Melrose Set For Title Go With CBHS

A predicted crowd of 10,000 or more will be on hand this Friday night in Memorial Stadium to watch Melrose's Golden Wildcats and powerful Christian Brothers battle for the city high school football championship.

JACKIE ROBINSON

The game will be history-making. It will be the first time in Memphis for a Negro team to go against a white aggregation in a championship contest and it will be the first outing for a prep title melee in the big stadium.

Melrose, the underdog, won a berth in this deciding game by taming Trenzevant, 33-6, before 2,000 last Thursday night in the MIAA Blue Division playoff.

Christian Brothers won the Red Division playoff Friday night before 8,000 at Crump Stadium by defeating the stubborn Booker T. Washington Warriors, 21-7.

Melrose will be banking on their 130-pound sophomore quarterback, Larry Perkins, who tossed 11 touchdown passes during the regular season and engineered his team to victory last week.

He threw another touchdown drive in the playoff and trotted off 73 yards for a spectacular TD. The Golden Wildcats No. 1 ground gainer, William Evans, is expected to see action against CBHS. He was out last week with a leg injury.

CBHS, with a 10-0 record, will throw a heavy defensive line in front of Melrose and sport some good ball-luggers in fullback Duane Donahoe, halfback Jay Freeman and quarterback Jackie Zdanczewicz.

A colorful halftime show is being planned for the championship game.

Jesse Turner's Analysis Of City Election:

By JESSE H. TURNER, President of NAACP

An analysis of the election held in the city of Memphis, Oct. 5, 1967, indicates that, in the race for mayor, 53%, or 43,000, of the registered Negroes voted. On the other hand, two thirds of the registered white voters voted in this race.

Mayor William B. Ingram received 23,000, or 53 percent, of the Negro votes and 13,000, or 12 percent of the white votes. A. W. Willis received 17,000, or 39 percent of the Negro votes and less than 1,000 white votes. Sheriff William Morris and Commissioner Hunter Lane each received about 3 1/2 percent of the Negro votes.

In the races for councilmen (from districts and at-large) where there were Negro and white candidates, white voters, overwhelmingly, bloc-voted for white candidates.

Surprising, however, were the white votes received by Rev. E. W. Williamson and Rev. James Lawson in their unsuccessful races for seats on the city board of education. Rev. Williamson received 31,000 votes, of which the majority (17,000) were white. Rev. Lawson received 8,000 white votes and 18,000 Negro votes.

Ten percent of the Negro voters who entered the voting machines failed to vote in the mayor's race; only about 70 percent of the Negroes who voted in the mayor's race, also, voted in the district councilman's races. This, however, was considerably higher than the corresponding 40 percent who voted in contests for councilmen at-large.

First, in hotly contested races with candidates and issues with which the masses of Negroes identify themselves, the number of Negroes who vote is usually 10 percent of more below the white turnout. Secondly, the effectiveness of the Negro vote drops rather sharply in all contests after the top race. The restrictions against "numbers"

The rejection of Mr. Willis by the Negro voters forecasts the type of problems which any Negro who, seriously, contends for a top office in our city will face - invidious, lies, character assassinations, etc., with which white candidates, with sufficient resources and a few Negro supporters, can and will blanket every area in the Negro community.

When one scans the Negro community, economic life or behavior, perhaps, he should have not been surprised at the results in the Willis race, because the problems faced by Mr. Willis were no different from those faced by the Negro insurance man, the Negro grocer, the Negro merchant. The years of physical slavery followed by subsequent years of economic slavery have left the scars of their wounds with all of their effects on the Negro. These include lack of confidence in one another and the belief of "white superiority."

Perhaps, the most frightening aspect of the election is the extent to which the seeds of racial unrest may have been sown by the many promises of help in alleviating the miserable conditions of our people by white candidates and their Negro friends. The next twelve months will be crucial for race relations in our community.

Despite these problems, the NAACP must redouble its efforts to see that Negroes recognize issues in future campaigns. A program of voter education is a "must." Negroes must not be satisfied with the crumbs from the political table; they must demand their share of the whole loaf now.

Next week: Mr. Turner will give his analysis of the Nov. 2 Election.

Along The Sports Trail

BY SAM BROWN

As the Prep League, or rather the Memphis Interscholastic Athletic Association football season comes to its close, all eyes of the football fans are turned to the play off for the city championship game, scheduled for Friday night at the Memphis Memorial Stadium.

The play for the title will pit Melrose Golden Wildcats against the Christian Brothers High School Purple Wave as a result of the Golden Wildcats having won over the Crescent Bears 33-6, and the Purple Wave dropped Booker T. Washington 21-7 in the playoffs for the Divisions title.

This is the first playoff of the MIAA, the organization that replaced the former Memphis Prep League and the Negro Prep League, as a result of the integration of the athletic program of the city schools. As the battle nears for the first playoff under the new setup, we find an all Negro team meeting a predominantly white team. So, the first MIAA championship will be decided Friday night.

The Blues Bowl Committee for the selection of the teams to bat Game, sponsored by the Elks Lodge 96 of Memphis will announce its selection in the next few days. Because of regulations of the MIAA and the Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletic Association, the task of selecting eligible opponents has been a little more difficult than previously.

Under TSSAA rules, a team must have won a certain number

LeMoyne Actors Sparkle In Play

If Memphis is handing out any Oscars, they should go to the LeMoyne Players who have just completed a three-day run of "Purple Victorious" in the college's Little Theatre.

The hilarious comedy, written by well-known Ozzie Davis, played to near-capacity houses Thursday and Friday nights and on Saturday morning.

Success of the student-faculty production is a credit to young James Lee, new speech and drama director at the college.

The play deals with life on the old cotton plantation and is loaded with lines that produce tears as well as roaring laughter.

Student actors in the play were superb with James Phillips starring as Ghlo Judson, Loreta Arty turning in an excellent role as Miss Judson and Johnson Holloway handling in magnificent style the tough role of Purple Victorious Judson. Martha Hill stood out as Lullabelle Gussie Mae Jenkins and Janice Jamerson won applause as Idella Landy.

Hamilton-Oakhaven In 'Blues' Bowl

Hamilton and Oakhaven have been named as participants in the 29th annual Blues Bowl Game scheduled for Crump Stadium December 1. Hamilton played in the AAA Red Division and Oakhaven was a member of the AA Blue Division. Both compiled the same records in their divisions during the season.

This marks the first time a white team has played in the Blues Bowl Game, sponsored by the Beale Street Elks to raise funds for their Christmas Charities.

Last year Father Brittan played Howard High of Chattanooga in the annual Blues Bowl Game, with Bertrand winning 26-6.

Also announced today Catholic and Treadwell have been selected for the Blind Game to be played at Crump Stadium November 28. Both games are charity affairs for the benefit of the needy of Memphis.

By FRED DOWN

NEW YORK (UPI) - Triple Crown winner Carl Yastrzemski became the fourth Boston Red Sox star ever to win the American League's Most Valuable Player Award when he received 19 of a possible 20 first-place votes.

The vote that prevented the 28-year-old Yastrzemski from being a unanimous selection went to Cesar Tovar, who played six positions for the Minnesota Twins and finished seventh in the overall balloting by the 20-man committee of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Orlando Cepeda, slugging first baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, was a unanimous selection this year as the National League's MVP.

Yastrzemski who led the American League with a .326 average and 121 runs batted in and tied Harmon Killebrew for the home run lead with 44, got 19 first-place votes for 275 of a possible 280 points were awarded for a first place vote nine for a second place vote, eight for third and so on down to one for 10th.

Killebrew, the only other player mentioned on all 20 ballots, was second in the voting with 161 points, followed by catcher Bill Freehan of the Detroit Tigers with 137, pitcher Joe Horlen of the Chicago White Sox with 91 and outfielder Al Kaline of the Tigers with 88.

A YANKEE 'FIRST'

Rounding out the top 10 were pitcher Jim Lonborg of the Red Sox with 82, Tovar and shortstop Jim Eregosi of the California Angels with 70 each, pitcher Gary Peters of the White Sox with 37 and first baseman George Scott of the Red Sox with 33.

Fifteen other players, representing seven of the league's 10 teams, received at least one vote. No Cleveland, Kansas City or New York player was mentioned, marking the first time since the award was inaugurated in 1931 that no member of the Yankees received a vote.

MOBILE, Ala. — Five investigators from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare moved into Washington county, Ala., this week to conduct a probe of racial conditions in the schools there.

The investigation was ordered by HEW. It came after protests were jointly filed by the Non-Partisan Voters League, the Citizens Committee and Alabama Conference for Social Justice — with several Federal departments, charging that a wave of terrorism was directed against Negro students attending formerly all-white Leroy High School in an effort to drive them from classes.

The team of investigators is identified with the civil rights division of HEW. Three of the number, Frederick T. Cloffier, Theodore Johnson and Miss Ann Yasiter, came from Washington, and the other two, Horace Bohannon and Switson S. Wigfall, Sr., from the Atlanta regional office.

One group of the members was accompanied to Washington county Monday evening by J. L. LeFlore, veteran civil rights leader, who filed the complaints. He is case work director for the three organizations in the case filed.

LeFlore said that a complaint was first filed in behalf of concerned Negro citizens of Washington county with the Department of Justice after a 14-year-old Negro student, Albert Abston, of the Leroy High School was so badly beaten by white students of the same school that he had to be hospitalized for about two weeks at a Jackson hospital.

Previously, white students had beaten other Negro students, threatened others and succeeded in running two away.

The two who were run away enrolled at the Negro high school at Prestrick, which is a frame structure with improvised and overcrowded classroom arrangements. This school just recently discarded outside privy toilets, which still remain standing on the school grounds. Leroy High is a modern brick school.

LeFlore said that stories gathered from the Negro students of Leroy High and their parents revealed that a reign of terror was being waged against them.

He added that from evidence gathered the Negro students evidently were not given any protection by the principal, the school board or the sheriff's department until FBI agents were sent in by the Department of Justice. "The situation is presently regarded as quiet at the school, the widely-

For He Is Good And Just Oh Give Thanks Unto The Lord

Thanksgiving can easily be traceable to an American origin, though it is referred to throughout the Bible and in many places in world history.

The American principle would stem from the Pilgrim fathers who "braved the wild New England shore" in all its frozen etchings from an intolerable climate that kept its own for long winters.

So severe was the first winter, when spring came to ease their pain and passion, there were some "42 graves on the hill side" of those pioneers and first born who come this way.

That was freedom blood that flowed through the veins of those bold pioneers who were willing to stake their lives and endure privations and give the last full measure of devotion for what they believed would mean liberty.

The turkey is an emblem of Thanksgiving celebration. The settlers found an abundance of turkey game in the wild lands and accordingly they killed turkeys and brought them to their first altar sacrifice, which endures also to this day.

So, we come to another Thanksgiving. There is an abundance of turkey meat and hardly anyone who desires a turkey will be without one.

We welcome our Thanksgiving "gift of God" and we come to this day in gratitude for "His goodness and mercy"—enduring to all generations.

May all nations become brothers in the flesh and peace-lovers everywhere join in that wondrous Psalm:

"The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want; He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters— He restoreth my soul, For His name's sake."

For Presidential Race:

Nixon Says GOP Field Narrowed To 5 Men

WASHINGTON—(UPI)—Richard M. Nixon said Sunday the Republican search for a presidential candidate had been narrowed to five candidates: three governors, a senator and Richard M. Nixon.

The former vice president referred to himself in the third person as he assessed current political trends in a copyrighted interview with U. S. News and World Report.

He said "only five" men have a chance to win the GOP nomination and they are Governors Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, George Romney of Michigan and Ronald Reagan of California, Sen. Charles H. Percy, R-Ill., and himself.

Charged With Intent To Murder After Firing At Trooper

OCILLA, Ga. — (UPI) — Charges of assault with intent to murder were filed Monday against an Ashburn man who, according to the State Patrol, fired two shotgun blasts at a trooper during a roadside incident Saturday night.

The patrol's office at Douglas said Elvin Hobbs, 44, fired twice at Trooper P. W. Anderson after Anderson had stopped another car for speeding on U. S. 319 between Ocilla and Tifton.

GOING TO PIGS

MOSCOW — (UPI) — Siberian pigs dine daily on seal skins which could better be made into fur coats, a Soviet newspaper complained Thursday. The newspaper, Komosolnaya Pravda, said hunters of Siberian spruce seals sell their skins to estate farms. They said one Far Eastern factory which processes seal skins is too small to handle the supply. 8-County Area Plans Loyalty Day

TIFFON, Ga. — (UPI) — An eight-county area of south Georgia will hold a special Tift Area Loyalty Day here Dec. 3 to express support for American servicemen in Vietnam. Sen. Herman Talmdge, D-Ga., will be featured speaker.

Asked if a Reagan candidacy would adversely affect his chances in any of these races, he said the California governor "would draw more votes from me than Romney."

"The question is," he added, "whether there would be some one else on the ballot on the other side — a Percy or Rockefeller — who might draw from Romney. But if it's a three-way race between Romney, Nixon and Reagan, it makes the task more difficult for Nixon to win than it would be if it were a two-way race between Nixon and Romney."

Nixon said any of the five potential GOP candidates could beat President Johnson unless the nomination is won at the cost of dividing the party. But he predicted there would be no repeat of the divisive 1964 Republican race.

"We are not saying we are for or against the war in Vietnam," said the Rev. W. E. Chapple, a retired Army chaplain who heads the planning committee. "We simply are saying we are behind our fighting men."

MY WEEKLY SERMON by REV. BLAIR T. HUNT, PASTOR, MISSISSIPPI BLVD CHRISTIAN CHURCH MEMPHIS, TENN.

SUBJECT: "I AM THANKFUL" Text: In every thing give thanks: For this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you. —I Thess. 5:18

I am thankful for a Christian home, I am thankful that early in life I met Jesus Christ. I am thankful that when a little child my mother taught me to kneel each night and pray "Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray the Lord my soul to keep, if I should die before I wake I pray the Lord my soul to take, Make me a good little boy." Amen.

COLOR PREJUDICE BOOMERANGS BADLY

That there are many evils in the life of mankind today, is an obvious fact that none can deny. But according to the matured judgement of the late H. G. Wells one of the world's greatest historians and philosophers, the very worst thing in the life of the Twentieth Century world is color prejudice. The supports for such ominous conclusion are abundant, and can be so easily substantiated by evidences that everywhere abound. Although our God exhorts in the First Commandment "Thou shalt have no other gods before me" a casual observation will reveal that color prejudice is the number one god of the present world, with the dollar coming a close second! Race prejudice is easily the Baal of mankind in general. It was most merciful of our God to ven grant that we might have other gods, but none should come before Him. Today's world is even as a Mount Carmel, where the prophets of Baal are vying with the prophets of the God of Abraham Isaac and Jacob. On Mount Carmel of long ago, the prophets of Baal outnumbered the prophets of God 400 to 1, so we can say with abundant assurance that today the worshippers of the Baal of race prejudice outnumber the worshippers of our God by the millions. And so race prejudice has become an evil contagion and a devastating moral scourge that forebodes the earthly damnation of mankind. Great woes must come upon a world, scourged by race or color prejudice, and only God in one of his many mysterious ways, can save mankind from the destruction that is threatening through color prejudice.

and distribution. Let's take a look at the background. Ambitious Negroes for the white man. He chose the hard way! He ran head-on into the two things he wanted most to avoid, and that is, turning over his fine cities to Negroes and at the same time advancing the Negroes. Will the deterioration of our fine cities, that is almost certain if the moined part of our population continue its flight-compensate for the white man's loss through race prejudice? The most that can be said is that race prejudice is boomeranging badly. The prejudiced white man's loss may conceivably be the Negro's gain!

Health Care For People Goal Of Research Project

KANSAS CITY, Mo.—A research project designed to pinpoint the problems of bringing first-class health services to the total U. S. population has been launched by the American Academy of General Practice and the University of North Carolina School of Public Health. The project is being financed by the United States Public Health Service.

A contract signed by the Academy and the USPHS provides $58,000 to finance the first phase of the project. According to Mac F. Cahal, Academy executive director, the total cost will be over $250,000.

served as President of the Georgia Mental Health Association in 1952-53 and President of the National Association for Mental Health in 1957-58.

He has been a leader in legislative action in Georgia for better facilities and care for the mentally ill.

Judge Alverson was installed officially at an installation and awards banquet held today at the Palmer House.

In this capacity, Judge Alverson will help guide the association's policies and programs through the 1967-68 year.

The UNC School of Public Health will conduct the initial phase of the study under a subcontract agreement with the Academy. Supervisor of the project, the Academy is the nation's second-largest national medical association and spokesman for more than 30,000 U. S. family doctors.

Dr. William F. Lathrop, Jacksonville, Miss. chairman of the AAGP Board of Directors and head of the organization's Clinical Investigation Committee, will direct the project for the Academy.

The USPHS-AAGP agreement was reached in a joint meeting in October of Academy officials, USPHS representatives and representatives from the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, N.C.

Dr. John Cassell, professor of epidemiology at UNC, and Dr. Barbara Hults, assistant professor of epidemiology and head of the project for the University, attended the planning session in Durham, N. C., the first of a series to be held during the one year period for the initial phase of the project.

According to Dr. Hults, the School of Public Health will use this time to isolate the problems in the American vein of health care delivery and to formulate questions for further study. Later phases of the research project will attempt to answer these questions and provide solutions, she said.

According to Dr. George B. Burkett Jr., AAGP president, the Academy has long advocated the necessity for more efficient and equitable delivery of medical resources to the people and for production of many more family physicians to serve as the primary guides for the family in obtaining the best possible medical care.

Dr. Burkett stated that "it is medicine's responsibility to make available to all communities the best medical knowledge and personnel available" and that "such high quality medical care should be available without traveling 100-200 miles to get it."

"The Kinston, N.C., physician reported tremendous enthusiasm for a project of this type in both medical and lay circles throughout the country," he added that "the few studies of this nature which have been undertaken have been fragmented and uncoordinated."

Maddox Denies Dispute:

Gray Says National Demo Party May Dump Humphrey For Kennedy

Gov. Lester Maddox, who has so far spurned the flirtations of third-party candidates, says he "may have to go elsewhere" if speculation by Georgia Democratic chairman James Gray comes true.

Gray told a televised news conference Monday that the National party may dump Vice President Hubert Humphrey in favor of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., on its 1968 ticket in an attempt to get more support from "big city" industry.

The "dump Humphrey" move would be most likely, Gray said, if Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York wins the Republican presidential nomination.

"If they put little Bobby in there, I may have to go elsewhere and I may make a lot of noise," said an annoyed Maddox, who has so far coyly refused to climb on the third-party bandwagon of former Gov. George Wallace of Alabama.

Maddox also dismissed as "a bunch of bull" Gray's statement that Georgia's Democratic Party would "actively support" the national ticket in 1968.

"The party machinery is not geared to support any liberal group of candidates, such as been the case in the past," the governor said. "We are not geared to support any national platform or candidate unless they give recognition to Georgia."

Denying there was any serious disagreement between himself and Maddox over the presidential ticket, Gray conceded Georgia's delegation to the National Democratic Convention might nominate either the governor or Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga., as "favorite son" candidates until some political accord could be reached.

Segregation is the darling child of race prejudice, at whose breast it must feed, or die ingloriously. Segregation has as surely cursed the white man who imposed it, as it had cursed the Negro upon whom it has been imposed. Segregation is a curse in particular and in general! When our nation made an attempt to strike down segregation in the interest of justice and survival, the segregationists resorted to various and devious and dubious ways to circumvent efforts to liberate the Negroes from the bondage of segregation. In order to save themselves from living like brothers, door to door with their Negro brethren, the whites betook themselves to the suburbs and fled before the prospects of receiving the Negroes as brothers and neighbors. But in fleeing the Negroes, they turned over the cities which had been built by whites and for whites, to Negroes with the result that Negroes are taking over our cities, and whites of means, are taking over the suburbs and the cities are in great distress and on every side calling for deliverance. And what will ultimately become of our cities is a matter that disturbs our most serious thinkers and students. Having been denied equal opportunity, Negroes are not financially able to handle what he has inherited.

TO RESTORE CITY

BANGKOK — (UPI) — The Thai government will spend $50,000 as part of a five-year plan to restore Ayudhya, the ancient capital destroyed by Burmese invaders 200 years ago. The city is 50 miles north of Bangkok.

Having been so long denied the training in statecraft which the rulership of cities implies, it is to wonder whether we can handle the responsibilities so suddenly thrust upon us. What has happened in Gary, Indiana and Cleveland, Ohio with their election of Negro Mayors will happen more and more as Negroes move in as whites move out! How Negroes can handle efficiently the responsibilities for which he has been denied opportunities for preparation, raises serious and difficult questions, with adequate finances and training the Negro could do the job; but without these, serious problems arise for whose solution some way must be found-and soon. What about the limited tax base of poor people? But the two great problems arising for the white man in his prejudice, fleeing before the Negro, will be much more difficult than the problem of living side by side with Negroes. Prejudiced dictated the more baffling

Polite Robbers Give Parting Kiss, Then Make Off With Loot

MIAMI — (UPI) — Two polite gunmen slipped into a millionaire's retreat early Nov. 17, bound and gagged hotel tycoon Carling L. Dinkler, Jr. and his wife, planted a parting kiss on Mrs. Dinkler's cheek and escaped with $350,000 in jewels.

As one bandit, the "nice one," leaned over to tape her mouth shut, Mrs. Dinkler said, he pecked her on the cheek and whispered in her ear:

"You can roll over and touch the telephone."

"He was the one who said he was 'so sorry but they had to do this for a living,' Mrs. Dinkler told a news conference in the living room of their sumptuous penthouse apartment later.

The other gunman, dressed in a black tuxedo with ruffled, pleated shirt and tie hanging loose, was "gruff and not so nice," Mrs. Dinkler reported.

He once warned the other bandit, dressed in khaki colored coat and blue trousers, "That's enough talk, Gary."

ROBBERS WAITED

The Dinklers, dressed in evening

clothes, found the bandits waiting for them when they returned about 2:15 a. m. from a $1,000-a-plate charity dinner they hosted at the exclusive Palm Bay Club.

The robbery was the second big heist from Miami's millionaire set rorized Willis Du Pont and his in five weeks.

On Oct. 5, five hooded men terfamily in their Coconut Grove mansion, munched his pork roast and escaped with two rare coin collections valued at $1.5 million, after chiding "Du Pont for not working for a living.

The Dinkler robbers, each armed with a black automatic fitted with chrome silencers knew what they wanted and waited to get it — Mrs. Dinklers 22.55 carat, pearl-shaped diamond ring, which she valued at $110,000.

Besides the big ring, the gunmen grabbed from a jewel box on a closet shelf several other pieces containing diamonds and emeralds. They cast aside pearl and gold jewelry, once ripping a diamond inset out of a pearl brooch.

Dinkler, 48, is the son of Carling L. Dinkler Sr., of Atlanta, who founded a chain of some 40 hotels. Dinkler Jr. sold the chain about a year ago.

Mrs. Dinkler is the stepdaughter of New Orleans cotton king Joseph David.

Ala. A&M Tames Miles Bears For Fifth Time, 16-8

By MARCEL ROFSON Coach Louis Crews' Alabama A&M College Bulldogs of Normal won their series to five wins and their streak to three straight as they spanked Coach T. J. (Mule) Knox's Miles College Golden Bears, 16 to 8, at Birmingham's Fair Park, Saturday afternoon, Nov. 18.

In regular season play, the win gave the Bulldogs a record of three wins against three losses and one tie. The results spelled four wins against three losses for Miles for the season.

Defensive units of both teams dominated most of the first-half and about the same period of time in the second-half. Maurice Coleman swept off tackle for one yard and scored A&M's first touchdown, in the fading minutes of the second quarter. The play was preceded by a brilliant 26-yard run by quarterback Orree Jackson. Miles' Hursey Fenderson boomed in and blocked Orlan Nduka's PAT attempt. A&M led 6 to 0 at halftime.

Fisk Bulldogs Edge Out Morehouse Tigers, 31-30

BY JAMES D. HEATH (WORLD SPORTS STAFF)

In a photo finish, the Fisk University Bulldogs edged out the Morehouse College Tigers, 31-30 before a large homecoming crowd at Herndon Stadium Saturday afternoon.

It was a pass interception at the goal line that saved the day for Fisk as the Tigers were driving on a third and goal situation at the three yard line with only 2:40 left in the game.

The Tigers were seeking to win their first homecoming in two years by leading the first two quarters and scoring in every quarter. Fisk took the lead in the first three minutes in the game after receiving the kick-off. All-conference candidate James Watkins crossed the yellow goal line marker on a 14-yard run and William Right booted the point after, to give the Bulldogs the first score in the game.

At the 4:20 time zone in the second period, place-kicker William Right booted a 36-yard field goal for the Bulldogs, but the Tigers led at the half, 16-10.

Bill Meggett Will Lead LeMoyné Against Rust

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—(SNS)—The Magicians of LeMoyné College are brewing some new magic for their Dec. 1 opener in Bruce Hall against invading Rust College of Holly Springs, Miss. And their chief cook is William Meggett, of New York City, a 5-11 junior guard who has been assigned the role of team captain and floor general.

Meggett possesses exceptional speed and is one of the better playmakers in the 16-member Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. He was a top scorer for LeMoyné in his sophomore year. The Magicians will play five games in Bruce Hall during the month of December. After Rust, they will host Tuskegee of Alabama, Dec. 8; Fisk of Nashville, Dec. 8; Alabama State of Montgomery, Dec. 11, and Christian Brothers College of Memphis, Dec. 14.

The five freshman members of the LeMoyné squad have impressed Coach Jerry Johnson and it's quite likely that they will see plenty of action during the season.

Tenn. State Rally Over Kentucky State

FRANKFORT, Ky. — Sharpening their claws for Thanksgiving Day's Homecoming game against Allen University, Tennessee State University's football team thumped Kentucky State 13-0 here last Saturday afternoon.

Now 5-3 on the season, Coach John A. Merritt's crew have a four-game winning string on the 18th straight Little Brown Jug Classic win. The Thorobreds, who won the initial Jug Classic 19 years ago, are 5-3-1 on the season. Superstar, Quarterback Eldridge Dickey, ran 23 yards on a keeper for the game's first TD and threw a 13-yard aerial to Elbert Drungo for the second.

Dickey's 23-yard scamper capped a 59-yard 4-play drive with just one-and-one-half minutes before the intermission gun. Starting from his own 41, Dickey hit Leo Johnson with successive first-down passes moving the ball to Kentucky's 18. Dickey rolled to his right and headed for the flag. The run was nullified by a motion penalty call which moved the ball back to the 23. On the net play, Dickey ran the play the TD.

News Restrictions Of Riots, Dangerous

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(UPI)—Restrictions on press coverage of riot stories can lead to rumors and make the riots more dangerous, says Louis Cassels, senior editor of United Press International.

Cassels told a Harvard Law School forum Friday night, "restrictions on press coverage may seem desirable when you are considering the damage that a careless or irresponsible story or broadcast can do."

"But consideration also must be given to the damage that could result from undermining the assumption, now held almost universally by the American people, that they'll learn quickly and in detail about any newsworthy event that takes place in the community."

Hijacks Plane, Forces Pilot To Fly To Cuba

MIAMI — (UPI) — A slender man with a European accent chartered a plane for Miami Monday, hijacked it in flight and forced the pilot to take him to Cuba at gunpoint.

The Federal Aviation Administration reported the plane landed at Havana airport at 2:06 p. m., more than two hours after it left a suburban airport with the pilot, the copilot and their mysterious passenger.

In one radio conversation, the FAA said, pilot James Raymond, 35, of Boca Raton identified his passenger as a Russian. He said the man, who called himself Felix Marasy, produced a gun and forced him and his copilot, Jeff White, to change course for Havana.

Albany Eyes Anti-Ballistic Missile Project

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Albany, Ga. is one of 10 areas in the United States to be surveyed as possible sites for limited anti-ballistic missile defense systems.

The Defense Department, in announcing the areas chosen, said Wednesday the system will be built in the next five to six years for protection against possible nuclear attack by Communist China.

Construction on the projects is expected to begin in about four months. The entire network of missiles is expected to be built at a cost estimated at $5 billion.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara said the heart of the system will be 15 or 20 batteries of Spartan missiles plus radars. This particular missile is a long-range device capable of intercepting enemy inter-continental ballistic missiles while they are still in flight and several hundred miles from their intended targets.

Keep Poverty War Under OEO, NAACP Urges

NEW YORK — Despite the $400-million slash in the House-passed anti-poverty bill, Nov. 15, the program will continue to be administered by the Office of Economic Opportunity, as urged by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

In a telegram sent earlier in the week to House Speaker John M. McCormack, and Minority Leader Gerald Ford, the Association's Executive Committee expressed "disarray" and "alarm" at the "drive to cripple the anti-poverty program by transferring vital elements of its program to other Federal agencies."

The message also declared, "The nation cannot afford to turn its back on the needs and aspirations of 30 million of its citizens. We urge the House to reject efforts to transfer functions from OEO (which) has given new hope to the nation's poor, invested them with new dignity and imparted a sense of participation in decision-making."

This brings about more concern on Clark's passing Powell mentioned with his veto out. "I'm just hoping our offensive unit can come around enough to take some pressure off our defense," he concluded.

By law, the Atlanta Board of Education has the responsibility of selecting a successor to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Rufus B. Clement on the Board. This is a tremendous responsibility which must not be handled in the traditional manner of selecting either a white person who is unfamiliar with the many problems and aspirations of the parents and children who constitute a majority of the school population, or by selecting a so-called "safe" Negro.
