs. James Hulbert) so as we glean tid-bits of information from her mother, Mrs. Gertrude Armstrong, we will be only too happy to pass them on to you.

Her latest correspondence was from Rome, Italy having stopped in Paris for two or three days. For some reason she seemed to prefer Rome to Paris. One thing that impressed her in Paris was the relative inexpensiveness of certain perfumes that are somewhat costly in the U. S. A. She found stockings in Rome to be even more reasonable.

While in Paris she was entertained by a French Damselle who had known her husband (Mr. Hulbert) when he was stationed in that area for four years.

We are relieved to learn that Miss Genoa Stover of New York City, sister of Memphis' Mrs. Mildred Riley, has shown much improvement in her recent illness. Their mother, Mr. Juanita Stover, is due to return to Memphis Friday.

MARY MARTEL

'Mistreated' Seeks Remedy for husband Who Makes Fun Of Her Before Others

Dear Mary: My husband makes fun of me in public when he gets home he is as nice as can be. He tells me he doesn't mean what he says when he has mistreated me out in front of people. He has no explanation for his behavior and gets angry if I ask for one. What can I do?

Mistreated: Evidently the man is a sadist and as long as he sees he can hurt you he will continue his behavior. Say no more to him about it; build up a defense so you won't be so vulnerable and easily wounded. When he learns he has lost the power to hurt you he will direct his attacks elsewhere.

Dear Dilemma: I really think you have a bunch of cats for friends who don't want to see you do well. Buy them no attention. Follow your own judgment. I am sure it is just as good as that of your "friends."

Dear Mary: I am a mature woman in my late thirties. My problem is that every eligible man I meet is just fine until I meet him and become interested in him. Then, my friends all have something derogatory to say about him. The latest incident involves a recently divorced man who has exhibited an interest in me. He was wonderful prior to his divorce. The ideal. Suddenly he is the biggest skunk in the world - after his divorce. What do you think about this? Please comment.

Evers Slay Suspect To Get Mental Test

JACKSON, Miss. - (UPI) - Dist. Atty. Waller announced Monday he would seek a mental examination for Byron de la Beckwith, charged with the ambush murder of Negro integration leader Medgar Evers.

Waller said he would ask the Hinds County Circuit Court to order Beckwith examined because "the defense did not do so, and it is something that should be done." Motions that accused criminals be given mental examinations are generally entered by defense attorneys. Judge Leon Hendrick scheduled a hearing Thursday on Waller's request. Beckwith, 42, an ex-marine from Greenwood, Miss., was charged with the June 12 sniper slaying of Evers.

55 DAYS AT PEKING

Today's film revue "If you are fed-up with the "modern" type picture, "55 Days At Peking" will take you back to an era of good old-fashioned action spectacles. Taking place during the year 1900, when imperialism raged, this film concerns China, in the final days of the Manchu Dynasty, as she lay prostrate while the various great powers seized her territories. Charlton Heston, the United States Marine Major is tough and stalwart as he leads the Marines. Incidentally whenever there is fighting the U. S. Marines are always foremost in the action. When Heston isn't fighting, he's busy entertaining the Russian Embassy - none other than the lovely Miss Ava Gardner. David Niven carries off the role of British ambassador with perfection. Worthy of mention is a scene-stealer - a sweet little urban girl hovering along the sidelines. Some eleven nations and a cast of hundreds create plenty of action in this 65 day saga at Peking, historically remembered as the Boxer Rebellion.

Your Chance To Buy A Bicycle

Want to buy a bike? Bicycles (129 of them) are being auctioned off under a newly passed bill, strongly supported by Sheriff Hinds, which permits the sale of private property when their owners can not be found. This will be the first auction under the law, which was passed two years ago. Some of the bicycles are new and some have been in the sheriff's office for 10 years. Auctioneer Lawrence Riley of Murdock Acceptance Corp. volunteered his services to conduct the auction. The auction will begin July 27 at 8 a. m. on the parking lot across from the Shelby County Building at Second and Poplar. Chief Administrative Deputy R. K. Land will number the bikes 1 through 129 and they will be auctioned individually. Sheriff Hinds has appealed to all bike owners to put serial numbers on their bill of sale. "That way, when bikes are stolen and we recover them, it's easier to find the owner," he said. Proceeds from the sale will go into the county general fund.

Barnett Charge Denied By King

ATLANTA, Ga.—(SNS)—Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. said July 13 that his only visit to the Highlander Folk School was for a speech he made at the school's 26th anniversary program.

King said that a charge by Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi that he attended classes at the school "is so utterly ridiculous and erroneous that it hardly merits comment."

King said a picture of him at the school which Barnett showed a Senate Committee on July 12 in Washington apparently was taken during the 26th anniversary visit.

The school was closed three years ago by the state of Tennessee. The school was investigated by the state of Georgia and called subversive by Georgia Attorney General Eugene Cook.

"The House Committee on Un-American Affairs has made it clear that the Highlander Folk School has never been cited as subversive by any federal agency," King said.

"It is unfortunate that Gov. Barnett would seek to distort the meaning of the integration movement by using the familiar McCarthy-like Communist tag," he said.

"It is a sad commentary when individuals of this nation degenerate to the point of feeling that the Negro can not have a longing and aspiration to be free without being inspired by the Communists," King added.

The appeals court ruled 2-1 in the case.

Bearden Praises GOP On Race Issue Record

ATLANTA, Ga.—(SNS)—At a meeting of the local Republican club at the Interdenominational Theological Center on Sunday, Dr. H. I. Bearden, minister of Big Bethel AME Church, told the gathering about the contributions made the nation by the Republican party and the part it played in the early days of Negro freedom.

Said the speaker: "The position of the Republican party on the race issue and Civil Rights is obviously before us. It does not take long memories to gather what the party has meant in the area of Civil Rights."

He rehearsed the record of the Republican party since it became known as such back in 1854. He told his hearers that in the first place it foresees the sentiment which finally overthrew slavery in the United States giving the Negro his freedom, and through certain amendments to the Constitution, conferred upon him the rights of citizenship.

In contrast the speaker insisted that the record of the Democratic party in the South has been one which supported segregation and discrimination against the Negro.

John H. Calhoun and Dr. L. R. Shelton stressed the importance of encouraging a larger attendance in the meetings of county Republican organizations.

B. F. Bullock presided over the session, while Harold H. Thomas served as secretary. Rev. R. W. Moore said the invocation and the benediction.

Race Transfer Plans Removed In 8 Districts

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Eight public-school districts in Southern and border states eliminated race-transfer provisions from their desegregation plans during June and early July, Southern School News reported Wednesday.

A survey by the nonpartisan monthly publication showed that officials of six other districts were studying the effects of a ruling of the U.S. Supreme Court last month that school transfers applying specifically to pupils of minority races are unconstitutional.

Among other developments in school-racial issues reported by SSN:

Evers Memorial Fund Established

CHICAGO — The Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People authorized the establishment of the Medgar Evers Memorial Freedom Fund at the Board's regular meeting held here during the Association's 64th annual convention.

The Board action designated the new fund as an extension of the Freedom Fund established 10 years ago in response to a proposal advanced by the late Channing H. Tobias, then NAACP Board chairman. Money raised for the Medgar Evers Memorial Freedom Fund will be utilized, the Board resolution said, "to carry on the work for which Medgar Evers sacrificed his life."

An appeal was issued to all NAACP members and other friends of civil rights to contribute to the fund in order to accelerate the pace of the Freedom drive.

The assassination of Mr. Evers, the Association's field secretary for Mississippi, on June 12 was charged to the "vicious climate of opinion created by the White Citizens Councils and similar groups in the southern states" by a convention resolution.

Desegregation

seven Negro schools they would attend if they were white pupils.

It also asked that the school board be forced "by a date to be set by complete desegregation of all public schools under their jurisdiction."

The court had no opportunity to take action on the motion Tuesday.

One of the Negro parents represented at court was Mrs. Medgar Evers, whose husband was shot and killed in June outside his home in Jackson, where he was a leader of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

On June 29, Mize ruled in favor of the school board's motion to dismiss the Negroes' suit. The judge said they had failed to exhaust available remedies under state laws. The Negroes have appealed this decision.

The motion filed Tuesday contended the Negroes failed to exhaust the remedies provided in the Mississippi Pupil Placement Act simply because "such efforts" would have been totally useless in view of the state policy of segregation.

The first large-scale youth training project in the state, the program would be similar to but would offer a greater variety of training than the MDTA project started last month in Memphis to provide training for 40 unemployed young people interested in jobs as general office clerks, Corban reported.

The aim of the Chattanooga project is to qualify untrained, inexperienced jobless youth to make a satisfactory and productive entry into the labor market, he explained.

Present plans call for some of the classroom time to be devoted to basic education, Corban reported.

"We either had to do this or embark on a four-million-dollar building program which the Board cannot afford. The schools selected have the biggest crowding problem. It is unfortunate that they are Negro. Race doesn't enter the picture at all," Mr. Galbreath said.

He also noted that Kingsbury, a white high school, is scheduled to enter the program in 1964.

The NAACP contended that the staggered-hour system is an attempt to continue segregation in the schools.

Mr. Willis said the system is confusing, throws families off schedule, forces children on the late shift to return to their homes after darkness has set in during winter months and even is causing a problem for the Memphis Transit Authority.

decision was withheld on a transfer procedure after the Roanoke school board had voluntarily removed a proposed minority-transfer clause in accordance with the outcome of the Tennessee cases.

In rejecting Lynchburg's grade-a-year plan on July 1 as too slow, the U. S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals also threw out a racially based transfer provision.

Six Florida counties—Escambia, Duval, Hillsborough, Orange, Volusia and Leon, were studying the effect of the Supreme Court ruling on a similar feature of their court-approved plans, under which they have registered pupils for the 1963-64 school term.

MY WEEKLY SERMON
By REV. BLAIR T. HUNT, PASTOR, MISSISSIPPI BLVD. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

TEXT: "Lord, Is It I?"
Thirteen men, one a traitor, another the Christ, gather in an upper room. It is a farewell supper. A roasted lamb will be eaten. For three years an intimacy had continued until it had blossomed into a most beautiful flower of immortal love.

Somehow or another the appetites of the thirteen men lose their zest. Seemingly there is a lump in their throats. There is a premonition that something terribly tragic is to happen very soon.

The host, Jesus, speaks of the supper with faltering words: "One of you shall betray me; one of you shall sell me to my death by the hands of my enemies." Each of the twelve asks their host the same question, "Is it I?" ... Lord, is it I?"

Jesus replies, "Judas, you have said it. ... What you do, do quickly!" Jesus received the morsel of sopped bread and stole from the upper room. The door creaked behind him, an John says, "It was night."

An so it is a black night when a soul steals away from Jesus ... Steals away, to perpetrate a hideous crime.

So often ... too often ... we are like the disciples of the upper room. We are mysteries. We don't know ourselves. There is a great struggle, a decisive battle raging in the breast of each of us. We would do good but evil is ever present. We don't know ourselves. "Jesus' spear pierced side!

believe our doubts and doubt our beliefs. We like to think we know others, but we don't want to know ourselves. We delight to judge others, criticize and condemn others.

With it all let us ask ourselves: "Is It I ... Am I Guilty?" A partial truth is this: There are two classes of people ... Those caught and the un-caught. The good brother prays, "Lord, have mercy on me, a hell deserving sinner." Many of us need to do a piece of research on our own lives and as we do so beg: "Judge my jury, have mercy on me a jail deserving criminal." In life we cry for justice. How tragic for us if justice were meter out to us. Let us cry for mercy ... not justice.

Have you ever stolen ... cheated? Have you ever bought stolen (hot) goods? Have you ever committed adultery or fornication? Have you libeled or slandered anyone? Have you ever defrauded your government or any one? Let us cry: "Is It I?"

Have you practiced hypocrisy? Do you hold prejudice? Do you lust? Do you take into your lips that which steals away your brains? Do you lie? Lord, is it I? "An open confession is good to the soul." Remember, "God sees all you do, and hears all you say." In the presence of our unseen comrade, Jesus, the Christ, let us have a self-examination. Let us cry out from the depths of our soul, "Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner."

If it is I, if I have betrayed my sacred trust, if I have been false or untrue, by your divine power wash away my stain and guilt with the healing stream that flows from Jesus' spear pierced side!

ACTION IN COLUMBUS
In Columbus, Georgia NAACP leaders agreed to request by a local Negro official for a 30-day suspension of racial demonstrations at the public library, but the agreement was summarily rejected by the Negro Youth Council, a militant integrationist organization.

The Youth Council issued a statement saying it would continue racial protest "to eradicate segregation in Columbus."

The Atlanta City Council was petitioned to close a recently integrated swimming pool as "a menace" to neighborhood peace and tranquility. The pool was one of 11 city swimming pools that were integrated last month.

Residents of the area complaining place for undesirable characters, mostly from other sections of the city, the congregating of gangs continues late into the night.

The picketing of white merchants, the objects of a continuing Negro boycott, was peaceful and no incidents were reported.

In contrast, heavy damage to store and automobile windows was reported Monday night. Roving groups of Negro vandals used rocks, bricks, hammers and guns to smash plate glass windows.

The Negroes moved into downtown streets in small groups following an integration rally at the Flamingo Club, a Negro night-spot being used as a jump-off point for marches and demonstrations.

SIX FALSE ALARMS
Police said firemen received at least six false alarms within 15 minutes in the area around the club.

One group of Negroes mounted an overhead railroad crossing and threw rocks and bricks at passing automobiles. The rear windows of two cars were demolished by gunfire, according to police.

Some officers said they had reports of Negroes breaking windows of parked cars with hammers.

The Protestant Ministerial Association issued a request that July 28 be made a day of prayer for the purpose of bringing peace

Claim Mecca Concerned Over Muhammad Muslims

Writers Say Leaders Not Happy Over Acts

CHICAGO — (ANP) — Mecca has learned about Elijah Muhammad's Black Muslims in the United States and is not happy with what it has learned.

This is the substance of a story published here last week by the Chicago American under the by-line of Tom and Harle Dammann from Jeddah, Saudi Arabia. According to the American's story, "Muslim religious leaders are deliberating in their holy city, Mecca, whether to send a delegation to the United States to publicly disavow the Black Muslims of America and their leader, Elijah Muhammad, and his flamboyant lieutenant, Malcolm X. They fear that the Black Muslims' anti-white and anti-Christian anti-Jewish and pro-violence stands are doing the religion great disservice around the world and must be checked according to Sheik Mohammed Sorour Elsabbah, secretary general of the Muslim league, Mecca. OFFICIAL GROUP "The league is an official international organization established to unify the work of the Muslim faith (Islam) from Morocco thru Africa and Asia to the Philippines. Its leader, Sheik Elsabbah, is darker than Malcolm X and proud of his African heritage. "But," he emphasized to us in an interview in his home outside Jeddah on the road to the other Islamic holy city, Medina, "the Muslim religion recognizes no color boundaries. We are all brothers together."

Sunday School Lesson

REBELLION AGAINST GOD International Sunday School Lesson for July 21, 1963. MEMORY SELECTION: "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all." — (Isaiah 53:6)

LESSON TEXT: Genesis 3 thru 11. Genesis 3 through 11 presents narratives about several persons who illustrate man's tendency to separate himself from God. The theme of all these chapters is "man's alienation from God" but Chapter 3 describes the origin of this rebellion. In an effort to help us understand these passages and what they teach concerning man's sinning and the consequences of his disobedience, we therefore study the temptation by the serpent and the yielding by the man and the woman; also their discovery by God followed by the "punishment." The story ends with expulsion from the garden. At it has been stated earlier, in other sources, "Eden belongs less in the realm of geography than in the soul of man." Thus we must not read Genesis 3 with the perspective of literalism, for its truths are not dependent upon our skill in locating the garden depicted there. Rather, its value is derived from the fact that every one of us has "walked" in a similar "garden"; we know of man's rebellion. And here we see the Genesis writer's explanation of its origin.

Genesis indicates that back of our every temptation is our desire to become "like God." The fatal truth of the story of Adam and Eve is that we human beings are everlastingly attempting to make gods of ourselves. We want to be equal to God in the sense that we constantly are tempted to reject and disobey his will and purposes and to set up our own desires as the ruling power for our lives. We refuse to acknowledge our created nature — made "in the image of God," made for fellowship with him. This is the universal temptation of mankind, and we face it daily. Notice how the sin, presented persuasively by the serpent, has its immediate attractions. "The woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes; and it has been ever thus with men. We are seldom able to see far enough to understand all the consequences of a particular act. Even feeling its wrongness, we fail to imagine the results. But when our deeds are known and our guilt is bare, we become like Adam. He blamed the woman, implying that God was really responsible since he had made her. And she blamed the serpent. Such is usually our experience. Having set ourselves against the right, we quickly shunt the blame to others when we are discovered. It may be another person or the existing conditions, or simply "bad luck." We seldom admit it is our fault. However, we do participate in the experience of the first man when we compound the sin by refusing to face our guilt. And having accepted the fact of evil and its universal claims upon mankind, what shall we do? Creation itself is no tragic. Numerous times in Genesis 1 it was pronounced "good." Evil has come because of impove-ment and will serve as a resource for urban communities of the state outside Baltimore City. A director, statistician - interviewer, and secretary will comprise the permanent staff of the Institute, which is seeking support for research from foundations and government agencies.

BALTIMORE, Md. — A grant of $28,000 to the new Urban Studies Institute of Morgan State College will make possible a study of Baltimore City unemployment. The grant, which comes from the Area Redevelopment Administration of the U. S. Department of Commerce, is the first to be awarded the Institute which begins operations in the fall, Morgan President Martin D. Jenkins disclosed today.

The Urban Studies Institute was established this year when the State appropriated an initial sum of $33,000 to provide a permanent continuing staff for the project. The Institute is to serve as a center for conducting research on urban problems. Its main focus will be on the social problems of the so-called "inner city" area of Baltimore. It will also offer courses and seminars in urban

Demonstrator Sues Danville Over Firehose Attack

By MILTON SCOTT DANVILLE, Va.—(ANP)— This besieged city, the last capital of the Southern Confederacy during the waning days of the Civil War, faces a $50,000 suit. The action was filed last week against Danville mayor Julian R. Stinson and Police Chief Eugene G. McCain. The suit was brought by Mrs. Mary Shirley Thomas who contends that she and 49 other demonstrators were subjected to a "naked brutish display of power" the night of June 10, when they paraded to the Danville jail to protest the arrest of some of their companions.

The suit was filed by Norfolk attorney Len Holt. It contends that Stinson directed McCain to turn fire hoses on the demonstrators and the "brick-tearing force of the water" knocked Mrs. Thomas down, soaked her and left her gasping for breath. Mrs. Thomas also alleges in the suit that she and several others were attacked by night stick-wielding police and that she received various injuries.

Ex-Sailor Seeks To Get On Ballot For Mayor Of Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio.—(ANP)— A former lake sailor, salesman and onetime steward at Lindy's a famous New York restaurant attempted to file nominating petitions to run for mayor of Cleveland last week. He is Harold L. Taylor, 44, a soft-spoken independent and a bachelor. Now he declares he is going to go to court to prove Ohio and city election laws are unfairly stacked against independents.

Taylor offered petitions bearing 300 signatures to Ray C. Miller, clerk of the Board of Elections. Miller rejected them. To file as a Democrat or Republican candidate for mayor, Taylor needed 3,000 names. To file as an independent he needed seven percent of all Cleveland votes for governor last year, or 16,223 names.

Two Goeds Score First In "Miss Universe" Contest

OKLAHOMA CITY — (ANP) — Two Oklahoma City Negro coeds shared honors here along with a number of white girls as contestants recently in the "Miss Universe" competition. The girls, whose participation in the "Miss Universe" contest marked a first for Negroes in this area, were Miss Carolyn Miles, a sophomore at Howard University, Washington, D.C., and Miss Lovie Ziegler, a sophomore at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater.

Both girls were presented to Oklahoma City society at the recent Nu Vista Debutants Cotillion, in which Carolyn won top debutante honors as queen. Sponsors of the girls in the "Miss Universe" contest were Mrs. Nilar Jewel Phillips a prominent Oklahoma city businesswoman, and Mrs. Ela Asher, school teacher and social and civic leader.

Modern Advice A family who moved from town to the suburbs decided they needed a watchdog to guard the house at night. So they brought the largest dog they could find in the kennel of a nearby dealer. Not long afterwards, burglars broke into the house. They were not disturbed at all by the dog who slept throughout the burglary. The head of the house went to the dealer and complained. "Well," explained the dealer, "what you need now is a little dog to wake up the big dog."

NEW BUSES FOR SIERRA LEONE FREETOWN — (ANP) — Five new single-deck buses, ordered last year by the Sierra Leone Road Transport Department from the British firm of Leyland Motors Limited, will be shipped here shortly. It was revealed by Director of Traffic L. Robinson, The departments, and while we can never return to a state of innocence, neither must we give way to fatalistic despair. Just as the first pair of humans is described as having used their freedom to violate God's kingdom. Each of us must learn that the battle with evil is never ended. We have been created "in the image of God," made for fellowship with him. Our perverse exercise of freedom may blight the image, but the effects need not be permanent unless we surrender to our defeats and blunders. This is the message of the Bible. UAW Donates $10,000 To NAACP For Freedom Effort

CHICAGO — The United Automobile Workers of America, AFL-CIO, donated $10,000 to the NAACP at its 54th annual convention which closed here Saturday, July 6. Walter Reuther, president of the UAW and a member of the NAACP National Board of Directors, made the presentation at the Freedom Fund Report dinner, attended by over 1300 delegates and guests. In addition, the UAW donated $2,000 to the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc.

In brief remarks prefacing his presentation Mr. Reuther told the delegates that they would have to make greater efforts than ever before in the next three to four months to achieve "nothing less than victory in 1963." "Negroes are not going to be satisfied with promises of some indefinite day," he said. "The want freedom today!" Commenting on President Kennedy's recent speech in West Berlin, Mr. Reuther addressed remarks to the President, saying, "You cannot defend freedom in Berlin and deny freedom in Birmingham." "This country cannot preach equality in the world unless we are practicing it in America," he stated. Contributions to the Freedom Fund from NAACP units at the dinner totaled $105,000. Delegates also heard remarks from John Sengstacke, publisher of the Chicago Daily Defender, who presented a check for $2,000 to the Association "from the nickels, dimes and dollars from our readers." A report on life memberships was made by Kivie Kaplan, chairman of the NAACP Life Membership Committee, who announced that the Association reached its goal of 200 new life members gained during convention week. Among those was James H. Meredith, flight-recognized Negro student at the University of Mississippi.

United Nations Report Britain Warned About Southern Rhodesia Rule

BY CHAS. P. HOWARD, SR. UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (HNS) Britain has been severely warned by the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Ghana not to forcibly impose white minority rule upon the indigenous people of Southern Rhodesia; to do so the Minister said, would be a flagrant violation of the inalienable rights of the legitimate inhabitants of that territory. The colonial power was warned not to transfer the powers and attributes of sovereignty to that foreign minority government in Southern Rhodesia imposed upon the African peoples by the use of force and under the cover of racial legislation. In the General Assembly, Colonial Secretary Duncan Sandys said, "Having nearly 40 years ago given a Constitution, which is virtually self-government at home in Southern Rhodesia, it would be constitutionally improper and impracticable for us, without the consent of Southern Rhodesia, to impose upon it a new Constitution with much wider representation to Africans. If we thought that was right and desirable."

Ghana, in its white paper delivered as a note the British High Commissioner in Accra on July 4th, called this hogwash, in more polite language. It "has never accepted these arguments as valid" and "further, the constitutional principle now advanced by Britain runs contrary to previous British practice."

Widespread Bias By Employment Agencies Found In 6-City Survey

NEW YORK — Racial and religious discrimination by private employment agencies is "shockingly widespread" despite state laws forbidding bias against job applicants on grounds of creed or color, the American Jewish Congress charged here tonight in disclosing the findings of a survey of 385 employment agencies in six major cities across the country. More than 90 per cent of all the agencies covered in the survey — 351 out of 385 — agreed to fill telephone requests for a "white Protestant stenographer" although prohibited from doing so by state law, the Jewish group reported. The survey covered private commercial employment agencies in Los Angeles and San Francisco, Calif.; Chicago, Ill.; Boston, Mass.; Detroit, Mich.; and Philadelphia, Pa. The findings, which ranged from a low of 89.5 per cent in Los Angeles to a high of 97.1 per cent in Philadelphia, confirmed the results of previous surveys by the American Jewish Congress among

O. K. Grant And Loan For Mound Bayou, Miss.

WASHINGTON — (NNPA) — The all-Negro town of Mound Bayou, Miss., will receive a $242,320 public works grant and a $221,000 public facility loan from the Community Facilities Administration to improve its water and public sewer systems. Commissioner Sidney H. Woolner of CFA said the $519,000 will provide additional water distribution lines and storage and treatment facilities, in addition to pumping stations and a lagoon. Mound Bayou Mayor Wesley Liddell said the town is supplementing the CFA grant and loan with $55,680 from another source. He said the project will include 5,000 linear feet of street paving.

Construction is expected to begin in 1963 and to provide 390 man-months of local labor. Mound Bayou is located in Bolivar County, in the west central part of Mississippi. The population of the area to be served by the new facilities is 2,200. The accelerated Public Works Program, signed into law by President Kennedy on Sept. 14, 1962, was designed to help in the initiation and speed of local and federal public works projects that would help provide immediate work for the unemployed and underemployed in labor surplus areas. When whose agency is a part of Robert C. Weaver's Housing and Home Finance Agency, said part of the grant is contingent on receipt of "firm and binding insurance" of the availability of Mound Bayou's share of the project cost. The loan is contingent on the inability of Mound Bayou to obtain private financing on reasonable terms.

Census To Survey Buying Plans, Jobs

Questions on families' plan to buy automobiles, houses and major household appliances will be asked in addition to regular monthly inquiries on employment and unemployment in the Census Bureau's Current Population Survey during the week of July 19, it was announced today by Director Thomas W. McWhirter of the Census Bureau regional office at Atlanta. In April of this year consumers reported that they expected to buy about the same number of new cars, fewer used cars, and about the same number of new houses in the following 12 months as was the case in a similar survey made in April 1962. Families included in the Current Population Survey here and in 356 other areas of the country are scientifically chosen to provide a representative sample of the Nation's population.

Don't Look At Sun In Eclipse

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The Public Health Service Saturday issued a urgent warning against looking at the sun during next Saturday's solar eclipse. Dr. Luther L. Terry, surgeon general of the Health Service, said flatly that "there is no safe way of viewing the eclipse directly." Permanent damage to the eyes may well be the penalty for ignoring this warning, he said. For scientists the eclipse will provide a bonanza of information about the sun and its influence on weather, communications, and the geomagnetic field. This information may contribute to development of a means of forecasting solar hazards to space travelers. According to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration this eclipse from a scientific standpoint "will be the most thoroughly observed in history."

But scientists will use special instruments, not their eyes, to observe the eclipse in its partial phases. Said Dr. Terry: "It cannot be stated too strongly that there is no safe way to look directly at the sun at any time." Solar eclipses occur whenever the moon gets in the right position between sun and earth. On Saturday the moon will blot out the sun completely for brief periods along a corridor, about 60 miles wide, extending from northern Japan across the Pacific, Alaska, Canada, and Maine to the mid-Atlantic.

JFK Urges Governors, Businessmen To Back Civil Rights Program

WASHINGTON — (NNPA) — President Kennedy laid considerable emphasis on the moral aspects of the civil rights problem at his luncheon meeting July 12 with six Governors.

He also discussed the Administration's tax cutting proposals and sought support for a number of other economic and social measures.

Those invited to the White House were Govs. John H. Chafee of Rhode Island, Albert D. Rosellini of Washington, John W. Reynolds of Wisconsin, William W. Barron of West Virginia, Terry Sanford of North Carolina, and John Anderson of Kansas.

At a meeting earlier in the week with 72 persons including some of the country's most powerful business and financial leaders, Mr. Kennedy said the civil rights issue was "a matter of great national importance."

He urged them to support his civil rights program now before Congress and said they could be helpful in opening up job opportunities to nonwhites.

FBI Activity, Accomplishments Said At New High

WASHINGTON — Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy announced this week that according to FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, new all-time highs were recorded in FBI accomplishments in all major phases of operations during the 1963 fiscal year.

Mr. Hoover disclosed in his report to the Attorney General that fines, savings and recoveries in cases investigated by the FBI during this period reached a new peak of $166,225,348 — a figure representing a return of $1.37 for every dollar appropriated for the FBI. A new record was also set for the eighth successive year with the location of 19,192 stolen motor vehicles in FBI cases.

During the past fiscal year, convictions in FBI cases increased to 12,816, the largest number for any peacetime fiscal year. Mr. Hoover noted that convictions were recorded against 96.1 per cent of all persons brought to trial and that 83 per cent of these resulted from guilty pleas. As a result of these convictions, slightly over 37,000 years of actual, suspended and probationary sentences were meted out. In addition, seven life sentences were imposed.

According to Mr. Hoover, a total of 11,887 FBI fugitives were located, an increase of 724 over the previous year. Included in this number were nine members of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives" list and 254 violators of the Fugitive Felon Act who were being sought at the request of state and local authorities after they had fled across state lines to avoid prosecution, custody or confinement.

Commenting on internal security investigations, Mr. Hoover pointed out that as a result of evidence developed and witnesses supplied by the FBI, the Communist Party, USA, was convicted in December, 1962, for failure to register with the Attorney General under the Internal Security Act of 1950 and a maximum fine of $100,000 was imposed. Following this action, two national leaders of this organization were indicted for failure to register for the Party and 27 additional petitions were filed with the Subversive Activities Control Board against individuals who failed to register as required by law. In addition, intelligence and counter-intelligence information disseminated by the FBI enabled the Department of State to take action against Soviet and satellite offices who engaged in activities beyond the scope of their duties in the United States.

New Civil Rights Group Includes Negro Lawyers

PHILADELPHIA — At least 11 Negroes are among the more than 100 leading lawyers who have volunteered to serve as members of the Lawyers' Committee on Civil Rights Under Law established in response to a recommendation by President Kennedy.

Announcement of the formation of the new committee was made here, July 10, in a joint statement issued by Bernard G. Segal, Philadelphia lawyer, and Harrison Tweed a New York attorney, who serve as co-chairmen of the committee at the President's request made at a White House conference on June 21.

The announcement came within a week after the NAACP convention in Chicago blasted the American Bar Association for failure to name a single Negro to its Committee on Civil Rights and Racial Unities. A resolution adopted at the Chicago convention charged that this failure revealed a "lack of understanding of the basic issues involved in the problem with which this committee is intended to deal."

Condemning the ABA "for its apparent erroneous assumption that only white people are competent and qualified to deal with a problem vitally affecting the rights of Negroes," the NAACP resolution called upon lawyers to volunteer to serve with the Segal-Tweed committee.

Among Negro lawyers serving on the committee are Mrs. Sadie T. M. Alexander, Philadelphia; Charles V. Carr, Cleveland; William T. Coleman, Philadelphia; Nathaniel S. Colley, Sacramento, Calif.; Isaiah W. Crippens, Philadelphia; W. J. Durham, Dallas; George E. C. Hayes, Washington; William R. King, Chicago; James M. Nabrit, Washington; Robert N. C. Nix Jr., Philadelphia; and Samuel R. Pierce, Jr., New York City.

Mr. Colley and Mr. King are members of the NAACP Board of Directors.

NAACP Board Sets Up Evers Memorial

CHICAGO — The Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People authorized the establishment of the Medgar Evers Memorial Freedom Fund at the Board's regular meeting held here during the Association's 54th annual convention, July 1-6.

The board action designated the new fund as an extension of the Freedom Fund established 10 years ago in response to a proposal advanced by the late Channing H. Tobias, then NAACP Board chairman. Money raised for the Medgar Evers Memorial Freedom Fund will be utilized, the Board resolution said, "to carry on the work for which Medgar Evers sacrificed his life."

An appeal was issued to all NAACP members and other friends of civil rights to contribute to the fund in order to accelerate the pace of the Freedom drive.

The assassination of Mr. Evers, the Association's field secretary for Mississippi, on June 12 was charged to the "vicious climate of opinion created by the White Citizens Councils and similar groups in the southern states" by a resolution.

ELEANOR

The word etiquette may be used interchangeably as manners, deportment or social conduct. Who needs to own a book of Etiquette? Everyone — everywhere!

Even from earliest childhood when one begins to learn to think and speak, one needs to conduct himself or herself with social grace and ease. It makes for greater happiness for all.

DINING AT RESTAURANT

(1) Who goes first into a restaurant, a lady or her escort? ANSWER: On entering a restaurant door, a lady goes first if there is an attendant to hold the door open for her, otherwise her escort precedes this service. Once inside, the man moves his companion out of the traffic, checks his things, then moves at her side, or slightly in advance, to the entrance to the dining room. There if the captain comes to meet them, the lady steps forward and follows him to the table indicated, allowing herself to be seated. If there is no captain her escort leads the way into the dining room, locates a table and seats his companion himself.

On leaving, the man goes first, making a pathway for the lady. If the captain comes forward to see them out, the man then steps back and lets the lady follow the captain. But an escorted lady is never left to make her way thru a crowded restaurant alone.

(2) Recently, I was a guest at a local restaurant. Accidentally, I overturned my tomato juice. What was the right thing to do? The waiter didn't see the accident immediately.

ANSWER: A waiter seeing such an accident would immediately change the cloth, or if that was impossible at a long table, would spread a clean napkin or small cloth over the spilled food. As the waiter did not do this because he was busy elsewhere at such a large luncheon, you could have spread a napkin over the spot yourself, without undue discussion of the incident. Everyone occasionally has things like this happen.

(3) My boy friend always insists on wiping off the table silver with his napkin when we go to restaurants, cheap or expensive. I claim it is just a bad habit with him. He insists it is sanitary precaution. Should he do this? ANSWER: He should not do this even in cheap restaurants. If the silver seems dirty (or sticky) he should quickly and very politely ask the waiter to replace it with clean silver. If there is any reluctance on the part of the waiter or of the manager, a complaint should be sent to the Department of Health. No one must, or who chooses to eat in a restaurant in this country need be exposed to

(4) What is the proper way to get the attention of a waiter or waitress in a restaurant? ANSWER: A good waiter or waitress is attentive at all times. The possible needs of the patron. All that should be necessary is a properly staffed restaurant is for the diner to lift his hand — or finger — in a summoning gesture. If this fails to get his attention the diner calls softly, "Waiter," "Waitress" (not Miss).

Glass rapping, a European pedient, should be resorted to only in desperation. You may also call another waiter or waitress to see yours.

(5) A date and I went to a neighborhood restaurant to eat dinner Sunday night. The only available seats were in a booth for four in which a lone man was already seated. I asked my date to ask the man to share the booth with us. My date said that was not correct and refused to do so. Was my date right? ANSWER: It depends on the policy of the restaurant. In a self-service restaurant, you take any available seat. In a restaurant with waiter or hostess, you wait to be assigned to seats. Most restaurants try to seat lone diners at tables for two or one, but where this is impossible, they usually do not ask that such accommodations as a booth be shared by strangers.

Under crowded conditions, restaurants sometimes ask men to share a table with another man but not with a woman in vice versa. I feel that your date was right and that essentially his objection was to having his privacy disturbed by a stranger. How could conversation be done under the circumstances? If you might have had an embarrassing situation had the stranger decided to join your conversation. This is a sort of thing that good restaurants try to avoid.

BLACK AND WHITE OINTMENT

SPORTS OF THE WORLD

By MARION E. JACKSON

Roy Campanella is the No. 1 candidate to follow Jackie Robinson into Baseball's Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y. The former Brooklyn Dodgers' catcher has almost legendary credentials to earn him admission. An all-time great in the Negro leagues and a super-star in the major leagues, Campy is deserving of the immortality his enshrinement will bring. Ty Cobb before his death said Roy couldn't miss and the chant has been taken up by baseball men throughout the country.

Perhaps the greatest boost for Campy is his record in the All-Star game. He was selected for the National League team for the first time in 1948. He was sent behind the plate in the fourth inning and he caught every other All-Star game until a hand injury prevented him from playing in 1954.

In All-Star play, Roy had a total of 43 consecutive innings. After a serious automobile injury cut short his career. It was ill-fated enough, that Campy never got a chance to play for the Dodgers, after the abandoned Brooklyn franchise on the West Coast.

Significantly enough, the Dodgers benefit for Campy following his ill-fated injury, stands in the record book as the biggest crowd to see an exhibition baseball game in history. An estimated 99,000 viewed the Campanella benefit in the Los Angeles Coliseum.

This was before the Dodgers switched to their multi-million dollar Chavez Ravine Stadium.

CAMPY'S FEATS ARE NUMEROUS

Named Most Valuable Player three times, 1951-53-55. Only catcher to lead the National League in runs batted in with 142 in 1953. Hit 41 home runs in 1953. Made Most potent as a catcher, 807 in 1953. Hit 29 or more home runs in six seasons, five in succession, and has a lifetime of 299. Hit three home runs in a game August 26, 1950.

Named to seven All-Star teams in eight years in the major leagues.

SPORTS BEAT: Gov. Carl Sanders, a one-time University of Georgia football player, has two games he likes to recall. He insists the two games showed him the value of teamwork.

Both games were played in 1945 after halfback great Charlie Trippi returned from military duty. When Trippi returned just before a game with Louisiana State University, Sanders said, Georgia was rated a sure-fire winner solely because of Trippi. But Georgia lost.

This, the governor said, demonstrates that "football is not a one-man game. However, Georgia beat Georgia Tech in the last game of the season, demonstrating the value of teamwork he said.

By this time Trippi had fit smoothly into the squad... proving... that a team effort—everybody pulling together—is always formidable.

FOOTBALL ACCOLADE: Highest tribute in U. S. football is the famed gold medal of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame.

It is awarded annually "for distinguished service and devotion to the game of American intercollegiate football.

There have been six recipients of this medal. Previous winners have been President John F. Kennedy, former president Dwight D. Eisenhower and Herbert Hoover and Gen. Douglas MacArthur. Quick now, tell me who was the foundation's award winner for 1953, and on what date was the presentation made?

Answer: You're correct if you selected Associate Supreme Court Justice Byron (Whizzer) White, All-American halfback at the University of Colorado in the mid-1930's, who was cited Dec. 4, 1962 at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York.

Actually, you might add that in 1960 a special medal was struck for Amos Alonzo Stagg, the grand old man of football, who will celebrate his 100th birthday August 16.

Justice White is living proof that academic and physical prowess go hand-in-hand. He was Grade-A in both categories.

As a triple-threat at Colorado, White was the nation's leading scorer in 1937 with 122 points while leading his team through an undefeated season and an invitation to the Cotton Bowl.

White's feats earned his second place in the Heisman Trophy balloting that year. That award was won by Clint Frank of Yale.

He joined the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League upon graduation, commanding a $15,000 salary in an era of pro football greats that included Bronko Nagurski, Don Hutson, Cliff Battles and Tuffy Leemans.

After the 1938 season, White accepted a Rhodes scholarship to further his education at Oxford University in England. He met President-to-be Kennedy in London during a diplomatic reception given by Kennedy's father who then was the U. S. ambassador to Britain.

Satchel Paige Boosted For Hall Of Fame

CHICAGO —(ANP)—A Chicago sports writer proposed last week that baseball make amends for its past color ban which kept ace pitcher Satchel Paige out of the major league until he was past his prime, by placing him in the Hall of Fame.

Writing in his daily column, "Wake of the News," in the Chicago Daily Tribune, writer Dave Condon, commented:

Satchel Paige's color kept him out of the majors until Bill Veck had the guts to bring him up in 1948. Paige then was 42 years old. "Let baseball not compound the injustice done Paige, one of the most skilled of all pitchers, and permit his color to keep him out of the Hall of Fame.

Despite his advanced age, Paige in 1948, helped pitched the Cleveland Indians to the American League pennant.

Before entering the majors, Paige pitched for the Kansas City Monarchs in the now defunct Negro the Kansas City Monarchs for many years. He is one of the most fabled pitchers in all baseball.

Paige, now believed to be near 60, is still semi-active in baseball.

SPARTANBURG, S. C. — (UPI)

Swift Strike 111 will begin with air maneuvers over an area bounded by Charlotte, N. C., Columbia, S. C., Augusta, Ga., and Greenville, S. C. The ground phase, involving mass parachute drops of men and equipment and mock battles, will follow across wide areas of the three states.

Johnson Bros., Wallace Jones Share First, Second Place Honors

By EMEL J. SCOTT, JR.

ATLANTA, Ga.—(SNS)—Roosevelt Johnson returned to the track Saturday night after being a four-time defeat on July 4 by Fireball. He was ready to take on "The Fox" for first place money.

On a time run Fox dropped a push rod and said he wasn't going to run since he was running on only seven cylinders. When the call went out for all super stock cars to come to the line, Roosevelt pulled up first showing that he was ready to go. By this time Fox had decided to run despite the fact that he was running on seven cylinders. The Northside boys racing teams Dodge Ram Charger was ready and Fox really wanted another crack at them because of the humiliation he took from them on July 4.

For first place money it was Roosevelt Johnson with his 427 Ford (White Lightning) against Wallace "Fox" Jones driving his 427 fiber glass Ford (Georgia Shaker No. 2). Despite Fox's trouble he moved off the line with Roosevelt and was neck and neck all the way, but Roosevelt took the chance of blowing up his engine and turned it tight as he could for he really wanted this one bad. He edged the Fox out a half car length at the finish line.

For second place it was Fox and Levern driving the Clowers, Daniels and Ray Dodge Ram Charger. Not it was time for Fox to undo what was done to him on the 4th. When the flag went up it was the Dodge out first, but Fox caught up and crossed the finish line first, leaving Little James driving the Dodge against Pete Lester...the Dodge won.

This Saturday night Frank "House" Heard will be at Fairburn to run Pete Lester and Little Jack. Houston Bros. Drag strip, Fairburn, Ga. Time trials, 7 p.m. eliminations, 9:30. $100.00, $75.00, $50.00, 25.00 There should be four places for super stock.

On July 14 $30.00 was given away for super stock class at the Yellow River Drag Strip, Covington, Ga. There will be drag racing every second and third Sunday. Time trials begin at 1 p.m.; eliminations 3 p.m. Fox said that he was sure of winning first place Monday over the Ram Charger as he was turning about 7500 r.p.m. on all four trials. But bad luck took the Fox again as he blew the engine on another time run.

For the first $100.00 it was Little Jack in his 63 409 Chevy against the Dodge. Little Jack has really gotten the bugs out of his Chevy. James Clowers beat Joe Johnson in the Dodge for second place $75.00 m.p.h., how about that!

Tenn. State's Harold Hunter To Conduct GIA Cage Clinic

By MARION E. JACKSON

ATLANTA, Ga.—(SNS)—Harold Hunter, youthful coach of the Tennessee A & I University Tigers, will conduct the basketball section of the Georgia Interscholastic Association Coaching Clinic, July 29-August 3 at Booker T. Washington High School.

Hunter, is a native of Kansas City, Kansas, where his interest in basketball was fired at North East Junior High School and Summer High School, before attracting the attention of Johnny B. McLendon, the latter then coaching at North Carolina College.

When McLendon departed Tennessee A & I State University to become the first Negro coach in the old National Industrial Basketball League, Hunter was ushered in as his successor for the 1953-54.

Since Hunter assumed his stardust assignment his teams have played a major university schedule that have seen tours that have carried to Hawaii, Pearl Harbor and Alaska.

The Blue and White Tigers, under Hunter have led all Negro colleges in miles traveled during a regular season.

Similarly, the Blue and White Tigers have played the nation's top collegiate quintets in meeting Seattle, Creighton, Canisius, Gannon, St. Francis, Western Illinois, Rochester, Pan-American, Mac Murray, Georgetown, Nebraska State, to name a few.

When the '53-54, campaign rolls around, Tennessee A & I University following a three-game homestand will fly to Honolulu for a three-game series with the University of Hawaii and then visit

Emile Griffith Predicts Win For Floyd Patterson

LAS VEGAS — Emile Griffith believes Floyd Patterson, seeking a third reign as heavy weight titleholder here against Sonny Liston on July 22, can make the grade. The closed circuit telecast of the match will be seen in Atlanta at the Municipal Auditorium.

Griffith qualifies as an expert on the subject. He already has performed Patterson's mission. Within one year he twice recaptured the waterweight championship. "It isn't an easy assignment," Emile volunteered, "who knows better than I do? But a fighter who's dedicated and who's willing to face up to his problems, he can do it. I think Floyd Patterson is that sort of man."

And Griffith's own experience has taught him that no two fighters are precisely the same in attitude when they collide a second time. "Winning the first time is his reward, naturally," he pointed out, "you're happy inside, you feel fulfilled, as they say. But it also takes something away from the return. It's difficult to avoid the feeling that all you have to do is show up to win again."

He applied this to Liston, who had such a romp at Patterson's expense in the first-round knockout at Chicago last year.

"Where is he going to get the steam up from? If he'd like anybody else, he won't find training as easy to take as he did when he didn't have the title. It means that somewhere along the line he'll lose a little of the tiger in him."

It is the other side of the coin that's a break for Patterson, he suggested.

"He won't have to push himself. The goal is there. Without thinking too much about it, he'll box a mile further on the road, he'll box a few extra rounds. It will be natural for him, as the ex-champ to put out more."

"Floyd knows the deal," he observed. "He went through it with himself with Ingemar Johansson and Johansson helped Patterson by his cocky attitude for the return. I wouldn't be surprised if Liston makes the same mistake. And, if he does, Floyd will be in a position to surprise the world—including Sonny."

"Dark-Horse" May Sweep Laurels In Georgia State Baseball Meet

ATLANTA, Ga.—(SNS)—An objective appraisal of the teams competing in the 15th annual Georgia State Baseball Championship Tournament, now being played at Hull Stadium, out in Dixie Hills, indicates that a "dark-horse" may walk off with the coveted laurels this year.

The defending champion Atlanta Panthers looked real sharp in rolling over the Douglasville Braves and Winston Pros. Other competing teams have also looked sharp and this can only mean possible trouble ahead and "rough sailing" for the Panthers.

The Panthers are scheduled to meet the tough Marietta Eagles in one of the big feature games Saturday and several other heated tilts are on deck for the fans. The Southern Flames will make their first appearance in the tournament Saturday when they clash with the East Point Giants; the Douglasville Braves and Atlanta Orioles will be trying to survive when they cross bats; and the Atlanta Red Wings and Hapeville Hawks will go all-out to keep from being eliminated when they

Defending Champion Atlanta Panthers In For "Rough Sailing"

EAGLES HAVE SCORE TO SETTLE WITH PANTHERS

The Marietta Eagles, who fell to the Atlanta Panthers in the recent play-off series of the Metropolitan District Tournament, have a score to settle with the defending champions and will be out to give them the works.

The Southern Flames, who lost their opener to the Eagles by forfeit, will be out to show the fans that they still have a great club. The East Point Giants, on the other hand, don't like the idea of being relegated to the sideline and will most likely come up with their best game of the year.

Both the Douglasville Braves and Atlanta Orioles will be striving to keep alive; and the same is true of the Atlanta Red Wings and Hapeville Hawks.

On Sunday, the fans will be in for another "knock-down-drag-out" thriller, when the East Point Mets and Forest Park Braves, friendly rivals of the Branch Rickey loop meet.

The pairings are as follows:

SATURDAY
10 a. m. — Southern Flames Vs. East Point Giants.
12 Noon — Douglasville Braves Vs. Atlanta Orioles.
2 p. m. — Atlanta Panthers Vs. Marietta Eagles.
4 p. m. — Atlanta Red Wings Vs. Hapeville Hawks.
SUNDAY
12 Noon — East Point Mets Vs. Forest Park Braves. Other games to be announced.

Hunter departed the pro ranks to take a job at Williston Industrial High School, Williston, N. C. Before Coach McLendon again called him to become franchise coach of Tennessee A & I State University. The Sixth Annual Coaching Clinic football section will spotlight John A. Merritt, head football coach, Tennessee A & I State University and his aides Joe W. Gilliam and Alvin C. Coleman.

The All-Star Basketball game will be played at Booker T. Washington High School, July 31. The All-Star Football Game is scheduled for August 1 in Herndon Memorial Stadium, Morris Brown College, N.W. 31st St.

35 Years Of Winged Rocket Flight

The age of manned rocket flight began on a spring day in 1928 when German auto manufacturer Fritz von Opel piloted a rocket-rigged glider more than a mile. The glider was towed aloft before the rockets fired.

To protect its oil refineries during the last days of World War II, Germany built an all-rocket powered fighter. Known as the Komet, the craft was capable of 6 to 8 minutes of powered flight at speeds over 500 m.p.h.

On October 14, 1947, America's first modern rocket plane, the X-1, carried a pilot faster than the speed of sound for the first time in history. The power plant was the first of a series built by Reaction Motors Division of Thiokol Chemical Corp.

The most powerful aircraft rocket engine flown is Thiokol's 57,000-pound thrust liquid engine now powering the famous history making X-15. This craft has been piloted to the edge of space at speeds of 4,000 m.p.h.

Next step in manned rocket craft is the X-20, which will be boosted into space by multi-stage launch vehicles, maneuver above the earth's atmosphere and return to land on a dry lake bed in California.

Along The Sports Trail

BY SAM BROWN

The heavyweight title bout between champion Sonny Liston and challenger Floyd Patterson will draw perhaps some 12,000 or 14,000 fans, however, other hundreds of thousands will view the proceedings by closed circuit across the country.

Although reports state that Patterson is working hard and taking the forthcoming return bout seriously, many experts feel that it will be just a matter of rounds before the former champ is again counted out. There will hardly be previous meetings, as Patterson will another one round affair as the likely stay away from the hard jobs the first few rounds.

We find that the majority of fans we encounter ALONG THE TRAIL, have already concluded Liston has too much artillery for the ex-champ and that he (Liston) will retain his title for several years. There are few heavyweights able to stand and take the Liston punishment, including the talkative Cassius of the House of Clay.

Maybe sometime in the near future heavyweight fighters will enter into contracts without the option that the champion must have a return fight, if he should happen to lose. We feel that although, this guarantees the loser another big gate, it also deprives another fighter a chance at the big money. We say, after losing, start out again and work up to the championship belt.

One of the most interested spectators of the heavyweight match will likely be the above mentioned Cassius Clay, contender for the heavyweight title. Clay, it is understood, has already challenged the winner, and would likely draw a bigger gate than the coming bout. He is asking for only a cool million American dollars. The boy has an eye for business. At any rate, he stands as a frightening shadow for both fighters.

The Fourth of July is past and the major leagues are in full swing. The end of the first half of the pennant race. The consensus is that the teams leading the leagues July 4 usually go on to capture the pennant. There have been a few exceptions, however.

With this holding true this year, the Los Angeles Dodgers will meet the New York Yankees in the 1963 World Series, as both teams were leading their leagues on these prophetic dates. The Dodgers have perhaps the best pitching staff in the majors, along with speed and clutch hitting. The Yankees have been without the services of their two sages, Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle, yet have been able to increase their lead.

A few days ago the veteran Earlly Wynn scored the 300th victory of his pitching career after having that charmed number slide several times. He now joins that select group of hurlers who won 300 or more games during their careers. For some reason, perhaps sentimentality, we were pulling for the pitcher to reach his goal.

This recalls one of our own veteran baseball players whose exploits in Negro baseball leagues are legendary. We refer to Homer (Goose) Curry who is practically known by all baseball fans hereabouts, young and old. Still a lover of the game, and a scout as well as manager and promoter, Curry's old stars played a member of the Semi-Pro League a few Sundays ago, with the mighty "Goose" pitching the first three innings for his team.

Many of the oldtimers were on hand for the game, including several players now retired who once played with Curry and on teams he later managed. Some of these included several former Old Memphis Red Sox players including Larry Brown, Fred Bankhead, Jim Ford, Frank Pearson, and Frank Thompson. All stated, that Curry looked like the Curry of old just not as fast.

Round 'N Round With Golfing

By PRESTON JONES

It seems to me that your golfing pleasures would be increased if you would go to some golf course and practice. There are more people playing golf now than ever before. Even the teen-agers are learning to play, but there are so few that maybe you should take your boy or girl with you to learn to play.

On last Sunday, one of our players, Lester Price, made history for the city of Memphis. He played a game at Overton Park. He came up with the longest hole-in-one in the history of this city. He made a hole-in-one on a 262 yard green using a driver. This has never been done before in Memphis. Mr. Price received many compliments for this magnificent shot. He was playing with Mr. Thomas James, Mr. James Jefferson and Mr. Charles Page. They were all surprised at the feat.

By the way, the game itself was very interesting — it was witnessed by both white and colored spectators. Why don't you try your hand at golfing. Your name may land in the next issue of the Memphis World. The watchful eye is looking in on your game.

See you next week.

Semi-Pro League News

By J. D. WILLIAMS

The clouds of bickering among officials seems to be clearing up. Manager's side of the story: game time changes cause headaches for skippers.

THIS WEEK'S ACTIVITIES:

A full schedule is on tap for this weekend. And some very important games are coming up that might have a lot of bearing on this year's championship. The Angels of Klondyke are the hottest team in Division Four.

The Memphis Lions and the Flamingo Carriers are running neck and neck in division one. Now it seems that Light, Gas, and Water will coast through the second half in Division Three. The Magnolia Eagles are in complete control of Division Two. That is unless the Delite Giants can derail their championship train. In this week's scheduled games:

The Lions will face a reckless bunch of unpredictable from North Memphis, and if Willie B. can get them in bed Friday night at a reasonable hour — there may be trouble Saturday.

Anderson Tully will be no match for the Carriers.

Light, Gas, and Water should smother the Tigers.

The Cash Gems and the Army Depot should win their games easily.

AND IN SUNDAY'S GAMES

The Dodgers will bounce back on their poor showing last Sunday at Bellevue. Why "Pat" gave his old buddy such a drubbing is beyond me. Final score: Angels-15, Dodgers-0. The Blues will take the Athletics in to get back on the winning trail, after losing four straight games. And the Angels playing at home to take the Red Sox in a close one.

The change from 7:30 at night to 7 p m and from 1:30 to 1 p m is certainly proving a headache for the managers. Why? The managers want to know why the change. Some of the players work until 12 a. m on Saturday or until 7 p m in the evening and with the proper transportation this works quite a hardship on their meeting their schedule. Something should be done to correct this.

After all, it is supposed to be done in the name of recreation. Remember? Also, many of the managers are saying that the umpires are watching their wrist watches instead of the baseball games. Maybe there would be less forfeits. For the time being, at least since a number of baseball officials are out of time, a truce has been called in effect — at least among the top officials. We hope this continues.

A doubleheader softball game is on tap for Bellevue Park first game starting at 2 p m. Four of the top women softball teams will tangle in a doubleheader. So if you want to see these ladies in shorts swing a bat, here is your chance. Here are the scores:

SATURDAY
Magnolia Eagles 18, Postal Colt 3.

Humko (Thomas St.) 6, Federal Compress Blues 5.
Klondyke Angels 15, Bar - o-tie Dodgers 0.
Mid - West Red Sox 8, Klondyke Athletics 6.

Plans are in the making to bring an all star game here for two games July 28 and the 29. A team from Greenwood Miss. will also come later.

Last week three players were signed by scouts from the big league for try-outs. Harvey Branch is now pitching for the Atlanta Crackers and is doing all right. Best of luck Harvey, keep up the good work.

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The Senate constitutional rights subcommittee Wednesday approved a proposal for a four-year extension for the U. S. Civil Rights Commission.

It was the first section of President Kennedy's civil rights package to win subcommittee approval. The 5-1 Judiciary Committee. Sen. Kenneth Keating, R-N.Y., said he would resume his fight before the full committee to have commission made a permanent agency.

By a tie vote, the subcommittee defeated Keating's amendment to make the commission permanent.

Besides giving new life, the bill would make the commission a clearing house for civil rights problems. Its present duties are to hear racial discrimination complaints and make recommendations to the President and Congress. Chairman

James O. Eastland of the Judiciary Committee has scheduled hearings on the administration civil rights package Tuesday.

Keating, noting that the term of the commission expires Sept. 30, said he would ask Eastland's committee to handle Wednesday's bill separately.

Southern members of the Judiciary Committee are expected to keep the commission proposal as part of the omnibus civil rights package to delay its enactment.

Sen. Javits Applauds Rockefeller's Stand

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Sen. Jacob K. Javits, applauding the stand of fellow New Yorker Nelson A. Rockefeller, said Tuesday the GOP "radical right" must be blocked if the two-party system is to continue.

In a related development, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon said "The extreme right wing is behind Sen. Barry Goldwater now. But I do not think he is one of them. And I am sure he must regard them as a liability just as I do."

The comments of Javits, made in a Senate speech, and of Nixon, who is in Europe, were prompted by Gov. Rockefeller's weekend statement attacking the right wing of the Republican party and the strategy of those who want to nominate Goldwater for president.

Goldwater supporters are viewing Rockefeller's statement as formal notice that the governor remains a presidential candidate despite the flurry of controversy surrounding his recent remarriage.

But Javits told the Senate that "Those who view the governor's statement as merely a political gambit or an opening gun in the presidential sweepstakes are underestimating its importance. They are running away from the issues and the challenge which Gov. Rockefeller has presented."

PART OF STRUGGLE
The liberal New York Republican said Rockefeller's stand was part of "a struggle for the soul of the Republican party." This contest, he said, is not a family quarrel but "a national struggle."

"The success of the radical right, which is boring from within the Republican party and seeking to take it over, using the imminent presidential campaign as a vehicle, will determine whether the two-party system in the United States can continue," Javits said.

"To continue a viable two-party system," he added, "neither major party can leave the mainstream of American political thought and this is true without regard to liberal or conservative principles . . ."

Nixon, talking to a reporter in Frankfurt, Germany, said "It's true that the extreme right wing - the nuts or the kooks as we call them

No wonder the English keep so cool! (mix Gordon's Gin in a tall, iced drink—and you will, too!) The English are not easily fazed, even by summer heat. This national talent was given a cheerful accompaniment in 1769, when Alexander Gordon introduced his remarkable gin. The Gordon's you drink today hark back to his original formula, because one does not tamper with gin of such distinctive dryness and delicate flavour. Try it soon in a tangy Gin & Tonic or Tom Collins. You'll see why Gordon's is the biggest seller in England, America, and the world.
