Annual Rose Ball Of Alpha Omicron Pi To Be Tomorrow Night

At Memphis Country Club From 8 'Til 12

Will Honor New Officers; Ware Orchestra To Play

Tomorrow night the second of the annual spring formals of the Southwestern sororities will be held when the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority entertains with its traditional Rose Ball at the Memphis Country Club in honor of its newly-elected officers.

The dance will be from 8 until 12 o'clock and the ballroom will be decorated with smilax and red roses and an A.O.Pi pin which is made of red roses will be the feature of the decorations. There will be four no-breaks and three specials and an Alpha Omicron Pi leadout. Jack Ware's orchestra will play. During the leadout, "The Sweetheart of A.O.Pi" will be played. Representatives from the sororities on the campus who will attend with dates are: Dorothy Stacy and Celeste Taylor, Tri-Delta; Harriette Hollis and Kitty Bright Tipton, Chi Omega; Deola White and Dorothy Esch of Kappa Delta; and Georganne Little and Geraldine Childress of Zeta Tau Alpha. Tinker Jett, Mopsy White, Meredith Moorhead and Marjorie Moorhead will be the non-sorority representatives.

Chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. John Rollow, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Pond, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Atkinson and Dean W. R. Cooper.

Before the leadout, Arabia Wooten, newly-elected president of A.O.Pi, will be presented a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Arrangements for the dance were made by Arabia Wooten and Elizabeth Hinckley.

Officers who are being honored and their escorts are: Arabia Wooten, president, who will attend with Strother Asquith; Margery O'Kelly, vice-president, with Russel Wiener; Katherine Miller, corresponding secretary, with Billy Donelson; Gladys Moore, treasurer, with Ed McGregor; Virginia Heppel, recording secretary, with Rowlett Sneed.

Cogswell Elected By Singers

Officers for the coming year were chosen by the Southwestern Singers at the regular meeting on Monday. Jim Cogswell, junior was elected president and Tom Duncan junior and Manny Sieving, freshman, were elected vice-presidents. Peggy Kelly, freshman, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

Retiring officers are Pat Davis, president, Jim Cogswell and Tom Duncan, vice-presidents, and Elizabeth Scarborough, secretary-treasurer.

The Singers entertained at a picnic at Shelby Forest Wednesday from 4 until 8. Maxine Allen and Marjorie Schloss were in charge of arrangements.

Duncan Elected President Of C. U. Cabinet

Jim Cogswell And Kitty Tipton Also Chosen for Offices

Tom Duncan, junior, was elected president of the Christian Union Cabinet for next year at the regular monthly meeting of the club, which was held Tuesday at one o'clock in the Bell Room of Neely Hall. Other officers chosen were Jimmy Cogswell, vice-president and Kitty Bright Tipton, secretary-treasurer. Retiring officers of the cabinet are Bob Cogswell, president, Tom Duncan, vice-president, and Marion Dickson, secretary-treasurer.

New class representatives elected were Gladys Moore and Margery O'Kelly from the present sophomore and junior classes respectively. Gladys Moore was elected to fill the vacancy left by Katherine Miller, who is now on the cabinet by virtue of her office of vice-president of the Y.W.C.A. Miss O'Kelly was elected from the junior class to take the place of Kitty Bright Tipton, who now has a place on the cabinet because of her office on it.

The other class representatives were re-elected. They are Manny Sieving and Patty Radford of the freshman class, Robert Beasley of the sophomore class and Ned Hermann of the junior class.

Tri-Delta To Give Steak Fry Tonight

Maywood Is Scene Of Informal Affair From Four Till Eight

Tri-Delta will entertain its members this evening from 4 to 8 with an old fashioned box supper. The scene of the party will be the Sander's cabin at Maywood. Entertainment will be in the form of boating, tennis, ping pong, and croquet. The officers of the sorority and their guests who will attend are: Celeste Taylor, president, with Russel Wiener; Margaret Ragsdale, vice-president, with Hugh Black and Howard Thompson; Ann Werten, secretary, with Buddy McNeese; Mary Hunter, treasurer, with Jack Rein; Virginia Brittingham, corresponding secretary, with Roger Puckett; Louise Howry, with Malcolm Hinson. Members and their escorts attending are: Dale Botto with Tanner Davis, Norma McGuire with Neal Williams, Doris Lyons with George Reames, Betty Lee Alderman with Jimmy Sparks, Audrey Klemme with guest, Nadine Browne with Wesley Walker, June Bostick with Lester Baggett, Norma Bright with Henry Craft, Mabel Frances with Bryce Warren, Margaret Sanders with Donnie MacGuire, Dorothy Stacy with Fred Drees, Marian Dickson with Bill Morehead, Ann Haaga with guest, Elizabeth Scarborough will be unable to attend.

Annual Out By Exams

The Lynx, Southwestern yearbook will definitely be out by the beginning of exam week; Jac Ruffin, editor, announced this week. He urged that any students who have still not paid for their annual do so at once.

MOVIE TONIGHT

A talking motion picture entitled "Batting Around the World" will be presented in the Science Hall tonight at 7:30 by the Southwestern Athletic Department. It depicts the National League players in action.

Hermann Chosen For Honor In Chi Beta Phi

Will Serve on National Board of Directors of Science Fraternity

Ned Hermann, president of the Southwestern chapter of Chi Beta Phi, national honorary scientific fraternity, was chosen a member of the fraternity's National Board of Directors and will serve as Grand Assistant Secretary-Treasurer for a term of two years. Hermann was the delegate of the Southwestern chapter to the National Convention of the fraternity which was held at Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Virginia, on May 2 and 3. Hermann is one of the two students ever elected to the national board.

The program of the convention included electrical displays in Richmond, arranged by the Virginia Academy of Science, meeting at the same time; and an address by Dr. Regner of the Biology Department of the University of Virginia.

The requirement for membership in Chi Beta Phi was raised to a B average for general scholastic rating as well as a B average in the science and math courses taken. Hermann was also appointed to the committee on eligibility requirements.

An official invitation was extended to Chi Beta Phi to hold its next convention at Southwestern in 1942. This invitation is being considered by a committee.

ATTENTION SENIORS

All seniors who are expecting to graduate should arrange for being measured for their caps and gowns not later than May 15, according to Mrs. Ruth M. Holloway, manager of the book store. The measurements will be taken in the bookstore any day before 2 o'clock. The five dollar fee which is charged for the use of the caps and gowns must also be paid before June 1.

Mary Hunter Leads Sophomores In National Testing Program

Announcement was made this week of the scores made by the Southwestern sophomores on the American Council National Sophomore Testing Program. There were 122 sophomores taking the tests, and on the General Culture test the scores ranged from a low of 45 to a 333 high, which was made by Mary Hunter. The middle score was 173. This General Culture test covered six fields of knowledge and the three highest scores are listed below for each test. In the English test, which was separate from the divisions of the General Culture, Gladys Moore made the highest score, 91.

Highest scores for the General Culture test were made by: Mary Hunter, 333; Edward Adams, 309; Robert Goostree, 305; Jere Klyce, 300; George Case, 297, and John O'Hearne, 291.

In the English test the high scores were made by: Gladys Moore, 91; Edward Adams, 88; Mary Hunter, 88; Robert Goostree, 86; Lawrence Knopp, 83; John O'Hearne, 82; Mary Ann Simonton, 82, and Willis Ensign, 80. The median was 64.

In the six different fields of the General Culture Test the following were the high scores: In the Current Social Problems (possible score 75) Willis Ensign, 58; James Collier, 57; Jere Klyce, 53; John O'Hearne, 53; Tunke Saunders, 53.

In the History and Social Studies (possible score 75) Emmett Kelly made the high score of 72 points. Other high scores were: George Hale, 68, and William Wooten, 60.

In the Literature tests (possible score 90) Mary Hunter led with 75 points. Others were Robert Goostree, 71, and Lawrence Knopp, 66.

Shearon Wins Presidency On First Ballot

Tipton, Wooten on Run-off Ballot For Secretary

In the first ballot of the election for president of the student body held yesterday morning, Elder Shearon polled a majority to defeat Bill Maybry and John Gibson.

On the same ballot, in the race for secretary-treasurer of the student body, Arabia Wooten and Kitty Bright Tipton led the voting to become eligible for the run-off for that office this morning.

Others who were in the race for secretary-treasurer were Charlotte Eckel, Dorothy Esch and Margaret Ragsdale.

The final run-off was to be held this morning from 9 until 1 o'clock, the polls being as usual in the bookstore.

Shearon, a member of the junior class is present editor of the Sou'wester. He is also a member of Alpha Theta Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity, the Honor Council, and was recently tapped for membership in Omicron Delta Kappa. He was awarded the Stylus Cup for freshman literary work his freshman year and was elected to the April Fool Carnival Court this year.

The election for vice-president of the student body and president of the Publications Board will be held Tuesday, with nominations in chapel Monday morning. The annual class elections will be held on May 19 and 20. Nominations will be held the first day with the first ballot being taken on the following morning.

All the elections will be held under the supervision of the Elections Commission.

Robert Quindley, vice-president of the Board is in charge of the elections in the absence of John Young, president.

On the Science division of the test (possible score 60) the following were high scores: Edward Adams, 55, John J. O'Hearne, 50, and Mary Hunter, 47.

In Fine Arts (possible score 90) Mary Hunter also led with a score of 85. Minna Potts was second with 63, and David Ruffin and Virginia Brittingham were third and fourth with scores of 63 and 58 respectively.

In Mathematics (possible score 60) Edward Adams made the high score of 58. Lawrence Knopp, Roland Jones and Julian Nall had other highs of 57, 55 and 55 respectively.

These scores are reported to the Cooperative Test Service in New York. Southwestern's ranking among the colleges participating in the national program will be published later.

A total number of 335 hours was consumed in scoring the tests, but because of the cooperation of the following students the scoring was finished in a week less time than was anticipated:

Edward Adams, Margery Allen, James Allman, Walter Bader, Bryant Biddle, Cham Cannon, James Cogswell, Walter Cole, Harding Corley, Allen Craft, Stratton Daniel, Thomas Duncan, Willis Ensign, Virginia Ann Gates, Boyd Goodwin, Robert Goostree, Charles Guthrie, Tommie Jean Haygood, Susan Jett, Campbell Long, James McDaniel, Edgar MacGuire, J. C. McNees, Robert Meacham, J. C. Mitchener, Gladys Moore, Marjorie Moorhead, Edward Nesbitt, Marjorie O'Kelley, William Ramsay, Josephine Rhea, Rufus Ross, Margaret Sanders, Dorothy South, Louise Thompson, George Tomlinson, Wesley Walker, Milton Wilmesherr.

The members of the Abnormal Psychology Class made the sixteenth annual trip to the Western State Hospital at Bolivar yesterday to attend the seminar put on by the hospital staff to illustrate various forms of insanity.

Cogswell New Editor Of Sou'wester; New Chosen To Edit Lynx

Vive Walker Is Elected By Players

Amendments Make Membership In Group Honorary

At the meeting Tuesday the Southwestern Players elected as officers for the coming year, Vive Walker, president and Betsy Foster, secretary. Starling Reid, technical director; Jet Hollenberg, stage director; and Russell Weiner, business manager served so faithfully in their respective offices that they were re-elected by acclamation.

Vive Walker took an active part in dramatics at Sweet Briar her Freshman and Sophomore years, and here this past year assisted with scenery and properties. She succeeds Pat Davis as head of the organization.

Betsy Foster was in charge of makeup and helped with scenery this year. She succeeds Louise Jennings as secretary.

At the last meeting of the club May 1 the Constitution was amended, so as to make it an honorary organization. Membership in it is to come only to those who have worked in several dramatic productions, thus earning the number of points required for active membership. This year the number is five, but will be fifteen in the future. The list of points earn-

Kappa Alpha Party In Lodge Monday

Informal Affair From 4 Till 8 Ended With Picnic Supper

The fraternity lodge on the Southwestern campus was the scene of an informal party which Kappa Alpha gave Monday afternoon from 4 to 8.

The lodge was decorated in bright crimson and gold balloons, which carried out the Kappa Alpha colors.

Members, pledges and guests danced, played bridge, ping pong and other games. An informal picnic supper was served.

Officers and guests who attended were Bill Maybry, president, with Kitty Bright Tipton; Rufus Ross, vice-president, with Patty Radford; Russell Latshaw, recording secretary, with Peggy Hughes; Jere Klyce, corresponding secretary, with guest, Alfred Canon, treasurer, with Milton Mathews. Lloyd Gordon, historian, was unable to attend.

STUDENTS TOUR BOLIVAR

The members of the Abnormal Psychology Class made the sixteenth annual trip to the Western State Hospital at Bolivar yesterday to attend the seminar put on by the hospital staff to illustrate various forms of insanity.

Business Posts Given Webb And Wiener

Sam McCulloch Named Next Year's Journal Editor

Robert Cogswell, junior, will be next year's editor of the Sou'wester and Jim New, also a junior, will edit the Lynx yearbook of 1942, it was announced this week by Harry Hill, president of the Publications Board. Also announced by Hill were the business managers of the paper and the annual and the editor of next year's journal. Business manager of the Sou'wester will be Russel Wiener, who has served in this same capacity this year. Allan Webb, junior, was chosen to head the business staff of the Lynx, and Sam McCulloch was announced as editor of the Journal, student literary publication.

Cogswell has served on the staff of the Sou'wester for the past three years. For two years, he worked on the news staff and this year has written on the editorial staff. Cogswell is a member of ODK, national honorary leadership fraternity, and is the president-elect of Alpha Theta Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity. He was president of the Christian Union Cabinet this year and is a pledge to the Kappa Alpha fraternity. Although Cogswell will not assume the duties of his office until school resumes next fall, he may edit the last of this year's Sou'wester's.

New, a junior, was assistant art editor of the Lynx last year and has held the position of assistant editor on this year's Lynx. He is on the feature staff of the Sou'wester, is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity and the Southwestern Players. New has been employed by two different Memphis firms in the past to do professional art work.

Wiener, who was chosen as business manager for the Sou'wester for a second year, has worked on the business staff of the Sou'wester for the past three years and on the Lynx for one year. Wiener is president of the Kappa Sigma fraternity, vice-president of the Men's Panhellenic Council and business manager of the Southwestern Players. He is also a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary forensic society.

Webb, who was chosen to head the business staff of the Lynx, has been editor of the Southwestern football programs for the past two years. He has served on both the Sou'wester and Lynx staffs. Webb is a member of Chi Beta Phi honorary scientific fraternity and is an assistant in the chemistry department. He was one of the three Southwestern students chosen this year to write in the William and Mary Essay contest. Webb is also a member of Tau Kappa Alpha, honorary forensic society and is a member of the Nitist Club.

Journal Later Than Announced

This year's Journal, Southwestern's literary publication, will not be out May 15 as originally announced. Due to the rush in printing orders in Memphis, the actual printing of the Journal will be at least one week later than usual, Bill Murphy, editor, announced this week.

The Journal is issued to all regular students free of charge. Beginning a new policy, the Journal will contain work only by people who have been connected with the college during the past three years. It will contain poetry, short stories and essays, many of which have been contributed by the members of the Stylus Club.

A Letter From Sigma Nu—

The Editor, May 5, 1941
Sou'wester,
Memphis, Tennessee

Dear Sir:

There has been an under-current of opinion, some favorable, some otherwise, concerning the invitations extended non-fraternity men by the Sigma Nu's to their Spring Formal last Saturday in the face of the self styled "Gentlemen's Agreement" of certain members of the Panhellenic Council.

Due to misrepresentation concerning the actual facts of the case, we would like for you to publish this letter in full, and we believe it will clarify our position in the matter.

In the first place, we would like to point out that there is a clear-cut difference between a rule and an agreement. The condemnation of our action by the writer of the editorial published in last week's Sou'wester is unjustified, and is based on a false premise, i.e. that the Sigma Nu's were violating a rule passed by the majority of the Panhellenic Council. Had there been a rule, we agree that we would not be justified in our action, for the Council could certainly not remain effective if a minority refused to follow the rules passed by the majority. However, since by the admission of the Council members, there is no rule forbidding the fraternity to extend their hospitality to non-fraternity men, our action was certainly not a violation of a rule. By the same token, if our representatives had made or entered into any agreement with other fraternities and then taken action directly contrary to that agreement, our position would be untenable. Even those most critical of the stand we have taken will grant that we did not make an agreement, and as pointed out in your front-page story concerning the incident, our representative clearly told the Council that we would not be a party to any such agreement.

It would appear from the Council's recent action that they wish to impose a fine on us for failure to observe an agreement which they have made for us and to which we did not agree. Certainly agreements cannot be construed to be binding on parties who are not in harmony with the terms of the agreement.

We do not propose to discuss the merits of the agreement in this letter. Suffice it to say that any such rule or agreement would be directly opposed to the principles on which our fraternity was founded and has grown. We do not and cannot believe that the majority of the fraternity men at Southwestern favor such a course and we not only intend never to agree to any such proposal, but intend to actively oppose it.

THE SIGMA NU FRATERNITY.

Approved in Chapter meeting May 5, 1941.

Do You Want Open
Stacks In Library?—

This year the policy of open stacks was inaugurated in the library. During past years, it has been necessary for students to ask at the desk for any book which they wished to take out and have the library assistant go and bring it to them. This year's policy has made it possible for the student to go back and browse behind the stacks and select the books they wish to use. This change has been a great help to the library assistants as well as the students, and it can hardly be denied that it is better for everyone concerned than the old practice was. However there is a very definite possibility that it will not prove to be advantageous to the library itself.

Either through carelessness or for some other reason, it is extremely easy for books to be taken out of the library under this year's system without being checked out at the desk. As a result, there are probably a number of library books in the windows of the cloister, the social rooms and the dormitories which through neglect have not been returned to the library.

The students must remember that the attempt to use open stacks is an experiment and whether or not it is continued next year depends on the number of books which are misplaced during this year. If this year's inventory, which will be taken soon, discloses the fact that more books are missing from the library than in past years the old system will have to be returned to. Open stacks have certainly been a privilege to the students. This privilege can be assured in the future if the students will not only make sure that they return any books they might have out of the library, but also be on the lookout in the college buildings for books that should be in the library. It is a privilege that is certainly worth having and it is surely worth the energy that returning of the books will require. But it must be done at once. How about helping?

Obs. of One "R" Forthingay
-Phipps. Bart. K.G., K.B.

I think that it is about time that something was done in connection with the appearance of the book store. When you enter, you get the feeling of walking into the old North Memphis Morgue. I wouldn't be a bit surprised to see the ghost of Edgar A. Poe sitting at one of the benches, raven perched on shoulder, scribbling into a large impressive volume of forgotten lore. Tis rumored that M.G.M. is trying to contract S'western for the use of the B.S. in its next horror picture. The reason being, that with a few well placed cob webs, it would make a perfect setting for "Murder in the Catacombs."

Of course, it's pretty easy to criticize without offering a solution, and in this instance, I have a few suggestions to make. These may not be practical, but it can at least start a few ideas floating around. First, I would paint the walls white, very white, with a light blue ceiling. It would be useless to try to do anything with the floor, but, if possible, it could be painted a battleship grey. Next, I would place about six indirect wall lights in various places so that they would sufficiently light the room, without putting the "tell-tale" glare on anyone.

Now we have the room itself fixed up, let's see what we can do to the furnishings. The book store is a part of Southwestern—so why not let it be known? A large crest on the wall would look mighty good, with a few pennants scattered hither and yon. The show case (I don't believe that anyone has ever been able to see what was in it) could be lighted from within, giving the articles on sale a chance. Another good idea is for pictures of the past, and present football captains, and they might throw in a few of the Southwest Queens. An overhead light on the bulletin board wouldn't hinder anything, and if you expect to play ping-pong, and play it right, they might invest in a few new paddles.

I sincerely hope that this will put a few dusty minds to thinking, and I believe that if the student body will push this deal, it might go through. Also, a plug might be put in for the young ladies. They should be allowed to smoke in the book store. I can imagine nothing worse than drinking a Coca-Cola, and then having to go all the way out to the parking lot to smoke a cigarette. What about it?

Lynx Chat

What with everybody being elected everything, it seems the young things on the Southwestern campus, both male and female, can't devote too much attention to any one member of the opposite sex and the result is that the romance of the school is at an all-time record low—which is something when a campus is as green and a spring as balmy as this one.

Retaliations were thick and fast in the case of the Berry-Earp convertible affair last week. Last weekend there was a rendezvous with Clay Alexander at Ole Miss for Martha, and this week Gorton is journeying to Chattanooga—and he says it is definitely not for the scenery, climate or drive—Gorton that's really putting it brutally, you lady-killer.

Have you taken time to notice how splendidly Southwestern is represented in the royalty of the South's Greatest Party this year. Well, take Princesses Beverly McFall, Jesse Woods, Frances Gregg and Ethel Williams to name a few. Of course you would naturally assume that Beverly is being escorted by Dickerson, but did you know that the strong silent Beasley one is to accompany Miss Woods at the entertainments. Henry Saunders is also in the royal set, escorting La Gregg—and will it be a glorious entrance she'll make? We nearly forgot to mention Marty O'Callaghan. He's Squirting Mary Arnett Canale, and is completely agog at the idea of driving her new convertible. "It's more thrilling than getting a Brooks Brothers' suit," we heard him comment.

Frank Hammett, of the campus division set, has been turning his attention to Meredith Moorhead of late. They were together at the Symphony Concert Tuesday night and were doubling with Moose and Marion. Touching is the way the careers of Esch and Gibson run parallel. They're both presidents of their sororities and they're both running for the student body offices. Maybe they were made for each other. Quietest romance of the year is undoubtedly that of Jimmy Baird and Lillian Kessee, but they've certainly been wearing a path down the sidewalk to the drugstore. And did you see Sue Potts wading in the rain this week. She had removed her shoes and was dancing gaily in the parking lot puddles when she happened to look up to discover she was dancing right into the path of one of the proofs. And now for the real news of the week. It concerns Evergreen Hall and it seems CENSORED. Well matched pair—Charley Cobb and Julia Twist.

We hate to mention anything that anyone has tried so hard to keep quiet as Chevis Ligon has his date for a walk in the park with Miss Gordon, so we won't say another word. We'd pass a gentle hint to Mr. Murphy also, that he begin to work on that honors exams and let Cecil and Sam play by themselves. Your lack of sleep Monday hit you hard enough to be noticeable, Murph.

We've noticed Billy Dowdle with the youngest of the Moorheads quite a bit of late. And by the way, since track season began, we've heard more than one of the campus coeds express interest in the above mentioned smooth-striding Mr. Dowdle. Our congratulations to Mr. Young on his quick return to the campus and if you'll examine his cast you might also congratulate him on the number of visitors he's had—Margy O'Kelly was just as slow as her drawl when it came to leaving his company too it's said.

One of the parking lot's steadiest couples these days is "Mabel" McKee and "Whip" Kennedy. And it appears from where we sit that Cheney Thompson is making a pretty definite stab at cutting Manny clear out of the Hughes affair. Oh well, we'll see you with the gals in white tomorrow night—G'bye.

Curling Iron
Banquet May 21

The Curling Iron Banquet, annual mud-slinging festival of the women of the campus will be held on Wednesday, May 21, Annabelle Paine, president of the Y.W.C.A., announced yesterday.

The new officers of the Y.W.C.A. are to be in charge of the arrangements for the event. They are Miss Paine, Katherine Miller, vice-president, Virginia Brittingham, secretary, and Laura McGhee, treasurer. Nominations for the coed cut-ups are held at the banquet each year, and after campaign speeches the elections are held.

Snips that Pass
in the Night

By SAM McCULLOCH

Having seen only fifteen people on the campus in the last day chewing gum, we've concluded that civilization in the world (this part of it at least) is about to begin. At any rate, The Two Events of the year are on the verge of taking place and managing to absorb all the attention of the local, Delta, and near-Delta society. Rummy got off a brace of tart comments last week on the political activity that sprang into existence the first day the subject of elections was brought up. Meanwhile, subtler influence have been at work to trap the less wary or indifferent voters. Along Sorority Row, passersby were assailed Friday last by barkers and lurid advertisements. For the price of one, only one, vote, the two hundred and fiftieth part of a majority, we were admitted to the most unique hour of entertainment ever given by Eta Beta Pi since election day last year. Miss Suzette van Schnatz, plate dancer, was the featured entertainer of the evening, complete with chewing gum, her own ingenuity, and a few grinds tossed in for the boys in the balcony. The plate is of the same school as the fan dance, costume donated by the courtesy of Sears & Roebuck Chinaware Dept. Customers paying two votes were given rocks and elbow room with compliments of the house. Hectic sport for the little lady, but a good time was had by all and a margin of 25 v.'s to the good.

The Cotton Carnival begins next week, in all its tradition pomp and circumstance. There's nothing unusual to report as yet, but a certain friend of ours (you all know Izzy Tubbs, who made a nationwide tour of the social centers last month, existing on a strict diet of cotton seed meal and giving away little souvenir cotton pickers, banjos, and a few old Dodge tractors) has told us to keep our eyes open.

Quindley, England,

The regular weekly Southwestern Broadcast was aired yesterday via WREC from the Southwestern studio in the form of a forum on the subject, "The Effect of the Defense Program on the Consumer." Those participating on the forum were Frank England, Harry Prest, William Miller and Bob Quindley, all majors in the department of economics at Southwestern. Charles Greenlese was the Southwestern announcer.

The three main points brought out in the discussion were, effect of the defense program in taxes on the consumer, the reduction of the consumer's purchasing power, and the fact that the majority of the taxes are yet to come.

College Men
Weak In Knees

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., May 9.—(ACP)—Sheldon Beise, physical education instructor, believes army life would cause "pronounced physical hardship" for 90 per cent of the University of Minnesota men of draft age.

Examining results of the university's program to give prospective draftees body-building routines, Beise said that "poor physical condition" would make the transition from campus to camp difficult.

"They are weakest in the legs," Beise observed, "and legs are what they will have to use the most."

Tests of prospective draftees showed that they averaged 75 seconds for the 440-yard dash, about 25 seconds slower than the time of trained trackmen. One youth took 245 seconds, Beise reported.

Psychologist Reveals That Men Prefer A Brunette To A Blonde

In an article in the magazine, Your Life, William Moulton Marston, one of America's best known popular psychologists, breaks an old precedent by stating that "Men do not prefer blondes."

Says Mr. Marston, "Innocents, angels and naughty chorus girls are usually depicted as blondes and it is anybody's guess why gentlemen are supposed to prefer them. As a matter of fact, they don't. I have collected more than 20,000 ballots and dark-haired girls win by a mile—or by a smile, if you insist upon being technical."

He continued, "Brunettes capture 46% of all the male votes. Blondes get 30%. Brownettes, that is, girls with light to medium brown hair score 16%. And redheads receive only an 8% consolation vote."

Mr. Marston states that he did not come to an abrupt conclusion concerning his belief that men, on the whole, prefer brunettes. He has just completed nine years work on this question. "I have tested the emotions of hundreds of blondes, brunettes, brownettes and redheads. And my first result is this—I have established the fact that there are definite types of personality associated with the different hair and eye colors."

Endocrine glands are responsible. Too much thyroid secretion in your blood, for example, may make your eyes pop out and turn your hair white, then make you bald. This same overdose of thyroid will give a tense, nervous, sleepless, irritable, fear-haunted personality. Doctors in Paris succeeded in restoring both hair-color and normal personality traits by reducing the activity of the thyroid glands."

Other endocrine secretions, in the same way, control both emotions and pigment. These subtle chemicals so profoundly reveal their presence by the colors they produce in your hair, eyes and skin. For this reason a girl's hair becomes a flag which nature compels her to fly, revealing, to all who understand the endocrine code, her controlling personality traits."

And now, according to Mr. Marston these are the outstanding characteristics of blondes and brunettes:

BLONDES

1. Blondes are beautiful—there is no other type of woman who can pose so picturesquely in a scanty bathing suit.

2. Blondes are naturally timid and shy.

3. Blondes have more compliance than brunettes. If a blonde can't get her man by idle chit-chat, etc., she does whatever she can to please him and marries him right under the nose of her blonde rival.

BROWNETTES

1. Brunettes have IT, Umph, Glamour—most of the time she does not have to pose in a scanty bathing suit to attract her man.

2. Brunettes love love.

3. But poor brunettes! They cannot adapt themselves to their material environment; they always want something more, something different. And when they get it they still are not satisfied.

4. A blonde wife must teach her husband to understand her pet weakness or else. A blonde may be her rival.

Howie Speaks On Predestination

There will be no speaker for the Forum this Sunday, but a discussion will be held and an election of officers for the coming year will be held.

Dr. Sam Howie of the Westminster Presbyterian Church of this city talked last Sunday on the "Distinctive Doctrines of Presbyterianism." Dr. Howie briefly pointed out the differences between the several types of church government, namely, the episcopal, and the representative forms, the latter of which is the one used by the Presbyterian churches.

The most distinguishing thing about Calvinism is the doctrine of predestination.

"Predestination carried to its logical end will result in fatalism," said Dr. Howie.

The Sunday Evening Forum meets in the band house at 6:30 P.M. each week. All students, the faculty, and their friends are welcome.

HATS OFF TO MELODY

NO. 1 BRASS HAT—of the radio regiments is Glenn Miller, according to a recent poll of the nation's radio editors. Miller's special way of serving song and swing has caught the fancy of American dancers more than any other band today, the editors agree. Nope—those aren't trench helmets the slip horn boys are swinging, though the Miller band salutes the army camps three times weekly on its "Chesterfield Moonlight Serenade." It's a C.B.S. program.

It's No Joke To The College Grad

(Editor's Note: The following article first appeared in the Colgate Maroon in a column, "The Hill and the Plain," by James C. Cleveland. It has since been called a significant item in judging the current temper of American college youth.)

Out of the revelry of the senior class beer party last Friday night there has come an idea too tragic for laughter, too symbolic to be overlooked, too clever to be ignored. The idea came from the brilliant mind of Bob Blackmore, Phi Beta and draftee-elect for the month after a date that once spelled for him the beginning of life and a chance for happiness and success.

The idea has met with approval of varying degrees from every senior I have talked to. The idea has had suggested revisions yet still stands original, penetrating and overwhelmingly expressive. The idea is not bitterly partisan, nor hopelessly resigned. It has the saving grace of acceptance yet at the same time poignant indictment. The idea voices college youth of 1941 as I have never heard it voiced before. It is college youth of 1941.

The idea has to do with our senior class gift. It is simply that the gift this year shall be a sum of money to erect at a suitable occasion a fitting memorial to the first member of our class killed in the war.

Added suggestions have poured in. For example it has been suggested the memorial be to the first conscientious objector thrown in jail. Others have said it should be to all members of the class killed. Restrictions have been suggested the member must be killed in action, or perhaps in this hemisphere.

Bob Blackmore, who started it all, just shrugs his shoulders. He is still going to be called up in July for an army that he feels may well be misused. He started the idea he says as a joke. Many people would like to think that's all it is, a joke. Perhaps administration pressure will reduce the idea to just that, a joke.

But to me and many, many more, the idea is not a joke. It is college youth of 1941, making a humble and unheeded plea to what is left of sanity in the country today.—ACP.

MENTAL MEANDERINGS

Margy Schloss seems to have provided most of the entertainment on the choir trip. Her best crack was when she asked a mother, "Which twins are yours? The pretty ones or those with the blue hats?"

The story on Pulitzer winner Peger contained a sentence which read, "He never went beyond high school, but he developed a prose style peculiarly his own which is studied in colleges."

The very next one said, "He writes in praise of practically nothing."

Neal O'Hara's "Pull Up A Chair" the other day repeated one of our anecdotes—the one about the Chinese student who spoke English straight from the grammar book.

We, to tell the truth, dug ours out of an old Reader's Digest. Wonder where he got his?

Campus sees: Dr. Kelso trudging around wrapped in his perpetual gloom . . . The girls sporting blossoms in their coiffures . . . Prof. Paulsen scampering about with his horn-rimmed glasses and satchel full of papers . . . The Palmer Hall clock growing well-nigh covered by vines . . . That melancholy portrait of Hamlet hanging in Prof. H. B. Davis' office . . . Ex-Prof. Archer barging around the campus in his white uniform which—and we hope we aren't voicing an unpatriotic opinion—seems a good bit too baggy for sartorial perfection . . . Dr. Monk making all the verbal errors in one class period that everyone else always gets laughed at for mingling Alexander Pope and Edgar Allan Poe to find himself talking about Alexander Poe—and saying admirable for admiral.

Softball was put in the shade temporarily as interest rose high in the Annual Track Meet held last Saturday afternoon. The weather was perfect and the track in fine condition as the contestants took positions at the starting lines. Two all-time records were broken and another tied. The crack Kappa Sig half-mile relay team covered the distance in one-minute and forty-five seconds to clip the SAE record of 1936 by almost five seconds. Whip Kennedy ran the 120 yd. high hurdles in 17 seconds, thus setting a record that will probably hold for a long time. Kennedy also ran the 100 yd. dash in 11 seconds flat to tie the record set by John McGrady in 1939.

KAPPA SIGMA TAKES FIRST PLACE IN TRACK MEET

The star of the afternoon was Whip Kennedy who took three first places for the Kappa Sigs. He ran the 120 yd. high hurdles and 100 yd. dashes in record time and took first place in the 220 yd. dash in a time of 24.5 seconds. Claude Romine added two first places, high jumping 5 ft. and broad jumping a distance of 20 ft., 2 inches. He was so impressive with his jumping that he now has gained a position on the varsity track team. Elder Shearon took second place behind Kennedy in the 220, Buddy McNees was also just a shade behind Kennedy in the 100 yd. dash, and Frank England took second in the quarter to give the Kappa Sigs a total of forty points. The SAE's were the only club which could make things hot for the Kappa Sigs. Karl Frank took first place in the 120 yd. high hurdles with a time of 30.7 seconds. Bill Small ran like a professional to win the half-mile in 2 minutes, 31 seconds, and Junior Berry ran a very good quarter to take first place in 61 seconds. Lester Baggett took second place in the high hurdles, Billy Doyle was second to Buster McGuire in tossing the shotput, Billy Doyle and Julian Nall tied for second place in the high jump, John Whitsitt was second to Romine in the broad jump, and the half-mile relay team took second place to the Kappa Sigs, giving the Sig Alphas a total of thirty-four points for the afternoon.

Kappa Alpha took third place with nine points. Rufus Ross took first place in the discus throw with 90 ft., 6 inches. Eslie Henderson came in second to Bill Small in the half-mile, and Ross picked up the ninth point by taking third place in the quarter, a contest in which were about 15 entrants. Barney Gallagher took second place in the high hurdles, and Joe Berryman placed second in the discus throw and third in the broad jump to give seven points to the Sigma Nu's and fourth place. Buster McGuire tossed the shotput 32 ft., 3 inches to take first place, and Bones Jones ran third in the hundred to score six points for the Non-frats. Moose Moorhead took third places in the high and low hurdles to give the ATO's two points, and the Pikes picked up a point when Earl Stevenson ran a good half-mile to take third place in this event.

The most beautiful event was the half-mile relay, won by the Kappa Sigs in a new record time. The SAE's gained a quick lead, but lost it as Whip Kennedy overcame a 20 yd. lead set by the first two SAE runners, and gave Buddy McNees a slight lead in the anchor position. A second Kappa Sig entry took third place in this event.

SAE'S STILL LEAD IN SOFTBALL

Although their game with the Pikes Monday afternoon resulted in a disputed tie, the SAE's still hold first place in the Softball League. This game, along with the two games rained out Tuesday afternoon, will be played over unless the SAE protest to the PKA game is allowed. The most exciting game of the week, but probably the worst played contest, was played last Friday afternoon between the KA's and KS's. The KS's took advantage of Bill Maybry's absence from the KA pitching staff to upset the dope and win 5-4. Siedentopf hurled well, but the field was weak and the errors costly. There were numerous KS errors also, but with the KA's having an off-day at the plate, they did not prove so effective.

ATO was a very much improved club as they mowed down the Pikes 9-5 in the most interesting game of the week. George Blakemore took hitting honors for the day with a double and two singles out of three times at bat. A series of errors on the part of the Pikes allowed six ATO runners to cross home plate in the second inning with only one base hit. The Sigma Nus took a 9-6 decision from the Non-frats although they were held to only one hit by Artemus Costello. However, 13 free passes were issued by Costello during the course of four innings. Billy Speros scored a homer in the first with the bases loaded for the Sigma Nus.

The Individual Tennis Tourney is to begin next week. No reports have come in from the Handball and Badminton Tourneys but it is known that considerable progress has been made in both. The SAE's apparently have the 1941 cup in their possession as only softball and golf remain to be decided. However, the winner of the fifty-point participation award, if the same team takes both softball and golf, may uncrown the Sig Alph's.

Chi O's Defeat Non-Sorority At Volley Ball*Come Back After Previous Defeat To Win Title

It may have been noticed (and again it may not have been) that the field of women's sports has been suffering from a lack—nay, even a dearth, of publicity lately. There are many reasons for this, but we will pass over the more obvious ones to state here simply that most of the Southwestern girls have taken to the somewhat passive sport of sitting on the campus in the sunshine, a sport known in some circles as you-knock-the-ants-off-me-and I'll-knock-the-ants-off-you. As anyone who has played it knows, it is an absorbing little pastime, but one which is hardly conducive to thrilling tournaments and cheering bleachers.

The girls' volleyball tournament was concluded Tuesday in the old gym. The worm turned completely. That is to say, the Chi Omegas, who had made such a feeble showing against the Non-Sorority team previously, came back to beat them 39-30, in a game which was never close. This is the second tournament the Chi Omegas have won this year, and their prospects of winning the cup again are looking better and better.

The individual competition has been going along rather slowly, partly because of the rainy weather. In the golf tournament, Jane Williamson plays Eugenia Carter in the finals. In horseshoes, Jo Rhea is the only one who has reached the finals so far. Barbara Jane Robinson is in the final bracket of the table-tennis tournament, and will play the winner of Mopsy White vs. Georgeanne Little. The badminton tournament has been hotly contested. Evelyn Ohleson has reached the semi-finals bracket. Tennis competition has been slowed up considerably by the rain. There are only two contestants, Barbara Dean and Elizabeth Hinckley, who have advanced to the quarterfinals as yet.

All the entrants in the various tournaments are urged to play off their matches by the time scheduled.

The Southwestern Lynx went down battling to the Ole Miss Rebels in Oxford last Saturday. Although the match score was 4-2 each game was closely fought. Southwestern's winners were Jimmy Collier and Lewis Wellford. Collier tripped Noel, and Wellford beat Davis.

Hinson and Meacham went down to Bell and Davis in their singles matches. In the number one doubles match Noel and Joest beat Collier and Meacham and in the number two match Bevis and Bell beat Hinson and Wellford.

The team will leave late this week for Sewanee, where they will take part in the Dixie Conference Tournament.

Money To Be Raised In Memphis For Clubs Near Army Camps

The morale of the Soldier is a matter of gravest concern to our Army and Navy leaders, and to solve this problem the Government is turning to the citizens for aid.

President Roosevelt, Secretary Stimson, Secretary Knox and Federal Security Administrator McNutt have asked six great national agencies working through a single cooperative body, to develop and operate a nationwide program of service to soldiers, sailors and defense workers in communities where such help is needed.

These agencies are: The Y.M.C.A., The National Catholic Community Service, The Salvation Army, The Young Women's Christian Association, The Jewish Welfare Board and The National Travelers Aid Association.

This cooperative body is the United States Organizations for National Defense, Inc.—The USO. The USO plans to set up 339 service clubs adjacent to campus, naval stations and defense industries throughout the United States and its overseas bases so that the influence and comfort of the American home community may be brought to those who have been separated from their homes to service their country.

The activities of the USO will include service on personal problems, religious service, social events and diversified group recreation. Of this program President Roosevelt has said: "There is no enterprise more vital to the well-being of millions of young people who are rallying to their country's call."

On June 3, a national campaign will be launched to raise $10,765,000 for the USO. The quota in Memphis has been set at $51,000. Col. Roane Waring, president of The Memphis Street Railway, has been appointed chairman of the local campaign.

The vital necessity of the USO was summed up by Gen. George C. Marshall, Chief of Staff, U. S. Army, when he said: "No matter how fine your equipment, no matter how abundant, if you don't have morale you had better save your money. We can manage this thing on the military reservations, but we urgently need your assistance, and quickly, and financially, to help matters off the reservations. I can think of no better Christian work than that, or incidentally, none more helpful to us in the development of a strong virile, clean Army."
