Pledging Complete After First Week Rush For Hundred-Five

Sororities Hold Open Houses Afterward

Following a hectic week of rush parties, 65 girls pledged the five national sororities and 40 boys pledged the six national fraternities on the campus. Rites were held at the respective sorority and fraternity lodges.

After the pledging ceremony the sororities held open houses honoring their new pledges.

The girls who pledged each sorority are:

Discussion Program Expanded By TKA

A highly expanded discussion program was announced as Tau Kappa Alpha's main project for the year. The TKA organizational meeting was held in the Speech Building on Tuesday, October 2.

Professor Hill, faculty advisor of TKA, expressed the hope that several discussion teams can be organized to work on the national collegiate discussion topic in order that the local chapter can enter the Tau Kappa Alpha Regional Tournament. The tournament is scheduled to be held at the University of Mississippi in late November.

This year's discussion topic is: "How can we as a nation improve our moral and ethical standards."

Plans were also made to organize at last one girl's and two men's debate teams. It is hoped that Southwestern students will be able to compete in original oratory and extemporaneous speaking events.

Students interested in any phase of forensics work are invited to join the Tau Kappa Alpha group.

Roles Cast; Practice Is Started On Play

Casting has been completed and rehearsals are well under way on Gerald Savory's GEORGE AND MARGARET. This will be Southwestern Players' first production of the season. The play will be presented in Hardie Auditorium October 26 and 27.

Jackie Roland and Dave Morelock, who last season teamed up as a ninety year old pair of lovers in the Quinteros brothers' A SUNNY MORNING, are again paired together this time as Alice and Malcolm Garth Bander, who cannot quite manage to keep up with the goings on of their three children.

Playing the children are Joan Stewart Hodgson as sophisticated Frankie, Andy Orr as sharp-tongued Dudley, and James Crow as stuffy elder brother Claude.

This marks James Crow's debut with the Players. Andy Orr made his Player's debut last summer in the one act play, THE TWO COWARDS. Joan Stewart Hodgson has appeared with the Players in TWELFTH NIGHT, ALL FOR FUN, and INTERLUDE.

GEORGE AND MARGARET will also present Mary Ellen Chambliss and Fred Link in their first appearances with the Players. Miss Chambliss will portray Gladys, the servant girl whom Claude falls in love with. Mr. Link will play Roger Frampton, the friend of Dudley who comes as a house guest and remains to win the heart of Frankie.

Lucy Hay, who is remembered for her Mrs. Gillie in last year's American premiere of MR. GILLIE, returns as the uncommunicative maid with the intriguing name of Beer.

Work on the set will get under way on Friday. Anyone interested in building and painting is urged to get in contact with Professor Hill.

McClure Will Direct Listening Library

Southwestern's record collection will be supervised this year by Bob McClure.

Three record players are available in the listening rooms which are in the Psychology Building.

The collection will be open in accordance with the following schedule:

Mon.	2:30-4:00	7:30-9:00
Wed.	2:00-3:30	7:00-9:30
Fri.	1:30-3:30

All students are invited to use the record library which contains one of the most extensive collections of classical music in the States. Professor V. P. Davis of the College of Music has indicated that it compares favorably with the record libraries of Princeton University and the University of Virginia. More than 3000 records make up Southwestern's present library.

Psi Chi Club Is National

Chapter Approved By Chicago Council

Psi Chi, national honorary psychology fraternity, has approved Southwestern's petition for a local chapter.

The National Council chartered the new campus organization at its meeting in Chicago this week. The information was received on Monday by Ed Francisco, president of the group.

The petition originated last October when the Psychology Club was re-organized. A small group within the club, who met the requirements of Psi Chi, undertook to establish a chapter on the campus. They collected the information required and forwarded the petition late last Fall.

When the material was tentatively accepted in the Spring of 1951, it was hoped that the installation could be made before the end of the school year. However, the work proved far from completed.

Additional information was requested about almost every phase of Southwestern activities, curriculum, faculty and students. The project was completed during the summer by Dr. Queener and Ed Francisco. The final revision of the petition was accepted at the annual National Council last week.

Psi Chi and the Psychology Club will hold a joint meeting Wednesday, October 10. Activities for the school year will be planned.

All interested in the club are asked to come to this meeting. This invitation includes students not taking psychology courses.

There will be a number of programs throughout the year, the first of which probably will be given by Dr. Queener on some aspects of Social Psychology.

Mademoiselle Open Contest For Board

MADemoisELLE magazine is now accepting applications from undergraduate women for membership on its 1951-52 College Board.

Girls who are accepted on the College Board do three assignments during the college year. Assignments give College Board Members a chance to write features about life on their campus; to submit art work, fashion or promotion ideas for possible use in MADemoisELLE; to develop their critical and creative talents; to discover their own abilities and job interests.

College Board Members who come out among the top twenty on the assignments win a MADemoisELLE Guest Editorship, will be brought to New York next June to help write, edit and illustrate the August College issue. They will be paid a regular salary for their month's work, plus round-trip transportation to New York City.

October 31 is the deadline for applying for the College Board. The application is a criticism of either MADemoisELLE's August

Lynx Editor—Pan President Resign

Student Council Investigates Point System Violators

Resignations of Lynx editor Roscoe Field and Men's Pan President Bill Boyd have been announced by the student council. The resignations will become effective by the end of this week.

An investigation of activity-point system violations by a student council committee prompted the withdrawal of these officers. Committee members Ed Wills and Roscoe Field reported the violations to the Student Council and suggested that the offenders be requested to resign.

Library's Collection Available For Loans

The Library's collection of prints available for loans to dormitory students are on exhibition in the Library.

The prints may be borrowed by dormitory students for one semester. No fee is charged. On each picture is a card which the student may sign in order to reserve the particular print of his choice for hanging in his room at the close of the exhibit.

Prints have been selected from a wide variety of artists' works in order that each student might find something suitable to his tastes.

The enthusiastic response of the students to this plan last year indicates a need for more prints than the Library now has. If interest is sustained, the collection will be supplemented with other prints.

There are not now enough prints for every dormitory student to have one for his room, so first come, first served will be the rule.

SC Announces New Frosh Regulations

Service Demanded Of The Lowly

Some new rulings have been added to the freshman regulation list which appears in the Student Council Handbook. Here are the new provisions:

1. All freshmen are included in the membership of SABA, the Southwestern Athletic Backers Association. Every new first-year student is expected to attend the announced meetings of SABA.

2. Freshmen boys are to answer the telephones in the men's dormitories at all times.

3. Freshmen are required to remain seated until upperclassmen have cleared the auditorium after all chapel services.

The new students are reminded that they must wear signs, bonnets, and caps. Only freshmen and sophomore transfers are subject to the other hazing rules.

Paddles made by the new men students should be placed in the box near the south entrance to the gymnasium, according to an announcement by Ed Wills, Vice-President of the Student Body.

Upperclassmen and "rats" among the new students should report infractions of Freshman regulations to the Women's Undergraduate Board and the S club. Written reports should give the violators name and offense.

No student is allowed to carry more than fifty activity points.

Lynx Editorship

Roscoe Field, who was elected commissioner of Social Activities last spring, was appointed Lynx Editor after the election. His points totaled sixty. Roscoe's resignation was presented to the Student Council on Monday, October 1.

Commissioner of Publications, Rita Cunningham, has ruled that this resignation does not affect the editorship of Katherine Hinds, who was appointed on a joint application with Field. New applications for the position of Lynx editor will not be considered. Field will probably become an assistant editor on the annual staff, according to Cunningham.

Pan Presidency

Bill Boyd has called the Men's Panhellenic Council to meet today for the election of a new president. Boyd was elected Pan president in absentia at the last meeting in 1951. His points exceeded the limit by five.

He continued serving as Pan president this fall to avoid confusion during the first-week rush.

Ed Francisco, who is now President of Stylus, and President of Psi Chi resigned his presidency of the Psychology Club before school began. He now has a total of fifty activity points.

Betty Wood, Sou'wester editor, dropped her presidency of the Independent Women following her appointment in the spring of 1951.

Student Body President Lindsay Stevenson has announced that a resolution designed to prevent activity-point system infractions has been passed by the Student Council. All candidates in future student elections will be presented with a list of their activity points so that nominees will not seek offices for which they are ineligible.

Freshman Officers To Be Chosen Saturday

Election of freshman class officers will be held next Saturday, Oct. 6, at 10:30 in Hardie Auditorium. All freshmen must attend this class meeting.

Officers to be chosen are: president, vice-president, and secretary-treasurer of the class, and representatives to the Christian Union Cabinet, Publications Board, and Honor Council.

Bill Hughes, president of the sophomore class, is in charge of the election procedure. Burk Rucker, secretary-treasurer of the sophomore class, will assist in keeping the tabulations.

Sports And Spirit

Sports interest is one of the strongest unifying elements on any campus. School spirit depends largely on joint participation of all students in some common endeavor. Sports events provide this group enterprise. Whether participating or watching, the individual discovers himself an organic part of a giant movement.

Sports, perhaps better than any other activity, give that enthusiastic feeling of belonging to a school. We call this feeling school spirit.

Everybody should play. School spirit is not something that a handful of people, or even half the student body, can somehow miraculously generate whenever the rule book says that we need it. It is something we need all the time and something that requires the work of every student. As a spectator only, the individual's effectiveness is considerably diminished. Taking part in some of the play is essential to the appreciation and practice of school spirit.

The varsity teams, on the other hand, employ men from all campus organizations. The unity of the student body is symbolized in the working-together of the superior athletes in a school team. Unity is the foundation of school spirit; therefore, it seems necessary that we have strong varsity teams and that in intramural sports we place the greatest attention on full participation rather than team strength. School spirit must transcend organizational.

Regulations

Did I read my Handbook right, or are freshmen required NOT to speak to upperclassmen? Why these little creatures might as well be ancient seniors for all the prancing around, nose-elevation, and self-exaltation they've been doing. Sedition and rebellion openly defie the rule of the chosen.

The laws of freshman existence are flagrantly ignored. There are so many small, illegible signs, so many grass-walkers, so many deaf-mutes among the freshman class that we upperclassmen can't even keep up with the violations.

Friendly smiles, cheerful service, and respectful obedience are the ordained rewards of age and experience. Freshman chapel programs are the desert of academic giants.

Next week, may the gutter run deep with freshman blood.

Appreciation

The Sou'wester extends its appreciation to Dr. R. C. Hon and Rr. L. F. Kinney of the scholarship committee and to the Student Council.

A letter from the scholarship committee appears in this issue of the Sou'wester to clarify Southwestern's scholarship policy, which was discussed in an editorial last week.

The response of the Student Council in clearing up the point-system violations is recorded on page one.

The Sou'wester thanks both institutions, the scholarship committee for its gesture of friendly assistance and the student council for its immediate and necessary action.

Crescendo and Diminuendo

The entertainment calendar for the season '51-'52 has just been released, and it is rather good, outside in some respects. Three well known pianists are being presented.

They are: Guiomar Novaes, November 27; Eugene Istomin, January 20; and Artur Schnabel, February 10. Novaes is good, Istomin, a young pianist and pupil of Serkin, is promising, and Schnabel is more entertaining than a morning at Billingsgate.

We are a little shy on visiting symphonies, but, thanks to the Beethoven Club, the Cincinnati Orchestra, directed by Thor Johnson, will be here February 27. Although this is not one of the best in the United States, neither is it one of the worst, and their concert undoubtedly will be worth hearing.

The Norwegian Male Choir, March 30, also will be under the auspices of the Beethoven Club. This concert will be edifying, and we hope it will be interesting.

Unfortunately, or fortunately, we have only two singers this year, Helen Traubel, February 24, and Giuseppe di Stefano, November 1. Signor di Stefano is a tenor, and will be remembered by Memphis audiences as the Faust of last season's Metropolitan performance.

Miss Traubel, a diva of no mean proportions, is one of the two Wagnerian sopranos internationally recognized as being greater than all others. As usual, the Metropolitan Opera will conclude the season, this year with two performances, May 7 and 8.

To the Sou'wester Editor:

In view of the Sou'wester editorial of last week concerning scholarships, we, as representatives of the Committee on Scholarships and Student Aid who have served on the committee for a number of years, wish to make the following statement:

There has been no change of policy in awarding scholarships. The policy now, as it has been in the past, is:

1. That scholarship ability, indicated by academic records (and in some cases also by competitive examinations), is the indispensable basis for scholarship awards.
2. Other qualifications which show well-roundedness and give promise of future usefulness are also taken into account. Among these are the abilities and qualities of character indicated by participation in literary, religious, athletic, and musical activities.
3. A few grants-in-aid are made to deserving students on the basis of financial need and availability of funds for this purpose.
4. There are some work opportunities on the campus. Aptitude and financial need are the basis for assigning these jobs.
5. Partial remission of fees is granted to bona fide candidates for the ministry and to children of ministers and missionaries on the basis of need.

It may be that there is a reason for the supposed change of policy in granting scholarships at Southwestern. Coaches Johnson and Maybry were active during the summer in interesting several young men in attending Southwestern who academically are good students and who have athletic ability. This just means that the coaches are on the

International House

Comparison between American and European Education System.

In most countries of Europe children begin to go to school with 6 years.

They go to "Folksschool" for 4 years. If they already notice that you are mentally underdeveloped, or, as we may say, "mentally undernourished," you have to go to a special school. I never wept so bitterly as when I had to go over to such a class for half an hour as a punishment.

Then you enter the high-school. There are three different types: One for would-be technicians; one for a more scholastic education, id est you have 8 years of Latin and 6 years of Greek.

I attended the third type that gives you a more general education and enables you to study afterwards any subject.

It is remarkable that there is no Honor System in whole Europe, and everybody uses tricks. A student from Germany even concealed a radio in his "broken" arm for his concluding examination. He was of course graduated, because the Headmaster said he had proved his maturity by this. That is Odysseus' ideal of smartness.

These schools have 8 classes.

Then you enter the university. Remarkable too it is that you learn 8 years of English and in most cases 4 years of another foreign language.

To get your degree, that is the Doctorate, you have to study three to seven years. There are no good prospects for academic Graduates, because there are too many of them. Some progressive countries therefore have begun to give a severe test to the entering student. Those who pass this test are allowed to attend the University. Only they get scholarships, and they get preference in placement.

Another improvement is that some Universities, for instance the Vienna University of World's Commerce, offer complete academic courses in the evenings. There is no Honor System in European universities either.

Compared in idea the American educational system produces more specialists than the European System, but the European system of education gives you a broader general knowledge in any field. The final result is the same; both continents could and can improve the cultural and civilizational standard of the world.

Student Assembly Committee To Coordinate Chapel

The Student Assembly Committee will be headed by Sue Pingree this year.

Other members of the committee are Millye Bunn, Roscoe Feild, and Bill Boyd.

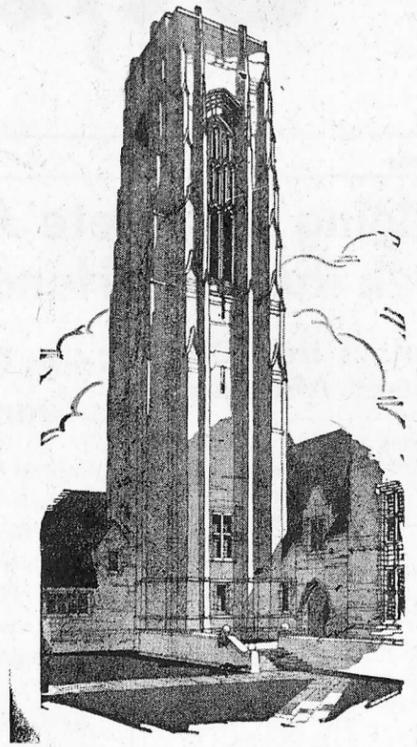

Organizations wishing to hold assembly programs should contact members of this group.

job, helping recruit all-round young men for the college. In the same way Dr. Tuthill is perennially on the lookout for students with excellent scholarship ability who have musical talent. The Scholarship Committee always cooperates with both kinds of effort, to the extent that funds are available.

This policy at Southwestern rests on the belief that it is healthful for individuals, and for society, for people of ability to have special encouragement to prepare themselves for their distinctive contributions to life.

Chapel Chimes

Earlier this week I, too, was a chapel cutter. When I arrived at Hardie, the doors were locked; so I wandered down to the cloister. Surprisingly enough all was quiet, and the social rooms were completely deserted. Having noticed the tremendous crowds in chapel last week I was embarrassed to think that I was the only one who was cutting chapel so soon.

I sauntered over to the Lynx Lair, hoping that I might find a few others who had either been locked out or who chose to report an absence for the morning religious service of Southwestern. Was I being pessimistic?

A blare of popular music and the loud talking and the laughing of an overflowing crowd startled me completely! Usually toward the end of each semester, the "Scotch blood" seems to give out, and the students cannot resist using all the allotted cuts. . . . But so early in the year and so big a crowd? Why?

Perhaps, though, the large crowds the first few days of chapel had discouraged some—or maybe they were moved by the generosity of their hearts to give some poor soul their seats. But the masses never fail to appear on Wednesday, and even standing room it at a premium!

Maybe the tempting half-hour break between classes beckons. Would 8:30 services solve the problem? Are the programs inadequate for the needs of the Southwestern students? These questions should be answered by the students who attend chapel.

In high school I remember how very much some of us would have welcomed something of this sort. I understand that now one high school is "allowing" its students to have a chapel series, with voluntary attendance in the early morning, provided that it does not interfere in any way with classes. I hear it is an overwhelming success.

On the other hand our chapel program is all set up for us, and we do not see fit to attend. Are the programs lacking in appeal? Chapel is meant for the students, and if it is not satisfying their need for worship, something should be done. I am sure the college chaplain and his committee would welcome your suggestions to programs which would be more vital to college students.

Could it be the attitude we take? Chapel is an opportunity for daily inspiration. It need not be drudgery. Let us look at it in this way—Remember Freedom of Worship is being attacked today. This freedom is most in peril where men have interpreted it as Freedom FROM WORSHIP. Here we have freedom TO worship; so take advantage of your opportunity. Be looking for you in chapel this morning.

CUC Forums

Forums to be held this year, are sponsored by the Christian Union Cabinet and will be concerned with discussions of important topics.

Every student is a member of the Christian Union and should be there to voice his opinions.

At 6:30 Wednesday evening all students are invited to meet in Voorhies basement for hymn singing. This, too, is sponsored by the Christian Union for the student body. It should not be missed. Budget your time Wednesday to attend both of these meetings.

The Sport Light

By Don Ramier

Coach Bill Maybry has worked up a few surprises, or should I say variations, for the old familiar intramural program. The volley ball brain-storm should be of interest to both students and faculty, for the All-Stars are to play a crackerjack squad made up of such faculty members as Osman, Diehl, West, Maybry, Southard, Gibbs, and others who are able to qualify.

Next in order of sports chronology will be the basketball All-Stars vs. the varsity "B" team. This should be a hard fought battle with the Varsity boys having a slight advantage.

The softball All-Stars will battle the league champs for the S.A.E. trophy. This is a game that originated last year with a starting battery consisting of Dr. Rhodes pitching and Coach Clemens catching. If you recall, Dr. Arlo Smith opened the game by slashing a long, high drive past the pitcher into the glove of the second baseman who burned his hand somewhat in snaring the wicked clout. S.A.E. went on to win the game and hold the trophy for a year.

The big contest of the coming intramural touch football season will be the game between the All-Stars and the Leroy Dodgers. The newly formed outfit is owned and operated by Leroy Rasco, our recently-appointed equipment manager, who lists Hamlet, Crisamore, McLin, Davis, Palmer, and Maybry as some of his hopefuls. Coach Rasco reports that a few of his boys are a bit overweight at present but will be in trim physical shape for the big game. It should be a bone-crushing exhibition and quite a nightmare for the All-Stars.

I hope the the intramural season can produce big enough men to stand up against the size and experience of the varsity boys. Being chosen for the All-Star team will be a test and a trial this year, as well as an honor.

I'm sure the Juniors and Seniors, if not some of the Sophomores will remember Paul "Pablo" Currie, the diminutive "pat-ball" artist of Southwestern's '48-'49 tennis squad. "Pablo" is now in Korea fighting a battle quite the opposite of a tennis struggle where sportsmanship is the prevailing theme. Eldon Roark, who played on the same team with Currie, is also in uniform. He is stationed in Memphis at the Army Air Force Base. Eldon participated in a few local tennis tournaments last summer and gave a good account of himself. He'll be seen in the basketball game between the Southwestern varsity and the alumni. Art Derr, center on our last winning basketball team, is also stationed at the Memphis Air Force Base and will play for the alumni if he is not transferred before game time.

News of other past Southwestern sport stars who are not in the service: Forrest Flaniken, one time football great, is with McKesson-Robbins Drug Supplies located in Memphis. Another footballer, "Daddy" Ray Ashley, is studying law at the University of Tennessee.

A word from Napoleon Bonaparte to the "armchair coaches" who criticize loudly but shun action: "Those generals only who have never commanded armies in the field, have not committed errors."

Cross Country Track Enters Fall Sports

Cross-country track has been initiated by the athletic department this fall as training for the spring track events. Cross-country started too late in the season to schedule matches this year, but if enough interest is shown, it may be continued in 1952.

Taking part in the training program are Walter Gorman, Jerry Chance, Ron Davis, Tommy Strong, and Bill Sullivan. Newton Todd has also been working out to a limited extent, and Bill Lawson is expected to join the group.

Independent Men Plan Organizational Meeting

All independent men who wish to participate in intramural sports (football, basketball, softball, track, tennis, volleyball, ping-pong, badminton and golf) are asked to contact Willie Bow or Wheatley Beard.

Officers will be elected at a meeting of the independent men Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in Hardie Auditorium. The organization will meet in the faculty section.

Entire Schedule

The Intramural Athletic Schedule for the entire season has been announced. Details of scheduling for the various teams will be set later as the dates for closing the entry (Continued on Page 4)

Storn Announces First Spanish Club Meeting

Dr. Martin W. Storn, faculty adviser for the Spanish Club, has announced that the first meeting of the year will be held Thursday afternoon, October 11, at 4 p.m.

The meeting will be held in Dr. Storn's home at 1999 Mignon, just a few blocks from the campus. Officers will be elected, and the program for the year will be planned.

Membership is open to all Spanish students who have had at least one year of college Spanish or it's equivalent. These students are cordially invited to become members of the Spanish Club.

The Spanish Club will meet on every second Thursday of the months of the school year.

Varsity Basketball Vies With Intramural Football For Men

Varsity basketball got well under way Monday afternoon with the first workout of the 1951-52 season.

There still remained a conflict in the mind of some of the campus' hardwood athletes as to whether they should play varsity basketball or intramural touch football. Coach Glenn Johnson was aggressively trying to get them to decide in favor of the former.

In the group that turned out Monday were eight veterans of at least one season of varsity play with the Lynx—John Austin, Walter Gorman, Bob Crumby, Tom McClelland, Roxie Lee, Charlie McAllister, Bennie Lamberth, and Bob Palmer.

The newcomers to the first workout were Johnny Maxwell, Bob Goodson, Jerry Wood, Frank Horton, Jimmy Cunningham, and Sid Vise. Others, including Sonny Mopus and Tommy Jones, were expected.

The program of the new coach of the Lynx Cats has from the start been one which attempted to draw the athletic attention of the student body from the Intramural events to the broader field of varsity basketball to reconsider their decisions, he pointed out the sweeping differences in the outlooks required to play the two games.

He also said, for the benefit of those who were hoping to participate in a varsity football program next year, that he considered touch football a drawback to anyone who wanted to play the varsity game.

The first home game of the 1951 cage season is to be played against Bethel of McKenzie, Tennessee, November 27.

"S" Club Meets, Plans Initiation Ceremonies

The "S" Club met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of electing a new president and making plans for the present school year.

John Austin, retiring president, reported that there were about ten members back on the campus and about as many others who had received letters but had not been initiated.

Plans were discussed in yesterday's meeting for these initiations and for revitalizing the club with the aim of making Southwestern students more sports conscious and, in particular, more interested in varsity athletics.

New Band Officers Chosen

The band is planning intensive work on concert music this year.
