LYNX PRIMED FOR PANTHERS SATURDAY

CO-ED BREAKS BONE IN FALL
Swing Overturns While Entertaining Ed

Fay Simpson and W. C. Rasberry, both new transfer students, were the principals in a strange accident last Saturday night, when a swing in which they were sitting was turned over, and Miss Simpson was thrown on the concrete floor, breaking her left collar bone and bruising her head. From meager information reaching the campus, it seems that Rasberry "dropped in" for a hasty call. While they were sitting in the swing it suddenly upset. In attempting to catch her, so Rasberry states, he made a valiant effort to prevent the fall, straining his neck and injuring his elbow in the attempt. While waiting for the doctor to arrive and set the fractured bone, Rasberry applied first aid. Miss Simpson is much improved. Rasberry has had three dates since last May, he admits, and serious injuries have followed each. On the first date he broke his wrist in two places, and he wrenched his neck on the second, and the third and recent date resulted in his receiving an injured elbow and strained neck.

MEN STUDENTS FORM SOCIETY
To Promote Harmony In Campus Life

A frolic in the Y. M. C. A. pool, followed by a banquet and entertainment, marked the first meeting of what is considered to be an organization which fills a long-felt need in the school. The Southwestern Social Club, expanded from the Non-Fraternity Club of last year to include all men students in the college, will, it is believed, be a means of obtaining heartiest co-operation and a stronger sense of unity among the students as a whole. That the organization is by no means purely a serious one was demonstrated at the meeting when the members were treated to popular airs with an individual touch by Miss Mel Shivers, one of the town's most popular amateur performers. This feature was rivaled by the address of Crawford McGivaren, the speaker of the evening. "Mac" stressed the advisability of such an organization and the need for some means of obtaining concerted action among the students, which need he felt would be met by this club. Abe Fortas, president of the club, in a plea for co-operation, set forth the ideals of the club. Briefly, they are to encourage a better spirit of fellowship and co-operation among the students by frequent gatherings and discussions, and to wipe out every trace of hostility and suspicion between fraternity and non-fraternity groups.

Seniors Disapprove Of A Special Coat

"Senior privileges" seem to be passe this year. At a meeting of the senior class last week, members approved a sample coat which they voted to wear, but opposition grew and a second meeting was called. Another vote was taken, with but a small percentage of those present voting for the coat. Thus far the seniors have not been able to locate the "senior walk." This walk, which was to have been reserved solely for them, has not been laid as yet. Class officers are still hopeful that the present class will inaugurate new customs which will become traditional.

SORORITY FETED BY MRS. JOHNSON

Active members of Chi Alpha sorority were entertained at tea last Saturday afternoon by Mrs. A. T. Johnson, chapter patroness. Mrs. Theodore Retgar presided at the tea table. Mrs. P. N. Rhodes was among the especially invited guests.

Chi Delta Meets

Chi Delta literary society met Wednesday afternoon in Hardie Chapel, with Katherine Griffith presiding. Dorothy Green, Freshette Denham, Lucy Farrow, Anne Roach, and Nell Holloway took part in the program, presenting book reviews, recitations, papers and music. The new constitution of the society was read after the program.

STUDES RARING FOR SPECIAL TO 'NOOGA NOV. 2

If 200 Go, Faculty Will Declare Holiday
TICKETS ON SALE
Leave Nov. 2 And Return Sunday Morning

On to Chattanooga! This is the battle cry on Southwestern's campus as student leaders are pushing the effort to have a special train run to Chattanooga for the game on Nov. 3 between the Lynx varsity and the University of Chattanooga. Freshmen Lamar Fulenwider and Lowry Long started the ball rolling and student leaders have entered the venture with all sails full. If 200 students buy $6.50 round-trip tickets, the N. C. & St. L. railway will furnish the special train. Tickets went on sale at the college Thursday morning, and the quota must be sold this week in order that railway officials will be able to have sufficient cars available for the collegians.

LEAVE NOV. 2

According to present plans the train will leave Union Station about 9 p. m. on November 2, and will arrive in Chattanooga early the next morning. The game will be played that afternoon. Special events are scheduled, including a trip up Lookout Mountain.

The train will leave Chattanooga the night of November 3, and will return to Union Station early the next morning.

If 200 students go to Chattanooga, there will be no classes on November 3, announces the faculty, after giving their sanction to the venture.

MOVE UP GAME

The Bobcat game with Sunflower Junior College, which is slated to be played on Fargason Field the afternoon of November 3, will be moved up to November 2 if the special is run, according to Dr. W. O. Swan, of the Athletic Association.

Tourist Pullman cars are being sought by the student promoters. The route will carry the student body thru Nashville both to and from Chattanooga.

Several professors will accompany the students "to keep order and decorum becoming gentlemen," and also to chaperone.

Memphians wishing to travel on the special train may secure reservations by calling the Southwestern business office. Announcement will be made soon where tickets may also be bought downtown.

Pick New Sorority Members Monday

The active chapter of Chi Delta Phi, national literary sorority, and prospective new members who have been requested to submit an original work, will meet at the home of Miss Margaret McKinstry next Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The membership is limited to 15. There are seven members now in the chapter, and eight will be chosen from among the best papers read Monday.

Chi Delta Phi corresponds to the Stylus Club, which is a men's literary fraternity.

Former Student Marries November 1st

One of the outstanding events of the fall season is the marriage of Miss Amalie Fair to Mr. T. M. Robinson, of Jackson, Miss., at Second Presbyterian Church at 4 p. m. on November 1. The Rev. A. B. Curry, pastor of Second Church, will officiate. Miss Fair has been a student at Southwestern during the past two years, and is a member of Chi Omega sorority. Many parties are being given in her honor by the Chi Omegas and other students in the college. The couple will go to Panama on their honeymoon, returning to Memphis during the latter part of November.

K. D.'S OBSERVE FOUNDERS' DAY
Mother Chapter Formed On Oct. 23, 1897

Kappa Delta chapter house was the scene of a beautiful planned banquet last Tuesday night when Founders' Day was observed by the active chapter, alumnae, guests, and patronesses.

The event was to commemorate the founding of Kappa Delta as a sorority at Virginia State Normal on Oct. 23, 1897.

Anne Gilliland, president of the active chapter, presided as toastmistress, and a delightful program was given, with Meredith Davis singing and playing the piano, and talks by Miss Florence Frost, Mrs. B. F. Johnson and Anne Roach. Mrs. Terrell Brame gave a reading.

Visitors Honored

Open house was held last Saturday at Chi Alpha sorority house in honor of the house guests of Miss Janice Coke

"Sachems" Initiate Gate Crasher Into Their Secret Clan

The "Sachems" broke loose again last Friday night at the A. O. Pi open house, and "initiated" another victim into their tribe.

Flushed with their recent success at the Kappa Delta dance at which they duly initiated Donald Bode with mercurial, they hid behind the rock pile in front of the sorority house. A message was sent in to John Mowsby, Memphis' most renowned gate-crasher. Mowsby, being ignorant of the cunning of Southwestern freshmen, fell for the bait and solemnly walked outside the house. He was ambushed and spirited away.

Several "Sachems" returned part of Mowsby's attire shortly afterward and hung it in the house as a warning against future gate-crashers.

Colleges Too Large

PITTSBURG, PA.—(IP)—American colleges are too large and too mechanical, according to Dr. W. S. Learned, of the Carnegie Institute for the Advancement of Learning.

SANHEDRIN IS LYNX SPONSOR
Interviews Frosh About Little Oversight

Editor Wailes, of the Lynx Annual, last week predicted a very pleasant season for those freshmen who failed to have their pictures made during the scheduled time.

Several freshmen took this hint lightly, so the Men's Sanhedrin intervened after overtures made to it by Editor Wailes. Much to the chagrin of the procrastinators and delight of the Council, the following men were interviewed Tuesday morning: Freshmen Brown, Jimmy and Johnny Hughes, Dettwiler, Davidson, Howell, Hamilton, Fisher, Ward Harris, Hinson. The Council was unable thru lack of time to properly care for the entire group of incorrigibles, but the Council found ample time Wednesday morning to properly settle this little controversy.

Regular Monthly Meeting Is Held

Routine work was the business at the regular monthly meeting of the Faculty Club held on October 16. Usually a paper is read by a member of the college's teaching corps on any subject which may be elected.

It is planned to have as speakers at the coming meetings any distinguished visitor who might be in Memphis at the time.

After each meeting the faculty members enjoy a social hour in the private dining room, where dinner is served. Prof. James A. Ross is president of the club, and Dr. W. R. Atkinson is secretary-treasurer.

Welcome Members

New members of the Ministers' Club were introduced at the regular bi-monthly luncheon held last Tuesday in the private dining hall.

It is the aim of the club to have in its membership all students who plan to enter any form of Christian endeavors, both at home and in foreign lands.

ARKANSAS LADS HOPE FOR EASY TILT WITH CATS

Farnsworth Won't Get In Squabble

WARING MAY PLAY

Schlater And Fizer To Cause Trouble

BY VERN BAUMGARTEN

The Arkansas College Panthers, for the third time in three years, will cross the river and tangle with the Southwestern Lynx at Fargason Field Saturday afternoon. The Panthers are on the prowl and are after Lynx meat, while the Lynx, after the slender repast on Bulldog hide last week, are anxious to dine heavily on the Arkansas feline. Indications are that there will be plenty of flying fur and cat hide strewn about Fargason Field Saturday at dusk.

Two years ago the Panthers brought a light team here doped to be easy pickings, but the invaders lived up to their nicknames and clawed out a 0 to 0 tie. Last year the Lynx took revenge and romped over the Arkansas boys 24 to 6.

Two familiar faces will be seen with Arkansas in "Butch" Schlater and "Red" Fizer, who both starred last season. "Butch" is the defensive star and a ram on offense while Fizer provides the open field running. He tore off gains of 25 and 60-yards last week against the Arkansas Teachers and played a great game. The Panthers have a stronger and more experienced team this year than last and will give the Lynx an interesting afternoon. They defeated Little Rock College 13 to 7, lost to Hendrix 7 to 6, and went down before the Arkansas Teachers last Saturday 24 to 0.

Southwestern will enter the game with its usual lineup with the exception of Capt. Dode Farnsworth, who will be out for the second straight game owing to studies. This should be Dode's last week on the sidelines and he is sadly missed. Alternate—Captain "Chi" Waring has been out with illness, but may break into the lineup this week.

The rest of the squad is in good shape and are out to prove that they can play better football than they did against Union.

The probable lineups:

Southwestern	Pos.	Ark. College
Brown	R. E.	Burge
King	R. T.	Hodges
Davis	R. G.	Parks
Footo	C.	Patterson
Liddon	L. G.	McRae
Elder
McGivaren	L. T.	Trimble
Porter
Waring	L. E.	Ferrill
Lloyd	Q. B.	Kennedy
Hightower	R. H.	Fizer
Walton	L. H.	Thompson
Pittman	F. B.	Schlater

Shrine Band Heads Student March Sat

Memphis Shriners, led by their band, will witness the Southwestern-Arkansas College football game on Fargason field next Saturday in a body. Saturday is Shriners' Day at Southwestern.

Students of the college will be dismissed from classes early Saturday and will meet the Shriners in front of the Shrine building at 1 p. m., from where they will start a parade of the downtown district.

The freshman football squad will be in uniform, and will trudge the business section along with the freshmen and upperclassmen.

FORD IS CHOSEN MAJOR OF BAND

Morris Ford, newly elected drum major of the college band, will officiate with the baton thruout the remainder of the year. Auvergn Blaylock will be in charge of the managerial duties, and Freshman Morys Hines will be librarian.

Practices will be held each Tuesday night at 7 o'clock in the tower room.

Has Two Jobs

HOUGHTON, N. Y.—(IP)—Dr. J. S. Lucky, president of Houghton college, is a busy man this year.

In addition to his executive duties here, he is acting president of Marion college, at Marion, Indiana, and is dividing his time between the two colleges.

BLAZERS SAFE FROM GIRLS

Prof. Forewarn Lynx Members To Hold On To Coats

The hearts of all co-eds throbbed an extra beat last Saturday when the members of the Lynx Club appeared on the football field garbed for the first time in their natty red and black college blazers.

The coats with the "S" on the left breast pocket immediately caught the eyes of the girls, and it was not long until the boys were being besieged from all sides by girl friends who wanted to wear these privileged blazers.

Knowing the reception which these blazers would find in the hearts of the college co-eds, Prof. W. R. Cooper and J. A. Ross, Lynx faculty members, forewarned club members by stating that "if one of these blazers is seen on a co-ed it will be immediately confiscated."

So, dear student, that is the reason why you won't sport these blazers in the future.

The Lynx Club has just recently been re-organized with the expressed purpose of creating an atmosphere of college spirit and hospitality to visiting athletic teams and to spectators. One of the most important duties of club members is to officiate as gatekeepers and ushers at the football games.

Membership in the club is honorary and open only to upperclassmen. Men of the freshmen class this year who prove themselves worthy will be eligible for membership in the club next year.

Present officers are Harold Avent, president; Crawford McGivaren, vice-president; Sam Anderson, secretary-treasurer. The remaining personnel includes Allen Haden, John Bornman, Lindsey Gunn, Mike Wailes, Claude Bowen, Gerald Capers, Ogdin Baine, Warner Beard, Oliver Cornwell, Tom Drake, Nate White, Billy Fountain, Horace Harwell, James Jackson, Duncan McRaney, Billy Martin, Marion Painter, Leroy DuBard, Ed Thompson, Charles Terry, Herman Bevis, Garner Watson, Bobby Carpenter, Luther Southworth, Jack DuBose, Stanford Parnell, Vern Baumgarten, Malcolm Perry and John Crofton.

The stunts committee is composed of Prof. R. F. Thomason, McGivaren and Avent. The publicity committee includes Prof. N. Rhodes, Baumgarten, Southworth, Perry and Crofton.

CARLETON GOES FREE

NORTHFIELD, MINN.—(IP)—Because Carleton college is "no longer an orthodox institution, but frankly liberal," the Minnesota Baptist Church has severed all relations with the educational institution to which it gave birth.

The decision was made by a vote of 172 to 135 at the church convention in Minneapolis, and brought to a climax the action against Carleton instigated by Dr. W. B. Riley, pastor of the First Baptist Church here.

The vote was in favor of the report of a minority of a committee which investigated religious thinking on the college campus.

CHARGE FUNNY BIZ.

ALLIANCE, OHIO—(IP)—Charges that ballot boxes were stuffed were made by student officials after Al Smith was favored in the student vote taken at Mount Union College here.

The poll, taken by the Dynamo, Mount Union's student paper, gave Smith 106 votes, Hoover 78, W. Z. Foster on the Workers Communicative ticket 2, and Norman Thomas on the Socialist ticket 1.

Student officials in charge of the paper claim copies of the publication were stolen, ballots clipped and cast by Smith supporters.

Politics at the university are growing warm with students and faculty members participating. Hoover-Curtis and Smith-Robinson clubs have been formed by the students.

CAN THIS BE TRUE?

LONDON, ENGL.—(IP)—Professor A. V. Hill, of University College, has made experiments on athletes which show that when a man runs 100 yards in 10 3/4 seconds he expends as much energy as if he were to jump 650 feet into the air—almost twice the height of St. Paul's Cathedral.

NEGROES ON FACULTY

GREENSBORO, N. C.—(IP)—The faculty at Bennett College for Women is composed of 19 Negro college women, three of whom hold master's degrees and ten hold bachelor's degrees from some of the largest universities in America.

Gladys B. Johnson, who has a master's degree from Northwestern University, is the first negro girl ever to receive that degree at the Evanston institution.

Carol B. Cotton, dean of the school, holds an M. A. from Columbia university.

Alice G. Taylor, who received her bachelor of arts degree at Morgan college, and her master's degree at Columbus, has taught for eight years in the public schools of Maryland.

BAREFOOT BOOTER

CORVALLIS, ORE.—(IP)—Oregon State college will exhibit a football novelty this season in the shape of a barefoot kicker. Henry (Honolulu) Hughes, who learned the game in Hawaii where he became proficient as a punter, drop-kicker and place kicker with his bare feet, says he cannot get results while wearing shoes, and so will be permitted to boot with his bare feet.

Coach Paul J. Schissler is searching now for a pair of shoes which Hughes can slip on and off in a moment, for the Oregon State mentor does not want to risk Hughes' unshod feet in a scrimmage, and he will wear the shoes when he is not kicking.

FACTS ON COLLEGES

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(IP)—A number of interesting facts about American colleges and universities are revealed in the 1927 edition of the Educational Directory of the United States Bureau of Education. Here are some of them:

Columbia University, at New York, is the largest university or college in the country, with 35,000 students and 1500 teachers.

Buena Vista college, at Storm Lake, Iowa, is the smallest college in the country, with 21 students and a faculty of 16 teachers.

Harvard is the oldest university, having been established in 1636. William and Mary college and Yale university come second and third, having been established in 1693 and 1701, respectively.

Harvard college boasts of a 32 million dollar endowment, the largest in the country, while Oberlin college, in Ohio, has the largest endowment, $11,000,000, of any college of its nature.

In Canada the Universities of Montreal, Toronto, and Laval are the three largest educational institutions of the collegiate nature, having between five and six thousand students each.

The college enrollment nearly doubled between 1922 and 1924, increasing from 269,000 men and 168,000 women in 1922 to 419,000 men and 246,000 women in 1924.

Everybody Is Going to Chattanooga

Plans are on foot for a special train to Chattanooga for the game between the Lynx and the Chattanoogaogs. The faculty has announced its willingness to enter into the spirit by allowing students to make the trip with their sanction.

Two students have voluntarily taken upon themselves the responsibility of putting the proposition over, both in selling the necessary 200 tickets and arranging for the special train. A very reasonable round-trip fare of $6.50 has been promised.

Let's get behind these boys and ride that special to Chattanooga! If you have to stint to rake up the fare, then stint, because the trip will justify it. If you were on that special to Ole Miss four years ago, then there is no doubt but that you will be on this one. All right, men, women, children, let's dig up the money and charter this train. If the train is chartered, there are many Memphians who will gladly buy tickets, and this will help out on the 200 quota. The idea is to get the quota at once, advertise the fact, and it will follow that the outsiders will be on deck with their $6.50 for the trip.

Co-Eds Shun Public Speaking, Debating

Co-eds of the college, for some mysterious reason, are averse to debating under the rules of disputation as set forth in Parliamentary Law. Miss Ruby Sebalsky, who has been prominent among the girl debaters for the past three years, recently called a meeting of all co-eds who are interested in reorganizing the club in order to compete with the Quibbler Forum. One co-ed responded.

Each year the co-eds and eds stage a debate, but from the indifference which has been shown by the girls on this important phase of student activity, it seems as tho the custom will die out.

There are several excellent co-ed speakers in the student body, several of whom have already made their debut before a Southwestern audience. Why they should be so apathetic this year is beyond our ken of comprehension. It is needless to enumerate the advantages which membership in such a club will give, such as poise, clear thinking, sound reasoning, mental keenness, and because there are co-eds in the college who know these truths and yet are oblivious to all efforts made to organize a debating club, it is discouraging to those who are eager to devote the time and effort to building up a creditable and worth-while organization.

We feel certain that the co-eds have not given this matter their fullest consideration.

SO: HAVE YOU EVER LET ANY OTHER MAN KISS YOU? NO: NEVER, DUNCAN, NEVER, ONLY A FEW KAPPA ALPHA BOYS.

Darling, were you faithful to me while I was away? Yes, George, I was kissed only twice.

Who were the two? The Lynx club and the Men's Glee Club.

It was reported that the co-eds are like last year's overcoat—don't look so good but will have to do.

Pretty Nurse: Every time I take a patient's pulse it beats faster. What shall I do? Doctor: Blindfold him.

Dear Wife—I am sending you a check for a thousand kisses. Love, Hubby.

Dear Hubby—I got your check and the iceman cashed it. Love, Your Wife.

Dr. Townsend: "Mr. McGee, will you please run up the blind?" Mr. McGee: "Well, I'm not much of an athlete, but I'll try it once."

Caller—Is the editor in? Office Boy—No.

Caller—Well, just throw this poem in the wastebasket for him, will you?

Say, look over there. Well? Is that a man in that bathing suit or is it a girl?

Bill—I hear that Buck got pinched for jumping the lights.

Simon Sutlarff staped steadily along the thickly carpeted corridor. His slippers made no sound and only his breathing, the labored breathing of a very angry man, was audible.

The house was full of other guests at the house party, but he passed no one.

At the fourth door he paused. His teeth gritted and his eyes blazed. Suddenly he turned the door knob violently. The door was still locked. Simon Sutlarff raised his voice.

"Whoever you are that's been taking a bath in there for the past two hours, I say you're a pig and an unprincipled rascal! And I'd like to have you shot before sunrise!" Shouted Simon Sutlarff.

And with towel still over his arm he rushed back to his room, dressed hastily and left for home without saying goodby to a soul.

I'm The Guy

I'm the guy who is always making raids on the dormitories after soap, towels, powder and other numerous things which I should loosen up and buy. I think it is the duty of dormitory students to extend the open chest to my needs. Some poor saps are so stingy they always lock the door when they see me coming. Isn't that cheap! But I bang on the door until they do let me in. It always gives me the greatest pleasure to slip in and wake somebody up. I pop them with a playful tap, and ask them where they have their shirts hid. I've got to keep tidy, don't I? Sure! One or two trips a week in every room will just about turn the trick. It never occurs to me that these students might object to these little sponging tricks of mine. I know they are too polite to refuse me, and that is the reason why I continue to impose on them. Just leave it to me, kid, and I'll get along in this world.

Dode Will Get In Line-up Next Sat.

Captain Dode Farnsworth will be missing from the line-up Saturday in the Arkansas College game. Dode was ruled off the team for a two-week period by the faculty. This is to be the final week of his suspension, as he was on the sidelines during the Union tilt.

Dode is sorely missed as he is one of the Lynx' chief ground gainers, besides being the best punter on the eleven. Dode will be out next week and will be back at his old place for the Chattanooga contest.

WHO'S WHO IN SENIOR CLASS

Leroy Nickle DuBard

When Leroy N. DuBard graduates from Southwestern next June several organizations will lose an efficient business manager, the college an excellent student and booster, and the student body a loyal and trustworthy friend. Leroy was born at Como, Miss., December 16, 1908, the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. DuBard. He received his early education at the Lauderdale Grammar School, and his high school training at Central, in Memphis. He has attended Southwestern four years.

Leroy is a member of Beta Sigma fraternity. He is a member of Alpha Theta Phi, scholastic honor society at Southwestern, and is also a member of Sigma Upsilon, national honorary literary society. He is serving his second year as business manager of "The Southwestern Players," and is a member of Theta Alpha Phi, dramatic fraternity. He was the representative of his fraternity on the Pan-Hellenic Council last year, and is a member of the Lynx Boosters' Club and the Glee Club. This year Leroy is serving as joint business manager on "The Lynx" the college annual.

ALUMNI ASSOC. LAYS PLANS TO FORM CHAPTER

Units Will Be Organized In Many Southern States

Definite steps toward organizing Southwestern alumni chapter units throughout Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Arkansas, Missouri and Kentucky are being made by the present alumni chapter under the leadership of the Rev. U. S. Gordon, president, and local member.

The initial movement was started last Saturday when a banquet was held in the private dining hall, which was followed by a business meeting of those present.

Mr. J. B. Love, class of '22, was elected president of the unit to be formed of alumni members living within a radius of 100 miles of Memphis. Other officers chosen were Mr. Duncan Martin, '85, vice-president, and Miss Anna Beth Gary, '28, secretary-treasurer.

Prof. Marion Lee MacQueen, math professor at Southwestern, was appointed chairman of a committee to draw up a constitution and by-laws for the local unit. Mr. Layman Johnson and the association officers will serve with Prof. MacQueen on the committee.

Plans are being formulated at present to organize a chapter unit at either Cleveland or Jackson, Miss., the first of several now under consideration.

ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

As an expression of loyalty and confidence which the alumni of the college hold for Southwestern, the following resolutions were drawn up and endorsed by those present.

"We, the Alumni of Southwestern, at this our first opportunity to give public expression to our feelings on these matters, desire to affirm most heartily:

"1. Our endorsement of the type of buildings here and our congratulations to those who were wise enough to plan these splendid college buildings and equipment.

"2. Our loyalty to the new institution at Memphis. As when a daughter removes from the old home to locate elsewhere and her mother's love goes with her, so we of the older Alumni of Clarksville do follow Southwestern to Memphis with our loyalty and love, and we commend her to the later generations to love and cherish her even as we did her mother.

"3. We affirm most heartily our love and appreciation of the President of Southwestern. We express our sense of appreciation of his value to the college and to the entire Mississippi Valley. We commend the wisdom he has shown in establishing this institution in projecting its future. We offer him our allegiance, and as alumni we call on all sons and daughters of Southwestern to give Southwestern their heart's allegiance and support.

R. A. Bolling,
Duncan Martin
Lehman Johnson,
Committee

A second meeting will be held in the near future to carry to completion the project of establishing these several units throughout the Southern states listed above.

PERSONALS

Charlotte Bruce, who was operated on recently at Methodist hospital for appendicitis, is reported much improved, and will be able to return to her home Saturday.

Helen Northcross spent the week-end at her home in Corinth, Miss.

Sue Horton spent Friday morning on the campus.

Zilda Farrow went home for the week-end.

Sara Johnson, last June graduate, is devoting her time to conducting a private music class.

Sara Childs spent last week-end at the home of Dr. H. L. Ellison.

Alta Kidd was a campus visitor Thursday. Miss Kidd is now teaching at A. B. Hill grammar school.

Malcolm Gibbons has returned from his home in Alabama where he was called last week-end on account of the death of his grandfather.

City Pan-Hellenic Outlines Activity

Plans for the coming year were outlined at the first fall meeting of the city Pan-Hellenic Council which was held at the Kappa Delta sorority house last Saturday.

Miss Etta Hanson gave a very delightful talk on "Travels", which was followed by an ice course.

Postpone Meeting

The lure of the Fair was too great for members of Quibbler Forum last week, so their meeting was postponed to this Thursday night in the private dining hall.

The subject of "States Rights" was argued, with L. P. Watkins, Malcolm Perry, Freshman Simmons and Ward Harris speaking pro and con.

PICK SPONSORS FOR SATURDAY CONTEST SOON

Miss Bruce Unable To Attend Due To Operation

The intrusion of Dame Operation into the schedule for sponsors which is being followed at each of the Lynx football games, is proving a source of much worry to the Athletic Association committee who are responsible for instituting the custom here this year.

Miss Charlotte Bruce, who was to be the official sponsor with Miss Catherine Underwood at the game Saturday when the Lynx play Arkansas College on Fargason Field, was operated on recently, and is unable to attend. In all probability either Miss Dorothy Manden or Miss Pauline Barton, who are sponsors of the Southwestern-Ole Miss game on Nov. 17, will take Miss Bruce's place. Miss Bruce will then be one of the sponsors at the Ole Miss game.

The sponsor schedule for the remainder of the season follows: Arkansas College, Miss Underwood and either Miss Vanden or Miss Barton; West Tennessee Teachers, Miss Elizabeth Norton and Miss Janet Moody; Ole Miss, Miss Bruce and either Miss Vanden or Miss Barton, depending on the selection for the Arkansas College game; University of Arkansas, Miss Frances Crawford and Miss Lina Hughes; Hendrix, Miss Louise Ralston and Miss Juanita Montroy. Misses Meredith Davis and Addie Louise Murray were sponsors at the Lambuth game; Misses Helen Gill and Dorothy Whitten the Georgetown tilt, and Misses LeNeil McCullough and Nell Holloway at the Union game last Saturday.

Miss Virginia Hogg was operated on for appendicitis at Methodist Hospital last Saturday morning. Her condition is reported as good.

Three Eds Outwit Fair Sharper And See Sights Gratis

Three broke Southwestern eds sallied out to the Fair Grounds last Friday night to see the sights gratis—that is if they had the proper tricks in their repertoire.

Undaunted by a dearth of money, Freshman A. Levine, Hugh Lumpkin, and Sophomore Ira Goldsmith, essayed to the scene of amusement in their Ford. Their trouble started at the gate. The attendant asked them, "whither away?" They said "inside."

When asked to produce tickets to gain admittance, they replied that they were Southwestern students and were on their way to the emergency hospital to get a sick student. They were admitted.

So far so lovely, but their woes soon started again. They had to park somewhere, so they picked out a choice location. A policeman accosted them and told them to move on for the place was taboo as a parking ground.

"We're Southwestern students, officer, and we are on our way to the emergency hospital to get a sick student", they returned. They parked where they intended to.

Four hours later the three eds returned to their automobiles laden with dolls, candy, blankets, and other accessories. How they got them—that is their secret. They loaded their spoils in the Ford and left the grounds without molestation.

Stray Greeks Will Initiate Four Men

Beta Lambda fraternity will hold its first initiation since its organization at East End Garden Saturday, November 10.

The neophytes who take the humorous side of the "Bah Bah's" initiation include Frank White, Gerald Seage, Donald Ramier, and Joe Hopper.

The members and their dates who will put the pledges thru are Mike Wailes and Mary Douglas Watkins, Wilson Foote and Katherine Reid, Vern Baumgarten and Edith Rice.

Sophocleans Meet

At its first meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Townsend last Tuesday night, Sophoclean Club members discussed the first three books of "John Brown's Body," by Benet. Abe Fortas, president, conducted the discussion of questions of the poem. The next discussion will be on the remainder of the poem. Mrs. John W. Davis and Ellen Goodman will prepare the questions for this meeting.

Report for Daily Runs With Cinder Team

Southwestern's cross-country runners have indulged in light workouts in the college gym during the past week on account of bad weather. Coach Raspberry has a stiff schedule of early morning sprints for his charges in order to whip them into condition for the S. I. A. A. meets which are in the offing.

Only a few weeks remain before the intramural season opens at the college between classes and fraternities.

Two new candidates are out for the varsity team. Billy Hughes, basketball captain, and extremely elongated as regards his pedals, has reported for daily runs. Malcolm Ritchie is another new sprinter to report.

WILL MARRY IN DUAL WEDDING

Miss Louise Russell to Wed F. M. Barton

Miss Louise Russell, active member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority last year, will marry Mr. F. M. Barton on November 21. Their engagement was announced recently.

The wedding will be a double event. Miss Elizabeth Russell, a sister, will marry Mr. Oliver Barton, brother of the groom, at the same time.

Stylus To Choose Four New Members

Four new members will be taken in by the Stylus Club this year. At the first meeting held last Tuesday night it was found that 12 members of last year's club had returned. Profs. Watkins and Haden, and two student members are among the missing.

The regular membership is 16, which means that four men will be admitted this year. Plans for the club during the coming year were discussed.

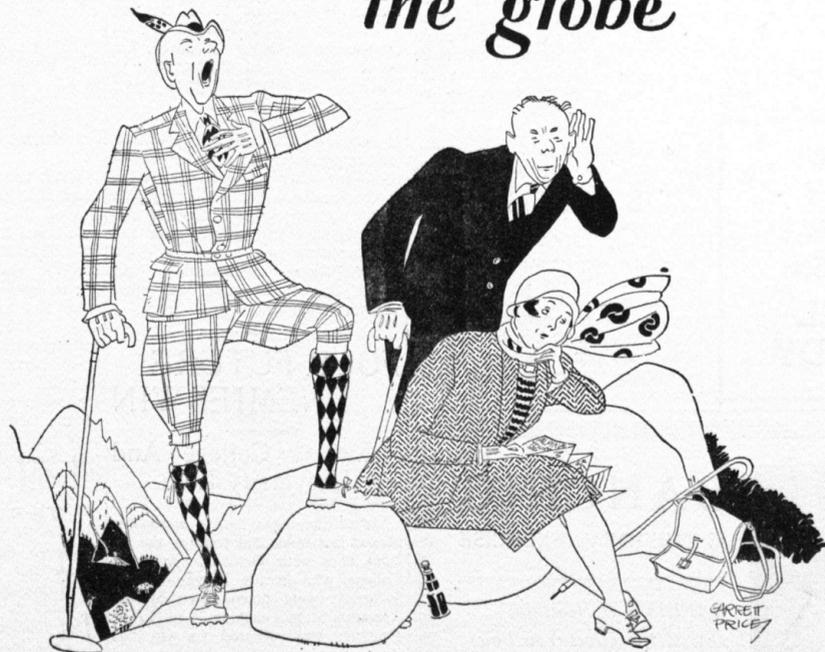

Stylus officers are Earle McGee, president; Leroy DuBard, vice-president; Granville Farrar, secretary-treasurer. Others present were Warner Hall, Prof. Johnson, Richard Hunsaker, Mike Wailes and Charles Terry.

An echo that circles the globe

Sightseers returning from the Alps never fail to babble of the marvelous echoes that reverberate so obligingly from peak to peak.

But no such phenomenon matches a certain echo that keeps circling this whole mundane sphere. It is the best-known cigarette slogan ever coined—the Chesterfield phrase "They Satisfy."

Originated to describe a unique coupling of qualities seemingly opposed—"they're mild, and yet they satisfy"—its descriptive accuracy was instantly perceived. Today it echoes and re-echoes wherever cigarettes are smoked:

"Satisfacen... ils satisfont... THEY SATISFY!"

And rightly enough, for Chesterfields are mild—and they DO satisfy... and what more can any cigarette offer?

CHESTERFIELD

MILD enough for anybody..and yet.. THEY SATISFY

Lynx Have Hard Time Squeezing Out 13 To 6 Victory Over The Bulldogs

Hightower Scores In First Frame, Which Almost Proved Undoing Of The Varsity

Somebody spoke a mouthful when they stuttered with strong Scottish accents that "the best laid plan of mice and men often fizzle out," or words to that effect. The plans of the Southwestern Lynx nearly took a flop last Saturday at Fargason Field when the Lynx invited the Union Bulldogs, from Jackson, Tenn., over for a little grid contest. The Lynx finally won 13 to 6, but not until the Bulldogs had thrown several scares into Lynx fans. According to the rules, past scores and other paraphernalia of the dopesters, Southwestern was around about 40 points better than Union but in actual playing the margin proved to be just 7 points, and at times it appeared to be even slimmer.

The Lynx threw their offense into high gear to start the game but the gears slipped after the second quarter and remained stuck in reverse. The bright lights of the contest were few and far between. "Snookums" Hightower and "Four Yard" Pittman supplying the offense while "Light Horse" Harry Walton and Loren King and Flint Liddon, "The Kast Iron Kids", featured the defense—what defense there was.

The Lynx kicked off to start the fray and Union immediately showed that no matter what the Lynx did to Georgetown, they couldn't do it to the Bulldogs. Fisher and Caywood broke loose with a series of dashes around end, and made three straight first downs. The Lynx finally agreed to play football and held. Roy Stewart tried to pass and tossed the ball over the goal, giving it to Southwestern on their own 20-yard line. Then "Snookums" Hightower strutted his stuff. He galloped around end, dodged a couple of men and aired out for 55-yards before being dragged down. Pittman then started to show his line plunging ability, aided by short dashes by Hightower and Walton. "Snookums" finally dashed over the goal for a touchdown and then place-kicked for the extra point. Up to this period the Lynx looked like a million dollars but rapidly dwindled down to the "cents" value.

Union received and unleashed another driving attack but lost the ball. Both punted a couple of times, until Caywood fumbled a punt which "Big" Elder pounced on, giving the Lynx the ball on the Bulldog 40-yard line. Hightower broke loose for about 25 yards and Pittman rammed the ball over for another counter but the try for goal went wide.

STEWART CROSSES
The Bulldogs got peeved after this score and behind the terrific plunging of Roy Stewart carried the ball down the field for a touchdown. Stewart scoring. This try for point also went wild and the half ended 13 to 6, in favor Southwestern.

The second half found neither team being able to score. The Lynx had trouble stopping Stewart, the big Bulldog fullback, who several times carried the ball into a scoring position but was unable to summon the final punch. Fisher also showed some fast ball toting, being especially good on making off tackle and short end runs for 4 and 5 yards at a clip. The final quarter developed into a punting duel and the game ended with the ball in midfield. The Lynx were handicapped in this. Hightower, which did not take him out of the game, but held down his usual nimble ground gaining ability.

PUNCH IS LACKING
The Lynx showed a vast improvement in breaking up passes but fell off in their offense work and line defense. When it's not one thing it is another. The main trouble was over-confidence after the first easy scored touchdown and the Lynx were unable to snap out of it. The defense showed up well at times when it stopped the Union backs on the Lynx five-yard line and took the ball on downs.

Lineup and summary:

Southwestern (13)	Union (6)
Pittman	F. E. (c) D. Stewart
Porter	L. T. Thomas
McGiveran	L. G. Helen
Liddon	L. Miller
Footo	CG. Koonce
Davis	R. T. Parker
King	R. E. Reed
Brown	R. B. Caywood
Lloyd	Q. H. R. Stewart
Walton	L. H. Welch

SPORT LIGHTS

George Hightower's 55-yard sprint in the opening quarter was the longest run of the game. George missed getting loose for a touchdown by the neck on his jersey as one Union man made a half-way tackle that slowed him up until another could hit him.

Roy Stewart, the Bulldog fullback, showed some line plunging deluxe in the game. The big boy was hard to stop and stepped off a lot of yardage during the evening.

Lamar Pittman, the Lynx full, also showed his right to the nickname of "Four Yard". Pitt has plenty of drive and is about as consistent a ground gainer as anyone on the team.

Loren King and Flint Liddon, the Kast Iron Kids, showed practically all of the steller line work exhibited by the Lynx. These two broke thru and threw the Union backs for a loss several times when the invaders were on the the Southwestern goal line.

The Union aerial attack much vaunted in pre-game writeups, failed to connect. The Union backs could not find a man in the open and twice passed over the Lynx goal line on third down, giving the Lynx the ball on their 20-yard line.

Koonce, Bulldog tackle, is a married gentleman. They say his week ends are very monotonous as he plays every Saturday and his wife visits him on Sunday.

Captain Dode Farnsworth acted as linesman during the game, the first time in four years at Southwestern that he has not participated in a Lynx battle. Dode will be relegated to the same place this week but will be back in the battle against Chattanooga.

Walton Is "Light Horse"

Courtesy The Commercial Appeal

"Light Horse" Harry Walton, star back on last year's Bobcat team, is one of the most consistent and hard-fighting gridmen that has ever worn a Southwestern uniform. Harry was the backbone of the varsity defense last Saturday, being in the thick of every play, whether it was thru the line or around the ends. Altho he is extremely light—as backfield players go—yet this seems to be the reason for his fine showing. He is nimble, fast and a furious tackler, sticking to his man like cotton in a bottle of LePage's glue.

29 ENTERED IN GOLF TOURNEY

Matches Being Played On Overton Links

Twenty-nine members of the student body and faculty of Southwestern college have paired off in the open mid-fall golf tourney now in progress on the Overton Park course. One match a week is required. A consolation flight will end the meet, which will insure each entree of at least 36 holes of playing.

Those entered and paired off are Wilson, Footo and Dr. J. A. Ross, A. Erskin and Warner Beard, Billy Fountain and Allen Haden. "Chic" Long and Dr. W. R. Cooper, Dr. A. P. Kelso and Solan Williams, Prof. Marion L. MacQueen and Don Ramier, Dr. F. C. Huber and Harvey Kidd, Horace Harwell and T. M. Garrott, F. E. Glass and Maury Hull, Dr. W. O. Swan, and Oliver Cormwell, Dr. W. R. Atkinson and William Martin, Denison Reid and Prof. J. H. Davis and Gene Beard by.

The matches are for the purpose of uncovering the best golf talent on the campus in preparation for coming tilts with other colleges. Dr. Kelso, of the faculty team, is the champion golfer on the campus. Several new students have entered the meet and their prowess with the stick will determine whether they can oust Kidd, Beard, Garrott, Cormwell and other veterans from last year's varsity.

FOUR FUTURE ENEMIES WIN

Arkansas College And University Lose

Six of the Lynx future opponents played last week and four of the six came thru with victories. Arkansas College, who invade Fargason Field Saturday, were taken down by the Arkansas State Teachers 24 to 0. The Panthers were figured to win but their opponents upset the dope and handed them a sound drubbing.

Chattanooga gave indications of a lot of power by running wild against Louisville, with a total of 70 points to their opponents' nothing. Ken Strong, track star, was largely responsible, sprinkling the day with a series of broken-field dashes. Ole Miss took on the lowly Auburn eleven, the underdog of the Southern Conference, and handed them a 19 to 0 defeat, the nineteenth straight conference loss Auburn has suffered. The Hendrix Bulldogs played Little Rock College and won 13 to 0 in a well-fought game, while the University of Arkansas met the Texas Longhorns and went under before the Steer attack 20 to 7.

The Lynx' city rivals, West Tennessee Normal, won their fourth straight victory, defeating Will Mayfield 34 to 0, at Marblehead, Mo., and giving all indications of a real team.

SPEAKING OF ATHLETICS

By Vern Baumgarten

This "Snookums" Hightower is a ground-gaining piece of humanity. He has been stepping out this year against the Lynx opponents and more than fulfilling the nice things said about him last fall when he was a freshman back. Hightower believes in getting loose in a hurry. In the Georgetown game he broke away on the second play of the game and ran almost 70-yards to score on the invaders. Last week against Union "Snookums" sprinted 55-yards on the first play of the game for the Lynx and put the ball in a scoring position. He also sprinted 30-yards once in each game and at Bowling Green stepped off a 45-yard gain.

Here's a few of the country's leading forward pass combinations this year—
Hope to pass,
Late to Chapel,
Back to Work.

While the Lynx have been busy in their own backyard repelling hostile Eagles, Bulldogs, etc., our old and traditional home town foe, Zach Curlin's Teachers, are rapidly becoming sure that the Teachers are finally going to trim the Lynx. The Teachers have won four games and lost nary a one. They have kept their goal line uncrossed while running up some large scores against their opponents and their motto is "Lick the Lynx". Undoubtedly the Teachers have one of the best teams in years but we also believe the Lynx are able to play football with anyone and do themselves justice.

The South has finally stepped out in football. When the North, East or West now pick on the boys from over the Mason and Dixon line they get ready to put in an afternoon of football. Saturday, Georgia Tech increased the southern prestige by licking the "Fighting Irish" of Notre Dame. Two weeks ago Southern Methodist thrust a scare into the Army to add to the list of southern games when Centre beat Harvard, Vanderbilt beat Michigan and Alabama beat Washington.

Penland Undecided On Roles For Play

Final selection of Southwestern players to fill the eleven roles in "The Successful Calamity", which will be given during November, had not been made Wednesday night. Clifford Penland, of the Little Theater, who is directing the players in their histrionic efforts this year, has not definitely decided his choice for each particular part. The players have been meeting almost every night in Hardie chapel.

men went over for touchdowns and there were times when the locals would lose the ball when the Union line stiffened in the shadow of their own goal line.

The only casualty of the game was June Davidson, who lost a front tooth. Malcolm Lauderdale and Simmons played well for Union, while Bierson, Walker, Gerard, and DeLay played a great game for the Lynx freshmen.

The Bobcats play Sunflower Aggies at Fargason field Friday, November 3, at three o'clock.

DATES ARE SET FOR MEETINGS

Co-Ed Equestrians Set For Gallops

Freshette members of the College Equestrian Club will ride their cavorting mount every Thursday afternoon, according to Louise Stratmann, co-ed gym director, who is sponsoring the club. Among those who comprise this division of the club are Alice Rogers, Lyle Stange, Josephine Zimmerman, Hazel Edmunds, Elizabeth Sale, Betty Jones and Martha Hamilton.

The upperclass co-eds will ride each Monday afternoon, starting at 3:30 o'clock. Members of this group are Carolyn Stockley, Maria Negus, Parmelia Bacigaloupo, Margaret Ashley, Alice Patrick, Elizabeth Bensberg, Louise Stratmann, Louise Ralston, and Lois Brown.

Mrs. Garner, who owns a stable of fine riding mounts, will give lessons of instruction on horsemanship to the two groups.
