POLITICAL AFTERMATH: Prominent white politician tongue-lashed prominent Negro politician as final votes came in, accusing Negro politician of causing defeat of William Farris in mayoralty race. Sideliners are now saying Ben Hooks could have won his race for city judge if he had campaigned for "Me and Ingram" . . . W. W. Walker, who stumped for Sheriff Hinds in the mayor's race, approached a bunch of sulking politicians the morning after the election and said: "I've got a reservation on the first plane out of town. Do you fellows want me to make reservations for you, too?" . . . One campaign headquarters ran short of money. The head man didn't get what he expected from candidates his unit supported. . . . A recent candidate and a behind-the-scenes politician have been notified by their respective wives that they'll soon need to call diaper service. . . . Four Negro candidates put out about 50,000 bumper stickers during the campaign. . . . And, in case you didn't know it, just about half of the nearly 70,000 registered Negro voters stayed at home on election day.

BLUES BOWL HEADACHE: Blues Bowl officials' hopes of re-matching the 1963 prep football league co-champions, Booker T. Washington and Melrose, in a championship game were dashed this week when it was learned that the two schools are seeking permission from the Board of Education to promote such a contest themselves. If the Board grants permission, the game will be played next week and should draw another 6,000 fans.

SAN FRANCISCO — (ANP) — The American College of Surgeons, one of the leading medical organizations in the world, celebrated its 50th anniversary here last week.

It was significant that it admitted this year the largest number of Negro fellows (10) in its history as they in turn were witnessing the 100th year of the Emancipation Proclamation.

Dr. Danel Hale Williams of Chicago, pioneer surgeon, famed as one of the first surgeons to operate on the human heart, was the first Negro member of the American College of Surgeons. He was inducted in 1913. Dr. Louis Tompkins Wright of New York was the second.

Then after a lapse of several years our surgeons were admitted to membership. These were Drs. Peter M. Murray of New York, Ulysses G. Dalley, Rescoe C. Giles and Carl Glinis Roberts, all of Chicago.

There's A Vacant Seat At Melrose

There's a vacant seat in one of the classrooms at Melrose this week. One of the school's 12-year-old students, Annull Lassal Simmons of 1007 South McLean, son of Mrs. Barbara Simmons, died Sunday afternoon of head injuries received after he dashed into the side of a moving automobile on Castalia near Worthington.

The accident occurred around 12:18 p. m. and the boy died at 2 p. m. ni surgery at John Gaston Hospital.

Driver of the car was Mrs. Gail Beryl Cate, 28, of 2047 Nelson. She was going south on Castalia. She said she was traveling about 25 miles per hour. No charges were filed.

Witnesses said the boy had been talking to several other boys across the street and then just suddenly dashed into the side of the car. He apparently made the dash before seeing the approaching car. His head hit the rear of the car's front door.

Another Rum Store For Park Avenue

The five-man Alcohol Licensing Commission voted 3-2 in secret balloting last week to approve transfer of the Mr. Bourbon Whiskey Store from 1218 Jackson to 2393 Park.

The vote came about four weeks after the same board deadlocked, 2-2.

Sch. Bd. Answers NAACP

Several weeks ago, the Memphis NAACP Branch submitted questions to the Board of Education. One of the questions asked the number of skilled Negroes currently employed by the Board or currently employed on building projects of the Board.

Schools Superintendent E. C. Stimbirt this week gave the following reply:

"This is a difficult question to answer because statistics do not stand still. It is impossible to state the exact number working on any particular day because it would require a survey of all general contractors and sub-contractors. It would also involve a substantial period of time and the number of employees would undergo a considerable change during that period.

"The principal use of skilled Negro construction mechanics is in the cement finisher classification. We employ cement finishers by the hour for specific jobs and they are obtained through the business agent of the Local Construction Trades Union. Sometimes we will have as many as three or four cement finishers on a particular job being performed by the maintenance department and 80 to 90 per cent of the time, the mechanics supplied are Negroes. We work on somewhat of a formal agreement

William Trent Is Leaving UNCF

NEW YORK — William J. Trent Jr., head of the United Negro College Fund since its founding in 1944, has been named assistant personnel director for Time Inc. President James A. Linen and UNCF Executive Committee Chairman Dr. Frederick D. Patterson.

Mr. Trent will join the Time Inc. staff on January 1, but will continue to assist the College Fund until the current $50 million United Negro Colleges Development campaign is completed early in 1964.

Power Structure Among Negroes Makes Big Shift

One had to look all the way to Orange Mound the morning after the city election to find a Negro political leader with a smile on his face. The smile belonged to O. Z. Evers, Jr. who threw his Unity League behind Judge William B. Ingram, Jr. in the three-man race for Mayor. There was nothing but gloom however on Vance and Linden avenues and Beale Street, headquarters for stronger Negro political chiefs who had given their full strength to mayoralty candidates who failed to catch the fancy of the voters.

The defeated politicians, still licking their wounds, are now wondering where does Mr. Evers go from here. Will he have the ear of the new Mayor? Will he be the one to recommend Negroes for top jobs, if there be any?

At the moment, Mr. Evers is about the only top Negro politician on speaking terms with Mayor-elect Ingram. Negro political spokesmen in other camps lashed and threatened Mr. Ingram during the campaign just ended.

But the defeated politicians are inclined to believe that Mr. Evers cannot demand too much of Mr. Ingram even if he is in the enviable position that he is. They point to the fact that:

1. Mr. Ingram was supported by a large bloc of segregationists as well as Negroes.
 2. Mr. Ingram already had the support of large numbers of Negroes who opposed Commissioner Bill Farris because they thought Mr. Farris had not been fair in a dispute over several discharged sanitation men.
 3. Mr. Ingram had won the applause of some Negroes whenever he bawled out city policemen in his city courtroom.
- But, it still is an important fact that Mr. Evers is the only Negro political leader who threw his support behind Mr. Ingram.
- The Ingram victory boosted the Evers image considerably. Mr. Evers already had gained recognition as a fighter for equal rights and as the C. O. R. E. leader here.

History Is Made By Hooks, Price Election

History was made in the City Election last week by two Negro candidates — Ben L. Hooks, lawyer, minister and public defender, and Price, president of LeMoyné College.

Both passed the 40,000 highest number of votes received by Negroes in the race for local offices.

Attorney Hooks was Judge of City Court given a total of 40,916 in his bid for the School Board.

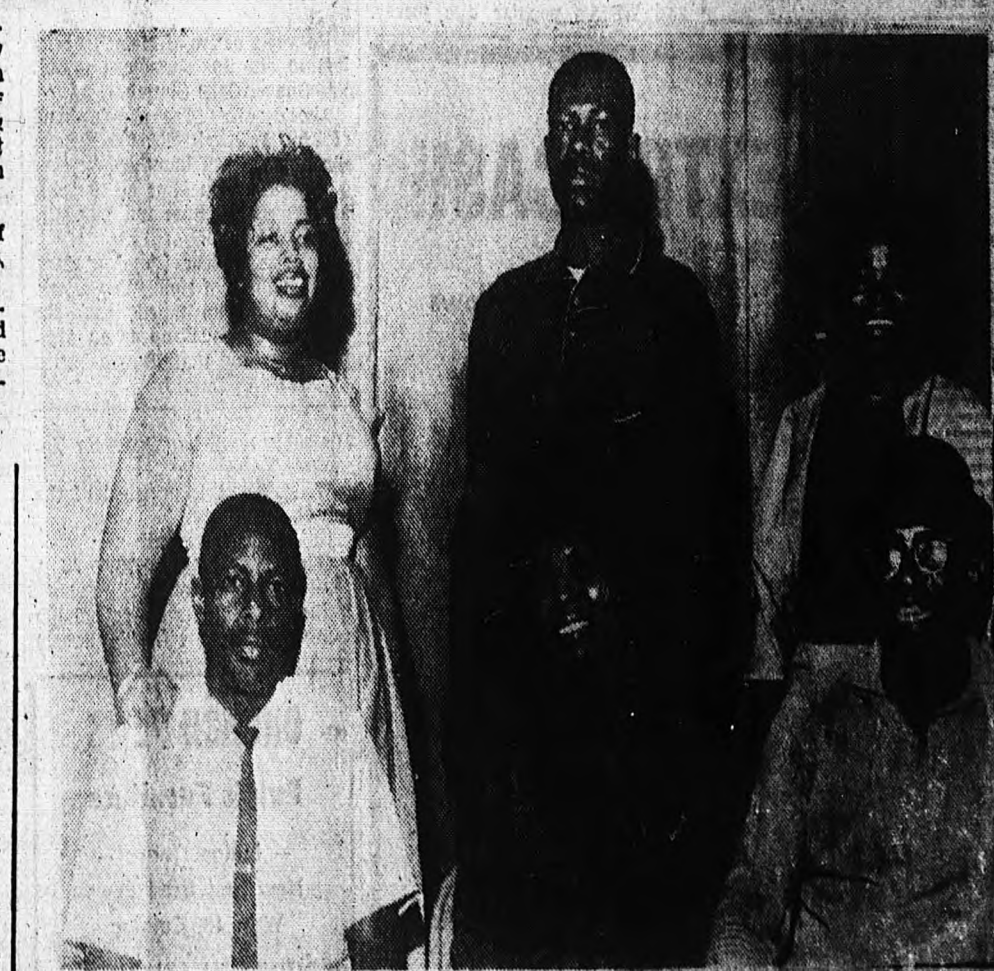

Atty. Russell Sugamont the high mark in 1959, polled 39,000 in his unsuccessful race against William Farris for Commissioner or Public Works.

Dr. Price, with nearly 10,000 white votes to his credit, bowed to the incumbent, Edgar H. Bailey, 61,019. Only two were entered in this race.

Atty. Hooks lost to Atty. Ray W. Churchhill by a mere 1,261 votes.

City Society

By JEWEL G. HULBERT

THE UNION PROTECTIVE INSURANCE BUILDING is Memphis' newest and surely one of the prettiest new spots in Memphis, built on the reclaimed Mississippi Blvd. once Memphis' Parkway ... and for sure the popular street again, but for business this time ... The handsome building makes another distinctive contribution to Memphis and it was designed to enhance modern furnishings brilliant colors in its architectural details. The Contemporary Classic Elegance of the three floor building is the Home Office of Union Protective, headed by Mr. Lewis H. Twigg, Sr., president and founded by the late Mr. H. D. Whalum ... The crowning splendor to this beautiful spot is seen in the luxurious carpets (wall to wall) and the fine paneled walls in the Executive offices with its rich textures and the flowing colors ... But the real elegance is seen in Mr. Twigg's office (that opens up into a long conference room that overlooks two streets through lots of big window areas ... Other inviting spots are the Assembly Room (to be also used for small dances and parties) with its warm colors of red, green, blue accents, gold tangerine and off black seats ... The place was built for compactness, private (where its needed) and livability ... with a handsome ultra modern front ... However, a rear view of the building gives one an understanding of its size and it is a large building. Even from the street, one notices the bold patterned draperies that immediately gets one's attention. Watching for the "Opening Date" in this paper.

POLICE OFFICERS AND FIREMEN GIVE ANNUAL FORMAL IN BRILLIANT SETTING

North Hall of Ellis Auditorium — was made into a setting fit for a King when these Memphis Officers entertained friends at their annual Fall formal Friday evening.

The Ball was dedicated to Commissioner Claude Armour who expressed his gratitude ... as he paid tribute to the Negro Officers and praised highly Officer Wendell Robinson saying that they deserved that they have received.

It was that vertical "Nat" Williams who was M. C. for the evening. "Nat" presented Officer Wendell Robinson (oldest in service along with Officer Whitney) and Mr. Robinson in turn presented Mr. Armour.

There were many City Officials and prominent figures on hand ... among those presented and mentioned were Sheriff Hines, Mr. Phil Canale, Mr. A. Maceo Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bates, Mr. Kaye Ellis, United States Marshall, Mr. Jack Humes, Mr. William J. Rainey, Dr. Hollis Price, Mr. William Epstein, Mr. James C. Preston Jones Visits Daughter

Preston Jones (Round and Round with Golfing) made a trip to Rockford College, Rockford, Ill. to visit his daughter, Miss Carole Jones, a student at college, in observance of Dad's Day. Miss Jones is a former student of Hamilton High School.

The college had planned a very interesting program, including many sports contests between Rockford and Aurora College of Chicago. Among the contests were soccer, hockey and cross country meets. Mr. Jones met several students including many from foreign countries.

Officers presented by "Nat" Williams (in line of their seniority) were Detective R. G. Turner and Detective Wendell, both with the Memphis Police Force since 1948 ... Detective J. D. Williams who started in 1949 ... Patrolman E. C. Jones, 1949 ... Detective Thomas Marshall, who came in in 1951 ... Detective "Ben" Whitney, 1951 ... Patrolman E. S. Berkley who was added in 1951.

On the return trip, Mr. Jones stopped in Chicago to visit with his brother-in-law, W. P. McFarland, and was shown many courtesies by Mr. and Mrs. Booker T. Wormly and Rev. Branham.

Courses Listed

The Memphis Board of Education in cooperation with the State Department of Education has approved the establishment of an Area Vocational-Technical School. This school is designed to serve residents of Memphis and surrounding counties in areas where such training is not available.

The school furnishes tuition-free post-high school vocational technical training to legally out-of-school adults. Entrance will be scheduled on the basis of a qualifying entrance exam and date of application. There are no age limits or race restrictions. Present classes are held daily on an evening basis. Length and time required for each course depends on the area of study and the individuals' ability to progress.

The Memphis Area Vocational-Technical School is now taking student applications for courses in the following areas (other areas will be opened as the need reveals itself): Auto Mechanics, Machine Shop, Radio-Television Repair and Service, Drafting, Refrigeration and Air-Conditioning Service, Small Gas Engine Service, General Sales Training, Office Machine Repair and Service.

Interested applicants may contact Milton Phillips, phone 452-7413, station 211, or write directly to the Memphis Area Vocational-Technical School, Memphis Board of Education, 2597 Avery Ave., Memphis 11, Tenn., for information.

They were joined by Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin, Jr. (the Mr. Walker's room-mate at Fisk and long time friend) and both Memphians ... Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Filand, he a former Memphian and friend of long standing and Mrs. Eliland who made frequent trips to Memphis.

One of the brilliant affairs that the Memphians and their party of friends attended was the National Urban League's Ball, top of the RCA Building in Rockefeller Center as guests of that nationally known Mollie Moon and her husband, Mr. Henry Moon. It was here that they saw Josephine Baker (here from Paris). Other celebrities seen in the audience were Clara Ward (with the famed Gospel Singers) ... and Jimmy Randolph starring now on Broadway ... The group went to the "Village Gate" to see Carmen McCrene ... to Bon Soir in the Village ... and took in French, Italian, and a New Orleans Restaurant where Creole dress was the real attraction. Another evening they took in an Arab Spot ... and the Arabian dress was fantastic (we are told) ... We were not surprised that shopping was in order early in the day ... with Fifth Avenue near by. The last evenings were spent at New York's "Play Boy" and at Sardi's East, where the Stars hang out ... Mrs. Walker took Miss Linda Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Johnson, out one day. Miss Johnson is now a freshman at Columbia University.

She is a teacher in the Jackson City School System.

John W. Bumpus Taken By Death

JOHN BUMPUS

John W. Bumpus, a long time active member of Collins Chapel C. M. E. Church, died Oct. 12 at his home, 302 Ashland after an illness of more than three years. Mr. Bumpus was born in Covington, Tenn., and came to Memphis at an early age, joining Collins Chapel.

His career in the church lasted more than 50 years and he served the church more than a half century. He was church treasurer for more than 35 years ... and retired from this duty in 1959 on the account of falling health. Mr. Bumpus was employed in the custodial service at DeSoto Station Post Office for over 28 years ... and when he retired in 1949, he received a "Complimentary Letter" for faithful service rendered. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mattie Bumpus, a sister and a brother.

Centenary Pays Tribute To Two

Centenary Methodist Church at Mississippi and Alton, presided by the Rev. J. M. Lawson, Jr., climaxed Centenary Week last Sunday evening by presenting Christian Service Awards to two of its long-time members — Mrs. E. J. Cox and Harry Ratcliffe.

The two honorees, who were selected by members of the official board by secret ballot, were presented engraved plaques. Mrs. Cox is the widow of a former minister of Centenary and Mr. Ratcliffe is a retired letter carrier.

The church's financial effort during the week brought in $3,000. The closing Sunday program also featured Mrs. Claire Collins Harvey as secretary of the Methodist General Board of Christian Social Concerns. She highlighted her address with slides.

Dr. D. T. Jackson of Holly Springs, Miss. was guest speaker for the opening Sunday program, Nov. 10.

St. Thomas Members Guests Friday At Tabernacle Baptist

St. Thomas Baptist Church's pastor and congregation will be guests of the Tabernacle Community Church, 303 Cynthia, Friday night, Nov. 15, for a special service that begins at 8. Rev. P. L. Johnson is the pastor. Rev. E. D. Johnson is pastor of the visiting church.

St. Thomas, located at 377 East Butler St., will observe annual "Harvest Day" Sunday, Nov. 17. The theme will be taken from 2nd Corinthians, 9:7.

Highlighting the 3 p. m. service will be an address by Mrs. Ann Turner, an able speaker and member of Olivet Baptist Church. Each member is asked to donate $5.00 for the Harvest Day program.

Teachers Told: 'Push C Students'

JACKSON, Tenn. — Cornell Wells, principal of E. A. Harold Junior High School in Millington, was re-elected president of the West Tennessee Educational Congress meeting here last weekend.

Vice President John L. Davis of Jackson and all other officers were re-elected. More than 3,000 attended the sessions.

One of the featured speakers was Bert Ferguson, vice president and general manager of WDIA in Memphis. "Try to see the 'C' student as a solid addition to the nation's future," he told the teachers.

Mr. Ferguson said everything possible must be done to advance the A-student. But, in pushing these potential leaders, the C-students should not be ignored. He pointed out that leaders must have efficient followers. And that much of the work of the world is done by those who had C-averages in high school or college.

Way Apparently Cleared For Medgar Evers Slay Suspect To Stand Mississippi Trial

Court Orders Suspect To Jail For Proceedings

JACKSON, Miss. — (UPI) — Mississippi's highest court ruled Tuesday that the accused slayer of integration leader Medgar Evers cannot be given a mental examination over his objections.

The 6-3 decisions by the State Supreme Court apparently cleared the way for an early trial for Byron de la Beckwith, 42-year-old white segregationist.

The legal action here was but one of several racial cases brought before the courts Tuesday.

At Mobile, Ala., the federal government lost a first round bid for an injunction that would have prevented an Alabama grand jury from investigating why free government transportation was provided for integration leader Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Government attorneys immediately went to the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans with the case.

At Greensboro, N. C., a federal court was asked to dismiss a desegregation suit filed by more than 100 Negroes against the Cabarrus County Board of Education. The dismissal was asked by the school board on grounds that authorities have already agreed to lower racial barriers next September.

At Lexington, N. C., three young Negroes pleaded innocent to second-degree murder charges that resulted from a June 6 race riot in which a white mechanic was killed and a newspaper photographer injured.

Charges against the three suspects—William Chester Johnson, Joe Poole and Roosevelt N. Smith—were reduced Monday from first to second degree murder.

RESIGNS FROM COMMISSION In still another racial development in the Tar Heel State, the chairman of the Human Relations Commission in High Point, N. C., resigned Tuesday, less than a month before a racial truce is scheduled to end.

Officials said they did not know what effect the resignation of Arnold Koonce would have.

Koonce said he quit because of "personal commitments and business duties."

Beckwith was committed to a Mississippi state mental hospital last July for an examination to determine whether he was mentally capable of standing trial for the slaying of Evers.

But a few days later Circuit Judge O. H. Barnett of Carthage, on request of the defense, ordered Beckwith removed from the hospital and placed in the Rankin County Jail at Brandon to await trial. The state then appealed to the Supreme Court.

OFFICERS WERE ORDERED By the Supreme Court to return Beckwith to the Hinds County jail here "for further proceedings" in the case against him.

Beckwith is accused of the sniper shooting of Evers, who was state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People NAACP. Evers was killed last June 12 at the height of a series of racial demonstrations.

Beckwith was arrested several days later.

problem. It has tried in many ways to improve the status of Negro citizens.

"Many steps the administration would like to take must be secured through Congress. With die-hard Democratic segregationists in the South and indifferent Republicans from white districts in the North, it is no simple matter to get from Congress all that Mr. Farmer might desire. It has to be a matter of giving and taking.

Gov. Rockefeller, A Great American, Announces For The Republican Nomination

The announcement of Governor Nelson Aldrich Rockefeller of New York as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency of the United States opens a new and brilliant chapter in national politics.

For some time the word had been awaiting on this front and now the silence is broken with the historic statement coming from the governor in person.

Be it said here and now there is "a fine hat" in this ring and one that will receive a ready response from all over the nation.

It will mean renewed interest in the whole fabric of politics and government and will from now on produce interesting news on the political front of the nation.

We are happy over the decision of Gov. Rockefeller to formally announce his campaign to get the Republican nomination because he is well qualified to lead this nation and his entry may tend to eliminate the race issue from the campaign.

Moreover, the voters will now have an opportunity to get a clearer view between the position of the Governor and that of Senator Goldwater on the different domestic and foreign questions.

This is a healthy situation because there will perhaps be an intense contest between these two indicated aspirants for the presidential nomination. The voters, we hope, are in for an interesting and informative period right up to National Convention time next July.

Gov. Rockefeller was by no means a novice in politics and government when he came to the governorship of New York. He served under three presidents with distinction in strategic posts of technical coordinator. He wrote his name indelibly across the lintels of the country and going through that rigid task as governor at Albany, New York, his mettle has been further proven.

Governor Rockefeller's family has been long known also in the area of education and philanthropy. When one thinks of the great University of Chicago, brainchild of his illustrious grandfather, and Spelman College and the many gifts to various institutions of learning all across the country, there is added another important chapter in the annals of the Rockefeller family.

Sen. Russell Bolts Argument Of GOP Alliance With Southern Democrats

Georgia Sen. Richard B. Russell, refutes an old time argument that Republicans are traditionally partners with conservative Southern Democrats in blocking progressive legislation, particularly in the field of civil rights.

Charging that Republicans are "moving forward in lock step" with Democratic leaders in support of President Kennedy's civil rights package, Sen. Russell centered his fire on GOP leader Charles A. Halleck and House GOP whip Leslie C. Arends with a harshness and anger rarely heard in a Veterans Day address.

Admittedly, the compromise measure which has emerged in the House of Representatives must have Democratic and Republican support, if it is to become law. This is also true in the Senate. Thereby, agreement is necessary to win approval before both branches of Congress.

Republicans and Democrats adopted planks in their 1960 platforms endorsing civil rights. Therefore, it is necessary and essential to have cooperation if there is to be fulfillment of their civil rights pledges, regardless of how Senator Russell views the civil rights issue.

Straight Talk

The Pittsburgh Courier of the 26th instant carries an article from the pen of P. L. Prattis columnist for the Courier and the Associated Negro Press. The article is so sane and sensible and searching that I feel that it will do our cause good to pass it on and on.

"We are in great need of such deep and penetrating insight into the current revolution — straight talk.

Says Mr. Prattis: "Who is leading us? Do we have one leader or group of leaders, who can lead and control the social revolution now taking place in American life? Are they prepared to lead to victory-or to Goldwater and loss of gains already made? Are our presumed leaders leading or are they following the way the popular wind is blowing?"

"Granted that this revolution was set in motion by the younger generation, does this generation, by and of itself, have the maturity and wisdom to prevail against the artifices of the willful opposition? This I doubt.

It is Adam Clayton Powell leading us? Mr. Powell recently boasted 'We have the white man on the run; let's keep him that way.' Is this the feeling of most wise and prudent Negroes? And even if it were the feeling should it be expressed?"

U. S. Refuses To Dismiss Jekyll Island Complaint

Georgia's efforts to halt desegregation at state-owned Jekyll Island suffered a blow this week when U. S. District Judge Frank A. Hooper refused to order Negro plaintiffs to name private leasees as defendants in their suit.

Attorney Derrick Bell, representing seven Negroes who are seeking to desegregate the Savannah resort site, charged that his inability to get a complete list of all persons and businesses leasing property on the island was his reason for not submitting more names.

Freeman Leveritt, who has argued for the state in most of its efforts recently to maintain segregation, had contended that persons leasing property on the island were indispensable parties, and had asked Judge Hooper to require inclusion or dismissal the suit.

Judge Hooper refused to dismiss the suit. He told the Negro plaintiffs that their injunction naming only Jekyll State Park Authority and state officials might be difficult to enforce against private business leasing property from the state.

Started Education Late, Now Top Officer In North

CHICAGO — (ANP) — A 30-year-old Mississippi-born Negro who didn't start his formal education until he was inducted into the Marine Corps, is top cop in an area two times larger than Chicago and with twice as many people as Detroit.

He is Capt. Horace Noble, recently made commander of No. 2 Division in Cook County under Sheriff Richard Ogilvie.

With a staff of 60 persons, eight of whom are Negroes, Noble is responsible for law and order in the district that comprises 460 square miles that includes 57 suburban towns and villages with a population of roughly 3,000,000. His headquarters is at Homewood, Ill.

He quickly learned police work, and within a year, was promoted to detective. He rose to the rank of sergeant in five years. He said he profited from watching other crack policemen at work. He learned quite a bit from another Negro, Capt. Kinzie Bluit. Bluit is commander of Chicago's Wabash Avenue police station, which governs the largest police district in the world. Bluit is also the only member of his race to hold such a position in the city.

Noble has an IQ of 132 (158 is genius) and it has aided him immeasurably in his rise to the top. In fact it was a merit system instituted by Chicago Police Supt. Orlando Wilson and a similar one by Ogilvie that enabled Noble to acquire his present position so quickly.

After his advancement in the Chicago police force, Noble, who had never been on a sheriff's staff before, passed a series of mental and psychological tests and landed his present job. So far he has had the cooperation of the men under him, as well as of the people in the Maple Park community in which he lives.

Teachers Urged To Shape Training For Future Needs

ATLANTIC CITY — An urgent call to New Jersey educators, along with those throughout the nation, to press for more realistic training of student counselors related to current changes in job requirements and possibilities was voiced here Friday by Mahlon T. Puryear of New York, associate director of the National Urban League.

Mr. Puryear heads the League's "National Skills Bank" program, to be launched Tuesday in five key centers across the country. The program is designed to seek out, classify and provide qualified Negro workers from which American industry and commerce can draw to meet its manpower needs.

Addressing a luncheon meeting of the New Jersey Organization of Teachers in the Madison Hotel, Mr. Puryear described as vital the need for education to strive toward giving counselors in training broader and more realistic training opportunity "to learn about the world of work and the changes that are taking place in job requirements of our time."

"It must be made mandatory that persons who counsel Negro youth learn fully the problems confronting Negro youth," declared Mr. Puryear.

"They must be thoroughly familiar with the ambitions, aspirations, family life and backgrounds of the Negro youth they are charged to guide and counsel. It is imperative that these services be up-dated, and increased at all levels of community action."

He stressed as imperative the need for the Negro community itself to utilize all available resources for erasing the traditional barriers to education and opportunity that still block Negro citizens from full participation in national progress, and called for special attention to the problems of Negro adults who, through no fault of their own, lack the basic skills and education to pursue retraining programs.

"Teachers, above all others, must be alert to the effects of automation on the Negro worker of tomorrow and constantly seek for expanding emphasis on training and retraining to fulfill the manpower needs of the future," Mr. Puryear said.

Not only is Noble the first Negro to hold this position, but, at 30, he is one of the youngest of any race to be charged with responsibilities of such magnitude. But his past record indicates that he is equal to the task.

Noble's rise in police ranks has been meteoric. He has been a policeman only since 1954. But in those nine years, he has capitalized on a quick mind, a fine memory and hard work to win his way to the top.

Noble did not really plan to become a policeman. Before joining the Marines, he worked as a mechanic's helper. After his discharge in 1954, he was on his way to apply for a bus driver's job when he ran into a policeman. The cop told him the force needed men. Noble applied and became a policeman in 1955.

Sunday School Lesson

THE POWER OF A DEDICATED LIFE

International Sunday School Lesson for November 17, 1963.

MEMORY SELECTION: "Thanks be to God, who in Christ always leads us in triumph, and thru us spreads the fragrance of the knowledge of him everywhere."

—(2 Corinthians 2:14)

LESSON TEXT: 2 Corinthians 1 thru 4.

The purpose of our study today is to help adults see how a dedicated Christian life can influence people and society.

To interpret the lesson we are studying today, we must realize that in his introductory greeting, Paul thanked God that he had finally found joy in the Corinthian church as it had become reconciled with him. His joy, said Paul, was a result of obedience (holiness and godly sincerity) and of suffering. Obedience, suffering and joy—in this order—are three signs of true discipleship.

To break this down, please by piece: Obedience: Paul's obedience took the form of holiness. Something is holy if it is set apart for God. An obedient and holy life is a life lived for the salvation and good of others—for the migrant worker, the unemployed, the sick—such obedience will bring knowledge of the cross of suffering.

Suffering: Paul believed that suffering is essential, not because it saves us or wins divine approval, but because it drives us to put our trust in God and to unite with Christ in his suffering. How can we be with Christ save in his suffering? Was not the cross his way in this world?

Comfort: The Christian finds comfort and joy in his service and suffering. This joy he receives from God. The outward aspect of the Christian's life may be suffering, but in his heart he enjoys the blessing of God's love and presence. The peace the Christian enjoys is not peace in the world or with the world; it is peace with God and joy in his love and the love of his children.

The Christian is marked by godly obedience, suffering in the world, and joy in the spirit. We ask now more specifically about the service, the ministry of the Christian, which is the demonstration of his obedience.

In the first place, the Christian has a message, a positive message—the message of Christ, who is always faithful. The word we bring as Christians is not a set of rules and regulations that limit and deny life. Rather, it is a great charter of liberty, a joyful proclamation that God is faithful to his promises to us, not because we are worthy, and because his mercy decrees it. Secondly, the Christian speaks his word with his life. And thirdly, a patient and forgiving service is undaunted by ingratitude or failure.

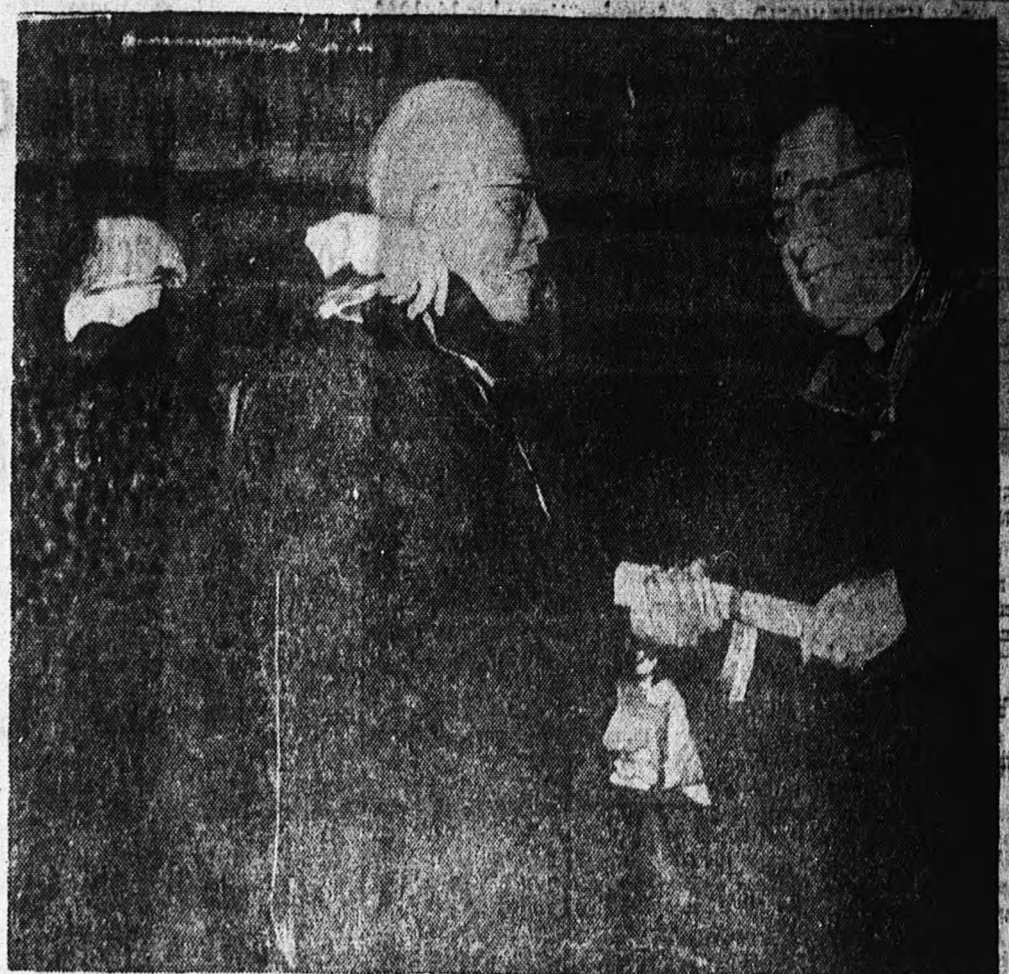

Since the Christian mission to spread the gospel is given by God and sustained by him, we do not use underhand ways. We do not act according to the idea that the end justifies the means. We do not tamper with or trim God's word to make it more palatable or pleasant. If we thought we could improve God's word, we commend ourselves to others by witnessing truthfully to God's word.

The Christian is not dismayed by failure, for, even if his message is not heard, he accepts the mystery of divine providence and does not get anxious about God's sufficiency. He is realistic about the stubbornness of the human heart, so much so that he will leave the problem to God. In fact, Paul suggested the successful ministry will often be marked by worldly failure (as Jesus indicated in the parable of the sower). We are but earthen vessels, and the earthen vessel is likely to be afflicted, crushed, bowed down in apparent defeat. Then it is comforted in the faith that it is one with another earthen vessel—the crucified body of Christ. The Christian finds joy in his suffering because the life of the Crucified is within him.

Christian the world over remember that in this life the only vision goal promised us is the cross. Therefore, we fasten on the unseen presence of the living Christ and the coming resurrection.

Offspring Of Texas Cattle King, Slave Girl Successful

By LEON L. LEWIS

FORT WORTH, Texas — (ANP) — John Simpson Chisum, one of the great cattle kings of Texas shunned women and died a bachelor, according to his story but he has descendants living in this area.

He came to Texas in 1837, from Tennessee and settled at Fort Inglish, near Bonham, Texas. At the age of 29, he became disillusioned because of a girl he loved married another man. He deserted farming and went into politics.

In 1853 he was elected Lamar, Texas, county clerk, became restless a year later and went into cattle raising.

He bought a fifteen year-old slave girl, named Jenise in Paris, Texas. Their first child was born in 1855, and named Harriet Chisum. Another child was born to the cattle king and the slave girl in 1857, named Meady.

LIVE STOCK AUCTION

Two grandsons of John Chisum and Jenise, today operate a popular live stock auction on highway 114, four miles northwest of Grapevine. They are Emory Jones, 64, and his brother, Jinks ones, 67, who own one time owned more than 2,000 acres of land in Tarrant (Fort Worth), and Denton counties before Grapevine Lake covered 1,700 acres of their holdings.

The Jones brothers, both proud of their kinship to John Chisum and his slave girl, Jenise, have four children who are college graduates. Two of them have masters degrees, one a degree in veterinary medicine and the fourth a degree in library science.

Emory and Jinks Jones, who married sisters, talk freely of their strange background.

"I wish we had thought to get the memoirs of my mother before she died in 1949 at the age of 92," says Emory Jones. "She was the daughter of John Chisum and Jenise. It would have been a wonderful story."

FANTASTIC STORY

But Emory and Jinks Jones make a fantastic story, as did John Chisum 100 years ago.

Books have been written about the vision and daring of Chisum. He was called the cattle king of the Pecos. He shot down Apaches on a government protected reservation. He looked into the muzzle of a Colt revolver held by Billy the Kid and dared him to pull the trigger. When Meady was born, John took her mother, Jenise to a doctor in Gainesville because he was greatly concerned about her condition before birth.

It was about this time that Chisum went into partnership with S. K. Fowler, a New Yorker, who put up $6,000 as a starter to buy 1,000 head of cattle, at $5 per head.

The range northwest of Denton stretched southward into what is now a part of Fort Worth. But that was not enough land for Chisum. During the Civil War in 1862 he looked westward and settled on the Concho river, with only the Indian as his neighbor. He was the only rancher for many miles around.

No records can be found that John Chisum ever took Jenise with him to the Concho. Emory Jones believes Chisum told Jenise he would come back for her. But he never did. He didn't have time to come back to Fort Worth. He made contract with the Confederacy for supplying cattle at $40 a head.

He gambled on accepting Confederate money. But he used the money to buy more cattle. He bought 12 head for every one he sold and became one of the few cattlemen to make a profit out of the war.

The Civil War and the Emancipation Proclamation automatically freed Jenise who drifted back to Bonham. She later married a man named Dawson, and reared Harriet and Meady.

Economist Appointed To Agriculture Post

The appointment of Dr. Alfred L. Edwards, Michigan State University economist, as Deputy Assistant Secretary of Agriculture was announced last week by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

Dr. Edwards has been assigned to work with John A. Baker, Assistant Secretary for Rural Development and Conservation. He will assist Mr. Baker in his duties "across the board," Secretary Freeman said. The position carries a salary of $16,000 a year.

Agencies that report to Mr. Baker are the Farmer Cooperative Service, the Farmers Home Administration, the Forest Service, the Office of Rural Areas Development, the Rural Electrification Administration, and the Soil Conservation Service. Previous positions held by Dr. Edwards include university posts at Southern University, State University of Iowa, Michigan State University, and the University of Nigeria.

recipe:

CARNATION HIGH-PROTEIN EGGNOG

(Makes 1 large glassful)

- 1 egg
- 1 heaping teaspoon sugar
- 1 small can (2/3 cup) chilled undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
- 1/2 cup cold water
- Nutmeg
- Vanilla

Separate egg white from yolk. Beat yolk and sugar with rotary beater until light. Add water to Carnation, then add to egg yolk mixture. Beat well. Chill. Beat egg white until fluffy. Beat well into mixture. Add a drop of vanilla flavoring if desired. Pour into large glass, and sprinkle with nutmeg.

Alabama A & M, Texas, Prairie View and Massachusetts' Northeastern University are among the few remaining unbeaten and untied teams.

Southern U. playing for an unbeaten campaign was trapped by Fred Long's fired up Wildcats, playing before a homecoming throng.

In Atlanta, Marquette won its first game in five starts. Clark stepped past Dillard University in the Peter Claver Classic 24-12 and Morris Brown was throttled by North Carolina College, 23-6.

Knoxville College became the SWAC's No. 1 loser as Coach Iris Brown dropped his fifth straight to Marquette. The Bulldogs have won, since 1961, when Harold Fletcher, then the Bulldogs' dropped Lane College, 20-18.

For the SWAC's longest losing streak here is the mark that is threatening the all-time losing agony of St. Paul's of Lawrenceville, Va., and Paine College of Augusta, St. Paul's lost 48 straight, and Paine 82 straight. Paine College has once given up the ghost.

Bo Ballnsky Seeks To Combat His Previous Bad Publicity

HONOLULU (UPI) — "Win or lose, show a little class." That command just about sums up the outlook of Los Angeles Angels pitcher Bo Ballnsky, sitting out part of the winter as a supper club host in Honolulu and trying to combat his previous bad publicity.

Bo, the press bad boy of the last two seasons, is now the pleasant, slightly shy, polite and almost courtly host at Erick's Supper Club near the Honolulu International Airport.

There have been no romances, no after-hours escapades, no problems since he took the job.

Right now, he says, he wants "to sit back and try to forget about last summer." He had a 1.7 record with the Angels, which he describes as a "blood bath." That he was sent down to the Hawaii Islands.

Before joining the Hawaii Club he drew a record crowd when he pitched a four-hit shut-out in the final home game of the season.

THEIR SHOW BUSINESS He has hopes of breaking into show business and on Nov. 15 leaves for a five weeks guest appearance at the Silver Slipper in Las Vegas.

Wiley Wildcats Scores Upset Over Southern Cats, 16-13

Southern Coach Bob Lee Is Glad To Be "A Winner"

BY BENNIE THOMAS BATON ROUGE, La. — (SNS) — "It feels good to be a winner... for the first time in my life as a football coach, I'm a winner."

MARSHALL, Texas — Chalk up two upsets by Wiley College over Southern University in two years. It was homecoming for Wiley here Saturday afternoon, and they celebrated with a 16-13 upset victory over the previously unbeaten Jaguars in a repeat performance of a feat turned back in 1961.

The 1961 score was Wiley on top of Southern by 21-19 when the smoke cleared, Southern, a team which surprised scores of persons this season in keeping pace with strong Prairie View at the top of the SWAC race by tapping such powers as Grambling College, Arkansas A. M. and N and Jackson College, was just as surprising Saturday afternoon as they literally failed to shake a bad case of sluggishness, and played all afternoon with their back against the wall.

Fumbles were costly to the Jaguars. Four of them were recorded by the Jaguars and each time it was a highly hurting miscue. Twice in the first quarter the Jaguars were victimized by fumbles, and each time in Wiley territory.

Wiley took the lead in the second quarter, moving the ball 89 yards following Neyland's fumble, with halfback John Brooks going the final three yards to score.

Wiley's running, passing, kicking quarterback Freddie Doleson scored Wiley's second touchdown before the half ended, a touchdown which resulted from another costly Jaguar fumble, this time by fresh quarterback Laurie Green on the Wiley 44 yard line.

Dotson was the big man in the 60 yard drive, climaxing the advantage with a four yard touchdown.

Nevels aimed was true this time as he split the uprights to give Wiley a 13-0 lead, with 5:55 remaining in the first half.

One of the key times during the game when the Jaguars looked like they were serving straight victories was during the 43 yard drive which followed, coming on the strength of a rollicking kick off return by Neyland to the 43 yard line.

Southern needed but four plays and a 15 yard Penalty to break into the scoring act.

Halfback David Huddleston was quickly around end for 16 yards to Wiley 41 yard line.

Halfback Rudy Myers was for a quickie up the middle for five yards to the 36, and Huddleston hit again for six to the 30. A Wiley infraction cost five yards to the Wildcats 25, and the stage was set.

Simpson took aim, and leveled on Frank Pitts 25 yards away in the end zone, the eighth touchdown pass of the season for the ranging terminal.

John Clayton closed the gap a bit more than he split the uprights with the conversion as the Wildcats led 13-7 as the half ended.

In the third period, Southern, on its first possession, moved the ball from its own 30 yard line to the Wiley 47 before Myers fumbled on the 47, with WU recovering.

This Wiley drive carried as far as the Southern 34 before Jaguar defensive end Richard Jackson batted down a Dotson screenpass intended for Nevels to give the Jaguars the ball after a punting situation was forced.

Taking over on their own 20 yard line, Dotson intercepted a third down Simpson pass on the 40 and returned to the Southern six yard line.

A Wiley clipping penalty sent the ball back to the Southern 41 yard line.

Wiley worked the ball back as far as the Southern 33, then the big Jaguar forward wall held when Dotson gambled for inches as the Jaguars took over.

Tenn. State Big Blues Win Over Lincoln Tigers, 14-10

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. — The tank-crunching running off freshman fullback Gene Bowen, kept Tennessee State Big Blues on top of the MWA Conference crown race as the 206-pound bulldozer crushed Lincoln eleven 14-10 here in Lincoln Stadium before 3,000 cheerless fans in the fourth period.

Charlie Powell and Sherman Tank Bowen powered the ball 69 yards in seven plays to come from behind for the second time late in the fourth quarter to spill Lincoln's perfect conference record.

Lincoln scored first in the opening quarter as Alton Adams capped a 56 yard drive with a 2-yard plunge to pay dirt. Gerald Walker added the extra point and Lincoln held a 7-0 halftime edge.

Although Tennessee and Lincoln played the entire second stanza between Lincoln's 40 and 1 yard lines, Coach John Merritt's Big Blues could not score.

In the first three minutes of the third quarter, tackle Robert Reed recovered a Lincoln miscue on Lincoln's 19 and five plays later Bowen crashed off tackle for the T. D. Sherman-Tank Bowen ran the extra to put Tennessee State ahead 8-7 for the first time in the game with 12:20 left in the third period.

Four minutes later, Lincoln's halfback Ezekiel Moore returned a punt 84 yards before being bumped out of bounds on Tennessee State 11 by Willie Mitchell. Lincoln tried

BOXING

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The most recent death in the ring has brought the termination of boxing just a little nearer. This bird was a tragic killing — the body which was weighed after the fight weighed almost fifty pounds less than that of the opponent.

Moreover, the opponent had been a more experienced fighter and the deceased had been relatively inexperienced. From every standpoint it was a tragedy.

It is appropriate after this "contest" to refute the argument so many athletes are offering — in behalf of continuing boxing. The usual argument in favor of a continuation includes the truism that people are killed in other sports too.

The difference in boxing and these other, genuine sports, was best pointed out recently in a sports column by Arthur Daley of the New York Times. It is not that other sports do not sometimes produce a death (not so many relative to the participants however) which set them apart.

In boxing it is man against man and we are seeing regular killings in a ring, supposedly displaying a sport. It is not accidental.

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Rules are rules even for such an obvious candidate for baseball's Hall of Fame as Stanley Frank Musial, retired star of the St. Louis Cardinals.

There are some who believe Stan the Man should be voted in right now and to heck with the rule that stipulates a star must be out as an active player for at least five years before he becomes eligible for one of those coveted plaques at Cooperstown, N.Y.

"Absolutely not," says Commissioner Ford Frick. "There'll be no changes in that interim period of five years."

The commissioner has the backing—whoo, of course, he doesn't need—of many of the veteran writers who vote in the Hall of Fame elections.

IMPORTANT SAFEGUARD To the more jealous guardians of the portals at Cooperstown, that five year cooling off period serves as an important safeguard in a system that already is far from fool-proof.

For one thing, the five year rule precludes the possibility of a player—say it's Musial—from coming "out of retirement in a club emergency and playing presumably at less than his former greatness. The Hall of Fame was designed as a place of honor for baseball's "old grads."

For another, five years provides a period for a less emotional review of a candidate's playing record—a period in which old feuds or old friendships may become less important in the appraisal of an all-timer.

Musial? Sure he belongs. He'll get there in time like the 1960 election. Before that, a fellow named Ted Williams must be considered. Ted retired after the 1960 season but the next election after his five year "cooling off" period is '66.

ONE EXCEPTION MADE The five year rule was added late

S. C. State Bulldogs Edge Central State Marauders

ORANGEBURG, S. C. — Quarterback Tracey Hodges carried South Carolina State College to a 13-7 victory over the strong Central State College Marauders here Saturday night by passing for two touchdowns and adding a PAT.

The Bulldogs now have a 6-1-0 record for the season, 4-1-0 in the SIAC, with two Conference games remaining.

Hodges has completed 10 passes out of 27 and seven were for touchdowns.

End John Gilliam took a Hodges pass and went in to score with 5:40 remaining in the first quarter on a play which carried 45 yards. The PAT failed.

Hodges struck again in the second period when he hit end Fred Dawson on a pass play covering 63 yards. Hodges' kick was good and

In 1963 and only one player exception has been permitted—Joe M. Maglio.

Maglio retired after the 1961 World Series. The Yankee Clipper pulled more than 100 votes in the 1963 election that preceded the adoption of the five-year rule so he was allowed to remain among the eligibles. Joe missed again in 1964 but won by a landslide in 1955, four years after he went out of baseball.

Elections by the writers of 10 years or more membership in the major league press corps limited to every two years. Bob Feller and Jackie Robinson 1962 were the last voted in by the writers.

WILLIAMS, MUSIAL AND SPAIN Recent or still active headlines certain to make it some day are Williams, Musial and Warren Spahn of the Braves.

All carry impressive credentials. Williams is third on the all-time home run list with 521 behind Babe Ruth 714 and Jimmy Foxx 534—and was the last to hit over 400 in the major.

Musial is sixth on the homer list with 475 and holds numerous major league records. Spain is one of the great left handed pitchers in baseball history by any standard you want to name.

But they all will have to wait at least five years after they hang up their spikes.

Texas May Drop All Race Bars In Sports

AUSTIN, Tex.—(UPI)—The coach of the No. 1 football team in the nation said he may make an announcement this week about the decision by University of Texas regents to open athletics to all races.

Coach Darrell Royal of the Southwest Conference football champion Longhorns, said he would have to meet with the school's athletic council before he would make the announcement.

The Texas Board of Regents opened all campus activities, including athletics, to any student regardless of race or religion. The action was expected to speed integration of sports in the SWC, with many observers feeling other schools in the conference were waiting for Texas to take the first step.

W. W. Health, chairman of the Board of Regents, said university dormitories and dining halls for women would not be opened to all races under the new decree because they are subject to a federal court suit. He said the board will abide by the decision of the court when it is handed down. Student integration leaders had petitioned the board a month ago to lift the color bar in all student activities.

Health said as far as he knew there had never been a restriction as to race in recruiting people for the band, football team, or any other student activity. But tradition had kept the Negroes away.

Howard Grubbs, secretary of the SWC, said the conference had no rules against Negroes. "Anyone who is a bona fide student and meets eligibility requirements can take part in athletics," he said.

Jess Neely, coach of the SWC Rice team, said "If Texas wants to do that it's just fine. As for Rice, it's up to the trustees."

Texas Strengthens Grip On Lead In UPI Grid Ratings

Georgia Tech climbed from 17th to 13th.

Baylor, a 7-0 loser to Texas Saturday, fell to 14th from 11th and Missouri held on to its No. 15 ranking. Penn State returned to the ratings in 16th after its victory over Ohio State, showing the Buckeyes down to 17th. Memphis State, the only other unbeaten one in the ratings; Syracuse and Arizona State University, winner of six straight after an opening season loss to Wichita, looked in a three-way tie for 18th to complete the top 20.

The prep league football season has ended and football is just about over as far as the prep stars are concerned, except for the annual Blue Bowl Game scheduled for December 9, 90, until then many of the athletes and fans will turn their attention to the coming basketball season.

For the past 24 years, the Blue Bowl Game has been the highlight of the prep season, and bringing to the Bluff City many of the top prep teams of the country. This year will be the 25th playing of the Blue Bowl game, and can expect to see two outstanding teams vying for Blue Bowl honors.

At this time, although the date has not been settled, names of the two participating teams have not been released. We mentioned last week that Melrose would be one of the teams participating in the Blue Bowl game, but we learn that this was not authentic, but was based on the assumption that Melrose would be the league champion, and that the league champion, as has been in recent years would be one of the participating teams.

The Washington Warriors tied the Melrose Golden Wildcats for the title and consequently, both are co-champions. Since that has happened, it has been suggested that Washington and Melrose might meet in the Blue Bowl game. Through the years teams have seldom played each other more than

Excursion Set To See Browns, Cardinals Game

A football excursion is planned for Saturday November 30 to St. Louis to see the Cleveland Browns and the St. Louis Football Cardinals scheduled for Sunday Dec. 1 at St. Louis.

The excursion will be by Chartered Luxury Greyhound Buses which will leave Handy Park Beale and Hernando St. Saturday Nov. 30 at 5 o'clock, and arriving in St. Louis at 10:30 Saturday night. The return trip will leave St. Louis at midnight Sunday, December 1.

Jim Brown, perhaps the most celebrated player in pro football today, will be in action with the Cleveland Browns. Brown is one of the all-time greats of football. Now playing his seventh year with the Browns, he has broken many rushing records and is one of the most colorful players in the game. The excursion will include transportation, overnight accommodations in a Holiday Inn, and football tickets, all for $35.00. Information regarding the excursion can be obtained by calling 527-7301, or by stopping in at 203 Beale St. Tickets must be purchased by Nov. 21, 1963.

MANASSAS TIGERS

By CARLEEN JONES
Hi! This is Carleen saying hello. SPOTLIGHT: — This the spotlight falls on a very promising young lady who is a member of the Manassas Senior Class of which she is the secretary. She is an active member of the Double Ten Society F. T. A., and the Bon-Dads Social Club. She attends St. Luke Baptist Church, pastored by Rev. T. E. Bunker. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Williamson of 1164 Belvedere Blvd. She was recently chosen "Miss Senior" of the Manassas Senior Class. She is in the person of Miss Norma Lofties. Hats are off to you, HOMECOMING

Our homecoming got off to a big boom with the coronation of our queen. This of course was a gala affair. The day of the game, the Tigers were showing off their school spirit in a spectacular parade through the Manassas community with our tremendous band and all the clubs and their sweethearts. The cars were decorated in school colors.

Some of the Clubs and their speakers were:

Gracious Ladies — George Tucker
Speakers and Writers — James Fitzgerald
Double Ten — Calvin Herring
Perennettes — Ralph Collier
Art Club — Walter Peterson and Carleen Jones
Ebonite — James Flagg and Janie Hill
Other clubs seen in cars were N. H. A., F. T. A., Latin, Pep Squad, Mixed Chorus, Speakers and Writers, Mr. and Miss Band and Ladyship.

The game between Manassas and Burt High from Clarksville, Tenn. was well played. Of course the Tigers came out on top.

It seems that more fellows who play more regularly are playing a better game now than they have played in the past. For one thing, it doesn't take as long to complete nine holes now as it took some players three or four months ago.

The Sam Qualls Golf Association annual Turkey Tournament was held Sunday, Nov. 10, at the Fuller State Park course. Elton Grandberry shot a 73 to capture the championship of the seventh annual tournament. O. D. Alexander was runner-up in the championship flight.

J. D. Walker was first in the First Flight with an 81, and Lonzie Wilson was second. Dollar Sanders' 73 won first place in the Senior Division, with Bridget Pyles second with a 75.

Mrs. Doris Clift was first in the Women's Division with a 103, with Mrs. Althea Pyles second with a 104. Herman Hudson led the Juniors with 80.

Robert Crawford and Arthur Yancey tied for third place in the Championship Flight with 80s, but Crawford won the playoff. Audrey Pierce won out over Eugene Brown and Larry Wynn in a playoff for third place in the First Flight. Each had an 88.

Magicians Plan Intrasquad Game

LeMoyn College's Magicians are all set for their intrasquad basketball game, the Purples versus the Golds, next week. They will clash on Friday night, Nov. 22, at 8 o'clock in Grice Hall.

This will be the first opportunity for LeMoyn students and the general public to see what the 1963-64 edition of the Magician team looks like. According to information leaking out of the gym, Coach Jerry Johnson has some "real burners" in his camp.

Coach Johnson will show off fast-operating freshmen in James Sandridge from Memphis, Franklin Shelton from Douglas, Mark Brewer from Booker T. Washington, Clearthor Morris from Pisgah, Robert Harrison from Cincinnati, and Edward Brents from Thomas Harding from Indiana.

Johnson is building his main line around three veterans, Capt. Robert Hambric of Chicago, James Gordon of Louisville and Monte Curdin from Halla, Tenn. Other returning vets are Jimmy Chavis from Syracuse, Paul Lewis from New Brighton, Pa., Vern Sells and Cleophas Owens of Memphis.

MOREHOUSE STRAPS KNOXVILLE 30-16 IN HOMECOMING BATTLE

By ALFRED R. JOHNSON
ATLANTA, Ga. — (SNS) — Morehouse College pulled a "one in a million play" here Saturday afternoon to defeat the Knoxville College (Tenn.) Bulldogs 30-16 in a Homecoming spectacular, at Herndon Stadium.

The Maroon and White Tigers shifted to "over-drive" in the third period scoring two touchdowns at the "same" time that is as far as time was concerned.

A welcoming crowd was put on edge when the Tigers moved out for keeps following a 16-16 first half.

End Oscar Jackson and half-back Ernest Mencer shared scoring honors with two touchdowns a piece. But the big score came in the third period when Tyrone Hall flipped a pass to half-back James Wingfield then was in motion right. Wingfield then fired a perfect strike to Jackson for a 33 yard pay-off pitch with 6:13 left. Robert Dixon, a senior who overall had his best collegiate day at the full-back spot, missed the PAT run.

Now with the scoreboard reading 22-16 favoring the home team, the kick-off traveled toward freshman half-back Barry Hardie who just let the ball roll into the endzone without even attempting to cover it.

But alert Mencer who like Dixon turned in a grade A performance downfield and bounced on the ball in the endzone for the final score. The clock still read 6:13 left and Morehouse was now outfront by 14 points having consumed no more time. Willie Jackson added the final PAT running.

Knoxville opened the game all "fired-up". The Bulldogs hit the scoring zone first when Winston Gray, a sophomore from Cincinnati, O., plunged over from the one to climax a 30 yard march in seven plays. And Gray returned with the extra point.

Knoxville led for only 31 seconds. Oscar Jackson after bobbling the kick-off found daylight on the middle and was hauled down from behind but not before going 50 yards. And on the very first play, QB Tyrone Hall found Mencer wide open down the middle for a 47 yard strike. Willie Jackson came back to tie the score 8-8 by running.

The House took command 10-8 early in the second period when a host of defenders trapped sophomore Larry Branch in the endzone.

NCC ALL-AMERICAN — William Hayes, North Carolina College center, is bidding for repeat honors as an All-American performer this year. The Durham, N.C. junior, named to The Pittsburgh Courier All-American team in 1962, is 6-1 and weighs 204 pounds. A speedy offensive and defensive play, and an excellent tackler, Hayes is a defensive specialist on Coach Herman Riddick's unbeaten 1963 Eagle squad.

Bertrand Defeats Austin In 'Nooga

Father Bertrand closed its football season Saturday night in Knoxville defeating Austin High, 19-6.

Meanwhile, two out-of-town teams invaded Memphis, with Melrose battling Howard of Chattanooga to a 13-13 tie, and Manassas taking Burt High of Clarksville, 47-13. It was homecoming for Manassas.

Howard of Chattanooga was defeated 13-6 by Father Bertrand several weeks ago in Chattanooga, breaking a Howard winning streak of 58 games.

Alabama State Hornets Edge Savannah State Hornets, 14-12

By WILTON C. SCOTT
SAVANNAH, Ga. — (SNS) — The Tigers of Savannah State College lost their homecoming battle to the Hornets of Alabama State by a score of 14-12. Approximately 3,000 homecoming fans witnessed this affair.

The Hornets of Alabama State scored first on a safety by a bad snap from center on a punt. The punter, John Kenner of the Tigers was downed in the end zone. At the end of the first quarter, Alabama State led 2-0.

The second was an evenly fought battle with Robert Saby pacing the Tigers on offense and defense and Gene Blanchard leading the Hornets of Alabama.

Early in the 3rd quarter, Goodie of Alabama scored on a pass play from quarterback Horace Scott which covered 65 yards. P. A. T. failed. Also in the 3rd quarter, Frank Ellis of the Tigers tossed a 65 yards pass to end Fred Carter for the Tigers first tally. P. A. T. for 2 points failed, late in the 3rd

Bright Students Study in North

WASHINGTON — (NNPA) — Nearly half of the 640 Southern college students who received Woodrow Wilson and National Science Foundation fellowships last year picked graduate schools in the North.

A Tulane University report indicates that from 1959 to 1962 the proportion of students who chose schools in the South dropped from 17 to 13 per cent.

PATIENT INCREASE

For the third consecutive year, Veterans Administration hospitals have substantially increased the number of patients treated, without a corresponding increase in beds.

The VA hospitals treated 712,800 patients during fiscal year 1963, 75,400 more than in fiscal year 1960.

Disneyland Job Program For Minorities Set

LOS ANGELES — Agreement has been reached between officials of Disneyland and California State agencies on a program of communicating information about job opportunities at the famed recreation center to prospective employees who are members of minority groups.

In addition, executives of Disneyland have met several times during recent months with representatives of the Fair Employment Practice Commission and the California State Employment Service to discuss recruiting efforts among minority groups for permanent and seasonal employment at the Anaheim park.

As job opportunities occur, Disneyland has agreed to publicize them in selected radio and newspaper media which have special appeal to members of minority groups.

These opportunities will also be listed and analyzed by State employment offices so that qualified minority applicants can be considered along with other persons qualified for employment.

Disneyland and its concessioners have already reported hiring of minority workers, and both will participate in the equal opportunity program.

Cincinnatian Wins "Miss Bronze America"

NEW YORK — (ANP) — Carol Reed, 23, Cincinnati, Ohio, won the title of "Miss Bronze America" in the first annual "Miss Bronze America" beauty pageant, conducted by radio station WADO, New York, and the Bartell Broadcasting Corporation, at the Hotel Manhattan in New York City here last week.

Miss Reed, whose father operates a fleet of taxis in Cincinnati, is a graduate of Robert A. Taft High School in that city. She is 5'5", weighs 110 pounds, has dark brown eyes and measures 34-31-34. She is currently employed as a secretary with the American Field Service and hopes to embark on a modeling and dramatic career in the near future.

Second place winner was Elisabeth Jones of Brooklyn, N. Y., who was born in Aiken, S. C. Third place winner was Gilda George, 19, of Corona, Queens, N. Y.

YOUNG PRESIDENTS

Youthful presidents of two leading colleges in North Carolina await the signal to lead the academic procession for the A&T College Founders Day Observance held in Greensboro, N.C., last week. They are, Dr. Samuel D. Proctor, left, A&T head, and Dr. Samuel Proctor Massie, president of North Carolina College, Durham, N.C. Dr. Massie delivered the Founders Day message. Besides the name and age similarities, the two presidents have one son each named Herbert and Samuel, Jr.

Gregory Found Guilty In Case Of Chicago Protest

CHICAGO — (ANP) — Comedian Dick Gregory last week was found guilty in Municipal Court of providing "de facto" leadership in inciting demonstrators to disorder at a southside school site last August, by a judge who borrowed from civil rights proponents here.

Civil rights leaders have accused School Supt. Benjamin C. Willis and the city's Board of Education of fostering a policy of "de facto" segregation in the schools.

Among other things, the controversial superintendent was denounced and militantly opposed by Negroes for attempting to erect mobile classroom units for Negro students in overcrowded areas, instead of transferring them to white schools with available classroom space.

Gregory was arrested at a site where Willis had tried to erect 24 of these mobile units. The project was abandoned when Negroes staged a series of demonstrations at the site.

Judge Ben Schwartz, in finding the nationally famous comedian guilty and fining him $60 and cost, said:

"Gregory's conduct had the effect of inciting the other demonstrators to disorder; by virtue of his position in the community, de facto leadership was imputed to him by the crowd."

The judge rejected Gregory's contention that his constitutional rights guaranteed by the 1st and 14th amendments were violated.

Radio Stations Feud Over Jockey

MIAMI — (ANP) — The employment of a Negro disc jockey last week touched off a feud between two white-owned radio stations here, one of which recently fired most of its white personnel and replaced them with Negroes under a program of broadcasting geared to the Negro market.

The disc jockey who precipitated the feud between stations WMBM and WAME, the revamped station, is Fred Hanna.

The feud started when Hanna quit EMBM and began spinning records for WAME as a part of the latter's new rhythm and blues type programming. He was one of several Negro "Deejays" and announcers used by WAME.

Angered by the switch, WMBM filed a breach of contract suit against Hanna. However, a week later, Milton F. Grusmark, attorney for Service Broadcasters, Inc., owners of WMBM, asked Circuit Judge Ralph Cullen to dismiss the suit against Hanna.

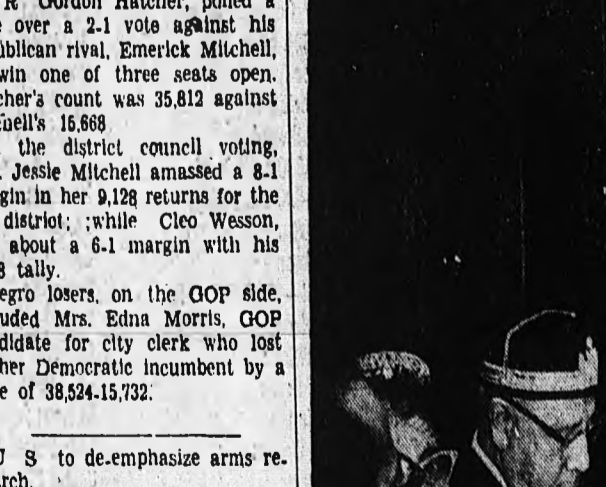

Gary Democrats Win Nov. 5 Election

GARY, Ind. — (ANP) — Proof that the Gary Negro voter is still within the Democratic fold was evident last Tuesday when three Negro candidates were shoeed into office, while their Republican opponents lost.

In the councilman-at-large voting, R. Gordon Hatcher, polled a little over a 2-1 vote against his Republican rival, Emerick Mitchell, to win one of three seats open. Hatcher's count was 35,812 against Mitchell's 15,868.

In the district council voting, Mrs. Jessie Mitchell amassed a 8-1 margin in her 9,128 returns for the 4th district; while Cleo Wesson, had about a 6-1 margin with his 7,208 tally.

Negro losers on the GOP side, included Mrs. Edna Morris, GOP candidate for city clerk who lost to her Democratic incumbent by a vote of 38,524-15,732.

JURIST-MASON ORATES

Three Garner Election Entries In Louisville

LOUISVILLE — (ANP) — Three Negroes were among the winners in local elections for city and state posts here last week, two for the state legislature, and one for the city aldermanic posts.

J. E. Smith, and Arthur L. Johnson captured legislative seats on the Democratic state from the 42nd and 40th districts respectively. In the 40th district, Johnson narrowly won the nod over Mrs. Amelia M. Tucker, GOP candidate by a vote of 4,168 to 3,905. Mrs. Tucker, wife of Atty. C. Eubank Tucker, would have been the first Negro woman in the legislature had the totals been reversed. Johnson, 48, is a high school teacher.

In the 42nd district, Smith, running on the Democratic ticket, had a better margin over his GOP opponent, Frank P. Hendrik. The count was 4,302 to 3,568.

At the city level, 54-year-old Russell P. Lee, former supervisor of the National Youth Administration, World War II veteran and one-time juvenile court probation officer, defeated Mrs. William W. Beckett, 49-year-old funeral home operator and Kentucky State college graduate for the eleventh ward representation on the city council.

COUNTY POST TO EX-ALABAMAN

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y. — (ANP) — Joseph H. Profit, 28-year-old former citizen of Montgomery, Ala. and ex-employee of the New York Central railroad, was successful in his bid to be elected to the Niagara county board of supervisors last week. The first of his race to win a seat on the board, Profit, running on the Democratic ticket, defeated his Republican incumbent by a vote of 1,176-1,131. He is representing the 12th Ward, one of the city's largest with a mixed population. He came here from Alabama 10 years ago.

TWO WIN, ONE LOSES IN TOLEDO

TOLEDO — (ANP) — Municipal Judge Robert V. Franklin, Jr., won re-election by a thumping margin, and William N. Thomas, Sr., a 51-year-old attorney led the field in the race for one of two school board seats in the municipal election last week.

Defeated in his first bid for political office, Wynn M. Johnston, 35-year-old insurance executive, finished 14th in a field of 18 for nine city council seats.

Judge Franklin, serving a two-year unexpired term to which he was elected in 1961, was second in a three-way fight for two seats for a six-year term. He received 68,413 votes, trailing his colleague, Judge George N. Kiroff, who received 72,610.

A Morehouse and University of Toledo law school graduate, Judge Franklin is 37, married and the father of two children.

ALDERMANIC POST TO DEMOCRAT

KINGSTON, N. Y. — (ANP) — The first Negro office holder to be elected in this Hudson Valley city was Leonard Van Dyke, who was picked as Democratic Ward. He was opposed by Philip Timbrouck, also a Negro, running on the Republican ticket.

IN PITTSBURGH, ONE UP, ONE DOWN

PITTSBURGH — (ANP) — Desolate endorsement from both parties. William S. Howell, seeking election as city controller, failed to garner sufficient votes to put him in office during last Tuesday's election. The first Negro to win bipartisan endorsement was literally clobbered before an onslaught of straight party voting especially in Negro strongholds as the 3rd, 5th, 12th, 13th, 18th, 21st and 25 wards. He lost by a margin of 1,179 votes.

On the other hand, James Jordan showed appeal in leading fellow councilmanic candidate in all but two districts in the 12th ward. He was returned to his seat in a "non contest" balloting.

DEMOS WIN GOP'S LOSE IN PHILLY

PHILADELPHIA — (ANP) — Negro Democratic candidates were preferred over Negro Republicans during elections in the City of Brotherly Love last Tuesday, as evidenced by the fact that the three Negro Democrats candidates won, while five Negro Republican candidates lost.

On the winning side were Marshall L. Shepard, incumbent councilman-at-large, who posted the top figure of 388,895 votes to lead the total field of 10 candidates; Thomas McIntosh, who downed his opponent, Andrew Wilson for the 5th district seat by a vote of 34,408-11,285; and Edward Cox, fourth

CLEVELAND GETS TEN COUNCILMEN, FOUR NEGRO JUDGES IN OFF-YEAR ELECTION

CLEVELAND — (ANP) — Clevelanders awoke to new deal here after Tuesday's off-year election, and now boast 10 Negro councilmen and four Negro judges.

During the primaries in October, George W. White, M. Morris Jackson and Warren Gilliam polled better than fifty one percent of the total votes cast and did not face a run-off. Out of Tuesday's results, John C. Armstrong, James Bell, Charles V. Carr, John Kellough, Leo Jackson, George L. Forbes and Clarence Gaines emerged victorious.

Predictions were in effect all along that Clarence Gaines, a new comer to politics, would defeat James Williams Lowell Henry

Therapist Who Attacked Girl Under Spell Trapped By Talk

INDIANAPOLIS — (ANP) — A white mental therapist who was indicted last week for raping a 15 year old Negro girl while she was under a hypnotic spell was trapped because he was unable to erase from his victim's mind what had occurred.

He was released on $5,000 bond following his indictment by the Marion County grand jury.

Marion County Prosecutor Noble R. Peary said that his department is staying "on top of the case" against Egbert L. Pfeiffer and considers it of the utmost importance.

"That's why I put my best man (Chief Trial Deputy Leroy K. New) on the case," Peary stated.

OTHER ACCUSATIONS

The 46-year-old Pfeiffer is also alleged to have assaulted several young housewives under hypnosis. They, as well as the girl, had gone to him for help with emotional problems.

Before leaving the city, New said the girl, who is presently an inmate at Central State Hospital, had been taken to Pfeiffer for consultation by a parole officer.

New further said that the alleged rape took place on May 21 during one of the girl's 14 visits to Pfeiffer. The deputy prosecutor said that the hypnotic state was induced by swaying a mustard seed before the girl's eyes.

New also noted that the girl once an inmate at Indiana Girls School, could remember what happened under hypnosis because Pfeiffer did not order her to forget what had taken place. He said the same circumstances surrounded the other reported attacks.

It was reported that Pfeiffer has been employed by three other youthful parolees from state institutions. They include two girls and a boy.

When arrested at his office, authorities asked Pfeiffer, who is believed to be a native of New York, for his appointment book. The accused rapist opened a desk drawer containing a gun, but police quickly closed the drawer and confiscated the contents were not made available to reporters.

QUESTIONED BY DOCTORS

running magistrister candidate out of a field of 18. For councilman-at-large, seven were to be selected; and for magistrates, 14.

ELEANOR

Public Thanksgiving

As the colors of autumn stream down the wind, scarlet in sumach and maple, spun gold in the birches; a splendor of smoldering fire in the oaks along the hill; and the last leaves flutter away, and dusk falls briefly about the workers bringing in from the field, a late load of its fruit and Arcturus is lost to sight and Orion swings upward that great sun upon its shoulder, we are stirred once more to ponder the infinite Goodness, that has set apart for us, in all this moving mystery of creation, a time of living and a home.

In such a spirit I appoint Thursday, the twenty-fourth of November, a day of

PUBLIC THANKSGIVING

In such a spirit I call upon the people to acknowledge heartily in friendly gathering and house of prayer the increase of the season nearing now its close; the harvest of earth, the yield of patient mind and faithful hand, that have kept us fed and clothed and have made for us a shelter even against the storm. It is right that we whose are of sky have been darkened by no war hawk, who have been forced by no man to stand and speak when to speak was to choose between death and life, should give thanks also for the further mercies we have enjoyed, beyond desert or any estimation, of Justice, Freedom, Loving-kindness, Peace — resolving as we prize them, to let no occasion go without some prompting or some effort worthy in a way however humble of those proudest among men's ideals, which burn, tho' it may be like candles fitfully to her broken home.

The girl's mother reportedly had a conference with the parole officer and suggested that her daughter see a doctor. It was reported that Pfeiffer's name was mentioned because he was "not expensive" and because he had worked with other parolees.

The chief deputy prosecutor said there was medical evidence to back up the girl's statements. He also said that there was no way of telling how many persons had been "treated" by Pfeiffer, who reportedly has no degree.
