CAL, JR., HAS NURSE

Amherst, Mass., Oct. 16.—Amherst college is passing rumors about the nurse that Calvin Coolidge, Jr., now has. Col. Edward W. Starling, secret service operative, has become the youth's mentor.

Col. Starling's duties take him to and from school with young Cal, advise him as to his associates and amusements, and to guard his health. The colonel lives with the President's boy in a private house near the university. Calvin is a junior.

FIND LOST CHARTER

Oxford, Miss., Oct. 13.—Eta chapter of Sigma Chi fraternity of Ole Miss, is now in possession of its first charter, lost since the early eighties. The charter was drawn in 1857 and has been kept in a metal tube. It is the third oldest in Sigma Chi. It is in a fine state of preservation.

Dr. E. N. Lowe, state geologist, was entrusted with the charter and failed to hand it down to a selected junior when he graduated, as was the custom. He forgot about it. When fraternities were banned in Mississippi in 1912, the charter could not be found and returned to the national fraternity.

The tube also contained the charter issued upon the re-establishment of the chapter after the Civil War.

CO-EDS BAN CURFEW

Hanover, Ind., Oct. 16.—Co-eds of Hanover college may wander out of their places of residence after 6 o'clock in the evening at their will. A recent ruling of the Hanover college authorities placing the night-owl limit at six o'clock, was met by a strike. No co-ed went to classes until the ban was lifted.

A mass meeting of student body and faculty was held, and a faculty member said that "there must be some misunderstanding."

BUMS ON BLACKLIST

Columbus, Miss., Oct. 14.—The Spectator, student publication of the Mississippi State College for Women, in a recent issue published a story to the effect that college girls prefer gentlemen as escorts.

POLICE FIND YOUTH

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 14.—Joseph A. Wiener, student of Northwestern University, has at last been found. Young Wiener was hurt in an automobile accident on Oct. 7. He disappeared and authorities could find no trace of him. A nation-wide search was instituted by his father, a wealthy Michigan City, Ind., merchant.

The youth could not give his name when questioned. But police had his picture in their files. A large bruise was found on his head. He could not tell how he got to Milwaukee.

IDEAL GIRL PICKED

Macon, Ga., Oct. 12.—A questionnaire was sent recently to 100 students of Mercer University to determine the ideal woman. The sheets were sent to all classes of male students, sheiks, glee club men, neckers, athletes, fraternity men, campus men, ministerial students.

The brunette type was the unanimous choice save by three votes. Blue and brown colored eyes were the most popular. Public dances were taboo. The ideal woman must be a good cook, use rouge but moderately, don't smoke. Forty-five favored bobbed hair, while the remainder favored the flowing tresses. The ideal woman could use profanity when she became real angry, but could not mix it with her general conversation, was the consensus.

The gum-chewing, painted, pampered, flippant flappers were given a decisive jolt.

LYNX CATS-PANTHERS MIX-UP SATURDAY

Bobby Lloyd Is Chosen As Frosh President

Town Students Rule In Freshman Elections

Bobby Lloyd, former Central high school student, will lead the Frosh of 1930 this year as president of the Freshman class.

Charles Mitchiner, also a Central high alumnus, will serve as vice-president. Mary Frances Philips was chosen as secretary. She is also from Central high.

Elections were held last Saturday. Five nominees ran for the president's office. Two ballots were taken before Lloyd garnered a majority vote. Four candidates for vice-president were nominated. Two ballots were held. There were three nominees for secretary. Miss Philips won on the first ballot.

Robert Redhead will represent the Freshman class on the honor council. Elizabeth McKee is the Frosh girl representative on the council. Elections to the honor council were held Monday morning.

The newly chosen officers will hold power during the forthcoming scholastic year.

CAR OVERTURNS ON "DUMPY" BELL

Four Occupants Miraculously Escape Death

Four persons were injured Monday night when a Hudson car driven by John Howard "Dumpy" Bell, 18, Southwestern student, overturned on Pidgeon Roost Road.

Bell and three companions, a young man and two co-eds, were on the Roost road picking dandelions, he says. As they were nearing Memphis a passing car forced them off the road to prevent an accident.

The four were thrown from the car. No one was seriously injured, but all were badly bruised and shocked. The co-eds suffered several deep scratches.

Names of the other occupants could not be learned.

Bell lives at Lexington, Miss., when he is at home.

COLLEGE IS NO CHEATER'S HOME

Prof. Rhodes Lectures on "The Honor System"

"Lying, cheating, cashing cold checks have absolutely no place in a college student's life."

Thus Prof. P. N. Rhodes summarized the essence of student honor in his address to the student body in chapel last Monday morning. His theme was "The Honor System."

Prof. Rhodes is an alumnus of the University of Virginia. That institution has an honor system that has been in vogue since 1842. The honor code was printed in full in The Sou'wester on Oct. 8. Salient points in this system were explained.

"A student body must get that all necessary requisite, the honor spirit. This in reality is the backbone of the honor system. The honor code is the administrative foundation for the system. But the spirit is the all-powerful force. Without it the students would not be zealous of their system and, consequently, the code would be a failure," Prof. Rhodes declared.

This was the second of the series of lectures to the student body being given by the faculty.

CHESTER FRIST CHOSEN LEADER JUNIOR CLASS

Elise Porter New Vice-President—Marcelle Yard to Wield Pen

Chester Frist is the newly elected president of the junior class of Southwestern.

Elise Porter takes over the office of vice-president. Marcelle Yard is the wielder of the pen, under the title of secretary.

Frank Heiss was chosen by the juniors to fill the vacancy occasioned by Bill Fort not returning to college this year.

AHA! SWEATERS AND LYNX CATS

Lynx Club Members Don New Apparel

Members of the Lynx Club will be distinguished hereafter by black sweaters with red figures of Lynx Cats on them. Black and red is Southwestern's color.

Sid Latilais, president, announces that the sweaters will be donned shortly.

VANDY SPECIAL IS LOOKING SICK

Students Fail to Back Up Special

Southwestern Special Train is going under.

If Southwesternites don't back up their pledge, the Special to Nashville on October 30 will not be a special.

Ralph McCaskill, president of the Boosters' Club and sponsor of the endeavor, states that but one ticket has been sold. There must be 125 tickets sold to insure a special train and a cut rate.

Wednesday at 1 p. m. is the deadline for securing a ticket. Tardy students will be unable to make the trip after this hour.

Local Gridders Take On Second Panther Enemy

ACKLED again by Panthers, this time from Arkansas College, the Lynx Cats will attempt redemption Saturday afternoon on Fargason Field. The Cats simply can't tolerate Panthers, judging from the clawing given by Birmingham-Southern. Added to this dislike, will be the desire to wipe out the stigma suffered last week and the wish to show themselves worthy opponents for Vandy and "Ole Miss."

Coach Jess Neely, assisted by Gink Hendricks and Pos Elam, is working the squad hard this week, being dissatisfied with their performance against Henderson-Brown. Stress is being laid on the art of blocking and tackling, besides the formation of impregnable interference.

Data come to hand reveals a defeat for the Arkansans by the Hendrix Bull Dogs, score 34-6, and a victory over Monticello A. and M., score 7-0. Figures in football mean less than nothing. The team that has the fight wins. Arkansas College will not be easy pickings for the Cats. The game is sure to develop into a hard tussle.

The probable lineup is: Southwestern—Waring or Lloyd and Joe Davis (C.) ends; Clemens and Baumgarten, tackles; Liddon or Pickering and Dulin, guards; Sid Davis, center; Farnsworth, fullback; Coleman or Stokes and Ruffin or Gillespie, halfbacks; Hawke or Adams, quarterback. Arkansas College—Mosley and Moore, ends; Hunter and Gray, tackles; Stokes and Glasgow, guards; Brown, center; McCain (C.), fullback; Manning and Sharp, halfbacks; Kennedy, quarterback.

STEWART LEADS SUNDAY SERVICE

Charles F. Stewart, Southwestern senior divine, will preach Sunday night at Eastland Presbyterian Church. Stewart is president of the college Y. M. C. A. He preaches at Eastland church every Sunday night.

James Randle, ministerial candidate will preach on "The Death of the Church," Sunday morning at Heth, Ark. He will talk at U. S. Veterans' Hospital at 5 p. m.

FROSH ABDUCT AND BUMP "DAD"

'Alas, Alas, and Pooh-Pooh!' Moans Victim

"Ap" was joyfully gazing into the mirror. What he was gazing at he would not say. But he states that he was parting the rope that adorns his cranium.

Well, as the chronicle goes, "Ap" was still gazing in the mirror. All was quiet. "Chi" Waring emitted not one lone snore from the bed nearby. Again, all was quiet.

With stealthy tread Frosh Ruffin, Hall, Simmons, Snapp, Bell, stole upon the senior admiring his picture in the looking-glass. They pounced upon him and whacked his ears down. Scuffling was futile, so they took him by the scruff of the neck and by his dangling legs, down through Robb Hall, across the campus to the fire-plug on North Parkway in front of Palmer Hall.

"One, two, three—heave!" they sang in unity. And they heaved the hapless "Ap" onto the cold, cruel ground. That was mean business to do to a poor man like "Ap." It is alleged that Prof.

Cooper trailed their spoor and watched the proceedings from behind the trunk of a tree nearby.

Alas, alas, and pooh-pooh!! There was another victim. 'Twas another poor man that fell victim to the spoliating Frosh. Little Jimmy Daniel Causey had just been subjected to the same harsh treatment at the brutes' hands. Alas, alas, and pooh-pooh!!

All this happened last Thursday afternoon. That night there was a splendid warming party in "Ap's" room. Judging from the rapidity and sincerity of the tonal effects emanating from the deep recesses of "Ap's" rendezvous, Robb Hall inmates calculated as how "Ap" was having a warm time with his attackers.

Thus a beautiful picture prompted the first Frosh outbreak of the year. But "Ap," although the victim, is also the hero. He has set such a precedent that San Hedrin members deem it unnecessary to take measures on the outlaws.

STUDENTS TABOO R. O. T. C. SYSTEM

AT FORUM MEET

Quibblers Forum Rule With Negative in Debate On R. O. T. C. Question

Southwestern is an institution that does not desire the R. O. T. C. system.

This was the decision of the 35 student judges at Quibblers Forum last Friday as an outcome of a debate on the question, "Resolved: That R. O. T. C. should replace gymnasium at Southwestern."

"Student military service in this system leads to war, and that is the damnation of the social order of today," said Mansard Bullock, upholding the negative side. His colleague was Bruce Draper. H. R. Thompson and Freshman Stokes upheld the affirmative. The negative side triumphed.

Quibblers Forum has divided into two groups. One group will uphold the affirmative while the other will uphold the negative side of questions which will be disputed in regular meetings. The side winning the first three of five debates will be the guests of the losing team.

A debate will be held Friday night on the question, "Resolved: That students making an average of 90 in their term grades should be exempted by the faculty from examinations." Perry and Hall will uphold the affirmative side. Bacon and Moore Moore will speak from the negative view.

Sam Rhem will give a scintillating talk on "Lucid Intervals."

Meetings are held every Friday at 7:15 p. m. Adjournment is at 8.

William Orr was chosen by club members as chairman of the program committee. F. M. Perry was appointed reporter.

BOB CATS TAKE ON LOCAL HIGH

Frosh Team Plays First Football Game

Southwestern Bob Cats will play their first game of the season Thursday on Fargason Field. Memphis University School will furnish the opposition.

The game will be only 30 minutes long and will probably rate as a practice game. Nevertheless, it shows the spirit of the class of 1930.

This team has been organized a short while, and although no All-American men have been discovered within its ranks, it is a start towards future supremacy for Southwestern in the gridiron sport.

Coach Pos Elam seems well satisfied with the showing the team has made in practice.

A definite schedule has not been arranged, owing to the late start of the organization. Any and all challenges will be eagerly accepted.

A definite line-up for Thursday's game has not been decided upon. There are about 20 on the squad. Coach Elam will probably use as many men as possible in order to see his possibilities in action.

INSTALL GORDON SECOND CHURCH

President Diehl to Preach Installation Sermon

Rev. U. S. "Preacher" Gordon, who conducted a series of Y. M. C. A. services at Southwestern last year, will be installed as associate pastor of Second Presbyterian Church Sunday night.

President Charles E. Diehl, of Southwestern, will preach the installation sermon.

The Funeral Procession Passes

Something was wrong. Everybody wondered what the maud was. But things are more auspicious now. Things are looking more rosy. The pall that encompassed the campus has shown its silver lining.

The students are waking up. Last year enthusiasm ran high. Pep was rife. Everybody felt pert and spry. This year the reverse set in. The students had no snap, vigor, life. The first football game saw a gathering of weak-lunged individuals on the east side of Fargason Field. Every once in a while they would emit a yell that sounded like two freshmen arguing. The second game was different. The old pep was there. Everybody loosened up. They yelled so vociferously the trees bowed down on the far side of the campus. Last Friday's game was a fizzle from the standpoint of student support. The lunging was weak and ineffectual. Mouths were as tight as et cetera. No life, no effusiveness, no spirit.

But we are snapping out of the depression. Last Saturday night at East End Dancing Gardens, Southwesternites turned out in large numbers in respect to "Southwestern Night" there. This night was recently set aside, and due notice was given by the Sou'wester in last week's paper under the caption, "Grant Get Off My Foot Night." While this might appear far-fetched as a means of building school spirit, it brings all classes together. The freshman breaks (haw-haw) on the upper classman, and he has to like it. It draws prospective college students from the high schools. They see the pep, like it, decide to come out, and have the spirit when they get here. Everybody should back up this enterprise, for it's a paying proposition.

We are told that Saturday's game will hear so much noise and vocal cords will be used so flagrantly that the College Supply Store will have hawkers present selling cough-drops. That's the spirit we must get.

Sewanee is noted throughout the country for its spirit. Other schools are noted for their spirits, but we will be famed for our spirit when we snap out of our passivity and show the old fight that makes college life bearable.

If you feel like a funeral, don't let everybody know it, wipe off the sepulchral look and hunt up a freshman.

Keep The Freshmen Together

High Priest Sid Davis of the San Hedrin has issued a dictum to Freshmen that they should sit in a body at athletic events. At most colleges, and especially the University of Tennessee, Freshmen have their own cheer-leaders. But our student body is not large enough to justify this separate division.

As one Freshman puts it, why not have the Freshmen on the sidelines every afternoon and practice the yells. Then when game time arrives, the Freshmen can sit in the center of the grand stand. This will enable them to yell in consonance and emit a much more powerful volume than if they were separated. The remaining students can follow the Freshmen, and then we will have organized noise.

Here's a Good Tip

There was a stunning editorial in the first issue of the Sou'wester this fall which advocated for tips on our library chairs. At present the chairs are in the same noisy condition that they have always been in.

Whenever one moves a chair in the library, a strident, hollow noise rends the air. This is distracting to students trying to study.

Here's the tip: If the college authorities furnish tips for the chairs—which they should have done long months ago—the students will be more able to concentrate, thereby glowing more in their studies. It's a fair proposition.

Dribblings From The Drowsy Droll

Prof. Atkinson very adeptly caught a fly in psychology class recently. He demonstrated the psychology in outwitting a fly.

A scientist has invented flexible glass, and now hip-pocket flasks will be able to do double service as cushions.

How is a poor youngster going to say his prayers at mother's knee if she has them under a card table or against the back of a seat at a picture show?

If you would take the conceit out of a man lead him to a mirror in his night-shirt.

One of our profs says that there is nothing new under the sun. We never heard of co-eds in Jonah's time.

Marriage has become a rest period between romances.

I'm The Gink

I'm the ginkette that recognizes my own charm to the opposite sex. I know I'm the smartest looking girl on the campus and that all the boys are wild over me. I act very indifferent to them and never speak unless I just have to. I strut around the campus and my appearance would lead one to think that I owned quite a bit of said property. I love to take my stand in the cloistered hall and have the boys flock around me, as that satisfies my ego. If you don't believe I'm a knockout, just watch me some time as I take my daily stroll across the campus, and you'll learn for yourself how attractive I am.

Subtle Workings of the Freshman Mind

It has been stated that the Southwestern "Bob Cats" are 99 44-100 per cent pure. Pure what?

Frosh Farnsworth—"Why didn't that back get through center?"

Frosh Church—"Barrel" staved him off."

Frosh Farnsworth—"Hoop you choke."

Freshman Suitor—"Why does a side walk?"

Freshman Thomas—"Because the Australian crawls."

"Ah," said the editor, as a rifle ball crashed through the window, fanned his heated brow, "I knew that personal column would be a success."

The whisper flies round the campus that the populace of Sommerville had to blindfold Freshman Winfrey to get him on the train.

Visitor—"Are you a student?"

Frosh Bowen—"No, I go to college."

A senior asked Freshman Slocum where he was going, but Slocum just laughed, and laughed, because he knew where he was going.

Prof—"What did Caesar say when Brutus stabbed him?"

Freshman Hicks—"He said, 'Ouch!'"

Frosh H. B. Smith—"Why is Freshman Hagan's hair like Court Square?"

Frosh Craven—"Because it covers a block."

Soph—"Did you say that I stole your miserable dollar?"

Frosh Atkins—"Oh, no, I said that I lost a dollar, and that I might have found it, if you hadn't helped me hunt for it."

Hit 'em high, hit 'em dirty, Fight 'em, fight 'em, Class of '30.

The famous duel between Shott and Knott reads:

"Shott shot the first shot, and the shot Shot shot shot not Knott. The shot Shot shot shot not Knott, so Shott shot again, and once more the shot hot shot not Knott, but the shot Knott hot shot Shott, so Knott won notwithstanding."

Dere Bill,

Wal, Bill, they sho' is a lot goin' on up here. You better cum up so you won't miss none of it. You kno' that Dumpy Bell and Bennie Bell? (They ain't no kin either.) Wal they had a wreck jist cause Dumpy wasn't lookin' where he was goin'. What do you think of thet?

Then yistidday I saw the Bobby Jones of the faculty in his plus fours. It was a real treat I'll tell ya.

And Bill, you know that Price Patton. He sho has lost his heart, but he's found his Head. They is almost as bad as Billy Flowers and Sara Moore. They said they sho did hev a good time at that party. They had such a good time they forgot to go back for the others.

But Bill, if you don't come up for none of that excitement I kno ya'll come up when I tell you Professer Davis has had a hair cut.

LILY.

Who's Who in the Senior Class and Why

Martha Camilla Carnes

Texas is known as the Lone Star State. But Martha Camilla Carnes demonstrates the fallacy of such a title. Martha is a Texan by birth and a Texan by nature. And that very Texas nature of hers is the ruination of such a title.

Martha has more than a Lone Star beside her name. She has so many stars that it is a job to keep them straight. Here are the Greek fraternities she stars in—Chi Alpha, Chi Delta Phi, Chi Delta, Alpha Theta Phi, Theta Alpha Phi.

Passing over these Phi's and Chi's, Martha copped the Spencer Greek prizes in 1924, 1925. She won the Freshman French prize. Besides these linguistic honors, she was adjudged the best co-ed student at Southwestern during 1925.

But getting back to the Lone Star State. Martha was born at San Angelo, Texas, on Nov. 2, 1904, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Carnes. She spent her grammar school period at Snowden grammar school. Her high school education was gleaned at Central high school.

No matter whether Martha came from the Lone Star State or not, she has a peck of stars of her own. Nevertheless, she will always be remembered by her numerous Phi announcements in chapel. If it wasn't for Martha's announcing proclivities, who would know that the Phi's were an entity!

Co-Ed Activities

Chi Alphas Eat

Miss Sara Moore will entertain members of Chi Alpha sorority and their pledges with a buffet supper at her home in White Station, Saturday night.

Observe Founders Day

Alpha Delta chapter of Kappa Delta sorority will celebrate Founders Day on Saturday, Oct. 23, with a luncheon at Hotel Peabody.

Members of the alumnae chapter, the active chapter and their pledges will be present.

Chi Alpha Pledges

Due to a compositor's error in last week's issue of The Sou'wester, the list of Chi Alpha pledges was incomplete. They are Misses Frances Fisher, Marion Blalock, Sara Moore, Katherine Richey, Janey Cobb, Martha Sweeney and Mary Parker.

A. O. Pi's To See Circus

Active chapter of A. O. Pi sorority will entertain their pledges with a circus party on Thursday night, Nov. 4.

The alumnae chapter is planning a tea for the Southwestern chapter and its pledges.

Final plans for the sorority house are complete and work will start soon.

My Remington Portable does all the work

THE Remington Portable is almost human in its adaptability to your problems. Maybe you are on the track team—possibly you are out for crew—and you need all the spare time you can get. That's where the Remington Portable shines. It speeds up your work and gives you more time for other activities.

It is the handiest, fastest, most dependable and simplest to operate of all portables. It weighs only 8½ pounds, net, and since the carrying case is only 4 inches high, you can put it away in a drawer when not needed.

Smallest, lightest, and most compact of standard keyboard portables, is it any wonder it is the recognized leader in sales and popularity?

COLLEGE DEAN TO WISCONSIN

To Attend Funeral of Brother at Fond-du-Lac

Dean E. D. McDougall, of Southwestern, received word by wire Monday morning of the death of his brother, Dr. Gilbert T. McDougall, at Fond-du-Lac, Wis. He was 52 years old.

Death came at 6 a.m. following a stroke of paralysis.

Shortly after receiving the sad news, Dean McDougall left the campus for Fond-du-lac to attend the funeral, which was held Wednesday. The deceased was given a Masonic burial.

Dean McDougall is expected to return to the campus Friday morning.

College faculty and students extend their sympathy to the dean and his family in their sorrow.

Agnes, I Love Thee!

I stood upon the ocean's briny shore;
And, with a fragile reed, I wrote
Upon the sand—"Agnes, I love thee!"
The mad waves rolled by, and blotted out

The fair impression.
Frail reed! Cruel Wave! Treacherous sand!

I'll trust ye no more;
But, with giant hand, I'll pluck
From Norway's frozen shore
Her tallest pine, and dip its top
Into the crater of Vesuvius.
And upon the high and burnished heavens

I'll write, "Agnes, I love thee!"—
And I would like to see any
Dog-goned wave wash that out!

First Bum—"Say, Pard, 'ow 'ja hurt yer 'and?"

Second Bum—"I went into a cigar store to get a cigar and some clumsy goof stepped on it."

Grid Highlights

RICHARD "Dick" Coleman entered the game last Friday in the last quarter in time to show several bursts of speed. He tore off 9 yards on his first sortie around end, more than any other Lynx gained on such a play during the day. He almost overtook Sherman, who recovered a blocked punt and went for a touchdown.

Ken Clemens, another who entered late, played well. Few gains were made over his tackle position. Once or twice he stopped the furious Fisher in his tracks.

Harold Gillespie took the ball for the longest single gain of the day for the Lynx, when he took the opening kick-off and returned it 45 yards before he was downed.

Joe Pickering and Flint Liddon, finishing the game at guard, showed the Arkansans some push. It was Pickering's first chance and he was determined to display his material.

It took two or three men constantly on Joe Davis to keep him out of the way, but even then he eluded his harassers and got as many tackles as anyone, barring the mighty Fisher.

Running with a little less sureness than in the Birmingham-Southern game, Dode Farnsworth was the only consistent gainer for the Lynx. All of his cunning and twisting ability availed him little when in the reach of a victory-mad Reddie.

Frances Henry's popularity is growing to such enormous proportions that one has but to sit behind her at a football game to find out for certain. Her many love affairs keep her so busy nodding that she doesn't have time left to view the game.

OLE MISS AND VANDY TROUNCE STRONG TEAMS

Dopester Calculates Doctors Have Strong Team—Drub Corporals

MAKING calculations is one tricky business. Ye dopester has already received one powerful upset, but he protects himself with that banality "barring over-confidence."

Developments of the past week bear out the strength of Vanderbilt and "Ole Miss," each coming through with a victory over a hard team. The Doctors showed themselves to be considerably better than the Bethel Corporals by their 31-to-6 win. West Tennessee Teachers continued as a weak sister, losing to Lambuth. Earlier in the season Arkansas College, our foes of this week, lost to Hendrix 34-6. Here's the dope. Figure it out for yourselves.

Employment

Editor's Note—Prof. W. R. Cooper, member of the faculty in charge of student employment, announces that he would appreciate if all students will report to him of openings suitable for college students.

Openings are available for four or five student boys during the afternoons, who can earn from $3 to $5. If interested see Luther Southworth, editor Sou'wester.

ANNOUNCE FALL LECTURE TOPICS

Would you fly to the North Pole in the Norge with Amundsen and Ellsworth? You can. Would you have Frederick Warde carry you on the wings of words into the bottomless beauty of Shakespeare-land? He will. Or, mayhap, you'd rather Judge Ben Lindsey in his wholesome way would tell you of his experiences as juvenile court judge at Denver?

It is to be the twentieth and greatest year of the Goodwyn Institute Free Lectures. The Goodwyn Lectures are among the brightest spots in the winter's activities. Follows the October program:

1. Thursday, Oct. 14, Strickland Gillilan, humorist, "Sunshine and Awkwardness." Friday, Oct. 15, "Among Us Dumbbells."
2. Oct. 19 (Tuesday), Royal Dixon, naturalist, "The Human Side of Plant Life." Oct. 20, Wednesday, "The Human Side of Insects."
3. October 20 (Friday), Richard Halliburton, traveler, "The Glorious Adventure" (illustrated).
4. October 26 (Tuesday) B. R. Baumgardt, traveler and scientist, "Joan of Arc." Oct. 27 (Wednesday), "An Evening With the Stars." Oct. 28 (Thursday), "The Poetry of Science and Religion."
5. Oct 30 (Saturday), Hon. T. H. Caraway, "Is There An Irreconcilable Conflict Between The City and The Farm?"

(The new free Year Book of the Institute is soon to be off the press. Copies may be obtained at Goodwyn Library on the 7th floor of Goodwyn building, corner Third and Madison.)

Kampus Kats

The Sou'wester sleuth will keep this column filled each week with choice bits of "information" appertaining to our student body. No one knows who he sleuthhound is, for a new one is chosen each week. Don't try to find the author, because only ye editor and ye sleuthhound know the code. Studes, watch your characters. If you find out any dirt from these columns, rejoice, or others might do the same?

An opportunity for high standing Southwestern sheiks! The A. O. P.'s have instructed their freshmen just whom to go with and whom not to. So, if one of them speaks to you, you may rest easy. Avoid the black list!

One would think Lucy Farrow was going out for pugilism, judging from the way she has to protect her property from these males. Dode, aren't you ashamed?

It is rumored that a certain fraternity at Southwestern is urging one of its members to regain possession of his pin. It's a shame, for the jewelry matches so well with the sorority pin.

Alas! Some people rise to fame just once and then are lost, never to be heard of more. Such is the sad fate of the president of last year's freshman class.

Notice! Sam Rhem sneezed Monday at 10 o'clock and the Sou'wester failed to have it headlined. What a grave error!

These Chi Omega sisters have always had the reputation of vamping each other's sheiks. Go slow, Mary.

If anyone gets mad at what is printed in this column, just remember that the truth hurts.

Everyone is watching with interest how Maretta Graham consoles both Ed Buder and Vern Baumgarten. However, she does not wear that Georgia Tech sweater anymore along with Ed's Kappa Sig pin.

Budgy Haltom is on a spree again. Two girls were expelled from Arkansas because, it is alleged, that they fell for his Cadillac. Since, it is noted that his car has a nocturnal parking space at the end of University Place.

Who is the sportive villain that persists in looking into a certain window at the dormitory?

Those who ride the streetcars are said to have found more classical ponies than the prof.

For an ideal preacher we recommend Dick Taylor for his very evident affection and gentle language. It is a Matty question.

Have you noticed that Profs. Monk and Davis fall for blondes.

SECRET ORDER BEING BANDED

Appleton and Blair Organize Owls Club

Owls Club, mystic chapter, is being organized.

Tom "Ap" Appleton, member Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, and Clyde Blair, member Beta Sigma, are the instigators and organizers.

Each fraternity will have three representatives in the club. The non-frat element of Southwestern will have three members.

Pan-Hellenic Meets

Pan-Hellenic Council met Friday to palaver over dates for the "Pan" dances.

As the Sou'wester goes to press before the meeting, nothing definite can be given.

Sid Latiolais, president, states that the first hop will be given around Thanksgiving.

HALLIBURTON WILL LECTURE

Southwestern Guest At Auditorium Friday

Southwestern's faculty and student body will be guests of the West Tennessee Teachers Association Friday night at the Municipal Auditorium.

Richard Halliburton, world traveler, will lecture on his globe trappings. Prof. John H. Davis, of Southwestern, has been a fellow traveler with Halliburton. They were at the Rock of Gibraltar together.

Prof. Davis will be chairman of the Southwestern delegation to hear Halliburton.

ARKANSAS REDDIES LEAVE CATS WITH BIG GOOSE EGG

Henderson-Brown Drubs Southwestern By Score 13-0. Lynx Unable To Penetrate Foe's Line.

LAME it on psychology or what not, but the Lynx Cats dirtied their clean grid slate last Friday when they went down to defeat, score 13-0, to Henderson-Brown, of Arkansas. Psychology savants say the Cats were handicapped by a superiority complex and, consequently, had to take a bitter dose to cure them. Nevertheless the Cougars are now sitting on a goose egg.

Henderson-Brown Reddies opened with two drag-down backfield men, and an impervious line. During the first ten minutes of play the Reddies marched down the field for a well-earned touchdown, due to the spectacular plunging of Captain Parker and "Tarzan" Fisher. "Tarzan" easily wins the crown of the most dangerous invading player that has visited Fargason Field so far this season.

This first touchdown took the edge off the complex, but those Reddies were not to be downed. True the Cats held them scoreless throughout the second and third quarters, but the Reddies also held the Cats scoreless. The final scoring came in the fourth chapter by the Reddies. As Dode attempted to punt, Sherman, tackle, broke through Southwestern's line, blocked the ball, scooped it up and ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

Southwestern's defense never developed. Farnsworth was the only consistent gainer for the Cats. The aerial attack was nix, interference and blocking were poor and weak. Dulin's characteristic chatter was the one enlivening factor of the game.

Summary of the game:

| Southwestern (0) | Henderson-Brown (13) |
|------------------|----------------------|
| Lloyd | L. E. Hagerman |
| King | L. T. John Adams |
| Smith | L. G. Berry |
| Sid Davis | C. Newton |
| Dulin | R. G. Lively |
| Baumgarten | R. T. Sherman |
| Joe Davis (C.) | R. E. Cornish |
| Wes Adams | Q. B. Hill |
| Gillespie | L. H. B. Fissell |
| Trelawney | R. H. B. Fisher |
| Ruffin | F. B. Parker (C.) |

| Score by Periods— | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0-0 |
|-------------------|---|---|---|------|
| Southwestern | 0 | 0 | 0 | 0-0 |
| Henderson-Brown | 0 | 0 | 0 | 7-13 |

Scoring: Touchdowns—Fisher, Sherman. Points after touchdown—Hill (placement).

PROF. STRICKLER TO CELEBRATION

Represents Southwestern At Johns Hopkins

Prof. R. P. Strickler, instructor of ancient languages at Southwestern, left the campus Tuesday night for the Semi-Centennial Celebration at Johns Hopkins University, where he will represent Southwestern.

The celebration will be held on Oct. 22-23.

President Charles E. Diehl, of Southwestern, is one of the oldest alumni of Johns Hopkins. Duties prevented the president from attending the celebration at his alma mater.

Gov. Albert Ritchie, of Maryland, and a fellow classmate of President Diehl's, extended an invitation to the president.

Prof. Strickler will return to Southwestern's campus next Monday night.

"Lightnin'" will strike Memphis. The center of storm disturbance will be Pantages theater. It will not be serious, on the contrary it will be highly entertaining because "Lightnin'" will hit here as one of the season's most promising photoplays.

Jay Hunt is said to equal Bacon in his delineation of the lovable character of "Lightnin'" Bill Jones and then there is Beautiful Madge Bellamy as "Millie," Ethel Clayton the snappy divorcee prospect; J. Farrel McDonald the soft hearted judge; Otis Harlan "Hootch" imbibler; Wallace McDonald, the lover. James Marcus, Brandon Hurst, Richard Travers.

Laveen and Cross, the chaps who set a pace in pantomime in England, will present their international success. The act is called Julius and Brutus and is described as Roman Sports and Pastimes as they were NOT in the days of the Mighty Caesars.

El Cota, the incomparable, with the snappy and dashing dancer Beatrice Byrne; Van Horn and Inez, world's champion skaters, will open the bill and there will be three other acts and Fox news, comedies and special features on the screen.

TENNIS TEAMS OPEN TOURNERY

Spring Warming-Up Now in Session

Powers that be declare the reason for the present racquet bee is a sort of warming up process for "Ole Miss" next spring; others maintain that a few disappointed ones of the last tournament are out to try again, while still another wise one avers that the association has a stock of 1926 balls that must be used up.

Whatever the reason, racquet wielders to the number of 32 are exercising themselves in tournament play. First round is to be completed this week.

Billy Hughes, springtime singles champion, is defending his title. The winning doubles team of the spring games is not intact, due to the graduation of Joe Rennie, who was paired with Tom Appleton in the spring. "Ap" was runner-up to Billy in the same tournament. In the present matches Billy and "Ap" are teamed together.

STUDES GASP AT CATALINK

Joke Publication Makes Fall Debut

"Methinks," quoth the Catalink, "that there are yet more characters to divulge." Consequently, the Catalink, Southwestern humor publication, will appear every month, in face of the wealth of material on the campus.

The first issue of the Catalink this fall arrived last Saturday. It presented such a favorable front that Sam Rhem, editor, and James Gladney, business manager, announce it will be published each month.

Rumors affirm that the Catalink will be a regular "hotzky humor" magazine. Rival jokes from other colleges are leaning Catalink humor for their humor.

Police Sergeant: "I think we've found your missing wife."

Mr. Jones: "Have you? What does she say?"

P. S.: "Nothing at all."

Mr. J.: "That's not my wife."
