FRESHMEN SPAR WITH VETERANS IN FORUM MEET

Thomas Frist and Warner Beard Make Debut in College Debate Circle

Southwestern platform orators from among the male ranks will hold sway tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Hardie chapel when a debate will be held between members of Quibblers Forum debating society on the question, Resolved, that Christianity has been more of a blessing than a curse for Civilization.

Frank Heiss and Thomas Frist will dispute from the affirmative side, while Blaine Bowers and Warner Beard will voice their conclusions from the negative corner.

FROSH MAKE DEBUT

Heiss and Bowers are both veteran debaters at Southwestern. Young Frist and Beard, both freshmen, will enjoy their initial appearance in the role of college debaters.

Members of Quibblers' present will act as judges.

Dr. A. P. Kelso, debating coach, will give the third of a series of lectures at the meeting tonight on, "The Fundamentals of Debating." His talk will precede the debate.

ARGUE ON DEBATE

Following the debate, which will be mainly a working basis for discussion of the principles as outlined by Dr. Kelso, will form the thesis of club argument over the strategic points in debating, including delivery of talks, swaying of the audience, proper quiver to the voice, and clinching of arguments.

Overtures being made with other colleges for debate schedules have not materialized during the past week in definite dates being set apart. However, with Vanderbilt, Hendrix and Westminster in line for dates, and Arkansas A. & M., University of Arkansas, Ole Miss and Birmingham-Southern already scheduled, a full season is in the offing, and members are prepping to keep the victories on the Southwestern credit side.

NEWS BITS OF COLLEGE LIFE

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS, FORT WORTH, TEXAS.—Students of the University of Texas were all excited and perturbed when they learned that the honor council was to post the names of all students found guilty of cheating.

MT. UNION COLLEGE, ALLIANCE, OHIO.—Students at Mt. Union college have been on their good behavior for the last year. The reason for this is that the editor of the daily newspaper has threatened to disclose all misconduct by students.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI, OXFORD, MISS.—Age old tradition has been smashed at the University of Mississippi when a girl was recently elected president of the senior class.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN, MADISON, WIS.—The university has formed a new experimental college.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN, MADISON, WIS.—What price, education? It was found that the tuition in the various colleges run from $4.00 to $600. The University of Wisconsin is lowest, having an average tuition of $4.00.

NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY, CHICAGO, ILL.—Students of this school must stop sending notes home in their wash, is the latest ruling of the postmaster-general of Chicago.

SOUTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY, GEORGETOWN, TEX.—Twelve girl students of this school are doing their own washing and cooking, so that they may save money, while attending Southwestern University.

MISSISSIPPI A. & M., STARKVILLE, MISS.—Following the repeal of the anti-fraternity law last spring, frats have begun to make plans for establishing chapters on the campus. Pi Kappa Alpha has the honor of being the first fraternity to form a chapter here.

GROWTH

Woodpile Blooms Afresh After Old Is Burned

Firebands in the hands of unknown persons set fire to a gasoline soaked woodpile on the campus last Thursday midnight, resulting in the 38-foot stack being speedily burned to the ground.

On the ashes of the former stack freshmen and upperclassmen are working overtime in preparation for the Ole Miss game Saturday week.

The new pile will be stacked into a composite heap on Thursday, Oct. 20, and lighted the next night. Freshmen guard relays will mount the highest box the night after stacking starts and will keep a furtive eye peeled for incendiaries.

Arthur Dulin will lead his gridmen in speeches at the pep meeting on Oct. 21, followed by cheers and songs. The pile will be lit by electricity immediately afterward.

WAND OF MERIT FALLS ON FOUR

Four Seniors Chosen to O.D.K. Fraternity

The magical wand of distinction fell on four Southwestern men in chapel Wednesday morning. The magic wand denoted the new members of Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity.

President Charles E. Diehl introduced to the student body, Chester Frist and William Orr, the only returning O.D.K.'s from last year. The exercises were then turned over to Frist and Orr. Both pointed out with the wand the new members that were elected at a recent meeting of the fraternity.

The stick fell on the following: Sidney Latioalais, Ora Johnson, Frank Heiss and Arthur Dulin.

This distinction comes only to juniors and seniors who have been leaders in the school.

Dismal Coach Drew Gets Fond Memento From Student Body

Chester Frist, bland student body proxy, remembered Coach Drew, of Birmingham-Southern, the man who gushed forth propaganda three weeks prior to the recent grid tilt with the Lynx, by sending him a burnt straw hat which went through the bonfire ordeal last Saturday night at Court Square.

Neatly packed in a fedora box, reinforced with a heavy cardboard box, Frist, with an affable smile, spent 15 good cents in postage, that being necessary to honor the coach.

The hat, with the edges singed and its crown eaten thru, was painted with the letters, "To Coach Drew, compliments Southwestern student body—the school with spirit." An explanatory note sent with it made sure that the coach read the note before donning the hat.

NITISTS ARGUE FREE THOUGHT AND RELIGION

Student and Faculty to Settle Philosophical Question Tuesday

"Free Thought vs. Religion" will be the subject at the next meeting of the Nitist club, due to the propensities of Chester Denham to get philosophical. This subject is one of mighty interest to the campus intellectuals who have the responsibility of settling once and for all fundamental questions of the day.

This discussion follows quick on the heels of another herculean search for truth that was ushered in with the customary verbiage and wisdom of Allan Madden, of whether or not civilization has succeeded in justifying its own existence.

Members of the Nitist club and the invited visitors are promised an exceedingly interesting time Tuesday night when the skeptics of the club will have an opportunity to meet in open battle against the onslaughts of the orthodox.

Denham, as yet, refrains from divulging his own position, saying that those who are interested may find out Tuesday night, October 18.

WRONG IMPRESSION

A slight correction of a statement made in the last issue of the Sou'wester is in order. It was intimated that those that fail to get elected to membership will not be asked to come again. The facts of the matter are that the club is not a secret, ritualistic order in which only the initiate are allowed to come to the meetings, but visitors if invited by individual members of the club are welcome at any time. Membership, however, is limited to 20, including students and faculty members.

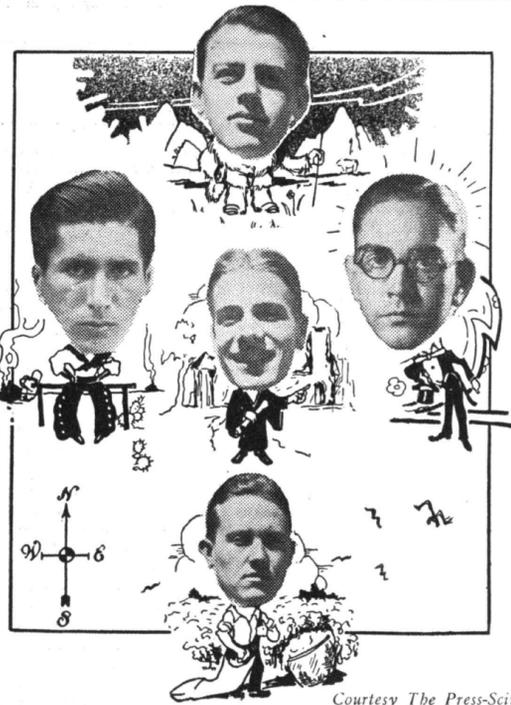

STYLUS INITIATE FOUR ON OCT. 25

Pledges are McGivaren, Dubard, Farrar, Wailes

Four new members selected from those who tried out in the Stylus club membership drive last year, will be initiated into the literary society on Oct. 25. They are Crawford McGivaren, Leroy Dubard, James Farrar, and Leolin "Mike" Wailes.

Special emphasis will be given original work this year, according to members who held the first meeting of the year last Tuesday night.

From Everywhere To Southwestern

Courtesy The Press-Scimitar.

All sections of the country this year are represented at Southwestern, even the campus of the school itself. The representative from the latter district is Charles Ireys Diehl, son of President C. H. Diehl, of Southwestern. Charles is shown in the center picture.

Wilson Foote (top), the young man surrounded by ice, hails from Chicago. He is a sophomore.

Will Martin (bottom), a freshman, comes from New Orleans, La. The young man on the left is John Culbertson, of Durant, Okla.

The student body also includes numerous students from Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky and Missouri, besides many from Arkansas and Tennessee.

Model New Plate After Old Plate Swiped By Frosh

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(IP)—Some 90 years ago a member of the class of 1841, at Harvard, stole a pie from the college dining hall. Freshman like, he took the plate as well.

The plate reposed on his table for the remainder of his college career, and then went home with him.

This last spring, nearly a century later the descendants of the pie-thief presented the plate to President Lowell, of Harvard, who was so struck with the design thereon that he has had a new Harvard Plate patterned after it, to be the official dinner plates of the university and its president.

Oldest Frat Pin Is Plowed Up On Ancient Terrain

THORNBURY, Pa.—(IP)—The oldest fraternity pin in America, presented by William and Mary's College of Virginia in 1776, is the possession of Joseph Brinton, of this city.

The pin was plowed up on the Brinton estate near Brandywine Creek, Chester County, Pa., the battlefield on which General Washington out-manoeuvred General Howe, and where the Marquis de La Fayette was severely wounded.

The pin is of the old watchkey shape, familiar to college men as the insignia of Phi Beta Kappa. On one side it bears the name of "John Graham".

SOBS OF DESPAIR REND NIGHT AIR; FROSH BURN STRAW HEAD WEAR

Lads In Pajamas Wend Doleful Way Thru Business Concourses In Annual Feat

Tear-loaded orbs gazed at the smouldering ruins of straw chapeaus in Court Square last Saturday night. Southwestern freshmen heaved a heavy sigh as they prodded thru the charred remains to catch a fainting glimpse of their once proud head ornaments.

To the droning notes of the Requiem, local neophytes paced dolefully about the blazing fire, with the odor of corn fields permeating the air with that home-like odor.

But the saddest came last in the annual ceremonies of burning the hats after the second grid victory, therefore it comes first in this story because it is the saddest.

High Priest Dumpy Beall, and his consorts, scanned the freshman roll and found none absent save those excused because of broken backs or other minor ailments.

Assembling in Court Square at 7:30 o'clock, mulling about to let town folks see the freshmen's pajamas, the doughty lads headed boldly up Main street to Hotel Claridge. While singing was at its height, Steve, the French chef, appeared with meat cleaver in hand to rout the roisterers, but was met with an enfolding barrage of boos, hoots, and more boos. He retreated to his proper confines from whence he has been heard no more.

Coursing their serpentine path down the main Memphis concourse the lads in the garb of night went then to Hotel Gayoso. Here again they were denied lodging by the management because they did not ask for it. They roused the inmates with their lustrous yelpings, as the San Hedrin applied "it" to the slothful users of lungs.

Trailing dismally down Main street to Hotel Chisca the freshmen hid their embarrassment under their echoes of night and walked boldly in. A traveling salesman near the door, a man versed in the ways of life, struck up a doggerel verse about "The Boys Have Come to Town," and then a sister tale about "It Will be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight". He must have known what was up, or what was falling frequently. Perhaps he knew of the passing of the straws.

With Chesterfieldian courtesy the Chisca management proffered a gangling freshman a new hat if he would lead his henchmen in pain out into the cool refreshment of distant space. The freshman accepted but was quickly relieved of his donation. He was given another donation by the San Hedrin.

During the interim between the rushing of Hotel Claridge and Hotel Chisca, word had been passed to the operators of Hotel Peabody that the mob scene from somewhere was headed in their direction. Showing business ability, the Peabody men had cases of soda water handy for the revelers as they tropped into the lobby. "The other hotels have done you wrong," they opined, "hence we will get your trade," they thought.

Perhaps they thought that the boys had tried to get lodging at the other hotels, but had toddled on to them because of price differences. Every porter in the hotel was handy to grab their baggage but all they grabbed was an occasional pajama leg as they welcomed the boys out.

Scudding back to their emanating point, the collegians lit the fire of victory and tossed their weed property into its roaring maw.

Chester Frist, arising to the occasion, grabbed one of the straws that had already suffered the charred effects of licking flames, and with malice aforethought, deftly wrapped it and sent it to Coach Drew, of Birmingham-Southern, with the regards of the student body.

WORK STARTS AS COMPLETE UNIT ASSUMES DUTIES

Bacon, Hall and Bowen Are Chosen by Classes For Board

Elections to student positions on the new Publication Board have been completed and concentrated effort is being made to build the first Journal issue of the year.

Chester Denham, chosen recently as representative-at-large from the student body, is president of the board. Carrington Bacon has been selected as senior representative, Warner Hall as delegate from the junior class and Claude Bowen from the sophomores. Prof. W. R. Cooper and Prof. A. T. Johnson are faculty representatives, with D. W. Gordon, Southwestern bursar, officiating as treasurer.

START JOURNAL

One of the first moves of the new board will be organizing the Journal. As yet no staff has been elected, but formation of an editorial and business department is expected soon. No action has been taken by the board up to present, but it will soon have complete charge of the three student publications.

While presiding as a controlling force over the publications, it is not the intention of board members to directly supervise the different editorial policies. Members will concentrate their efforts toward putting all three on a paying basis.

PROTECT AGAINST LOSSES

There has accumulated a large debt from past issues of the Catalink (now defunct), and the Lynx. Student donations of $1 each tided the Journal over last year. The Sou'wester has been a paying proposition during the two years it has been published in Memphis.

SET TIME LIMIT IN PHOTOGRAPHS

Freshmen Pictures Must Be in by Oct. 22

Deadline for taking of freshmen pictures for the 1928 Lynx annual has been set for dusk, evening of Oct. 22, after which it will be too late for dilatory freshmen to have themselves in this year's annual.

Upperclassmen must have their photos made by Oct. 29, states Editor Frank Heiss.

Those having pictures made can do so at Cassaday's studio, any afternoon until the time limit is up.

"All class panels must go to the engraver within the next month," says Heiss. This will be necessary if students are to get their annuals by May 1, which is the time set by the staff for distribution of the books.

A.T.O.'s Pledge Two And Initiate King

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity announces the pledging of Percy Brown and Flint Liddon. Brown was pinned on October 6 and Liddon on October 10.

Lorin King was given final initiation last Wednesday night by the active A. T. O. chapter. He was pledged last spring.

Brown and Liddon will be eligible by Pan-Hellenic rulings for initiation if they make an average of "C" on their first report period.

TOSSES HAT IN RING CONCORD, N. H.—(IP)—Helen "Gwen" Jones, twenty-four-year-old co-ed at the University of New Hampshire has launched her campaign for mayor of Concord. She will run against three Democrats, all men. She has announced her slogans as:

"Not pre-election promises, post-election action", and "Concord, the finest city in which to live, and a square deal for every inhabitant".

GOT THE RIGHT IDEA

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—(IP)—Compulsory chapel has been abolished at the University of Rochester by action of the board of trustees of that institution. In place of the required chapel services, there will be held two weekly meetings of the students, both voluntary. One will be of a religious purpose, and the other for the transacting of student government business.

GIRLS MEET ENGLISH

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio.—(IP)—Something new in international intercollegiate debates will be inaugurated here on December 1, when the co-ed debating team of Wittenberg college will meet an English men's debate squad made up of a Welchman, a Scotchman and an Englishman.

"Resolved, that co-education is a failure," will be the argument that the foreigners will support, while the co-eds will defend their own side of the question.

IT COULD BE WORSE

OAKLAND, California.—(IP)—Peggy Bennett, 19, pretty co-ed at the University of California, will have to ride a train to the Stanford-California game on Nov. 19, unless she can prevail upon some obliging male football fan to give her a lift.

Peggy was late to class the other day so she speeded her automobile 33 miles an hour through the campus. The judge impounded her car until Nov. 25.

"Please, Judge, make it Nov. 19, because I need the car to go to the Stanford game then," pleaded Peggy.

"Well, it's just too bad, but Nov. 25 stands," said the Judge.

FIREBUGS ARE ACTIVE

FOOCHOW, China.—(IP)—Fire bugs are being blamed for the burning here of the boy's dormitory at Foochow college. The fire followed an extended campaign on the part of enemies of the school to have it closed. Teachers in the school reported that they had been threatened with bodily harm if they did not resign.

Why Has The Council Been Forgotten?

Southwestern students do not have a government of their own and will not have one for several years, if present criteria hold true.

But that does not mean that there is not a need for one. While the majority of students do not know the benefits to be derived by an organized front, the minority who are conversant with the workings of similar government in other schools, are heartily in favor of one.

At present we have a student president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer, but theirs is a title and not an office. The students are said in the catalog to be organized in a "Boosters Club," but what does that mean? On the surface it means student power, but in reality it is just a title.

We have particular reference at present to the Student Council. We grant that there is not the proper cooperation between town and dormitory students to justify the administration recognizing the students as a unit unto themselves. Yet there is the need of some organization, composed of student leaders, to be vested with power to legislate as they think wisely to the best interests of the students.

Such an organization functioned last year. It was termed the Student Council. Members were the four class presidents, high priest and priestess of the two San Hedrins, editors and business managers of the Sou'wester and Lynx, presidents of the two Pan-Hellenics, student body officers, and representative-at-large. Each member of the council was in particular touch with some phase of Southwestern life, resulting in a sage appraisal of each question brought up. Much was accomplished by the council. It need not be mentioned that the council provided the benches, subsidized needy organizations, and promoted events of interest to the entire student body.

Thru this means the best good was accomplished in the easiest and quickest manner. But the council has seemed to lapse this year. No mention has been made of banding together the students who would comprise it.

Although the council does not have authoritative sanction, yet that approval cannot be obtained if the students do not attempt to secure it. We can see no reason why the administration would object to the council. It does not run counter to the policy of the school. It would serve a purpose; it is needed, therefore, it should be sponsored by the entire student body.

Brevities In The News

The Birmingham-Southern water boy greatly amused Pat Johnson and Nolan Pierce last Saturday. He rushed up to both and asked for a menu card, said he must have string-beans for dinner. He was told there was no such animal as a menu card at Southwestern. He worried much, and after a perplexing moment of deep cogitation, caught a Faxon car and went to town to get some string-beans. He arrived back on the campus in time to participate in the game.

We wonder where the new Publication Board is going to get the money to pay off the large Catalink debt that has accumulated over past issues. While the humor magazine will not be published this year, echoes from the past come around the first of every month in the form of duns. They might be humor to some, but they are the product and sin of humor to the board.

Some say that Ole Miss' light infantry set fire to the wood pile last Thursday midnight. But that is highly improbable. It is too petty to be charged against college men.

A recent disclosure reveals the fact that some grammar school lads were chased off of Fargason Field the afternoon preceding the conflagration because they took up too much space running after their pigskins.

If it was too petty a trick for Ole Miss to play, then blame it on the grammar school kids—they don't know what petty means.

ECHOES FROM THE MORGUE

Choice News Excerpts of Past Years As Revealed By Sou'wester Files

OCTOBER 14, 1925.

Prof. A. P. Kelso made his initial appearance recently before the student body as one of the faculty. He made a talk on "Study and its Importance".

The Birmingham-Southern Panthers defeated the Lynx to the tune of 7 to 6. Two field goals accounted for the Lynx scores, while a touchdown and a goal kick made the Panthers' winning counter.

Southwestern gridders will tackle the Jonesboro eleven Saturday.

A dinner was given Thursday night by the Chi Omegas. Members of the sorority and their prospective pledges were present.

Kappa Deltas entertained for their prospective pledges at a dinner at the University Club. The many who attended enjoyed a pleasant evening.

A large number of students are making plans to go down to Oxford, Miss., for the Ole Miss game on November 24.

OCTOBER 14, 1926.

Southwestern's football team defeated the Birmingham-Southern aggregation in a thrilling game Saturday. When the final whistle blew the score stood 16 to 14.

Freshmen celebrated the victory of the Lynx over the Panthers by burning their big straw "katie".

Wilson Mount, Colie Stoltz, and Harold Avent were elected cheer-leaders for the coming season.

A club was organized recently for the purpose of studying drama. The club received the cognomen of Sophocleans.

Southwestern chapter of Kappa Sigma fraternity assisted in initiating 12 Ole Miss men into the new Ole Miss Chapter today.

Chi Delta, girls literary society, held its first meeting Monday evening in the girls social room.

The alumnae chapter of Kappa Delta were hosts at a box party recently.

Be true to your teeth or they will be false to you.

Pat—"Will you marry me." Louise—"Let's see, I'll hold the seventh open for you."

"Like me to hug you?" "Freddie, you're my best beau constrictor."

Jodie—"You've lost your teeth." "A"—"No, I got em in my handkerchief."

Ralph—"Would you marry me for my money?" Peggy (a noted flirt)—"No, I don't want to turn pro."

Rock-a-bye, Senior, on the tree top, As long as you study your grades will not drop,

But if you stop digging your standing will fall, And down will come senior, diploma and all.

So the absent-minded professor opened up his bed and jumped out the window.

Prof. Davis—"Are you St. Thomas Aquinas?" Ans.—"No, I'm Southworth."

Vern Baumgarten was heard to remark when Dago Trelawney dropped a pass that it was the first time he ever saw a monkey drop a cocoanut.

Billy R—"Do you like demi-tasse?" Pete M.—"I'm just crazy about them: I love to dip them in my coffee."

Wife—"Do you realize that 25 years ago today we became engaged?" Absent-minded professor—"Twenty-five years! You should have reminded me before. It's certainly time we got married."

Consider the up-to-date father who answered his daughter's requests for a bathing suit with a tin of lard.

You would not knock The jokes we use, Could you but see, Those we refuse.

Hiram—"Do you mind if I kiss you?" (No answer).

Hiram—"Would you object if I kissed you?" Meredith—"Say, do you want me to promise not to bite?"

Liz: "What do you think of Aristotle?" Kate: "I've never been out with him."

Freshette—"You brute, you broke my heart!" Frosh—"Thank heavens! I thought it was a rib."

A certain mind reader went to a college town to spend his vacation.

Say, Thaddeus, don't put yourself so thoroughly into your work. You'll surely make a mess of it.

Professor Ross—"Cannibals used to eat people 'cause they could not waste anything."

I love my girl. All the world loves a lover. She is all the world to me— Therefore, she loves me.

Rose: "How do you guess my age?" Luther: "I counted the rings around your eyes."

WHO? Who is it gives the orders, Who tallies left and right, Who walks with dignity, His nose quite out of sight— The Sophomore!

Who is it on committees, Who hurries to get thru, Who is it, well, He's the man with much to do— The Junior!

Who feels of more importance, Who demands to have a seat, Who is it that is proud, His work is most complete— The Senior.

BUT— Who is it that does this and that, Who has to wear a big straw hat, Who carries upperclassmen's books, Who does the work of seven cooks, Who carries boxes to and fro, Who puts on all the monkey show, Who gets tallied and has to smile, Who takes the blame all the while, Who gets the worst of every fight, He is—you've guessed it right, The Freshman!

"PAM."

I'm The Gink

I am the dining hall gink who loves to eat. I grasp my table tools like I would a hoe and spade. I am quite adept at stabbing meat, but my greatest delight is in tantalizing spaghetti, for I am king of the walk when it comes to starting at one end and proceeding quickly until the serpentine dough has entered the cavernous depths in which other spaghetti has vanished. I smack my lips, although I know I disturb others seated about me. When I see the last roll on the plate, you can pawn your hat if it's not me that makes that terrible lunge after it, and I get it, too. I have the funniest habit of plying my knife and fork in a manner that will slant my elbows into my neighbor's ribs. It is such fun. I gracefully poise the saucer to my lips and cool the beverage within. I know I act like a denizen of the barnyard at the table, but who cares, am I not a law unto myself?

WHO'S WHO IN SENIOR CLASS

John Chester Frist, Jr.

John Chester Frist, Jr., orator, debator, dignitary about the campus, bearer of the cognomen "Baby Love," will walk bravely up and obtain his sheepskin when they are passed out to graduating seniors next June.

Chester is one of those men who are in everything—for a very good reason. He belongs in everything. Besides being extremely big-hearted and capable of handling many affairs, he is both responsible and a great favorite.

Perhaps this might be attributed to his training at Meridian, Miss., where he was born a son to Mr. and Mrs. John Chester Frist, on October 2, 1906. It won't be but a couple of weeks now until Chester will be old enough to vote. His best friends won't tell it, but he's just 20 years old now, which makes him the youngest student body president at Southwestern in many years, if the limit has ever dropped lower.

John Chester—the John is not used because it is so uncommon and Frist wants to be different—completed both the grammar and high school courses at Meridian, both with and without honors, he says. It is supposed that the honors were in being graduated.

Then coming to Southwestern the following fall, which was in Sept. 1924, John Chester Frist, Jr., was elected president of the freshman class, as well as being chosen to the honor council, on which he has been an active worker thruout the four years. His name and voice has been heard in Sigma Upsilon, Quibblers' Forum (three years), as president of the junior class, O. D. K. chapter charter member, Theta Alpha Phi (four years), president of the student body this year, Alpha Phi Epsilon.

He was chosen college orator of Tennessee last year. When yet a stripping freshman, Chester made a good impression, a very good impression, an exceedingly good impression, on the S.A.E.'s, which resulted in his being initiated into the chapter. He has been an active Greek letter man ever since.

Scanning through his diary Chester came to the date of Feb. 4, 1927. This, he said, commemorates his introduction to Dorothy "Baby Love" Miller, for which he is still grateful, although the postman is not.

"Dutch," another alias, preaches every Sunday night at Eastland Presbyterian church, of which he is pastor. He intends entering Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Va.

Rising Generation Hopes to Awaken China

"China has been hit at the same time by all the problems that have confronted western nations during the past century," says Dr. Robert McMullen, distinguished missionary to China, in an address before the students in chapel last Tuesday morning.

"China is writhing from the stunning effects of these problems," he said, "anyone of which is an economical crisis in itself." Included in his list of difficulties are rights of women, political rehabilitation, public education, abolishment of cues and ancient dress and customs, equal distribution of power and wealth among the people.

Perhaps the most outstanding change in the new China is the attitude of the younger generation. It has been the nature of Chinese prior to the present generation to revere their parents and ancestors and to cherish their memories and customs. But now that many of the younger generation have been educated in the United States and Europe, their eyes have been opened and they have taken it upon themselves to wrest their country from its oblivion and retrogression and to place it in one of the foremost places of the day.

While the younger generation is bearing the burden of rehabilitating China, the older generation in the main is unympathetic. As a consequence, fully 70 per cent of high school and college graduates are out of employment. They are being impeded by their elders from gaining a solid foothold from which they can radiate their efforts in resurrecting their homeland.

"China is a good country. It will be only a matter of time before she will awaken. It will be a long hard struggle, but the 'sleeping giant' will someday take her place as a nation in world affairs," he concluded.

FACTIONS FUSS OVER GRID GAME

Alumni Want to Patch up old "Big Three" Break

NEW YORK—(IP)—Alumni of Harvard and Princeton, all former football stars in college days, are planning an "inter-alumni" football game between the two universities, in an effort to heal the athletic breach between the institutions. Some of the most famous players from both schools are on the tentative line-up for the game. The game will be played in Yankee Stadium here on October 30.

PRINCETON, N. J.—(IP)—Opposing the athletic department of the university here, the Daily Princetonian is ardently supporting the proposed football game between Harvard and Princeton alumni as an effort to restore amicable athletic relations between the two members of the former "Big Three." Princeton athletic heads declared they are bringing all possible power to bear to stop the game, which has been set for November 30.

"If such a game is played, it will not represent Princeton," declared Dean Henry Burchard Fine, acting chairman of the Princeton board of athletic control.

LOVE BALM

Miss Elizabeth Tonsils Gives Free Advice To Lovelorn

Dear Miss Tonsils:

I am a sophomore boy, and although I know its not fitting with my station in life, I am desperately in love with a movie star, Clara Bow. Now there are lots of other boys who are smitten with "it", but won't admit it. It seems like a hopeless case and I would prefer very much to get over it. I have already seen the picture at the Palace five times and could go back as many more.

Desperate.

Dear Desperate:

Why don't you commit suicide and put Southwestern on the map. Maybe the said Hula girl would give a big endowment to the college. You are not the first man to fall for a bow. Think of all the married men who know what your ailment means. Don't chase after seaweed, my boy. Why not fall in love with a grass-widow at home and save at show money.

Miss Tonsils.

Play Grid Contest Thought Cancelled

BATTLE CREEK, Mich.—Altho football has been eliminated from the athletic program of Battle Creek College, a team will be developed to play one game, which the authorities forgot to cancel. The game will be played against Defiance College, of Defiance, Ohio, President Paul Voelker said, when he discovered that the Defiance game had not been cancelled. Rather than disappoint Defiance College, the one game will be played.

Co-eds Rush In

SYNODS PROMISE AN ENDOWMENT

Work Starts on Raising of $1,200,000 Fund

Organization is being completed in the raising of the $1,200,000 endowment fund for Southwestern which was decided upon at the composite gathering of the Synods of Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana here last week.

Dr. James I. Vance is chairman of the general campaign committee. He will be assisted in Tennessee by chairmen from the three divisions of the Tennessee synod, who are W. D. Trabue, of Nashville; R. B. Clinton, of Memphis, and Judge W. S. Fleming, of Columbia. Judge Fleming is the father of Mrs. Woodson Harrison.

Southern Presbyterians rallied to the call of Southwestern last week for an endowment fund that would relieve the institution of its $700,000 debt, which has been pending for the past few years.

Campaign plans are to work the Tennessee synod first, then Alabama and Louisiana. Mississippi synod will pay interest on their allotted share of the endowment fund for a few years until they can safely wage the campaign. At present they are unable to raise their quota because of other educational institutions within their state that they are aiding.

It is the aim of the general campaign to have subscriptions for the entire amount by next April 1.

Grid Philosopher Says Sage Things About These Lynx

The football situation looks mighty roseate, if you wish to believe the opinion of a close observer during the past two years. The Lynx as a scoring machine showed more prowess in their first start this year than in either of the other two initial games, and then in their next game against Alabama, champions of the South, and you might as well say to the world that to hold such a team to 31 points is not a feat to be sneezed at.

Last year's aggregation lost to Vanderbilt, 50 to 0, and the Commodores were not the juggernaut that Alabama boasts to be. This year seems to bode ill for "Ole Miss," long time conquerors of the Lynx on the gridiron. A team re-inforced with more capable reserves and possessing the advantage of another year's experience is certain to make it a warm October afternoon in Memphis for the so-called "Mighty Mississippians."

Schneider and Parnell are sure to bolster the backfield. The Lynx are fortunate in having such men as Gillespie, Trelawney, Hawke, Schneider, who can either pass or run, and even kick, almost a backfield of triple threats.

Their greatest fear should be lest they get over-confident. It took Birmingham-Southern two years ago and Henderson-Brown last year to teach this.

The nearest we can get to a description of the Charleston is that it is terpsichorean static.

CORNELL PAPER PRAYS FOR LAW

Want Police to Stamp Out College Liquor Trade

ITHACA, N. Y.—The Cornell Sun calls on the city and school authorities to put an end to bootlegging on the campus, saying:

"Like a flock of vultures, the bootleggers will soon descend upon Cornell to add liquid merriment to aching stomachs of pleasure seeking students. For several years the same gentlemen have been peddling their wares around the various fraternity houses.

"In spite of the out-of-town competition the local establishments are preparing for their illegitimate trade. For the welfare of the students and the good name of the school, the bootleggers should be sent to more healthful regions by a well aimed shot."

FRESHMEN KEEP SAN HEDRIN IN DAILY SESSIONS

Disciplinary Unit Worked Overtime by Pranks of Frosh

Incorrigible freshmen have been overworking brawny members of the San Hedrin Council thru efforts of their own. Courts of justice and correction have been held daily in order to keep the bulging docket cleared.

Freshmen have not felt the gravity of the situation until two or three appearances before the august body, but an element of knowledge is gradually making an inroad, manifest by the dockets growing smaller.

The opening roll of offenders to the dignity and sobriety of the upperclassmen brought forth the following freshmen:

Ritchie, Davis, Carpenter, Harwell, Monk, Sherman, Sears, Eason, Howry, Thornton, Roberts, Malone, Fountain, Hall Watson, Duncan, Rogers, all out after 10 p. m.; Logan and Schneider, no hat; Harwood, too fresh; Sept. 2.—Wilson, Carpenter, Rogers, Painter, Blalock, Eason, Goldsmith, no hats. Sept. 28.—Barber, Boots, Roberts, Walton, no hats; Hall, rushing dining hall; Walton, wrong door. Sept. 29.—Hayhoe, Porter, no hat; Hall, rushing dining hall. Oct. 3.—Pepper, out after 10; Potter, fresh; Eason, Martin, De Alvero, Minniece, using wrong door; Woodfin, Davis, too fresh; Harwood, Goldsby, Roberts, general principals; Hightower, Heard, Thompson, rushing dining hall; Wilson, Howry, Duncan, White, Omberg, exceedingly fresh; Goldson, Wilson, Carpenter, Rogers, Blalock, Goldsmith, Patterson, Painter, Davis, no hat; Diehl, Hull, Pittman, Savery, Howry, wrong attitude and entirely too fresh. Oct. 4.—Martin, no hat; Roberts, hat not painted; Bill, impudent; Knight, wrong attitude. Oct. 5.—Hightower, Knight, Duncan, Mitchell, Hall, general principals. Oct. 6.—Roth, Malone, no hat. Oct. 7.—Walton, Shea, Swords, Blalock, Bill, Billing, Boots, various offenses; Oct. 10.—Billing, Boots, Shea, wrong attitude; Duncan, Frist, Howry, no hat; Michael, Hull, King, too pert.

A MISS-LEADING STATEMENT

6 TEAMS LEAVE FOOTBALL UNIT

Mid-west Association Sees End of Long Career

LAWRENCE, Kans.—(By Intercollegiate Press and Daily Kansan)—The withdrawal of the six leading institutions of the Missouri Valley conference has brought to an end one of the leading athletic organizations of the middle-west. The valley has played an important part in athletics and has given a good account of itself in all inter-sectional contests.

A preliminary meeting for the organization of an athletic conference was held Jan. 12, 1907. The organization was perfected in February of the same year, with Washington university, and the Universities of Kansas, Missouri, and Iowa as the first members.

In 1908 Iowa State, Colorado, Drake and Oklahoma became members. Still later Nebraska joined the organization. In May, 1911, Iowa withdrew to become a member of the Western Conference. Kansas State Agricultural college became a member in 1909, Grinnell in 1918, and the University of Oklahoma in 1919. The next year Oklahoma took the conference championship. Oklahoma A. & M. became a member in 1925, and the next year that school took the conference championship.

Notice was served on Sept. 24, of this year, by Nebraska, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, Kansas Aggies, and Iowa state that with the end of the present school year they would withdraw from the conference. They will form a new conference.

Two hundred and eighty football games have been played in conference competition, only 15 of which resulted in ties.

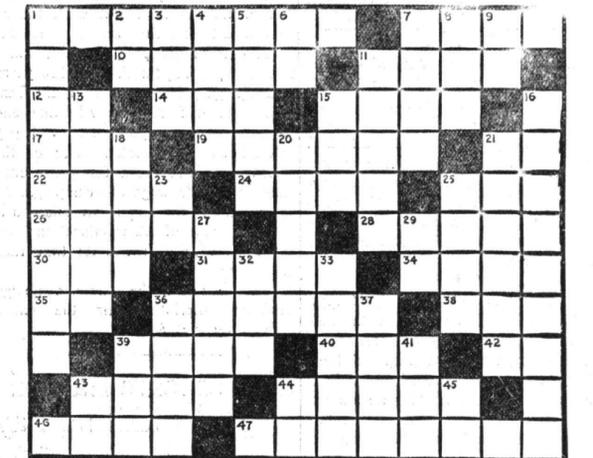

Tourneys For Those Who Wield Racquets

No definite plans have been made as yet by the Tennis Association for coming tournaments due to apathy of Southwestern racquet wielders.

"Not much interest is being shown," says President Dumpy Beall. "It all depends on the students. If they want tournaments, then they can have tournaments."

LAST WEEK'S PUZZLE

3 Noted Athletes Are Now Freshmen

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif.—(IP)—Three nationally known athletes have entered Stanford university as freshmen this fall. They are: Fidel La Barba, former flyweight boxing champion; Peter Des Jardis, former national champion diver, and John Doeg, alternate on the United States Davis Cup team. Another, Miss Helen Jacobs, was to have entered this fall but postponed her entrance until January because of an operation for appendicitis.

Approximately 180 school hours a year are spent by the students in training to become reserve officers.

Hendrix, Sewanee Hold Workouts

Last Thursday was visitors day at Fargason Field. The Sewanee Tigers and the Hendrix Bulldogs stopped over to workout on the Lynx gridiron.

The Sewanee Tigers arrived Thursday morning and went thru a fast workout in preparation for their tilt with Texas A. & M. The Tigers received a drubbing Saturday, however, the Texas Longhorns turning them back 18 to 0.

Hendrix invaded Ole Miss and came away with a 0 to 0 tie. The Lynx meet both these teams later in the season.

Good for Street Cars

MIDDLETOWN, Conn.—(IP)—Another higher educational institution this week joined the ranks of those colleges and universities which have denied their students the use of automobiles.

PERFECT RECORD NEEDED TO PASS

Purdue Students Hard Hit In Sciences, Math

LAFAYETTE, Ind.—(By Intercollegiate Press and Purdue Exponent)—Students of Purdue were greeted on their return this fall with the announcement of a new system of grading in several of the departments, especially those of science and mathematics.

The new system provides that the student shall have demonstrated to the instructor's satisfaction a familiarity with those essentials which have been decided upon as being the least that the student should have acquired during the semester to carry on successfully any subject.

In the physics department there will be a test given every week, which must be passed with a grade of 100 per cent, in order to pass the course. If the student fails to pass one of these he must retake the quiz later.

In the majority of the departments the instructor will decide from the manner in which the various examinations are passed whether the student merits a grade which will pass him.

At the end of the semester's work in the science courses there will be given the student a "minimum essentials" examination. If this is passed with a grade of 100 per cent, the student will receive a "pass." If he desires a higher grade than this another test will be given which will include facts not absolutely necessary to carrying on of the advanced work. An "H" after the grade will indicate that the student has passed the course with an almost perfect record.

NATIONAL BODY AWARDS CUP TO A.O.Pi CHAPTER

Southwestern Sorority Called Best Thruout the National

Alpha Omicron Pi chapter at Southwestern was awarded the prized Jessie Wallace Huhgan cup at the national conclave held in Seattle during the past summer.

Awarding of the cup signifies one of the highest honors the national can bestow upon a chapter unit. It was presented to the local A.O.Pis because of their high scholastic standing and freedom from debt.

The enviable record set by the local chapter during the 1926-27 college year entitled them to first bid on the cup. In presenting the cup, the local chapter was called the finest unit in the national group.

Besides the scholastic and monetary elements in winning the cup, the successful chapter must show the greatest improvement during the two years intervening between national gatherings and also in fulfilling of contingent duties.

Catherine Underwood, president of Southwestern's A.O.Pi chapter, and delegate to the convention, received the cup in the name of her chapter. A determined effort is being made by each A.O.Pi on the local campus to retain the cup thru still greater efforts of improvement.

Oh, We Must Have New Hair Bob Cuts

VIENNA.—War against stereotyped bobs is to be waged by 300 master hairdressers gathered here from all parts of the world of fashion. Means of restoring distinctive individuality to women of Europe and America was the chief concern of the assemblage.

Only artificial methods such as curling, dyeing and adding false locks can restore individuality to those who have succumbed to unbecoming bobs, Rudolph Schiff, chairman, declared.

But I'll hav to go now cause I see Dr. Shewmaker comin' to run me off the radiator.

Frat Men Petition National Body For Omega Pi Chapter

Alpha Omega unit of Beta Chi, non-descript fraternity, has been formed on the campus with the intention of gleaming members from every frat here.

"Be thyself, said I to someone, but I couldn't, for I was no one," is the chapter motto, according to Rev. U. S. "Preacher" Gordon, instigator and perpetrator.

Charter members are Wes Adams, Joe Davis, Chester Frist, and Sid Latiolais. "Preacher" is high-ruling advisor.

Initial steps toward permanent organization were taken during the past summer when the quintet had nothing else to do. They are petitioning national Beta Chi fraternity for a chapter here. They will not accept anything except one named the Omega Pi. Should the petition go thru, the local unit will be brothers to the Long Horn chapter at Mississippi A. & M., which has a membership of 800.

Six hundred are expected in the local chapter before long, says Gordon.

Campus Touches of Collegians and Their Friends

Lewis Marks and Bob Parish, class of '27, were on the campus last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Buder visited James Graham last Saturday and Sunday. Ed Buder, Kappa Sigma, was president of the Senior class last year. Mrs. Buder, nee Maretta Graham, Chi Omega, was elected one of the most popular girls on the campus last year.

Mae Davis, Ruth Walker, Lillian Cox, and Aline Lockhart, Chi Omegas for "Ole Miss", spent Saturday in Memphis and were the guests at the Chi Omega luncheon at the Peabody.

Miss Billy Roseborough had a date last Saturday evening.

George Hightower won the freshman race last Saturday. As the result he generated a little heat around the hinder quarters of Freshman Arthur Omberg.

It has been planned to have freshet races at the future games. It ought to develop some unusual speed among the co-eds.

Many questions have been asked as to why the balloons, which the freshets released during the half, were tied together. This was done for fear some light-headed freshet would ascend with her balloon.

Freshet "Root Beer" Hires was rooting in the wrong seat at the game last Saturday, and it required all the strength and sex appeal of Cheer-leader Allen Haden to get her transplanted to the proper stamping ground. Aside from this, High Priestess Minnie Lundy had her freshets well in hand.

Critics say that Birmingham-Southern had a pretty good team. "Hqd" is right.

Zeke woke up twice during the Birmingham-Southern game. This is the greatest length of time Zeke has stayed awake in one day since he fell out of the airplane.

"Well, Pop, I'm engaged."
"You don't mean it?"
"Of course not, but it's lots of fun."

New Conference Is Organized At Chi Omega Meet

Helen Northcross Chosen Secretary of new Mississippi Body

In special compliment to members of Chi Omega sorority attending the First Mississippi Valley Conference, a beautifully appointed luncheon was given last Saturday afternoon at Hotel Peabody.

Covers were laid for 100 on a U shaped banquet board in the Louis XVI Room, which was profusely decorated in rose and orchid dahlias, with gold tapers casting a mellow glow over the room.

The luncheon was the annual fall Eleusinian celebration of the local alumnae and active chapter. The program carried out the general theme of a ship.

This luncheon proved a delightful climax to the tea given at the chapter house Friday, at which the chapter patronesses were honored. Mrs. Brinkley Snowden, Mrs. Charles Diehl, Mrs. Leslie Thornton, Mrs. Charles Townsend, Mrs. Robert Heard and Mrs. W. S. Lawrence were the honor guests.

Later in the evening a buffet supper was served for the members of the sorority, and college and fraternity songs were sung, after which the business session was held, and the Mississippi Valley organization was formed.

MEET NEXT JUNE

It had been planned to make this organization a tri-state group, but so much interest has been aroused and so many chapters desired to come that it was decided to extend the membership to the Mississippi Valley. The national convention is held bi-annually and met June, 1926, on Mackinac Island. The coming convention will probably be at the Greenbrier Hotel, White Sulphur Springs, next June.

The Mississippi Conference will be an annual fall gathering. Officers elected were: Mrs. Harry Webb, chairman; Mrs. Charles Cab, vice-chairman; Miss Helen Northcross, secretary; Miss Louise Gardner, treasurer.

Mary Allen, president of the Southwestern chapter, presided over the election, after which Mrs. Webb took charge.

Renew Old Charter

GREENVILLE, S. C.—(IP)—Fraternalities have been reinstated at Furman university here this year for the first time since 1898, when the trustees of the institution outlawed them. Kappa Alpha was the first fraternity to enter after the ban lifted, renewing an old charter.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Sigma Nu are planning to renew their old charters also.

Can You Imagine—

Prof. Davis without his daily round of golf,

George Hightower going one day without a tally,

Dumpy Beall saying, "I'll excuse you this time, Freshman,"

"A" Dulin making love,

Hiram King without his goofy laugh,

Sam Clark absent from San Hedrin meetings,

Dr. Swan absent from a football game,

Friday, October 14.

Dear Isabel:

I'm feeling fine and like the school all right, it's got old Bellville high backed off the map, but there's things around here that are funny. I got a roommate with ears so big that if he could flap them he could make the Paris hop. There's a guy up here called the High Priest of the San Hedrin; he's an important guy walking around here, putting down first his right foot then his left foot. Ya know the San Hedrin made the freshmen wear big farmer straw hats, and go in the front door and obey the upper-classes and be in before 10 o'clock every night, and lots of dumb things. And if ya don't they take you in a room blind-folded and the High Priest sentences ya to a tally (which is 5 licks by a strap or board) and two bites by a royal rattler, which is a pain, if you know what I mean. There's a guy here called Sam Clark who's been drivin' mules down in Mississippi, and he cracks us with a belt like he whips mules. I wish I was an upper classman and I'd show him.

We got a good football team and they got funny nick-names such as: "Jo-Jo," "A," "Kid Dyer," "Dago," "Big Creek," "Chi," "Fats," "Feet," and "Felix". I think they call him Felix because he's fast like a cat.

Ya know, Isabel, I get homesick for you, there's some good looking girls here called co-eds, but none can compare with you.

"Joan of Arc" Topic At Shakespeare Meet

Did "Joan of Arc" save France?

This subject will be thrashed out at the regular weekly get-together of the Shakespeare club. The session will take place at the home of Dr. C. L. Townsend.

For the next three weekly meetings the subject for debate, discussion, and study will be "Joan of Arc."

Sun Too Stringent On Heavy Linesmen

OBERLIN, Ohio.—(IP)—The hot weather with which the present football season is being blessed is having disastrous effects on the "heavy" teams of the mid-west and east. Several college coaches have announced that practice in the blistering sun is taking off all of the weight added by their linemen during the summer months.

We believe that thinking people should ponder these truths.

Public Utilities render services that are essential to modern living standards.

These services directly contribute to the convenience and comfort of people hourly each day. They have raised living standards, brought us up to a new plane of material existence; and are, in fact, the agencies by which modern living standards are maintained.

In addition to their contribution to the convenience and comfort of people so constantly, utilities are economic factors of important worth to their communities—stimulating channels of trade and business activities with their large pay-rolls and immense purchases of supplies, as well as being large tax-payers helping to defray expenses of government.

These are facts that educated people should understand.

SPEAKING OF ATHLETICS

By Baumgarten

The Lynx successfully withstood the invasion of the Birmingham-Southern football team last week at Fargason Field. This week they meet Henderson-Brown, an Arkansas eleven that came, saw and conquered Southwestern last fall. It behooves the student body to turn out in full force this year to help the team achieve a victory this Saturday. A lot of rooting from the stands helps out a long way to win games.

The Lynx suffered a big loss this week when Joe Pickering, varsity guard, quit school. Joe was a good player, a great fellow and he will leave a hole in the varsity line which will be hard to fill.

We noticed a write-up in the Arkansas College paper, a coming football opponent of the Lynx, which stated as follows, "Our team had hard luck in the last game when the opposing quarterback received a punt and returned it 64 yards for a touchdown." That sure is hard luck. Birmingham-Southern also had some hard luck when "Nigger" Hawke reeled off 25 yards to score, Dode Farnsworth tore off 45 yards more for another touchdown, and "Gip" Gillespie galloped over the goal for another, after a march down the field. They sure were tough breaks for the visitors.

Here's a good one we heard on the Michigan-Michigan Aggie game a few years back. Michigan had agreed to permit the Aggies to substitute as many times as they desired. Towards the end of the game the Michigan coach observed a strange figure on his bench. On closer observation he turned out to be an Aggie player. "What are you doing here?" Yost asked. The player replied, "Don't tell off on me, I've been in there six times already and that's enough."

Bobcats Frown Hard At Tunica High Foe

Meet on Fargason Today to Settle Grid Dispute

Last year the strong team of Tunica High School handed the Bobcats a nifty licking to the tune of 13 to 6, but this afternoon the freshmen are determined to wipe out the stigma.

Coach Wes Adams has been working his men hard all week, and they appear to be in the peak of condition. They showed that they had the stuff necessary for a victory in their game with the Tate County Aggies recently, and there is no reason why they shouldn't send the Tunica boys home with the bread buttered on the right side.

The probable lineup of the Bobcats follows: Jarrett and Rogers, end; Porter and Knight, tackles; John and Logan, guards; Thomason, center; Hightower and Walton, halves; Barbour full, and Sherman, quarter.

Matron—"Say, can you draw?"

Co-ed—"Why, yes."

Matron—"Well, draw those curtains or we'll have an audience on the sidewalk."

RAZORBACK INVASION STARTS

Henderson-Brown First Enemy From Arkansas Schools

Strengthened Lynx Prime to Regain Preseuge over Arkansans

The first wave of the annual Arkansas invasion will break on Fargason Field Saturday afternoon, when the Henderson-Brown Reddies meet the Lynx. Southwestern is scheduled to meet four of the Razorback elevens this fall in Henderson-Brown, Arkansas College, Hendrix and Ouachita. Last season the teams from over the river were poison to the Lynx, the Reddies and Hendrix winning their games by the respective scores of 13 to 0 and 9 to 0, while Arkansas College came through with a 0 to 0 tie. Ouachita was not on the schedule.

The Reddies are bringing a formidable aggregation to Memphis this year and have high hopes of a victory. The Lynx are determined to even matters up with their old toes, so a battle royal may be expected.

TEAM STRENGTHENED

Southwestern will be strengthened by having several first year men eligible in Havorn Parnell, Joe Savery, Red Schneider and Norman Thornton.

The Lynx suffered a big blow last week when Joe Pickering, star guard, quit school to go to work. Warren Smith, a veteran of last year, will take Pickering's place in the line.

The Lynx lineup, which was shifted in the Birmingham-Southern game, will go back to its usual order. Arthur Dulin, who played tackle last Saturday, will move back to guard, with Joe Savery the Tupelo husky, taking over the tackle berth. Joe Davis and "Chi" Waring will play ends, Lorin King at tackle and Vern Baumgarten at center, will complete the lineup.

FARNSWORTH READY

Neely has seven good backs in Bobby Lloyd, Frank Trelawney, Milton Hawke, Dode Farnsworth, Harold Gillespie, Havorn Parnell, and Red Schneider. Lloyd, Trelawney, Hawke and Farnsworth will probably be the starting lineup. Farnsworth injured his shoulder in last week's tilt but should be ready for action against the Reddies. Gillespie is also bothered by a couple of fractured ribs but will be able to play.

Coach Neely has been working his charges hard all week, especially on the offense. The Birmingham-Southern tilt was the first in which Neely had a chance to really observe the Lynx backs in action. The backs ran well but several faults were brought out that need to be erased.

The game Saturday will start at 3 p. m.

Jupiter On Deck So Bobcats Rest

Rain Prevents Game with Normal Scrubs

On account of the rain which poured down all last Friday, the game which the Bobcats had scheduled with West Tennessee State Normal scrubs was called off. The football field was so muddy that it was impossible to play football without a row boat.

However, the Bobcats did not get out of work for the day. Coach Wes Adams took his men out on the field back of the tennis courts, and they got in some good practice despite rain and mud.

Coach Homer Hazel Anxious About Lynx

Coach Homer Hazel, of Ole Miss, was in the stands last Saturday watching the Lynx Cats perform. Southwestern fans hope his money was not spent for naught.

However, in case he is not satisfied, a special performance might be arranged for his benefit. All trick, plain and complicated stratagems of the Lynx will be demonstrated in slow-motion fashion.

Coach Hazel's kindergarten education concerning the Lynx that he completed last Saturday, will be climaxed with a diploma when the Lynx and Mighty Mississippians meet on Oct. 22.

Play Football With Two Sets of Rules

WINNIPEG, Manitoba.—(IP)—When North Dakota played the University of Manitoba here recently for the first time in history that an international football game had been played in Western Canada, one half the game was played with Canadian rules and the other half with American rules.

Pickering Enters Business Life

Joe Pickering, star guard of the Southwestern varsity football team, has left school. Joe played his last game, and played a great game, last week against Birmingham-Southern. Pickering quit school to go to work. Joe has been one of the mainstays of the varsity during the past two years. He came to Southwestern from Central High, of Memphis.

Rude! Southwestern Gridmen Rile Doughty Birmingham-Southern Men

Lynx Enact Social Faux Pas by Drubbing Brave Alabamians in Drag-out Game by The Score of 19 Tallies to 7

Those rude, rough Southwestern Lynx mounted the frame of the Birmingham-Southern football eleven last Saturday and deliberately and with intended malice proceeded to deal the visitors several hearty kicks. Acting as hosts, the Lynx were so impolite as to score three touchdowns, altho they generously presented one lone score to their visitors. The final tally being 19 to 7.

Perhaps the Lynx were taught their rude manners at Alabama a few weeks back, but the fact remains that they continue downright mean when they play in their own back yard.

The Birmingham eleven came to Fargason Field with determination in their eyes and the memory of ancient wrongs nurtured in their bosoms, but they left in the same manner a dog slides out of the door three feet in front of a lustily propelled number eleven Florsheim.

The game was well played. The well known and elusive Mr. Gilda Hawke, who detests being tackled, stepped off 25 yards for the first Lynx score after a few minutes of play. The Lynx had persisted unkindly in keeping the ball in their opponents' territory but had had two drives stopped and were started on their third when Mr. Hawke did his unethical act. Mr. Farnsworth, another prominent figure of the day, then proceeded to kick the ball thru the uprights for the extra point.

RUNS 45 YARDS

In the second period Mr. Hawke grasped the ball firmly in the manner he was taught in his special correspondence course in forward passing, and hurled it to Mr. Farnsworth, who proceeded to rudely shove one player in the face, which was a peculiar act for a player brought up under the refined culture of Southwestern, and then galloped 45-yards for the second score. Maybe Mr. Farnsworth repented his rudeness for he missed the extra point.

Southwestern, filled with generosity, fumbled in their own territory in the third quarter and finally allowed Mr. Chink Ogle, speedy young visitor, to score. The visitors then kicked the goal, making the score 13 to 7.

LYNX REPENT

The Lynx, repenting their rash generosity, started another march, but fumbled. However, a few minutes later Mr. Hawke tossed the ball to Mr. Trelawney who caught it, to the great surprise of Pos Elam, who is reported to have fallen off the bench. Mr. Hawke then tossed another ball, still following his correspondence school notes, to Mr. Gillespie, who caught it on the one-yard line. Mr. Gillespie then sauntered over the goal on the next play for the Lynx' third score, but failed to kick goal.

The whole Lynx team played well. Mr. Hawke, Mr. Farnsworth, Mr. Gillespie, Mr. Lloyd and Mr. Trelawney all played bang-up ball in the backfield. The line from end to end showed up fine. Mr. King, who has spent years trying to lose the rude instincts he gained in his early life in Dyersburg, let his worse half get the better of him and clamped one of his famous headlocks on one of his opponents and began to chastise him. They were easily separated, only three officials and 20 players being required.

Student Golf Bugs Meet Faculty Team On Overton Course

Following Tourney Students Meet Quartet From U. T. Doctors

Thirty-six hole qualifying rounds are being played this week by members of the Golf Association in preparation for a tournament with the faculty club wingers next week. The four students completing the prescribed course with the lowest number of shots, will comprise the student team against the faculty.

Doctors from the Memphis U. of T. will put by their shears and other tasks and will indulge in the pastime of knocking golf balls in competition with the Southwestern team. All this will happen during the week of Oct. 24.

MAY ENTER S. I. G. C.

T. M. Garrott, club president, says that a decision to enter the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Conference is hanging in the balance. Should the club succeed in obtaining a conference membership, then tourneys with other southern college members will be the frequent thing.

Garrott states that if the Southwestern athletic association grants the golf club a membership and permits golf letters and sweaters, then interest will reach such a point that intra-club tournaments will be frequent.

There are 25 members to the club at present, with hopes of at least 50 when the heat of the program is being played.

Lisenbee Gets Five Votes From Scribes

Horace Lisenbee, former Southwestern pitcher, received five votes as the most valuable player to his team in the American League. The honor was accorded to Lou Gehrig, the hitting first baseman of the world champion New York Yankees, who received 54 votes. Harry Heilmann came second.

A King Sans Men Is Bad, So Lorin Tackles Referee

Lorin King believes in getting a man every time. During the Birmingham-Southern game Lorin arose to find every one of his opponents sprawling on the ground. He was in a panic. He had to get some man, but whom? The "Dyersburg Terror" was about to give up hope when his eye fell on the sylph-like figure of the referee fleeing past.

Doughty King immediately gave pursuit and downed his man before he had moved 10 feet. Rumor has it that the referee whispered something very ungentlemanly as he went down to meet the dusty ground.
