2 NEW PROFS ARE ANNOUNCED

LYNX CINDER MEN TO ENTER S. I. A. A. MEET

Leave Tuesday for S. C., Driving Through

TAKE FIVE MEN

Team In Good Shape; Expected To Win

W. C. Rasberry is giving his track men a hard grueling this week in order to determine the men he will take to Clinton, S. C., May 10, to participate in the annual S. I. A. A. track meet. Four or five men will probably make the trip and will be selected from the following men, Ford, McMillan, Wright, Huffman, Bynum, Lloyd and King.

Rasberry expects any one man to score more points this year than the entire Southwestern team did last year. Ford is making well over 12 feet in the pole vault, a height he had not attained last year. Johnson of Mississippi College and Wright of Southwestern will put on the spectacular race of the day when the two mile is run. Both are the high point distance men in the S. I. A. A. Wright has defeated Johnson twice and Johnson has won over Wright once. Wright, however, was not up to his usual form on that day.

Bailey, a grey-headed man with a family, has won the little gold medal for the last three years in the half mile run. McMillan is expected to send him home to his family this year without the medal. Lloyd is improving rapidly in the quarter and relay work. Bynum is greatly improved in the javelin throw and running, and Huffman has chopped off a minute. King, a capable hurdler, has met with bad luck this season, but is expected to do some good work.

The events the men will probably enter are:

Ford—High and broad jump, pole vault, relay.

Wright—Two mile and probably the mile.

McMillan—Mile, half mile and relay.

Bynum—Mile, two mile and relay.

Huffman—Two mile.

Lloyd—220 and 440 yard dash, relay.

King—Low hurdles, high hurdles, relay.

The team will leave Tuesday afternoon, May 6, touring in a Graham-Paige sedan. They will stop off on the way for workouts.

Gibbons Offered Trip To Europe

The May issue of College Humor carries a picture of boys who worked for the International Magazine Company last summer taken with Mayor James Walker of New York. Malcolm Gibbons' shining face can be seen in the right-hand side of the picture. Malcolm won the prize trip to New York besides two years' scholarship to Southwestern for the fine work he has done for the past two summers selling magazines. The picture was taken during the convention of the International Magazine Company Collegiate Convention. Sweaters bearing the initials I.M.C. were awarded all the men by Mayor Walker.

Gibbons will lead a tribe of 20 men forth this summer selling magazines through the territory of Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma. A special prize of a trip to Europe has been offered Gibbons if he makes good this summer.

Pres. Diehl Speaks

President Charles E. Diehl will deliver the baccalaureate address to the graduates of the Louisville Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., Sunday. He will attend a meeting of the Board of Directors of that institution on Monday and Tuesday.

'LITTLE NELL' SENIOR GIFT

Class Leaves Bulletin As Memorial of 1930

Morris Ford, president of the senior class, stated Wednesday that the senior class is this year leaving to the school the new bulletin board which has already been nearly completed. The doors have not been put on the board as yet and other additions yet to be made before the structure will be complete. These improvements will be completed before the end of the school term at a total cost for the whole board of four hundred dollars.

FRESHMEN LOSE IN TRACK MEET

Messick Hi Boys Win by Five Points

Southwestern's Bobcat track team suffered defeat in its first engagement of the season last Friday afternoon when it was beaten by the Messick High School squad. The score was 53 to 48.

Pounders of Messick was high point man of the meet, making a total of 20 points for the afternoon. He won first place in the high jump, shot put, javelin throw, and pole vault. Herbert Newton, Southwestern, was second high point man with a total of 14 points to his credit.

Newton did some nice running in the 440 and 220 yard dashes winning first place in both of these events. Harold High, the miniature speed king of the Bobcats, won first place in the 100-yard dash and first in the half mile race. Riley McGaughran showed the way to the Messick High boys in the distance runs by winning first place in both the mile and two mile runs. He finished the difficult two mile run in the surprisingly low time of ten minutes and 45 seconds, a record for the Southwestern track. McGaughran promises to be a stellar distance man for the varsity next year.

The Messick team is one of the strongest teams in this section of the country and there is some excuse for the defeat of the Bobcats.

No more meets are on the boards for the Bobcats unless more interest is shown, in which case some more meets will be arranged for the team.

Choose Bible Class Officers

Elections for the leaders of the Southwestern Bible class for the following year were held Sunday morning. Charlie Diehl was elected president of the class, Malcolm McMillan, vice-president, and Norman Gibbs, secretary and treasurer. All of the officers were elected by acclamation. Jimmie Spencer, the retiring president of the class, made a short talk reviewing the history of the organization since its beginning.

Plans are getting under way to hold the annual gridiron banquet some time in this month.

Debaters Win From Ole Miss

Southwestern's strong debating team was again successful last Friday night when they took a unanimous decision over Ole Miss debating team. Southwestern was ably represented by Abe Fortas and George Whitaker, while Ole Miss was represented by M. V. Jones and John Armstrong.

Southwestern upheld the negative of the question, "Resolved, That Nations Should Adopt a Policy of Complete Disarmament, Excepting Such Forces as Are Necessary for Police Purposes," and, according to the judges, there was no hesitation in giving the negative the decision. Robert Hall, Edward Burton, and Mr. Poole were the judges.

LAW PRESIDENT WILL SPEAK AT COMMENCEM'NT

Mr. Sims To Receive Honorary Degree

HONOR EIGHT MEN

Give Honorary Degrees to Prominent Men

As graduation time, June 3, draws closer plans are being completed for the extensive series of exercises to be held at that time. Announcement is made this week of the commencement speaker and the names of the men to receive honorary degrees.

Mr. Henry Upson Sims, of the law firm of Sims, Deedmeyer and Harrison, Birmingham, Ala., will deliver the commencement address. Mr. Sims is the president of the American Bar Association for 1929-1930. He is a graduate of the University of Virginia; he received his degree of Bachelor of Law from Harvard, and the degree of Doctor of Laws (honorary) from the University of Alabama. He will also have an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws conferred on him at commencement time by Southwestern. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, and the author of several legal articles and books.

Dr. Benjamin Rice Lacy will deliver the annual sermon before the Southwestern Christian Union at Idlewild Presbyterian Church on Sunday, June 1. Dr. Lacy is president of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va.

President Charles E. Diehl will give the baccalaureate address on Sunday, June 1, at Second Presbyterian Church.

A second degree of Doctor of Laws will be granted at commencement time also. It will go to Mr. Charles Newell Burch, member of the law firm of Burch, Minor and McKay of Memphis, and general solicitor since 1928 for the southern lines of the Illinois Central Railroad. Mr. Burch is a member of the American Bar Association and other legal organizations. He graduated from Vanderbilt University and received the LL.B. degree from the Vanderbilt Law School.

Miss Sue McFall Powers, superintendent of the Shelby County schools for the past eight years, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Literature. Miss Powers was the vice president of the National Educational Association in 1927, and was appointed by former Gov. Austin Peay to be a member of the Tennessee Board of Education in 1925. She holds the degree of Bachelor of Sciences from Peabody College, and credits for work done at the University of Tennessee, University of Virginia and the University of Chicago.

Five degrees of Doctor of Divinity will be conferred on June 3. The Rev. U. S. Gordon, graduate of Southwestern in the class of 1915 and member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity, will receive this degree. Mr. Gordon was president of the Southwestern Alumni Association in 1926, 1927 and 1928. He is now pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Gainesville, Fla. He is a former pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Starkville.

Believe It Or Not

Jack Chambliss, Jimmy Hamilton and Charlie Diehl, three members of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity, were born on the same day of the same month of the same year—October 21, 1910.

Pure certified milk contains 5000 bacteria per cubic centimeter, harmless, however.

"City" Thomason is going to quit growing cotton and raise digitalis, aspirin tablet bushes and various medicinal herbs and plants.

"BATTER UP!" PLAY BASEBALL

Cooper Is Umpire In Unique Ball Game

"Strike three, batter out," resounds the voice of Prof. Raymond Cooper through the drowsy corridors and another young freshman sits down amid the jeers of the rival team.

The above incident is a daily occurrence among the freshman historians, for the wily Cooper, employing more psychology than history, has divided his class in History 2A into five "baseball teams" with captains and everything. Cooper is umpire and the captains are Le-Prince, Gammage, Chappell, Creech, and Overholser. Daily quizzes are given and any freshman scoring 90 or above tallies a run for the home team.

Great rivalry has ensued and the frosh are literally burning the midnight oil to make a run for "our team."

KENTUCKIAN IS NEW DIETICIAN

Mr. Harrison Accepts Virginia Position

Mrs. Porter J. Dailey of Lexington, Ky., will occupy the position as manager of the dining hall for the 1930-1931 school session. Announcement of her acceptance was made this week. She will succeed Mr. Woodson Harrison who has held the position for the past five years.

Mrs. Dailey comes from one of Kentucky's most cultured and prominent families. She is now doing work similar to her work here next year at the University of Michigan where she is connected with the University of Michigan League. She will take up the duties of her new office July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison and two sons, Woodson and William, will move to Woodberry Forest, Va., where Mr. Harrison will be the dietician for Woodberry Forest School, an exclusive preparatory school for boys. The best wishes of the student body and faculty go with them to their new home.

Whitaker Speaks Today At Vandy

George Whitaker will deliver an oration today at Vanderbilt University as a representative of the Western division of Tennessee in the annual state oratorical contest. Whitaker's subject for his oration is "Industry, Civilization and Religion." The winner will be pronounced the best college orator in the state and will receive a prize of one hundred dollars as an additional reward.

Whitaker won the recent contest for the western part of the state which made him the only contender from this region in the state contest.

Junior Girl Wins In Archery Match

Blanche Sansing, junior at Southwestern, entered the archery meet which was held on April 27 at the archery range in Overton Park, and came out with the novice high net score. The prize was a handsome set of arrows.

Girls To Select Champ Racqueter

The girl's tennis tourney will be run off during the week of May 12. All girls who wish to enter must sign up in the office before May 9.

When the champions of each class both in singles and doubles have been picked, these will play a series of final matches in order to decide the school championship.

The winners will receive Southwestern tennis emblems.

SCOTT, DAVIS PLAN WORK ON PH.D. DEGREES

Will Study at Columbia University In Fall

SECURE NEW MEN

Griffin and Wisewell to Have Positions

Resignations of two members of the faculty of Southwestern will take effect at the close of the present academic session on June 3. The positions held by these men have been filled and announcement is made this week.

Mr. H. B. Davis, professor of economics, is taking a recess from teaching for a period in order to complete and publish a book for which he was being securing material as an Amherst fellow for the last three years. Prof. Davis will also complete work on his doctorate at Columbia University.

Mr. R. W. Scott, professor of French, is planning also to complete work on his doctorate at Columbia University. He will probably do some teaching also.

Mr. Carlus Howard Griffin, a native of Valdosta, Ga., will occupy the position on the faculty next fall as associate professor of economics succeeding Mr. Davis. Prof. Griffin is a graduate of Washington and Lee University and holds his Master of Arts degree from Columbia University. He has done work on his doctorate for the past several years. He now holds a position as associate professor of economics at Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont, one of the schools of highest scholastic standing in the East.

Dr. George Ellis Wisewell, a native of New York City, will succeed Mr. Scott, as professor of French. Dr. Wisewell is a graduate of Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., where he is now teaching. He studied three years at Johns-Hopkins University from which he received the degree of Master of Arts. He secured his degree of doctor of philosophy from the University of Wisconsin. Dr. Wisewell has taught at Union College, Schenectady, Beloit, the University of Wisconsin, Yale and Hamilton.

A third change in the 1930-31 faculty was announced several weeks ago, when it became known that Dr. Samuel H. Monk would study abroad for the next 15 months as an American Council of Learned Societies Fellow, and that Prof. Robert Warren, now a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford, would occupy the position now held by Dr. Monk as associate professor of English.

Chi Omegas Plan For May Festival

The Memphis alumnae of Chi Omega, assisted by Kappa Beta chapter are busy planning for the seventh annual May festival to be given Saturday, May 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Nickey. This festival is one of the most charming events given for children in Memphis, and will include in the pageantry and dances over two hundred children from the public and private schools of the city.

There will be a pageant, "The Holidays Pay Homage to the Queen of the May." Then there will be an old-time May Day celebration, a May Pole dance, and the coronation of the king and queen of the May. Following this group games will be played with prizes for the winners.

Mrs. Charles M. Scates, president of the Memphis Alumnae Chapter is general chairman of the festival. The proceeds will go to the Chi Omega room at the Methodist Hospital and other social service work of the sorority. Mrs. Kirk Bowman, 234 North Evergreen Street, is in charge of ticket sales.

LESSON IN CITIZENSHIP

Southwestern offers a good lesson at election time in citizenship to students. Opportunities to exercise one's right to judge candidates and decide for himself which is the one to vote for are open to everyone. The right to vote accorded the educated individual is one that should be exercised. If the right of vote was not given to students they would raise a big howl and cry that their rights were being stepped upon, and that there was no justice. Men elected by student votes must carry on student business, and students should exercise their right to vote in choosing these men, because if one doesn't cast his vote, the man he wants in office may not get it and there will be general dissatisfaction.

In the election for Publications Board president Wednesday there was a total of 342 votes cast as announced by the election commission, appointed by President Bobby Lloyd. There are approximately 440 or more students actually in attendance at Southwestern. That leaves the surprisingly large number of 100 students who are not good citizens, who did not exercise their right and duty to vote. They willingly forfeited their privilege of having a voice in the government and allowed the rest of the student body to decide for them. The languid, I-don't-care policy of some students when it comes to college elections foretells what sort of citizens they will be and are.

In the coming elections on Tuesday when the president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer of the student body, by far the most important elections of the year, will be chosen, everyone is urged to vote. The voice of 100 students speaking can sway any count any way. So vote and use your right.

SCORNING POLITICAL PULL

(Indiana Student)

Selection of persons for campus honors by merit rather than by "political pull" is a practice meeting with increased favor in the larger universities of the country. Campus politics no longer controls the major positions in campus activity. Universities the country over are turning to the merit system of picking student leaders.

The University of Michigan is the latest institution to promote the merit system on its campus. An adoption of a merit system for the selection of the two highest student officers of the Michigan Union has been approved in principle by the Student Council of the Wolverine school. The merit system, according to tentative plans, would provide for the selection each spring of the president and recording secretary by a special committee consisting of four alumni or faculty members and three students, the latter to be elected at the annual campus vote in the spring.

Indiana recently adopted such a merit system for the selecting of class dance committees. Both students and faculty members acted on the selection board for choosing the Junior Prom committee. The Arbutus executive positions also are determined in such a manner.

In promoting this system Indiana University is in step with the leading institutions of higher learning in the country. The system should be carried on further on the Indiana campus in picking responsible men for the responsible offices in other student affairs.

GRIDIRON BANQUET?

The annual gridiron banquet given each year by the Southwestern Christian Union has not been heard of yet this year. Orators and joke-swappers on the campus are restlessly awaiting the announcement of the gridiron to be given for all the men. Southwestern Christian Union gridiron banquet is an established tradition; it should not be allowed to die out. When is it going to be?

Again, we hear that old cry constantly coming to one's ears, "No news in the Sou'wester. There's nothing worth reading in the paper this week." No wonder! How can there be news with the student body, the majority of it leaving the campus immediately after classes are over, caring little what goes on or happens, and with what's left and some of what's gone, deteriorating into a lounging, do-less, candy-eating, joke-swapping, feet-shuffling, victrola-playing crowd of aimless individuals? Is everyone afraid of his own shadow or is he too lazy to do something of interest? It's really a slam at one's own intelligence when the paper comes out having a bunch of jokes bordering on the rare and near-dirt to say that that paper having those jokes in it was "one of the best published this year."

Elect Officers

Officers for the ensuing college year were elected Monday night by Beta Sigma fraternity. The new president is Harold Ohlendorf of Osceola, Ark. Malcolm Gibbons is vice-president; Louis Bornman, secretary; Thompson Holloway, treasurer, and Malcolm Richie, Panhellenic representative.

"Ah, those were the days."

Champ Watson Is Still Going Good

The semi-finals have been reached in the horseshoe tournament with Champ Garner Watson still in the race and a great favorite to repeat his performances of the past three years by capturing the crown for the fourth consecutive time. Watson is sorely pressed by Karl Nickle who won the championship of the first bracket by defeating Marion Painter in a fierce battle, 21-15, 11-21 and 21-16. Kenneth Eddins and Claude McCormick have defeated all comers and have fought their ways to the semi-finals. The exact date of the championship clash will be announced at chapel next week.

Campus Echoes

By JOHN REA

Once upon a time a bumble bee and a bull lived in the same field, the bee enjoyed the flowers and the bull ate the grass. All went well, until late in the season, the grass was gone and the bull began to eat the flowers which the bee thought were bee food and not bull food. As the autumn advanced and the golden rod and aster blossomed more and more in the fence corners, and as the grass in the field withered, the bull made greater and greater inroads among the flowers belonging to the bumble bee.

The bumble bee resolved at the first opportunity to sting the bull on the nice wet spot right on his nose, and to teach him to let the flowers alone. So, one cool morning when the bee was trying to get a belated breakfast on a stalk of golden rod, the bull came browsing along. The bee realized that his great opportunity had come. The bull came closer and closer to the stalk of golden rod where the bee was sitting shivering in the cool of the morning air. As the bull approached, the bee prepared to take advantage of the opportunity, but the bull's breath was so warm and pleasant as he came nearer that the bee waited a moment to enjoy the relief from the cold. But, alas, he waited a moment too long, for the bull ran out his tongue and took into his mouth the piece of golden rod on which the bee was sitting.

The bee saw at once that his opportunity was gone, but resolved to sting the bull in the jaw and make him think he had a toothache. But it was so nice and pleasant in the bull's mouth and the bee was trying to decide just where to sting the bull, when the bull swallowed, and the bee suddenly found himself in the bull's stomach.

Two opportunities gone! The bee then decided that here was the greatest opportunity of all. He could sting the bull in the stomach and make him think he had appendicitis. He decided to do that and get a fine revenge. Considering the fine opportunity which he now had, the bee waited to take advantage of it, and while he waited it was so nice and comfortable in the bull's stomach that the bee fell asleep, and when he woke up—the bull was gone! Moral?

HELPFUL HINTS TO MOTOR-

1. When you meet a man driving, give him half the road.
2. When you meet a negro driving, give him all the road, because he will probably take his half in the middle.
3. When you meet a woman driving, get out of your car and run, for there's no telling where she might be next or what she might do.

JOHN HENRY WRITES HIS OPINIONS ABOUT CAMPUS MEN

Dr. Diehl Is Great Man; Johnnie Rollow Willing To Do Anything; Nice Bunch of Students Here

John Henry Hatcher, colored friend and faithful standby of Southwestern, has written some of his opinions for this issue of the paper. John Henry has been with Southwestern for thirty-one years, being hired when Dr. G. F. Nicholassen was vice-chancellor. Dr. Nicholassen is now professor of Greek at Oglethorpe University. John Henry worked under three chancellors, Mr. George Summy, Mr. Neander Woods and Mr. William Dinwiddie, and under two presidents, Mr. John Dobyns and Dr. Charles E. Diehl. The article follows:

"I have nothing new to talk about this time. All I know is the same thing, and that is the friendship between Dr. Diehl and myself. We have been friends for a long, long time and always will be as long as we live, when we lay down to rest and meet again in that happy and holy land we shall be friends over there. I want to tell you, Dr. Diehl in my judgment is as noble as men get in this life.

"He has done so many great things that it is hard to mention them all. His greatest work was helping move Southwestern to Memphis, because Southwestern and the faculty members have done so much towards making Memphis a greater city and cultural center.

"We have a nice bunch of young men, in fact the very best the country can give. If some of the members of the old faculty of Southwestern could come back to this life and take a stroll through these beautiful buildings, they would be astonished at the wonderful work done by the men behind Southwestern.

"The faculty is made up of the best of men; they are all so nice to me and everyone. Last but not least, let me say a few words about dear Mr.

John Rollow. The night cannot get too dark nor too late, distance cannot be too far for him to get up out of his bed with a smile and come to anyone's rescue. Mr. Johnnie is loved by everyone, both white and black. He is as brave as a lion, will undertake anything and is always successful. I trust that God will ever bless him. John Henry Hatcher.

you have noticed the serial advertisements appearing in Sou'wester the past two sessions from Union Theological Seminary. Last year they were about the elements in a call to the ministry; this year, about what a preacher should be and know. No further "ads" will appear this session. We thank Sou'wester for inviting us to its pages, and we will be repaid for our outlay of effort and money

OMBERG YEARNS FOR BRINY DEEP, AND REMEMBERS HINDOOS BATHING

By JIMMY HUGHES

Greece had her Ulysses but Southwestern has her Omberg. Arthur will leave Memphis as soon as school is out and enroll in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology for the summer session after which he is to go on an extended cruise in foreign waters. Young Omberg is an experienced radio operator with several months experience at sea and it is in the capacity of wireless operator that he will make the trip. As yet he does not know when or where he will embark but he has sufficient licenses to enable him to get a position on any ship. He will be gone one year and will probably circle the globe, starting from New York and sailing first for China.

Two years ago Omberg circumnavigated the world as radio operator for the 10,000 ton tramp steamer, "Oak Park." His voyage took him through the Pacific, Indian, and Atlantic oceans and strange were the adventures that befell him. Eric the Lucky, Columbus, and Magellan would have to take a back seat when Omberg begins spinning yarns of the salt sea. Although it is rather hard to start him going, he needs no rewinding when once started.

Arthur tells of one time when the waves flung their spray so high that the radio would scarcely work. The sea was running high and the ship was tossing like a cork on the waters when she blew out two boilers disabling the engines. Omberg had to wire for help and a steamer managed to pick up his S.O.S. After a hard fight they limped into port.

Arthur laughs when he tells of seeing over a thousand Hindoos bathe in the Ganges river at one time. He claims they have not yet learned the gospel of Lux, and that Palmolive is an unknown article among them.

He was eye witness to some knock-down-drag-out sea fights, where the gloves were as unnoticeable as a Canary bird's eardrum. None of the tars picked on him, though. He learned how to leer with the best of them and instilled a sort of respect in them that kept them from flying at his throat like a pack of ravenous wolves, if you know what I mean.

Well, Arthur says he can't wait for the day when the last trace of land is swallowed up in the giant maw of the sea and naught but the pulsating billows heaving restlessly under the cloud-flecked sky arrest his wandering gaze. He longs to feel the steady throb of the patient motors deep within the ship's peritoneum and feel the pitching deck beneath his feet. He yearns for the sharp crackle of the wireless set screaming out its message thru the hissing storm. But stay, I'm getting sea sick as I write this so heave ho, my hearties, and drink a swig o' rum to Arthur ere he leaves for the open sea!

LAW PRESIDENT

Miss., and associate pastor of Second Presbyterian Church, Memphis.

The Rev. Frank E. Simmons, pastor of Spencer Memorial Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, N. Y., will also receive the Doctor of Divinity degree. He is a graduate of Yale University; he holds his Bachelor of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary, and his Master of Arts degree from Princeton University.

The Rev. Cecil V. Crabb, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, Clarksdale, Miss., will be honored at commencement time with the D.D. degree. He is a graduate of Centre College, holding his B.A. and M.A. degrees from that school. He received the Bachelor of Divinity degree from Princeton Theological Seminary, and was also awarded a Fellowship in Apologetics which entitled him to a year's study taking post-graduate work in Princeton University. He is the author of two books, "Psychology's Challenge to Christianity," and "Personality Prevails, Or the Human Equation In a Machine Age." The last book is now in use in the psychology department.

The Rev. P. H. Carmichael, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Montevallo, Ala., and professor of Bible and Religious Education at Alabama College, Montevallo, and member of Phi Beta Kappa, will also receive the degree. He is a graduate of the University of Alabama and of Princeton Theological Seminary.

The Rev. Robert Lee Campbell, member of the Board of Directors of Southwestern from 1913 to 1918, and pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Macon, Miss., will be honored. He did his theological work at Southwestern.

Announcement in office: "All office boys going to weddings or funerals must speak to superintendent by 10 o'clock the day of the game."

Kappa Sig Have Bowery Shindig

Phi Chapter of Kappa Sigma will entertain Friday night, May 2nd, with its annual "Bowery Ball," the one this year being the third such affair given by the Kappa Sigs. The party will again be set off by the typical settings of Germania Hall at Third and Jefferson streets. Members of the various fraternities and sororities on the campus and alumni of the chapter have been invited. "Thugish" costumes will be in vogue, and the party is to begin at eight o'clock. The Chickasaw Syncopators will provide the rakish music for the occasion.

Members of the chapter and their dates are: Marion Painter with Katherine Reid, Jack DuBose with Virginia Demuth, Bob Logan with Pauline Barton, Pat Barrett with Grace Rowland Rogers, Perry Bynum with Gertie Mayo, Lawrence Mecklin with Helen Lowrance, Bill Daniel with Dorothy Baldwin, Garland Boyd with Eloise Gaston, Joe Rand with Elizabeth Gale, Joe Wells with Sara Alice Simmons, James Hughes with Helen Pointer, John Hughes with Mary Carolyn Lee, Wade Holaday with Frances Meyer, Joe LePrince with Golden Seats, Franklyn Kimbrough with Marjorie Raymond, George Mitchell with Frances Crawford, James Wilson with Jennie Puryear, Russell Perry with Elizabeth Hagan, Claude McCormick with Dorothy Smith, Herbert Newton with Louise Nowlin, Henry Brown with Lorinne Mitchell, Clough Eaton with Louise Sewell, Bill Taylor with Ann Curlin, Garrett Ratcliff with Lois Johnson, Bowman Hall with Margaret Mason. Kappa Sigma stags will be B. A. Holaday, Sam Murphy, Frank Summerville, George Whitaker and Chauncey Barbour.

Bobcat Nine To Play Miss. Today

The second game between the Bobcat nine and the Mississippi Heights Academy of Blue Mountain boys will be played this afternoon on the Southwestern diamond. The two teams mixed up Thursday in the first game.

The Bobcats with Coach Willis McCabe will go to Oxford to meet the Ole Miss freshman team Monday and Tuesday. The baby Lynx will meet the Mississippi Heights boys in a two game series on Wednesday and Thursday of next week on the Mississippi diamond.

The Bobcats have won three games this season and lost two, one of those being by forfeit to T. M. I.

Elected President

Nate White was elected president of the Publications Board Wednesday for the college year 1930-1931.

Ole Miss Guest At Cinder Meet With Lynx Sat.

Most Important Meet Of Year Starts At 2:30 O'clock

One Miss is the next opponent of the Southwestern track team. The two teams meet on Fargason field Saturday afternoon at 2:30. This will mark the first meeting of Ole Miss and Southwestern on the cinder path.

The University is bringing a strong team and the Lynx will have to do their best if they expect to down the Mississippi boys. They have held several meets with Southern Conference teams and are coming with the intention of giving the local boys a thorough lacing.

All of the members of the team are in excellent condition after another hard week of training under the direction of Coach W. C. Rasberry. Practice sessions for the Southwestern team have been long and hard for the last week and the men realize that a victory over Ole Miss would give them added prestige when they enter the annual S. I. A. A. track meet at Clinton, S. C., on May 10.

The entries for the meet will be the same as those for the Union meet with the exception that Bynum will run the half mile with McMillan instead of Wright.

This will be the biggest track meet of the year for the Lynx on their own track. The present season will end Saturday, May 10, when the team will enter the S. I. A. A. meet that is to be held at Presbyterian College at Clinton, S. C. The members of the team have not been chosen but McMillan, Wright and Ford are almost sure to make the trip.

Y. W. C. A. Elects

The annual election of officers of the Y. W. C. A. was held last Tuesday. The following officers were elected: Margaret Williams, president; Margaret Ashley, vice-president; Lyle Stange, secretary; and Eloise Brett, treasurer.

CO-ED CINDER STARS TO RUN

Track Meet To Be Held On May 10 Here

A co-ed track meet, one of the outstanding athletic events of the season, will be held on May 10, at 2 P. M. Many girls are coming out for track, but from the present looks of things the juniors mean to walk away with the meet.

The events will be: (1) 60 yard dash; (2) race around the track once; (3) race around the track twice; (4) hurdle relay; (5) 4-man relay; (6) basketball throw for distance; (7) baseball throw for distance; (8) high jump.

First place will count 5 points; second place, 3 points, and third place 1 point. Track emblems will be awarded to the girls winning first, second, and third place.

Program at Mazda Unique and Liked By Large Audience

Thursday night was a gala night at the Mazda Grotto Theatre when Southwestern took over the playhouse and presented an elaborate program to the city of Memphis. Music, dramatics and comedy combined their forces to make the affair one that will be long remembered as an excellent cross-section of the artistic enterprises of Southwestern.

The program opened with the singing of "In Gypsy Life" by the Men and Women's Glee Club, and "The Song of the Volga Boatmen" by the Men's Club.

The play, "The Twelve Pound Look" by Barrie, as given by the Southwestern Players, under the direction of Prof. Samuel H. Monk, was a finished dramatic success. William Berson had the part of Sir Harry Simms, Elizabeth Smith, Lady Simms, Thomas Drake, Toombes the butler, and Louise Nowlin, Kate.

After the play, "Going Home" was sung by the Women's Glee Club.

The feature of the evening was Southwestern's first attempt at producing a musical play. "Trial by Jury" by Gilbert and Sullivan, as presented by the Men and Women's Glee Clubs under the direction and supervision of Prof. Eris G. Haden, was a decided success and merited the applause received from the audience. A large proportion of the success of the play is due to Mr. Haden who has been untiring in his efforts to "put the thing across." Helen Pointer had the leading feminine role, that of Angelina, the plaintiff, and Miles Freeman, the masculine lead as the defendant. Robert Sanders was the judge and Roger Wright the counsel. Marion Painter, associate judge, Morris Ford, foreman of the jury, and "Fritz" Heidelberg, as usher, were highly acclaimed for their excellent singing and acting.

The bridesmaids were Virginia Finch, Lucille Work, Edna Dickinson, Frances Crawford, Virginia Richmond, Virginia Hawk, Jane Barker, Katherine Reid, Martha Bancroft, Fay Simpson, Louise Mayo, Margaret Mason, Frances Meyer and Catherine Bigelow.

The jurors were Morris Ford, foreman, John Mosby, William Armstrong, Horace Harwell, Thad Leggett, Roger Breyspraak, Garrett Ratcliff, Albert Ford, Charles Simmons, William Martin, Henry Brown and Oliver Cobb.

The singing of the Southwestern Alma Mater by the mixed chorus and audience concluded the program.

LYNX GOLFERS LOSE MATCHES

Sewanee Team Wins From Lynx Squad

Southwestern golfers went down in defeat in front of the steady fire of the Sewanee golfers last Saturday by the score of 15 to 3. The matches were played over the Galloway Park course.

The Sewanee team won three matches and halved the fourth one. Oliver Cromwell was the high scorer for Southwestern, halving his match with George Edwards. Both played some superior golf, making the course in four under par for a 70 each. Red Williams defeated Herman Lerner 5-4, Hamilton Rice beat Jack Watson 3-1, and Sam Butler won over Sloan Williams 2-1.

Cromwell made two of the Southwestern points by evening Edwards, while Williams and Watson both made a half point.

Trounce Union In Dual Track Meet, 67 To 63

Woods, Union, Is High Point Man, Ford Is Second High Man

Southwestern's track men righted the wrong last Saturday afternoon when they sent the Union University team down in defeat by the close score of 67 to 63.

The big thrill of the afternoon was the relay race. One point behind and everything depending on the outcome of the race the Lynx relay team was determined to win it or die. Perry Bynum, the first runner for Southwestern, went around the track like a house afire, establishing a lead over his opponent that none of the other members of the team ever relinquished. Bobby Lloyd, the last runner for Southwestern, finished a full 100 yards ahead of his rival. There was some fine running and the supporters got a thrill that more than paid them for coming out to see the race.

Woods of Union nearly proved the undoing of the Lynx, without whom the Union team would have been entirely lost. He amassed a total of 27 points, winning first in the high hurdles, 220-yard dash, 100-yard dash, broad jump, 220-yard low hurdles and second in the high jump. Morris Ford was second high point man with 17 points, taking first in the pole vault and high jump, second in the discus and broad jump, and third in the 100-yard dash.

Malcolm McMillan and Roger Wright pulled a brotherly act on the mile and half mile runs by locking arms as they came across the tape, thus tying for first place. Ford did some exhibition vaulting after that match was over, clearing the bar at 12 feet one inch, setting a new record for the Southwestern track that is likely to stand for a long time to come.

A good crowd was in the stands and the members of the team are duly appreciative for the support that the students gave them.

Summary:
120-Yard High Hurdles—Woods, Union, first; Lilly, Lynx, second, and Thompson, Union, third. Time—16 and 8-10 seconds.

One-Mile Relay—Lynx, Bynum, McMillan, Capers and Lloyd vs. Union, Woods, Harris, Thompson and Stewart.

Ministers Meet

The meeting of the Ministers' Club on April 23 was interesting, the speaker being Dr. Ettelson, Rabbi of the Jewish Synagogue on Poplar Ave. Dr. Ettelson is a member of the Egyptian Club of Memphis, which is made up of the most scholarly men of Memphis. His address, "Have We Outgrown Religion," was undoubtedly one of the most interesting and instructive that the club has heard during the entire year.

Dr. Townsend has promised to speak to the Ministers' Club in the near future, to which they are eagerly looking forward.
