O. D. K. FRAT TAKES IN NINE MEN WEDNESDAY

Four Students, One Prof.,
Four Memphians Taken

KEYS GIVEN TO MEN

Service Held at 5 P. M.
In Directors' Room.

Phi Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity, initiated nine new members Wednesday evening in the directors' room in Palmer Hall. Those who were formally admitted into the fraternity are Jeff Davis, James Hamilton, James Hughes, Paul Jones and Prof. John H. Davis. Frank Fisher, Brinkley Snowden, T. K. Riddick and W. Neely Mallory, Memphis business men, were initiated at the same time. They were pledged in the tap service of the fraternity last year for definite service rendered the college and had never been given the degree. They were awarded their keys Wednesday with the other men that were initiated.

Jeff Davis has held many honors since he entered Southwestern. He has been president of the Honor Council, captain of the football team, and is foremost among campus leaders. He is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Hamilton is president of the Honor Council, treasurer of the Panhellenic Council and a leader in the Junior class. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega also.

Hughes was editor-in-chief of the Sou'wester, is president of the Press Club, and chairman of the Nitist Club. He is a member of the Kappa Sigma fraternity.

Paul Jones is president of the Southwestern Christian Union, has charge of the dining hall, and is editor-in-chief of the "Lucky Lynx," Southwestern's year book. He is a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

Prof. John H. Davis has shown much interest in student affairs, is an active member of the Nitist Club, philosophical group, and has taught fencing.

Membership in O. D. K. is considered one of the highest honors on the Southwestern campus. By law of the fraternity only three per cent of the men students in any college may be pledged each semester. Selections are based on constructive leadership as demonstrated in campus life.

It is interesting to note that three of the four students selected are members of the junior class. Jeff is the sole representative of the senior class.

Omicron Delta Kappa will "tap" four more students into membership at a special chapel ceremony later on this semester.

Philosophers Will Argue on Freudism

J. B. Brazil will read a paper on "Freudism" before the Nitist Club Tuesday night in the Bell Room.

Following the reading of the paper the campus philosophers will sip hot coffee and then engage in a word battle that is expected to last far into the night.

All students on the campus interested in philosophical discussions of an informal nature are invited to attend.

Young alumni and former members of the club have been asked to be present.

Vesper Services

The Christian Union will sponsor vesper services to be held in the Hardie Auditorium Sunday afternoon, February 22, at 5 p. m. Dr. Curry, president of the Theological Seminary at Austin, Texas, will talk.

Friday, the Thirteenth!

It is a generally accepted opinion of all those who pretend to know that Friday the thirteenth is a day of misfortune and any sort of endeavor on that specific day is bound to end in tragedy.

If these assumptions are true two classes at Southwestern are bound to end in the grimdest sort of tragedy today. The winds of Fate bear no goodwill for the Greek 54 class with Dr. R. P. Strickler as professor, and the Calculus class under Dr. Alfred Hume. Both of these classes meet today, Friday, 13th. In addition, both classes have 13 members. The end of the class comes at the 13th hour of the day.

Furthermore, the Greek class is studying the tragedies of some of the more famous Greek authors.

Kappa Delt Pledges Sling Annual Party

Billy Brinkley's "Royal Collegians" Furnish Music.

The pledges of the Kappa Delta sorority entertained the active chapter last night in the Kappa Sig house with a Valentine party from 8 till 11 o'clock. Bill Brinkley and his Royal Collegians furnished the music and a sandwich course was served at intermission.

McKinnon Elected Pres. Kappa Sigs

Joe McKinnon was elected president of Phi Chapter of Kappa Sigma fraternity Monday night. Mac pledged Kappa Sig here, but changed to Tulane last year. Herbert Newton was elected G. P.; Jimmy Hughes, G. M. C.; Russell Perry, G. T.; Don MacQueen, Scribe, and Clough Eaton and Frank Summerville, Guards. Johnny Hughes was chosen as Panhellenic representative.

Stylus Discusses Feminine Writers

A program on "Women Poets of Literature" was given last night at the meeting of the Stylus Club of Sigma Upsilon. The discussion of feminine bards followed the regular club dinner.

Allen Cabaniss was in charge of the program.

Cabaniss presented a survey of the works of the Greek poetess Sappho. Marion Painter discussed Christiana Rossetti and Maury Hull read some of the works of Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Johnny Hughes reviewed the poetry of Emily Dickinson.

GREEK GROUPS INITIATE SOON

Pledges Look Forward to Wearing New Pins.

Fraternities and sororities are busy this week in initiating and preparing for initiation of their pledges into the "lodge." Two fraternities have already given the final degrees of initiation.

Kappa Sigma fraternity gave the final degree of initiation to five of their neophytes Monday in their lodge on the campus. The new Kappa Sigs are Don MacQueen, Harte Thomas, Mike Farrin, Cy Johnson and Robert Jack.

Beta Sigma gave the final degree to pledges, Clark Porteos, Sydney Johnson and Jack Renshaw, in the tower room of Palmer Hall. Others will be initiated later on in the year.

Pi Kappa will hold their initiation in Palmer Hall Monday night.

Several of the fraternities and sororities have postponed their initiation from this week until next week or later. Pi Kappa Alpha will hold their initiation in the tower room of Palmer Hall next Monday night.

The A. T. O.'s have not completed all of their plans but will hold initiation service on the night of February 23.

Theta Nu Epsilon fraternity will give the first degree to their pledges on Tuesday night, February 17, and the final degree the following Thursday night.

The members of Sigma Alpha Epsilon have changed their date of initiation from the regular time on the first part of this week to March 7.

Alpha Omicron Pi will hold their initiatory service Tuesday, February 17. The following pledges will become members of the sorority: Mary Laughlin, Ella Kate Maline, Kathryn Harris, Katherine Floyd, Ione Adams, Winona Bates, Nancy Clinton, Anita Wadlington, Charline Tucker and Mary Selden Helm.

The K. D.'s will hold their first part of initiation during latter part of this week or the first part of next, with the remaining part of the service being held in two weeks.

The Zetas are undecided as to their date of initiation, but it will be some time soon.

Ministers Review "Green Pastures"

The regular weekly meeting of the Ministers' Club was opened on Wednesday with the devotional led by Roger Wright. This week's meeting marked quite a change in the type of program from those which have been held previously. Allan Cabaniss reviewed "Green Pastures," by Roark Bradford. Then followed an open discussion of the book by the members of the club. The Ministers' Club has heretofore never done anything in the way of reviewing books, either secular or religious, but from now on the program committee intends to have reviews presented by different members at various times.

Monday the club will have as its guest at luncheon a missionary, home from Turkey, who is to speak to several other groups on the campus, namely, the Y. W. C. A. and the Christian Union Cabinet.

Newspaper Group Hears Bloom Talk

David Bloom, sports editor for the Commercial Appeal, talked to the Press Club Wednesday night in the Bell Room. Bloom's talk, in which he gave personal reminiscences of his newspaper life, followed the regular club dinner.

The Press Club, which has grown by leaps and bounds, listened eagerly to a farewell letter from its New York representative, Mary Gardner Patterson, who has entered Barnard College, New York City.

Apples! Buy An Apple!

"Buy apple?" Thus does Angelo, once in the employ of Southwestern, eke out a bare sustenance, these windy wintry days. Time was when Angelo was quite a figure on the campus with his rake or shovel. Many a transplanted shrub or tree owes a debt of gratitude to him. Over a year ago he left the college and went out into the world to make a living. But times were hard. He could find no work.

"I make pretty good money," says Angelo. "The students they buy many apples." The apples are given to Angelo by the crate. He sells about a half a crate a day, clearing an average of a dollar and a half. When the spring comes and employment picks up, Angelo plans to go out of the fruit business and go back to his job of handy man about town.

LOCAL RECEIVES NEW PLEDGE PIN

Delta Pi Girls Proud Of Tri-Delta Buttons

The old familiar Delta Theta Pi pin was laid aside this week by members of Delta Theta Pi local sorority and replaced by the simple but more imposing pledge pin of Delta Delta Delta national sorority which will install a unit on the Southwestern campus some time in March.

Members of Delta Pi have been walking on "air," so to speak, all week, since the receipt of a telegram from the central council of the national group announcing the favorable action taken upon the local petition. Congratulations have been heaped upon the members of Delta Pi by friends in Memphis, at Southwestern and by established chapters of Tri-Delt.

Members of the Greek-letter world at Southwestern welcome the addition of Delta Delta Delta to the local Panhellenic and look with approbation upon the action of the national body.

Delta Theta Pi was organized October 23, 1929, and was recognized by the Southwestern Panhellenic Council in November of the same year. Tri-Delt was founded at Boston University on Thanksgiving Eve, 1888 and is recognized as one of the leading national sororities in the country, having chapters in many of the leading colleges and universities. Members of Delta Theta Pi who will be initiated into Tri-Delt are Margaret Gunn, Catherine Bigelow, Alice Rogers, Grace Carkeet, Annabel Cox, Emma Frances Robinson, Elise McDaniel, Louise Mitchell, Annie Mae McDaniel, Peggy Martin, Edith Graff, Marguerite Conley, Sara Crowe Ransom and Lyle Stanga.

Southwesterners At Little Theater

Some Southwestern students and one professor have been shining lights in the regular weekly broadcast of the Memphis Little Theater over WNBR. A murder mystery taken from "Scotland Yard," only international detective magazine based on fact, is presented each Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock under the supervision and direction of Miss Helen Lochrie, a well-known member of the Little Theater.

Russell Cross, Tom Drake, Mitchell Hodges, and Professor J. H. Davis have represented Southwestern dramatically inclined students and profs. Even the alumnae has been represented in the person of Mr. John Hagan, graduated in the class of 1930.

CO-EDS RESENT ACCUSATION OF LOCAL PASTOR

Rev. Lowe Says Girls
Were Indecently Clad

APOLOGY DEMANDED

Matter Allowed to Drop
By Parties Concerned.

Rev. R. Girard Lowe last week aroused the indignation of the Southwestern co-eds by a statement made before the Board of Directors of Southwestern during its investigation of charges against President Diehl to the effect that the girls of the school had attended dances on the campus in indecent costumes.

Rev. Lowe, pastor of the Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church, was one of the eleven Memphis ministers who made the charges against Dr. Diehl, of which he was vindicated by the Board of Directors, and it was during the meeting held by the Board that he made his statement relative to the Southwestern co-eds. Mr. Frank Fisher, Memphis business man and member of the Board's advisory committee, took exception to the statement at the meeting and rose in defense of Southwestern's womanhood.

On Thursday, February 6, Mrs. Townsend, Dean of Women, called a meeting of the Southwestern girls and urged that action be taken by the co-eds to clear themselves of the charge. On Friday a meeting was called by the co-eds themselves and a statement was issued that denied that the girls had worn indecent costumes and demanded an apology from Rev. Lowe, which was composed of Anna Hudson, Meredith Davis, Lucille Work, and Mary Carolyn Lee.

Anna Hudson called upon Rev. Lowe to arrange for a time for a hearing of the committee by him and the session of his church. Rev. Lowe would not consent to hearing the charges himself, but declared that it would have to be taken up before the session of his church and as this body could not be gotten together at the time set by Rev. Lowe when Anna Hudson called upon him, the hearing had to be postponed. A successful meeting of the session of Grace Covenant Church and the co-eds' committee was never effected.

Rev. Lowe stated that he did not say that the Southwestern girls wore indecent costumes to the dances, but that he did say that they wore very scant "shorts," which barely reached below the hips. He said further: "The implication that the dress was indecent was made by someone else. I did not intend to make that implication, though I may have done so unintentionally." He also said that the whole matter should be dropped "for the good of all concerned."

The demand for an apology was abandoned by the co-eds and the matter was allowed to die a natural death. Considerable unfavorable publicity in Memphis papers and those in other cities was gained through the incident of the accusation and denial.

The resolution adopted by the Southwestern co-eds at their second meeting read as follows: "We, the young women of Southwestern, feel that the Rev. R. Girard Lowe, who recently charged us with immodesty and indecency, has not only sullied the good name of our college, but has cast a slur on our characters as southern gentlewomen.

"We have met these charges in a signed statement and are ready to refute them upon request. We prefer to believe Mr. Lowe was misinformed rather than malicious in his intentions and his charges, and we feel that he will want to make an explanation and an apology."

Lampoons

Done In A Nice Way

Most of the fraternities have abolished Hell Week. They've made it eight days.

First Londoner: My, isn't this fog thick? Let's grope our way around this corner.

Second Fog Drinker: This isn't a corner; it's your wife.

Buyer: Let's play the game called Building and Loan?

Seller: How do you play it?

Buyer: Get the hell out of this building and leave me alone!

"Disarmament begins at home," said Joe College, as he trimmed the co-ed's nails.

A. T. O.: Woman's greatest attraction is her hair.

G. A. E.: I say that is her eyes.

B. S.: It is unquestionably her teeth.

K. S.: What is the use of us sitting here lying to each other?

Co-Ed Motto: Better be fat in the head than at the hips.

A pedestrian always has the right of way—when he is in the ambulance.

Nurse: Your wife just had triplets. Father: Gosh, that's what comes of working in the recorder's office. Everything is triple.

Widow (to florist): You remember them gladiolus seed you sold me for my husband's grave? Well, they was rhubarb.

Now that plump figures are coming back, girls can eat their cake and have it back too.

"Joe, do you think the newspaper will be replaced by the radio?" "No, no, you can't swat flies with a radio."

Miss Underwood: No, I could never marry you, Mr. Remington. You're just not my type.

"Whaffo' you shapenin' 'at razuh?" "Woman, they's a pair ob gemmun's shoes undeh yo' bed. If dey is no nigguh in dem—Ah's gonna shave."

A Co-Ed's Prayer

I have danced for hours with thee,
And I would that my tongue could utter
The thoughts that arise in me.

Oh, well for the third no-break,
And the second special too.
I guess I'll dance forever—
The whole long night with you.

And the cruel stags go by
To the other girls on the floor,
But oh, for the touch of a vanished hand
For a break—ah, nevermore!

Stags, don't you hear my plea?
But the martyred touch of a helping hand
Will never be felt by me!
—With Apologies to Tennyson.

PERSONALS

Many are the faces which are seen no more in our gay and crowded halls, and needless to say all are missed exceedingly. Helen Lowrance deserted the ranks to teach kindergarten at Lausanne and says it's great fun.

Harriet Shepard seemed to think life without studies more entertaining and left after first semester, as did Betty Jones.

June Davidson and Bob Logan are no more in our midst and that busiest of reporters, Reeves Manker, has also ceased activities at Southwestern.

Jane Wellford has transferred her activities to Normal and Elizabeth Alley left before the second term.

Joe Le Prince, Garland Boyd, Sam McMillan and Ben Holmes have taken up other occupations other than studying.

But to make up for those lost there are quite a number of new students roaming the campus, as well as some old friends who have come back, as Virginia Finch, Herbert Pierce and Perry Bynum. New students include Mitchell Hodges, Meta Russell, Bob McKnight, and Bill Hutchinson.

Beta Sigs Pledge Collins

The Beta Sigma fraternity takes great pleasure in announcing the pledging of Leonard "Smoke" Collins of Shawmut, Alabama.

AN EXPLANATION

Needless to say, the recent unpleasantness concerning the Freshman Edition of the "Sou'wester" has put the former editor and the present editor in a most peculiarly delicate situation. When I learned that Jimmy had been dismissed from the editorship I was deeply hurt. But I was hurt more at the thought that I should succeed my brother. During the past term Jimmy and I have issued the "Sou'wester" together, as editor and assistant editor. Therefore, I felt that I could not possibly accept the editorship since I had been partly responsible for the Freshman Edition. I told the Publications Board that as far as I was concerned, I would sever all connections with literary publications on the campus before I would accept the editorship.

Jimmy and I discussed the paper for hours. He argued that I accept for two main reasons, first, that if he had to lose his position he would rather that I, his brother, succeed him than anyone else in the school. Since he and I are identical, he would still feel, in a measure, closely connected with the paper, whereas he would be estranged should anyone else take over the editorship. Second, that should the faculty sanction me as editor of the "Sou'wester" this would show conclusively to the public that it was with Jimmy's policy, but not his character that the faculty took issue, since Jimmy and I have the same morals and ethics.

I want it understood by everyone that I do not look forward to being editor of the "Sou'wester," in view of the circumstances through which I gained the editorship. I trust that you understand the nature of the feeling between Jimmy and me well enough to discredit any insinuation that ambition was a motivating power behind my acceptance of the editorship.

I will consider my term of office a success if I turn out a paper as well written and as clean as Jimmy's.

WE DEMAND AN APOLOGY

The recent attack on the character of the Southwestern co-eds should not be allowed to pass without a full apology from Rev. Lowe. Reputation is a thing that takes years to build up, but can be torn down in a day. Such a serious accusation cannot be taken lightly, nor has it been taken lightly by the co-eds. They have met and demanded an apology from Rev. Lowe, who insinuated that Southwestern girls appeared at dances indecently clad.

We prefer to believe that Rev. Lowe was misinformed rather than that he spoke slurringly of the co-eds out of pure malicious intent. At any rate he should be man enough either to prove his statements or to publicly apologize. Unless such an apology is obtained the womanhood of Southwestern will remain under a stigma.

EVERGREEN HALL

Evergreen has lost several of its inhabitants but in their places it has gained others. The new girls are Clarene Wineman from Greenville, Meta Russell from Hollandale, Gleda Rice from Pensacola, Florida, and Marry Seldean Helm.

There was lots of excitement in the dormitory the night when all the girls were getting ready for the Pan-Hellenic. Grace Rowland was wringing her hands for fear she wouldn't get to go because her date had a wreck on the way out here.

Edith Graff came in from sorority meeting one night just as calm as usual, but upon being questioned, she told us that the D. T. Pi's had won their petition to Tri Delta. Then Allison made it her business to spread the good tidings throughout the dormitory. Congratulations to Edith and the other sisters.

Exams, the Pan-Hellenic and other disturbing factors have all slipped into the past, and Evergreen Hall is back into the old routine of classes, Neely Hall, and a few dates.

The unimaginable happened the other day—flowers were delivered at the dormitory! The delivery boy was assured there must be some mistake, but no—one of the "new" girls was the lucky one. May her good fortune continue, and may it be said with flowers.

Here's a suggestion—the mechanical genius who succeeds every weekend in stopping the clock and locking the piano to be kind enough to help the very unmechanical inmates to get things in working order.

A rather familiar figure to be seen lately in Evergreen is the doctor with his little black satchel and bottle of

Benjamin Ross

Ben Ross was born August 1, 1909, at Eudora, Arkansas. He attended high school at Eudora and Brinkley, completing his school work at Central High.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Ross and a member of Theta Nu Epsilon Fraternity. Ben has paid all of his college expenses by working during the summer vacations and after classes. He plans to enter banking after he receives his degree this spring.

Margaret Williams

Margaret, in addition to being the Zeta Tau Alpha and the Y. W. C. A., is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Williams. She was born in Memphis August 10, 1910. She is a graduate of Central High School.

Margaret, in addition to being the president of Zeta and Y. W. C. A., is the secretary of the Women's Pan-Hellenic Council, the secretary-treasurer of Alpha Theta Phi, and a member of the Southwestern Christian Union. She has been a member of the Shakespeare and the Sophoclean Club.

John Woods

John Woods is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Woods and he was born at Greenwood, Miss., February 7, 1909. He did his grammar and high school work at Greenwood.

John was a member of the Southwestern Choir during his sophomore year. He plans to do graduate work after his graduation from Southwestern.

pills. Jimmy Walls is up now, but has been sick, and Mary Powell Ab-bay is convalescing at present.

SUE TO LOU

My last letter to you was evidently opened by mistake cause I got a reply from somebody asking me why I wrote all that tomfoolery. I can't imagine who could have done it but they should have known I didn't mean all I said to you. Well, heigho! We can't be bothered if people see what they aren't supposed to see. Hope they didn't take offense, anyway.

After that Freshman issue last Friday I don't know what to believe on the campus. Those crazy nuts played everything up so funny that it's hard to tell when they were joking and when they were not. You'll have to see a copy of the issue. It's pretty wild if you know what I mean.

You ought to see Malcolm Ritchie drive a LaSalle now. He handles a certain big sedan, like Barney Oatmeal or Oldfield or whoever it is. Mary Alfie always accompanies him so it must be her wagon.

The K. D.'s had an open house in the Kappa Sig lodge last night and it was great. Bill Brinkley's Royal Collegians sprinkled music all around the lodge. You should hear them play. Wonder when the K. D.'s intend to fix their floor. You know it looks like the rocky road to Dublin.

Well, I guess those Chi Omegas were satisfied with their ad in the paper the other night. Three winsome little girls appeared in private costume to show Rev. Lowe that clothes are not so low-down on the campus after all.

Harry Walton announced that the Tri-Delts, nee the Delta Theta Pi's, would play the K. A.'s a basketball game in the gym. I can't wait to see it. Everybody thinks the Tri-Delts will win.

Well, I'll see you fore long. Write a little more often.

Wallace Wade To Teach Coaching Here In Summer

To Lecture on Football, Baseball, Track With Practical Workout.

Wallace Wade, former coach at Alabama, who led the Crimson Tide to the championship of the Southern Conference, and practically to the championship of the nation, will conduct a coaching school at Southwestern during the summer. Wade is outstanding among grid coaches of the nation, having produced some of the greatest teams the South has ever known during the last few years.

The exact date of the training school has not yet been decided, but it will probably be in the last part of June or the first part of July. The school will last for a period of ten days.

The school will comprise lectures on football, basketball and track in the morning, with demonstrations on the field in the afternoon. It is the first time that a coaching school has ever been held at Southwestern or in this part of the country. It will offer an excellent opportunity for the high school and college coaches of this part of the South to gain some first-hand information from one of the greatest coaches of them all.

Alabama's system of coaching football has practically been removed from the Capstone campus to that of Southwestern with the signing of Wade to conduct the coaching school. Jimmy Haygood, former freshman coach at Alabama, has been signed to direct Lynx athletics. Jess Neely, who has been at Alabama for the past three years, will help Haygood during the spring training. John Miller, guard on the 1930 championship team, will help Haygood next fall, and Freddy Sington, All-American tackle on the past Alabama team, will probably help Wade during the coaching school. About the only thing that Southwestern does not have is the football stadium.

Students Pay Way Through Colleges

NEW YORK.—(IP)—The New York Times says that while colleges are being branded as country clubs and students as loafers, the amazing totals are being computed of the boys and girls who are paying, in hard and often menial work, for every crumb of higher education they are getting.

"Forty-three per cent of the men students of the land-grant colleges throughout the country, according to a recent government survey," says the Times, "are working their way through and almost a quarter of the women, while the combined yearly earnings of students in 1,000 higher institutions are estimated at $32,500,000."

Psychology Class Invents Strange Contraptions and Goofy Animals

Prof. Atkinson Gives Impetus to Science By Inspiring Eager Students.

First they dream and then they invent. The Psychology class' annual array of dream monstrosities is followed by a kindred display of inventive genius. A few of the outstanding "creations" are printable.

All whose imagination balked at devising new and different plots for stories, or something in the way of more practical inventions, vied with each other in designing the most preposterous animals.

One animal is a sort of kangaroo giraffe combination with the salient characteristics of each featured. The backbone is prettily scalloped, offering a striking resemblance to a buzz-saw. A vicious scowl completes the creature's charm.

Someone with an eye for paradoxes created a beast having all the satanic accoutrements—plus wings! His horns are merely ornamental, but the forked tail curls up to form a cushion when he sits.

Other fantastic creations include a red and white striped dinosaur-looking-thing, having all the appeal of a piece of peppermint stick candy, and a curious collection of hybrids—a cowelephant, a mangiraffe, and a hippochick. Imagine a chicken-legged hippopotamus!—someone did.

In the way of practical (?) and scientific (?) inventions there is a device for keeping an even temperature in battery brooder rooms, an automatic nut cracker, and an elaborate drill for boring through the earth. Someone wonders why glasses with a special lens for seeing through darkness could not be constructed. And a member of the Humane Society suggests an electrified fishing line with a control button on the pole so that as soon as a fish is hooked the sportsman can "shoot the juice," thus eliminating all possibility of the poor fish's escape and much of his suffering.

One person's inventive imagination conceives the scheme of rising and lowering theatre seats, similar to barbers' chairs. All unoccupied seats would be on loading floor and would be equipped with easily operated controls which would enable them to be elevated to the stage level as soon as occupied and lowered for emptying at the close of the show. Such an arrangement would save toes and tempers from the annoying trappings of late arrivals.

The plots were ingenious but not so very new, ranging from the proverbial college hero story to the ten babes on a desert isle what-would-their-language-be theme.

All Southwestern-Ole Miss Party

The management of the Casino invites all Southwestern students and their dates to a dance to be given from nine to one o'clock Friday night, February 20. The dance is to be All Southwestern-Ole Miss, but the Panhellenic Councils of Southwestern are in no way connected with sponsoring the dance. Music will be furnished by the "Mississippians," an orchestra that proved to be hotter than hot at the first Panhellenic dance last year at the Elks Hotel.

Smith Sorry For President Hoover

NEW YORK.—(IP)—The man who failed to get to the White House in 1928 feels sorry for its present occupant.

Alfred E. Smith told the Advertising Club of New York:

"I feel sorry for the president. He sits on top of Capitol Hill, holding the bag."

The expression of sympathy came after a discussion of the Wickersham report and the Eighteenth Amendment in which the former governor declared he felt certain the Eighteenth Amendment would be defeated if it would come up for ratification at present.

Of the Wickersham commission's report, he said: "It did one good thing; it was at least unanimous in finding that the thing is not right."

"The wets have the liquor and the dries have the law under the present conditions," he said.

Game Saturday To Decide Fate Of Lynx In S. I. A. A.

Lynx, Union Bulldogs Tied For Third Place In Tennessee District.

Southwestern's chances of entering the S. I. A. A. championship tournament at Jackson, Miss., in the first part of March will probably be decided in the game with Union tomorrow night in the Southwestern gym at 7:30. Just at present the Lynx and Union are tied for third place in the district and the winner of the struggle tomorrow night will represent this district in the tournament.

The count between the two teams is two wins for Union and two losses for the Lynx, the Bulldogs having captured the two games in their own backyard. Coach Willis McCabe is expecting a different story when his team plays on their own court.

The Lynx have been improving steadily during the last week and are expected to tame the Bulldogs. Union will have a slight advantage in height, for the members of the Lynx team as a whole are rather small in stature. This apparent advantage will be offset by Sheriff Knight's stellar crisp shot performances and the fast floor work of the Lynx regulars.

The starting line-up for the Lynx will see the regular performers back at their old positions. Captain Charley Diehl and Chauncey Barbour will play the forward positions, Knight will be stationed at center, and Eliot Perrette and Herbert Newton will hold down the guard posts. There is a slight possibility that Newton and Barbour may change positions with Newton playing forward and Barbour performing at guard.

SEWANEE TIGER GETS LYNX SKIN

Licking To Tune of 39-32 Handed Lynx On Mount

Meeting their old foe, the Sewanee Tiger, on his own court, the Southwestern Lynx were handed a 39-32 defeat Monday night. Sewanee reaped some sweet revenge for the licking they received at the hands of the Southwestern football team in Memphis last fall.

Neither team showed any great amount of class and flash during the first half with both showing a poor brand of basketball. Southwestern at one time held an 18 to 7 lead and were ahead at the half 24 to 18. The Tigers came back with a vengeance in the second half and the Lynx could not stop them.

In contrast to the slow playing of the first half both teams were fighting hard during the second period. Sheriff Knight played a stellar game at center for the Lynx. Chauncey Barbour, running mate to Captain Charley Diehl at forward, was shifted from his regular position to that of guard, with Newton holding down the other forward position. Newton scored 9 points to be high point man for Southwestern.

Pay Boy to Drink Beer

DORTMUND, Germany.—(IP)—Believe it or not, you college boys! The Work Psychology Institute here is paying a lad to drink 14 bottles of beer a day.

The idea is this—the psychologists want to find out how long it will take a person fortified with 14 bottles of beer to become tired. There were more than one applicant for the position.

Students Sell Whiskey

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—(IP)—The source of liquor for the campus of the University of Michigan has been somewhat limited, officials say, since the arrest here of Robert K. Custer, 22, a university senior, and Allan Thompson, 21, both of whom, the sheriff's office says, have admitted being campus bootleggers. Ori E. Brown, 25, law school freshman, also is under arrest, but refuses to talk.

SOPH LOSES PET MUSTACHE

Sylvester Thorn Is Victim Of Attack

Sylvester Thorn, circulation manager of the Sou'wester and debater of some note, has had all of his dreams of becoming a famous mustached lover on the order of John Gilbert, blasted by the members of the qualitative chemistry class.

For the last few months Thorn has been faithfully nurturing a slight growth of hair on his upper lip. It has all been for naught. Monday afternoon the members of the chemistry class suddenly decided they had a strong dislike for Thorn's pet mustaches. As a consequence, immediately after the class was over by the use of force and accompanied by the screams and yells of the victim, the mustaches were thrown into the wastebasket.

The attackers, however, committed the unpardonable fault of leaving one-half of the hairy growth to grow and progress as it would. This was adding insult to injury and Thorn had to rid himself of the remaining portion of the pet or look terribly unbalanced.

LYNX DEFEAT 'NOOGA FIVE

McCabe Boys Cut Loose To Down Moccasins.

Exhibiting a fast breaking offense and a fair defense, the Southwestern Lynx defeated the University of Chattanooga, an S. I. A. A. foe, Tuesday night in Chattanooga by a score of 36-32.

The Lynx started rather poorly, missing a good many "set-ups" and were on the abbreviated end of an 18-14 count at the half way mark. As the second half got under way the McCabe men unleashed some of the fighting spirit which carried them to two victories over the strong Louisiana College team last week, and breezed on to victory with the score in their favor from then on out.

The Lynx seemed to hit their stride in this encounter with the Moccasins and according to reports from 'Nooga, the boys turned in one of the neatest performances seen there this year. Their precision in pass-work and handling of the ball reveals that Coach McCabe's drills are taking effect and will give S. I. A. A. quints plenty to think about when the Lynx journey to Jackson, Miss., the latter part of the month to participate in the S. I. A. A. tourney.

Haden Talks To Class

The program of the Bible Class last Sunday consisted of a song service led by Charles Diehl. Prof. Haden is to lead the class on Sunday. He is following a planned series of talks comparing the standards of Christ to modern standards.

College Students Would Run School

FAYETTE, Mo.—(IP)—The dream of every college student—to be able to turn out the college administration, and run the campus himself—was given varied expression here recently when the students of Central College, in a Sunday evening meeting discussed thoroughly the question:

"How a College Student Would Run a College."

Faculty members were given a special invitation to be present, but as yet there have been no radical changes in the college policies.

Jeff Goes Under Knife

Jeff Davis has not been "all there" since an incident that happened last Saturday afternoon in the Baptist Hospital, when the big boy went under the knife to get a divorce from his tonsils.

Davis assigned mutual incompatibility as the chief cause of the unpleasantness, the doctor granting him a separation without support.
