The News Beat

by John Crabtree

On Tuesday of this week one of the most controversial figures to ever sit in the United States Senate was laid to rest. In a small town in Wisconsin Senator Joseph McCarthy (R., Wis.) was buried. Senator McCarthy will long live in the picture of American politics for his "red-hunting" spree of a few years ago. While many of us did not particularly take to his methods we think that the discoveries he made greatly aided the quest of security in the nation. On the other side of the books we must note a number of reputations and careers that were retarded or ruined completely by his false charges. Only time will tell the complete impact of the senator's investigations.

The vacancy created in the Senate by McCarthy's death gives the Democrats a three vote majority.

Woods Presented In Senior Recital

Billy Jon Woods, of Kennett, Missouri, will be presented in a senior voice recital Monday evening, May 13, at 8:30 p.m. at Bohlmann Hall, 1822 Overton Park Avenue.

Mr. Woods, who will receive the Bachelor of Music degree, has been active as a church soloist during his four years of vocal training under the direction of Neumon Leighton, professor of voice at Southwestern. During his senior year, Mr. Woods has directed the choir of the Germantown Methodist Church.

Works of three composers, Mozart, Schumann and Ravel, will be featured on this young baritone's program Monday evening as well as a group of songs by American composers. Helen Akins, well-known Memphis pianist and organist and a graduate of Southwestern's College of Music, will be Mr. Woods' accompanist.

Queen Lila Wrape . . . to reign over Cotton Carnival

Freshmen Hold Vesper Service

A vesper service sponsored by the Freshman Class will be held Sunday, May 12, at 5:00 in Fisher Memorial Gardens. Speaker of the evening will be Dr. A. W. Dick, minister of Second Presbyterian Church, whose subject will be "Tests of Conduct."

Don Pollard will introduce the speaker; the prayer will be given by Connie Kitley and the scripture read by Annelle Gandy. Singing in a Double Quartet will be Don Wright, Dale Pflug, Tom Moody, Woody Forbes, Allen Reynolds, David Glenn, Bill Talmadge, and Jimmy Curtis.

TWELVE GOEDS IN QUEEN LILA'S ROYAL COURT

CARNIVAL QUEEN ADDS ROYAL ROLE TO OUTSTANDING RECORD

Queen Lila was born in Memphis and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wrape of Collierville. She is the oldest of three daughters; Mr. Wrape is a corporation lawyer with offices in Memphis and in Washington. Before coming to Southwestern, Lila attended Sweet Briar where she was given the award for the highest grades in her freshman class. For the first eight years of her school life, she attended Miss Hutchison's School in Memphis. Then she studied at Villa Duchesne in St. Louis for her freshman and sophomore years in high school. Her junior year, Lila spent in Paris, France at Cours Marymount. In Paris, she learned to speak French fluently, as well as doing considerable traveling through Europe. For her senior year, she returned to Miss Hutchison's School to graduate.

Queen Lila is nationally known throughout the United States for her ability as an expert equestrienne. She has ridden in major rings all over the United States, the most notable of which is Madison Square Garden in New York City. In fact, she is the world champion at equitation or horsemanship. Lila also stars in the Germantown Charity Horse Show which is held each spring. Her home, Gregnon Farms in Collierville, is also known for its saddle-bred horses. This beautiful antebellum home was built in 1847.

Queen Lila is professional at many other sports. She is very enthusiastic about duck hunting and she also enjoys tennis and swimming.

Campus Challenge

"Just what are you preparing for?"—This is the question that confronts us as college students from every angle—every chapel speaker has something to say about it, every lecture course has it thrown in here and there's even a touch of it in our bull-sessions. And it's an important question—worth every inch of our consideration; but I can't help thinking that we overestimate it in comparison to the question, "What are we doing now?" Later in life we're going to serve God and humanity as doctors, ministers, etc. This is all well and good, but how is our life counting now?

From one of Christ's parables we read: "But God said to him, 'Fool! This night your soul is required of you; and the things you have prepared, whose will they be?'" (Luke 12:20) What if God called you home tonight? What would you have to say for yourself except "Lord, I was going to do this, and I was going to do that?" What would you answer if He would ask, "What have you done?"

We're here at Southwestern to prepare for later life. We're here to learn to be good so that Santa Claus and the Easter Bunny will come each year. But we are also here to live witnessing lives for our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ now! We had better wake up.

HALE SPEAKS IN FINAL FWI PROGRAM

"Headlines—Dilemma in the Near East," will be the final presentation of Southwestern's series on international crises under the Free World Issues title at 7:45 o'clock Wednesday night, May 15, in the Adult Education Center.

Dr. Lincoln B. Hale, recently returned from Israel as director of U.S.A. Operations Mission to Israel, will be the principal speaker and will include in his discussion an analysis of the current Jordanian situation.

Also participating will be Dr. Ross J. Pritchard, Southwestern professor of international studies. The program will include a question and discussion period.

Dr. Hale spent three years administering the U.S. foreign aid program in Tel Aviv and had previously spent three years in Greece as assistant director of the Thessalonica Agricultural and Industrial Institute. He received his B.D., M.A., and Ph.D. degrees at Yale, has worked in industry, with the Y.M.C.A., and served as pastor of the Oxford, Conn. Congregational Church before entering educational work. He has been connected with Yale University and Carleton College and was president of Evansville College from 1940 to 1954.

Dr. Peyton N. Rhodes, president of Southwestern, met Dr. Hale during a trip to Israel in 1955.

The Wednesday night program will be under the joint auspices of Southwestern's Program of International Studies and the Adult Education Center.

Dr. Hale also will speak to the student body and faculty at 10 a.m. Wednesday in Hardie Auditorium as a Free World Issues speaker.

Both programs are free and the public is invited.

Independent Women Caucus For Officers

The Independent Women met last week to elect officers for the coming year. Martha Heinemann was chosen president, Donna Hudson, vice-president, and Virginia Sims, secretary.

Sally Hicks will serve as representative to the Women's Athletic Association. Joanne Hunt will be the IW representative to the Elections Commission, and her alternate is Ann Ford.

YOUR Student Council

The regular weekly meeting of the Student Council was held Tuesday at 6:00 p.m. in 101 Science Hall.

ATHLETICS: Commissioner Bob Welsh reported that progress toward the establishment of a small-college athletic conference of which Southwestern will be a member has been made, with plans next year for competition between the five schools at present considering participation in basketball, golf, tennis, and track. He also reported plans for the intramural track meet on Thursday of this week and for the girls' field day on Friday.

PUBLICATIONS: The Publications Commissioner reported that a preliminary meeting of the student members of the new Publications Board had been held, and that the selection of staff leaders for next year's publications is underway.

SOCIAL: Mike Lupfer reported that the social calendar for next year is shaping up in balanced form, as had been hoped, and that plans are being made for the Student Council picnic, May 25, at Maywood. Detailed plans have not yet been formulated.

ELECTIONS: The vice-president reported that cheerleader try-outs will be held Saturday morning in Hardie Auditorium, and that elections will be held next week.

IFC-PAN: Denton McLellan, president of the IFC, represented that group at the meeting in lieu of the as yet unelected representative of the Council, and Linda Hardesty attended in her capacity as the newly-elected Pan representative.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES:

Signa Phi Nothing: Allen Reynolds, chairman of the committee which has been working this project for some time, reported that the chapel tapping ceremony would be held Wednesday.

Sophomore Recommendations Committee: Sissy Rasberry, chairman of a special committee of the sophomore class, presented a lengthy report of recommendations for proposed action for the Council to consider. It covered hazing, homecoming, April Fool, school spirit in general, elections, and publications. Some discussion ensued, and the entire report will be considered at greater length at a later date.

(Parenthetically, we would like to express the appreciation of the Council to the sophomore class for their taking the time to give thought to such recommendations for the betterment of the student body as a whole, and we hope this is premonitory of similar efforts on the part of other campus groups. Only through such measures of organized effort as this can the feelings of the student body be accurately and intelligently expressed to the Student Council.)

OLD BUSINESS: President Mike Cody reported that Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity, will sell used books as a special project in September.

He also read a letter which he has sent to the Memphis State Student Council exploring the possibilities of some form of co-operation on the local level of student government in line with existing cooperative organizations such as the USNSA.

There was no new business and the meeting was adjourned.

Across The Desk

One idea which was discussed by the Student Council this spring and dropped due to the press of elections and other already-scheduled activities was that of taking official note of national Academic Freedom Week.

To the average college student (and we hope no Southwesterner falls into that category of mediocrity) academic freedom is a very abstract concept. Nevertheless, it is one which has specific concrete applications when brought down to the campus level, and these applications can be profitably pointed out.

Academic freedom as such demands that every individual who is resident within the academic community, so-called, be guaranteed the right to freely think and freely express that thought in an atmosphere of respect. It demands that when differing opinions arise, they be discussed freely and openly, with cleavages clearly defined and approached with an attitude of open mind and willingness to admit error when it is found present.

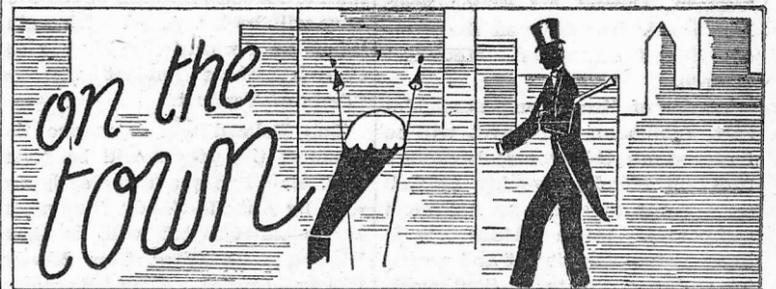

The applications of the foregoing to campus publications and to the purely academic field are obvious to the point of triteness, in view of the great American heritage of Peter Zenger, John T. Scopes and continuing opposition to any form of Federal aid to education.

It is more pertinent and less trite to point out that academic freedom in its fuller implications must have an application in phases of life within the scope of college living which are foreign to the classroom and the library—in social organizations, in student government, in person-to-person encounters.

The "academic community" is not a real community unless the ideal of academic freedom and its inherent recognition of the basic mutuality of interest of all individuals under its influence is a reality. It is not a real community unless this ideal constitutes a reality that is consistently practiced in all personal and social relationships.

The responsibility of academic freedom—and a responsibility it must be if there is to be such a thing as academic freedom, just as there must be responsibility if there is ever any real freedom—is one which cannot be evaded. It is the basic pre-supposition of liberal arts education, and, it must be either affirmed or denied in action, not merely in words.

The way of thinking fostered in an atmosphere of freedom within the academic community and practiced in an atmosphere of intellectual respect will inevitably lead to the most mutually satisfactory solutions to problem situations which may arise.

with Eugene Botsford

There's been an awful rumor going around lately that the professors have been getting together and planning how to get even with us for all the times we've embarrassed them by going to sleep in their class. It seems that they plan to give us little three-hour pop quizzes in every subject beginning about May 24. The Man professors are being extremely ruthless about this, and they plan to give their students not one, but two, quizzes, since there is so much log-sawing going on in that class. If this rumor is true, it means that we have only another week or so to go ON THE TOWN.

On Tuesday, May 14, at 9:30 p.m., Pat Boone, The Four Lads, the Fontane Sisters, Richard Hayman and his Orchestra, and other less-known stars, will be featured at the city auditorium. At the Warner Theater, Clifton Webb, Alan Ladd, and Sophia Loren star in an unusual movie, Boy on a Dolphin. Starting Friday, May 17, academy award nominee Carroll Baker stars in Baby Doll, a movie which has been quite controversial.

At Loew's Palace, an Italian academy award winner, La Strada, starring Anthony Quinn and Richard Basehart, two very fine actors, is running. At Loew's State is The Vintage, featuring John Kerr, Mel Ferrer, and Pier Angeli. The Malco features a "civilized" western, The Guns of Fort Petticoat, starring Audie Murphy.

The Buster Keaton Story, one of the current rage of life histories of showmen, presents Donald O'Connor in the title role, along with Ann Blyth. And, if you can't afford the high prices of the downtown movies, the Idlewild is holding over Teahouse of the August Moon, with Marlon Brando, Glenn Ford, and Machiko Kyo.

And, although this doesn't fall in the category of entertainment, the annual Freshman vesper service to be held this Sunday afternoon at 5, promises to be very enjoyable and inspirational. Dr. A. B. Dick of Second Presbyterian Church will be the featured speaker, so make your plans now to attend.

CATALOGUE CORRECTIONS CORRELATE NEW COURSES

by John Farris

The following are some courses that were overlooked when the current issue of the catalogue went to press. Those students interested in taking something off-trail next semester might look over the list of omitted courses, printed below for your convenience.

- Biology 81: Blobs and lumps.
- Biology 82: More blobs and lumps, and introduction of slippery things.
- Biology 83: Advanced slippery things.
- English 00: Freudian Overtones in Mother Goose.
- English 90: Books That Weren't Quite Great Enough. Readings in such classics as "Silas Trenchfoot," by Mary Ann Sturch; "I remember Mater-familias," by Publius Cassius, and "How I Pitched My No-Hit Game With a Broken Leg," by Ardmore (Lefty) Lotspeich.
- History 47: Great Remarks of History and The Stories Behind

The Week with the Greeks

by Mary Farish

The AOP. dance was the biggest social event on campus this week. It was a big success with music by Bill Justis. All the girls wore white formals . . . the leadout was very impressive with members and dates forming a large white "A" with a red dot at the top (Beth).

Monday night the Chi O's entertained the Sigma Nu's for supper at the Chi O house. the two groups danced, played cards, and sang.

The Tri-Delta's had a Weiner roast Monday night in the 3-d yard. They took moving-pictures and enjoyed singing.

The two intersororities have announced their officers for next year. Pi officers are: Hi Pi—Elizabeth Rodgers, Low Pi—Beth Le-Master, Sec.-Treas.—Mary Ada Latta. STAB officers are: President—Nancy Carter, Vice-president—Diane McMillan, Sec.-Treas.—Betty Russell. Congratulations to these—the top of top sorority women on campus.

The ATO's held their annual Senior Banquet at the Embers Monday night, May 6; the program included the presentation of an award to Don Parker in recognition of his selection as ATO's Province VIII candidate for the national fraternity's Thomas Arkle Clark Award.

PIKA elected their officers for the first semester of next year; they are: SMC—Charles Somerville, IMC—Delmar Brown, THC—Jerry Evans, SC—Paul Ivey, and OMC—Roy Parrimore. PiKA is also having a party honoring their seniors from 2:00 to 8:00 on Saturday afternoon.

SAE elected their officers for first semester next year. They will be: Eminent Archon—Jettie Bowen, Eminent Deputy Archon—Chuck Blake, Eminent Recorder—John Cruze, and Eminent Treasurer—Charles Sullivan. They held a father-son banquet Tuesday night.

That's about all the news from the Greeks this week.

Lovers of oriental art have a feast in store in the Burrow Library Treasure Room, where Miss Etta Hanson has drawn from the Japanese collection some choice pieces for the current show.

There are fine Japanese ceremonial kimonos, obi (wide sashes) which were borrowed and shown at the Metropolitan Museum in New York last year, lacquers and ceramics which are all museum pieces.

The Treasure Room will be open mornings and early afternoons all through May and students are particularly invited to drop in.

Them: ("I don't know if we have that much gunpowder in stock, Mr. Fawkes." "Ay tell you mates, we must mutiny before we sail off the end of the earth!" "That fool Paul is going to kill hisself riding around in the dark without his glasses." "Ludwig, quit practising that lousy piano so much—you know you're tone deaf," and "Just think, doctor, some day my baby may grow up to be president!"—I certainly hope so, Mrs. Dillinger.")

Psych 19: Problem Child Psychology. The class will discuss such problems as the proper length of time to lock a child up in a dark closet, what to do about the stubborn child who persists in wetting his bed until the age of eighteen, what to do about the unusually tall infant who can reach every shelf in the medicine cabinet, and the correct way to extract baby's finger from the electric light socket without getting yourself fried along with him.

last year, and is a member of the Girl's Cotillion Club and the Girl's Diner Club in Memphis. At Southwestern, she is a recent initiate of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority and she was awarded the scholarship bracelet for the best grades among the Alpha Omicron Pi pledges when she was initiated. She has a straight A average at Southwestern, so, of course, is on the Dean's List and the Honor Roll.

One of Lila's various interests is International Relations, which she studies at Southwestern. With Dr. Ross Pritchard she has recently completed a series on WKNO-TV on international affairs. After she graduates at Southwestern, Lila hopes to continue her studies at the Fletcher School of International Diplomacy or else she hopes to win a Fulbright Fellowship to study in Europe.

Queen Lila's family on both the paternal and maternal sides has always been prominent in the cotton business, so it is fitting that she should be the Queen of the Cotton Carnival. She will be quite a busy girl during the week of May 14-18. Already she has carried out many of her official duties.

On Saturday night, April 27, Lila made her first appearance at Crown and Sceptre's Coronation Ceremony where she became Queen. The next day she honored the King, Mr. Berry Brooks of Memphis, at the annual Queen's Party. The following Saturday, she was hostess at the Dinner for the Top Hatters, who are the men who do the major portion of the work for the Cotton Carnival. She has also been on a Good Will trip to West Memphis and she was a guest at the Fireman's Carnival luncheon. During the week, she will be an honored guest at all the parties and dinners held in connection with the Carnival, and to top it all off, Queen Lila will also be the star of the annual parade on May 18, which will close the 1957 Cotton Carnival Season.

Court activities will begin Monday, May 13th when the entire court will attend the King and Queen's Royal Club Tea Dance at the Memphis Country Club. Tuesday, May 4th, the court will board the Royal Barge for the official opening of the 1957 Memphis Cotton Carnival. After the ceremonies they will go to the Arny Club Ball, Crown and Scepter Clubrooms and Osiris Clubrooms. Wednesday, May 15th, a reception will be held at the Tennessee Club after which the court will go to WHBQ-TV for a live television program (6:00-6:30 p.m., Channel 13) where each member of the court will be introduced. Following this, they will ride in the Cotton Parade, visit RaMet Secret Society Clubrooms, Catholic Club Ball, and Ridgeway Country Club Ball. Thursday, May 16th, the court will attend the Mayor's luncheon as guests of the Commercial Appeal, then to Memphis Secret Society. The Ladies of the Realm will ride in the Fashion Parade earlier. Thursday night the court will go to the Memphis Country Club Ball, Children's Ball at Crump Stadium, Al Chymia Shrine Ball, Chickasaw Country Club Ball, Crown and Scepter Clubrooms, and Sphinx Secret Society. Friday, May 17th they will go to the Aquacade at Rainbow Lake as guests of the Memphis Athletic and Country Club Ball, Murat Shrine Club Ball, Shelbi Secret Society, and Crown and Scepter Clubrooms. Saturday, May 18th, the final celebrations will be held and the court will participate in the Grand Parade and then attend the Last Nighters Party which will be held in the main ballroom of the Memphis Country Club.

NEW HONOR SOCIETY TAPS LIKE OLD ONES

Signa Phi Nothing, honorary organization of one night's standing, held their solemn tapping ceremony in Wednesday's chapel. In his flowing white robe Andy Gandy presided, assisted by Mo Mo Waller who tapped young hopefuls with the symbolic dust mop during the suspense-filled ceremony. Requirements for membership were that members must never have had a four-point average, nor be a member of ODK, Torch, or Phi Beta Kappa.

Johnny Maxwell was tapped for his outstanding literary work. Jimmy Breazeale was selected for his day-time girl, four night-time girls, a good-time girl, and a bad-time girl. Last, but not least, George Morris, recommended by Laura Robinson for his outstanding work in the field of battle, received two giant gold keys for special recognition. Unfortunately, the select group did not announce their outstanding sophomore girl, who was to have been presented with a waist cincher, but they are waiting to award this honor later to the Outstanding Prude of the Year.

New Members Named by Stylus To Campus Literary Organization

Wednesday, May 8, six new members, whose work will appear in the Spring issue of the Stylus Journal, were announced by Stylus, campus honorary literary society.

HALL OF FAME RECEIVE 1948 CERTIFICATES

A letter which went out from the office of the President of Southwestern this week blasts a neat hole in the widely-held theory that there is no humor, only business, in the administration of a liberal arts college.

This letter was sent from Dr. Peyton N. Rhodes to all students who were elected to the Hall of Fame before 1948, and was accompanied by a certificate appropriately commemorating their election to that select group.

The story is neatly summarized in Dr. Rhodes' words: "Some ten years ago, apparently it was thought appropriate to prepare a very decent and attractive certificate to be presented to each person who was ever elected to the Hall (Continued on page 4)

The students, chosen on the basis of material submitted to the organization are Nora Peterson, sophomore from Poplar Grove, Arkansas, selected for a prose essay, and Ann Morrison, sophomore from Memphis, Tennessee; Delmar Brown, junior from Fluker, Louisiana; Oran Dent, sophomore from Memphis, Tennessee; Pem Kremer, sophomore from Louisville, Kentucky, and Lewis Wilkins, junior from San Saba, Texas, all selected for poetry.

Stylus is designed to stimulate and recognize literary activity on the campus and selects new members on the merits of creative works turned in during the year.

Senior members of Stylus, graduating this year, are Scott Byrd, Anne Hixon, Ben Miller, and Mary Frances Files. Faculty advisors are Dr. Dan Ross and Mr. James Roper.

The Stylus Journal is the annual publication of the group and is scheduled to appear this year on or about Tuesday, May 14.

THE PEACOCK'S TALE

by Bates Peacock
(Apologies to the ole bird)

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
I hate, loath, despise, etc., exams!
What about you?

Well, another week rolls around bringing us closer to the end . . . But we have one consoling thought. Ten thousand years from now we won't even care whether we passed or failed. Incidentally, "Peanuts" had a thoughtfully thought this week. It seems Lucy was trying out some new roller skates. She whizzed through the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd pictures then landed in a complete heap in the 4th. She put it this way, "I'm expecting a lovely summer, if I ever live through spring." Me too!

Belated congratulations to Sue Robinson and Billy McLean; Mary Alice Masters and William Carrell for being pinned and to all the new officers on campus for their new responsibilities.

Also we're glad to hear the Pi's and STAB's survived the battle royal and Kip is still with us to be congratulated.

"Silence is golden," the seniors scream and my typewriter is rather annoying so I better stop. Oh yes, Betsy Sloan wants her name in print this week . . . so . . . BETSY SLOAN . . . bye now.

OUR LAWLESS LANGUAGE*

The laws that govern plural words I think are strictly for the birds.
If goose in plural comes out geese
Why are not two of moose then meese?
If two of mouse comes out as mice
Should not the plural house be hice?
If we say he, and his, and him
Then why not she, and shis, and shim?
No wonder kids flunk out of schools
. . . English doesn't follow rules!

MORAL: The singularly plural pleasures of Chesterfield King make a man feel tall as a hice. So don't be a geese! Take your pleasure BIG. Take Chesterfield King. Big length . . . big flavor . . . the smoothest natural tobacco filter. Try 'em.

Chesterfield King gives you more of what you're smoking for!

LYNX AVENGE TIGER LOSS WITH 5-3 WIN

Southwestern with a late inning surge came from behind to turn back Memphis State 5-3 Tuesday on the MS diamond. The Tigers jumped off to a quick two run lead in the first inning but were stopped cold the rest of the way as they were able to bring around only one more unearned run.

Rose turned in what was probably his best performance of the year, giving up only seven well scattered hits and striking out twelve of the Tigers as he fired aspirin tablets to gain his fourth victory of the year.

The Lynx cut the MS lead to one in the fourth, tied the game in the fifth, and then broke it open with a three run seventh. Rose opened the inning by swinging mightily and chipping the ball into short, short left field for a Texas League single. Kilpatrick then smacked a single to center for his third hit of the evening (the Red-head is dangerously close to the .500 mark), but Bowen and Hoelscher grounded out, putting a big dent in the Lynx threat. However, with men on first and third Gandy beat out an infield hit to put Southwestern ahead to stay. Weeks, next up, slapped a double to right, and the Lynx fourth run scampered across the plate. Young walked to fill the bases, and Hoover calmly watched ball four go by to force in our fifth run. Crigler was then retired, and the Lynx were through, but it was enough; the earlier 9-8 loss to MS had been avenged.

Southwestern didn't fare so well with Union, however, as they were swamped 17-9. Peters, Mansfield, and Young all took their lumps as the Union bats boomed. The Lynx tied the score 7-7 in the fifth on Bowen's three-run homer but couldn't keep the pace as Union scored 2 in the sixth and added insurance runs in the last three frames.

Friday Southwestern entertains Mississippi College at 2:30 p.m. on the home diamond. Woody Forbes is the probable starter for the Lynx. Monday, Southwestern wraps up its baseball campaign with a double-header at Arkansas State.

INTRAMURALS

by Louis Zbinden

Bill Dowdy gained the finals of the shuffleboard tournament by way of an upset victory of No. 1 seeded Mike Ivy. However, in the finals, Mouse White, No. 2 seeded player had no trouble in dropping Dowdy for the championship.

Galloway Golf Course was the site for the intramural golf tournament Monday and Tuesday. Three teams, KA, Kappa Sig, Sigma Nu, and individual players from 2 Fraternities, SAE and ATO, were entered. The Tourney saw high scores both days which was quite the opposite from last year, when all scores were comparatively low. The first day decides the tournament as far as the team and individual championship. At the close of the 1st 18 holes KA led SN by 18 strokes and Kappa Sig by 21. Bob Rogers was medalist with an 85. The second day saw scores come down considerably in most cases and KA won the tournament by 22 strokes over Kappa Sig. Bob Rogers was individual champ, followed by Louis Zbinden and third place went to Frank Conway.

Sigma Nu still is tied with KA in the race for softball championship. Last week the SN's edged out the SAE's in a close game 11-9. For the first three innings it looked as if the SAE would win it easily with the score 2-3. However, the SAE pitching weakened as the SN bats began to boom and that was the story. Wednesday, the KA's beat the SAE's 11-6. The game was never in contention since the KA's jumped to a quick 6 runs in the first inning. Next week will decide the championship with the KA's and SN's playing 2 games since their first was rained out. These games should prove to be hotly contested and neither team seems to have a great advantage. In games played thus far, neither team has been defeated, however, the SN's have showed slightly more poise in the field.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

AOPI wound up a perfect season in Girls' Intramural Softball Tuesday, May 7, by beating Kappa Delta 16-7.

Tri-Delta with a 3-1 record for the season took second place in the tournament. Zeta easily beat Chi Omega 11-4 in a final game for the third place position; Chi O finished fourth while KD came in fifth.

With all the economy moves in Congress at this time the added margin might well help the partisan forces of the Democrats, aided by disgruntled Republicans, to chop the Eisenhower budget.

Turning again to the national scene we note with joy that the ex-head of the Teamster's Union, Dave Beck, is now in a real fight with the Eternal Revenue department. And they can truly be eternal in their pursuit. If the bets are being taken we would have to place our money with Uncle Sam. The charge of tax evasion, which is dear to Uncle's heart, added to abuse of the fifth amendment does not give too bright a picture for Mr. Beck's future. As we said in a previous column Mr. Beck's new address should be in care of the U. S. penal institutions.

We must note that the boss of the U. S. Sixth Fleet still has his charges in the Eastern Mediterranean. These young men who are our guardians and protectors are about to go into maneuvers in southern Italy. The life of a sailor just seems to never end. No doubt they are happily looking at Jordan now that the threat of U. S. intervention has passed. We don't imagine that too many of the men that make up the complement of the naval forces in the area thought much of fighting for that little piece of desert.

Turning to another point in Europe, we might pass along information that is seeping out of some of the satellite nations. It seems that 1957 has a long ways to go yet and with each passing day the Russian hope of making it through the year without trouble grows dimmer and a little bit more so. Poland is unhappy to say the least and the masses in East Germany are beginning to draw some comparisons with the ways that their neighbors to the West are faring. The analogy they are coming up with spells trouble to the traveling team of Bulganan and Kruschev.

We realize that we have deserted the usual policy of devoting the entire column to one area or problem in the news, but hope that you have derived something for your effort in our overall sketch this week.

Until our final get-together next week let's hope that if the world situation does any changing it will be for the better.

Field Day Tournament Sponsored by WAA

Southwestern's Field Day sponsored by Women's Athletic Association will be held Friday, May 10th, at 2:00 p.m. The badminton tournament has already been completed with Camille Deaderick winning the single's championship from Betty Chalmers. Betty Russell and Jerry Wittman beat Camille and Grace Morris in the doubles match.

The tennis matches will be completed Friday when first and second places in singles and doubles are decided. Also to be played are two flights of archery, the golf match, and singles and doubles in ping-pong.

Each sorority has one entry in each event which takes place on field day. A trophy is awarded to the sorority with the greatest number of points. Points are given for first, second, and third place.

19th Hole

by Lewis Bledsoe

"Back to school to the brutal reality of school!" Yep, that is the story on the Lynx golfers. For the most part the traveling is over and the season is at an end, the only remaining unplayed event being the TIAC Tourney which is held this Friday and Saturday, May 10th and 11th, in Jackson, Tenn.

First, for a few words on the Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tourney at Athens, Ga. last week in which the Lynx Cats participated. After the first day's firing the only SW linksman in position to qualify was Billy McLean with a fine 75; however, an 82 the second day dashed those hopes. Lewis Bledsoe, Harrison Herron and John Mostellar completed the best four men representing our dear old alma mater.

As comprehensives are nearing two of our top four men are burdened by this small task so will be unable to compete in the TIAC. However, Lewis Bledsoe, Bobby Weaver and Harrison Herron will travel with Coach Reg Germany to Jackson to make a run for the gold cup. With luck we may win a cup yet.

Well, that's about all for now from the 19th Hole but see you again next week, I hope, for our final session of the 19th Hole.

"Keep hitting 'em between the screws! You'll be a player yet!"

Sophomores Pick Representatives To Honor Council

Charlotte Frist, John Werner and Jimmy Curtis have been elected by the freshman class to serve as sophomore representatives to the Honor Council.

Charlotte will be serving her second term on the council, as she was the freshman representative this year. She has been named Outstanding Pledge of Tri-Delta Sorority and was selected to appear in the Beauty Section of the Annual. She will act as a Student Counselor next year.

John will also be serving his second term on the Honor Council. He is a member of Kappa Alpha Order.

Jimmy, an SAE, works with the Danforth Project in the social service field. He served as Vice President of his Freshman Class.

Buford Leads Tennis Men To 2nd Straight TIAC Crown

by George Crabb

The Southwestern tennis team, led by ace Tommy Buford, defended their Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference tennis crown last week as they breezed past the opposition of Sewanee, Lambuth, and David Lipscomb Colleges with the loss of only one match.

From the very first it seemed almost a certainty that the Lynx would continue their mastery of Tennessee Tennis, as although they were without the services of one of their more valuable team members as a result of his suspension from the team shortly before the tournament, they completely dominated the first day of singles play, for at sundown the Lynx netters had piled up more than twice as many points as their closest competitor, Sewanee, and led them by the score of 17 points to nine.

That night the team spent in study and relaxation, and then the next morning they returned to the Shelby Park courts to continue where they had left off the night before. The last day of the tournament was hardly different from the previous one, and when it became time to play the final matches, it was found that five of the six finalists were Southwestern netmen.

The results of the final matches went as follows: "A" division singles—Tommy Buford, Southwestern, defeated Walker Wellford, Southwestern, 6-0, 6-1; "B" division singles—Jack Biedenharn, Southwestern, defeated Eric Mount, Southwestern 3-6, 6-3, 8-6, and in "C" division singles—Hal Henderson, Southwestern, defeated Mike Woods, Sewanee 6-2, 6-3.

On the second day the doubles were played, and again it was the Lynx all the way. When the smoke had cleared, it was found that the team of Tommy Buford and Eric Mount had become the Tennessee Intercollegiate doubles champions by defeating two of their own teammates, Jack Beidenharn and Walker Wellford, in a hard fought match 6-3, 4-6, 8-6.

By winning the T.I.A.C. tournament Southwestern's racquet team reached the high-point of the 1957 tennis season. For two departing seniors, Tommy Buford and Eric Mount, it was a fitting end for their collegiate careers.

SAE WINS INTRAMURAL TRACK MEET

Yesterday, Fargason Field saw the first running of the Southwestern Intramural Track Meet. SAE won the meet with 33½ points, SN was second with 27, and KA was third with 16.

There was a good deal of interest shown in the meet by participants and spectators alike. The rules were set up so that one outstanding individual could not dominate all events and therefore led to a fairer and even meet.

In the field events there was the broad jump, high jump, shot put, and softball throw; the track events were the 50 yd. dash, 100 yd. dash, 60 yd. low hurdles, 400 yd. shuttle relay. The two closest events of the afternoon saw Larry Fury and Bill Dowdy tie for the shot put—with heaves of 39 ft. 2 in. and in the low hurdles Jack Street edged "Mouse" White by a few strides.

RESULTS OF EVENTS

50 yd. dash—Blumer (SAE), McMillion (KS), White (SN), J. Webb (PiKA).

100 yd. dash—Hixon (SN), Hollingsworth (SAE), Barr (KA), Renegar (KS). Time 0:11.2.

Low hurdles—Street (KA), White (SN), Bruce (KS), Webb, B. (PiKA). Time 0:8.9.

400 yd. relay—SN, SAE, KA, ATO. Time 0:46.2.

Shotput—Dowdy (KA) and Fury (SAE) tie, Maxwell (SN), Wadsworth (SAE). 39'2".

High jump—Dwyer and Hollings-of Fame. These were prepared, and each was individually signed by Dr. Diehl and James M. Turner, Jr., who was at that time President of the Student Body.

"These certificates were then carefully wrapped and put in a safe place to await distribution. The place was so safe that the certificates disappeared from circulation until discovered by accident today. Nobody can accuse us of going off half cocked and doing things without due deliberation or bending unduly to every rash impulse. It now seems that these certificates have mellowed enough within the sacred precincts of Palmer Hall to be entrusted to those whose election to the rare and distinguished group the certificates evidence.

"We are hastening now to send them out in order that your children or grandchildren can see what kind of folks they have been living with. Please do not lose these because over the next decade we are going to be busy doing something else besides looking for replacements for lost certificates."

So there you have it in a capsule, one of those truly rare and truly humorous sidelights which happen only within the "sacred precincts" of the academic community.

Broad Jump — Dwyer (SAE), Street (KA), White (SN), Webb, J. (PiKA). 18'.

Softball Throw—Botsford (SN), Maxwell (SAE), Fury (SAE) and Maxwell (SN) tie.
