SAE Sweetheart Will Be Revealed At Ball Saturday

Fifty-Year Members To Be Honored At Banquet

Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity will hold its Founder's Day Banquet and Sweetheart Ball on Saturday night March 11. Both events will take place in the Panorama Room of the Hotel King Cotton.

The Founder's Day Banquet at 6 o'clock will celebrate the 94th anniversary of the fraternity. Nash Buckingham will be the principle speaker. The feature of the banquet will be the presentation by Mr. Seddon Allen of 50 Year certificates to 10 Memphis men who have been members of SAE for 50 years. The following will receive the awards: Mr. Nash Buckingham, Major Thomas H. Allen, Mr. George A. Bone, Mr. William G. Cavett, Mr. William J. Hine, Mr. William Joyner, Mr. Alexander McLean, Dr. W. W. Mitchell, Mr. David B. Newsom, Mr. Russell Randolph, and Mr. John B. Snowden.

Sweetheart Ball

The Sweetheart Ball begins at 9 o'clock with Colie Stoltz furnishing the music. The feature of the evening will be the presentation of the SAE Sweetheart of 1950. The leadout will be around a huge heart and the sweetheart will break through the paper covering it and be presented to the guests. At this time Leslie Thompson will sing "The Sweetheart of SAE." The leadout song will be "Violets." The sweetheart's picture will be unveiled over the bandstand.

In charge of arrangements for the dance are Curtis Kent, who will attend O'Joy Oaks of Des Moines, Iowa, and Bob Atcheson with Martha Jane Pullen.

Philologists Elect Wenger President

Entertainment Furnished By Southwestern Students

Southwestern's Prof. Jared Wenger was elected president of the Philological Association for the next year at the meetings which were held here in Memphis on March 3 and 4.

Guest of honor was Southwestern's President Peyton N. Rhodes, who delivered the welcoming address to the association, at dinner, on Friday night, March 3, at Hotel Peabody. Afterwards, entertainment was provided by the Southwestern and Memphis State students. A farce, "The Wandering Scholar from Paradise," which featured Roscoe Feild, Henry Freund, and Vivienne Chilton was presented by the Southwestern Players. Ann Brown (accompanied by Bob Craven), sang "Ouvre Tor Coeur" by Bizet and "Nuit D'Etoiles" by Debussy.

Professor Felix Wasserman read his paper, "Conservative Humanist in the Crisis of the Western World," at the Friday meeting; and Professors Richard Vowles, whose subject was "Evelyn War's Satire of Galvanized and Translated Reality," John Q. Wolf, Jr. with "Wordsworth's Alleged Truancy to Liberalism in 1815," theirs at the Saturday morning meeting.

Professor and Mrs. Martin Stom entertained the group at tea Saturday.

Caudill Will Speak To YWCA At Meeting

"The International Aspect of Social Responsibility" will be the lecture subject of Dr. Paul Caudill, minister of the First Baptist Church, who will speak to the YWCA at their March meeting which will be held tomorrow at 4 o'clock in Voorhees Recreation Room.

Helen Dupree will give the devotional which will precede the business session at which officers for next year will be elected and the club project voted upon.

She's A Dream Girl

PiKA Dream Girl Is Ann Turner

Presented Red Roses,
And Jeweled Pin

Ann Turner is the 1950 Dream Girl of Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity of Southwestern.

At their Dream Girl Ball held last Saturday night in the Continental Ball Room of the Peabody Hotel, the Southwestern chapter and the Memphis State chapter each presented their Dream Girls. Catherine O'Hearn was presented by the Memphis State Chapter. Both Dream Girls were given jeweled fraternity pins and bouquets of red roses by the fraternity.

Dates of PiKAs were given beautiful silver identification bracelets mounted with the fraternity crest.

Ann Turner is a freshman at Southwestern. She is a pledge of Chi Omega Sorority, a member of the Southwestern players and the campus Y.W.C.A.

Prof. Wooten Gives Physics Lecture

First In Series Of Talks
On Modern Science

Professor B. A. Wooten gave a lecture entitled "The Reality of Matter in Space and Time" in 101 Science Hall on Monday night, March 6. This was the first in a series of talks under the general subject of "Basic Concepts of Modern Physics" which will be delivered at 8:00 every Monday night in this month.

By demonstrating, Professor Wooten made clear meanings of "length, time, mass, force, energy, and momentum," and he showed certain affects on all of these. Galileo's experiment with the feather and the dime, representing bodies falling in a vacuum, was shown. Professor Wooten exhibited illusions people have about rhythm; first he fooled people into thinking that the rhythm of one song was the same as another, and then he showed the audience that they were wrong. Among other demonstrations, he fired a rifle bullet into a block of wood and explained the mechanism of a ballistic pendulum.

These lectures interpret in a modern sense the quantities that authorities consider physics.

AOPi Stunt Night Program To Have A Circus Theme

Skits To Be Enacted By Sororities, Fraternities

The sixth annual Stunt Night will be presented by Kappa Omicron chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority Thursday night at 7:30 in Hardie Auditorium. Admission will be 50¢ per person. Each campus sorority and fraternity will enact a skit. Identical silver loving cups will be presented to the sorority and fraternity judged having the best skit.

The theme of the program will be a circus. Jane and Anne Davis, dressed as ring-masters, will hold large signs announcing each skit.

The program will begin with a song and dance by five of the AOPi's dressed in trapeze artist costumes. Dancers will be Peggy Haire, Etta Mae Murray, Sue Renshaw, Ann Rollow and Marzette Smith.

Following the introduction half of the skits will be given. During the intermission after the fifth skit, there will be a parade of AOPi's dressed as circus animals, and a dance routine by four girls dressed as clowns. Clowns will be Martha Beggs, Helen Quindley, Zoe Theodore and Joanne Zahner.

After the final group of skits has been given and while the judges are making their decisions, another group of AOPi's in harem costumes will dance. Dancers will be Sue Cabe, Mary Ashley Davis, Virginia Dzier, Ann Raines, Iolies Robbins and Patty Smith.

The program as it will be presented is as follows:

Kappa Sigma—"Samson and Delilah"

Sigma Alpha Epsilon—"Madcap Minstrels"

Chi Omega—"The Trolley Song"

Sigma Nu—"A Night At The Theater"

Zeta Tau Alpha—"The Sidewalks of New York"

Intermission

Kappa Alpha—"Tobacco Gulley Grade School"

Students Name Most Popular Personalities In Close Voting In Campus Superlative Race

TOP POPULARITY WINNERS — Ann Brown was elected Miss Southwestern and Judd Williford was named Best All-Around Boy in campus popularity elections which were held last week. These two were the only winners in the second runoff election. A third runoff was necessary to determine superlatives in other categories.

Ann Brown Named
Miss Southwestern

TWO RUNOFF VOTES

Judd Williford Is Best All-Around

The Southwestern student body held its popularity elections last week with two run-off ballots necessary to determine final winners.

Ann Brown was elected Miss Southwestern, and Judd Williford was named Best All-Around Boy in the first run-off staged last Thursday and Friday.

Ann was opposed by Nancy Cartwright, and Judd, who was also Best All-Around Boy last year, defeated Art Derr.

Last Monday and Tuesday the run-off elections for the other four offices were held.

To the title of Most Attractive Co-ed, the students elected Patty Smith, with Jackie Roland running a close second.

Most Handsome Boy is Bill Brown, who narrowly edged out Wayne Todd.

Chosen to fill the position of Most Stylish Co-ed, was Peggy Haire. Joan Stewart was runner-up.

Curtis Kent, victorious over Billy Joe Crissom, was selected Most Popular Boy.

From an original field of five candidates for each title, the list was narrowed in the primary election to three candidates for four of the titles, Most Popular Boy, Most Attractive Co-ed, Most Handsome Boy, and Most Stylish. Two candidates were placed on the runoff ballot for Miss Southwestern and Best All-Around Boy.

Voting was extremely close in the first runoff, with only the candidates with one opponent gaining a majority. Eliminated in the three candidates categories were Anne Marie Caskey for Most Attractive Co-ed, Rick Russell for Most Handsome Boy, Forrest Flaniken for Most Popular Boy, and Betty Rhodes for Most Stylish Co-ed.

Nine Seniors Will Be Initiated Into Phi Beta Kappa Soon

First Students Picked By New Chapter

Nine Southwestern seniors have been notified by the local chapter of Phi Beta Kappa that they will be initiated into the highest ranking of the national scholastic honor fraternities at an early date.

These will be the first student initiates for the new Tennessee Gamma Chapter which was installed on the campus last December.

The nine are Denby Brandon, Louise Osborn, Moris Shore, Jane McAtee, Gene Canestrari, Barbara Petersen, John Jochum, Virginia Catching, and Herman Kaplan.

Dean A. Theodore Johnson, secretary of the local chapter, pointed out in making the announcement, that good scholarship is a primary factor for consideration by Phi Beta Kappa, but that qualities of leadership and character are equally important.

Students Listed

The nine are:

Denby Brandon, president of the student body. Denby is a member of Alpha Theta Phi and Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary fraternities, is vice-president of the Honor Council, is listed in the current edition of Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities, and was named one of the outstanding debators in the 1949 Grand National Debate Tournament in which he and his partner won third place among colleges and universities from all parts of the

One-Third Of Goal In CUC Project Reached

Collections Will Continue Until Saturday

The contributions to the CUC's World Student Service Drive reached one third of the established quota in the first week of the drive according to Toby Bunn, chairman of the CU Service Abroad Committee.

$500 has been collected in the campaign which will be continued until Saturday.

Students may turn in their contributions at the booth which has been set up in the cloister or to a member of the committee of sixty which drew up the plans for the project. Several faculty members have contributed although the drive is a student affair.

The regular intramural basketball season ended last Friday night with SAE taking down first place with a record of seven wins and no defeats. Kappa Alpha finished second with a five and two record, and Kappa Sigma rallied to come in third with four wins and three defeats.

Four games were played last week to complete the schedule. Tuesday night as a preliminary to the Southwestern-Sewanee game was the SAE-Sigma Nu contest. SAE emerged on top 39-33 to finish the season unbeaten, but Sigma Nu gave them their most strenuous battle of the year. Sigma Nu got off to a good start and led 10-6 at the quarter, but SAE came back to hold a narrow 16-15 advantage at intermission.

In the third period Beefy Dunnivant found the range to spark SAE to a 29-25 lead as the fourth quarter began, and they held it until the final gun. Dunnivant was the game's leading scorer with 14. For Sigma Nu Cullen Johnston collected 12 points.

Indoor Meet Held

Kappa Sigma defeated the Faculty 46-31 Wednesday afternoon. The victors had a ten point advantage after the first quarter and maintained about that lead throughout the rest of the game. Johnny Bryant piled up 17 points to cop scoring honors. For the Faculty Dan West had 12 and Prof. Nall 11.

Friday afternoon Kappa Alpha broke the scoring record recently set by ATO in their 72-34 conquest of PiKA. The first half was fairly close, the KA's holding only a six point lead at intermission. During the second period, however, the winners scored almost at will. Benjie Lambeth led the point parade with 20, but Roxie Lee and Bob Allen helped out with 18 and 16 respectively.

The season ended Friday night

In The

Sportsman's Corner

By BOB WHITESIDE

Our column tips its hat. Despite the fact that the Southwestern basketball team ran hot and cold throughout the season (the difference between the Delta State and the Memphis State games for example) we must admit that they bowed out like champions in their two game series with Sewanee which closed out their season. With the aid of Coach Clemens and Bill Mabry we have done a bit of totaling of the records for the year. Incidentally, the boys set some new records:

Ga. High

Name	Position	Total	Pts.	Pt. Man
Derr, Center	236	7
Coley, Forward	215	5
Williford, Forward	191	3
Roark, Guard	182	5
Gwin, Guard	164	3

The team's total number of points for the season was 1,261 or a little over 60 points per game. Both the total points and the points per game are new records and we think they will stand for quite a while if Southwestern continues to play it's customary 20 to 25 games per season. The team also set a new record for points scored in a single game when they amassed a total of 95 in their second game with Sewanee. Coach Clemens is of the opinion that the previous record was broken more than once this season when the team climbed above the 80 mark.

We would like to call attention to the distribution of games in which the individual players were high point man. Such a distribution is unusual since it is seldom that any team is so well balanced. For the most part the accent was on teamwork with very little grandstanding for the sake of individual scoring.

However here are several things that do not show in the records. We would like to call attention to some of the second string players whose performances deserve notice:

Pridgen—He was number one substitute for the season and a consistent scorer; high point man in one game.

Vryonis—Any opponent whose job it was to guard him as he whisks around the court was in for a long hard evening.

Doyle—Fresh in off the football field he knocked more than one opponent for a row of Bulgarian asheans as he drove for the basket.

Thomas—When he got set just right for his one-hand push shot from the corner of the court no one bothered to follow the shot.

Graves—in and out at center all season we think his only handicap was lack of experience.

Now that we have scattered roses for the basketball team we have some rocks to throw. Our target is the way the boys have turned out for Spring football. We were happy

Art Derr, high scoring Lynx pivot man proves a tough obstacle to Sewanee's center Jimmy Roxx. Art notched twenty tallies in the season's finale to sew up total season scoring honors. The team scored 95 points in the second Sewanee game to set a new one game record.

SAE, KS, ATO Win Openers In Intramural Cage Tourney

First round matches in the intramural basketball tournament were played last Monday, with SAE, Kappa Sigma, and ATO surviving victorious. Kappa Alpha drew a bye.

In the opener Monday afternoon SAE, unbeaten in the regular season, trounced the Independents 62-16. SAE led all the way, and the game was a rout after the first quarter. Ben Dewbre poured 18 points through the nets to take scoring honors. He was trailed by teammate Beefy Dunnivant who had 13 and Charley Nickas of the Independents with 11.

Kappa Sigma broke the scoring record for the third time in a week by bowing over the PiKA 73-28. Kappa Sig spurted to a 35-13 lead at intermission, and stayed hot in the final half to pile up the record point total. The old record was 72, set by KA last week. Bob Whitehead got 17 points to be high scorer, but he received able assistance from George Comes with 14, Johnny Bryant with 13, and Bob McKinney with 12. Aubrey Whitsinger notched 11 points.

The evening closed with battle ball. SAE won this event with Kappa Sigma finishing second, and Kappa Alpha third.

The final results were as follows: Sigma Nu 17; SAE 16 1/3; Kappa Sigma 9; ATO 6 1/3; Kappa Sigma 5 1/3.

In the other first round game ATO emerged victorious over Sigma Nu after a harrowing double overtime contest. The final score was 36-34. The game was tight as drum all the way, with four points being the largest lead either team ever enjoyed. The first quarter ended 4-3 Sigma Nu, but ATO pulled ahead 15-14 at the half. Bill Threlkeld got 11 points in the second half to spark Sigma Nu to a 31-28 lead with only eight seconds left in the game. Then Charlie Landrum stole the ball, laid it in for a basket and was fouled by Red Wray. He dropped in the charity toss to knot the count, and the game ended before Sigma Nu could get a shot off. Threlkeld got a goal for Sigma Nu on the tipoff in the first overtime, but Brady Whitehead matched it for ATO with less than a minute left.

In the extra period, and the overtime ended 33-33. Dick Kinsinger and Threlkeld matched free shots in the second overtime, and then Whitehead came through again with a goal from under the basket to give ATO its winning margin. Threlkeld was high scorer with 18 points, and Cullen Johnston got 10 for Sigma Nu. For ATO Kinsinger notched 11 points.

The second round was played Wednesday. ATO met Kappa Sigma and SAE battled KA in the winners' bracket. In the losers' bracket were Sigma Nu, PiKA, and the Independents. The tournament is a double elimination affair.

SOU'WESTER
Dear Sir:

I am sure that the students of Southwestern would appreciate more information on the cafeteria situation.

Obviously the cafeteria has no net to pay, and some of the personnel is paid by the school. Why is it that the prices are on a par with the better restaurants, while the quality of the food does not stand comparison? Apparently, these are the facts, and if I am wrong, I, and the student body also, would appreciate a more satisfactory explanation that has so far been given.

Sincerely

Lynx Set Record With 95-66 Win Over Sewanee

Williford, Derr Lead Way In Wild Scoring Finale

Southwestern's redhot Lynx shattered all scoring records as they finished the season with a smashing 95-66 victory over Sewanee last Tuesday night. The previous record was the 80 points tallied by the Lynx against Sewanee the night before.

The game was a complete rout all the way, as Southwestern jumped off to a fast start and piled up a 42-21 lead by halftime. The Lynx were even hotter in the last half, and had racked up 75 points with about nine minutes left on the clock. As this time it was possible that the Cats might break a hundred, but they slumped little and had to be content with 95.

Scoring Parade

Williford and Art Derr led the scoring parade for Southwestern with 20. Roy Gwin had 16, including eight consecutive free throws, and Bill Coley and Billy Pridgen also helped out considerably.

This was the last game of their college career for several of the Lynx, including four of the starters. Bill Coley, Judd Williford, Art Derr, and Eldon Roark, Jr., all were starting their last game for the red and black. In addition substitute guards Speros Vryonis and Jack Doyle are graduating, and Bill Pridgen and Lester Graves are expecting to enroll in Medical school next year. However, Roy Gwin has been a consistently good guard all year, and the performances of John Austin and Dave Thomas in the final games give some hope for next season.

Facts And Figures: A Basketball Post Mortem

Here are a few facts and figures concerning the 1949-50 Southwest basketball team which may be of interest.

The team's leading scorer was in the extra period, and the overtime ended 33-33. Dick Kinsinger and Threlkeld matched free shots in the second overtime, and then Whitehead came through again with a goal from under the basket to give ATO its winning margin. Threlkeld was high scorer with 18 points, and Cullen Johnston got 10 for Sigma Nu. For ATO Kinsinger notched 11 points.

Williford drew the most free shots, 115, and made the most, 79. Gwin had the best percentage of free shots with 52 out of 66 for 78.7 per cent. Roark cashed in 69.8 per cent and Williford made 68.6 per cent good.

In the personal foul department Derr was out in front with 77, but Gwin was close behind with 68. Williford had only 36 called against him, less than two per game.

The team as a whole dropped in 473 field goals and 316 free throws for 1262 points, or about 60 per game. They made 316 out of 512 free shots for a percentage of 61.7 per cent. The squad had 437 personal fouls called against them during the season.

At the twenty-fifth annual meeting of the National Association of Schools of Music held in Cleveland, Ohio ten days ago, Dr. Burnett C. Tuthill director of the music department received national recognition and praise for his outstanding work as secretary of that organization since its founding.

The climax of the meeting was the silver anniversary luncheon at which Dr. Tuthill presided. After the past presidents had reported on the history of their administrations the spotlight was turned on the now very surprised master of ceremonies as the entire convention expressed in words and gifts their thanks to Dr. Tuthill for his untiring efforts for the association over the twenty-five years of its existence. A beautiful testimonial of appreciation was presented to him and followed by a Hamilton wrist watch, handsome week-end bag, and a lap full of twenty-five silver dollars.

As one of the founders of the NASM Dr. Tuthill called its first meeting while he was on the faculty of the Cincinnati Conservatory. The original purpose of the organization was to obtain recognition from colleges of the credits given by Music Conservatories. As colleges saw available help from the NASM in formulating music curriculae the association steadily grew to its present number of one hundred and ninety schools.

Presidents have been:

Kenneth Bradley, Bush Conservatory; Harold Butler, Syracuse Univ.; Earl V. Moore, Univ. Michigan; Howard Hansen, Eastman.

And at the present:

Price Doyle, Murray State (Ky.) Today the main function of the NASM is the setting of standards for degrees in music and the accrediting of schools granting these degrees.

The dramatic club of any college should be one of the outstanding campus activities. It could hardly be said of the Players of Southwestern who are outstanding for their lack of activity. This is mostly due to the failure of the student body to cooperate with the members in trying to put on interesting and worthwhile entertainment. (Columnist's Note: Thank goodness the Players of 1950 are now a vital organization full of activity, but there is markedly little improvement in the student body.)

Last Saturday night Senor Storn entertained the Spanish Club on their 100th anniversary with a "beer frolic" and "hop" at the Jungle Dance Hall near West Memphis, Ark. At midnight beer and pretzels were served and a tinker toy set was given as first prize to Julian Nall, who balanced the most pretzels on his nose. Intrigued with his set, Julian played with it the rest of the night while Senor taught the others the newest rage in the Mexican Rhumba.

The Service Club entertained Tuesday night with a "Serve Yourself, We're Tired" party for the members and their dates (such as they were). The affair was held at the club's room over the garage of one of the members. It was reported that there were decorations but nobody knows what they were due to lack of illumination on the part of the Decorations Committee. They couldn't understand why anybody in this day and time wanted illumination anyway.

The Christian Union Forum on the subject "What Good Does It Do To Go To Southwestern?" has been postponed until Tuesday, March 14. It was originally planned for last Friday, but was moved up because of the crowded schedule of the week.

All students are urged to attend this forum and express their views on the reason a liberal arts education has or has not helped prepare them for the business of living in a practical world.

Two seniors will lead off the discussion with a debate on the two sides of the question, Denby Brandon taking the positive and Virginia Jones taking the negative view.

Results of the forum will be sent to the Administration for their consideration and will also be published in the Sou'wester.

away full of admiration for the manner in which they are served.

The dramatic club of any college should be one of the outstanding campus activities. It could hardly be said of the Players of Southwestern who are outstanding for their lack of activity. This is mostly due to the failure of the student body to cooperate with the members in trying to put on interesting and worthwhile entertainment. (Columnist's Note: Thank goodness the Players of 1950 are now a vital organization full of activity, but there is markedly little improvement in the student body.)

Five Year Old: He's sitting on the sidewalk talking to a banana peel.

Last Saturday night Senor Storn entertained the Spanish Club on their 100th anniversary with a "beer frolic" and "hop" at the Jungle Dance Hall near West Memphis, Ark. At midnight beer and pretzels were served and a tinker toy set was given as first prize to Julian Nall, who balanced the most pretzels on his nose. Intrigued with his set, Julian played with it the rest of the night while Senor taught the others the newest rage in the Mexican Rhumba.

The Service Club entertained Tuesday night with a "Serve Yourself, We're Tired" party for the members and their dates (such as they were). The affair was held at the club's room over the garage of one of the members. It was reported that there were decorations but nobody knows what they were due to lack of illumination on the part of the Decorations Committee. They couldn't understand why anybody in this day and time wanted illumination anyway.

Definitely essential in all details of good stationery!

Come Flood Or Fire, Keep On—But Fate's Just Too Much

By NANCY HILL

Drama struck the Southwestern campus last week in the form of lightning.

At the Chi Omega house girls were making a determined effort to practice their contribution to the AAO Pi Stunt Night. Melodic notes ascended to the heavens when suddenly lightning descended into the House. A gigantic explosion shook the house and a blinding light filled the room. After the first seconds, the shell shock victims had plenty to say — Jean Arnold shouted, "Dig a fox hole, it's war!" Sarah Loaring-Clark suggested "Let's get out of here, the whole house will blow up!" Other intelligent Southwestern students could only scream with ear piercing shrieks. One sane senior said, "Let's call the Fire Department." There was a mad dash to the phone. Then it was discovered the page with the Fire Department phone number was torn out of the book. It was 5 minutes before anyone thought to ask the Operator for the Fire Department.

Meanwhile some one ran out into the pouring rain, and reported a gigantic hole in the roof and slate all over the front yard

The fire engine flew in with siren screaming. Five firemen invaded the house, administered first aid to those who had fainted and checked the house for fire. They announced that lightning had struck and not a stray rocket from New Mexico. The only fire they found was a stray cigarette blazing in a wastebasket. They also obliged by putting a tarpaulin over the hole to keep the rain from flooding the house.

It was decided by a unanimous vote that Fate was against Stunt Night and practice was given up that day.

Everybody said that it was a wonderful party in spite of the fact that the refreshments were black eyed peas and more peas.

Most fellows think that it is better to be broke than to have never loved at all.

Just think. Dan tried to put his arm around me four times last night.

Gawd, what an arm!
