

64 SENIORS WAIT FOR DIPLOMAS

FRATS DECIDE RUSHING RULES FOR NEXT FALL

Preferential System To Be Followed

STARTS ON SEPT. 19

Accept Bids on Sept. 23; No Group Parties

Rushing rules to govern the Greek Letter fraternity activities next fall were made at a meeting of the new Men's Panhellenic Council last Saturday.

The Council, with the approval of the faculty, is inaugurating a new plan for next year's rush week. Rushing instead of being deferred until six weeks after school has started, will be held at the first of school.

No rushing will be allowed during freshmen orientation week, Sept. 11-15, nor during the first three days after the college session has begun, Sept. 16-18. Rushing season will open officially Thursday morning, Sept. 19, at 8:15 o'clock when fraternities make dates with freshmen. This will last until Saturday midnight, Sept. 21. On Sunday, Sept. 22, there will be quiet season, and no rushing will be allowed. Pledging will be Monday morning, Sept. 23, after chapel.

PREFERENTIAL SYSTEM
The preferential plan of bidding will be used. Fraternities will give their bids to Dr. R. P. Strickler Sunday afternoon. Dr. Strickler will meet the freshmen Monday morning and read out the list of men receiving bids to the fraternities. These men will then list the fraternities in the order of their choice, and as soon after they have learned from what fraternity they have been given a bid will go to that fraternity's meeting place to receive a pledge button.

The same rules about dates as were used this year will hold. No fraternity will be allowed to make consecutive dates with the same freshman. As many dates can be had during the morning between classes as may be wanted. Official dates will be in the afternoon from lunch-time to dinner and in the evening from dinner on.

No group parties will be allowed. More than four men in a party, two freshmen and two upperclassmen, will not be allowed.

Representatives of the seven fraternities on the campus have approved these rules and agreed that their fraternity will abide by them. Fraternities are put on their honor in the matter of obeying rules.

Lackey Apes Famed Ichabod Crane Act In Midnight Sprint

While strolling thru Overton Park with the lambent rays of glittering midnight stars making grotesque figures out of the landscape, Dr. J. B. Lackey was wending his solemn way home not so long ago. Denson Reid, thinking the gallivanting figure before him to be that of his roommate, planned a dastardly joke.

"Say, guy, what you doing here? Air out. Air out, varmint!" Reid chortled in his truculent way.

Lackey, the story runs, also ran. He turned the corners so fast his pants pockets shifted rocks. Denson stretched out and gave chase, still thinking the fleeing figure to be that of his roommate. When the speeding figure took the main highway, Denson cut thru the trees by the Buffalo pen and approached directly behind the racing form.

Gently picking up a missile, Reid hurled the rock sharply to port. This augmented the prof's celerity. Denson chased his quarry with unrelenting vivacity. He was within arm's reach, but he could not reach him.

Lackey succeeded in outrunning Reid, and tore up University Boulevard to Stewart Hall a winner by 50 yards. When Reid finally pulled up he found the disturbed Dr. Lackey sitting on the steps panting mountainously.

Reid calmly walked to his room. Lackey continued his recuperative motions for quite a while. "You could play marbles on his coat tail," Reid commented when mentioning Lackey's spurt up University Boulevard.

Lackey is noncommittal on his dash to safety.

PEEPIN' G About

NOWADAY, WHAT IS TOO FILTHY TO SAY IS SUNG.

Explorer (at lecture)—There was only one thing to do and I did it. Sailor—Buddie, you sure know your native women.

It's a great life if you don't weaken, but lots more fun if you weaken just a little.

Waitress (looking at nickel tip)—Whatcha trying to do, seduce me?

"Grant me just one Boone," said Daniel to his wife.

"Look! A car parked on this lonely road. Can it belong to bandits?" "No, it's just the old parlor sofa two generations removed."

Dr. Drake—Deep breathing, you understand, destroys microbes. Dr. Weiss—But, doctor, how can you force them to breathe deeply?

It is alleged that a Scotchman wrote the first short story.

"Vanderbilt, this toast has a strange flavor?"

"Why, that's too bad, Mister Fuller. I burnt it a little, but I thought it'd be all right if I touched it up with a dash or two of Ungentine."

sezes a s. a. e.—"why are two horses used to pull heavy loads?" retorts a chi o—"because one horse would get lonesome by himself."

An nen little Johnny McFerrin laughed and laughed because he knew all the time that Harriet was going to get shed of her senior next month.

But on the other hand little Denny Reid just bawled and bawled because he knew all the time his Katy was going to leave him.

IN PIPES ROWDY McGIVAREN BECAUSE HE OPINED ALL THE TIME THAT HE DIDN'T HAVE A C A M P U S SPOUSE TO LOOSE AND LOSE.

City Slicker—Honestly, honey, you're the first girl I've ever loved.

Tubby Solomons—Gosh, you must think I don't know it!

"How much gas have we got, Meeks?"

"Gosh, B. D., it points to one-half, but I don't know whether it means half full or half empty."

A woman is as safe as her weakest strap.

The year's at the spring. The bird is on the wing. How silly and absurd! The wing is on the bird.

He—"Your petticoat shows." She—"What does it show?" He—"That you're old-fashioned."

"Is she pretty?" "Pretty! Say, when she gets on a street car the advertising is a total loss."

When a girl pulls her skirt over her knees, it means that the interview is ended.

When it comes to refusing, the A.O.P.'s are poor losers.

Then there was the dumb parents of a wild freshman who, when they were notified by the dean that their darling had 16 cuts, sent their boy a roll of gauze and a can of adhesive tape.

This reminds us of the big argument between Messrs. Fuller and Harrison which took up an entire morning. Mr. Fuller, who has been demonstrating his art in veiling the contour of one's legs by the aid of knickers, still spells "sure" "shure." Every man to his own liking, especially as to clothes.

"WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF A HORSE FELL INTO YOUR BATH TUB?" "I'D PULL THE PLUG OUT."

Then there was the father who shot his girl's date to death when he came into the parlor and saw them dancing: he was deaf and couldn't hear the music.

The early bird may catch the worm, but it takes a frat man to catch next fall's freshman fry before this year is over.

Our Time Has Come to Say Good-bye

As the day of graduation approaches for our senior class, a peculiar feeling comes over us. It is a feeling of shifting of responsibilities. Our senior class was the freshman class when Southwestern first opened her door in her new home in Memphis in September, 1925. Thruout the history of the past four years our class has been outstanding above all others in the activities of the school. For one thing, it has always been the largest class in school. Another reason is that many of our students waited a year or two for Southwestern to open here rather than attend other colleges. This found many capable students ready for Southwestern's initial year here. It is remarkable the way our class has remained intact during these four years. We, with only a very few exceptions, started here as freshmen. We seniors have seen the college grow from practically a new school into an institution with an ever-increasing range of activity.

Our class has always taken upon itself the burden of carrying on the campus life. From the very first there was no organization, except those limited strictly to upperclassmen, in which our members did not take part during their freshman year. Our feeling of responsibility has carried thru from the first. No matter whether freshman, sophomore, junior or senior, the feeling has persisted. We are loathe to release this sense of responsibility to the incoming senior class. It is not that the new seniors will not be capable to carry on our work, but that after four years as "daddy" of the campus, our class feels it a permanent heritage and one never to be delegated to others.

As a parting word to our Alma Mater, we seniors want all to know that we will always be proud of the institution within whose walls we have spent four years of the best part of life; and we will always be ready when our Alma Mater beckons to us for what aid is in our power to render. And to the seniors who follow thru the years, who will assume the responsibilities we have had, who will protect the name of our Alma Mater as we have, to all succeeding classes we give our sincerest best wishes for success, good-fellowship among all, and honor to our college.

Our Alma Mater Needs Your Help

As summer approaches, and vacation is but two weeks off, let us leave with the honest intention of bringing back with us next fall students who will be a credit to our institution.

Students have a great influence on their friends in persuading them to attend a certain college. Students are the best advertising mediums of a college. Students want to be members of a congenial student body, and the most certain way to insure of a high class, harmonious representative group is to exert pressure on your friends in coming to Southwestern.

Mr. Fuller last week urged the student body to help the college in this way. The Southwestern Athletic Association is doing everything in its power to make the institution noted in an athletic way. The members have voluntarily assumed a financial burden on themselves in erecting a new field house, in enlarging the grid boxes, buying new equipment, in remodeling the gym, and in inaugurating three new sports for men and six for women.

In order to augment the efforts of both the athletic association in procuring athletics, and Southwestern in enrolling high-type students, it behooves the returning student body to make the coming vacation a profitable one for their Alma Mater.

Best Wishes To the New Staff

One can become so accustomed to a task that that task becomes second nature. If there be any particular love for this task, any outside help or interference is an intrusion which is somewhat resented.

This issue of the Sou'wester is the last of a series of 136 issues that the editor has written during his four years at Southwestern. It is not that the task is ended, but that there is a lonesomesess, a sense of dereliction, in the thought of others continuing in the office.

In the editor's estimation, editing the school paper for his friends has been the highest honor of his college career. He has tried to present a true cross-section of student life—of his friends. Whether he was successful or not, that is for others to decide. There is lots of work attendant on steering a college paper, but the pleasure in doing it so overwhelms the difficulties that have been met that there is nothing felt but regret in giving way to the new staff.

The new staff is thoroly capable of carrying on the obligation of the Sou'wester to the student body. Editor White and Business Manager Lowe have both received much training on the staff, and are conversant with all the details of publication. To these two and the others who assist them, the editor and his retiring staff extend their heartiest best wishes for a successful year.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH.—Psychologists at the University of Utah proved that at least 50 per cent of the students cheat during exams. ## Grid Coaches Set for Fall Season

Expect 100 Candidates; Build Field House

Coaches Bill Mallory, Webb Burke and Wes Adams expect to welcome more than one hundred football candidates at the first call for fall practice on September 9.

Mallory, former Yale All-American backfield star, will be in charge of the Lynx backfield, and will tutor the large number who will aspire to backfield positions on the varsity. Burke will handle the line. Adams will coach the incoming freshmen.

Adams is starting his third year as Bobcat coach. During the summer he will take Knute Rockne's course given at Washington and Lee University. After this he will attend Walter Meanwell's training school in basketball at the University of Wisconsin.

Twenty varsity men, thirty recruits from the 1928 Bobcat squad and several junior college stars will be present for first practice, the coaches say. Under the S. I. A. A. rules junior college men may play in the association during their first year, the one-year residence rule not applying to them.

In preparation for the coming season Don Fuller is superintending the erection of a field house, which will contain offices for the coaches and athletic department, and showers and dressing rooms for the coaches and officials. Sixty new boxes will be built during the summer, each accommodating six persons. Lockers and showers will be installed in the second floor of the gym, and will accommodate 100 men.

Journal Today

The final edition of the Southwestern Journal will arrive on the campus today, Catherine Underwood, editor, announced Wednesday.

1930 Seniors Approve Garb

Wear Caps, Gowns to Classes

Southwestern will resemble the Oxford, England, campus next year when senior men and women don their new caps and gowns, which will be ordered this summer.

The incoming senior class met last week and decided that the custom of wearing gowns to and from classes and at all senior class functions should be started next year.

The gowns will be black and will bear a Southwestern seal on the left lapel. They will have full flowing sleeves.

There are 69 in the present junior class. There will probably be 65 graduates next year to order gowns.

Hodge-Podge Frat Picks Don Ramier

Don Ramier, Sigma Nu, was elected president of Beta Lambda fraternity in the recent politicking among members for next year's officers. Frank White, Sigma Nu, was elected to the post of secretary-treasurer. Jeremiah Seagle, Lambda Chi Alpha, will represent the Strays on the Panhellenic Council; Wilson Foote, Theta Kappa Nu, will sit on the Sanhedrin. President Ramier's first official act was to appoint Seagle as rush chairman for next year, Foote as social chairman and White as chairman of the committee for the return of lost pins.

Magazine Mailed Out

The final edition of the Alumni Magazine, edited by Dr. Marion Lee MacQueen, was mailed on May 25.

REVIEW OF YEAR'S ATHLETICS SHOWS LYNX HELD THEIR OWN

Baseball Was Varsity's Biggest Problem; Frosh Emerge With Excellent Record

Another year's athletic season has rolled into the past. During the past year the Lynx teams did not meet with any phenomenal success except in basketball. Considering it was the first year in the S. I. A. A. and the Lynx teams are practically getting a new start, the season was fairly successful.

The football team under Coaches Neely Mallory and Pos Elam won six out of ten, with three of the four defeats against schools with a much larger student body and reputation. The Lynx turned in victories over two S. I. A. A. teams, Union University and Georgetown. They lost two conference games to University of Chattanooga and West Kentucky Normal. The Lynx defeated Lambuth College and West Tennessee Teachers of the Mississippi Valley conference, and Arkansas College and Hendrix, both of the Arkansas association. University of Arkansas and Ole Miss, both of the Southern Conference, defeated the Lynx.

The Lynx fared much better in basketball under Pos Elam and Willis McCabe. Southwestern, after a fair start, wound up in a whirlwind fashion by going to the finals in the S. I. A. A. tournament at Jackson, Miss.

Among the victories were two over Millsaps, two over Mississippi College, Catholic Club of Memphis, University of Chattanooga, Georgetown, Centenary and the Y. M. C. A. Triangles. The Lynx dropped a pair to Union University, lost two to Millsaps, two to Mississippi College, including the finals defeat in the tournament, and lost to Louisiana Normal, Louisiana College and Louisiana Tech.

The baseball team also had a bad season, winning three and tying one in fourteen starts. The victories included a 2 to 0 win over University of Iowa and a 2 to 1 win over Ole Miss. The other win was from Millsaps. The Lynx lost one to Iowa, three to Millsaps, two to Mississippi College, three to Ole Miss and one to the Milk-Flo Independent team.

The track team under Coach W. C. Rasberry won its only dual meet with Union University. Four Lynx track men entered the S. I. A. A. meet at Clinton, S. C. and placed eighth.

The tennis team won a match from Sewanee but lost to Millsaps and Clarence Saunders Independent team. The golf team won two matches with Ole Miss and lost one to Vanderbilt.

The freshmen teams did well this season. The Bobcat football eleven, under Coach Wes Adams, turned in victories over Tupelo Military Academy, Tate County Aggies, Union University frosh, Sunflower Junior College and the Ole Miss frosh, losing one game to Delta State Teachers.

The freshmen split even in basketball but turned in a win over the Ole Miss quintet. The baseball season also was only fair, finishing with a few more defeats than victories.

Capers Heads A. T. P.

Gerald Capers is the new president of Alpha Theta Phi, honorary fraternity petitioning Phi Beta Kappa. He obtained his office by virtue of excellent scholarship. Robert Scott is vice-president, and Abe Fortas, secretary-treasurer.

Start Clinic

Linnie Sue Gary will have charge of a psychology clinic which will be opened at Southwestern next year. The clinic will be for testing children and adults to ascertain mental capacities, aptitudes and intelligence.

Five New Sports Open For Co-eds

Sponsor Archery, Golf, Track, Tennis, Ball

Don Fuller, Southwestern Athletic Chairman, announces a full athletic program for co-eds next year, to be introduced include archery, indoor baseball, track, golf, tennis, and fencing. In the past the girls have had a basketball team for only the eight or ten who "made" the squad. This new program will give every girl a chance to compete in the several sport.

Jimmy and Johnny Hughes have been elected as archery coaches. The targets, bows and arrows have already been ordered and practice will be started soon on the court that will be located south of sorority row.

The girl's instructor will be announced later.
