T.I.A.C. Meet Here Fri.-Sat.; Waller, Welsh Lead S'western

Our track team will take to the oval on our own campus this Friday and Saturday to compete with seven other teams and some individual men from various colleges in the state-wide Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference track and field meet. Athletic Director Bill Maybry listed Middle Tennessee, Austin Peay, TPI, Union, David Lipscomb, Sewanee, Memphis State, and the Lynx as those schools who will field full teams in the meet.

The TIAC meet will round out one of the Lynx's finest track seasons, and they will be giving it all they've got to finish the year off right with the state championship. The defending champions, Memphis State, are expected to capture the title again, but with all these teams in the meet any thing can happen.

Captains Bob Welsh and Mo-Mo Waller are in great condition to win top honors in their respective specialties. Bob will run both the mile-run and the two-mile run, while Mo-Mo will enter the high-jump.

Commencement Speakers Drs. McCrady, Pfrangle

BACCALAUREATE HELD AT IDLEWILD, GRADUATION IN FISHER GARDEN

Headline speakers for this Spring's Commencement will be Dr. Edward McCrady and Dr. Robert A. Pfrangle.

Dr. McCrady, president of the University of the South at Sewanee, distinguished biophysicist and educator, will give the commencement address at 10 a.m. Tuesday, June 2, in the Fisher Memorial Garden.

Dr. Vernon Taylor Named New Head of Music Dept.

Dr. Vernon H. Taylor, distinguished musician, composer and educator, will come to Southwestern this summer to be the director of the Department of Music. He will succeed Dr. Burnet C. Tuthill, who retires at the close of this academic year.

Dr. Taylor is presently head of the Music Department of Wesleyan College at Macon, Georgia. Before going to Wesleyan, Dr. Taylor served on the music faculty of George Peabody College in Nashville for eight years. He holds an A.B. degree from Penn College at Oskaloosa, Iowa, an M.A. from the University of Iowa, and a Ph.D. from Northwestern University. His applied music studies have been in violin and viola. He has appeared as soloist with the Oskaloosa Symphony, the Northwestern Symphonette, the Nashville Symphony and the WSM Radio Orchestra. He has served two years as president of the Tennessee Music Teachers Association. Because of outstanding work in research and musicology, Dr. Taylor will spend this summer doing research work on folk songs in the Southern Appalachians under a grant from the Ford Foundation.

In his new post at Southwestern, Dr. Taylor will be professor of music and will direct the Southwestern Singers and the Southwestern Orchestra. In his administrative capacity he will direct the teaching program of the College of Music, which also includes musical instruction for elementary and high school students.

Southwestern is fortunate to have secured such a capable and distinguished person for this important position. It augurs well for the future of Music at Southwestern and in the Mid-South.

The PRC will hold a supper meeting for the old and new members next Tuesday at 5:15 p.m. in the new section of the dining hall. Visitors are welcome.

Dr. Pfrangle of Lewisburg, W. Va., a Southwestern graduate who returns May 30 for his 25th class reunion, will be the baccalaureate speaker. His sermon, "Include These Things," will be given at 11 a.m. Sunday, May 31, at Idlewild Presbyterian Church.

Dr. McCrady, who holds an A.B. from the College of Charleston, an M.S. from the University of Pittsburgh, a Ph.D. from the University of Pennsylvania, and an LL.D. from the University of Chattanooga, before he became president of Sewanee was head of the biology department. His grandfather, John McCrady, was the first to hold this post, and his father, the late Dr. Edward McCrady, was a Sewanee alumnus.

He has done research on mammalian embryology, human hearing, the age of the earth and origin of matter as determined by radioactivity, and other subjects, and has contributed research papers to a number of scientific journals.

He is an Episcopal lay reader and active hobbyist — musician, sculptor, painter, cabinet maker, spelunker, and mountain climber. While exploring caves near Sewanee he discovered two skeletons of a fossil cat extinct in North America since the last Ice Age. One is at the Smithsonian Institution at Washington and the other at Sewanee.

Dr. Pfrangle, a native of McComb, Miss., is pastor of the Old Stone Presbyterian Church at Lewisburg. After graduating from

by Bette Baumgarten

Dearly beloveds, this is the last time I shall ever have to fill your heads with erroneous literature.

Hereafter you are going to have to fend for yourselves, find your joy on your own. Actually I feel a great responsibility for you who must now go out into the world without my column to guide you. At least let me leave you with a few words of faith.

- 1) Do not let that Southwestern influence get you; there is another world outside.
- 2) If you ever find yourself constrained to take educational psychology, don't write a paper on gifted children; they are extinct.
- 3) Don't get mixed up with that bunch of dreadfuls that reside in the Newspaper office unless you want to have the time of your life.
- 4) And, above all, whatever you do, wherever you go, learn to play roofball first; it is rumored that it will soon stamp out Bridge in the better circles.

These rules should get you through most any legal spot.

I have no congratulations for this last effort, so I have decided to bestow a final, culminating Motley Fool Award. This large honor goes to the Dining Hall en masse for its new "dress-up" policy. It seems that nowadays to be well-dressed (if you're a boy, that is) one has a choice of two styles: long pants, or short pants. However, if one wears long pants, one can dispense with a tie; but if one wears short pants, one must not only wear a tie but also long stockings. Evidently decent dressing is being measured by overall yardage found on the body. Dining Hall, consider yourself sole holder of the May-Day Motley Fool Award. Hurrah. Hurrah.

The lamp begins to fail, the paper begins to run out; I must stop. Actually, like Tennessee, I love you all, and I want to thank you all, faculty included, for the many happy little bits of nonsense that you've so generously afforded me. Also, please forgive any time I ever flattened your toes or your ideas. It was all in fun. The French have a word for it: "Adieu."

Debate Over Senior Gift Approaches Solution

by Sallie Meek, Senior

As this paper goes to press, final voting on the senior class gift has not been held. For a while, public opinion was divided between dedicating the as yet uncollected $400 to restoration of the goldfish pond, gothic bird-baths, or an outhouse for the guidance center. Next, the possibility of a playground behind the football field to serve for therapeutic value for neurotic seniors was suggested but rejected in favor of donating the money as a scholarship for Larry Lacy. Final ballots included donation to the student center fund, trophy cases, and a Bible and cross for Hardie auditorium; however, it was pointed out that $400 would likely buy only one gothic stone up to Southwestern's calibre, that trophy cases are already in existence, and that Bibles may be found here by the gross already, while students have enough crosses to bear. A carillone to play "Blessed Assurance" every hour and "Jesus Loves Me" at midnight was discarded for want of sufficient funds. Until recently, bicycles led the field as the most likely gift.

However, members of the class, after much discussion, have a new proposal, by far the most practical yet given. As only ten bicycles can be bought with the designated amount, we offer the suggestion of rollerskates, which may be purchased in quantity, thus furnishing transportation for many students. Not only may Southwesterners get to the gym, Sears, the music school and town, but up and down the hall with greater rapidity, thus speeding up the time needed between classes. It will also help alleviate the no-car problem on sorority-fraternity dance nights, and further romance, as students may hold hands while skating. In addition, it will lend interest and imagination toward making Southwestern a truly BOHEMIAN college.

Your Student Council

by Carolyn Shettlesworth

Hazing was discussed at the meeting of your Student Council Tuesday night. Most of the traditional activities will be continued; however, hazing will only last a week and a half, from Wednesday, September 23 through Saturday, October 3. There will be after-dinner entertainment Monday through Friday, with the town students responsible one night. The freshmen will be required to know the names and numbers of the first-string football team. On Friday, October 2, Freshman Talent Night will follow a pep rally and bonfire. On Saturday there will be a home football game; Freshman awards will be presented at the Student Council dance that night.

This weekend, Southwestern is the scene of the TIAC track meet and a judo match. The queen of the track meet was elected in student assembly Wednesday; princesses were elected by the "S" Club and the track team. The tennis courts will be locked from now on, on Saturday night.

The Social Calendar will be presented to the sororities and fraternities Tuesday.

The Publications Board has appointed the Editors and Business Managers for the Sou'wester and Lynx for the coming year. Jocelyn Agnew and Parker Williamson will head the Sou'wester staff; Leslie Smith and Bill Wilson will head the Lynx. The Journalism Clinic has been set up. One general meeting will be held during orientation. There will be four other sessions—one on the business staff, one on the Sou'wester news staff, one on the Lynx staff and one on the Sou'wester feature staff. They will be held on Sept. 27, Oct. 1, Oct. 6, and Oct. 8.

A joint meeting of the old and new PRC's will be held Wednesday, May 13.

WUB held a supper meeting today at 6:00.

Bill Davidson has been appointed NSA co-ordinator for next year.

Pan and IFC are working on rush rules for next year. The IFC plans to charge each rushee $1.00 to be used on projects. One proposal is to present two trophies—one to the fraternity with the highest scholastic average; the other to the pledge class with the highest average.

At Intra-city Council meeting last Wednesday, intra-city debating and the possibility of having cultural arts speakers were further discussed. The next meeting will be held at Sienna on May 20.

ID cards next year will be like the ones this year.

The Student Council has received a plaque from the Easter Seal drive.

The meeting was adjourned. This was the last meeting of your Student Council this year.

Princesses

Track team princess Margaret Sewell McGavock was a representative to the Student Council from her freshman class and a member of the WUB. Activities and social chairman of Tri-Delta, Margaret was voted "Outstanding Pledge." She has served as secretary and vice-president of the PRC.

Princess Mary Jane Coleman was elected by Southwestern's "S" Club. A sophomore member of Delta Delta Delta, she has served as house chairman of her sorority. Mary Jane has been active in the Danforth Program. She plans to study in Europe next year on the program sponsored by the French Department.

Wylie's "Generation of Vipers" Commentary on Modern America

by Bert Ringold

Since its publication, during the Second World War, "Generation of Vipers," has become the classic opinionated commentary on modern America. Philip Wylie scans the contemporary scene with critical distaste, but obvious love and concern. The chapters dealing with Hitler's war are equally applicable to the present cold war. Wylie's criticisms are searching and

Letter Found On Office Door

Dear Editor:

It was interesting to note in the last issue of The Sou'wester under "Your Student Council" that the next hand-picked Chm. of the Student Center Committee has been chosen. All eyes will be turned during Rush next year to the pledge class from which the next Chm. of the Student Center Committee will be chosen. This important office seems to be an excellent training ground for the Social Commissioner. The unhealthy political situation on our campus has led to a certain amount of stagnation in our Student Government and will lead in the future to an even greater amount, especially in those positions and offices which are hereditary.

The Student Body noted with alarm the number of the nominated from certain groups on campus in the past elections. Not only did we retaliate, but also we allowed the pendulum to swing back on us. For the year 1959-60 there are as many as four or more members of the Student Council from one group. This same group has four of the six members of the Honor Council on its rolls, to say nothing of the power which this same group wields in other positions of authority on our campus.

Sour grapes? Perhaps, but if it is so termed, it could well be that we need more of them. We, as a Student Body, seem to need sour grapes in our mouths to wake us up and counteract the sweet and unconcerned attitude which seems to have developed.

Almost every person on this campus is a leader and has held leadership positions before entering college. It is difficult to be a leader among leaders. However, we need to look deeper in our following elections, so that equality may be achieved, not partisanship; so that the best possible persons will be placed in positions of responsibility, not in positions of honor.

Sincerely,
AN INDIVIDUAL

Dear Individual,

When I first read your letter, I was a little irate at the slams on my personal integrity, the student council, my fraternity, and even on the student body, for which you speak with much authority, I am sure. Then I read it once more, had a good laugh, and threw it in the wastebasket.

My best personal regards,
Allen Reynolds, president,
Southwestern Student Council

Dear Individual,

While nosing around through a local wastebasket, I happened to come across your letter, which, in lieu of cigarette butts to smoke, I decided to read. Yes, indeed, you are absolutely right, and the time has come for the student body to do something about this outrage. It is time to rise UP!!! Does the general. He spares no one. He questions the motives and usefulness of doctors, teachers, and mothers. He coins a new word, "Momism," and gets in a healthy plug for everything from controlled prostitution to the liquidation of the mentally incompetent. He paints us as one teeming mass sentimental hypocrites with a few, seldom used, redeeming qualities.

If you believe in the divinity of Christ or the sanctity of American womanhood, you may not like this book. But, if you can get through the first few pages without calling the DAR or the Legion of Decency you will probably finish it. It is an absorbing book. It is extremely interesting, although the interest may result from the shocking opinions of the author rather than from any literary genius on his part. You may find the book very enjoyable, and view it as a radical's field day with Wylie kicking over his traces and damning everything and everybody that comes into his mind. I suspect that is this is the most common attitude; it is the easiest. But, if you are in an especially unbiased mood you will consider him a responsible and objective writer, and will realize that although he is definitely having a glorious time spouting blasphemous, un-american opinions, there is a great deal of truth in most of those opinions, and he raises some long neglected questions that cannot be overlooked. And, later on, you may read over some of his more sensational passages, and perhaps try to find an answer to these.

Reprints of practically all pictures taken for the annual are available for 75c per 8x10 and 50c per 5x7, and reductions will be made on orders of large quantities. Anyone who is interested should contact Harvey Bailey. All fraternities and sororities which would like to obtain group pictures should contact Jerry Robinson, Business Manager of the LYNX. For orders of 25 or over, the price will be 75c per picture. For smaller numbers the price will be $1.00 per picture. The groups will receive one picture free for their records, and chapter presidents may also receive a print without charge.

Student Council think, because they are qualified, that they should be allowed to run the school? Does the fact that a boy has worked on the student council for several years, succeeded in his office, learned the situation of the school, and achieved the respect of his fellow-classmates entitle him to hold office? NO! NO! a thousand times NO! Throw out appointed offices! Allow no individual the opportunity to show he can work successfully! Let student council members be chosen from the entire student body, on a preferential system, numbers 1 to 700. Then we shall have true democracy! Bums of the world, UNITE!!!

Sincerely,
A SECOND INDIVIDUAL

Tennessee

Seeing that this is my last (sob) column and also the last time that you clods and Tennessee will meet on this poor ole broken-down earth, it seems the meetest and rightest that I should give y'all a little advice culled from four excruciating years of experience at this glorified Wisdom factory. You too can achieve Buddhahood in four easy years, as my own well-known example proves. So—I give, free of charge, without malice aforethought, the foundation-stones which lead to the discovery of the Secret of the Universe.

1. Stay out of the Lair; it is not the straight and narrow path, but the Garden wherein the Lotus grows.
2. Stay out of the Library; it is not the repository of all wisdom, but an extortion racket. (I have a bill of at least $25).
3. Stay out of the classroom, or you will find your mind full of vanity. (All, all is Vanity, saith the Wise Man).
4. Stay out of the Business Office, for they shall rob thee of thy father's substance.
5. Stay out of the Chapel, for it shall fill you full of Boredom.
6. Keep away from the Newspaper Office, for you shall be forced to write Tennessee.
7. Keep away from Psychology Majors, for they will use you for a guinea pig.
8. Put not your trust in Reinhold Niebuhr, for he will cause you to lose your minor faith in Theologians.
9. Do not waste time reading Plato; read Winnie the Pooh, for it will do you a lot more good in the end.
10. Above all other things—remember that the Universe is large, Southwestern very small, and as Hamlet said, there are many things undreamed of in your philosophy.

To wind up—one more Tennessee Award is forthcoming—The Jack Rockett Prize, given to Jack Rockett for being the very best Jack Rockett ever to attend S'west-ern.

Remember when I am gone, Kiddies, that I love you all, but don't ever come to me for money. Tennessee leaves you happily with the FINAL Word of the Week—

To Be A Chicken—That is the One Unforgivable Sin.

Robert Watson UPI Newsmen

Bob Watson has become a part time newsmen for United Press International, Leo Soroka, chief of the Memphis bureau, announced this week.

He replaces Gene Botsford, who has been working for U.P.I. for several months. Both are members of The Sou'wester staff.

Bob, whose home is in Rio de Janerio, plans to stay in Memphis during the summer, go to summer school, and put in some time at the news bureau.

Keith Buckley Gives Recital

Keith Buckley, baritone, will be presented in senior recital Monday evening, May 11, at the College of Music, 1822 Overton Park Avenue, at 8:30. During his four years at Southwestern, Mr. Buckley has been a member of The Southwestern Singers, assistant to Dr. Tuthill this semester, was soloist with the Southwestern Orchestra in March and has held church positions in Memphis. Mr. Buckley is a member of The Memphis Opera Theatre and has had roles in two productions. This summer he will return to Inspiration Point Fine Arts Colony for his third season of opera coaching and production. Next fall he expects to return to Southwestern to begin work on a B.A. degree with a major in languages and to continue his vocal studies with Professor Neumon Leighton.

Of special interest on Monday night's program will be a group of songs by Rachmaninoff and Musorgsky sung in Russian. Mr. Buckley has had the very able assistance, in learning the Russian texts, of Professor Jared Wenger of the Southwestern faculty and the International Language Center at Southwestern. His program will open with the Bach Cantata No. 203 to be followed by a group of lieder. After the Russian songs, Mr. Buckley will close his program with compositions by contemporary composers and a group of old American songs arranged by Aaron Copland.

Deanne Runyon, a piano major and student of Professor Myron Myers, will be the accompanist for Mr. Buckley.

Science Foundation Sponsors Clinics In Science, Math

Dr. Smith Coordinator Of SW Tennessee NSF

In the past few months, America's eyes have been turned toward its secondary school system, especially in math and science. The National Science Foundation, in accordance with this new emphasis and in seeking to improve the quality and quantity of science in the secondary schools has given the Tennessee Academy of Science a grant of some sixteen thousand dollars to be used in holding clinics across the state for math and science teachers. The stated purposes of these clinics are:

1. To emphasize the subject matter of science and math to elementary and secondary school teachers.
2. To attempt to upgrade science education and to introduce modernized instructional devices and ideas.
3. To acquaint teachers with literature and tools of teaching-careers in science—ways of teaching superior students—the availability of summer and year long teacher institutes and the necessity of continuing education to keep abreast of science progress.

Dr. Arlo Smith of the Southwestern faculty has been appointed coordinator of these conferences for Southwest Tennessee under the supervision of the State Board of Education. The conferences will be held in the fall in October or November.

P.S. You were extremely astute in your observation concerning the infiltration of a certain group en masse to the Student Council. I, myself, have observed that the SC presidency for at least the last three years has been held by students from two other groups. Obviously this thing is a long range plot.

INTRAMURALS

The big news in intramurals this week is the golf tournament. The first 9 holes of the 18 hole affair was played Wednesday at Overton Park with the second 9 to be played this afternoon.

At the end of nine, SN is ahead with a team total of 159 and KA a close second at 160. The lowest score belongs to Harry Lawson (SN) with a 35. Dowdy (KA) with a 37, Adams (KA) with a 38, and Brown (SN) with a 39 round out the four individual leaders.

Participants in the badminton tournament are urged to play their games before next Friday, because exams are just around the corner.

On Tuesday the annual intramural track meet will take place. The meet will start at 4:00 and will end this year's intramural program. The events have been announced to your intramural representative. Anyone having a question concerning the meet should contact his representative.

Hollingsworth Chosen President of 'S' Club

Southwestern's red-and-black-letter-bearing "S" Club met this Thursday and elected Paul Hollingsworth president, Robert MacQueen veep, and Tommy Clinton sec-treas. of the club for the coming year. At the same time the group voted Billy Landers "Athlete of the Month" for March, Hal Henderson for April, and Wes Busbee for May.

Hollingsworth, a junior, is a 3-year veteran of the football wars and was elected alternate captain of next fall's team. Paul's massive 6' 3", 200-frame contributed much-needed size and power at the end slot on the Lynx' '58-'59 "eleven," which ran up an impressive string of victories in compiling their 5-3 record.

MacQueen, a mainstay of Southwestern's basketball team, has picked up two varsity letters. Though Robert had no high school varsity basketball experience when he came to Southwestern as a freshman, his hustle and desire soon made him a great asset to the team, especially this year when MacQueen played some fine ball for the Lynx at the pivot.

Clinton, a sophomore, has won promise as being one of this school's finest halfbacks and dashmen.

The 145-lb. speedster has been one of the football squad's biggest offensive punches; seeing Clinton cut around either end for a long gain or snag an aerial on the dead run and speed for more yardage has been an all-too-familiar sight for Southwestern football opponents of the last two seasons.

As a dash-man, Clinton has many times brought home both 100-yard and 220-yard victories in Lynx track meets. It has been Clinton who has often had to carry a big load, and largely because of his efforts, the Lynx have been able to bring home the laurels in this year's highly successful season.

Landers has been "Mr. Baseball" about the campus this spring. The very adept performer is presently batting over the .500 mark, almost never attained in any baseball circles.

Henderson is presently on his way to collecting his fourth tennis letter as a member of Southwestern's two-time champions of the TIAC tournament. Henderson's steady point-getting was greatly responsible for establishing the team's excellent 9-4 season record this season.

Destined to become one of Southwestern's "greats" of fieldmen, Busbee has been a steady performer at the shot-put and javelin this season. The outstanding sophomore has come near to setting new SW weight records many times this spring.

HERE IS THE LINEUP of Southwestern's contribution of muscle and skill to the highly-touted 3-team judo match that will be held this Saturday at 11:00 a.m. in Mallory Gymnasium.

Judo Team Competes In Top-rated Match

The Southwestern Judo Team will engage in the roughest competition it has met this year. Three teams will take part: The Martin Judo Club from New Orleans, La., the Memphis Judo Club, and Southwestern. According to pre-meet prognosticators the match as regards teams is rated a tossup, for each of the three are equal in skill. Also the guessers tell us that the men to watch in the individual matches will be Webb, 2nd degree brown belt, McWeeny, 3rd degree brown belt, Terhune, Prichard, and Mankin, green belts, all from Southwestern. From New Orleans Rouss, black belt, Toupe, black belt, and Solsberger are highly rated. The Memphis Judo Club puts forward Allen, 1st brown, McIntosh, 1st brown, Platania, 1st brown and Dalrymple, green, as their men.

The contestants will be divided according to weights with trophies being given to the winners of each weight division and to the individual winner of the entire tournament. These weight divisions are 140 lbs. and under, 160 lbs. and under, 180 lbs. and under, and heavy-weight. Approximately 50 contestants are expected.

Since the team returned from New Orleans, they have worked hard and are in fine shape for the contest. In light of the recent achievements in New Orleans, Mack Prichard, Ron Terhune, and Bill Mankin were promoted to the rank of green belt and are now ready to prove their worth.

Special attractions at the contest will be a demonstration of girl's Judo. The higher art and forms of Judo will be presented by Ralph Graves, President of the Memphis Club. This will be an opportunity for everyone to see what real Judo is; not the common conception of it, but the original art as it is practiced in the orient. The matches will begin at 11 a.m. with a break for lunch from 12:30 to 1:30 at which time the matches will resume until 4:30 p.m. All action will take place in Mallory Gym this Saturday.

SW Baseball Team Met Tough Season by Snowden Day

It was another rough week for the Lynx Cats, as they dropped all three contests they engaged in. With the overall record now standing at four wins as against thirteen losses, Southwestern has four more games left this season—all at home.

Before continuing with the details of last week's activity, the baseball team should be commended for the excellent spirit and hustle they have exhibited on the diamond over this 1959 campaign.

The players have never given up, no matter how bad the score was against them, and they have battled whole-heartedly until the final out of every game.

Southwestern's won-lost record is not a true indication of the type of club we have. If games were won on drive and determination alone, the "nine" would be sporting a 17-0 slate.

The Lynx have had an exceptionally rough 1959 schedule, being pitted against such top-ranked small-college opponents as Howard (5th ranked in the nation) and Arkansas State (one of their pitchers has been signed to a major league team for a $25,000 bonus).

With only two lettermen returning from last year's squad, the Southwestern baseball team deserves a pat on the back for notching the four victories that they have. Coach Woody Johnson also deserves a great deal of credit for his superb handling of the team and for his fine tutoring of the more inexperienced players.

Arkansas College swept a two-game series from the Lynx here at home by the scores of 13-6 and 13-8 to get last week's play under way. Southwestern then journeyed to Jonesboro, Arkansas, and was shaded by a powerful Arkansas State club in 11 innings, 9-8.

The "nine" jumped off to a quick seven-run advantage, but just couldn't hold on to their lead. Previously, Southwestern had stopped the state team in a game played on the Lynx diamond.

The squad closes out this year's season with a two-game series against Mississippi College May 8 and 9 and another two-game set versus Murray State on May 14 and 15.

S'western Defends T.I.A.C. Net Crown

The Southwestern tennis team left for Sewanee Thursday morning to defend their own Tennessee Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Tourney title. A Lynx victory in this edition of the tournament would be the third consecutive year the state tennis title has fallen into Southwestern hands.

Mike Truscott, Hal Henderson, George Crabb, Bill Davidson, and John Daniel will carry the Lynx' hopes against such opponents as Memphis State, David Lipscomb, Lambuth, host Sewanee, and others.

Fine Record

Largely because of the fine 9-4 record the Lynx are presently sporting, they will be considered a co-favorite along with Sewanee, a team which recently fell before Southwestern's savage barrage. Sewanee was just the finale of the four consecutive victories the Lynx racked up to close out this year's highly successful season.

The other victims include Southeast Missouri, Lambuth, and Florence State, none of which was able to wrest as many as three points from Southwestern in any one match.

Truscott in 1st Slot

The line-up for the tournament will find Truscott at the number one position, Henderson number two, George Crabb three, and Bill Davidson four. Henderson and Crabb will play number one doubles while Truscott and Daniel will make up the second unit.

Particularly impressive this season has been the outstanding play of the squad's freshman members, and so with all but team captain Henderson returning, prospects for an even more successful season next year are unusually bright.

FRESHMAN TENNIS STANDOUT this year, Mike Truscott, is presently at the University of the South with the rest of the team defending Southwestern's T.I.A.C. Tournament championship.
