HENRY TO FIGHT MISSISSIPPI COURT VERDICTS

CLARKSDALE, Miss. — Aaron Henry, local druggist and state president of the NAACP, is appealing to the United States Supreme Court the $15,000 and $25,000 libel verdicts handed down against him by the Coahoma County circuit court and later upheld by the state supreme court.

In separate suits against Mr. Henry, the Clarksdale chief of police Benford C. Collins was awarded $15,000 and the Coahoma County prosecuting attorney Thomas H. Pearson $25,000 by Coahoma circuit juries.

The state supreme court upheld both verdicts, ruling in favor of the police chief last week and for the county prosecuting attorney on Monday of this week.

The two men filed their suits on grounds that Mr. Henry made libelous statements following his arrest on a morals charge. The damage suits charged that Mr. Henry claimed in a public statement that his arrest on the morals charge was a "diabolical plot cooked up" by the two officials.

Mr. Henry was a gubernatorial candidate on the Mississippi Freedom Ballot in the last election.

The defamation suit, filed by the police chief and county attorney grew out of statements made by the NAACP official at a press conference following his conviction in a justice of peace court in Shelby, Miss., March 15, 1962.

The morals charge against Mr. Henry was made by a white teenage hitchhiker, Sterling Lee Eiler, who was given a ride by the civil rights leader. The hitchhiker claimed Mr. Henry made perverse advances.

At the justice of peace hearing, Mr. Henry presented an alibi supported by sworn witnesses.

The NAACP leader was quoted by wire services, following his conviction on the morals charge, as saying his arrest "was born in the minds" of the county attorney and chief of police "due to his activities in the civil rights areas."

Mother Held In Death Of Child

A 19-month-old boy, Gerald Wayne Ross of 1540 South Third, died Sunday morning of pneumonia after he had been chewed by rats while he slept.

His mother, 27-year-old Mrs. Marie Ross, was taken into custody by police and charged with involuntary manslaughter.

Officers said the mother was charged because neglect of the child contributed to his death. Six other Ross children were placed in protective custody at juvenile court.

The husband and father, George Ross Sr., 40, is stationed with the air force in Spain.

Mrs. Ross found the child dead when she got up to feed her four-month-old daughter.

Neighbors complained the children did not have proper clothing or food and often were left in the house without heat.

Mrs. Ross receives $100 a month from her husband and lives in a house owned by her father. She said she didn't have enough money to pay for utilities and that she didn't take Gerald to the hospital for medical care because she couldn't pay for a clinic card.

Universal Life Gives $1,500 To United Negro College Fund

A $1,500 contribution from Universal Life Insurance Company boosted the United Negro College Fund campaign total last week to $4,987. Another financial report meeting was scheduled for this week.

Campaign chairman Melvin N. Conley said partial reports have been received from Memphis and Shelby County teachers, $691.50 from city teachers and $521 from county teachers for a total of $1,822.50.

Other contributions include $674 from LeMoyné's faculty and staff; $200 from the LeMoyné Alumni Club; $100 from A. Maceo Walker, and Thomas J. Willis, $25; physicians, $55; Hogue and Knott, $10; J. A. Beauchamp, $15; Rev. and Mrs. S. A. Owen, $25; Centenary Methodist Church, $25; Kappa Alpha Psi $50; Bluff City Coaches and Officials Association, $50; Dr. Vasco A. Smith, $25 and Liberty Cash Grocery Co., $15.

The campaign was launched nearly three weeks ago with a lump sum of $800 which represented money contributed to UNCF since last December.

Two other groups are working in behalf of the campaign — the Co-ettes, a group of young ladies headed by Miss Erma Laws, and LeMoyné's Pre-Alumni Club which is sponsoring a "Miss UNCF" contest.

The United Negro College Fund is a national fund raising agency for 32 accredited private colleges, including LeMoyné, Lane, Fisk and Knoxville in Tennessee; Philander Smith in Arkansas; Tougaloo Southern Christian in Mississippi; Xavier and Dillard in Louisiana, and Stillman, Tuskegee and Talladega in Alabama.

LeMoyné receives about $45,000 a year from the national fund although the average amount raised here annually is approximately $15,000.

Xmas Party For Needy At LeMoyné

Dr. Newsom Named President-Elect Of U. S. Alphas

ATLANTA, Ga.—(SNS)—A group of cheering Eta Lambda brothers hailed Dr. Lionel H. Newsom, newly elected General-President-Elect of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., when he departed at Atlanta airport Sunday night.

Approximately twenty members of local Alpha Phi Alpha chapters, some with their wives joined the family at the airport to extend a rousing welcome to the second member of Eta Lambda chapter to become General President of Alpha Phi Alpha within the past half dozen years.

Dr. Newsom who is professor of Sociology at Morehouse and recently reelected president of Eta Lambda, local graduate chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity, was in Washington, D. C. when the results of the national poll for General President of the oldest Negro Greek letter organization was reported from Chicago to him by one of his campaign workers. The count of the sealed ballots showed approximately a three to one majority of the thousands of brothers voting throughout the nation favoring him as next General President of the fraternity.

Dr. Newsom will succeed Dr. T. W. Cole, President of Wiley College, his opponent and will be installed as General President during the sessions of the general convention that will be held in New York City, August 14 through 20th, 1964. The vote count reported was 2320 for Newsom and 864 for his opponent.

Eta Lambda members and all Alpha Phi Alpha brothers in the surrounding area have been urged to develop a new interest in culture, academics and general education. "We must strive for stronger Negro education from the elementary level up through college," he added. He said "integration will depend on what happens in Negro colleges."

The speaker urged the Negro community, especially the alumni to assume a stronger role in connection with the college.

President Price said Negro colleges should be good enough to attract students of all racial groups. He declared the great problem in the predominantly Negro schools is apathy among students.

Pointing to his audience, Dr. Dinkins said "Negro students need to

Hurt Park Assembly Draws Many Despite Bitter Cold

ATLANTA, Ga.—(SNS)—A racially mixed crowd of approximately 4,500 braved sub-freezing weather Sunday to hear Atlanta Negro leaders, including Dr. M. L. King, Jr., declare their city has a false image on the desegregation front and further emphasize that unless immediate steps are made to make it an open city with equal opportunity and free of racial discrimination the present methods of negotiation will give way to direct "action methods" towards this end.

The occasion was the "Pilgrimage For Democracy" program, held outdoors at Hurt Park in Downtown Atlanta under the sponsorship of nine anti-segregation organizations combined under the name of the Atlanta Summit Leadership Conference.

Many had to pat their feet, or wave their arms, or walk about the area to keep warm, but all who had come, including Vice Mayor Sam Massell Jr., four local college presidents, children, and old people, remained through the program to hear several speakers prior to the appearance of King.

Half-way through the program two white-shirt men, identified as members of the National State Rights Party, appeared across the street in front of the city auditorium carrying signs warning "black man your future is in Africa," and "don't be misled by Communist Jews". Few of the crowd were aware of their presence.

The parade of speakers prior to the major address by King included Co-chairmen Clarence Coleman and A. T. Walden, J. H. Calhoun, Dr. C. Miles Smith, Rev. Ralph Abernathy, and James Forman. All were unanimous that Atlanta was lagging behind many Southern cities in implementing desegregation and eliminating racial discrimination.

Massell, the first on the platform to address the crowd, brought greetings and emphasized the importance of "living in brotherhood."

Walden, the second on the platform to address the crowd, reviewed the achievements of negotiations with city officials and business leaders over the past two months, and said the Negro's struggle in Atlanta is gaining more and more support. He also gave a "where do we go from here" picture of future courses of action.

King, under heavy police guard, arrived on the scene about 20 minutes before he was scheduled to speak. He remained in an car until then and was escorted to the ro-

Famous Singer Mourned

DETROIT — (SNS) — An era of jazz-singing passed Saturday when Dinah Washington was found dead in bed after she had "ingested pills of an unknown type," an attending physician reported.

Funeral services for Miss Washington were held Wednesday from the St. Luke Baptist Church in Chicago, Ill.

Dick "Night Train" Lane, defensive star of the Detroit Lions professional football team and latest husband of the often married "Blues Queen" told police he and his wife had been watching television Friday, Dec. 18, and retired about 1 1/2 a. m.

Lane said that he awakened about 4 a. m. and found his wife dead beside him. He summoned Dr. B. C. Ross who pronounced Miss Washington dead at 4:50 a. m.

A bottle containing pills of an unknown type was found on the nightstand beside the bed.

LONG CAREER
Miss Washington, who had conquered the imagination of blues lovers across the nation in a career that spanned at least 25 years of professional work, never failed to play to standing room-only crowds wherever she appeared.

Miss Washington, who came up with a best seller record almost every year during her fabulous career, will be remembered by many for her recording of "The Show Must Go On," "I'll Drown in My Own Tears," "The Blues Ain't Nothing But A Woman Cryin' For Her DAYLIGHT BURGLARS are at it again. They invaded two of the fashionable pads on South Parkway East last week.

THE PLANNED MARCH a couple of Sundays ago on two of the largest white Methodist churches in Jackson, Miss., was called off after Bishop Marvin Franklin of that city agreed to an integrated meeting to discuss the matter of Methodist churches closing their doors to other Methodists. ## Another Plug For Fluoridation

After 10 years of debate, New York City decided last week to fluoridate its water in an effort to reduce tooth decay. Dr. George James, city health commissioner, hailed the decision as "a priceless Christmas gift to the children and parents of New York City."

City Council passed the measure by 19-4 vote and it now goes to Mayor Robert Wagner for signing. "I am convinced that the step which we have taken here is essential and imperative," said Wagner, who had faltered in a 1961 effort for fluoridation.

Dr. A. H. Trithart of Nashville, in Memphis attending a three-state dental conference, said at least half of the people of Tennessee get water from sources other than private wells now drink fluoridated water.

"It's working wonders," he said. "A survey in Nashville shows tooth cavities in children are down 68 per cent because of fluoridation."

Fluoridation has become a live issue once more in Memphis because the home rule amendment adopted in the November election apparently paves the way for a referendum on the subject. Repeated efforts to have the legislature authorize fluoridation in Memphis failed because of the "unit rule," which requires a unanimous vote before either the state senate or house can approve a private (local) act.

If the City Commission does not authorize fluoridation, 10 per cent of those voting in the last election apparently can, by signing a petition, call for referendum. The subject would be voted in the next general election in November.

Porter Junior High School

Hello guys and gals, this is your news reporter bringing you the latest happenings around the Lions Den. Spotlight: This week your spotlight falls on none other than Miss Patricia Lane. Miss Lane resides at 987 So. Mason with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Lane. In religious life she is a member of Greater White Stone Baptist Church. Around the campus she is president of the student council, secretary of the A B Owen chapter of the National Junior Honor Society, a majorette in the senior band, assistant parliamentarian of her homeroom class and an office assistant. Let's tilt our hats and caps to Miss Lane.

Deborah Jefferson is speaking to Kenneth Williams and she is singing like a lark. Toni Smith was shown through the corridors of Booker Washington High by none other than Alfredo Varnado. Patricia Lane says Clarence Wilson is the jealous type. Ruby Mason is claimed, and not by Stephen A. Holt. Vicki Vaughan only thought there was a Uzell Bowen (Man). Sandra Terrell needs a spy for her treasured Kenneth Williams.

Francis Cooke went on a tight skirt strike last week. Lawrence Matlock is little, but sweet. Larry McIntyre is always thinking, not about lessons either. Doris Jones denies the fact about liking Wilbert Smith (Car.). Norma Brown has eighth grade competition. Phyllis Holt doesn't seem to care for Porter's boys. Florence Nightingale didn't know what life was until Burrell Hurt (B. T. W.) came in to her's. Villa Jones refuses to admit she likes Willie Avant. Dedication: I would like to dedicate this portion of our news to our former freshmen. Although they are no longer with us they are still a part of us. Some honorable mention are:

Milton Lane, Type Varnado, Burrell Hurt, Michael Williams, Dorothy Jefferson, Andrea Morrow, Cora Clemons, Vivian Thorne, Reginald Pippin, Jacqueline Houston, Otis Russell and Ann Burton.

Topps And Pops
Patricia Lane and Clarence Wilson — Cry Baby.
Deborah Jefferson and Vernon Edwards — Hey Little Girl.
Sandra Terrell and Kenneth Williams — You're No Good.
Florence Nightingale and Burrell Hurt — Gee Whiz It's Xmas.
Now kids let's all sit back and wait for Santa. Merry Christmas. Yours truly, Toni Smith.

THE LIONS DEN
The Three Musketeers, Sammy Bear, Netter, Joe "Bear Joe" Davis and Henry "Candy Blik" Wright are kicking off. They, along with the fabulous "Lion Boy," Maurice Hughes, are running their little "hang."
Their two Lincoln games were played for us, the football team and themselves. Both bodies were satisfactorily elated.
They say that the now traditional Dragon, Lion rivalry for this year, is in the Lions' paws, they are using their Mane while stealing the Dragons' Skins twice, thus putting

MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL PEACE COMPLIMENT YOUNG DAUGHTER AT "SWEET SIXTEEN PARTY"

Almost a coming-out party was the one given Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Peace for their daughter, Shirley Annette Peace.

So large was the event that the couple knew that even their spacious and every pretty Horn Lake Road home would not accommodate the large number of youth invited.

So the Top Hat and Tails Club House was scene of a gay evening for the younger set.

The table in the buffet room was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered by a "Sweet Sixteen Cake" mounted with a doll and dressed like the young honoree in a pink gown which draped to the square base of the cake.

Young Miss Peace was presented by her father with whom she took the first dance by the "Danube Waltz." She was escorted by William Sarden.

Members of the young set who helped Shirley celebrate the pretty semi-formal affair were Sandra King, Robert Ratcliffe, Jr., Eddie Hayes, Edgar Davis, III, Angela Flowers, Aubrey Jones, Bookies Harris, Ernestine Latham, Angela and Donnell Milan, Margaret Brinkley, Carl Wells, Carolyn Taylor, Jennie Harmon, Evelyn McGhee, Peggy Yancey, Winston Carbee, Phillip and Carol Donaldson, Frederick Landrum, Beblon Goodloe and Henry Ambrose.

Pamela Caldwell, Daisy London, Marjorie Rainey, James Knight, Marial Horne, Patricia Davis, Claudette Heneem Phillips Gregory, Reginald Washington, William and Gray Sarden, Younette and Horace Denton, Deborah Greens, Perkins Britt, Essie Hodges, Gordon Bell, Marilyn Bolden, Henry and Regina Riley, Karl Stinson, Phillip Jones, Boetta Smith, Wendell Norris, and William Henry.

Billy Johnson, Angela and Margaret Fythe, Mardis and Elijah Noel, William Atkins, Eloise Pope, Anita Perry, Larry Hill, Robert Stephens, William Elmore, Dyanne Horner, Emmitt Woods, Harold Thomas, Samuel and Moses Peace, Onzie Horne, Jr., Leroy Baker, Van Lucas, Gerald and Gall Terrell, Lovie Wedding, Toni Bates, Brenda Harding, Robert Willis, Bertha Jones, Brenda Sawyer, James Parket, Joseph Sandridge and Louise and Margaret Watkins.

In town last week was DR. HUGH GLOSTER, new Dean at Hampton Institute. Failed to see him but it was Jack Humes, an old friend who called to ask why I left him out of my column when he is a close friend to my husband and it was his daughter who visited us in Pakistan this fall.

But being on the go, I failed to see the Memphian who came to Memphis for the Southern Association's Meeting at the Peabody where he

Law On Assassination

There could hardly be any objection to a federal law against assassination of the President of the United States. This is no threat to the jurisdiction of states and local courts and enforcement officials, for it involves only one man and does not entail a takeover of state jurisdiction by the federal government.

In view of the fourth assassination of a United States President in less than a century, certainly no elaborate justification of the need for such a law is necessary. Some may ask whether a federal law against assassination of a President would prevent assassinations.

Perhaps it would not; but it certainly could do no harm and it might give would-be murderers reason to pause. It is conceivable there can be states and areas where extremism runs so high, and so bitter, that mentally deranged persons are affected by it.

At the very least, a federal law against assassination of a President would mark the determination of the American people to do what they can, legally, to protect their Chief Executives. The need has been demonstrated. There can be no valid objection.

The Christmas Spirit And You

Since time immemorial Christmas has been the one accepted holiday feast which is universally respected. Not only do we have as our national slogan on our coin - "In God we trust", the date used thereon would remind one of the Christmas structure which tells what "year of our Lord" it was minted.

Such a day as set aside for the celebration of the birth of our Lord would normally cost a powerful image across our whole social structure to the extent that there would be also an accepted spirit. That spirit could not be more handsomely identified than that of sharing, giving and especially to those in need, which was the foremost mission in the ministry of our Saviour.

Then, the Christmas spirit, while it should be with us all the year, would be intensified through the coming around of December 25th, the date of the birth of our Saviour, in the sharing of gifts.

The Christmas spirit does not live in you unless you subscribe to the practice of charity, which is love itself.

Let the spirit abide in you; give with liberality; soften the atmosphere and sentiment in your environ and let not the grand principle of the day, the great life of Jesus and essence of the Sermon on the Mount, be in vain!

Herein lies the parable of "The Christmas Spirit and You."

MY WEEKLY SERMON

By
REV. BLAIR T. HUNT,
 PASTOR,
 MISSISSIPPI BLVD. CHRISTIAN CHURCH

A LOVELY STORY

TEXT: Luke 1, 2.
 Our subject in this advent season is "Luke's Lovely Story". We beg you to read the first two chapters of the Gospel according to Saint Luke. This reading will help prepare our hearts for Christmas.

These two chapters at the beginning of Luke's Gospel are a picture book story. The pictures are delightful. The appearance of an Angel to the aged priest Zechariah; the annunciation to Mary; the meeting of Mary and Elizabeth; the street scene in Bethlehem, no room in the inn; the Nativity; the angels and the shepherds; it is a lovely story because of the pictures. It is a lovely story because it is told with tenderness and sympathy. Luke has the delicate touch of a great literary artist. Please read these two chapters.

It is a lovely story because it is an orderly account. Everything moves forward in an orderly fashion. Please read the first and second chapters of Luke.

It is a lovely story because of the charm of two Jewish women, Elizabeth and Mary. Mary was a peasant girl of Galilee. Elizabeth was the aged wife of an humble priest. They were humble cousins, not princesses in a palace, training and adoring their sons, Jesus and John. Please read Luke one and two.

It is a lovely story because of its poverty, the magnificent song of Mary, benedictus the song of Zechariah, Nunc-Dimittis, the song of Simeon. Yes, before Christmas comes in 1963 read these two chapters.

It is a lovely story because of the elements of wonder and surprise. There is the mystery of the Angel's appearance to Zechariah, his speechlessness, his recovery; the wonder of the annunciation to Mary; the surprise of the shepherds; the wonder of the night scene in the stable. Make it a must; read the first two chapters of Luke.

It is a lovely story because the characters belong to the common people of the land. Please read this lovely story.

It is a wonderful story because it centers in a little child. Can it be that this little baby is to become the savior of the world? It seems impossible; but it is true. Wonder revealed and wonder concealed; Let us read and ponder Luke's lovely story in our hearts. Then this season of advent will have its true significance.

A native of Somerville, Tenn., Bishop Isabel formerly pastored at Milan and Stanton, Tenn., and made his home in Memphis for 20 years before leaving in 1945.

He says he has missed attending only two of his church's national convocations in Memphis in the last 38 years, and thinks this year's 12-day meeting was one of the best yet with the spirit of unity pre-

A Xmas Prayer

By REV. J. A. McDANIEL

Our Father, who lovest us and art glad when we love one another; thou seest in what turmoil we are. There is sadness in thy heart; and when passion ebbs in ours, we are sad too. We have not been wise enough to forgive where wounds decisions which lead to peace, nor resolute enough to will effectively the course that is just, nor loving enough to forgive where wounds have been indicted. We confess that we are all in the same condemnation. Lord, have mercy upon us.

May the entrance of thy Spirit give us light, casting out the darkness of fear and hate, or anger and revenge. Shed abroad in our hearts thy love of Christ. Help us to accept thy judgement that there is no easy way of the dilemma in which we are trapped by our own folly and sin; yet keep us from the despair which saps energy of will and firmness of purpose to do thy will.

Give us faith to believe that our present distress may work for good through the supply of thy Spirit, making us humble and patient, open wise counsel and ready for creative action. Save us from being a reproach, and give us grace to walk in thy way of righteousness and peace; through Jesus Christ our Lord and Saviour.

Bishop Isabel plans to leave Memphis next week to fill preaching engagements in Little Rock, Oklahoma City, Denver, Los Angeles and Albuquerque, New Mexico before returning to his home in St. Paul.

 The president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said something strange and appalling had happened in Atlanta in that it has allowed its progress in desegregation become a drug to lull it to sleep.

He said segregation is still a "glaring reality" in Atlanta, and that time is running out and the Negro masses may soon lose faith in the negotiations now taking place.

"Our goal is freedom", said King. "Our destiny is bound with that of America. . . . "we feel we are the conscience of America and its troubled souls."

"My faith tells me there is an answer to the question, how long? "Let us work together to achieve all the goals ahead", said Dr. King. He drew the cheers of the crowd as he closed out his address with: "Let us go out united and inspired by the words of our slave forefathers . . . Walk Together Children don't you get weary."

There were a number of banner and sign carrying interracial organizations seen within the crowd. One was the St. Martin Build of the Catholic Interracial Council on Human Justice of the Atlanta Diocese. Another was the Episcopal Society For Racial Justice.

Demonstrators Lay In Path Of Departing Bus

PHILADELPHIA — (UPI) — Twenty eight Negro and white civil rights demonstrators were arrested Sunday night after they laid on a street and delayed the departure of Trailways Co. buses from Union Bus Terminal.

The 17 men and 11 women defied the buses to run over them in a protest against alleged racial discrimination practices. The local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored people, which sponsored the demonstration, has accused the firm of keeping Negroes out of higher paying positions.

The buses, scheduled to leave the terminal over a two hour period, were delayed up to 30 minutes each. The arrests were made after the company signed a complaint.

VIEWS OF REAL ESTATE

By JESSE L. WILLIAMS
"Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it." Proverbs 22 chapter, 6 verse. The bible "I am the way, the truth, and the life: No man cometh unto the father, but by me." St. John 14 chapter, 6 verse—the Bible.

Salesmanship, its purposes and rewards. — In no other field of human endeavor are the opportunities and rewards so great as in salesmanship.

Without aid of capital, and frequently with but scant training, success comes to many a person who has a natural gift for persuading others that what is offered is necessary, desirable and properly priced.

Greater measure of success come, too, in this field of business activity, by far the largest number of top executives in the great businesses of the nation have risen from the ranks of salesmen, rather than from those engaged in manual, technological, and similar branches of business.

Production is static, it is a field in which processes are devised and repeated. Salesmanship is dynamic, involving changes of front from time to time to meet competition and to adjust prices and terms to prevailing economic conditions.

Selling techniques and principles are basic; that is they are relatively the same for various types of salesmanship. Their application to different kinds of business differ quite widely. This is particularly true of the sale of real estate.

Selling a radio, a suction sweeper, or a television set is comparatively simple because the commodity in each case is fully known and can be explained clearly and in detail in a comparatively short period of time.

Each article can be delivered promptly and without complication. Selling real estate, however, is much more complicated process because there are many kinds of real estate, each of which has distinctive features which require study and research. Real estate parcels are unique in that no two are exactly alike and no two necessarily have exactly the same value.

It follows, therefore, that the seller of real estate must have a broader fundamental knowledge of his product than the purveyor of a commodity which is mass produced, as most important articles are today.

Civil Rights Bill Will Pass Next Session---Case

WASHINGTON - (NNPA) - Senator Clifford P. Case (R-N.J.) predicted Sunday night that Congress will pass a civil rights bill in the next session. The New Jersey Republican told the Cleveland Civil Liberties Union in Cleveland that "passage of the bill is urgent, indeed long overdue." He said that, in the "aftermath of the dreadful events of Dallas," a bill that "carries the label but little of the substance of civil rights" will simply not fill the bill. He added that the "aftermath of the dreadful events of Dallas," a bill that "carries the label but little of the substance of civil rights" will simply not fill the bill. ### Heroes Of Emancipation Weekly Feature By NAACP

ROBERT BROWN ELLIOTT was born on August 11, 1812, in Boston, Mass. He was the son of a West Indian immigrant. Elliott was a scholar who was educated at an academy in London and at Eton, the famous training school of the English elite. After his studies in London, he returned to the United States, where he settled in South Carolina where he worked as a lawyer. He was a brilliant lawyer and reputed to be a remarkable linguist and the owner of one of the finest law libraries in the State of South Carolina. Of the 22 Negroes who served in Congress during the Reconstruction period, Elliott was considered to be the most brilliant and able. He was a very black man with pronounced Negro features with such purity of speech that many his countrymen rank him above Frederick Douglass as an orator. In 1869, at the age of 56, Elliott was elected to the South Carolina legislative assembly. Two years later he was elected to Congress. It is said that he felt that the House of Representatives did not offer enough of a challenge. Thus, although he was twice elected, he resigned both times after serving part of each term to return to South Carolina where he had become a political power.

Houston Board Member Stays On

HOUSTON, Texas - (ANP) - The first Negro member of the Houston Board of Education was invited to resign his seat last week after she declared that some actions of the board created the impression that it is anti-American and opposes the federal government. "Why don't you get off the board?" Mrs. Hattie M. White was asked by Mrs. K. W. Cullen, another board member, during a heated exchange. "You're always the one who is persecuted of the board and its actions." "Because I was elected just like you were," Mrs. White responded with some heat, adding: "And it would have to be the people who elected me to get me off of this board and not you." Mrs. White earlier had rejected board president Joe Kelly Butler's demand that she apologize for her remarks, which he had interpreted as his own light. "I will not apologize for my interpretation of something I did not say," Mrs. White stormed back at him.

Progress Has Been Made, But Negro Has Long Way To Go, President States

WASHINGTON - (NNPA) - President Johnson said on Dec. 12 there have been "significant improvements" in equality of opportunity for Negroes, but "we still have a long way to go."

The Chief Executive took this stand before representatives of 61 participating companies at a "Plans for Progress" meeting in the White House. He told them he wanted to be "absolutely clear" on one proposition: "The Federal Government will continue in its efforts to insure that employment, promotion, and personnel actions will be made on a non-discriminatory basis." Mr. Johnson added that "no one should be employed because he is a member of a minority group, and no one should be denied employment because he is a member of a minority group."

ARTIFICIAL STANDARDS "The fullest use of this Nation's most vital resource - human beings - will be achieved only when the artificial standards of race, religion or national origin are no longer used." The company officials, most of whom were from firms not engaged in defense contract work, were summoned to the White House for background briefing on the equality opportunity program.

Hold Speed Trial For NAACP Field Man Without Notice

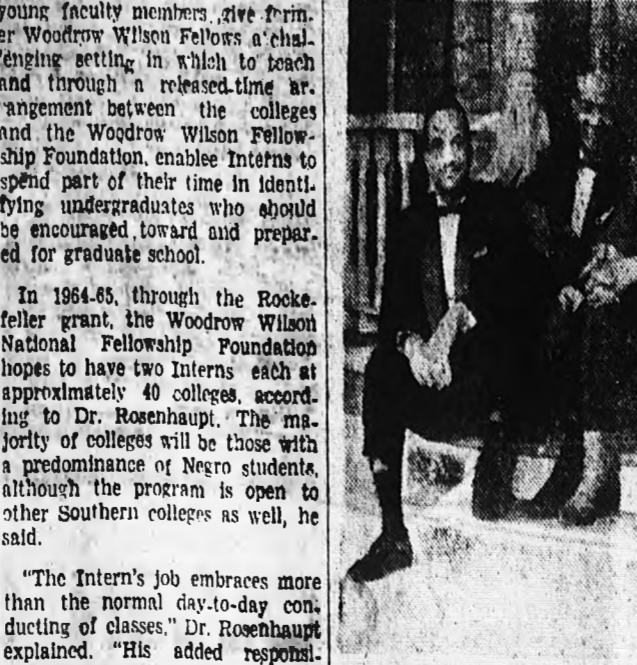

TIFTON, Ga. - A trial jury convicted Willie Ben Ludden, NAACP youth field secretary, this week for allegedly speeding. The trial was held one day earlier than originally scheduled and neither Mr. Ludden nor his attorney were notified of the change of date. When Atty. C. B. King of Albany, Ga., protested this highly irregular procedure, the judge summarily told Mr. King to "shut up." The judge stated that neither he nor his department had time to "go running around" looking for the defendant.

Mr. Ludden was arrested at 1:30 a. m. on August 31. He was held without benefit of counsel and denied the right to make a telephone call until 9:30 that morning. According to Mr. King, the NAACP field secretary's indictment was highly unusual as Mr. King knows of no other instance where speeding violations have required jury trials. Such a trial was clearly a violation of his civil rights, Mr. King stated.

Woodrow Wilson Fund Aided By Rockefeller Unit

PRINCETON, N. J. - Medical interns may dominate the TV screens, but in the actual drama of Southern higher education it's the Woodrow Wilson Teaching Intern who has won a significant role, thanks to a three-year Rockefeller Foundation grant of $405,000 announced this week. The grant was made to the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation to support its Teaching Internship Program inaugurated last fall on an experimental scale at twelve predominantly Negro colleges. "We are grateful that the Rockefeller Foundation has recognized the initial success of the internship experiment and has made it possible for the program to be extended during the next three years," Dr. Hans Rosenhaupt, National Director of the Woodrow Wilson program, said.

Through the internship program the Foundation will provide the colleges with a new source of young faculty members, give former Woodrow Wilson Fellows a challenging setting in which to teach and through a released-time arrangement between the colleges and the Woodrow Wilson Fellowship Foundation, enable interns to spend part of their time in identifying undergraduates who should be encouraged toward and prepared for graduate school. In 1964-65, through the Rockefeller grant, the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation hopes to have two interns each at approximately 40 colleges, according to Dr. Rosenhaupt. The majority of colleges will be those with a preponderance of Negro students, although the program is open to other Southern colleges as well, he said.

THE JUBILEE FOUR - The Jubilee Four makes its fifth and sixth appearances of the year on ABC-TV's "The Jimmy Dean Show" Thursday, Dec. 19 and Thursday, Dec. 26 (9-10 p.m., EST). They are (left to right) Jimmy Adams, Bill Johnson, George McFadden, Ted Brooks, from Los Angeles. The quartet's upcoming Columbia album is "Swinging Folk Songs." Already on the market is "Looking Up" for Reprise. Other Dean guests on Dec. 19 will be Anna Moffo and George Gobel, and on Dec. 26, Patty Duke, Jackie Mason and Lessie.

Nat Cole Paid Tribute In Congressional Record

LOS ANGELES - Nat King Cole received one of the most extraordinary tributes ever paid to a member of show business recently when California Congressman Augustus F. Hawkins read into the Congressional record a commendation of the famous star. Included in Congressman Hawkins' remarks were the following words for the celebrated entertainer: "Nat King Cole, the son of a poor Alabama farmer - a preacher's boy, risen by virtue of sheer talent and character to be one of the top members of his profession, enjoying an affection in the hearts of the public shared by few other entertainers."

Sunday School Lesson

BORN TO MAKE MEN FREE International Sunday School Lesson for December 22, 1963. MEMORY SELECTION: "When the time had fully come, God sent forth his Son, born of woman, born under the law, to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as sons." LESSON TEXT: Luke 2: 1-20; Galatians 3 and 4.

The cause of freedom - its seeking, its defending - has been the goal of mankind ever since the world began. Down through the ages men have struggled for freedom of one kind or another - the right to think; the right to speak freely what is in one's mind and heart; the right to believe; and for this great goal martyrs have been made, and man's blood has been spilt, just as the blood of Jesus Christ was shed to bring about the greatest freedom of all - the freedom of mankind from sin and his glorious redemption in God. Today we study the ever-beautiful story of Christmas. Down through the ages it has stayed unchanged; the same story is told over and over again, but the listener never tires of hearing it. The miracle of Christmas is that God came to dwell among mankind - not as an omnipotent being, but as a tiny human, going through all the motions of human beings, from infancy to manhood. This God-like child, despite his great destiny that was yet to unfold in the greatest drama the world has ever known, lived the life of a normal child of his times and of the faith into which he had been born. He observed the ritual requirements of Jewish law. He went to the Temple at the hour of prayer. The law under which devout Jewish families lived had served them well, and Jesus paid it the

Intensify Efforts Against Poverty In Rurals - Edwards

WASHINGTON - Pointing out that 84 percent of all colored farm families are "boxed in" living under conditions of poverty or near poverty, Dr. Alfred L. Edwards, the new Deputy Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, challenged Negro professional agricultural workers last week to intensify their efforts to help these families gain a firmer foothold in the economy. Dr. Edwards, a former economist at Michigan State and Southern University, was speaking at the 31st annual awards dinner of the Professional Agricultural Workers Conference at Tuskegee Institute. In the audience were more than 100 agricultural workers from all over the United States. Awards went to more fortunate than it, and is within the range of success. But, by the same token, should warring factions prevail, the closeness of nations which in many ways is such a blessing, could very easily become a Frankenstein. The splitting of the atom, which hailed an era of great promise for science working in the interests of humanity, also hailed an era which contained a veiled threat to the welfare of mankind. This Christmas, more than ever before, we need to be especially aware of the beauty of the Christmas story - the glorious purpose behind the birth of Christ - hope and redemption for mankind - the glorious but agonizing purpose behind His suffering of the Cross - redemption of man's immortal soul. ### Use A Few Feet Of Wall For Compact Sew Center

A home sewing center can be mighty compact. In an apartment, it might be concentrated on the inside of a closet door. In a house, take just six feet of wall space in each direction from a corner. That was how the Masonite Design Center solved a homemaker's dilemma of having "a big need for a sewing center but little space available." Ingredients for the home improve ment are (1) a bit of wall space, (2) three panels of factory-finished hardboard such as Royalcoote Honey tone cherry, (3) a table and chair, (4) a portable sewing machine, Department and variety stores have many sewing supplies that will enable the homemaker to accessorize the space once she has staked a claim on it. Putting up the walls is a cinch for a handyman husband, as the Masonite woodgrained panels may be attached right over old walls. Since they have a factory finish, they require only occasional damp-wiping for maintenance.

Wilkins Hits Fuller Statement To Industrialists

BALTIMORE - Attacks upon the U. S. Supreme Court because of its liberal rulings in constitutional cases "suggests as strongly as could any other illustration, the continuing menace to the American charter of freedom, the Constitution," Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary, told students of Morgan State College here on a program in observance of Bill of Rights Day. "The events of the Sixties, in the civil rights field, and particularly those of 1963, must constitute a warning to all Americans concerned with safeguarding the Bill of Rights," he continued. Turning to remarks recently made by S. B. Fuller, at the 68th annual Congress of American Industry in New York, Mr. Wilkins quoted the Chicago manufacturer as having said the Negro has been held back not by segregation and discrimination, but by his "lack of initiative, courage, integrity, loyalty and wisdom." Unfortunately, the Negro believes there is a racial barrier in America which keeps him from succeeding. PERSISTENCE CITED In these remarks, the NAACP leader asserted, "Mr. Fuller stands the great body of Negro citizens in this nation. They have shown courage and persistence and determination against the kind of odds no gambler would accept. They have fought and overcome handicaps that no men should be called upon to face. They have struggled up by their bootstraps, bought homes and farms, educated their children, pushed their way up from nothing to something. "No barriers? Who dares say there were no racial barriers to progress? Ask the men who were lynched for want of a trial in a court. Ask the men who went to road gangs for want of due process of law. Ask the men and women who paid interest ten times over for money to live and rear their families. Ask the young couple trying to buy a home trying to get mortgage money. Ask the men and women and students who sent their spirits and their bodies against the exclusion of Route 40 here in Maryland. "The Negro in America knows there are racial barriers. He has cut his hands, scarred his body, lost his loved ones on those barriers."

Adoptions Up, But Not For Colored

WASHINGTON - (NNPA) - More than a million children were adopted in the United States during the period from 1961 through 1962, according to the Children's Bureau of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. There were 61 per cent more adoptions in 1962 than in 1961. But the Bureau said some children are harder to find homes for than others. These include children over two years of age, children of minority (nonwhite) groups and those with physical handicaps. H. H. Hankins, Farmers Home Administration State director of Arkansas, and Dolores E. Magee, Farmers Home State program staff assistant of Mississippi. The Secretary's Office, Dr. Edwards said, has a great deal of concern for farm families that have total incomes of less than $7,500 a year. Some 38 percent of all farm families are in this category, he added. "This group," the Deputy Assistant Secretary said, "is described as 'locked in' or 'boxed in' and represents the hard core of the pockets of poverty. "These families," he continued, "live under conditions of poverty or near poverty and make up the largest number of deprived of any group in the Nation." Emphasizing the problems of colored farmers, the economist said 84 percent of all nonwhite farm families are in this group. "We are concerned," he declared, "because these farmers are truly one of the most distressed economic groups in America. In 1962, their net incomes from agriculture averaged $438, and their net income from other sources averaged $625."

Magicians Whip Fisk And Stillman, Move On To Alabama State

Locals To Play In Holiday Tourney At Winston-Salem

The Magicians of LeMoyn College are in Montgomery on Thursday night of this week for a return engagement with Alabama State following victories last week over Fisk University, 53-49, and Stillman, 77-74.

The LeMoynites will be in the next week, but move to North Carolina shortly after Christmas to participate in the Winston-Salem Holiday Festival slated for Dec. 30-31. The sparkling Magicians will be back in Bruce Hall for four home games during the month of January: at Tuskegee, Jan. 3; Knoxville, Jan. 7; Dillard, Jan. 13, and Miles, Jan. 15.

They'll play four road games in January, going against Lane at Jackson, Tenn., Jan. 10; Tuskegee at Tuskegee, Ala., Jan. 25; Benedict at Columbia, S. C., Jan. 28, and Allen at Columbia, Jan. 29.

The LeMoyn charges proved themselves masters of the court in whipping the powerful Fisk machine and out-manuevering the scrappy Stillman five from Tuscaloosa, Ala. Against Fisk, the Magicians played "control" and "set-up" ball and bewildered the invading Bulldogs. That Fisk coach "Bud" Thompson snatched his charges from the floor during the final two minutes of the game and carried them back to Nashville. Thompson took his team off the floor during a near-exchange of blows among opposing players, charging that officials had permitted the game "to get out of hand."

In the LeMoyn - Stillman battle, it was tit for tat in the first half, and then the Magicians pulled out to a 20-point lead in the third quarter only to lose most of it in the final period.

LeMoyn played both games without the service of its scoring ace, Monroe Curran, who was out with a lame ankle.

Big James Gordon, LeMoyn's No. 2 scorer and dependable defensive man, rode the bench most of the time during the contest with Stillman.

Gordon, however, was high man for LeMoyn against Fisk.

Captain Robert Hambrie, Paul Lowery and Robert Nelson were the veterans setting the pace for LeMoyn, along with freshmen Robert Hardaway, James Sandridge, Marion Brewer, Thomas Harding and Edward Brents.

Also giving good performances were Cleopius Owens and Verties Sails, both seniors.

ORANGE BLOSSOM CLASSIC CHAMPIONSHIP TROPHY - Charles J. Smith III presented the first annual Orange Blossom Classic Championship Trophy to Florida A&M quarterback James Tullis and All-American End Al Denson following Florida A&M's 30-7 victory over Morgan State, Dec. 14 in the Orange Bowl. Looking on is FAMU Coach Jake Gaither. The trophy was donated by R-C Colo.

LeMoyn's Holiday Tourney Is Slated For Dec. 26-28

LeMoyn's annual Holiday Tournament for high schools in the Memphis area will be unrecited Dec. 26-28 with 11 teams participating. It was announced this week by Jerry Johnson, athletic director at the college.

There will be two sections of first round play on Thursday, Dec. 26, with three games in the afternoon and four that night.

Afternoon contests will throw Mitchell Road against Capleville at 1 o'clock, Douglass in a match with Hamilton at 2 o'clock, and Woodstock against Manassas at 3.

In the night battles, Booker T Washington will take on Melrose at 6, Carver will encounter the winner of the Mitchell - Capleville tilt at 9:45, Bertrand will be matched against the winner of Douglass-Hamilton melee at 7:45, and Lester will go against the winner of the Woodstock - Manassas fracas at 8:45.

Rainy Day

Beside a casement window clings
A butterfly with rain-drenched wings
To me, small matter if it rain
Tomorrow brings the sun again

But if my life were one brief day
And all my sky were sodden-gray
And cold rain fell unceasingly
What could amend the tragedy?

RUGGED WINTER AHEAD

Crab Orchard, Tenn. — If her signs hold true, Mrs. James Lane says we are in for another rugged winter.

Judging from the fogs in August, the number of spiders in the area, the number of hornet nests near the ground and the thickness of bark on trees, Mrs. Lane has made her prediction.

She does not claim to be a weather wizzard but just watches for the signs and waits to see if they come true. Her prediction for last year was correct.

DR. PRINZ ACCLAIMS NEW GOODWILL SPIRIT

NEW YORK — The president of the American Jewish Congress declared recently that during 1963 the country's three major religious faiths had moved "closer than ever before to mutual understanding, mutual respect and mutual cooperation."

Dr. Joachim Prinz of Newark, N. J. said the new spirit of inter-religious good will was a by-product of the civil rights struggle in which Protestants, Catholics and Jews had joined hands in "common action to advance the common good."

"Not by drinking a toast to brotherhood once a year but by working together every day to advance the cause of equality for all our citizens have Protestants, Catholics and Jews been able to develop a genuine sense of community," Dr. Prinz told the American Jewish Congress national governing council at Stephen Wise Congress House

15 East 94th St.

ADDRESS TO MEET

In his address to the year-end meeting of the Congress' policy-making group, Dr. Prinz asserted: "At a moment of moral crisis in America, the three great faiths have come into their own by embarking on a great campaign in which racial equality and social justice for all citizens have become the new religious battle cry."

He continued: "The leaders of American Protestantism, Catholicism and Judaism recognized that if the churches and synagogues were to play a significant role in our time, they had no choice but to join the great moral struggle for racial equality. In doing so, they have replaced the shallow and perfunctory expressions of inter-religious 'tolerance' with the genuine regard that can come only from a shared commitment and a shared experience. 'Out of the same crucible in which full equality in a free society for all Americans is being forged,' Dr. Prinz declared, 'an authentic and enduring relationship of appreciation and esteem is emerging among Christians and Jews that bodes well for the American future.'"

In asserting that 1963 had seen more progress toward inter-religious understanding than in any previous year, Dr. Prinz listed five major developments that took place during the last twelve months:

1) The March on Washington last August, in which thousands of ministers, priests and rabbis, representing almost every religious sect and denomination, demonstrated "a remarkable unity in support of the goal of jobs and freedom."

2) The Conference on Religion and Race held in Chicago last January in support of their joint commitment to the civil rights struggle.

3) The Vatican Council in Rome, "from which has emanated a new ecumenical spirit embracing not only Christians but men of all faiths."

4) Announcement by Pope Paul VI of plans to visit the Holy Land which Dr. Prinz described as "a tangible recognition of the shared roots of the Jewish and Christian traditions."

5) The growing number of inter-religious "dialogues" in communities across the country in which differences between religious groups on issues of public concern are discussed "in free and open debate in an atmosphere of mutual trust and respect."

Demonstrations Resume In Jackson; 6 Arrested

JACKSON, Miss. — Six members of the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People last week defied a state court injunction issued this summer against demonstrations and resumed protest picketing against the segregationist policies of the city administration.

Police promptly arrested the demonstrators and charged each with violating ordinances commonly used to discourage peaceful protests by advocates of equal rights and justice — blocking the sidewalk and parading without a permit. The six — all Negro women — were released on $500 bond apiece.

Readings of Jackson, the demonstrators arrested while carrying signs protesting discrimination were the Misses Stella Harrington, 22; Theresa Esley, 31; Nina Mae Benson, 38; Mattie Mae Jackson, 21; Geneva Rucker, 41; and Minnie Jewel Eiland, 29.

MAYOR INACTION HIT

Charles Evers, Mississippi State NAACP field secretary said demonstrations would continue until racial differences were settled.

"We are going to demonstrate until the mayor meets with us," Evers said.

"We have given him five months and he hasn't met with us," he added.

The city was the scene of mass demonstrations this summer during which Medgar Eers, brother of Charles, was brutally slain by a bullet in the back.

Medgar Evers was then NAACP field secretary and civil rights stalwart in the State of Mississippi.

Charles Evers said the demonstrations against racial injustices would continue until six demands were met. The demands are: biracial public facilities; removal of segregation signs in buildings; the hiring of qualified Negro city bus drivers; additional Negro police and crossing guards; and general upgrading of Negroes in civil service committees meeting; desegregation vice jobs.

Autograph Party For Langston Hughes

NEW YORK, N. Y. — The Dunbar Book Company of N. Y. C. recently held a Gala Autograph Party and Reception in honor of Langston Hughes. The affair heralded the recent Grand Opening of the book store in the heart of Harlem at the Brotherhood Building, 217 West 125th Street.

Among the many well-wishers at the Autograph Party were: Hilda Simms, star of Langston Hughes' recent Broadway play, "Tambourines To Glory." Miss Simms read some of Hughes' poems to the audience. Representatives from the Dahomey, Ghana, Kenya and Jamaica delegations to the United Nations were also present.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of a bronze plaque to Langston Hughes after he had recited the audience to recitations from his recent book "Selected Poems." The plaque was presented to Hughes "For Outstanding Contribution to Negro and African Literature."

Sleeping Car Porters Set For Strike

WASHINGTON — A Phillip Randolph, AFL-CIO vice president and president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, AFL-CIO, announced Dec. 14 that December 20 has been set as a strike deadline following the breakdown in negotiations with railroad management.

The strike deadline was established following the union's inability to obtain agreement on a 173-hour work month, the equivalent of a 40-hour week.

Affected would be all of the nation's railroads which utilize the Pullman company's equipment as well as those railroads having their own sleeping cars.

"We seek only what 95 per cent of the other railroad workers in America already have — the 40 hour week, and we want it now," Randolph declared.

"The cost to the companies for the 3,000 men involved is so minuscule that we must believe that there is some motive other than monetary which prevents agreement," he said.

Randolph estimated the cost of the union's proposals at 1,500th of 1 per cent of the operating costs of the railroads. The union also seeks a wage increase and job security provisions.

The breakdown in negotiations came after more than a month of meeting which followed issuance of the report by Emergency Board No. 155 on the dispute.

There Will Always Be Christmas

There will always be Christmas, the blush
Of crimsoning morn creeping out the night
Bathes hearts that still kneel in the soft golden hush
Of children's clear voices by tree-jeweled light.
Strange that men fashion worlds on chameleon sand
While a child stands in wonder with uplifted hands
There will always be Christmas, and on
Into the centuries, dim-light ahead
There will always be joys as simple as dawn,
Garlands in door-ways, hallowed breaking of bread;
These are the healers of life's hurt and scar:
A child and a stable and Bethlehem's Star.

— By Leila Pier King

WE SHALL FIND CHRISTMAS
The heart can hold its treasure
yet
The shepherd of its ancient way
There is no darkness or no grief
Can bar the dawn of Christmas Day.

For we shall see the mountain robbed
As jeweled kings who still must keep
In winter's Alpine solitude
A tryst with quietness and sleep.

Of ridges dark with evergreens
We shall remember Him who sees
Beyond the turning of the years
And sets His promise on the trees.

We shall find Christmas in the stars,
In constellations far and bright,
And walk the road the Wise Men took.
Into the star-illuminated night!

THE SHEPHERDS' WATCH
Oh shepherds who watch over the flocks by night,
Arouse ye, don't tarry, Make haste and take flight!

For what progress has been made,
there is still a greater need for an increased role of the Negro woman on the policy making level of our government.

IMPLEMENTATION
The leaders continued, "Many of the issues embodied in recommendations from the consultations of Negro women, as recently released by the President's Commission on the Status of Women, have to be implemented. Through the years Negro women have had to fill the gaps in community services where such services have been lacking or denied Negro citizens. While the need for volunteer services continues, women recognize the importance of greater support at the community level."

"Given assistance, women can be counted upon to carry forward such services as Day, Care, Adult Education Centers, and special aids for the prevention of juvenile delinquency."

The leaders added, "Women's groups have found that it is possible to extend services once they are started. However, in the economically deprived areas, the resources for initiating services, are greatly needed."

The women also expressed the opinion that the Civil Rights legislation needs to be strengthened so that the powers of the Attorney General can be extended for a wider protection of individuals.

The leaders also stressed a need for more allies in all segments of the population, especially in areas where the Negro population is small. Already, some women's groups have begun work toward getting support for these critical areas.

Following the conference with the President, Miss Height and Dr. Gragg set in motion a plan for joint efforts of local units and affiliate organizations to engage in a more intensive drive to support Civil Rights legislation.

Fla. Councilman Considers Quitting After Cross-Burn

LAWTEY, Fla. — (ANP) — Last week, Robert Scott, a construction worker, became the first Negro ever elected here when he placed third in a race for city councilman. This week he is considering resigning his office in the wake of a cross-burning on his lawn Sunday night, Dec. 15.

Scott was one of three councilmen elected out of a field of eight candidates. Local observers and election officials indicated that Scott's victory wasn't surprising since Negro voter registration is said to outnumber that of whites.

The town of Lawtey has a population of 623.

The day after the cross-burning on his lawn, Scott was reported ready to resign. Tuesday night he said he plans to "wait and see what happens."

Scott said he considers the flaming cross the work of cranks.

Women Leaders Meet With LBJ

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Miss Dorothy I. Height, National President, National Council of Negro Women, Inc. and Dr. Rosa L. Gragg, President, National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc. at the invitation of President Lyndon B. Johnson, met with the Chief Executive at the White House, Friday, Dec. 13.

During the meeting, President Johnson spoke highly of the way women work to achieve goals to which they are dedicated, the leaders said. He showed the same vital interest in Civil Rights and other issues as he had set forth in his message to Congress.

The President seemed keenly aware of the problems affecting social and economic welfare of the Negro family, said the leaders. He emphasized the importance of women's groups working on such problems as school drop-outs and offering assistance in all parts of the community.

Following the meeting, both women leaders issued a statement saying, "The passage of the Civil Rights legislation must be the first order of business. A great deal has been done already by women, but much more has to be done, now. Discrimination against women and against the Negro results in limited opportunities for the trained and untrained alike. There is a large reservoir of untapped talent among our women, with due appreciation
