HONOR COUNCIL INVESTED WITH AUTHORITY

Quibblers Organize For Extensive Debate Season

34 EDS RESPOND TO INITIAL CALL BY DEBATE CLUB

Society of Arguments Have Angles Out For Debate Dates

Thirty-two Southwestern eds responded to the first call for debaters last Tuesday. William Orr, president of the Quibblers Forum debating club, conducted the first meeting of the year, outlining to prospective team members the formidable schedule which the club has booked for this season.

Plans are being formulated whereby teams from the Forum will make tours of nearby towns, concentrating their activities in Arkansas and Mississippi, according to Orr.

Schedule Debates

Debates have already been scheduled with the University of Arkansas and Arkansas A. and M. Overtures are being made to Hendrix, Westminster and the College of the Ozarks, on the west side of the Mississippi river, and with Ole Miss, Birmingham-Southern, Vanderbilt, and West Tennessee State Normal, on this side of the river.

Definite information concerning debate subjects and dates of deliverance will be announced later.

The club will meet regularly every Friday night in Hardie Chapel, with the first gathering tonight.

Dr. Kelso To Lecture

Dr. A. P. Kelso, debating coach, will deliver tonight the first of a series of eight lectures on the fundamentals of debating.

Members of last year's teams who reported Tuesday included William Orr, Chester Frist, Frank Heiss, Raymond Thompson, Billy Flowers, and Charles Rond III.

Elect New Officers

One of the points of business tonight will be election of two men to fill offices left vacant by men who failed to return this fall. Mansard Bullock, secretary, and Droopy Draper, treasurer, are going to school elsewhere. Their places will be filled tonight.

Pay-station telephones have been installed in Robb and Calvin halls. The phones were restored as of old.

NO HITCH IN DATING YOUR CHOICE

Date Booking Agency Blossoms Forth For Business

Be yourself and secure the proper classification. This unusual request is made by the Flowers, Patton and Faires Date Booking Agency, Inc., which opened offices recently for the benefit of those unable to secure social engagements with ones of their choice.

Price Patton, booking agent, announces a full repertoire of prospects for both eds and co-eds. A minimum charge is made for each successful booking.

All requests strictly confidential, say officers, as they inaugurate their business offensive. Personnel of the first booking agency is: Billy Flowers, president; Price Patton, vice-president; Mary Frances Faires, secretary and corres-

These Students Don't Look Dejected Because Southwestern Is Their Home

When Southwestern College opened its portals this fall this group of 400 students gleefully filed into Hardie Chapel the morning of Sept. 15 to hear the opening convocation service. The student body this year is the "handsomest"—both masculine and feminine—that has ever greeted each other at Southwestern. But that is not their highest attainment, for the majority have just come from high schools where they distinguished themselves as honor students, taking leading parts in student activities at their respective institutions. Dean McDougall smiled a joyous smile when he presented this student body to President Diehl the morning of Sept. 15—and he had a reason to smile a smile of joy.

WOMEN PLAN TO VISIT COLLEGE

Will Meet Here As Four Synods Assemble

More than 40 women will be visitors to Southwestern when the composite gathering of the four Presbyterian synods from Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana meet at the college on Oct. 5.

Mrs. W. C. Winsborough, of St. Louis, and head of the Woman's Work in the Southern Presbyterian church, will be present.

Dr. William Crowe, former pastor of Idlewild Presbyterian church, and prominent in the bringing of Southwestern to Memphis, is expected. He is at present pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church of St. Louis.

Naughty! Who Wouldn't Reform After Wearing Ill-Mated Hose

Freshets Parade About Campus With Ironic Smile As Girls' San Hedrin Smirks—Fit Penance for Sins, They Say

Beware, little freshet, or the San Hedrin will get you. These terrible upperclass girls have started out being mighty "hard" on the blithesome neophytes. Just imagine, no rouge for a whole day! Ain't that fierce.

Walking around, bowing from the waist up to upperclass girls, may be one of the daily dozen, but it makes the baby girls look like a bevy of well trained marionettes.

The motto of "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," applies to girls. That in itself justifies the older girls. They say also that a well disciplined crowd of freshettes makes a well behaved sophomore class.

High Priestess Minnie Lundy and her cohort of helpers have been putting the freshmen girls thru the gamut of correction. Don't be alarmed if you hear the freshets mumbling to themselves, for they are only saying the senior class roll, which, by the way, they are required to know perfectly.

Tripping over the campus with one black and one white stocking on did not seem to worry Les Miserables in the least. To add to the misery of these poor unfortunate creatures, they were seen on the campus with green garters on their wrists.

It is the aim of the mystic order of the girls' San Hedrin to abolish impudence of freshets to upperclassmen.

Minnie Lundy and the other priestesses promise quick and unmerciful punishment to all offenders.

M'COMB, Miss.—(IP)—The first football casualty of the year occurred here last week when Clay Holley, 17, died of injuries received in high school football practice.

FREE RIDES AND FREE PICTURES

60 Southwestern Boys Enjoy Free Service

More than 60 Southwestern students who are members of the Boosters' Sunday school class at Second Presbyterian church, will be photographed along with the other class members next Sunday morning.

Large buses loaned by Smith Motor Co. will take you there and bring you back and the charge is free, with the cost being nothing to anyone.

The hospitality committee of the Boosters' is composed of Dr. Granville Sherman, Dr. N. W. Sherman, Walter Stone, Ed Woodson, Martin Luckett, Moore Moore, Hugh Monteath, Frank Hickok. Dr. W. O. Swan is a member of the class.

Insurance Concerns Thumbs Down as Frat Men Seek Aid

BOSTON, Mass.—(IP)—When a fraternity group in Boston university leased a private home for their house, the owner asked for some security against breakage of an expensive chandelier in the dining room.

Several insurance companies were canvassed before one was found that would stake their money against the traditional rough-house tendencies of college boys. This company demanded a rate of 12 per cent.

Former Professors Are Still Teaching

If a professor has taught at Southwestern at one time and is not here now, it is almost a certainty that he is teaching somewhere.

Prof. J. C. Pomeroy, who taught physics here two years ago, is now at Yale.

Dr. M. H. Donaldson, economics instructor, last year, is teaching his favorite subject at the University of Porto Rico.

COLLEGE GIVES COUNCIL POWER TO LEAD MORALS

Dr. Diehl Presents Honor System Plaque to New Council

Honor Council of Southwestern was officially vested with power from the college last Wednesday morning to protect the present system now in vogue and to regulate student actions for the coming year.

Prior to the presentation of the Honor System plaque to the new Council, Professor W. R. Cooper made a short talk on the subject, "The Two-Fold Purpose of the Honor System—To the Individual and to His Neighbor."

Must Report Guilty

"It is as much a breach of the Honor System for a student to see someone commit a dishonest act and not to report him to the Honor Council as it is for a student to commit a dishonest act himself," said Prof. Cooper. To illustrate how far the Honor System can be carried out he related of the college store at Washington and Lee University. At this store there are no clerks. A student goes into the store and gets what he wants and puts the money for it in the cash register, taking out his change if any is due him. Prof. Cooper said that during the life of this store not a cent had been lost on account of any student purloining either money or goods.

Charges Students

President Charles E. Diehl then called the members of the Honor Council to the front of Hardie Chapel and charged them with the duties of their office. He then charged the student body to give its whole-hearted support to the Honor Council, stating that unless the students did give their support the Honor System would be an utter failure.

Warner Hall, president of the Honor Council was presented with the symbol of his office, a plaque with the seal of Southwestern at Memphis and the names of the past presidents of the Honor Council since it has been at Memphis, engraved on it.

13 On Council

Membership on the Honor Council for the coming year is composed of thirteen members from the four classes. Officers on the Council are: Warner Hall, president; vice-presidency is to be filled soon; Dorothy Vanden, secretary. Members from the senior class are: Chester Frist, Frank Heiss, Howard "Dumpy" Beall, Iola Shepherd. Junior class: Warner Hall, Billy Hughes, Crawford McGivaren, Dorothy Vanden. Sophomore class: Alton Hicks, E. W. Parker, Elizabeth McKee. Freshman class: Charles Patterson, Barbara Bates.

Student Preaches

"The Sign of Conquest" is the sermon topic of James T. Randle next Sunday morning, at Round Pond, Ark.

"DR. DIEHL CAN QUIT, BUT NOT ME"

Veteran Janitor Says He Has Permanent Job Here

"Me and President Diehl's been running this place for a long time." "President Diehl can quit, but I ain't 'cause I come to Southwestern to stay. I got a permanent job."

John Henry Hatcher, for the past 30-years a janitor at Southwestern, both at Clarksville and Memphis, expresses his sentiments so that no one may misunderstand.

John is the one, if students recall last year when the bell did not work, that owned the watch that didn't keep good time. When chapel time really came it often either came 10 minutes too early or 10 minutes too late by John's watch. John swore by his watch, but no one else did.

No one would dare tell Head Janitor Hatcher that his watch was wrong, so President Diehl, in the name of the college, presented John Henry with an expensive time piece last spring that would keep time with other people's chronometers.

"Bout time I was leaving," said John Henry as he gazed at his treasured time piece. "I got a permanent job, I have, and I got to keep moving. I've got work to do, and I've been doing it for 30 years."

"Dr. Diehl can quit, but you ain't gonna see me unless I'm 'round this place."

And he went his way of business.

OTHER CAMPS

INJURIES HURT U. OF T.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—(IP)—A severe blow to the championship aspirations of the University of Tennessee was given by the injury of Ed Young, veteran half-back and punter, and the failure of Howard Johnson, regular tackle, to return to school this fall.

Young's injury, which was a severe wrench of the knee, will probably keep the player out of the game all season. He was one of the principal ground gainers of the 1926 season.

FALLS OUT BY WAYSIDE

EVANSTON, Ill.—(IP)—Frank Spadea, who walked and "hitched" rides from his home at Brockton, Mass., to Evanston to enter Northwestern University, came within a half mile of his goal and then collapsed from the heat. He had almost reached the fraternity house in which his brother was staying when he was overcome and taken to a hospital.

WILL COST $1,000,000

UNIVERSITY, Va.—(IP)—Over one million dollars is to be spent by the University of Virginia in the construction of a new Medical building. Work has commenced, and the building is expected to be finished before the end of this college year.

HE LOOKED FOR SMILE

SUPERIOR, Wis.—(IP)—Rolf Lium, student pastor of the church attended regularly this summer by President and Mrs. Coolidge said when he arrived here that he was able to keep from becoming completely "flabbergasted" each Sunday by the smile of the First Lady. "Her smile always helped me overcome my nervousness," he said. He added that when the President first made his appearance at the church he was so overcome he left out the middle of his sermon.

QUITS AFTER 25 YEARS

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—(IP)—After coaching football at Michigan for over 25 years, during which time he has turned out some of the best gridiron teams in history, Fielding H. Yost has announced that he will no longer coach the gridders. He explains that he is going to give his time to several new athletic developments about the university, leaving the coaching to his subalternates. He began coaching here in 1901.

MUST HAVE GRID TEAM

ANANDALE, N. Y.—(IP)—After two years without a football team, St. Stephen's college here has decided that it cannot afford to exist as an educational institution without the grid game. Consequently, the sport has been reintroduced. Games will be played this year with colleges which have open dates on their schedules. Next year a regular schedule will be made out.

JACK HEARST ENROLLS

ATLANTA, Ga.—(IP)—Jack Hearst, son of William Randolph Hearst, the newspaper magnate, is entering Oglethorpe university here this fall. Oglethorpe gave the elder Hearst the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws last June when the newspaper man delivered the annual commencement address.

ADOPT NATIVE REGALIA

PEKING, China.—(IP)—One result of the Nationalist movement in this country is seen in its influence on the styles of college and university co-eds. Whereas it was popular not long ago for the college women here to wear European clothes, the co-eds now have discarded the short skirts for the long dresses native to the Empire.

PROTECT COLLEGE MAN

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—(IP)—The college man must be protected! This at least is the opinion of the Cambridge police force, which has started a drive to put an end to flappers driving sport cars picking up college men in this city. In the past few weeks three women have been arrested for accosting strangers while only one man has suffered for this mistake.

Collegiate Bill Is Snooping For Libel

NEW YORK CITY.—(IP)—The floating university got back here the other day with 440 men and 60 women students. The professors said they didn't have any sex difficulties. The floating co-eds ought to sue the profs for slander. Yours, Collegiate Bill.

The Vigilantes Are Vigilant

Thru the efforts of the Student Council, telephones have been re-installed in Robb and Calvin dormitories.

The deplorable fact about their re-installation is that they should never have been taken out. The telephone company was perfectly justified in removing their property from the reach of the hoodlums that tampered with the money boxes last year, crossed the wires so that money that should have dropped in the money box returned to the former owner instead, and in other ways so mutilated the appearance of the necessary machines that it was good business to discontinue service.

The telephone company used undue patience with the boys last year. Some one persisted in using master keys shorting the wires, and scratching the surfaces. On several occasions the company threatened to leave the boys derelict, but each time were dissuaded by the Council.

After a lapse of 10 days on the new year the company gave the boys another chance, and installed the phones.

The workman who installed the phones last week, returned a couple of days later and found that the money box had been unlocked. The Honor Council got wind of his remark. A hurried meeting of student leaders was called and the guilty ones will be sought out and shipped from school by order of the student body.

Southwestern is a college where honor is paramount. It seems that one individual is sully the good name of the college.

The matter is now in the hands of the Honor Council. The culprit, when he is caught, will hardly have time to pack his belongings.

A Little Thing of Importance Overlooked

The students underestimate their ability to write. If you are so obsessed with the idea that you can't write, that doesn't prevent you from jotting down facts regarding any news of value that you might run across.

The Sou'wester is not a paper that is merely the toy of the staff. It is the official student weekly publication. Every student is a potential staff member. Whether or not you are actually listed on the staff does not relieve you of your obligation to contribute.

The Sou'wester this year will continue as a six-column, six-page paper if the students support it as they should. It is asking too much of the staff to publish a paper of this size each week without cooperation.

The staff members have studies as do every one else. This is a gratis work. Do not expect too much from them. The publication room is always open. If you have a report on a social function, a personal, a story of any type, the least you can do is jot the facts down and let the staff write the story.

Every story missed by the staff is participated in by at least one student. The Sou'wester to be a complete chronicle of Southwestern student life should have that story.

A Word To The Council Is Sufficient

A serious accident will happen some day at the point where University boulevard enters North Parkway. Besides being a dangerous connect'on with a main auto artery, autos coming to the college must violate the traffic law regarding driving on the wrong side of the street.

This matter is of such importance that the Student Council should see that the Memphis street department cuts a road between north and side drives, just south of the University Boulevard connection.

A drastic drive-careful campaign is being waged in Memphis to protect both autoists and pedestrians. Now seems to be the psychological moment, if there be such a time, to broach the matter to the proper city authorities.

A promise was exacted last year by city officials to cut this road thru, but their promise didn't materialize.

Little Editorials From Our Readers

My Dear Editor:-

Under the excuse of the title of this column there appeared in the last edition of your paper a few comments by one Mr. R. Allen Haden, in which the writer has allowed himself to be drawn into a most unfortunate misconception of the nature of the modern co-ed.

"Why," asks Mr. Haden, "will our co-eds expend so much energy attempting to deceive us as to their respective weights?" and he continues to illustrate how the overly plump one will sigh deceptively over her alarming but fictitious loss of avoirdupois while the "little slip of a marm" insists on gasping helplessly at the fact of her rapid accumulation of starch-fed tissue. I wonder why Mr. Haden did not display at least a slightly more laudable insight and concern for the matter, and interrogate—"Why do our precious little co-eds (along with the major portion of their sex) expend so much energy attempting to deceive us about themselves generally?"

The writer appears to be laboring under the sad illusion that any woman, under fifty years of age, (and many beyond that) may be tricked into a betrayal of herself and her sex by allowing herself to descend to the inartistic and masculine trait of frankness. There can be, I believe, one answer only to his critical query. Woman, created naturally to an inferior position in our human race, but with a secret power of artistic deception from Venus herself, must eternally use that power to conceal her true self—or eventually sink into insignificance. This unrecognized and unadmitted rule of antiquity manifests itself ever so profusely today in more or less artistic but generally deceptive patterns of dress, deceptive use of cosmetics, along with the innumerable deceptive artifices of the tongue, eyes, etc.—on into the category of woman's real and artificial charms and attractions.

I know many women who have very few minutes of natural relaxation awake or sleeping;—what with eyebrows and lashes plastered in a black glue, hair which must be treated much like a teething child and put to bed at night which as much attention as that with which it is arranged in the morning, lips that require just so many layers of lipstick to effect the perfect coloring and the perfect outline, and cheeks that, from quotation, "look like a ghost's," without the prescribed amount of rouge. Did not the ancient Greeks teach us that extremes are odious?—and who will gainsay my contention that the Greeks did pretty well along the "lines" in discussion? So much for these indispensable creatures which grace our campus! Have them change their present modes? Alas, no! We probably would not recognize them for our own! Besides, no sane man would pay court to such a far fetched dream.

And after all, what could be more intensely fascinating than the vague and mystic art which compels their lives, and which they apply so charmingly to the end of their desires! Vive l'art!

Now, we may hear some much more lucid discussion from the ladies themselves!

PRICE A. PATTON.

I'm The Gink

I'm the dormitory gink who's always spying on somebody else. You just can't trust anybody with these new rushing rules, so nobody is going to put anything over on me. I can see whether it's by accident or not if a freshman happens to catch up with a man who isn't my brother. And most times it's not, I'll tell you. I don't miss a thing, I don't, for it's enchanting work even if somebody does slam the door in my face once in a while. My brothers are depending on me to report to them and they've placed the responsibility on the right shoulders, you bet!

Student Divines Are Apprenticed

NEWTON CENTER, Mass.—(IP)—Hereafter students in the Newton Congregational Seminary here will be "apprenticed" to established clergymen, who will criticize their sermons for them.

Telegram to Friend: "Washout on line, cannot come."

Reply: "Come anyway, borrow a shirt."

Senior: "I'm going to marry a pretty girl and a good cook."

Co-ed: "YOU CAN'T. That's big-amy."

Friend: "I suppose you didn't run across a fellow named Scrimshaw on your travels?"

Dear Lily,

I was delighted with your letter, but Lily, you must learn how to spell. It's only people like George Kyser and Paul Caldwell up here that don't know how to spell. They'll think you haven't got an education. I'd like for you to come up to this institution of learning, but I am afraid it would make a vamp out of you, like that Freshet Baccigalupo. Isn't that a mouthful? The way she rolls her eyes at Soph Shultz isn't even funny.

Then, Lily, you'd have to do what that San Hedrin says. It says for the freshets to wear tennis shoes, and they do, all except Mary Hogg. And then there's a gal named Charlotte Bruce, and even the San Hedrin get out of the way when she passes.

I see Pat Johnson is going to the store, so I guess I'll close and mail this. David Pipes says to take good care of the chickens.

Lovingly,

ABIE.

R. H. KINCAID SOUTHWESTERN'S Friend Welcomes You

WHO'S WHO IN SENIOR CLASS

Virginia Hogg

Miss Virginia Hogg, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. R. Hogg, is determined to become a physician. After her graduation from Southwestern next June she will prepare for a course in medicine, she says.

In fact, Virginia has always liked the odor of ether, the curiosities of medicines, test tubes, surgery, and the like. If her present plans materialize she will be a medical student next year at the University of Pennsylvania, in Philadelphia.

Virginia has played an important part in the co-ed life at Southwestern. This year she is secretary-treasurer of the student government, member of Chi Delta Phi literary society, member of Alpha Theta Phi scholastic society, member of Kappa Delta sorority. Besides scholastic, fraternal and literary honors, Miss Hogg has taken prominent part in co-ed athletics, having played golf, tennis, basketball, and baseball on her sorority team.

Strange to say, Virginia admits that she was born on Aug. 27, 1906, at Auburn, Miss. But her family moved to Little Rock, Ark., where she started and graduated from grammar school there. Her high school days were spent at El Paso, Tex., and her freshman year in college at Randolph-Macon, Lynchburg, Va. Her last three college years will be climaxed by graduation from Southwestern next June.

FRESHMAN MIND RATES ON LEVEL WITH U. S. MAJOR

Intelligence Tests Show Average Southwestern Frosh Smart Fellow

Average intelligence of the freshman class at Southwestern this year is equivalent to that of a U. S. army major.

Dr. W. R. Atkinson, psychology instructor, in announcing the scores on the recent intelligence test given to all new students, is author of the startling statement.

"Two years ago the freshman intelligence was below the standard of average colleges; last year it was on a par, and this year it is above the average."

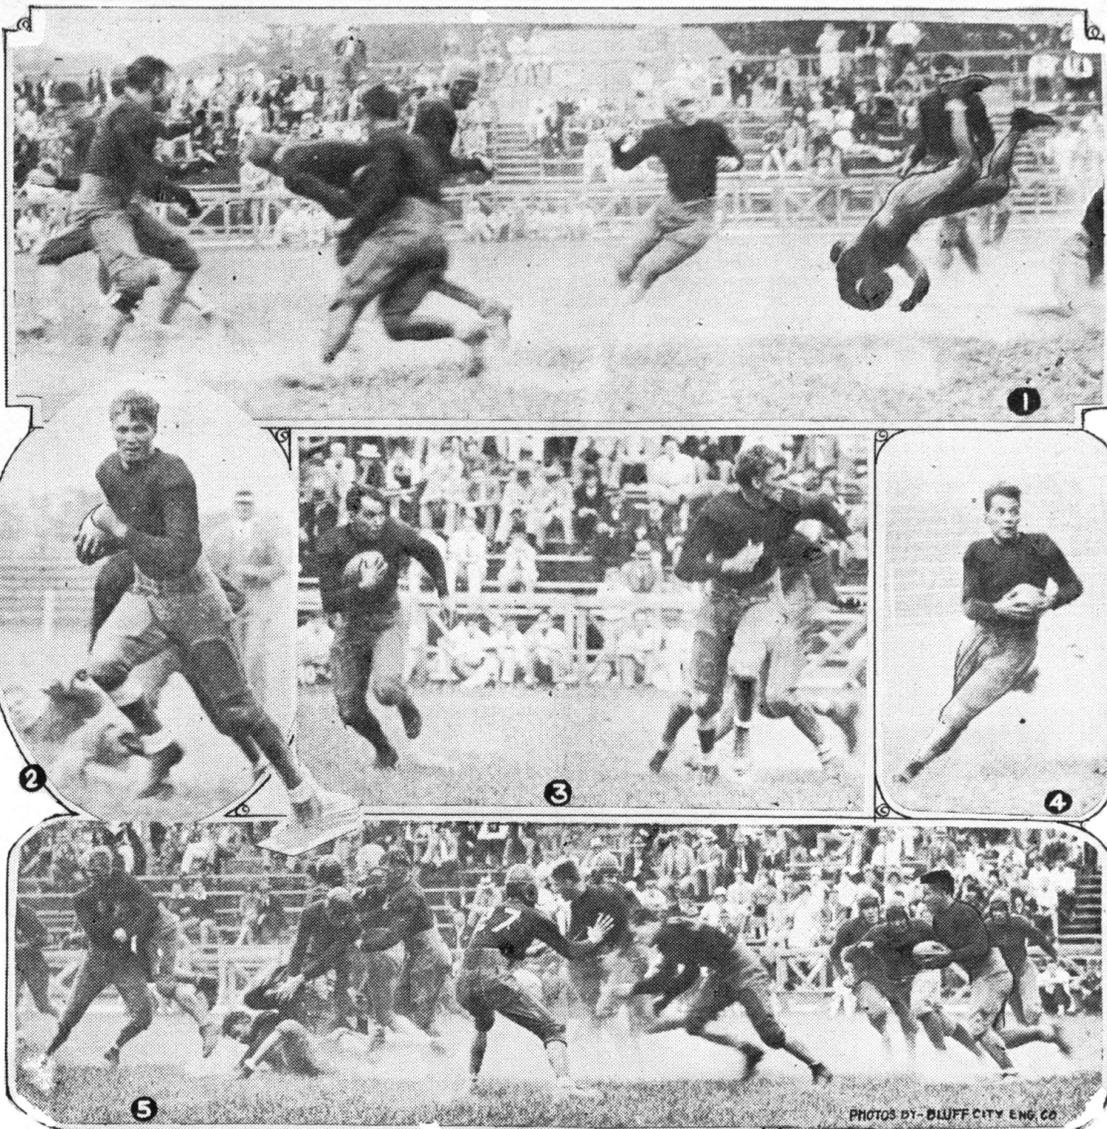

"Two years ago the freshman was equal to an army sergeant in mental acuity; last year equal to that of a captain, and this year equal to a major."

There were 190 students who took the test about a week ago. Individual scores will be posted on the bulletin board on the main floor of the science building today.

This advance in mental quality is ascribed to the selective policy which the college conforms to in admitting students. As there are more applicants than the college can accept each year, a draft of those having the best high school records is made and acceptances are in accordance.

Thru the mental examination system a student progresses on an average of so many "points" each year. The increase in "points" will likely be greater by the neophyte class this year than ever in the past, according to Dr. Atkinson.

Action Shots Of Opening Grid Game Last Saturday Against Lambuth College

Pictures tell the story, so let the above snaps record the manner in which Southwestern trod on the Lambuth Eagles. 1. Bailey of Lambuth describing an arc after being stopped by a Southwestern tackler in the first period of the game with Lambuth. The picture was snapped before the backfield man hit the ground. 2. Gip Gillespie of Southwestern starting a slice off tackle that netted a touchdown. 3. Gillespie blocking a would-be Lambuth tackler as Havron Parnell of Southwestern starts on a run around end. 4. ### DORMITORY MEN DON ROUGH GARB FOR GRID FIGHT

Stewartans Accept Challenge Sounded by Robb-Calvin

Boys from Robb and Calvin dormitories have donned their most truculent miens and have challenged the boys in Stewart Hall to settle the question of dormitory superiority via the gridiron.

Organization of the rival camps was effected last Friday, following a pow-wow held by the Robb-Calvin clan. T. M. Garrott, manassa mol-skinner, was named chief by the amalgamated dormitories. Garrott immediately flung the challenge, which was accepted both as to face value and conditions.

Stewartans Were Mum

Stewartans are mum as regards their organization. Rumors sifting thru their veil of silence indicate that trouble is impending for the campus dormitories. Arthur Dulin, captain of the Stewartans, refuses to divulge the members of his grid team.

Play in whatever is handy—overalls or knickers, is the idea. Anything that can be donned will be draped elegantly about the doughty players.

The grid contest will not climax the rivalry. Such enjoyable pastimes as pie gulping, moustache growing, twisting of the eight figures of speech, whirling adjectives, fabricating, and other well-known college diversions, will be placed on the menu.

While activities will open Saturday they will not close until school adjourns. The athletic program, besides football, lists basketball, baseball and gymnastic exhibitions, such as flips, skinned cats, and tight rope—not robe—walking.

Maybe Battle Royal

Nothing of the sort is openly admitted, but there is a likely battle pending between the rival forces on Fargason field some night soon, mimicking the outbreak last year, when Sid Davis led the Stewart-Waddell boys against the Robb-Calvin boys.

Each camp is pursuing a different publicity policy. The Robb-Calvin clan issued forth Monday with bright red ribbons that they pinned on all students gullible enough to accept them, including many co-eds.

FACULTY ELECT CLUB OFFICERS

Prof Davis Heads Club This Year

Prof. John H. Davis is the new president of the faculty club, and Prof. Ralph E. Huston succeeds to the office of secretary.

At the regular monthly informal gathering of the club last Tuesday night in the private dining hall of the Commons, members of the college faculty prepared for the year with a new group of officers.

Dr. W. O. Shewmaker is retiring president. Prof. Davis officiated as secretary of the club last year.

The aim of the club is to bring the faculty together for discussions.

Welcome, Southwestern!

Sou'wester Scribe Unearths Legend Of Life Inside Big Wooden Horse When Greeks Captured Troy

A lot of romantic guff has been attached to the famous episode of the Grecian-Trojan wars, when "Wise Guy" Ulysses thought of the bright idea of smuggling a gang of Greeks into Troy inside a wooden horse. However, we have unearthed an ancient word for word account of the scheme which makes it appear more matter-of-fact.

THE LOCAL COLOR

Scene—Inside of horse with about 25 Greeks.

Says one: "Ulysses might of thought he was a smart guy when he planned this trick, but personally I think he overlooked a lot of details. It is hot as Hades in here."

Says another: "Yeah, he might of slipped in a couple of electric fans an' a bucket of ice water."

"I sure got sucked in on this deal," quotes another. "He let loose a lot of bull of what a great stunt we was pulling off and how proud our kids would be. Personally, I ain't got no kids and don't expect none. By the way, Acusius, you ain't got a shot of corn on your hip?"

Muttered Acusius, "Nary a drop, Philax. I been on the water wagon for blows. The old lady been riding me. Sa-a-y, Boanerges, how about getting your hoof outa my back. They sure didn't waste no space in here, now did they? Scared to spend a little cash and have a little comfort. This war is a pain in the neck if you ask me. Beans, corned willy, and Greek stews. Baby, I'm sure gonna eat when I get home."

"Aaah," broke in another. "I hope they got some high class restaurants in this dump when we get in. Just watch my smoke. These Trojans ain't such bum birds after all. I shot craps with a couple last week when the M. P. wasn't lookin' and won 200 dinars and an extra suit of nifty armour."

"Bloey, but it's hot in this blamed horse. I bet they forgot the ventilation. Hey there! ignorant, quit crowdin'. What you think this is, a feed line?" Said the officer—"Pipe down, you dumb-bells, we're about to enter the gates and I don't want a sound out of you."

Deep silence for five minutes. Stage whisper by a private: "Say, looey, how about a little conversation now. Cripes, I'm dying for a smoke. Anybody got a Chesterfield?"

A moan—"The nerve of some people, wanting to smoke in this dump. I can't hardly breathe now and my leg is plumb asleep. What's all this war about, anyhow? I wished this right arm had withered at the elbow and my tongue had dropped out before I held up my hand and swore to fight for my country when I joined. This Paris guy had to get crazy over a skirt and start a row like this. Heck, he ain't the only guy that's eloped with some dame, but because he's a big cheese and stole another big cheese's wife they have to start a scrap over it. Never again for me, says I."

"Well," stated another, "You know I ain't had a letter from my dame for a month. I bet that sheik at the drug store is beatin' my time back home in Athens. Well, you can't believe a woman nohow. What's that old sayin', 'Woe and woman are one.' Well the guy that said that sure said a mouthful."

"Well, boys, we're here," cried the looey. "Let's go get 'em." And he opened the doors and thus Troy fell.

EDS AND CO-EDS PREP FOR TEAM

Order of Golf Players Ready for Season

Golf bugs at the college are organizing to do something.

Officially recognized as the Golf Association, golf-avid students, both male and female, met recently so that they could get the ball arollin'.

T. M. Garrott was chosen president; Joe Norvell, vice-president; and Eleanor Beckham, secretary-treasurer.

Due to other meetings being in progress, a majority of "hit and miss" enthusiasts were prevented from attending. Those present were Fritz Heidelberg, Joe Norvell, T. M. Garrott, Carrington Bacon, Palmer Brown, James Pace, James Melvin, Goldsby, Mitchell, Charlie Mitchiner, Price Patton, Louise Clark, Jane Hyde, Rosa May Clark, Eleanor Beckham.

The association plans to hold a tournament soon to pick the most accurate shot in the school, using stick and spheroid.

Y. M. C. A. MEETS IN CALVIN HALL

Preacher Gordon Talks Sunday at 5 P. M.

College Y. M. C. A. will hold its regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon at five o'clock in the social room of Calvin hall. The meeting will be in charge of Crawford McGivaren and "Preacher" U. S. Gordon will deliver the main address of the afternoon.

Music will be in charge of Albert Johnson. As the meeting will last only 30 minutes, a full attendance is urged.

The best kind of Roommate

Rooming with a Remington Portable adds to the enjoyment of college life. It is always ready to help with your work. Long reports and theses can be turned out in far less time, as compared with laborious long-hand methods.

Then, too, think of the greater neatness and legibility of typewritten work! Any prof, being human, will have a tendency to give this kind of work better marks.

Remington Portable is the recognized leader in sales and popularity. Smallest, lightest, most dependable, most compact standard keyboard portable. Weighs only 8½ pounds, net. Carrying case only 4 inches high.

You can buy it on easy payments.

CURIOUS IDEAS OF A VACATION HELD BY PROFS

Southwestern Instructors Do Everything from Fish to Honeymooning

Summer vacation means one thing to a student and yet another to a faculty member. While the majority of Southwestern students languished beneath the soothing, cooling, refreshing wafts of wind from electric fans, the faculty labored in classrooms, gardens and office.

Not every faculty member was so unfortunate as to be confined within the limits of a classroom, for several made long trips, two celebrating by touring Europe.

The professors themselves know what they did during the past summer. Read their version of a "vacation."

Tour England
Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Townsend traveled most of the summer, visiting England, Canada and other points of interest. They both agree that their most pleasant times were spent in southern England.

Prof. Ernest Haden worked hard all summer—so hard that he declares that he became "wedded." No, girls just to his work. He was a student at the University of Chicago—and studied many interesting subjects—The Tivoli, etc.

Prof. Sam Monk, our "ex-prof," went West, and was seen en route to Colorado Springs—at many fashionable resorts, such as Hoxie, Ark., Marked Tree, and others.

Prof. P. N. Rhodes taught at the University of Wisconsin during the summer session—then visited in Washington, D. C., and St. Petersburg, Fla.

Enjoys Honeymoon
Prof. John H. Davis had the most enjoyable vacation of all—a honeymoon abroad, spiced with a bit of study.

Miss Adelaide Gladden says that her summer was a simple one—composed of work and play. Cataloging the library books is an evidence of her work—and bridge was her means of play.

Prof. W. O. Shewmaker says he had a lovely summer. Teaching here during summer school, then enjoying the cool September, also coaching privately.

Prof. J. A. Ross, the college "Douglass Fairbanks," is from Princeton and Oxford. Nothing much can be learned of his summer but we know that he visited Alabama before coming to Memphis this fall.

Nobody's Business
Prof. W. C. Watkins, another new prof, is quite timid, but ask him about Laurel, Miss., Hallors, Va., and Evelyn. He visited in Mississippi this summer—

HEALTH

Prof Drives Taxi and Regains Vigor

NEW YORK, — (IP) — Although his name is withheld, it was learned here this week that a prominent professor of the University of Chicago, whose health was ruined by his close academic work, spent the summer in this city as a taxi driver. He left this week for his university classes, much improved in health, taxi officials declared.

and has phoned several times since. That's a fine summer—n'est ce pas?

Prof. A. T. Johnson taught this summer at the University of Richmond.

Prof. W. R. Atkinson, the students congratulate you! He worked hard this summer at Peabody and now holds the Ph.D. degree in psychology.

President Charles E. Diehl spent a busy summer—for Southwestern, then rested a bit at Battle Creek, Mich., before returning to be "boss" again this year.

Views Movies

Prof. W. R. Cooper studied at Chicago with Prof. Haden and Prof. Marion MacQueen as fellow colleagues. He says that he didn't miss a picture show a single Friday night! A true fan, no doubt. Wonder which actress is his favorite. He went to W. & L. for commencement last spring. All his girls are married and divorced, he says.

Prof. R. C. Sommerville taught at Sewanee this summer. You know that was a fine vacation, because everybody knows about Sewanee's summer school.

Prof. R. W. Hartley was vacationing in New Hampshire and Massachusetts. That alone must have been fine. And from all that can be heard, he's full of "wine, vigor, and vitality," and has started his classes off with a bang.

Prof. Martin W. Storn stayed here this summer and taught English literature and Spanish at Southwestern's summer school.

Tempts Fish

Prof. Berwind Kaufmann spent a perfect vacation in Maine doing research work in a botanical garden there. He says that he really enjoyed the fishing.

Prof. F. C. Huber stayed in Memphis and did his best to work the summer studies here at Southwestern, teaching them physics.

Prof. W. O. Swan says that his summer was most fruitful, his garden being the best in Memphis. After half a vacation gardening he then went to the University of Alabama and studied.

Greek to Somebody

Prof. R. P. Strickler, always in a hurry, didn't have much to say about his summer except that he was instructor in Greek at Peabody. When asked if he had a good time, he answered: "Good time, well, not much."

Dean Eli D. McDougall spent his vacation doing work for the college. Besides traveling over the south making talks about the college, he attended a young peoples' conference at Brookhaven, Miss., where he had charge of vespers services.

Prof. A. P. Kelso spent a nice season during the summer teaching at the West Tennessee State Normal, and made a trip thru North Carolina during the latter part of the summer.

Largest Number Of Out-of-Town Students Enrolled For Fall Term

Total of Memphis Students Not As Great As Last Year. Aggregate for Year May Reach The 500 Mark

Southwestern college will have the largest number of out-of-town students enrolled this year in the history of the school.

A recent tabulation of both local and dormitory students show that there are not as many Memphis students as last year, but a decided increase of outside students.

The last compilation of students matriculated shows the 400 mark has been reached. Not a day passes but what more students register for the coming school year. By the time all the "stragglers" arrive it is estimated by Sydney Cameron, assistant registrar, there will be from 450 to 475 students at Southwestern.

Many students enroll for the second semester, beginning Feb. 1. After midyear registration the student body will probably reach the 500 mark, says Cameron.

Following is a complete list of students registered thru last Saturday:

We believe that thinking people should ponder these truths.

Public Utilities render services that are essential to modern living standards.

These services directly contribute to the convenience and comfort of people hourly each day. They have raised living standards, brought us up to a new plane of material existence; and are, in fact, the agencies by which modern living standards are maintained.

In addition to their contribution to the convenience and comfort of people so constantly, utilities are economic factors of important worth to their communities—stimulating channels of trade and business activities with their large pay-rolls and immense purchases of supplies, as well as being large tax-payers helping to defray expenses of government.

These are facts that educated people should understand.

TENNIS PLAYERS PREP FOR TEAMS

Veterans Not Returning Leave Team Vacancies

Three of the four tennis courts at Southwestern, located north of the science building, are now in good playing condition. Work of getting the fourth court into shape is being pushed. It will be ready for use within the next few days, making four good courts.

J. H. "Dumpy" Beall, president of the Tennis club, invites every student at Southwestern to use these courts. There is no charge for use of the courts.

Several members of last year's team are missing this year and their places will have to be filled. Likely prospects for the team this year will include: Oswald McCown and Will Holloman, who were members of the team year before last. Other prospects who are showing up well are: Fred Underwood, Mike Wailes and Dumpy Beall. This year's team will have to be selected from the above prospects.

If sufficient interest is shown in this sport there will be a fall tennis tournament to determine the champion of the student body.

Tommy Frist, a freshman, is in charge of the courts this year. He will keep the courts lined off and in good condition.

Anyone wishing to buy tennis balls can secure Wright and Ditson balls for 40 cents from Dumpy Beall. This is cost price of these balls.

FALL ELEUSINIAN CELEBRATION BEING PLANNED BY CHI OMEGAS

Local Chapter Will Be Host to Chi Omega Delegates On October 5 From Mississippi, Arkansas and Tennessee

Elaborate plans are being made by the Chi Omegas in Memphis and the Tri-States for their celebration of the Fall Eleusinian on October 8. Preparations for this event are in the hands of the Memphis alumnae chapter who are trying to make this luncheon larger than the Spring Eleusinian Dinner, for which the active Memphis chapter at Southwestern made all arrangements for last April.

The luncheon will be at the Hotel Peabody at 1 P. M. Many Chi Omegas from Mississippi, Tennessee and Arkansas are making plans to spend that week-end here as guests of their Memphis sisters.

Southwestern Chi Omegas will give the first of a series of social affairs the afternoon of October 7, in the log-cabin chapter house, when tea will be given complimentary to the sorority patronesses. Mrs. Brinkley Snowden, Leslie Thornton, W. S. Lawrence, Dr. Charles

E. Diehl, Robert Heard, Dr. C. L. Townsend, and Miss Molly Rhea Cobb, president of the Memphis alumnae chapter, together with the week-end guests of the Memphis sisters, will be special guests. The tea will mark the first of a program of socials for this year.

ANNOUNCE Y. W. MEETING DATES

Alternate Wednesdays With Chi Delta Society

Dorothy Green will be the representative-at-large from the college Y. W. C. A. She was chosen at a called meeting last Wednesday afternoon, and will represent the college at the national Y. W. C. A. meet.

The meeting date has been established at 1:15 p. m. Wednesday of every other week, alternating with Chi Delta. The "Y. W." will have the preference and will hold the first regular meeting next Wednesday afternoon.

The program for the year includes song services, an elaborate Christmas pageant, talks, and discussion groups.

An open house will be held at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters on Monroe avenue tonight at 8 o'clock.

A committee composed of Elizabeth Laughlin, Frances Fisher, Anne Beth Gary, Elizabeth Norton and Rosa May Clark, represent the local group that will keep in constant touch with the national organization.

More than 70 co-eds have joined, with the campaign just under way.

CHI DELTA PHI HOLDS MEETING

Will Gather At A. O. Pi House to Plan Year's Work

First Chi Delta Phi meeting of the year will be held at the A.O.Pi sorority house soon.

Plans for the coming year will be discussed by members of the literary society.

Catherine Underwood, president, and Sara Johnson, chairman of the program committee, will present the present outlook to the club.

FORMER CO-EDS ARE NOW MARMS

Pedagogy Calls Numerous Girls Who Attended Here

Teaching, loafing, taking higher courses, seem to make the strongest appeal to both grads and undergrads who have attended Southwestern.

Following is a partial list of many who were familiar characters on the local campus during the past few years:

Mary Frances Phillips is attending Galloway College.

Maurine Miller is teacher of Latin in the Blytheville high school.

Laura May McKeen is studying at U. of T.

Frances Henry is at the University of Kentucky.

Katherine Lockwood is taking a business course.

Frances Beazly is organist at Idlewild church.

Katherine Cale is attending Grenada College.

Mary Wilbern Dabbs is at the University of Virginia.

Jenny Taylor is teaching school in Summerville, Tenn.

Bessie Williamson, Dorothy Lee Corner, Mildred Rainwater, Dena Northcross, Elizabeth Baker, and Elizabeth Dickinson are reported to be loafing.

Bennie Bell McCraw is in Europe.

Polly Griffith is teaching in Memphis, as are Kitura Phillips, Eleanor Richmond, Hilda Scales and Martha Ambrose.

Others who have joined the teaching force are: Louise Orrell, near Clarksville; Irene Clardy, in Clarksville high school; Mary Culberson, at Somerville high school; Polly Minor and Margaret Cobb, in Corinth, Miss.; Lydia Chapman in Columbus, Ga., and Marion Blalock, near Holly Springs.

Givin Cook and Louise Harwood are making their debut in Memphis.

Laura Byers will spend the winter in New York, as will Virginia Smith, who is taking a course at Columbia on a masters degree, and Sara Ridley who is taking an art course.

Elizabeth Hart, last year grad, is in Gadsden.

Dorothy Miller returned to "Ole Miss" this year.

Peggy Tate is convalescing after an operation this summer.

Pledges Chi Omega

Mary Wilberson, a June graduate of Miss Hutchinson's Preparatory school, pledged Chi Omega at the University of Wisconsin, according to word received by Memphis Chi Omegas last Sunday night.

4 SORORITIES PREPARED FOR COLLEGE YEAR

All Vacancies Filled of Members Who Failed to Return to School

Chapter offices in the four Southwestern sororities are now complete, with vacancies caused by old students failing to return to college, being filled.

Each sorority has elected girls from the chapters who are veterans in the ways of sororities at the college. Each is peculiarly fitted to fill the office to which she has been chosen.

By chronological order in which the sororities were established at Southwestern, the officers for the coming year are:

CHI OMEGA
Mary Morrill Allen, president; Rosa May Clark, vice-president; Amalie Fair, secretary; Louise Rector Clark, treasurer; Eleanor Beckham, chaplain, Mary Frances Faires, "H."

The first Chi Omega chapter was founded at the University of Arkansas in 1895, with the local Chi Omega chapter receiving its charter in May, 1922.

KAPPA DELTA
Elizabeth Carnes, president; Virginia Hogg, vice-president; Elizabeth Norton, secretary; Sara Johnson, treasurer; Janet Moody, assistant treasurer; Ethel Brown, editor.

The K.D.'s received their charter from the national sorority just a month before the college moved from Clarksville to Memphis. They were officially installed in May, 1925.

ALPHA OMICRON PI
Catherine Underwood, president; Virginia Winkelman, vice-president; Dorothy Vanden, secretary; Mary Evelyn Wailes, corresponding secretary; Minnie Lundy, treasurer.

The first A.O.Pi chapter was founded at Barnard College, N. Y., in the year 1898. The local chapter was established in November, 1925.

CHI ALPHA
Catherine Richey, president; Sara Moore, vice-president; Frances Fisher, secretary; Janie Cobb, treasurer.

Chi Alpha is the only local sorority on the campus. The chapter was founded at Southwestern in January, 1926.

LOVE BALM

Miss Elizabeth Tonsils Gives Free Advice To Lovelorn

Dear Miss Tonsils,
I am a senior boy who has been in "Baby Love." Now what worries me is that she has seen fit to transfer her Alma Mater. Not being one of the type that believes that absence makes the heart grow fonder, I fear that she may forget me. What can I do to retain her love?
LONESOME.

Dear Lonesome,
If the mail is delivered every day at Ole Miss, it might be well to keep her posted daily. Have a correspondent at the university—one whom you can trust, who will tell you if she wears your pin all the time. If the news is not favorable then it will be time to worry.
Miss Tonsils.

Dear Miss Tonsils,
I'm a freshman boy and I would like very much to have a date with one of the upperclass co-eds. Now, being very bashful, I don't know whether she would give me a date or not, and I'm afraid to ask her. Also, would she object to my freshman hat? and should I ask her where she lives or try to find out some other way?
"FRESHIE."

Dear Frenchie, pardon, Freshie,
Most co-eds (upperclassmen) have a weakness for freshmen. You would be very shy indeed if you threw away such an opportunity just because you were doubtful of the outcome. Yes, you should cultivate asking girls where they live. It's good practice, but just don't get them mixed up. I don't think she would object to the lid accessories.

A. O. PI SORORITY ADMITS PLEDGES

Eleanor Clinton and Carolyn Stockley are Initiated

Alpha Omicron Pi sorority formally admitted Pledges Eleanor Clinton and Carolyn Stockley into the active chapter on Sept. 22 at the lodge.

Both co-eds were eligible for initiation by the Girls' Pan-Hellenic ruling at the conclusion of the spring term, but chapter rulings regarding initiation of pledges prevented this until this term.

Stewart Pledges S. A. E.
Walter "Brute" Stewart, a Bob-cat of last year, pledged Sigma Alpha Epsilon at the University of Illinois.

GRANT CHARTER TO OLD SOCIETY

Pre-Civil War Club Goes Chi Omega

Nu Gamma, of Chi Omega, was installed in Calver Stockton college, the oldest co-educational institution west of the Mississippi river, on May 13 and 14, by Mrs. Vesta Lockwood Watson, national treasurer.

The charter was granted to the local Zeta Lamda Sigma and during the banquet that night members recalled in happy and witty vein the early days of this group, which was in existence before the Civil War.

Nu Gamma is the first of the local group at Calver Stockton to become a national, and a most cordial and good will has been manifested by both faculty and Pan-Hellenic.

CHAPTER AT VIRGINIA
The Lamda Gamma chapter of Chi Omega was installed at the University of Virginia, at Charlottesville, on June 4, 1927, as the first national women's fraternity on the campus.

The charter was granted to the local Theta Sigma Phi, and was installed by Mrs. Vesta Hockwood Watson, national treasurer.

Absent Minded Co-ed Turns in Fire Alarm While Mailing Letter

WELLESLEY, Mass.—(IP)—Uncle Josh was the first but not the last to call out the fire department by posting a letter in an alarm box. A new student at Wellesley college, absent-mindedly, according to her own version, called out the department here when she mistook the fire box for a mail box.

Kappa Sigs Guests Of Fred Underwood

Phi Chapter of Kappa Sigma were entertained at dinner last Friday night as the guests of Fred W. Underwood. Only those of the active chapter were present. Following dinner all went to East End to conclude the evening.

Propose Law School To Cover City Block

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—(IP)—A new law school to occupy an entire city block, is to be erected by Yale University at a cost of three and one half million dollars. An additional million dollars has been set aside for the maintenance of the school.

LYNX OPPOSE CRIMSON TIDE TODAY

Southwesterners Enter "Big Time" With 'Bamy Boys

Eyes of Nation on Outcome of Contest When Lynx Play Champs

Coach Jess Neely and his Southwestern Lynx will meet their strongest opponents of the season Friday when they tackle Alabama, the famous Crimson Tide, and holders of the Southern football title last fall at Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Alabama has a great record, being undefeated for the past three seasons. They opened their season in familiar style by defeating Millsaps, the Lynx Thanksgiving Day opponents, 47 to 0.

The Lynx showed signs of having a strong team in their opening battle last week with Lambuth College but the teamwork appeared a little ragged, especially in the opening period. Coach Neely and his assistant Pos Elam will work this week in ironing out the rough spots made evident in Saturday's game.

The team will leave for Tuscaloosa Thursday morning, arriving there in time to have a workout on Alabama's field the same day. The game will be played Friday, with the Lynx returning Saturday morning. It is expected that Neely will carry about 25 men on the trip.

The showing of the Lynx backfield against Lambuth was particularly pleasing, showing great improvement over last season. Havorn Parnell, former Bethel College star, looked good, running for nice gains and playing well on defense. Hawke seemed to have improved since last season as have Frank Trelawney and "Gip" Gillespie.

Joe Savery, the Tupelo, Miss. youngster who has replaced Ken Clemons at tackle, who quit school, also looked good.

The Lynx will return to Fargason Field the following Saturday to meet Birmingham-Southern.

The Different Proportions Of Bobcat Grid Team

Felix Schneider "Dootchy" Sherman James Knight

The above pictures show the heaviest and fattest members of the football squad at Southwestern, along with the smallest and tallest man.

On the left is Felix Schneider, 21, freshman, 5 feet 10 inches tall, tips the scales at 265 pounds and has a 48-inch waist. Special football breeches had to be made for him.

In the center is "Dootchy" Sherman, freshman, 125 pounds, the smallest man on the squad. He has a good chance to make the backfield.

On the right is James Knight, freshman, 6 feet 3 inches, tallest member.

Eagles Dip Wings As Lynx Gridmen Win Game, 40-12

Lambuth College Boys Unable to Break Thru Strength of Locals

Southwestern Lynx opened their 1927 grid season Saturday at Fargason Field with a 40 to 12 victory over the Lambuth College Eagles from Jackson, Tenn. While the Lynx rolled up a big score, they failed to impress the crowd of witnesses: except in flashes. The start of the game was slow—the Lynx apparently being unable to get together. The first score came as a result of a touchback: the Eagle center making a bad pass over his own goal. A few minutes later, Southwestern scored its first touchdown, Gillespie carrying the ball over and kicking goal.

Hawke tallied another touchdown in the second period, and towards the end of the half crossed Lambuth's goal again. Both tries for goal failed. Lambuth scored its first counter in this period on two end runs and a long pass, but also failed to make the extra point. Clark, Lambuth fullback, scored the touchdown.

Neely used his reserves in the third period and the teams battled on even terms each scoring another touchdown. Lambuth scored on a pass from Simmons to Bailey but the Lynx evened matters up when the varsity returned to the game and Hawke dashed 19 yards around end for a score, and kicked goal. Hawke, Bobby Lloyd and Havorn Parnell each added another counter in the final period, the game ending 40 to 12.

Parnell, Ora Johnson, Hawke, Bobby Lloyd, Dulin, Henry Waring, Baumgarten, and Joe Davis played well for Southwestern while Bailey, Norman and Overall shone for Lambuth.

Lineup and summary:

S. W. (40)	Position	Lambuth (12)
Waring	L.E.	Gardner
King	L.T.	White
Pickering	L.G.	Stanley
Baumgarten	C.	Norman (C.)
Dulin (C.)	R.G.	Burkett
Savery	R.T.	Ferguson
Joe Davis	R.E.	Overall
Lloyd	Q.B.	Johnson
Gillespie	L.H.	Simmons
Parnell	R.H.	Bailey
Trelawney	R.B.	Clark

Score by periods:
Southwestern 9 12 0 19—40
Lambuth 0 6 6 0—12

Exonerate President

KENT, Ohio.—(IP)—After undergoing several months of fire from faculty, students and alumni of the institution, Dr. David A. Anderson, president of Kent State College here, has been exonerated by the board of trustees. Anderson got himself in hot water when he fired a number of instructors last year.

SPEAKING OF ATHLETICS

By Baumgarten

From one extreme to the other. The Lynx football team opened its season last Saturday with a 40 to 12 victory over the Lambuth College eleven from Jackson, Tenn. Lambuth had a very light team and was easily outweighed by their opponents. This week the Lynx meet a team—which is a "team," in the University of Alabama. The Crimson Tide, undefeated for three seasons, presents a line averaging about 200 this year and a fast backfield. The Lynx will go into this tilt giving away a lot of weight and experience. It will be the first game in which the Southwestern players will have a chance to show their real fight and ability, as they are completely outclassed, according to the dope.

The first casualty caused by the new rules was suffered in the Lynx first game. The victim was "Shorty" Bolton, well-known photographer, who risks his camera every year snapping pictures of the players. "Shorty" was all set to get a snap of the first touchdown of the season but forgot the goal posts had been placed 10 yards behind the goal line. Bolton set up his camera when the Lynx threatened to score. Sure enough, Gillespie dashed over the goal line but failed to go as far as the goal post so "Shorty" missed his picture.

According to the showing of Lynx opponents for this season there are some tough contests ahead. All the Lynx future grid enemies came thru with victories Saturday with the exception of Millsaps, who took a beating from Alabama. Even West Tennessee Teachers, for years a weak sister, showed a strong team, winning by a 48 to 0 margin. Ole Miss, Birmingham-Southern, Alabama, and Henderson-Brown all won handily in their opening games, which makes it hard on Southwestern.

In speaking of Southwestern athletes, there is one who should not be overlooked in Ora Johnson, more familiarly known as "Amigo." Ora has been out for football, baseball and basketball ever since he has been a student in school. He has made letters in baseball and basketball and except for his small proportions would make good in football. He is always out at practice and in Saturday's game showed he had ability despite his size. Ora seldom gets in a game but he has that old Southwestern spirit of sticking with whatever he starts.

Shelby Schneider Reports To Neely

Star C. B. C. Three-letter Man Enters College

Coach Jess Neely received another valuable backfield candidate in the fold this week when Shelby "Red" Schneider entered school last Monday.

Schneider is a Memphis boy and starred with Christian Brothers College in local football. He made All-Memphis fullback in 1922-23-24, helping the Brothers win the city title during those three years. He also made All-Memphis in baseball at third base and in basketball at guard. He captained all three teams at the Brothers.

Following his graduation he entered Furman University at Greenville, South Carolina. He captained the freshman team, playing fullback, and last year was a star on the Furman varsity. His biggest feat was running 98 yards for a touchdown against the University of Georgia, winning the game.

"Red" should prove a valuable addition to the Lynx.

Must Register for Re-exams By Oct. 3

All students taking re-exams must register for these at the registrar's office before October 3.

Dr. W. R. Atkinson, registrar, will post the time and place for these exams at a later date.
