CHI ALPHAS WIN FIRST HONOR

PLEDGES HAPPY AS FRATS END 'HELL WEEK' FUN

Final Initiation Given by Several Groups

3 DELAY FINALS

Chi Omegas To Observe Goat Night Monday

Fraternity freshmen at Southwestern are mending their hurt prides and calloused feet after the past week of torment, during which the upperclass men delighted in precipitating Hell Week with all its embroidery.

Many pledges found it difficult to eat soup with potato mashers, sleep with their clothes wrong side out, cut meat with spoons, carry 300 cigarette stubs in their pockets, catch a bottle of flies in cold weather, and sing while drinking water.

The Greeks have ended this annual season of frivolity, and many of the fraternities and sororities on the campus have given the final degree of initiation to the neophytes.

Only those pledges making the required scholarship average during the first semester have been initiated. Those failing to meet the requirements perforce must wait until after the first grading period in the spring term in order to pull up poor grades.

Following is a list of fraternities and sororities who have given final initiation degrees:

SIGMA ALPHA EPSILON — Morys Hines, June Davidson, Eldridge Lilly, Reeves Manker, Stanley Frazer, C. Rodney Mills and Paul Jones.

PI KAPPA ALPHA—W. C. Rasberry, Dabney Crump, Albert Erskine, John McFerrin, Orren Pickard, Barron Shelton, William Frazier and John Shaw.

TAU DELTA GAMMA—Joe Hollifield, Thaddeus Hall, John Seibold, Ben Ross, J. A. Cabaniss, James Shepherd and Charles Castles.

BETA SIGMA—Harold Ohlendorf and Oliver Cobb.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA—Meeks Hinson, Jack DeLay, Lamar Fulenwider, L. B. Long, Bill Bierson, Bill Rainey and Jimmy Hamilton.

KAPPA DELTA Sorority—Misses Martha Hogg, Martha Hamilton, Martha Tucker, Martha Keesee, Elizabeth Smith, Margaret Kimbrough, Xylda Farrell, Mary C. Lee and Frances Durham.

ALPHA OMICRON PI Sorority—Misses Irene Hyman, Josephine Ellington, Marian Pape and Gertie Mayo.

CHI ALPHA Sorority—Misses Mary Anderson and Rachel Baker.

Kappa Sigma and Kappa Alpha fraternities, and Chi Omega sorority, have not held the final ceremonies. Chi Omegas will hold goat night next Monday, and final initiation within the next two weeks.

Haden Opens Bible Discourses Sunday

Prof. Eric Haden will be the speaker for the next few weeks at the regular Sunday morning Bible class held in Prof. MacQueen's class room at 9 o'clock. He will open his series of talks next Sunday morning.

The class was organized recently, and at present 40 dormitory students have enrolled. In the elections held last Sunday morning, John Johnson was chosen president, Warner Hall vice-president, Paul Jones secretary, and Robert Russell pianist.

Pi Kaps Celebrate

The local chapter of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity and the alumni members will celebrate Founders' Day with a banquet at the University Club tonight. The fraternity was founded at the University of Virginia in 1868.

K. A.'s Pledge Drake

Kappa Alpha fraternity takes great pleasure in announcing the pledging of Thomas Drake.

Annuals Expected By Staff May 20

The last bit of annual copy will go to the Lynx printers on March 7, Editor Wailes announces.

The basketball and baseball sections are now about ready for the typesetters. Proofs on all class, organization and fraternity sections will be available for final checking within the next two weeks.

Leroy DuBard, co-business manager, was in Nashville last week-end, and was told by the printers that the finished book would be on the campus by May 20.

T. N. E. INSTALLS HERE MARCH 17

University of Louisville Delegation Coming

Alpha Mu chapter of Theta Nu Epsilon fraternity will be installed on the campus Sunday, March 17, when Tau Delta Gamma members are initiated into the national. A team from the University of Louisville, Louisville, Ky., composed of three or more men, will drive to Memphis to conduct the installation ceremonies. Perry O. Powell, executive secretary of the Grand Council of T. N. E., will come from Milwaukee, Wis.

The telegram announcing the date of installation was received from Mr. Powell Tuesday morning in reply to a wire from the local frat.

The Louisville boys will be entertained while they are in Memphis by members of T. D. G. with a dinner and dance.

Further arrangements concerning the installation of the newest national on the campus have not been definitely completed.

Student's Father Buried Wednesday

Funeral services for Mr. B. B. Goodman, prominent Memphian, and father of Miss Ellen Goodman, a Southwestern student, who died suddenly of a heart attack last Tuesday morning at Jackson, Tenn., were held from the family home Wednesday. The body was taken to Covington, Tenn., for burial.

Mr. Goodman was a native of Covington, as is his widow, Mrs. Jessie Whitten Goodman. They moved to Memphis 25 years ago.

Besides his widow, Mr. Goodman is survived by six children, Robert Goodman, of Greenville, Miss.; K. Whitten Goodman, B. B. Goodman, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Parker, Mrs. W. F. Moffett and Ellen Goodman.

COLLEGIANS WEAR COSTUME OUTFITS

Southwestern students will enliven the week-end with three costume dances.

The Kappa Delta sorority opened the festivities Thursday night in their chapter lodge when they were host to the collegians at a costume dance. The dance was given in honor of Miss Katherine Yard, a mid-year pledge.

The great open spaces will be respected by the Beta Sigma fraternity tonight at a Hobo dance at the Kappa Delta house from 9 to 12 o'clock. Abe Fortas and his orchestra will play the itinerant music.

In order that the sea wanders may not be forgotten, the Chi Omega sorority members will remember them Saturday night at a Pirate dance in the chapter lodge.

Memphis Pastor Speaks

The Rev. J. P. Robertson, pastor of the Chelsea Avenue Presbyterian Church, was the principal speaker last week at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Southwestern Ministers' Club.

Discuss John Brown

The first three books of "John Brown's Body," by Vincent Benet, were discussed by members of the Shakespeare Club Wednesday night at its meeting at the home of Dr. C. L. Townsend.

ANNOUNCE CAST OF PLAYERS IN APRIL SHOWING

Dramatists Prepare For Spring Program

FOURTEEN IN PLAY

Thespians Not Decided On Director

Try-outs for the "Devil's Disciple," a melodrama by Bernard Shaw, have been held by the Southwestern Players, and a cast of 14 has been chosen for the production, which will be given the first of April in Hardie auditorium. Prof. John H. Davis judged the thespians and cast the play.

There are ten male parts and four women's roles in the play. Allen Haden and Frank White are cast for the part of "Richard," the male lead, and Dorothy Correll and Addie Louise Murray are cast for "Judith," the feminine lead.

"DEVIL" PLAY POPULAR

"The Devil's Disciple" was chosen by popular vote of the student body for the forthcoming play by the dramatists. This play will be the prelude to the regular season which opens soon with the annual spring production.

Some of the characters have dual casts. The announced roles follow: "Mrs. Dudgeon," Alice Rodgers; "Richard," Allen Haden and Frank White; "Essie," Irene Hyman; "Anderson," Bob Sanders; "Judith," Dorothy Correll and Addie Louise Murray; "Christy," Frank White and Bill Martin; "Sergeant," Thomas Drake; "Swindon," Billy Hughes; "Burgoyne," Fritz Heidelberg; "Brudenell," Moore Moore; "Uncles," Erle Howry and Johnny Hagan; "Aunts," Miss Murray and Alicia Keisker; "Hawkins," L. P. Watkins.

The players have not chosen a director as yet.

Swan on Committee To Fete Scientists

Dr. W. O. Swan is on the local entertainment committee of the Tennessee Academy of Science, which will meet in convention in Memphis April 26 and 27.

This will be the first time Memphis has been selected as a meeting place by the organization.

"I wish to extend my sincere thanks for the beautiful valentines I received on Feb. 14," Dr. William O. Shewmaker announces thru THE SOU'WESTER.

Francaise Visitor Speaks In Chapel

The Alliance Francaise of Memphis gave its second lecture of the year Thursday in Hardie auditorium. Pierre de Lanux, who is in Memphis lecturing at Goodwyn Institute, was the speaker. Mr. Lanux is in America preparing notes to write a history of the Civil War—from the Southern point of view.

He was introduced by Prof. Marton W. Storn, who is president of the Memphis Alliance chapter. Tea was served by the members of the organization in honor of the visitor.

SEWANEE AND UNION CARDED

Six Eds Chosen As New Season Opens

Six veteran debaters were chosen for the varsity forensic team Thursday night, February 21, at the try-out meeting of the Quibblers' Forum. The men who will compose the team this year are Malcolm Ritchie, Abe Fortas, Sonny Beard, Maury Hull, James Randle, and Robert Scott. Drs. A. P. Kelso and J. H. Davis, and the club as a whole, were the judges.

There will be three two-man teams handling both sides of the question, "Resolved That the present jury system should be abolished." The first debate will be held with Millsaps College at Southwestern.

Dual debates have been scheduled with Union University and Sewanee. The dates will be announced later.

Appoint Committee From Senior Class

A committee composed of Paul Caldwell, Warner Hall, Pete Melvin and Crawford McGivaren was appointed by Harold Avent, president of the senior class, at a recent meeting for the purpose of conferring with insurance men relative to a policy which the class anticipates leaving as a gift to the institution.

Dr. Charles E. Diehl met with the seniors and explained the tradition which previous classes have set by endowing the college with a policy. After ten years the class returns to the college and designates what disposal is to be made of the paid-up policy.

The committee has not reported.

NORTON ELECTED AS K. D. DELEGATE

Elizabeth Norton has been chosen to represent the Southwestern chapter of Kappa Delta sorority at the national convention which will be held in Biloxi, Miss., next June. Several other active and alumnae members are planning to attend the conclave in the Southern resort.

Thirteen Club Starts Agitation For Restricted Bi-Weekly Hops

Sentiment Growing Among Students to Back Move for Safe and Orderly Dances

Members of the Thirteen Club are planning, if they receive the support of the student body, to sponsor a dance at the Nineteenth Century Club every other Saturday night from 9 to midnight.

Dode Farnsworth, president, is leading the agitation for the move. Under the plan as outlined by Farnsworth, no one will be admitted who has not first received an identification card from the club, which states that the holder has been approved. Tickets will be $1 both for couples and for stags. The identification card and ticket will be necessary to admittance to the dance floor, Farnsworth states.

East End Dance Gardens, for the past several years the regular gathering place for Southwestern collegians, has degenerated into a hang-out for hoodlums, club members aver. Last Saturday night several men engaged in a cutting brawl, and three were badly injured. Members claim that it is unsafe to take a date to East End.

In order to insure of an orderly and well-demeanored group, the Thirteen Club has undertaken the proposition to sponsor these bi-weekly dances for Southwestern students and outsiders who receive the approval of the group.

The members of the club are Farnsworth, president; Richard Monk, vice-president Duncan McRaney, secretary-treasurer; Harold Avent, Crawford McGivaren, T. M. Garrott, Robert Logan, Marion Painter, George Hightower, William Hall, Battle Malone and Harry Walton.

The proposed plans were discussed last week at a banquet given in their honor by "Bud" Hickey at the Parkview Hotel.

SORORITY GIRLS LEAD FRATS IN TERM AVERAGE

Four Co-Ed Groups Head Entire List

A. O. PI's, K. D.'s TIE

Chi Alphas Retain Hold On Loving Cup

Sorority members at Southwestern are far better students than fraternity men, scholastic averages for the first semester show. The lowest group average of the four sororities is above that of the highest fraternity group figure.

Of the nine students making the first and second honor roll for the first half of the college year, five were co-eds and four were eds, altho there were two eds and one co-ed on the first honors list.

Chi Alpha sorority led the eleven Greek letter organizations with a goodly margin. Alpha Omicron Pi and Kappa Delta sororities tied for second honors. Chi Omega sorority trailed in third place, altho but .04 point lower in the scale.

T. D. S. LEADS FRATS

Tau Delta Gamma fraternity led the men's organizations by a .26 point margin. Kappa Sigma came second, and Beta Sigma third.

Miss Annie Beth Gary, assistant registrar, compiled the averages, which were arrived at by finding the median of each member's letter grades on the basis of the following: A equals 4, B equals 3, C equals 2, D equals 1, F equals zero. The appended tabulation is also expressed in letter grades, which are almost the approximate of the decimals.

GROUP	DECIMAL	GRADE
Chi Alpha	2.55	BBBCC
A. O. Pi	2.31	BBCCC
Kappa Delta	2.31	BBCCC
Chi Omega	2.27	BCCCC
Tau Delta Gamma	2.12	CCCCC
Kappa Sigma	1.86	CCCCD
Beta Sigma	1.62	CCCDD
Kappa Alpha	1.50	CCDDD
Pi Kappa Alpha	1.49	CCDDD
Alpha Tau Omega	1.39	CDDDD
S. A. E.	1.03	DDDDD

The Chi Alpha sorority has led the Greek organizations in scholastic averages during the past two and one-half years. They now hold the scholastic loving cup. If they succeed in retaining their lead for four consecutive years the cup will become their permanent possession.

Noted Lynx Alumni Waste Stationery

Joe B. Love Jr., and Charles A. Lewis Jr., drapped into the Sou'wester office the other night, but were disappointed in not finding the staff at home. As a result J. B. writ the following letter:

"Two young prominant alumni cawled to see yer this p.m. but yer wuz nut abouts. Pleese note thet I've changed my bizness adress and telephone number. Invite my frends down to buy some insurance, but dont brake the street cars cumin up cuz I can cum out rather fast."

'HIDDEN DESIRE' WILL BE ACTED

Southwestern night will be observed March 14 when students will be the guests of the Southwestern Players and Chi Delta literary society. The Players will give a one-act play, "The Suppressed Desire." Meredith Davis, Billy Hughes and Catherine Underwood are the three characters. Fritz Heidelberg is director.

The Glee Club will also take part in the program. Refreshments will be served by Chi Delta members. Only Southwestern students are invited. Yes, and it's all free!

Mecklin Pledges K. S.

Kappa Sigma fraternity takes great pleasure in announcing the pledging of Freshman James Mecklin.

Memphis, Tenn.

Deer Lily,

The co-eds are waiting impatiently for spring to come so Razz will get his old jalope (pronounced ja la pea) out to take them riding. No fooling, that old can is so old it ain't got a model: it was built before they had models.

Are you superstitious, Lily? Well, the Lynx photographer caught an A. O. Pi and a K. D. washing a Chi Omega's face with snow the other day. Talking about snow, Prof. Shewmaker wants to know who popped him on the ear with a snowball. Johnny Rollow says he hopes it doesn't snow any more, the last little flurry cost him about 67 windows.

Don Ramier wants to know why the guy that writes this article doesn't stick his head under water three times and pull it out twice. Big "Mac" might accommodate you some time, Don, if his name appears in this column again.

The campus seems to be coming to life. Spring must be near. The K. D.'s had a costume dance last night, the Beta Sigs are throwing a Hobo conclave tonite, and the Chi O's are sponsoring a Pirate party tomorrow nite.

The fraternities have been having horseplay. The barbers are kicking because the pledges seem to be cutting their own hair. Dr. "Mac," of the Southwestern Pharmacy, says last week was a record breaker for perfume sales.

Laura Gates confided to me that she hasn't a crush on Big "Mac." She says she is not as dumb as she looks.

Don't take any of "Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets."

Face to Face With Bare Facts

The student body should take up the plan proposed by the Thirteen Club to ostracize East End as a gathering place for Southwesterners. There was once a time when Saturday night was devoted entirely to patronage of local students. But that time has passed, and the orderly crowds of past years have been supplanted by riff-raff who have no idea of the rudiments of decency and gentlemanly decorum. The cutting scrape last Saturday night was just the stimulus needed to rouse campus students to let the hoodlums have the stage to themselves. It is unsafe to take a date to the gardens the way the course of events has changed. The Thirteen Club, in our estimation, is sponsoring a highly commendable movement, and we hope them success.

* * *

All four sororities were above the highest fraternity average in the term compilation of scholastic standing recently given out by the office. The members of the leading organization had a median more than twice as large as the last two groups. This speaks well for one and badly for the others. It would be brazen folly to insinuate that there might be some connection between the four sororities heading the entire list and the prevalent stir on other college campuses that professors are victims of co-ed enticements.

* * *

The eighth deadly sin has been discovered by women undergraduates of St. Hildas College. It is "innocence." During past generations "innocence" was a virtue. But the world moves on, and women continue to change the nature of things. We do not agree with the co-eds about it being a "sin," but had rather call it a "rarity."

Cuts For Teachers

With all the student cries for unlimited cuts, what of the professor? Why not let him cut, too, when the class fails to show interest? The Ohio State Lantern raised the issue of unlimited student cuts at Ohio State University, and was rewarded by a letter from an instructor presenting the teachers' side. His proposal follows:

"I have read your powerful piece urging students to walk out of class when the professorial disquisitions are not sufficiently entertaining.

"Bravo! I offer herewith my unreserved and unequivocal indorsement of your argument. Under the following conditions:

"That the instructor be allowed to desert the classroom when the class fails to exhibit the proper interest in the profundities under consideration.

"That the instructor be permitted to send home to his papa any student who doesn't show the proper interest in the classroom entertainment.

"That the instructor be furnished with a rope (to do the Indian rope trick), a bunch of firecrackers, a pool table, and some pocket knives (for whittling), to help in the business of entertainment. . . "

CO-EDS SHUN DATES

DELAWARE, OHIO. — (IP) — Whether or not there should be dating at Ohio Wesleyan athletic contests is now a matter of moment on this campus.

It is an age-old custom here that no dating is done at games. An article in the Transcript stirred up much sentiment on both sides of the question, and the battle rages, with women mostly in favor of no dates, and the men in favor of them.

PROWLER IS INSANE

EUGENE, ORE.—(IP)—For a month a mysterious prowler has spread terror on the University of Oregon campus. Then Walter Butler, a senior, confessed that he had been entering the various sorority houses on the campus during the month. He was given a mental examination, and then sent to the state insane asylum.

LOTS OF OLD MAIDS

MADISON, WIS.—More than 48 per cent of the women graduating from the University of Wisconsin during the past 20 years have joined the ranks of old maids. Ohio State and Illinois come next with 46 per cent of their co-eds refusing to pronounce the fatal word. In Arkansas and Massachusetts, however, the figures are reversed as most of their women wed.

FRAT MEN MUST PAY

SALEM, ORE.—(IP)—All Willamette college fraternity men who owe money to their houses and have not made arrangements for the payment of the same before the end of the semester, have been barred from taking the mid-year examinations at the college. This was decided by the faculty following a plea made by the fraternities to the college officials.

LUTHER IS IGNITED

BELTON, TEXAS — (IP) — A $150,000 fire in Luther Hall, largest and oldest dormitory at Baylor college for women, drove 250 girl students into the freezing outdoors with nothing much on but pajamas or customary night wear.

One student, Dorothy Williams, of Dallas, was injured when she leaped into a firemen's blanket, from a third-story window.

None of the girls saved any of their effects. They will be housed in other buildings of the school.

FOUR PROFS ON T. P. A. PROGRAM

Southwestern Teachers Address Visitors

At the recent meeting of the Tennessee Philological Association four papers were presented by members of Southwestern's faculty. Prof. Martin W. Storn's paper on "Language Instruction" was provocative of fuller and more heated discussion than any other paper of the entire programme. Prof. Storn convincingly answered the hostile criticisms advanced, and his unspoken courtesy in the face of acrimonious attack won for him the respect and admiration of every scholar.

"Shakespeare and the Wide Wide World," a paper by Prof. C. L. Townsend, carried the listeners on mental journeys from Tennessee to the Transvaal and back again in search of parallels in real life to the imaginative fictions of the poet.

Prof. R. F. Thomason gave a lucid summing up of the controversy as to the authorship of "The Priapea," inclining to attribute the discredit for these disreputable verses to Ovid rather than adopt the traditional ascription of them to Virgil.

"Contemporary American Realism," the paper presented by Prof. A. T. Johnson, was adjudged by practically all who had the pleasure of hearing it, the palm as being the paper par excellence of the entire meeting. The wit and wisdom of its contents, the sanity of its judgments, the catholicity of appreciation which can do full justice to such writers as Dreiser and Anderson without attaching extravagant value to their achievements and without failing to note ephemeral elements in their work, those merits of Prof. Johnson's paper it would be difficult to overpraise.

Southwestern students will perhaps be interested in the success gained by Miss Elizabeth Clinton, a sister of Eleanor Clinton. Miss Clinton's delightful little study in the humors of surnames under the title, "What's In a Name," drew laughter and delighted applause from every hearer.

Fascinating Yeggs Face Ignominy But Challenge Fratmen

Atlanta Burg.

Deer Sirs—

I seen in one a your papers where youse guys at Southwestern was gettin' up a basketball leeg of fraternities, whatever one of dem things are. We ain't got no fraternities here altho there's some I. W. W. bozos and several Greeks that strayed to far from home. Well, we done got up a basketball leeg an I thunk mebbe you mite give us some adwice on how it should be run. De warden sed he would fix us up a court and get a ball. We figured on four teems, the Bootlegger, de Forgers an Embez-well, ordinary swipes, de Lifers and de Holdups. Dey was all willin to play an de first game is nex' week. I play wid de Holdups and me room-mate, Nick de Greek, plays wid de Lifers. He got soused up once on dis wildcat corn and knocked off his old lady wid de family ax, but he ain't a bad guy at that.

De court was all built but is under repairs rite now. You see we was achin about not havin' a ball, and Ole Hanson, a big dumb Swede wot lives down de corridor, sits up all night filin' his ball off de chain. He tries a shot next mornin' and knocks a hole in de backboard. De warden rushes out, thinking he was breakin' loose, an' bends a blackjack over his dome. De warden says we break down anodder backboard an' there aint gonna be no leeg. So we gotta wait on de repairs.

Well, to make things worse, I tells Nick dat he ought to make a good guard and he socks me in de eye before I saw me break. I tells him I ment a basketball guard and not one of these guys that walk de wall here wid a gatlin' gun under one arm. He says he wuz sorry but dat ain't help me glim none.

In de first games we play de Holdups and de Lifers and den take on de Thieves. Dat will be next week an' they'll be some hot games. De warden has been explainin' de rules to us and says if he heers any beefin' or sees any dirty play, he'll comb de guys hair wid a gat butt, so de officials are bound to be strict. De rules book sez if you make fore fouls it means your outa de game, but in his league, from wat de warden sez, one foul and your out fer the nite.

I'll rite an let you know how de games come out.

Yours respectably,
SLIM JAKE.

P. S.—Tell any of the guys around your joint if they get caught up wit, we would like to have 'em here. That goes for dose guys Hughes an' Waring specially.—Jake.

INQUISITIVE

The inquiring reporter will ask five students or faculty members each week, picked at random, their opinions on important questions of campus talk.

Question—How do you like the new size of the paper?

* * *

Doc Parnell—I can remember when the Sou'wester was a six page edition. I hate to see the paper take a downward step.

Margaret Mason—Well, I guess it can't be helped. I'd rather see it the way it's been, tho.

James Luster—Well, the paper has less room for scandal now. Really, I hadn t noticed it.

Addie Louise Murray—Now Foote can't write so much trash. Honestly, I hope they change it back again.

Frank Thomason—Don't make no difference to me. Pea Ridge hasn't got a paper.

Dean Orders Paper Thrown Over Floor

CLEVELAND, Ohio.—The dean has issued an edict that students refrain from the practice of throwing waste paper in the waste baskets, and that instead they should discard all rubbish on the floors of the various rooms.

He states as his reason that paper scattered promiscuously over the floor gives the college a businesslike air and that cleanliness and orderliness do not. As a result,, the students have taken to the order in a way that dean's edicts are seldom obeyed. The janitors are enjoying it even more than the students.

O. D. K. Delegates

They will represent their unit at the national conclave there on Friday and Saturday.

DEAN, RHODES IN CHESS FINALS

Students Eliminated By Faculty Strategists

Robb Hall social room for the past two weeks has been the haven of all the good and bad chess players in college. The tournament to pick the champion chess player in Southwestern was started at the suggestion of the Memphis Chess Club.

As the tournament now stands, two professors are in the finals: Dean R. W. Hartley and Prof. P. N. Rhodes.

Dean Hartley was the "dark horse" of the tournament. He entered late and easily went thru to the finals. The odds are even. Dean Hartley dropped one game to Will Holloman, king of the Southwestern chess club, and Prof. Rhodes dropped one game to Fred Underwood.

Dad Causes Plebe To Turn Cage Pro

ANNAPOLIS, Md.—Every point that Plebe Hudson McGuire makes in a basketball game costs his dad, Clarence McGuire of Leavenworth, Kan., exactly 50 cents.

When McGuire left home last summer for the naval academy his dad promised him that amount for every point he made. Of course he had to make the team to earn any.

McGuire had no trouble making the team, and earned $12 in his first game, $10 in his second and $5 in his third.

FULLER PROMISES LOVING CUP TO WINNING FRATERNITY TEAM

Three Teams Have Advanced to Second Round of Play—Tourney Ends Within Next Week

The Southwestern Athletic Association will donate a cup to the winner of the interfraternity basketball tournament now being run off. Don Fuller, athletic manager, has promised the award to the winning quintet.

At present the race is hot. Three teams have advanced to the second round of play. The most important and exciting game of the series so far was played last Saturday when the Pi K. A.'s defeated the A. T. O.'s 14 to 10 to win another leg toward the finals. The Pi. K. A.'s presented a defense that the A. T. O.'s were unable to penetrate.

In other games, the S. A. E.'s defeated the Kappa Alphas 23 to 8 in the first round. Another victory will put them in the semi-finals. The Kappa Sigmas defeated the Beta Sigmas in a pair of first round games and will meet the winners of the S. A. E.-Kappa Alpha series to fight for a place in the finals.

The Pi. K. A.'s defeated the Tau Delta Gammas in the opening round, while the A. T. O.'s trimmed the Beta Lambdas.

The tournament is expected to wind up next week with a best two out of three game series between the two finalists.

Crippled Lynx '5' Loses To 'Y', 36-22

Locals Miss Services of Hughes, Liddon

Playing without the services of two of their best performers, Flint Liddon and Capt. Billy Hughes, the Southwestern Lynx lost a hard fought game to the "Y" Triangles Tuesday night in the latter's cage, 36 to 22. The Triangles won their second game of the season from the Lynx.

The 'Y' showed superiority from the first whistle, and had a lead of 8 to 1 to start the game off. But soon after the second half began, the Lynx gave the Triangles more competition.

With the lineup changed considerably, the Lynx had a tough time in keeping very even with the Triangles.

Altho they were outplayed a good bit of the game, Southwestern showed up well, after losing two games to the Millsaps Majors in Mississippi last week.

Chauncey Barbour, one tosser who never fails to score his share of markers, scored the largest part of the points for the losers, getting nine, and Chi Waring came thru with five.

At the half, the makeshift lineup of the Lynx was on the short end of a 15 to 6 score.

Lineup and summary:

Triangles, 36	Pos.	Lynx, 22
Belding, 8	F.	Diehl
Boone, 3	F.	Barbour, 9
Scrivner, 20	C.	Waring, 5

Inclement Weather Delays Track Work

Fuller Taciturn About Meet Schedule

Track aspirants at Southwestern are being held up on account of the inclement weather of the past month which has delayed work on the new cinder track. Athletic officials announce that the track will be changed on the west side of Fargason field, as it is too close at present to the grid. It will be moved at least eight feet farther west.

Don Fuller, athletic chairman, intimates that negotiations are now in progress with other colleges for track meets this spring, but will not state which schools. The track schedule will be announced later.

The athletic committee has not decided what events the runners will be allowed to participate in. The dashes, hurdles, middle and long distance runs, will be entered. Whether or not the javelin, discus, and hammer throwing events will be entered is problematical, depending largely on the candidates in these lines.

Ole Miss Freshmen Win Three of Four

The Southwestern Bobcats split even in a pair of basketball games with Ole Miss freshmen here last Friday and Saturday nights, giving the Mississippians the series with three victories in four starts.

The Bobcats carried off the opening game 28 to 26 by staging a desperate rally in the final half to overcome a 19 to 8 lead. Darden, Lynx forward, tallied 17 points to lead the victors in scoring.

Ole Miss won the final game 29 to 28, nosing out the Bobcats in the last few minutes of play.

Millsaps Majors Reap Revenge In Sweep Of Series

Lynx Defeated In Both Return Engagements At Jackson

"Everything comes to him who waits," quoth a scribe some years ago, and so revenge came for the Millsaps Majors basketball team of Jackson, Miss., last Friday and Saturday. The Lynx opened their S. I. A. A. schedule with the Majors here and won two games. The Mississippi crew enticed the Lynx into Jackson last week and captured two games in return.

The Lynx machine has collapsed since its Louisiana trip and has only been hitting on one cylinder since The Majors romped over Coach McCabe's crew Friday 46 to 24, ringing up 19 field goals and 8 free throws. Jones, Major center, led the scoring with 15 points.

The second tilt was closer and harder fought, but the home team won out 33 to 25. Strait, Millsaps guard, led the scoring this time with 9 points, closely followed by Charley Diehl, of the Lynx, with 8.

FLINT LIDDON POISON VICTIM

Infected Elbow Injury Not Thought Serious

Flint Liddon, guard, and one of the mainstays of the Lynx varsity, is in the Baptist Hospital as the result of blood poisoning, which developed from an injured elbow.

The injury was sustained during a basketball game some time ago. Liddon was ill at his home a week before he was removed to the hospital. Altho it will necessitate his being out of the Lynx lineup for some time, Liddon's illness is not regarded as serious.
