Council Completes New Constitution

Membership Rules Entirely Revised

The Southwestern Student Council has completed the final draft of its proposed new constitution for the Student Body, and plans are at present for it to be presented to the students for ratification in chapel on March 15 and 16. Three hundred mimeographed copies of the seven-page document have been prepared for distribution.

Practically a completely revised instrument, the new constitution announces its organizational-revision keynote in Article I, which states, "The name of this organization shall be 'The Student Body of Southwestern.'" In the present constitution, undated but probably formulated in 1927, the first article reads, "The name of this organization shall be 'The Student Council of Southwestern.'"

One of the most important governmental changes provided for under the new constitution concerns membership on the Student Council. Designed to streamline and centralize the activities of the Council, Article VI reads as follows:

"Section 1. Members of the Council shall be the President, the Vice-President, and the Secretary-Treasurer of the Student Body; two representatives from each

C.U.C. Will Sponsor Voorhies Singing

The Christian Union Cabinet announces that it will sponsor group sings in the Voorhies Hall Social Room on Wednesday nights, from 6:45 to 7:00 P.M. Hymns, carols, folk songs, etc., will be included in the programs.

Mr. L. F. O'Connor, organist at St. John's Episcopal Church and a professor at the College of Music, will direct the singing.

The entire student body is welcome and urged to attend.

"Lynx" Will Choose Beauties March 13

The yearly Southwestern Beauty Review, to select five beauties for the Lynx, Southwestern's annual, will be held at 7:30 P.M. on March 13 in Hardie Auditorium, before the beginning of the Panhellenic dance in the gym. Admission to the review will be forty cents. William Hightower will be master of ceremonies.

Each sorority and the Independent Women may have as many as five entries. Names must be submitted to Helen DeBerry by March 10.

Ten finalists will be chosen at the review, but the five winners will not be known until publication of the Lynx.

Various professional men and women from Memphis, all of whom have had judging experience in similar contests, will serve as judges.

Tau Kappa Alpha Will Sponsor UWF Chapter On Campus

Tau Kappa Alpha, the debating society, has voted to sponsor a chapter of United World Federalists, Inc., at Southwestern. This is a movement that is growing among American universities. The aims of the organization will be presented to the student body soon.

Southwestern debating teams are competing for the right to represent the college at the Bluegrass Debate Tourney at Georgetown, Kentucky, next weekend, March 12 and 13.

Next Monday, March 8, at the regular Tau Kappa Alpha meeting, there will be a round table discussion on the subject of Universal Military Training. This is in preparation for the debate with a visiting team from West Point Military Academy on March 19.

Ann Brown Chosen Representative To Bry's Fashion Show

Miss Ann Brown, sophomore, will represent Southwestern, when the college is saluted by Bry's Saturday during a fashion show presented at the downtown department store at 2 in the afternoon.

Miss Brown, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Brown of 1214 Snowden, will be guest soloist and offer two semi-classical selections.

The fashion show, a repeat of a similar showing held recently at the Waldorf Astoria in New York, is geared to appeal to coeds particularly. No basic garment will be tagged above the twenty-five dollar mark, although the clothes are latest designs by well known fashion houses.

Ensembles shown will include apparel for wear from breakfast, through evening cocktails.

The fashion show, the first of its kind to be offered in Memphis, is entitled "Dollars and Sense." It will take place Saturday from 2 until 3:30 p.m. at Bry's Third Floor Fashion Center.

Background music will be furnished by WMC's Noel Gilbert and his string ensemble. Kay Allen, Women's Director of WMPS, will offer the commentary.

Zeta Tau Alpha Leads In Grades

Zeta Tau Alpha led all other groups in scholarship for the first semester with a grade average of 2.856. Chi Omega was second and Tri-Delta third. Seniors led the classes, followed by juniors, sophomores, and freshmen in that order. Alpha Omicron Pi was fourth in rank and Kappa Delta fifth. Sigma Nu led the fraternities, followed by ATO, KA, KS, SAE, and PiKA in that order. Student body average was 2.385; women's average, 2.497; men's average, 2.314; and veterans' average, 2.278.

Louise Rother Is PiKA Sweetheart

Anna Louise Rother, attractive, brunet senior, was chosen as "Dream Girl of PiKA" at the fraternity's annual founders' day dinner-dance last Saturday evening at the Panorama Room of Hotel King Cotton. Anna Louise is president of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, member of the Women's Undergraduate Board, and Pi Intersorority. She was chosen last year for the Beauty Section of the Lynx.

"The Dream Girl," attired in a blue satin gown, and her escort Gerald Sweatt, retiring president of PiKA, came through a large reproduction of the fraternity pin that had been stretched with black crepe paper. They walked in front of the orchestra, where Gerald presented Anna Louise with a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Then he pinned a jeweled sweetheart pin on her. Southwestern's "Dream Girl" and her escort joined the other three "Dream Girls" in dancing to the strains of "The Dream Girl of PiKA."

Let's Get Some Eyes Open At Once!

(Below is published a letter received last week by the editor of this newspaper, as the result of an editorial mentioning the existence of Communistic elements on this campus.)

Photostatic copies of the letter are being made, and they and the original will be forwarded to the proper authorities—school administrative, city, and federal—for investigatory action.

If the letter was written as a joke, it will have to be proven as such by the writers when they have been identified.)

Dear Editor Mr. Hatchett:

We are just a little bit afraid that you have let your tiny, tiny ego run away with you when you imagine that the "pinkish elements" have "included you in." Let us assure you that we would never consider even approaching one in such an obviously exalted position on the campus, much less one with such apparently infinite political perspicacity.

We await with fear and trembling your "exposure" of us "to the contemptuous gaze of our fellow students." Have mercy, Mr. Editor. PLEASE, have mercy!

THE PURE REDS AND HYBRID PINKS OF SOUTHWESTERN

(The letter, anonymously written, is printed in full exactly as received, except that spelling, capitalization, and other errors in fundamental grammar school English have been corrected.)

While it is not the general policy of the Sou'wester to publish unsigned communications, in this case we have understood the circumstances and made an exception. There are times when a man can so debase himself as to be ashamed of what he has done to his own father's name.)

It CAN Happen Here

The anonymous letter printed on the first page of this issue of the Sou'wester is not being published because of any feeling of personal insult to myself. Furthermore, it is being printed with the full knowledge that publicity is exactly what its writers desire. But vermin are not exterminated from the foundations of a house by pretending to ignore their existence, and I propose in this instance to give them not only the publicity they wish, but a good bit more than they bargained for.

I have published the letter for two reasons. I want the wide-eyes-of-innocence questions I received after last week's editorial ("Do you mean that there are really Communists here?") to be answered; and I want something to be done about it.

I take the matter seriously. I take it in deadly seriousness. I am tired of hearing about the prevalence of Communist elements on the college campuses of this country, with no definite action being taken to stop it. I am tired of listening to the followers of such a revolting creed try to excuse themselves by quibbling with words, and I am tired of hearing others try to make their excuses for them with similar quibbling. I maintain that any person who declares the slightest favoritism WHATEVER to Communism IS a Communist, IS a traitor of the lowest order to this country, and MUST be dealt with immediately and decisively. And I am just about as sick and tired as I can get of hearing such persons, whenever they are threatened with governmental action against them, whimper miserably that their "rights" are protected by the United States Constitution. There are laws, true enough, in that document guaranteeing the free expression of belief and opinion, but there is not one word which requires a decent people to tolerate for a single instant a filthy stench.

There are two types of Communists in this country today. There are the Soviet-trained agents who are here for the purpose of swaying public opinion to their cause; and there are the ones who have believed those agents; the ones who, in blissful ignorance of the despicable way that they are being played for fools, go about attracting the cheapest form of notice to themselves by helping to spread still further the doctrine of dictatorship and hate. It is these second-type Communists that the Kremlin recently announced would be allowed to serve its purposes until Russia dominated the world, and would then be executed at once as a type of traitor despised by even the Communists themselves.

If dictatorship has a single good point, it is this:

I wish that I could command complete dictatorship over this country for one day.

The first type of Communists I mentioned, the legitimate, commissioned agents of the Russian government, I would treat to a sample of their own form of legality. I would have them all, without the slightest semblance of a trial whatever, hung.

The second type, however; the wretched, misguided, misinformed, rabble rousing, flea brained, illegitimate, yellow bellied type; the type on the college campus . . .

I would hesitate to honor by soiling a rope with.

The Editor

We, The Students . . .

The proposed new constitution of the Southwestern Student Body has been completed after months of study, debate, and plain hard work by the Student Council, and will soon be presented to the students for ratification or rejection. The new constitution, not only a complete revision of the old one but an excellent example of governmental organization in itself, is in our opinion a near-perfect document for student government purposes, and we would like to declare this newspaper's stand in favor of immediate ratification of it by the students.

It has been a long, long time indeed since there has been a Student Governing Body on this campus that not only took an extremely active interest and participation in student affairs, but also devoted a great deal of its time toward clearing a path that will make the work in future years comparatively easy. We are gratified to see that there is such an organization present on the campus this year.

We would like to editorially extend our honest appreciation to Bob Amis, president, the members of the Southwestern Student Council, and the faculty advisors, for a difficult, and generally thankless job of work, well done.

QUESTION Of The Week

What is your opinion of Popularity Contests?

Bill Marsh: "It is an expression of American vanity. A little bit asinine, but probably not harmful."

Jane Aucott: "I think that Bill Bowden should have won all six positions in the recent one."

Ralph Martin: "'Popularity' is a good name for them. Whether candidates are running for the most handsome or the best cook, it will be popularity that decides it instead of actual good looks or ability."

Martha Jean Harris: "The elections are really decided by the sizes of the fraternities or sororities the candidates belong to."

John D. Reese: "I think that the voting should take place in a more centralized location. A lot more people would bother to vote if that were the case."

Robert Edington: "The elections should be publicized more. Some students don't seem to even realize what is happening during election day. I would suggest posters as well as chapel announcements and newspaper stories."

Bill Bowden: "I wuz robbed. It's a Bolshevik plot."

Amos Rogers was in charge of arrangements.

Gerald Sweatt, retiring president of Pi Kappa Alpha, was elected president of the Men's Panhellenic Council recently. The retiring president is Dean Bailey, president of Kappa Alpha. The Missing Lynx

There is a room in Robb Hall known as "Little Bohemia" which is a cross between Nightmare Alley and Walt Disney's "Silly Symphonette." It is such a ridiculously impossible place that it could easily not exist if it were not for the genial reality of its owner, a small, fanged replica of Hoagy Carmichael, known as Sonny "Shakey" Connell. "Shakey" is almost as fabulous as the room, being a cross between a manerin scent bottle and a horned sug worm, but the act of his residing in this mad hovel is like placing a used bathtub stopper on the same shelf with the Hope diamond. "Shakey" has allowed the room to surpass him.

"Little Bohemia" is a small scale model of the rumpus room at the Bolivar Institute of the Insane. As the visitor enters the revolving doors he is immediately faced by two small signs on the wall. One hangs askew on the curtains and reads, "Use Manuel: Automatic out of Order." No one knows who Manuel is, and no one knows what order Automatic is out of. It is said that this sign is an advertisement snatched from a Filipino Toddle House. The sign points at nothing at all.

The second sign curtly remarks, "This is not an ashtray." To say that the sign is ambiguous in the extreme is to make an understatement. It points vaguely at an overstuffed chair complete with cigarette burns; a small, self-folding table which holds a glittering bronze Buddha enhanced by an opal in its navel, and a bookcase containing some 7000 pounds of highly questionable literature plus a built-in cracker box and jar of garlic cheese. The opposite wall is securely pasted together with several hundred stray cartoons, Willkie buttons, love letters (complete with humorous footnotes, bibliography, and telephone numbers), bank notices of overdrafts, old garter belts, cigar butt rings, and naughty calendars.

"Shakey" has a lot of people fooled. He tinkles away on the piano a good deal of the time and he has a cheering squad which thinks he's greater than Iturbi, but actually he can't play a note. It's all done by slight of hand, a trick he picked up from an old rajah in Wartrace, Tennessee. What he's really doing here is removing the stone work from the foundation of Palmer Hall bit by bit each night. During the commencement exercises this June, Sonny plans to have Palmer dissolve into a faint oyster stew of cement dust and plummeting pilasters just as Bob Amis reaches for his diploma.

class, one man and one woman, one of whom shall be the president of the class; the Commissioner of Publications and Publicity; the Commissioner of Christian Activities; the Commissioner of Athletics; the Commissioner of Social Activities; the Commissioner of Undergraduate Women.

"Section 2. The offices of the Student Body and the five commissioners shall be elected by the Student Body. The two class representatives shall be elected by their respective classes.

"Section 3. A two-thirds vote of the Council shall be necessary to remove a member of the Council and a two-thirds vote of the Student Body shall be necessary to remove the President, the Vice-President, or the Secretary-Treasurer from office.

"Section 4. No person shall hold more than one position on the Student Council."

Other interesting features of the new constitution follow in condensed form:

Any legislation by the Student Council can be referred to a vote by the Student Body provided a petition signed by fifty members of the Student Body is presented within three days after publication of the legislation. If such action is taken, the legislation will not go into effect until adopted by a majority vote of the students. Already existent legislation may be annulled by a majority vote of the Student Body, the voting being held upon receipt of a similar petition.

The Vice-President of the Student Body shall automatically become President of the Elections Commission; the Commissioner of Publications and Publicity will become President of the Publications Board; the Commissioner of Christian Activities will become President of the Southwestern Christian Union; the Commissioner of Athletics will become President of the Southwestern Athletic Backers Association; and the Commissioner of Undergraduate Women will become President of the Women's Undergraduate Society.

The Commissioner of Social Activities will be responsible for arranging the Social Calendar with the approval of the Student Council. This has heretofore been the responsibility of the Panhellenic Councils.

In order that no one student may hold too many campus positions, thus not being able to devote sufficient time to any of them, no student will be allowed to have more than fifty activity points at any one time. A table showing the number of activity points given for various offices is contained in the by-laws of the new constitution (President of the Student Body — 50; Commissioners — 35; Editor of Sou'wester or Lynx — 35; President of a Fraternity or Sorority — 30; President of a club — 15 or 10; etc.).

Chi Omega; these officers will serve for the coming year. They were presented at the sorority's George Washington Ball Feb. 21 at the University Club. Vinton Cole succeeds Lucille Hamer as president. Margaret Loaring-Clark is vice president and Eloise Cooper is new secretary. Others are Ann Baggett, herald; Berta Radford, personnel chairman; Ann Barrier, chapter correspondent; Carol Cable, social secretary, and Eloise Cooper, elections commission and Panhellenic representative. Patty Weaver is activities chairman, Berta Radford, rush chairman, and Mildred Wilkerson, social chairman.

Vanderbilt Downs Southwestern In Final Fray 61-47

Southwestern wound up its 1948 basketball season last Saturday night by losing to a strong Vanderbilt five 61 to 47 in Nashville. The Lynx did not hit their stride until the final period when they tallied 14 points while holding the Commodores scoreless, but the rally came too late to affect the outcome of the game.

Because of the absence of Jud Williford, who could not make the trip, Dean Bailey took over the Right Forward position and led the Lynx attack with 12 points. Billy Joe Adcock paced Vandy with 20 points.

Southwestern ended the season with a record of 5 wins and 13 defeats.

- SAE 49, PiKA 12

ATO pulled an upset in the opening game by coming from behind to edge Kappa Alpha by four points. Tony Elizondo led the way with 14 points. SAE trounced PiKA 49-12 with Ted Fox bucketing 17 points to take scoring honors. The Independents also got off on the right foot by humbling Sigma Nu 53-17, with Tommy Askew and Clyde Smith collecting 42 points between them. Roark Spurs Team With Fine Game

The Southwestern cagers made their final home appearance one of their best ones, as they eked out a last minute 61 to 59 victory over the Sewanee Tigers in the Fargason Field House on February 25. About 250 fans thrilled to the see-saw battle which was decided by the excellent play of Eldon Roark and the Lynx's accuracy from the free throw line.

Roark, a reserve forward, entered the fray early in the first period and immediately began to spark his team mates. His performance proved to be so valuable that he remained in the contest until he fouled out late in the final half, shortly after his one-handed toss broke a 49-all tie and gave the Lynx their margin of victory. His 7 field goals and 6 free throws for 20 points led all scorers, and Jud Williford, who played his usual fine game at the other forward, was runner-up with 15 tallies. George Banhers scored 15 points to lead the Sewanee attack.

The Lynx made 25 free tosses of 29 attempts for the best record of the season. It was this fine performance on charity throws which ultimately spelled the win, for the Tigers meshed five more field goals than Southwestern.

WHY I smoke Chesterfield

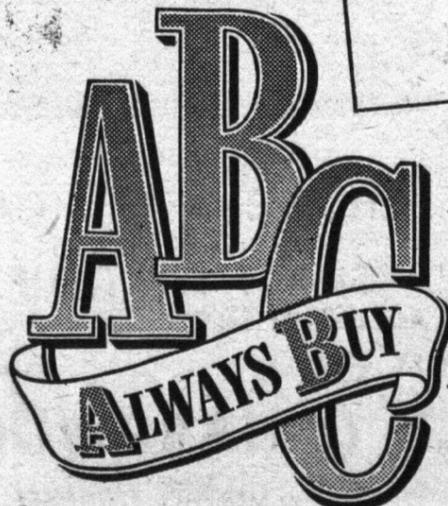

(FROM A SERIES OF STATEMENTS BY PROMINENT TOBACCO FARMERS)

"Liggett & Myers buy as fine tobacco as there is grown. They buy only mild, sweet cigarette tobacco."

"I smoke only Chesterfield cigarettes and I have smoked them right from the start."
