BULLDOGS AND LYNX SET FOR GRID TILT

STRUM A DIRGE FOR THE LAST OF 'THE PALS'

Thespians Change Name of Organization

FIRST PLAY PICKED

Hold Try-Outs Soon For Initial Cast

"A Successful Calamity," a comedy-farce, will be the first production of the season by the Southwestern Players, student dramatic club. The play will be presented in Hardie Auditorium about Nov. 15.

Try-outs for the eleven characters in the "Calamity" will be held this week under the guidance of Clifford Penland, a successful Memphis play director, who has been chosen to lead the local thespians. There will be seven boys and four girls in the principal roles.

FUNNY BUSINESS

The "Successful Calamity" is about a millionaire who wants to stay home sometimes, but his family won't let him. The subterfuge that he resorts to proves his ruin.

Walker Wellford will be in charge of the lighting and stage, being assisted by Edmund McGivaren and Franklyn Kelley.

The dramatic club is starting the new season with a new name. The old name of "The Pals" has been discarded in favor of "The Southwestern Players."

Members of both Theta Alpha Phi and Southwestern players will be guests of the Lyceum theater management Saturday night.

SAVERY KILLED AS CAR WRECKS

Crushed When Car Goes Over Embankment

Joe Savery, 24, was killed Sunday night in an automobile accident just outside of Tupelo, Miss., on the Bankhead Highway. Young Savery and his friend, Porter Long, were driving his coupe at a rapid rate of speed when they suddenly came upon a wagon going the same direction. Unable to stop in time to avoid a crash Savery swerved to pass the wagon and in doing so applied brakes. It is thought the front wheels became locked so that he could not pull back on the road, but went over the embankment. The car turned over and the top being down, Savery's body was caught between the steering wheel and the ground, crushing him to death

Savery played with the Southwestern football team for most of the 1927 football season, filling a tackle position regularly. He was a husky gridder, and was instrumental in the success of the Lynx on the football field.

Savery was in Memphis about a week ago in his capacity as assistant coach of the Tupelo Military Academy team. T. M. I. played the Southwestern freshmen at Fargason Field.

A. O. PI SORORITY HOST AT DANCE

Alpha Omicron Pi sorority will hold open house in their chapter lodge on Sorority Row next Friday night on Southwestern's campus.

The entire student body has been invited to attend.

Chaperones for the occasion will be Dr. and Mrs. P. N. Rhodes, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lake.

Several members of the alumnae chapter will be special guests, including Misses Polly Gilfillan, Martha Ambrose, Elizabeth Laughlin, Mary Frances Young, Louise Harwood, Louise Russell, and Mrs. James Rainer.

Ole Miss Here

Two teams of Ole Miss football players practiced on Fargason Field last Thursday afternoon.

The teams were on their way to Knoxville, where they played the University of Tennessee last Saturday.

Goes Under Knife

Charlotte Bruce, a sophomore co-ed, was operated on for appendicitis at Methodist hospital last Sunday afternoon. Hospital attendants say that she is doing nicely.

CO-EDS SCARE OFF BURGLARS

Beckie's Scream Routs Dormitory Raiders

Three bold, bad, burly burglars were scared from pillaging the garage behind the girls' dormitory at 1946 Tutwiler at 2 o'clock last Wednesday morning by the adroitness of four Southwestern co-eds.

Hearing an eerie noise in the garage, the girls telephoned police. Two coppers arrived shortly afterward.

As the minions of the law sped toward the back yard, they chanced to peep in a rear window. Eleanor Becknam, keeping a sharp eye peeled for possible excitement, was standing in this same window. The cops flashed their lights, and Becky screamed. This alarmed the bold, bad, burly burglars, and, while the cops were in a dilemma whether to chase burglars or linger longer, the pillagers vanished.

Finally, when the cops broke loose from their reverie, they found no trace of the intruders. Several tires had been taken off a car in the garage, but had been left.

"They were such good-looking cops," Beckie commented, after the excitement had died down. The cops could not be reached for a statement of why they let the burglars get away.

SINGERS PLAN TOUR XMAS

Will Include Miss. and West Tennessee

Southwestern gleesters are planning a tour of northern Mississippi and West Tennessee during the coming Christmas holidays, according to Frederick Heidelberg, newly elected president.

Under the directorship of Mr. Eric Haden, associate professor of French, the college glee club is preparing for an active musical season.

The premier appearance of the season will be in conjunction with the production of the Southwestern dramatic club early in November when the play, "A Successful Calamity," will be given in Hardie Auditorium.

Among the talented men singers are Bill Ford, basso; Walker Wellford, Billy Hughes and Heidelberg, baritone; John Johnson, Sonny Beard and James Spencer, first tenor; Mike Wailes, Roger Wright and Albert Keller, second tenor. More than 25 eds are in the club.

Gophers Rely On Tocsin For Luck

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—An old Indian war drum, one that sounded the tocsin for the last Indian uprising in Minnesota, will be brought to Minneapolis to "help the Gophers scalp Chicago" Saturday, and in the course of time will take its place beside the little brown jug in the football traditions of the University of Minnesota. Its new role is to be that of a "touchdown tom-tom."

Up until Tuesday that drum has been one of the most treasured tribal possessions of the pillager band of Chippewa Indians near Walker, Minn. For more than 70 years it has throbbed out its songs at every Indian festivity.

Hallowe'en Party

More than 100 invitations have been extended by Miss Mary Douglass Watkins, a Chi Omega, to a Hallowe'en party at her home on South Parkway the night of Oct. 26.

Music will be furnished by the Henry Ferris orchestra.

FROSH CHOOSE OFFICERS FOR THE NEW YEAR

Davidson Is Choice For Class President

PAUL JONES IS V.-P.

Miss Hawk Wins Run-off For Sec-Treas.

Southwestern freshmen have blossomed out into a recognized group among the student ranks by organizing and electing June Davidson, president; Paul Jones vice-president, and Virginia Hawk, secretary-treasurer. These students will hold office during the rest of the present school year.

Three states are represented in the "big three." Davidson lives at Holly Grove, Ark., Paul Jones at Corinth, Miss., and Virginia Hawk in Memphis, being a graduate of Central High.

So spirited was the battle of votes that a run-off was necessary between Virginia Hawk, Bill Bearson and Henry Delay for the office of secretary-treasurer, with Miss Hawk finally winning.

On the initial nominations for the office of president, Davidson, Joe Hyde and Bob Darden were pitted against each other. Davidson won. Paul Jones, Bill Frazer and Virginia Davis were candidates for vice-president, with Jones being the victor. Miss Hawk, Bill Bearson, Henry Delay, Bill Puddephat and Meeks Hinson were aspirants for the honor of secretary-treasurer, with Miss Hawk winning in the run-off by a large majority.

As an added attraction to their station on the campus as freshmen, the boys will wear a natty skull cap of red and black felt until next June. The girls will be under the supervision of the Women's Sanhedrin Council each Wednesday, wearing prescribed garment.

CO-EDS FORM RIDING CLUB

Memphis Woman Backing Girls in Venture

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Garner, owner of a large stable of riding horses in Memphis, an equestrian club is being organized among the co-eds of Southwestern.

The girls will be divided into groups of ten, and will meet every two weeks for instruction in the art of scientific riding. The freshettes and upperclass co-eds will be in different groups.

Besides furnishing the horses, Mrs. Garner will also give lessons in horsemanship.

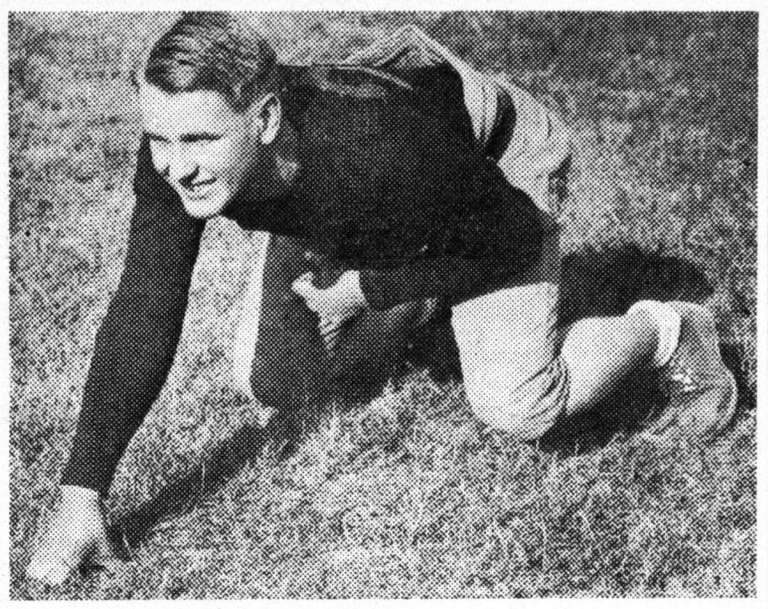
Sloan Dies After Operation Oct. 10

Stanley Sloan, a senior at Southwestern last year, died following an abdominal operation at Phoenix, Ariz., on Oct. 10, according to word which has just reached the campus.

Sloan was forced to leave college about two months before graduation on account of tuberculosis of the lungs. In a letter written to the Tau Delta Gamma fraternity on Oct. 7, Sloan said that he was improving rapidly and expected to return to college by next Feb.

While a student here Stanley made a name for himself both on the campus and in Memphis as a singer. He was a member of Tau Delta Gamma fraternity.

"Ole Lady" Going Great



—Courtesy The Evening Appeal

Flint "Ole Lady" Liddon, star lineman of the Lynx, has been playing a great game at guard this season. Liddon is the jack of all trades on the team, being able to work at guard, center or end, with equal facility. His play in the West Kentucky and Georgetown games was unusually brilliant.

COUNCIL HAS PAINFUL TIME

Has Hard Time Settling Current Problems

All hopes of Southwestern students chartering a special train during the present football season have been dissipated. Members of the student council planned on securing a special train for the Lynx game at Chattanooga against the University of Chattanooga.

At the luncheon-meeting of the council Wednesday it was found that it would cost at least $20 for each student, and 125 tickets must be sold before the train can be secured.

The council authorized the payment of $100 to the Memphis Engraving Company to cover indebtedness of the 1927 Lynx annual with that firm which has never been paid. The sum is to come out of the contingent fees.

Dr. Charles E. Diehl, an honorary member of the council, read a letter from the Memphis Street Railway Company, in which the conduct of freshmen last Saturday night in swamping a Faxon street car was outlined. It was charged that many of the freshmen came in the back way and didn't pay their fares, that they turned out all lights, were ultra boisterous, and interfered with the manipulating of the car. Crawford McGivaren, council president, and June Davidson, new freshman president, were appointed to investigate and visit the railway officials and make all reparations necessary.

DAUGHTER BORN TO THE BUDERS

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buder, both former Southwestern students, are the proud parents of a daughter, born last Friday night at Methodist hospital.

The little girl has been given the name of her mother.

Both mother and child are doing nicely, hospital attendants say.

Dr. Jetton Speaks

The most entertaining chapel talk of the school year was given last Wednesday morning by Dr. R. L. Jetton, pastor of Covington, Tenn. Besides giving students some fatherly advice, Dr. Jetton told of amusing events in his college days, when he started to school with $16 and graduated with $90.

No Grief Heard As Straws Are Burned In Downtown Fire

Gallons of grief were not shed last Saturday night when the freshmen paraded Main street in their night attire and stopped in Court Square long enough to burn their straw katies, while the orchestra rendered the requiem.

The Lynx defeated Georgetown last Saturday, which was the second home victory of the season—and the annual death knell of the straws!

Natty black and red skull caps are now adorning the plentiful pates of the freshmen class, and will continue to keep their hair down until next June relieves them of the cognomen of freshman.

STATES RIGHTS IS CLUB TOPIC

Quibblers Argue While Sipping Coffee

The once important question of "States Rights" will be argued pro and con Thursday night by the Quibbler Debating Society while members sip cups of coffee.

Before it is over, there is no telling where the cups will find a lasting resting place, but, nevertheless, Mr. Lewis Prestwood Watkins will enliven the argument by taking an affirmative stand for centralization of all states under one federal authority. Malcolm Perry will defend the individual rights of the states.

Freshmen Charles F. Simmons and Ward Harris will also speak. Abe Fortas will preside, and judges will be chosen from among those present.

Bode Painted Red By Freshmen Band

The Kappa Delta open house party was turned into a near riot last week when freshmen spirited Donald Bode from the dance floor and painted him with mercurocrome until he resembled what they termed an "Indian chief."

Under the guise of someone wanting him outside, Bode left the company of upperclassmen and investigated. On stepping into the dark, he was seized, muffled, and carted away. He was brought back to the lodge in regular "Indian" fashion.

Freshmen "plan" to initiate certain other upperclassmen into the ancient and honorable order of "Sachems" before the year is over.

REV. GORDON TALKS TUESDAY

Rev. U. S. Gordon, assistant pastor of Second Presbyterian church, will address the men of the college next Tuesday night in Calvin Social room.

This will probably be his last appearance before the college Y. M. C. A., as he leaves soon to accept the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church, of Gainesville, Fla., on Nov. 1. The University of Florida is located at Gainesville.

Blotters Saturday

The new student directory blotters will be at the Supply Store Saturday ready for distribution. They will sell at ten cents each.

NEW OPPONENT FOR LOCALS TO TRY LUCK HERE

Union University Ready For Punishment

DOPE FAVORS CATS

Farnsworth Not Expected To Get In Game

BY VERN BAUMGARTEN

Union University, of Jackson, Tennessee, will invade Fargason Field Saturday afternoon to try their luck with Neely Mallory's and Pos Elam's Lynx. This will be the third S. I. A. A. tilt in three weeks for the rampaging Lynx, who were defeated by West Kentucky State Teachers and then showed a reversal of form in swamping the highly rated Georgetown team.

According to the dope, the Lynx will be big favorites as Georgetown marched over the Union Bulldogs two weeks ago for a 45 to 6 victory, but the Bulldogs have discovered their weaknesses in that game and have a highly improved football team, as was shown by a stubbornly contested game with Kentucky Wesleyan last Saturday. The Kentucky team won by a narrow margin of 12 to 7. Union won its opening game over Jonesboro college, score 44 to 0.

The Southwestern Lynx showed Memphis fans in their last tilt that they have a team to be reckoned with. The weaknesses so evident against West Kentucky are gone. "Light Horse" Harry Walton took care of the defensive fullback position in a capable manner while Hightower, Farnsworth, Pittman and Walton showed some high class ground gaining. Bobby Lloyd, the diminutive quarter, called signals like a veteran and showed some real blocking.

DODE WILL NOT PLAY

Captain Dode Farnsworth will probably not play this Saturday, his shoulder being dislocated last week. Coach Elam will keep Dode for the Chattanooga game unless it is absolutely necessary to use him.

Otherwise, the Lynx lineup will be intact, with John Porter and Percy Brown at ends, Lorin King, (the headlock expert) and "Big" Elder at tackles, Jefferson Davis and "Ole Lady" Liddon at guards and Wilson "Feet" Foote at center.

Union has a former Southwestern student in the lineup in "Red" Claywood, quarterback, who tried out for Lynx in 1926 for a short time. The Bulldogs have two big tackles in Parker and Largent, and a speedy end and star defensive man in Captain Dick Stewart. Fisher, Caywood and R. Stewart are all rated as dependable ball toters.

GAME STARTS AT 3

The game will start at 3 p. m.

The probable lineups will be:

Southwestern	Position	Union
Brown	R. E	Reed
Elder	R. T.	Parker
Davis	R. G.	Hellen
Foote	C.	Miller
Liddon	L. G	Koonce
King	L. T.	Largent
Porter	L. E.	W. Stewart (C)
Lloyd	Q. B	Caywood
Hightower	R. H.	R. Stewart
Walton	L. H.	Welch
Pittman	F. B.	Fisher

COLLEGE Y. W. C. A. HOLDS DISCUSSION

The program of the Y. W. C. A. meeting last Wednesday was spiced by the membership dividing into three groups, each discussing various topics of general interest.

The first group was led in round table discussion by Catherine Underwood, who delivered a talk on "College Friendships." Frances Gray conducted the second group discussion on the subject of "Social Service." The third group dwelt on the topic of "World Fellowship," under the direction of Pauline Jones.

Informal Tea

An informal tea will be given Friday afternoon by Chi Omega sorority in the chapter house. Among the special guests will be Mrs. Charles E Diehl, Mrs. L. H. Graves and the alumnae chapter.

"PRODIGY" ENROLLED HERE

Freshman Is Just 15 Years Old, While Average Age Is 19

Southwestern college boasts of one of the youngest collegians in the United States. Freshman Joseph William Wells, a graduate of Central high school, Memphis, is the "child prodigy," being but 15 years old. His fifteenth birthday was on last August 30. He was born in 1913.

Student ages range from 15 to 25, with those 19 holding the greater number.

There are 159 co-eds and 269 eds at Southwestern this year. They are not give their ages.

Weekly Novelette

Haunting strains of Pumperdinck's "Cat-fight Carols" drawn from the strings of the great detective, Sheerluck Bones' Badenvarious violin tripped into his private skinctorium.

"What can I do for you, my dear stenographer?" asked the great detective, throwing down his violin. "How do I know you are a stenographer? Because of your short hand. Ahem.

With a rather indignant look at her hands, the young lady began.

"An effort is being made to poison my entire family," said the young stenographer. "I suspect my Aunt Tabitha. She always had her eye on the grandfather's clock. Just look at this meat!"

She flung down a pound and five-eighths of uncooked ham all spotted over with some mysterious substance.

"A-hah!" ejaculated the great detective, pounding upon it with his proof glass and scrutinizing the minutely mottled meat.

"It it parsenic?" asked the young stenographer anxiously.

"No," answered the great detective.

"Is it bigoshal of molassium?"

"Nope."

"Is it moosic acid?"

"No, ma'am."

"Then, it must be dyanhide of perkase."

"Wrong every time", laughed the great detective. "The butcher merely dropped the ham on his sawdust floor as he was wrapping it."

It was a pretty mystery while it lasted.

A Loyal Friend Passes On

Death has made another call and has carried away Stanley Sloan, a student at Southwestern last year. About two months before he was to graduate, Sloan discovered that he was a victim of tuberculosis of the lungs. Upon the urgent advice of doctors, he immediately went to Phoenix, Ariz., where he secured the best of medical attention.

Only last week Stanley wrote to the editor asking that the Sou'wester be sent to him for the rest of the year. In this communication he was extremely optimistic over his condition, stating that the disease had been arrested in its progress, and that he was on the road to recovery.

Two days after the letter was written he was dead. His death was due directly to an operation, from which he could not pull thru, due to his weakened condition. When rumors first reached the campus of his death, they were discredited because of the happy tone of his recent letters to students here. Confirmation of the passing of this loyal Southwestern man was obtained Wednesday.

We cannot explain death, nor do we know when our summons will come to leave this world of mortal men. The suddenness of Sloan's death has so deeply shocked the campus that it is hard to believe that such a loyal friend and God-fearing man is now no more.

Sloan was a quiet and unassuming student, altho he mingled freely among his many friends. He was a talented singer, and was recognized as possessing a very fine voice. He was always active in promoting the interests of the glee club on the campus, and was a frequent soloist in Memphis churches.

His passing from our midst has left a profound impression on the student body.

Who Did This?

Someone is responsible for an awful "crime." The name of the college dramatic club has been changed from "The Pals" to "The Southwestern Players"—such a name!

We do not mean to discredit the use of Southwestern's fair name, but for such an organization it is not distinctive enough. Such an organization should, in our estimation, have a name with a punch, something that sticks to the public's mind, and is so unique that it is always associated with this one particular student activity.

If it wasn't for "Southwestern" and "Lynx Cats" the campus organizations would be in a dilemma in naming their clubs. Each group has a problem to solve. If the use of one or the other of these two names fills the bill, then use them; but if a name carrying punch and distinctiveness is necessary, then get something original!

I'm The Jane

I'm the plagaristic jane. I'm always just a bit too late for anything original, so naturally I ape the boys—the innovators of everything new. Have you ever heard me uphold my "fraternity". How ridiculous of the boys to object to "fraternity!" They say I belong to a sorority. But how can that be, when the national chapter is called a "fraternity." The boys say, in their petty retaliation, that by the same line of reasoning they belong to a "sorority". Now ain't that childish of them! Everybody knows they would be called fools if they said, "Come on, gang, let's go have our sorority meeting!" Those boys certainly are silly to object to my being a "fraternity girl". They think they have an option on everything, but I'll show them—they can't crib on us women like that and get away with it! The stingy bums!

WHO'S WHO IN SENIOR CLASS

Paul L. Caldwell

On May 24, 1906, Paul Lanier Caldwell opened his eyes for the first time and said, "Ain't life grand!" He was born in Memphis, the son of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Caldwell, and received his early education at Ross grammar school. Paul attended the Hume-Fogg high school, Nashville, and Wallace University school. He entered Southwestern the first year the college was located in Memphis and will receive his degree from his Alma Mater next June.

Paul is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity. He was a member of the Catalink staff '25-'26 and '26-'27, and was on the basketball squad for the season of '26-'27. He was a member of the annual staff '25-'26 and is its art editor this year, '28-'29. He has been in various activities during his college life at Southwestern. "Pablo" says he will enter either the field of aviation or the automobile business after graduation.

Gridman Sentenced To Pen For Theft

Los Angeles—Johnny Hawkins, former captain and quarterback of the University of Southern California football team, recently was sentenced to serve five to 75 years in San Quentin prison, after pleading guilty to five counts of second degree burglary.

Hawkins made a plea for leniency, declaring that an injury to his head, suffered in a football game four years ago, had caused him to suffer daily headaches and was responsible for his burglaries.

JAP FRESHMAN FLOORS SOPHS

Uses Jiu-Jitsu Holds, Injuring One

Toronto, Ont—(IP)—The first fracas of the season between sophomores and freshmen occured at Victoria college in the University of Toronto.

This was of a nature altogether apart from the customary tapping, bed-dumping and horse-play. A Japanese student, M. Akiyama, became involved with five sophomores in regard to styles of wearing the conventional tie, and in the course of the argument he laid out cold from one to five.

A fellow freshman of Mr. Akiyama's informs that the sophomores, five in number, set upon Akiyama in an effort to shear his tie as a penalty for wearing it within his vest. They succeeded, but Mr. Akiyama, not versed in western ways, resented the attempt and laid about him with a few jiu-jitsu tricks (in which he is an expert) and knocked out one of the sophomores.

One of the blows, reports say, was not according to the rules laid down by the Marquis of Queensbury, and the unfortunate second year man had to be carried to his residence, and has been spending some time in bed.

Akiyama claims, however, that the blow was perfectly in accord with jiu-jitsu regulations and alleges that a man has the privilege of defending himself according to the rules of his own people. Akiyama points to the fact that he is a Christian, son of a Bhuddist father and a Christian mother.

Car Painted With Freakish Slogans So Youth Is Held

Detroit.—Recorder's Court, Judge W. Mackay Skillman has asked a sanity commission report on the prevalent fad among "flaming youths" of decorating second hand flivvers with gaudy paint, signs of doubtful sentiment and odds and ends of bric-a-brac.

The action followed arraignment of Joseph Wisemont, 19, charged with speeding in a car so ornamented as to cause the arresting officer to describe it as "collegiate."

Judge Skillman asked the driver what prompted such decorating. Wisemont after hesitating, said he guessed it was "just to be crazy."

"In that case," the judge said, "we will determine just what variety of insanity it is. I refer you to a sanity commission which will report one week from today."

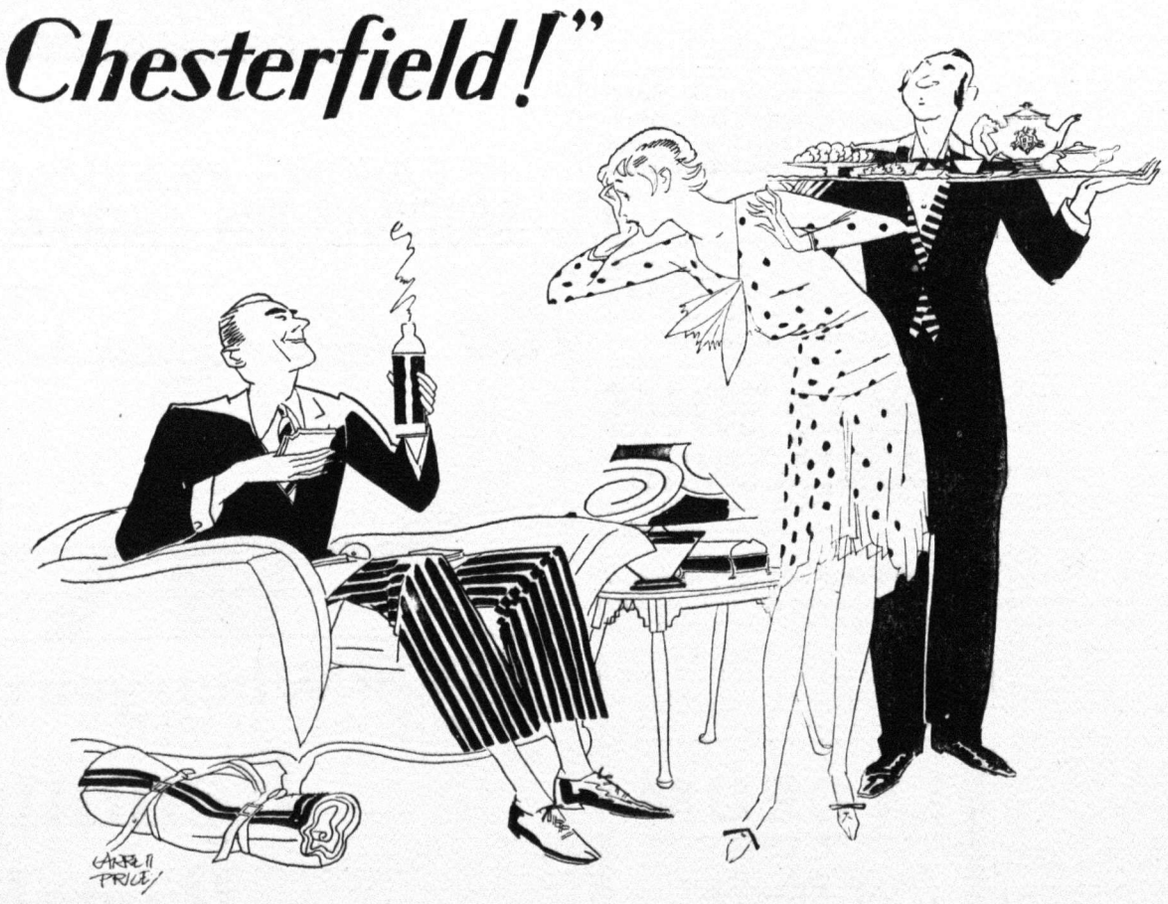
"I'd rather have a Chesterfield!"



It is considered the height of bad form, they say, to carry your own sandwiches to a tea—or to pack your own blanket for the week-end—but luckily, no such outlandish conventions surround the smoking of your own cigarette.

"I'd rather have a Chesterfield," fortunately, is a phrase which not only remains "good cricket" in polite circles—but at the same time brands the smoker as a person of rare discernment and excellent discrimination.

And small wonder, considering all the remark implies. Good taste, top quality, the rare sparkle of tobacco goodness—all these combine to justify the choice of that man who thus shows his keen judgment.

"I'd rather have a Chesterfield"—a neat line, that—the mark of a real connoisseur and the password of six million smokers.

ILLINOIS CENTRAL SYSTEM
EFFICIENT SERVICE
ALWAYS

OUR SENIOR YEAR

With the presentation of this statement, the Illinois Central System enters upon its fourth year of educational advertising in college and university publications. The purpose of this advertising has been to lay a ground work of improved understanding upon which college- and university-trained men and women may base intelligently their attitude toward questions affecting the railroads.

Preceding advertisements in this series have dealt with topics more or less progressively related, as follows: 1925-26; "History and Relationships"; 1926-27, "Departments of a Railroad"; 1927-28, "The Railway Plant." The topic for 1928-29 will be "Problems of Permanent Interest." The problems to be discussed are "Regulation," "Valuation," "Taxation," "Loss and Damage," "Safety," "Development Work" and "Public Relations."

Why, one may ask, should college and university students be asked to take an interest in railway problems? Simply because of this: Railway service is so interwoven with practically every phase of life today that it is hard to conceive of a railway problem in which the interest of the citizen is not somehow concerned. In many railway problems the interest of the citizen is paramount. Moreover, under the present organization of economics and government, as has been pointed out before, the public controls railway service not only by purchasing it but also by regulating the conditions under which it shall be rendered and by providing its capital supply. A general realization of this threefold relationship between the public and the railroads should inspire all citizens to interest themselves in railway problems.

The college or university graduate, as a beneficiary of educational opportunities and as a leader in citizenship, has the opportunity to direct, interpret and enforce public opinion. Nowhere is constructive, informed public leadership more clearly essential than in the railway field.

As a test of the interest shown in this advertising, an essay contest will be announced shortly after the first of the year. Full details will be furnished those eligible at that time.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

L. A. DOWNS,
President, Illinois Central System.

BOBCATS TAKE ON BULL PUPS AT UNION UNIV.

Meet Frosh There While Varsity Contests With Lynx

The Southwestern Bobcats, in charge of Coach Wes Adams, will tackle the Union University Bull Pups, frosh team, at Jackson, Tenn., Friday while the Union varsity travels to Memphis to meet the Lynx. Adams' team left Friday morning by bus and will return that night.

The Bobcats have humbled their only two opponents this fall, Tupelo Military Institute and the Tate County Aggies at Senatobia, Miss. Both games were won by 6 to 0 scores.

The Bobcats were handicapped last week by the loss of Bill Puddephat, star fullback, who is ineligible owing to scholastic standing. Meeks Hinson was also on the sidelines most of the game with an injured ankle, but entered the fray long enough to carry the ball into scoring position, and then dash across for the touchdown that won the game. Jack Delay, Walker and Jimmy Hughes all played well.

Coach Adams carried the entire team to Jackson, and the frosh hope to show the way for the varsity by starting off right with a victory over the Bull Pups.

PROPOSE COURSE IN FINE LIVING

Dr. Jesse Williams, professor of physical education at Columbia University, was a visitor at chapel last Friday morning.

Dr. Williams proposed a new course as an "experiment in fine living." A student will be tested not by what he knows but how he lives," he said. He suggested that his idea be adopted by Southwestern.

Big Saturday Tilts

As Southern football teams enter the fray Saturday, October 20, several interesting events are scheduled.

Tennessee will play Alabama in the far southern state. Furman will make a furious attempt to upset Georgia.

A nationally interesting game will take place between Notre Dame and Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

Rice goes over to Southern Methodist; Arkansas engages Texas in the Lone Star state; Texas Christian plays at Texas Aggies, and Duke will enter Navy territory for a probable win.

Southwestern Runs Over Georgetown By The Convenient Margin Of 24 to 6

Dope Bucket Completely Kicked As Southwestern Gridmen Defeat Kentucky Champions

Displaying a sudden terrific drive in the second half of the game, the Southwestern Lynx came back to break a 6 to 6 tie and sweep Georgetown, Ky., 1927 S. I. A. A. title claimants, to a 24 to 6 defeat at Fargason Field Saturday. It was the first conference victory for the Lynx as a member of the association and was ample revenge for the defeat of the previous week by Kentucky team.

Southwestern showed unusual power and swept to victory behind the brilliant broken field running of George Hightower and the line plunging of Lamar "Four-Yard" Pittman and "Light Horse" Harry Walton.

The line presented a stone wall defense from end to end except in the second period, and it would be hard to pick any individual star as it was teamwork and not individual brilliancy that won. Harry Walton staged a demonstration of how a line should be backed up that solved one of Neely Mallory's worries

The Lynx started off by kicking to Georgetown and then holding for downs. Dode hit the line for a gain and on the next play George Hightower swept off tackle, dodged a couple of men and then outran the field for 60-yards and a touchdown. The stands went wild until the second period when Georgetown came back strong. The invaders smashed the ball down the field but were held in the shadow of the goal. Again they advanced and again were held but on their third thrust for a touchdown, Morgan carried the ball over to tie the score at 6 all. The Lynx looked weaker in this period than at any other time.

SHOULDER DISLOCATED

Captain Dode Farnsworth suffered a dislocated arm just before the half ended and was replaced by Lamar Pittman. After the rest interval the Lynx started showing their power. With the line charging the Kentucky forward wall viciously, the Southwestern backs ripped thru for long gains. Harry Walton's 34-yard dash thru the line placed the ball in scoring position, and Pittman plowed across for the touchdown. Walton missed the goal.

The Lynx again took the ball over on downs after the kickoff and again started their steamroller tactics. Pittman kept plunging the lines to make the downs. Then George Hightower cut loose for a substantial 20-yard gain to put the ball in scoring distance. Walton and Pittman again started ramming the line, Pittman finally carrying the ball across.

TAKES TO AIR

Georgetown then took to the air and began tossing passes in every direction but could not make any worthwhile gains The Lynx broke up everything that was tried and then opened up with another drive. Hightower slipped thru holes for four and five-yards at a time while "Four-Yard" Pittman plunged and plunged until the ball was on the 15-yard line. Pittman made another plunge, broke loose and galloped over for the final score of the game.

The Lynx' ground gaining is shown by the first downs, making fifteen to Georgetown's nine. Twelve of the Lynx downs came in the second period when they opened up their driving offense.

SPEAKING Of ATHLETICS

By Vern Baumgarten

These Georgetown boys might be champions of Kentucky but they drifted into a bad neighborhood when they planted their cleats on Fargason Field. They boasted a record of not an S. I. A. A. defeat in over a year and without having their goal line crossed, but the Lynx made up for that in one game. In fact, the Lynx took just two plays after the opening whistle blew to wreck Georgetown's record, and when they wrecked it, they wrecked it good.

* * *

By the way, No. 19, Dawson, big Georgetown tackle, had plenty of feet to plant on the sod at Fargason Field. Never before have such feet been seen here except perhaps for the exception of the dogs owned by Meriwether, Hendrix star, two years ago. If Dawson's feet were straightened out he would be at least a foot and a half taller.

* * *

The Lynx play two more S. I. A. A. games. They have won one and lost one and have good prospects of capturing another Saturday. The final conference tilt will be the following week at Chattanooga against the University of Chattanooga. If they can win these last two games they will rate right up with the best of them in the conference, for Chattanooga has already humbled Furman and Birmingham-Southern. The Moccasins held Vanderbilt to a 20 to 0 score in their opening game. It will be one of the toughest games of the season for the Lynx.

* * *

While handing out credit for last Saturday's game, Bobby Lloyd deserves credit. Bobby called signals perfectly and what was much harder, provided the interference for the running backs. In football games, the runners get the credit and the interference gets the knocks. Blocking is the hardest thing to do in football and Lloyd truly blocks on every play. He is nearly the smallest man on the squad and also the hardest hitter.

Prof. Haden is authority for the statement that "a rooster is a male hen."

Grandstand Stuff!

Alliance, Ohio—(IP)—When Mount Union college dedicated her new athletic stadium here, two candidates for governor of Ohio were present.

During an intermission in the game the Democratic candidate and the Republican candidate met in midfield, shook hands with each other, and smiled, then changed boxes in the stadium.

Plan Museum

Minneapolis, Minn.—(IP)—Suggestion has been made, and is being considered seriously by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota, to establish a Scandinavian museum on the campus as a repository and center for the dissemination of Scandinavian culture.

FIGURES SHOW LYNX TO HAVE UNION'S BARK

Comparative Dope Gives Locals Big Edge On Union

Five of the Lynx' future opponents played last week and three of the five came thru with victories. Arkansas defeated Baylor 14 to 0, upsetting the dope bucket, while the West Tennessee Teachers won their third straight game, 12 to 0, over the Mississippi Delta Teachers. Chattanooga downed the Lynx' old foes, Birmingham-Southern, score 12 to 6.

Ole Miss again went down in defeat in a hard fought game at Knoxville before the Tennessee Volunteers 13 to 12, while Union University dropped a close decision to Kentucky Wesleyan 12 to 7. The Union Bulldogs, who come here Saturday, are having a tough season. Here's the dope on them.

THEIR RECORD

Union	44	Jonesboro college	0
Union	6	Georgetown	45
Union	7	Kentucky Wes.	12

OUR RECORD

Southwestern	42	Lambuth	6
Southwestern	0	W. Ky.	18
Southwestern	24	Georgetown	6

Union has scored 57 points to their opponents' 57, an even break, and have lost two out of three games. Southwestern has scored 66 points to their opponents' 24, for two wins out of three.

Figuring on the Georgetown game the Lynx are 57 points better than the Bulldogs, but that sort of dope don't hold. For example, last year Georgia beat Yale,, Yale beat the Army, Army beat Notre Dame, Notre Dame beat Georgia Tech and then Georgia Tech tromped on Georgia. So there you are and figure it our for yourself.

TRACK JOGGERS PREP FOR MEET

Trackmen Priming For Ole Miss Team

If plans now under way materialize, Southwestern's sporting enthusiasts will get a chance soon to see Coach Rasberry's joggers under fire.

Arrangements are now being made for a dual meet to be run off when the Ole Miss gridders invade the lair of the Lynx during the last of November. Rasberry believes that stiff competition will prove a great help to Southwestern's cross-country men, because it will show their true mettle and get them accustomed to competitive running.

"The greatest trouble with the men is that they don't put all that they have into their running," said Rasberry. "They finish with plenty reserve power. To amount to anything as a cross-country man, every bit of energy must be run out."

Sore muscles and blistered feet have greatly hampered this week's practice. The rainy weather proved an asset, for it offered a good chance to iron out bad muscles and heal the ailing feet.

Southwestern's intramural cross-country meet will be held the week following pledge week. Two cups and three shoes have been donated by the Athletic Association to help stimulate interest in this new branch of athletics here. One of the cups goes to the class that wins and the other for the fraternity. To win either cup, a team must have five men to finish the race. The contestants will be counted in the order that they finish, so the team with the lowest number of points will be declared the winner. The shoes are individual awards for first, second, and third places, respectively.

Roger Wright and Fritz Bornman have been stepping out in front during this week's practice. They will be given some stiff competition, however, in the try-outs that are to be run off some time in the near future.

Does superstition mean anything? If so, Coach Neely Mallory and Pos Elam should be getting leery of the Lynx' black jerseys. The Lynx wear black jerseys as their regulation uniform.

In the opening game against Lambuth, the visitors also had black, so the Lynx wore the Bobcats' red sweaters and won.

At Bowling Green, the Lynx donned their black jerseys and went down in defeat.

Georgetown came here sporting black coverings, so the Lynx went back to the Bobcats' sweaters and upset all the dope by mopping up with the visitors.

Cornell Men Sign Pact With Theater

Ithaca, N. Y.—(IP)—A "gentleman's agreement" has been entered into by Cornell university men and the manager of the Strand Theater here, whereby the students may have all the fun they like at the second Saturday night show, providing they behave themselves the rest of the week while attending the theater.

The pact was sealed following a disturbance in the theater created recently by the students, and after which the manager in strong words told the undergraduates where to "head in."

Idaho Co-Eds Bid Dates Adieu At 7

Moscow, Idaho.—(IP)—Beginning Oct. 7, Sunday dates at the University of Idaho ended at 7 p. m., in line with the custom of the dean of women who prescribes that during the winter months the co-eds must dismiss their boy friends at 7 instead of 9, as in the early fall and late spring months.

Kalamazoo Beaten By Michigan 103-0

East Lansing, Mich.—(IP)—Michigan State university's gridders have made an early bid for recognition as high scorers in the 1928 football season by defeating Kalamazoo college 103 to 0. This is the highest score which has been made this year by a well-known college or university eleven.

The highest score in one game made last season was credited to St. Xavier, at Cincinnati, which defeated Lee university, in Kentucky, to the merry tune of 132 to 0, a score estimated to be about the limit possible in a regulation time game.

Only twice before in the history of the college has Michigan state piled up such scores, once in 1912 when it defeated Hillsdale college 104 to 0, and in 1920 when it walked over Olivet college 108 to 0.

Play Cornell Chimes

Ithaca, N. Y.—(IP)—A special program on the historic Cornell chimes in the Library Tower, featured the 60th anniversary and rededication exercises of the augmented "Chimes of Cornell." The new bells added to the chimes this summer gave the carillon a range of two complete octaves.

Played for the first time on Oct. 7, 1868, the chimes have become a Cornell tradition and are regarded as one of the finest sets of bells in the country.
