BROWNELL LEAVES CABINET; ATTORNEY PUSHED CIVIL RIGHTS

Rumored Former Legal Aide May Run For Governor

WASHINGTON, D. C.—U. S. Attorney General Robert Brownell has resigned his post in the President's cabinet and rumors are that the eminent lawyer who courageously fought for civil rights, will run for Governor of New York State.

President Eisenhower, who accepted Brownell's resignation with surprise said he will name Deputy Attorney General William P. Rogers to the cabinet post.

Brownell has held the job since the start of the Eisenhower administration. He is returning to private law practice in New York. There has been speculation that Brownell—whose name arose with frequency in connection with the Little Rock, Ark., school integration crisis—may seek a state governorship.

Brownell expects to turn over the reins of the Justice Department to his successor in about two weeks.

In a letter accepting the resignation, Mr. Eisenhower praised his services as Attorney General highly and expressed sorrow at his decision to leave the cabinet.

Supreme Court vacancy. Brownell has been considered a likely candidate for a Supreme Court vacancy, but administration insiders point out that he could have had such an appointment before this time if he had wanted it.

Former Political Intimates. Another of President Eisenhower's former political intimates, Leonard W. Hall, ex-chairman of the Republican National Committee, also has been reported as seeking the Republican gubernatorial nomination in the state.

Brownell early became one of the most controversial members of the Eisenhower cabinet because of his partisan attacks on Democrats. A showed politician, he served as campaign manager for Thomas E. Dewey when the former New York Governor made his two unsuccessful bids for the White House.

Brownell was one of the chief political strategists in Mr. Eisenhower's 1952 campaign and entered the cabinet both as a Dewey protege and a trusted adviser of

Mayor Of Little Rock Sees Crisis Resolving Itself

DENVER—(INS)—The Mayor of Little Rock, Ark., said Wednesday he believes the integration crisis at Central High School in his city soon may resolve itself.

Woodrow Wilson Mann, 40, commented in Denver: "The time is approaching when President Eisenhower can remove the federal troops from the school."

The tall and soft-spoken mayor explained that conditions are improving steadily and "tension is lessening day by day."

However, the mayor would not pinpoint the time he thought federal troops would depart.

Mann stressed he was not being critical when he said the entire integration trouble could have been averted. He said Little Rock citizens had 30 months warning of the school board's plans and there had been no objections raised to integration of Central High School.

Mann did not hide his bitterness, however, at what he termed the "playing of politics with peoples' souls to gain a vote."

Referring to Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus, Mann said: "Had the Governor of Arkansas been a leader, inasmuch as he (Faubus) was elected by the people—and again I stress this is not meant to be in a critical tone—and assumed the position of a real leader we would not have had any trouble."

The Little Rock Mayor said Faubus should have appealed to people to "push personal feelings back."

Mann, in Denver to visit two sisters, said there is not only a gradual lessening of tension in Little Rock but throughout the entire state of Arkansas. He plans to leave Denver for Little Rock Friday.

Social Change In U. S. Part Of World Struggle, Patterson

GREENBORO, N. C.—That the incidents which have accompanied the movement for social change in the United States are a part of a world-wide movement toward freedom was the view expressed by Dr. Frederick D. Patterson, of New York City, in his vesper message at Bennett College Sunday.

Dr. Patterson, who in addition to being chairman of the Bennett board of trustees, is also president of the United Negro College Fund and director of the Phipps-Stokes Fund, referred to the resistance to school desegregation in Little Rock, Nashville, Charlotte and Greensboro as symbols of prejudiced behavior.

"Such behavior," he declared, "is almost always foolish and short-sighted because it is selfish behavior. But the world today demands new outreaches of understanding and cooperation. If the world is to survive, we must learn to live together in peace and harmony."

A fund raising campaign to support the project is expected to be discussed during the banquet.

2,200 of the estimated 3,000 civilian and army personnel would, have an opportunity to be transferred to other depots. It was also estimated that about 80 percent of that number would accept the opportunity. About 500 would not be given the opportunity to transfer because of the nature of their jobs—menial.

The spokesman explained that depots where various workers would be transferred would not have to necessarily accept them. "The depots merely can say, we don't need such workers at this time."

It was also pointed out that Mallory's functions are not directly concerned with air planes and missiles. "And where there is such set-ups, (Continued on Back Page)

Vincent de Frank To Conduct Sinfonietta At LeMoyné Site

When LeMoyné College presents the Memphis Sinfonietta on Saturday November 2, at 8:30 p. m. in C. Arthur Bruce Hall, the dynamic young Vincent de Frank will be the conductor.
 Although de Frank has won acclaim from both the public and press for his outstanding conducting. During the summer of 1947, the conductor of the Boston Symphony, Serge Koussevitzky, accepted de Frank as his personal pupil and protégé.
 When the 1947-48 season of the Memphis Symphony failed to materialize because of his financial difficulties, de Frank joined the cello section of the St. Louis Symphony and remained there for three seasons, during which he made numerous tours with chamber music ensembles in that area.
 At the close of the 1949-50 season, de Frank accepted a fellowship at Indiana University. There he completed his extensive cello study with Fritz Mass, violinist of the resident Berkshire String Quartet.
 In 1952, he returned to Memphis to organize the Memphis Sinfonietta. In the five seasons that the orchestra has existed, under his capable guidance, it has grown into one of the finest organizations of its type in this country.
 Seldom does one find such a rare combination of artistry, sensitivity, expressiveness and inspiration in one man, Memphians are indeed fortunate to have de Frank as the force behind the remarkable cultural growth and achievements of their city.
 Tickets for this concert and the other attractions of the LeMoyné concert series - Players Incorporated in "Romeo and Juliet" and William Warfield, baritone - are on sale at the Business Office and Goldsmith's Central Ticket Office.

SURPRISED THE LEAGUE
 Bill Fowkes' BTW Warriors (3-0) have surprised the circuit by trading this far with a perfect record. Although the Washingtonians weren't rated too highly by the so-called pre-season "experts," they have come right along to whip Father Bertrand, Douglass and Hamilton. In two of these games, with Douglass and Hamilton, the Warriors rallied valiantly to pull the seemingly lost bits out of the fire.
 Johnny Johnson's Manassas Tigers (2-0) have also been amazing. Although their initial league win over Melrose was ruled "no contest" by the Board of Control of Prep Athletics Association, they have come back fighting to trample Douglass 19-0 and Hamilton 21-13 in quick succession. Saturday, they journeyed to Jackson Tenn. where they ruined Merri High School's homecoming by turning back the Green Hornets, 20-14.

Archrivals Manassas And BTW Ready For Action

BY MELVIN GREER
 A battle of prep giants unfolds tonight (Friday) at Melrose Stadium when the two oldest schools in the city, Manassas and Booker T. Washington, renew their classic grid rivalry before what is contemplated to be the largest crowd of the season.

The rivalry dates back to when the two institutions were the sole high schools for Negroes in Memphis. And since they were all by themselves, Manassas on the North, BTW on the South, the students, alumni and other partisans of each school were always engaged in a heated rivalry as to which was superior. This superiority was allegedly settled when the feud would come to an explosive climax as the two would meet on the gridiron for the potential spoils of victory.

The rivalry at first was bitter, and the animosity at first was bitter ran without check. However, as the years progressed the rivalry began to lose some of its fire, its explosiveness, until in recent years it has become almost as tame as a kitten. The two have to a tremendous extent forgotten their old grudge.

A GOOD GAME
 Regardless of the outcome of tonight's game the consensus seems to be that neither partisans could be too disappointed, because "the two teams have manifested the best grid determination they have shown in some time, and both schools should be proud of them," as stated by many prep fans.
 Kick-off is slated for 8 p. m.

Last night (Thursday) at Melrose Stadium, The Melrose Golden Wildcats were scheduled to go against the Red Devils of Douglass in what should have proved an exciting affair.

"WE USE PET MILK SO MANY WAYS EVERY DAY"

Pretty Edith Hudson is the center of an active, happy family—her successful husband, a graduate of Morehouse College; and four husky boys. Her favorite part of the day is when they all come hurrying home—Harry from his job as assembly supervisor at Lockheed Aircraft Corporation and the three older boys from school. She loves cooking for them and, like so many good cooks, always uses PET Evaporated Milk to make her meals extra rich, extra nourishing and extra delicious. It's no wonder every member of her family is a picture of good health. The Hudsons love entertaining at home, often with barbecues and song fests in their large backyard. Talented Harry accompanies the singing with his steel guitar, and even little Albert tries to join in as family and friends have their happiest times just being together.

Get your child a copy of "Four Famous Little Girls," a story and coloring book about the well-known Fultz Quadruplets. Just send a label from a tall can of PET Evaporated Milk with your name and address to Pet Milk Company, 1460-B Arcade Bldg., St. Louis 1, Mo.

All four of my boys—Michael, 7, Ronald, 5, Albert, 18 months, and Harry, Jr., 10—were PET Milk babies, and you can be sure the new baby we're expecting in December will get the same healthy start!"

"The boys love to romp with their father in the evening, and he enjoys it as much as they do. Harry, Jr., quite often has homework or studying to do, but the other three would wrestle and laugh all night if I didn't shoo them off to bed."

The insurance law presently prohibits discrimination on the basis of color by life health and accident insurance companies. However, the Commercial Travelers Mutual Accident Association was incorporated in 1955 under a special provision of insurance law which permitted to restrict its membership to white males.

Paul wrote his letter to the Corinthian Christians from Ephesus about the year 56. Some questions had arisen in the minds of these believers and had written Paul about them. One of the questions was whether a Christian should eat meat that had been offered in sacrifice to heathen idols. This seems a rather foolish question to us, but to the Corinthians it was very real. Some of them felt, if they ate such meat, they would compromise their position in the eyes of the heathen. Others seemed to feel that "meat is meat—what difference does it make whether it has been offered to idols or not?"

Then, there is the principle of self-discipline. Wrongful indulgence imperils one's life, therefore, in daily living the body must be kept under rigid discipline, so that it will be a help and not a hindrance in the Christian life.

TWO FIRM-JAWED young commuters were boasting to each other about how they wore the pants in their families. "Take last night," said one. "Last night, by golly, I discovered there wasn't any hot water. Man, I really hit the ceiling; I got hot water, t.o. and mighty quick."

"I WONDERED for years where my husband spent all his evenings," a wife admitted. "Then one night I came home from bridge early—and there he was!"

THE WIFE of a Cleveland man seemed to be on a perpetual clothes-buying spree, and her harassed husband was near distraction trying to keep all the bills paid.

TOLEDO MAN WAITS 5 MONTHS FOR JURY TRIAL, ACQUITTED

TOLEDO, Ohio (ANP)—Accused of an $8 robbery, a 39-year-old Toledo man waited in jail five months for a jury trial—and then was acquitted. The delay was attributed to the rescheduling of jury trials during the summer months. In the meantime, John Green, who was arrested May 4, languished in jail. He was accused by Claude Isom of following him from a tavern and robbing him in May, 1956. Green denied the charge and asked for a jury trial. Common Pleas Judge John M. McCabe set the trial for Oct. 14 and remanded Green to jail when he could not post bond. Had Green pleaded guilty he would have been given a hearing immediately. But he hardly wanted that fate. Benjamin H. Fisher, assistant county prosecutor, said Green had served three terms previously in the Ohio Penitentiary and another conviction could have meant him confinement for life as a habitual offender.

Wilkins Warns U. S. In Survival Crisis

Says Country Is Face To Face With Serious Moral Issue

TOLEDO, Ohio—Little Rock poses not only a grave constitutional crisis and a serious moral issue but also brings the country face to face with "what might be called a survival crisis," Roy Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary solemnly warned in an address to an overflow NAACP rally which packed the spacious Braden Methodist Church, here October 15.

He pointed to the successful launching of the Soviet satellite as an indication of how sorely this country needs to train and utilize its best brains in the race for supremacy in science. He cited the "one lone Negro scientist," educated in the North, who worked on the first atom bomb. "Hundreds like him should have been graduated from the educational systems of the South to serve their country. Instead, they were condemned to schools without adequate mathematics courses, without physics and chemistry laboratories, and even without proper facilities for useful vocational training."

TRIFLING WITH SECURITY
Those who are trying to perpetuate "at any cost the separate-but-equal" doctrine, Mr. Wilkins charged, "are not only tramping upon decency and fairness and the mandates of the American tradition; they are trifling with the security of our country. We can no longer afford the luxury of debating whether nine or ninety, or 900,000 non-white American children. Less than the mutual respect and dedication and unity which such education will provide, and less than the maximum employment of our manpower potential may spell disaster."

The rally was preceded by a luncheon attended by 125 guests including many city officials. At the luncheon, Vice Mayor Ned Skeldon presented the glass key to the city of Toledo to Mr. Wilkins at the conclusion of welcoming remarks. Anderson Cheeves is president of the Toledo NAACP branch.

Admit Bricklayers To Milw'kee Union

NEW YORK — Herbert Hill, N. A. A. C. P. labor secretary, said Monday he has been informed that Negroes have been admitted for the first time, into Local 8 of the Milwaukee Bricklayers Union. Mr. Hill hailed the development, pointing out that he had worked more than a year with the Wisconsin Industrial Commission and with local and national AFL-CIO officials to secure the admission of Negro workers into the Milwaukee union.

He called the Milwaukee action "significant because it is a successful attack against the discriminatory practices which are widespread in building trades unions." "The right to belong to a trade union operating in the building trades industry is not merely an abstract civil right, it is a necessary condition of employment," he noted. Two Negro mechanics, Randolph Ross and James Harris, had initiated action before the Wisconsin Industrial Commission, which administers the Wisconsin fair employment practices act. The Commission had ordered the union to admit the Negro workers but had been defied by the union. The union's refusal to admit the two Negro mechanics had been sustained by the State Supreme Court of Wisconsin.

LITTLE ROCK NAACP BRANCH PONDBERS DEMAND FOR RECORDS

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Leaders of the NAACP branch here are pondering what action to take in response to a demand by Mayor Woodrow Wilson-Mann for the list of members and other branch records in compliance with a recently enacted city ordinance requiring the filing of such information with the city clerk.

The measure, aimed at the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was also invoked by Mayor Mann against three pro-segregation groups in the city. The City Council passed the ordinance by a 7-0 vote on October 14. The following day the Mayor called upon the NAACP and the three racist organizations to submit the required information within 15 days.

Mrs. L. C. Bates, president of the Arkansas State NAACP organization, announced on October 15 that lawyers for the association "will study the ordinance and recommend what we should do."

Virginia's Resistance To Integration Led Deep South

BY VICTOR CALVERTON

SUFFOLK, Va. — (ANP) — The "massive resistance" of Virginia to school desegregation was blamed for all the upheaval in the deep South by one of the main speakers at the recent 22nd annual convention of the Virginia State Conference of NAACP Branches held here in Suffolk.

Franklin H. Williams, director-general of the West Coast Regional office of the NAACP made that charge in a keynote address at a public meeting of the convention Friday night and again Saturday night at the Jackson Memorial-Lawyer Testimonial Dinner, held at First Baptist Church. Williams was very critical of Governor Thomas B. Stanley; J. Lindsay Almond, Jr., Democratic candidate of the Democratic party for governor and Senator Harry Byrd all of whom he labeled as unpatriotic for fighting the Supreme Court's school decision. He said one Virginia daily newspaper was as subservient as the communist party. He didn't mention the paper by name, but at one time blasted Mr. Kilpatrick, editor of the Richmond News Leader, which is generally considered by Virginia Negroes the worst white daily in Virginia and one of the most vehement against Negroes in all the South.
