MEMPHIS BAHAI COMMUNITY OBSERVES NEGRO HISTORY WEEK

Several community leaders and an International traveler and Bahai lecturer spoke on different phases of the Negro when members of the Baha'i faith observed Negro History Week last Tuesday evening at the Young Women's Christian Association at 541 Vance Avenue. Mrs. Ludmila Van Sombeek, who came to Memphis from her headquarters in North Carolina to speak for this group and at the Baha'i Center on Madison Sunday morning, spoke to the group on the great contributions of the Africans. She also gave a good report on a recent trip made to Tuskegee telling about Dr. George Washington Carver and the eminent Booker T. Washington. From "Up From Slavery" Mrs. Sombeek she gave three that lead to success two quotations. . . In her message . . . I Quote: Intentions, a plan for universal peace and the putting of plans into action. Mrs. Sombeek, who has traveled throughout Africa, Sweden and America in interest of the Baha'i Faith, was introduced by Miss Johanna Zimmermann, General Chairman of the dinner and the Negro History observance.

Other speakers were the Reverend Mr. Benjamin L. Hooks, pastor of Greater Middle Baptist Church and Attorney-at-Law, who gave the history of the first Negroes coming to America, Slave Trade, The Negro As a Slave, his struggle to rest from a hostile environment. Atty. Hooks pictured slavery as a time of anxiety and unrest giving the Negro's greatest contribution in the realm of "Folk Songs, Spirituals. . . . These songs told our story of oppression and the creation of God for himself stated Mr. Hooks. He ended with the Reconstruction Period telling of the 26 Negro Congressmen and 2 Negro Senators and how chaos resulted and the Industrial Revolution that swept the country taking many Negroes North giving the desire to fit into the total economy of America. The second speaker was Miss Willa Alma McWilliams, teacher at Manassas School and Assistant Secretary of Bluff City and Shelby County Council of Civic Clubs, who on the "Hope For the Future of the Negro" Miss McWilliams stated that the Negro's future lies in peace, justice and brotherhood. She also advocated a form of gradualism. She stressed the fact that the Negro must accept certain responsibilities and do more toward observing the mores of our society along the privileges.

Dr. Paul N. Carnes, pastor of the First Unitarian Church of Memphis, who is a Phi Beta Kappa and a graduate from the Howard School of Divinity, expressed the need for cooperation.

He commended the Memphis Baha'i group for their true brotherhood spirit. . . . He spoke on the advancement of the Negro saying those who have attempted to hold him back have stood still. The vibrant lecturer said that any minority group will get what he takes and is capable of using. . . . He also spoke on the lack of cooperation within the Negro group emphasizing the lack of proper leadership. Even though he is a Northerner, Rev. Carnes thinks that the South will probably develop a greater and warmer relationship than the North about the races. He further stated that "Evil" is self-destruction within the Negro group. He begged Negroes to please emphasize on skill as he stated that one minority represents a whole group.

One could immediately tell that Spring was just around the corner last Saturday when Mrs. Ritta H. Porter, Mrs. Charles Etta Branham and Mrs. Dorothy Slate were hostesses to the graduate chapter of Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority. The dress of the members, flowers and decorations and interest in general took on more life and Spring colors. Stopping off for a brief chat was Atty. B. F. Jones, a Sigma husband who charmed the ladies with his joyful manner and quick sense of humor. Atty. Jones was both interesting and informative.

RHOMANIA PLANS
Spear-heading plans for Rhomania, the sorority's annual project, was Mrs. Eric Hill Rose, General Chairman, of the event.

Memphians are anxiously looking forward to "Rhomania," to be given April 28th at the C. Arthur Bruce Hall on the LeMoine College campus and to the appearance of the famed little Gloria Lockerman, who made her claim to fame as a spelling contestant on the Sixty-four thousand dollar television show. . . . Tickets may be purchased from any member of the sorority and are available at Goldsmith's Ticket office.

A vivid colored picture of the Five-million proposed Country Club for Negroes stood high above the long hors d'oeuvre table. . . . The entire place was illuminated by a ceiling spotlight that put much more light on the subject from every point of view. . . . Two of the managers, both prominent young Memphis attorneys and the architect chatted with guests during the entire evening.

MR. AND MRS. JAS. TRUEHEART MAKE FIRST GIFT TO MRS. WILKINSON FUND

By RAYMOND F. TISBY
Immediate reaction to a story in the weekend edition of the Memphis World, pointing out the plight of Mrs. Maggie Wilkinson of 273 rear California, faced with the problem of trying to keep her family intact, was manifested by Mr. and Mrs. James Trueheart of 1257 Smith who Saturday made the first donation to the Maggie Wilkinson Fund. In brief, Mrs. Wilkinson's plight is this:

The mother of four children, by her first marriage and the mother of another child, with another expected before the end of this month by her now separated second husband, Mrs. Wilkinson is faced with the problem of allowing her first four children to become public wards for the expected security of the children by her second marriage.

Mrs. Wilkinson's separated second husband has agreed to take care of his two children, but refuses to contribute any support to the other four and has suggested that the four be turned over to juvenile court or some welfare agency. . . . Though faced with a bleak future, Mrs. Wilkinson, 31, has rebuffed the offer and is attempting to keep her family intact.

Recipe of the Week

by Louise R. Prothro
PET MILK HOME ECONOMIST

If there's one thing I can count on to bring "oh's" of delight from my family, it's a colorful, "whipped" dessert. And that's specially true when they recognize their favorite — PINEAPPLE DELIGHT made with my Pet Evaporated Milk recipe. As soon as you try it, you'll see why. It's just delicious-fluffy and rich-tasting with bits of marshmallow nuts and pineapple all through it. That rich, fluffy texture is what makes this dessert so extra tempting and the secret behind it is whipped Pet Evaporated Milk. Double-rich

Pet Milk whips up far higher and lighter than whipping cream, and of course there's nothing handier than taking a can of Pet Milk from your pantry shelf and chilling it for whipping. Another thing you'll like about PINEAPPLE DELIGHT is that it's such a colorful, pretty dessert. You make it any color you like, depending on the flavor of gelatin you use. But whether it's pink, green or yellow, your family will say it's one of the best-tasting desserts anywhere!

PINEAPPLE DELIGHT
3-4 cup Pet Evaporated Milk
1 pkg. fruit-flavored gelatin (any flavor)
1-2 cup boiling water
1-2 cup cold water
1 cup midgelet marshmallows
9-oz. can crushed pineapple, not drained
1-2 cup broken nuts
Chill milk in ice tray until almost frozen around the edges. In a 2-quart bowl, dissolve gelatin in boiling water. Stir in cold water. Add marshmallows, pineapple and nuts. Let stand at room temperature until needed. Whip ice-cold milk in a cold 1-quart bowl with a cold rotary beater by hand, or with electric beater at high speed, until stiff. Fold into gelatin mixture. Cover and chill. Makes average servings for 4 for 2 meals.

Protest Use Of Federal Funds For Jim Crow Hospital

WASHINGTON — (ANP) — The question as to whether the Federal government is prohibited by law to allocate funds for the construction of segregated hospitals has consistently been evaded by Secretary Marion B. Folsom of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

This issue which has for some time been discussed on a general basis was recently put to a specific test. The question was raised by Morris B. Gotlin, a Louisiana attorney, regarding a proposed hospital in St. Charles Parish. The attorney who was apparently appointed to decide this question, queried Secretary Folsom on the legality of a bond election to raise matching funds for the construction of a hospital with separate facilities for Negroes and whites as well as the constitutionality of federal grants for use of building a segregated hospital under the terms of the Hill-Burton Act.

When the secretary failed to reply to this inquiry the attorney again asked for clarification on this issue. Gotlin made it clear that he had no personal interest in the moral issue of segregation, but a little clarification from the Federal Government on the legality of this action would save him much legal work. When the HEW secretary still declined to reply, the Louisiana lawyer charged the Department with "jussyfooting" or "buck-shifting" on the issue. This matter was brought to the direct attention of Mr. Folsom by an ANP reporter at his press conference, Thursday who asked that he comment on this situation. The Secretary stated that the question had never been brought to his attention, therefore, he could not comment. He would look the matter up, however, and take the necessary action.

Defective Appliance Laid To Council Bluffs Fire

COUNCIL BLUFFS Ia. — (INS) — Iowa Fire Marshal Edward Heron said Friday investigators agreed that a defective appliance probably caused the tragic Council Bluffs convalescent home fire that claimed 14 lives. His statement came after a personal inspection of the flame-charred ruins of the 75-year-old structure.

Heron said the defective item probably was a small radio owned by one of the surviving patients, 91-year-old Mrs. Anna Hahn. The fire was believed to have started at the head of Mrs. Hahn's bed, spread to some plastic curtains and then to the walls and a stairway.

The fire raced through the three-story frame building yesterday, trapping many elderly patients in their beds and wheel-chairs. So that firemen arriving on the scene rapid was the spread of the flames minutes after the alarm was sounded could snatch only one woman from the furnace-like interior. Sixteen others scrambled to safety as flames licked around them. Eight remained hospitalized today, one in critical condition. Pettawattamie County coroner Henry Meyer identified the last two victims as Mrs. Mathilda Luchow, 84 and Mrs. Rose Cochran. Iowa lawmakers, shocked by the tragedy, moved quickly to begin a statewide investigation of nursing homes to prevent a recurrence of the Council Bluffs disaster.

Many Negroes Denied Vote Chance Brownell Declares

WASHINGTON — A much greater number of Dixie's Negro citizens could have voted last year if the Eisenhower administration Civil Rights program had been in effect, Attorney Gen. Herbert Brownell declared Thursday. Mr. Brownell told the Senate's Judiciary subcommittee which is considering the program, that at least 4,000 and probably 6,000 Negroes were stricken from registration rolls in one Louisiana City, the Ouachita Parish after being challenged by the White Citizens Council of the Parish. Most Negroes in the area were denied opportunity to establish registration qualification after the challenge, Brownell said.

rights program been in effect, the Department of Justice would have been able to initiate a civil action for the purpose of restoring the Negro voters in time to vote in the November elections. Brownell said he also found problems in North Carolina, and that three precincts there imposed technical requirements that kept Negro people from qualifying to vote. In all four instances, Brownell said, the proposed legislation would have been of great assistance in protecting the right to vote. "In most of these situations, civil remedies would enable the government to take affirmative action to deal with attempts at what amounts to mass disenfranchisement of Negroes in time to be effective," he declared. The attorney general told Southern critics that "no amount of criminal punishment can rectify the harm which the national interest suffers when citizens are illegally kept from the polls. The attorney general has shown great interest in working toward gaining equality for all citizens regardless of race, and has worked recently to undo specific instances of civil rights violations.

Rabbis Want Arab, Jewish Meet In D.C.

WASHINGTON — (INS) — The Union of Orthodox Rabbis of the United States and Canada called on President Eisenhower Friday to summon leaders from all the Arab countries and Israel to a round table conference in Washington.

A spokesman for the group, Rabbi P. Telz of Elizabeth N. J., said that such "bold action" might result in an agreement between the two sides. Telz made the suggestion to assistant Secretary of State William M. Roundtree on behalf of his organization in a 45 minute meeting. Telz was accompanied by four other Rabbis. They presented a memorandum to Roundtree in which they described recent U. N. policy in regard to the Middle East "as unfair to Israel." They asked that the U. S. back Israel's policy regarding the Gulf of Aqaba and the Suez Canal and also U. S. offer asylum to Egyptian Jews deported by the Cairo Government.

Minister Pictures Crisis Facing Ike

THOMASVILLE, Ga. — (ANP) — A white Presbyterian minister pictured President Eisenhower facing a multitude of crises and declared that "a power for good is working to reconcile international differences and racial tensions." The minister was Rev. A. Allen Gardner, 34, of the First Presbyterian church, who in a recent Sunday morning sermon, took as his topic "When God Speaks to Man," and his text, "He who hath ears to hear, let him hear," from Matthew 11:15. First Presbyterian is the church at which President Eisenhower worshipped during his stay at the summer White House.

The minister said, "God speaks not through nations screaming at nations, and not through racial tensions that hang heavy over our southland like a heavy thunderhead. In spite of all the noise, is a power working for good to reconcile man with his neighbors."

Arkansas Solon Asks Bill Against Job Bias

WASHINGTON, D. C. — (NNPA) — Representative Brooks Hays, Democrat, of Arkansas, has introduced a bill to set up a Minority Employment Bureau in the Labor Department to promote voluntary elimination of racial and religious discrimination in employment practices.

Mr. Hays is the author of several compromise civil rights bills. These bills covered a moderate program which he believed the South could accept. The bill to set up a Labor Department Minorities Employment Bureau, Mr. Hays said, is designed to "provide a firm ground of understanding for legislators and private citizens who did not want to be drawn to the extremes on both sides of the question of discrimination."

The proposed legislation would authorize the Secretary of Labor to investigate complaints of discrimination to try to eliminate both specific instances of discrimination and the causes of discrimination. It also would permit the Secretary to investigate cases where he had received no actual complaint but had reason to believe discrimination existed. Mr. Hays noted that his bill contained no provisions to force compulsory compliance on employers "who have been slow to tap the

Gloom Surrounds Fate Of Man Freed By High Court

SELMA, Ala. — (ANP) — The fate of a 27-year-old Negro who was recently saved from the electric chair by the U. S. Supreme Court appeared gloomy last week, as Alabama displayed displeasure over the high court verdict and prepared to re-try the man again "as soon as possible."

William Earl Fikes, adjudged mentally ill by three psychiatrists, was convicted and sentenced to death in the electric chair by an Alabama court for allegedly robbing the home of the daughter of this city's mayor.

The high court last sent the case back for retrial. The Supreme Court reversal was on grounds that two confessions from Fikes constituted a denial of due process of law.

Circuit Alabama Solicitor Blanchard McLeod said Fikes will be retried "as soon as I can get the judge's together on the case."

Along The Sports Trail

BY SAM BROWN

From time to time we have mentioned the great part sports have played (especially baseball) in better race relations in breaking down the color bar in sports. We went so far as to observe that in many instances organizations in the field of morality, including the church, could take a page from sports in the field of sportsmanship and fair-play.

Then too, several Georgia cities with baseball clubs are affiliated with major league teams, and during the past few years a large number of Negro players have performed in the Georgia-Florida and Georgia State Leagues.

A few days ago announcement was made in Baltimore of the proposed organization of another Pro-Football League, which would include New Orleans and Atlanta in its Southern Division.

Somehow, we thought Memphis should have been included in the plan for a berth in the newly organized league, considering the fact that for years, the Bluff City has been considered a good sports town.

Tom Meany, sports editor for Collier's magazine until his recent demise, will serve as Contributing Editor for Sport magazine, it was announced by Ed Fitzgerald, the mag's editor.
