LYNX READY FOR MIGHTY MISSISSIPPIANS

2 DIRECTORS RESIGN PLACES AS EXECUTIVES

Hand In Resignations Last Tuesday

FILL PLACES SOON

College Finances Are In Good Condition

Announcement has been made by the board of directors of Southwestern of the resignation of Messrs. George C. Tayloe and Samuel M. Nickey, who served on the board for several years.

The resignations were presented at the meeting of the board held in the directors' room Tuesday. Mr. Tayloe was also treasurer of the college.

Mr. E. B. LeMaster, chairman of the board, issued the following statement with regard to the resignations:

"It was more a matter of personal disagreements and incompatibility than a matter of finances which was at the bottom of yesterday's meeting of the Board of Directors of Southwestern. There is absolutely no change contemplated in the management of the finances. The president will not have the power and does not desire to control the finances of the college. The endowment funds are handled by an Investment Committee of Memphis bankers, composed of R. Brinkley Snowden, Chairman, T. K. Riddick, Frank Hayden, Hirsch Morris, and the Treasurer of the Board. The current funds of the college are handled by the Board of Directors and the Executive Committee, and the President of the college has no power to authorize the expenditure of a single dollar that has not first been appropriated by the Board of Directors."

Memphis citizens were exposed to an erroneous story published in a local paper last Tuesday when it was alleged "that Southwestern was drifting onto dangerous ground." Mr. LeMaster's statement makes clear the reasons behind the action of the two men.

"Southwestern is in a better financial condition than it has been for many years," states Dr. Charles E. Diehl, president, in commenting on the soundness of the financial condition of the institution.

FOUR TILTS ON QUIBBLER CARD

Hot Time Planned For Coming Meetings

Members of Quibbler Forum debating society have an intensive program mapped out before Christmas holidays. Four new members will be pitted against veteran debaters in a series of four arguments on the subjects of "Centralization," "Jury System," "Advertising," and "Government Ownership of Water Power."

The first debate will be held Nov. 22 on "Centralization." Freshman Simmons, Malcolm Ritchie, Freshman J. A. Cabaniss and Gerald Capers will speak the subject of "Jury System." The subject of "Advertising" will be contested by L. P. Watkins, Malcolm Perry, J. V. McGee and M. I. Hull. The final debate will feature Edwin Thompson, Robert Scott, Freshman W. H. Berson and James Randle.

New members to the club are Freshmen Berson, Jones, Cabaniss, Simmons, and Tull, Watkins, Perry, and Randle, upperclassmen.

Tentative arrangements have been made with University of Pottsburg and Northwestern University for intercollegiate tilts during the coming debating season.

Sorority Chooses New Patronesses

Mrs. P. N. Rhodes and Mrs. Frazier Boyle have been chosen by the Chi Alpha sorority as chapter patronesses. Mrs. Rhodes is the wife of Dr. Rhodes, professor of physics at the college. Mrs. Boyle is very prominent in Memphis circles, and is widely known as the poet laureate of the South.

Mrs. A. T. Johnson, wife of Prof. Johnson, of the Southwestern English department, has been the only Chi Alpha patroness during the past year.

FOUR STUDENTS TO MARRY SOON

Two other Co-eds have Married Recently

Four former Southwestern students are to be joined in marriage during the coming week.

Robert Gratton Brown, a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity here two years ago, and Miss Eleanor Crenshaw, will marry this Saturday.

Miss Virginia Smith, graduate in the class of 1927, will wed T. Mashburn Deaton on Nov. 19. Miss Smith is a member of Chi Omega sorority.

Misses Louise and Elizabeth Russell, sisters, will marry F. M. and Oliver Barton, brothers, in a dual wedding on Nov. 21.

Misses Amalie Fair and Hilda Scates, Chi Omegas, were both married during the past two weeks.

2 MEMORIALS DEDICATED

Neely Hall and Hardie Chapel Presented

The Hugh M. Neely Hall was officially presented to Southwestern Tuesday afternoon at four o'clock by Mr. S. M. Neely, the nephew of Mrs. Mary S. Neely, who gave the building to Southwestern in memory of her husband, Col. H. M. Neely.

The presentation ceremony took place at the Hugh M. Neely hall where a memorial tablet has been placed. Dr. A. B. Curry, vice-president of the board of directors of the college, accepted the gift on behalf of Southwestern. Dr. Curry spoke of Col. Neely as a Presbyterian. Hon. T. K. Riddick spoke of Col. Neely as a business man. Dr. A. C. Dudley, pastor of First Presbyterian church, of which Col. Neely was a member, offered the dedicatory prayer. All those taking part in the ceremony, including the choir, were garbed in academic gowns.

On the same afternoon dedicatory exercises were held in Palmer Hall where the memorial tablet to Mr. William Tipton Hardie was unveiled. Hardie auditorium was presented to Southwestern by the Hardie family, and the memorial tablet to Mr. Hardie was dedicated by Dr. W. McF. Alexander, pastor of Prytania Street Presbyterian Church, New Orleans, and also a member of the board of directors of this institution. Dr. James I. Vance, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Nashville, and also a member of the board, offered the dedicatory prayer. The double quartet, composed of college students, sang "For All The Saints."

Many Take Part In Armistice Service

Dr. W. O. Shewmaker introduced Mayor Overton, of Memphis at the Armistice Day service held in Hardie Auditorium last Sunday afternoon. Mayor Overton, a World War veteran, delivered a very inspiring address on the doughboys and the present outlook for world peace and progress.

During the short but impressive service the college choir furnished several beautiful musical selections.

An audience of more than 350 was present and took part in the responsive ceremony.

100 Shekels Grow Into Huge Figure

PRINCETON, N. J.—(IP)—In the year 2928 A. D. Princeton University, if it exists, will be rich beyond the power of human conception, and will be forced to turn its surplus cash to the benefit of public charities, as the result of a trust fund recently established by Henry G. Granger, '93.

The original sum of $100, to mature in 1,000 years, has been deposited in the People's National Bank, of Hoosic Falls, N. Y., "to promote and improve the educational facilities of Princeton University." Mr. Granger stipulates that each year one-half the interest be sent to Princeton, and the other half added to the capital. In case the accumulating interest should in time exceed the needs of the university the excess may be given to public objects as the university sees fit.

The bank computes that in 90 years the capital will be $1,620,800; in 198 years, $103,731,200; in 504 years, $9,496,979,030.40, and at the maturity of the fund, in 1,000 years, the sum will be far beyond human conception.

RUSH WORK ON NEW KAPPA SIG CHAPTER LODGE

Stone Structure to Be Ready by Dec. 1

FIRST ON CAMPUS

Represents Total Cost of $10,000

Work has been resumed on the Kappa Sigma Fraternity house on Fraternity Row at Southwestern and is being pushed so that the stone lodge can be dedicated on Dec. 1.

Charles Terry, president of the Southwestern chapter, is in charge of finishing the lodge, which was started early last year. During the past summer almost every window pane in the building was broken. These have been replaced. A tile roof is now being laid. Interior decorators are expected to complete their work within two weeks, says Terry.

SEVERAL FEATURES
There will be several outstanding features to the decorations, including a large electrically lighted fraternity pin above the door, lighted with scarlet, green and white globes—the fraternity colors.

Preparations are being made by the active chapter for the dedicatory services, which will include a smoker for the Kappa Sigma Memphis alumni chapter, an open house for Southwestern students, and a dance for chapter members.

This is the first fraternity lodge to be erected on this campus. It is built of stone, and its architectural design is modeled after that of the college. When completed and furnished, the house will cost about $10,000, says Terry.

Pyramid Builders All Set For Debut

Southwestern's pyramid building stars will make their first appearance during the rest period between halves of the Lynx-Ole Miss struggle Saturday.

Twenty men have been practicing for this event during the past six weeks to display their prowess. Cameramen from the Goodwyn Moving Picture Co. will take pictures of pyramids, squashes and stands for news reel release. Dr. Swan will take moving pictures for the Southwestern Extension Board.

The team will enter the field at the southwestern gate and proceed to the north end of the field where they will perform. They will be attired in white gymnasium uniforms with a red sash. W. C. Rasberry has trained the men, for this event.

60 Face Expulsion After Public Hop

OHIO NORTHERN UNIVERSITY—(OCNA)—Sixty students of Ohio Northern university face expulsion or probation because institution authorities believe they attended a dance at Welcome Park, near here. Although it is believed the students attended the dance following a fraternity banquet Oct. 19, it was not until recently that a probe of the alleged offense started.

Several students were called before Dr. A. E. Smith, president; Miss Ethel Webber, acting dean of women, and H. J. Elliot, dean of men. No action has been taken by the three, but considerable excitement is manifested on the campus. Dr. Smith strongly opposes public dances.

Open House

Alpha Omicron Pi sorority will entertain Southwestern students with open house in their lodge on Sorority Row next Tuesday evening in special compliment to Miss Louise Russell, who will be married to F. M. Barton the day following.

DODE BACK IN LINE-UP

Captain Dode Farnsworth will play Saturday against Ole Miss. This announcement, tho expected, cheered Lynx followers who are now more optimistic over the game.

Farnsworth had been unable to participate in the last four games due to academic difficulties, but now he has been reinstated and will be able to finish the season against Ole Miss, University of Arkansas and Hendrix.

Leads Ole Miss Gridmen

Captain Pi Vann, star of the Mighty Mississippians, will disport before the local gallery Saturday when the Lynx and their ancient rivals again meet on the gridiron to settle this little difference of football supremacy for the time being.

HONOR GUESTS INCREASE LIMIT WITH A DANCE OF BIOLOGY LAB

Ole Miss Students Are Guests of "13" Club

Visiting Ole Miss students who will come to Southwestern this Saturday when the Mississippians play the Lynx on the local gridiron, will be special guests at the tea dance to be given by members of the Thirteen Club at the Kappa Delta sorority house.

The dance will be given after the game, between the hours of 5:30 and 7:30 o'clock. The Cotton Pickers will play.

Mr. Arthur Hickey, manager of Fortune-Ward Company, and a very enthusiastic supporter of Southwestern, is sponsoring the affair.

The members of the Thirteen Club and their dates will be in the receiving line.

Shakespeare Club Chooses Officers

New officers have been elected by members of the Shakespeare Club and officiated at the first meeting of the year which was held Wednesday night at the home of Dr. C. L. Townsend.

Civitan Club Wins Association Award

The Civitan Club, with an attendance of 56 per cent at the Lynx-Tiger game last Saturday, won the cup offered by the Southwestern Athletic Association. It was presented to the Civitans at a banquet held at Hotel Peabody. R. W. Bailey, president of the Association, made the presentation.

Entertains Sorority

Miss Katherine Page, a member of last year's graduating class, entertained the active chapter of Chi Omega with a tea last Friday afternoon.

INCREASE LIMIT OF BIOLOGY LAB

Dr. Lackey Purchasing New Equipment

Six special microscopes have been purchased by the biology department, according to Dr. James A. Lackey, and an additional purchase is to be made shortly.

With these instruments the very finest detailed studies can be made. At present the biology department is equipped to supply the needs of only 35 students. Dr. Lackey plans to be able to care for 45 students next year, and 60 the year following.

All new equipment is standard, and credit from this department will be accepted at all medical schools in the country.

One of Dr. Lackey's most recent additions to his equipment is an expensive fine-grained skull. It is so prepared that most any portion of it can be seen, as the top of the skull is divided into sections joined to the main part by hinges and latches.

Train Hits Co-Ed And She Wins Bet

BERLIN, OHIO—(IP)—There are a number of forms of betting, but none any more spectacular than that engaged in by Lillian Ramsey, Oberlin college freshman, and William Robinson, Oberlin college sophomore.

The co-ed won the bet, but nearly lost her life in the bargain.

Lillian and William were on their way to the women's dormitory after a dance, and stopped at the railroad crossing here to wait for an approaching train. One of the two conceived the idea of seeing who could sit on the tracks the longest.

Lillian won, and after the engine hit her she was taken to Allen Memorial Hospital with a broken collar bone, three fractured ribs, scalp wounds, and bruises all over her.

She is recovering from the effects of the injuries.

Initiate Pledge

Chi Alpha sorority announces the initiation of Jeannette Spann on last Friday. A tea was given in her honor following the ceremony.

Lead Discussions

Frances Gray and Anne Shewmaker led group discussions on "Social Service" and "College Friendships" at the meeting of the college Y. W. C. A. held last Wednesday afternoon.

Goes Under Knife

Prof. Eric J. Haden, associate professor of French at Southwestern will return to the campus next Monday following a tonsil and adenoid operation at Baptist Memorial hospital last Friday morning.

FIGURES FAVOR OLE MISS, BUT YOU CAN'T TELL

Dode Bolsters Backfield In Coming Game

COHEN IS MISSING

Both Teams Have Played Erratic Football

BY VERN BAUMGARTEN

Coach Homer Hazel, former All-American, will lead his cohorts of Old Miss football players to Fargason Field to tackle the Southwestern Lynx Saturday for the third successive year in Memphis. Hazel brings an Ole Miss team that ties Southwestern in being the greatest in-and-out eleven in the country. The Mississippians have been playing the most erratic brand of football in the country. One week they look like southern champions and the next like a bunch of dubs. Early in the season they took a lacing at the hands of Loyola, New Orleans, Wolf Pack, but turned about and galloped roughshod over the undefeated and unscored on Clemson eleven, until that game one of the claimants of the southern championship. Last week Ole Miss went down in defeat before a rather mediocre Louisiana State eleven.

Meanwhile the Lynx have been sticking to their record of inconsistency. After being throly trampled by the University of Chattanooga two weeks ago by a 79 to 0 score, the Lynx took on their old opponents, the West Tennessee Teachers, and drubbed them 47 to 0, in what was supposed to have been a tight game. The Lynx hope to redeem themselves further Saturday against their ancient rivals from Mississippi.

Ole Miss has the advantage in weight, experience, and will be big favorites to take the Lynx into camp, but in a season of upsets anything might happen.

Mallory will hurl his galloping backs into action. Captain Dode Farnsworth returns in uniform after a four-week interval. Besides Dode there are George Hightower, the weaving phantom from Webb, Miss., "Four-Yard" Pittman, the Lynx battering ram, "Buck" Roberts, the speed merchant, "Light Horse" Harry Walton, the fighting kid from over yonder, Bobby Lloyd, the little giant, "Brick" Viers, Russell Brigrance and Charley Diehl. In the line the Lynx have a host of stalwarts who are led by "Ole Lady" Liddon and "Headlock" King, the Kastiron Kids, better known to the Teachers as the "Death and Destruction" twins. Then "Big" Elder, Mr. Jefferson Davis, "City" Thomason, The Pea Ridge wonder, "Big Mac" McGiveran, Percy Brown, and Bob Logan will compose the forward wall to stop the assaults of the Ole Miss backs.

NO DIRGE FOR SOLLY
Ole Miss has lost Solly Cohen but they still have a flock of backs that can carry a ball with rapidity and force from one part of the field to another. Perhaps the most famous is Gerald Walker, the fleet-footed youngster who has been stepping thru various southern elevens all season.

"Cowboy" Woodruff provides the line crashing duties while "Tadpole" Smith, little but loud and well known to Lynx fans, can dodge, twist and race with the best of them. "Rube" Wilcox is another line crasher who will face Southwestern along with the newly discovered star Sam Kysar.

The Mississippi line is also big and powerful, led by Captain Pi Vann, tackle, the Mississippi forward wall has beef and ambition. Dewitt Laird, Lody Blankenbaker, Archie Hemphill, "Dump" Burnett and Walter Patty are all husky lads that know what a football is and how to prevent the other team from carrying it. The exact lineup of either team is uncertain, but both coaches will have their most formidable array on the field.

Ole Miss arrived in Memphis Friday, hale, hearty and raring to go. Coach Mallory put his boys thru a light workout and the Lynx are in excellent condition and out to lower the Red and Blue colors in spite of the odds against them.

Second Degree Given

The second degree of initiation was given to Pledge Martha Roseborough by Kappa Delta sorority in the chapter house last Wednesday.

Ode To Chemistry

O chemistry! Thou bane of my existence. Why do I pursue thee with such persistence? Is it thru love of thee that I strive To learn thy reactions and thy laws revive?— H—NO (taken three times).

ARE YOU A COLLEGE GIRL? NO, I GOT THIS WAY RIDING HORSEBACK.

Fanny: Say, its twelve o'clock, do you think you can stay here all nite? Johnny: Well, I'll have to telephone mother first.

Darn clever, these Chinese, In their laundry joints, Cause they take the buttons off The most strategic points.

Simmons: Is your roommate in love with Parkview?

Seagle: Is he! he's so bad off he makes me wake him every 15 minutes after he's gone to bed so he can go to sleep again thinking of her.

Denison: Do you know that Dickens sometimes worked six weeks on one line.

Sloan: That's nothing, I've worked five years on mine, and the women won't swallow it yet.

SCOTCH NATIONAL ANTHEM: "LET THE REST OF THE WORLD GO BUY."

Q: Why did Washington throw a silver dollar across the Potomac river?

A: He was teaching the Scotchmen to swim.

Q: Why is a horse's back always wet, when he's hitched to a wagon?

A: Because theres rein on his back.

The night wore on.

Q: What did it wear?

A: The close of day.

K: May I have this dance?

A: Yeah, if you can find someone to dance with.

Q: How old do you think I am?

A: You don't look it.

Q: What has flesh and blood in it and walks around in the day time, but stands empty with its tongue sticking out in the night time?

A: A pair of shoes.

Motherly old Lady to young freshman—"My lad, does your mother know you smoke?"

Young freshman, coldly—"Madame, does your husband know you speak to strange men?"

WHO YA SHOVIN'?

I'LL BITE, WHATS' YOUR NAME?

Sue (on street car)—"Mr., which end do I get off at?"

Conductor—"It makes no difference, ma'am, both ends stop."

If you make an ass of yourself today, that is called folly. If you keep it up for two weeks it is called a marathon.

WHO'S WHO IN SENIOR CLASS

Minnie Bernard Lundy

Minnie B. Lundy cheered for A. O. Pi for the first time March 10, 1907, at Nashville, Tenn., where she was born the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Lundy. She sought her early education at Bruce grammar school, and her high school education at Central. Four years ago she decided to seek her fortunes at Southwestern, so she matriculated here and went A. O. Pi.

Minnie has been prominent in campus activities. She was a member of the Sociology Club, '26-27, and of the Women's Pan-Hellenic Council the same year. She was the High Priestess of the Girls' San Hedrin Council in '27-28, and was also a member of the student council in '27-28. She was secretary-treasurer of the Y. W. C. A. last year and is a member of the cabinet this year. Minnie always was musically inclined and is quite an artist at the piano; she was a leading member of the choir last year, and her melodious voice may be heard this year in the same organization. She is also treasurer of Chi Delta literary society.

Minnie says that she is not sure what she will do when she receives her sheepskin from Southwestern next June, but she "will do anything to make money." It has always been understood that both the legal and electrical engineering professions are very profitable.

Good Enemies and Good Friends

Southwestern and Ole Miss have always been opponents in most every phase of student activity. This week we will entertain the Mississippians on the gridiron. Heretofore, history reveals, we have been the weaker of the two in this department of competition.

In just a few weeks our debaters will harrangue with representatives from Oxford, and in the past both schools have had their seasons of success and failure. Then a little later we will meet this ancient competitor in tennis, golf, and maybe baseball. In some of these we have had the advantage, in others we have been outclassed.

But whether on the winning or losing side there has always been a strong connection between the two student bodies. Altho Ole Miss boasts of a much larger school than ours, yet in looks you can't tell an Ole Miss from a Southwestern man—unless our men are the best looking.

A true spirit of sportsmanship has always prevailed whenever we have clashed with the University of Mississippi. Four years ago we went to Oxford in a special train. The welcome and attention we received there was a credit to our hosts. We hope that we have shown the Ole Miss team the same courtesy during the past three years they have visited us.

Next year our annual gridiron game will be played at Oxford, and we are looking forward to the time when we can again visit en masse the home stomping grounds of our friendly rivals.

EXHUMED FROM THE FILES

Choice News Excerpts of Past Years As Revealed by Sou'wester Issues

NOVEMBER 18, 1925

Psi chapter, of the national honorary literary sorority Chi Delta Phi, was installed at Southwestern on Nov. 16. The charter was granted on October 13, 1925.

Several Southwestern students enjoyed a dance recently at Hotel Peabody. Those present were Elizabeth Laughlin and Charles Adams, Elizabeth Hart and James Gladney, Mary Sue Moody and Reavis Lindsey, Catherine Underwood and Nolan Pierce, Eleanor Beckham and Jim Pope, Billie Burnette and Joseph Gladney, Mary Frances Young and Thomas Toler, Ethel Brown and Russell Johnston, Joe Norvell and J. S. King.

Kappa Delta sorority takes pleasure in announcing the pledging of Lucy Farrow.

The first regular meeting of the Shakespeare club was held at the home of Prof. C. L. Townsend recently. The club membership includes Dr. and Mrs. Townsend, Prof. Sam Monk, Irene Clardy, Louise Clark, Elizabeth Hart, Bob Flemister, Francis Howard, Jack Redhead and John Simmons.

Seven charter members of Kappa Omicron will be initiated into the Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority Friday afternoon. Those who will be initiated are Polly Giffillan, Kitty Kelly, Elizabeth Laughlin, Catherine Underwood, Minnie Lundy, Dorothy Vaden and Mary Frances Young.

Science club will initiate George Kyser, Tom Weiss and Solon Miles into its membership Friday.

Chi Omega sorority will occupy its new home on fraternity row Thanksgiving.

Boys' Pan-Hellenic council will give a formal dance at the Colonial Country club the night of Tuesday, Dec. 2.

NOVEMBER 18, 1926

The annual "Frosh Desecration" appeared on the scene today. The Sou'wester was used by the Frosh to turn the trick.

NOVEMBER 16, 1927

Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity, initiated Ora Johnson, Sid Latiolais, Arthur Dulin, and Frank Heiss on November 15.

Elizabeth Carnes entertained in honor of Mrs. Max Stanley, a Kappa Delta inspector, with the following present: Mrs. J. Frayser Smith, Mrs. Billie Floutt, Mrs. Bray, Virginia Rice, Marcelle Yard, Billie Roseborough, Mary Elizabeth Murray, Addie Louise Murray, Louise Long, Julia Walls, Meredith Davis, Susie Belle Wade, Mary Belle Thomason, Frances Arthur, Mary Gertrude Arthur, Lucy Farrow, and Martha Carnes.

Southwestern freshmen burned the bon-fire that Normal students had planned to burn. Normalites retaliated by sousing the Lynx cats on the gateway with red and white paint. Freshmen scrubbed the cats the next day.

David Pipes, grand dietician of the A. P. O.'s, executed the refreshments at the recent waffle-fry held at the Chi Omega house. Male members of the organization mixed and fried the waffles while the sisters looked on.

A preliminary dual cast has been selected by Prof. Ernest Haden for the first play of the year, "The Whole Town's Talking." The cast is composed of Virginia Roach, Rosa May Clark, Thomas Drake, Addie Beth Sively, Virginia Webb, Addie Louise Murray, Charlotte Bruce, Palmer Brown, Fritz Heidelberg, Johnson Garrott, Flint Liddon, James Spencer, Charles Rond, III, Frances Arthur, Margaret Layne, Mary Hogg, Eleanor Clinton, Mary Allen, and Janet Moody.

Pauline Barton has as her guest Ruth White, of Helena, Ark.

Nolan McLean, S. A. E., was a visitor to the campus Saturday.

Minnesota Co-Eds Are Fag Addicts

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.—(IP)—Modern women, in their invasion of places formerly held sacred to men in and about the University of Minnesota campus, have left but one establishment to men exclusively. Co-eds have not yet usurped the cigar and tobacco store, according to proprietors of those places near the campus.

Nearly as many women as men buy cigarettes in restaurant cigar counters and drug stores, surveys of several of these places show.

Beginners usually buy the Turkish and Egyptian brands, while experienced smokers, both male and female, rely on the standard American products.

Cigarettes lead the list of tobacco products sold to both men and women, proprietors report, failing to substantiate the rumor that men are giving up the "weeds" in favor of pipes.

Smoking by women is permitted in all but one of the cafes near the campus. Faculty women and freshmen girls smoke with equal ease, according to the cafe owners.

SHROUDED IN BLACK

UNIVERSITY, VA.—(OCNA)—Two students of Thomas Jefferson on the grounds of the University of Virginia were draped in mourning following the election. One of them bore a card reading: "To the memory of Jefferson Democracy and religious freedom—died Nov. 6, 1928."

Students of the university, where the sentiment was overwhelmingly Democratic, shrouded the statues in black when it was practically certain that Virginia had gone Republican for the first time since reconstruction days.

WHOLESALE SHIPPING

OHIO UNIVERSITY—(OCNA)—They frolicked, were arrested, but didn't have to pay. This was the sum of the celebration incident to the Ohio State-Princeton football game last week. Seventy-three charged with drunkenness were fined $5, suspended; 12 charged with possessing liquor drew fines of $100, suspended; 17 charged with selling balloons and programs without permits drew $10 fines, suspended.

SUSPEND TWO FRATS

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY—(OCNA)—Two fraternities at Ohio State University were suspended until January for holding unregistered dances in October. The fraternities are Phi Kappa Tau, a social organization, and Alpha Mu Pi Omega, a medical fraternity.

Action was taken by the Student Council when it was reported that both fraternities held dances in October without registering them with the student council auditor.

Well, Well, Well!

Normal has out the old war-cry, "Wait until next year." But according to the schedule there ain't goin' to be any "next year." Freshman Thombs says there is no competition to be had with the Normal frosh. Judging by knockouts, Thombs ought to replace Tunney as champ. Wanted: Wilson Foote for absconding with a football following the Normal game. Now all Foote needs is $9.35 to pay for the ball. Farnsworth says he wonders if any of the faculty ever played football. Pos Elam, in a reminiscent mood, said he knew of a football player that fell off the bench and was injured. Normal's colors were changed from blue and gray to black and blue last week. Oh, the advantages of a Rhodes scholar's education. Prof. Ross dashed out in the battle following the Normal game and shouted "Disperse, men, disperse!" Bode was the only man who understood him. H. Lumpkin bet on Normal last week but he is sorry he did it now. Two of the schools board of directors have resigned and it is alleged they said: "Southwestern is drifting on dangerous ground." We wonder if they were referring to the Ole Miss game which will be followed by Univ. of Arkansas.

PERSONALS

Among the dormitory girls who went home last week-end, are Nannie Sue Williams, Ruth Harris, Louise Hudson, and her guest, Mary Louise Curry.

Zylda Farrell spent the last of the week at her home in Tunica, Miss., and Virginia Curtis visited in Clarksdale.

Mrs. McGiveran and Sid Davis were visitors on the campus last week-end. Both delivered short talks in chapel Saturday morning.

Jimmy Pace was a visitor on the campus last week.

Gertie Mayo and Jimmie Walls spent the week-end at their homes in Holly Grove, Ark.

Sarah Chiles spent the week-end with her parents at Pecan Point, Ark.

Ann Roach has stopped school.

Addie Louise Murray and Meredith Davis will spend the week-end in Nashville.

Cotton Mather's Diary Reveals Conduct

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.—(IP)—The theory that the American college student of the eighteenth century, and the seventeenth century for that matter, was so incurably addicted to studious piety that he found little time for play and none for dissipation, suffered a severe jolt recently thru revelations of student habits in diaries and records now in the possession of Harvard university. Brawls, hazing, wrangling with the faculty, and general disorderly conduct were more characteristic of students behavior at that time.

Among these records is an incident, recorded by one Ezra Clapp, a student at Yale in 1738, who says:

"Last night some of the freshmen got six quarts of rum and about two payls of syder, and about eight pounds of sugar and made it into Samson, and invited every scholer in college into Curtis's room, and we made such prodigious rought that we raised the tutor, and he ordered us all to our roofs, and some went and some tarried, and they gathered again and went up to old Father Monsher's dore and drummed against the dore and yelled and screamed so that a body would have thought they were killing dogs there.

Other incidents related in Cotton Mather's diary, while a student at Harvard, show that ministers' sons began as early as 1644 to get their reputations. Mather told of an incident where two ministers' sons, students at Harvard, robbed two dwellings of 15 pounds and, being found out, were whipped by the president of the college.

"Biff" Is Good

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, CAL.—(IP)—Captain Clifford "Biff" Hoffman, fullback on the Stanford team, is versatile.

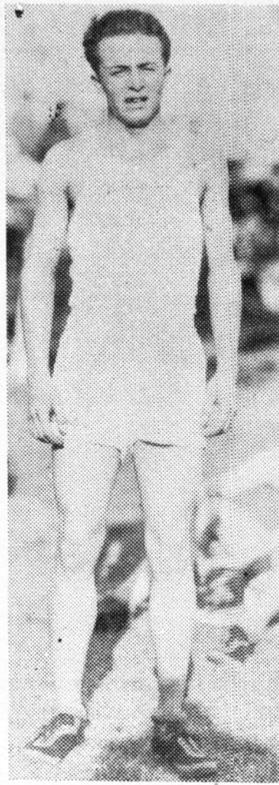

In addition to his gridiron ability, "Biff" is a wonder with the shot and discus, and by way of earning a living, owns and operates one of the Palo Alto's largest cafeterias.

Furthermore, Hoffman possesses a splendid baritone voice, which occasionally is heard over the radio, and two phonograph records soon will be released of his making.

SALT LAKE CITY.—(IP)—With the slogan, "In Unity There is Strength," freshmen at the University of Utah have banded themselves together in a club called "The Arrow Club," the purpose of which is to further the downfall of "soph" superiority.

ROGER WRIGHT CROSSES FIRST

Leads Field In 3-Mile Cross-Country

Roger Wright, one of Coach W. C. Rasberry's new track proteges, showed the way to a large field of Lynx and Elk's Club runners last Saturday in a duel meet. Perry Bynum, also of Southwestern, finished second with Captain Howard Abernathy, of the Elk's coming in third. This was the first race of the newly formed Lynx Cinder pounders and the result was surprisingly good.

Wright negotiated the three miles course in 15 minutes 1 and 1-2 seconds, which is good time on any man's track. The race was a feature of the Lynx-Normal football game.

The Lynx carried off all the honors, taking first and second, while Oliver Cromwell finished fourth, Frank McDowell, another Southwestern runner carried off fifth and Huffman sixth. Bynum's time for the race was 15:37 3-5. Oliver Cromwell of the Lynx finished in fourth place with Frank McDowell, a Southwestern freshman, fifth. The others in the race finished in the following order: Huffman (Lynx), F. Bornman (Lynx), Debolt (Elks), J. W. Bowman (Lynx), Herron (Elks), Webb (Lynx), Shepherd (Lynx), Frazier (Lynx).

The first six Southwestern men finishing will probably compose the Southwestern cross-country team.

New Telescope To Explore Heavens

PASADENA, CAL.—(IP) Hundreds of millions of stars now outside the visible range of man are expected to be discovered when the California Institute of Technology installs in its laboratory a 200-inch telescope.

A new building is to be erected to contain the monster which is to be the most powerful ever made.

The telescope with its buildings, dome and auxiliary equipment will be erected on the most favorable mountain site procurable. The powerful and scientific eye should render possible the exploration of many island universes beyond the Milky Way, the nearest two or three of which are now but slightly known.

Argues With Film

DELAWARE, OHIO.—(IP)—To save any argument with members of his football teams as to whether or not they did the right things in the football game just finished, Coach Gauthier, of Ohio Wesleyan University, has moving pictures taken of each football game. Then he gathers his team to see themselves in action, and no alibis are possible.

Participating in his first track event, Roger Wright, sophomore, led the field of runners against the Elks last Saturday in a three-mile cross-country run.

Re-Enact Famed Slavery Debate

Galesburg, Ill.—(IP)—On the seventieth anniversary of the famous debate on slavery between Abraham Lincoln and Stephen A. Douglas, Knox college was the scene of a reproduction of the famous encounter on the exact site where the statesmen met in 1858.

A platform was erected near the east door of the "Old Main" building, a historic structure on the Knox college campus.

Seventy years ago some twenty thousand persons came to Galesburg by wagon and train to hear Lincoln and Douglas put forward their views on the most important issue of the day.

A few of that gathering who are still living were the honored guests of Knox college at the celebration.

Railway Regulation

"More business in government and less government in business" is an honored American doctrine, but there have been and will continue to be notable and unavoidable exceptions to it. One of them is railway regulation.

Because the railroads were public utilities which for a considerable period practically monopolized the transportation field, it was inevitable that they should sooner or later find themselves regulated by law. Effective federal regulation of four railroads has just entered its fifth decade. During most of its history—that is, from the enactment of the original Interstate Commerce Act in 1887 until the end of federal control after the World War, which was marked by the enactment of the Transportation Act of 1920—the tendency of railway regulation was almost wholly to restrict the freedom of the railroads and to hold them in check, in order to prevent rate discriminations and other evils which had theretofore existed.

To the extent that railway regulation ended such evils, it was a beneficial thing for the country as a whole and for the railroads themselves; but when, in the course of its extension, it remained wholly restrictive it was found to have undesirable features which threatened railway credit and the future of railway service.

It is an axiom that the right to regulate entails also the duty to protect. After many years of wholly restrictive regulation, the act of 1920 for the first time recognized the right of the railroads to earn a fair return and directed the Interstate Commerce Commission to see that such a return was earned. The result has not yet been wholly satisfactory from a railway standpoint, but the promise of fair treatment was the impelling incentive behind the marvelous improvement in railway service which took place a few years ago, the effect of which yet remains.

As every one knows, the railroads no longer monopolize the transportation field, and such regulation as they now operate under tends to prevent equal competition between them and other means of transportation. If the true economic principle of the survival of the fittest is to govern the nation's transportation future, either there must be no regulation of the railroads or the same degree of regulation must be applied to the railroad's present competitors. Since many features of regulation are of public benefit, the latter alternative seems to promise the greater degree of progress in the formation of a national transportation policy.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

"The sun never sets on Chesterfield's popularity!"

"Globe trotters", we can imagine Dr. Freud as saying, "are people whose nurses dropped them onto an escalator in early childhood. They buy a sun helmet, a guide book, and a first-class passage to the Pyramids, and are never heard from again."

Nevertheless, the most confirmed voyageur owns to a thrill at finding a carton of Chesterfields in a tiny cafe on the Left Bank, or a package of the same on a card table at the Army Club at Simla, or on meeting an Arab camel-boy whose only English is "Sooch popular mos' be desarse!"

For Chesterfield's popularity never saw a sunset; travel as far as you will, this cigarette will always be somewhere ahead, ready to bring good taste and good tobacco home to you.

Such popularity must be deserved—and it IS!

Big, Bad, Bold Tigers Meets Lynx In Furious Grid Tussle—Us, 47; Them, 0

'Twas A Mean Trick, This Reception, But It Had To Be Done For Normal's Sake—Yep!

"The hope that springs eternal in the human breast" might well be applied to Coach Zach Curlin and his Normal Tigers. For the fourth time the Tigers invaded Fargason Field Saturday, boasting an undefeated record, a tremendous aerial attack and a cockiness that was sublime. The Tigers staggered out of Fargason Field following the game with the perfect record dragging in the dust, several battered would-be football players, an extinguished hope and a wonderment about what kind of anti-aircraft guns the Lynx used. The sad and sorrowful tale of the game can be told by the score—Southwestern 47, Normal 0.

With the Teachers rated as the strongest eleven their school has boasted in years, the Lynx backs romped and tore up and down the field in a heartless manner, and when the game was over told the Normalites to go out and get a reputation before they drifted into Fargason Field again. The Lynx are hard on Normal reps.

The much-touted aerial game of the Teachers collapsed in mid-air. Their passes soared over the line only to be grabbed by industrious Lynx backs. Sam Johnson, the Tiger "Big Bertha", turned out to be a one-lunged flivver, while "Old Man" Headden tossed passes in vain. Both Johnson and Headden decided they were better off on the bench about the middle of the festivities.

But to get to the game, "Dub" Jones fumbled a punt for Normal shortly after the kickoff, and Lorin

King recovered. Then the volcano erupted all over the Normalites. "Buck" Roberts and Pittman crashed thru the Teachers line and it was a touchdown. The Teachers kicked off, which was bad judgement. The Lynx grabbed the ball and, with the aid of end runs and passes, came back up the field 70 yards for another score. That was the first quarter. The Lynx took the ball again and, on the first play, "Snookums" Hightower, the twisting, galloping, dodging "Snookums" side-stepped thru the entire Normal team for 85 yards and a touchdown. It would take a heartless man to set down the play by play record of that game. It was pitiful to watch. The undefeated Teachers hurled themselves at a line that refused to give an inch, their passes were grounded or intercepted. The Teachers met a buzz saw and never could get set clearly on what the idea of the game was until the final whistle blew. The Lynx tore and snorted for 22 first downs while the Teachers ran up the amazing total of 5. The Teachers made one threat, when Miska disregarded the football rules so nicely printed in Spalding's and grabbed up a fumbled punt and sprinted 40 yards for a score, that is it would have been a score if the football rules didn't prohibit such playing. The Teacher stands went wild, but subsided with an audible sigh when the referee called the ball back.

The entire Lynx team played great football and deserves a lot of credit. The backs were unstoppable, while the line, led by Lorin King, stopped every running threat and the backfield ruined every aerial attack that threatened.

Several fights took place following the game, but the Teachers fared as badly in this phase of sport as the football team did on the field, as is witnessed by the green hats now decorating the campus.

SPORT LIGHTS

Lorin King, the headlock artist, went from one extreme to the other last Saturday. King tackled "Dub" Jones and came up with a toe hold that would have made Jimmy Londos jealous.

Harry Walton took a flying leap at Sam Johnson's dome after Samuel had caught a pass and took him to the mat for a fall that jarred the stands.

The Teachers' far-famed aerial attack collapsed before the Lynx anti-aircraft guns. "Old Man" Headden was rushed by the Lynx line and, consequently, the Teachers completed but 6 out of 16 passes, with four being intercepted. Four of the six completed were not long enough to give the Teachers downs, one actually being caught for a two-yard loss.

"Hike" Wilson put up a great battle as defensive fullback for the Teachers, but could not stem the tide unassisted.

"Snookums" Hightower contributed the prettiest run of the season in the second quarter when he dashed around right end for 85 yards for a touchdown. "Snookums" side-stepped, changed his pace, reversed his field, and everything else to step thru the entire Tiger eleven.

Lamar Pittman contributed his usual line crashing tactics, while "Buck" Roberts strutted when it came to ground gaining.

The whole line played a bang up game. Bob Logan and Jeff Davis, together with Crawford McGiveran formed a trio in the center of the line that stopped anything the Teachers could throw against them. Elder was also in the thick of it all, raking down Teacher backs every time they started off his side the line.

Southwestern Extends Invitations To Thirty-Six Colleges For Track Meet

College Sponsoring Races To Be Held On Dec. 6 Intramural Races Dec. 7

A road race in which 34 colleges representing five states will compete will be run here on December 16, in a meet sponsored by Southwestern, according to W. C. Rasberry, track coach at Southwestern. The event takes the place of the Birmingham meet held under the auspices of the A. A. U. which has been called off this year. The race will be an invitational affair, and bids have been sent to representatives of the S. I. A. A., S. I. C. and several unaffiliated colleges of the South. The Southern Amateur Athletic Association has been asked to sanction the race.

Six men compose each team in the race, with trophies going to the winning teams and individuals. The race will be from three to five miles. Plans are for the race to start at Southwestern and end in the main business district. Efforts are being made to have traffic restricted over the streets on which the race will be run.

All visiting teams will be housed at the Chisca Hotel, and meals will be served at the college. A banquet in honor of the visitors will be given on the night of the races.

The intramural race will be run here on Friday, December 7, Rasberry says. The course has been reduced from three to two miles. After the showing Southwestern made against Captain Abernathy's Elks, competition for the intramural race has grown by leaps and bounds.

With the exception of Roger Wright, winner of the Lynx-Elks race, the team is in excellent condition. Wright is suffering from an infected toe, but will be in the lineup for his class and fraternity.

Meet Delta Teachers Friday Afternoon

The Southwestern Bobcats, as yet undefeated this season, will play their fourth game of the year Friday when they tackle the Delta State Teachers at Cleveland, Miss. Coach Wes Adams and his squad left Friday morning and will return that night in order to witness the Lynx-Ole Miss battle Saturday. The freshmen are in excellent shape and are out to keep their undefeated record intact.

Adams will have his usual lineup, with Meeks Hinson, George Titus, Jack Delay, and Gurard in the backfield. The line will include Johnny Hughes and June Davidson at ends, Ed Detwiler and Jimmy Hughes at tackles, "Rube" Walker and Albert Morton at guards, and W. H. Berson at center.

The West Tennessee Teachers defeated the Delta Teachers a few weeks back and the Bobcats are out to do the same.
