

HAIL OPERETTA HUGE SUCCESS AT AUDITORIUM

Cast Thwarts Fate to Win
Praise of Audience.

DR. HADEN DIRECTOR

75 Students Take Part In Musical Victory.

In spite of the sudden departure of the leading male character a few days before the presentation of the biggest Southwestern stage production of the year, the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance," produced by the combined memberships of the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs of Southwestern under the direction of Prof. Eric Haden and Prof. John Henry Davis, and with the sponsorship of the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Memphis, the operetta was successfully staged last night at the Ellis Auditorium before an appreciative audience that proved the success of the production by its hearty acceptance of the entire operetta.

NICHOLAS SINGS LEAD

Lieutenant Gilliland, who was cast in the part of Frederic, the Slave of Duty, the hero of the play, was called to New York due to the death of his father a few days before the presentation of the operetta and the show was left without a leading male character. Louis Nicholas, pianist and director of the Southwestern choir and a member of the cast of the play, was hurriedly groomed for the part and carried it off nobly, though he had had only a few days of actual preparation for the part. Others taking leads in the production and proving their ability as vocalists and actors were Bob Sanders, Meredith Davis, Roger Wright, Ruth Parke, Nell Holloway, Marian Mills, and Mitchell Hodges.

CAST NUMBERS 75.

Three large choruses comprised the majority of the cast and included a chorus of the twenty daughters of Major General Stanley, the Pirates and the Policemen. The entire cast of the play numbered about 75, which made it one of the largest enterprises undertaken by any campus organization in recent years. Practice sessions were held under the guidance of Professors Haden and Davis for a period of six weeks in order to in-

GIRLS BANQUET MONDAY NIGHT

Y. W. C. A. Gives Feast

The program will be in the form of a radio broadcast, over station KOED, and there will be famous radio announcers and entertainers present. A loving cup will be presented to the biggest and best necker in school, and a prize of some sort voted to the most graceful boy. Music will be furnished by the Royal Collegians.

INSTALL OFFICERS.

The installation of officers for next year will be held just before the banquet at 6:00 p. m., in Hardie Auditorium. Everyone is invited to attend. The officers to be installed are Nell Davis, president; Mary Carolyn Lee, vice president; Elizabeth Richey, secretary, and Virginia Richmond, treasurer.

RICHIE SPEAKS AT LEBANON ON SATURDAY NITE

Famed Senator Talks for Southwestern.

IN ORATORICAL WAR

Competes for Best Boy
Speaker in State.

Malcolm Richie will represent Southwestern at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., Saturday night in the annual State Oratorical League contest to pick the state's best student orator.

Richie will give an address on the "Skull and Cross Bones of an Outlawed Trade." His eloquent appeal to enforce the prohibition law as long as it stands won him the right over several Southwestern contestants to represent the school.

Vanderbilt and Sewanee will be represented in the district tourney tomorrow night. The winner will go to Nashville for the final oratorical battle, for which a $100 prize has been offered. Last year, George Whitaker, stormy Titan of Southwestern oratory, brought home the victory for Southwestern.

Richie's speech attempts to show that prohibition is not an infringement of personal liberty, that it wasn't "put over" on the American people, and that only a minority of voters actually want the 18th Amendment repealed.

Adelaide Anderson Wins Tennis Battle

After three weeks of play the Girls Tennis Tournament was completed Saturday afternoon when Adelaide Anderson defeated Imogene Carmichael in a closely contested match, 8-6, 5-7, 8-6. Imogene played a steady game throughout, working her opponent's back hand. Adelaide drove for the back line with occasional drop shots over the net.

Pep Up Plans For Student Airplane On School Campus

Chief Moore and Crew at Hard Work to Sell
Aerial Idea.

Plans for a student-owned airplane are being brought to a head this week, mainly through the efforts of "Chief" Moore. The proposition has the endorsement of President Diehl, Dean Hartley, and those of the faculty who have been seen. A great many students, personally seen by "Chief," have shown themselves to be heartily in favor of it, also. It now remains only a question of whether the majority of the student body will support this project or not for the proposed plane to become a reality.

"CHIEF" IS LEADER.

The "Chief," assisted by an airport representative, outlined the whole plan in the student meeting Saturday morning. The plane will be paid for by money contributed by Southwestern students, and is to be bought and paid for at a minimum price.

The plane will be used for advertising purposes as well as for carrying air-minded "eds" and "co-eds." The plane will also be used in the school's athletic program.

NOBODY CHEATED.

According to "Chief," a student will get back all he puts into the project within two flights. Seniors and members of the student body who are leaving this year are to have their rides first.

If the student body backs the plan, the plane will be bought and ready to fly by May 1. It will be manned by a licensed pilot and probably will be kept on the campus.

Aerial Game Strong

Philadelphia, Pa.—(IP)—A high standard has been attained in the football practice of Temple University's eleven this spring. Coach Heinie Miller has had his boys working out on the roof of the new student recreation building, 300 feet in the air. Incidentally, no scrimmages were held on the roof, but the fundamentals were put across fine, Miller said.

Cat and Kittens Living in Robb

Cats lack a sense of propriety.

Inmates of the dormitory were startled not to mention somewhat surprised to find the new roomers making the corridor headquarters.

A committee of students, Ritchie Morgan, chairman, visited the mother tabby and asked her if she wouldn't kindly move within a day or so. She agreed and the next day found her gone.

Cat and children are coming along nicely, thank you.

ANNUAL ON CAMPUS

Yearbook Full of Art and Feature Work.

After a long period of preparation which began near the end of the last semester of the 1929-30 session, the 1931 "Lucky Lynx" has arrived on the campus in its final and complete form and is ready for distribution by the business manager at an early date.

In regard to the distribution, Business Manager Ohlendorf said: "Absolutely no annuals will be given out until all organizations owing money to the 'Lucky Lynx' have paid their accounts in full. The delinquent clubs are holding up the distribution of the boo books to those who have paid their accounts and wish to get their books."

The "Lucky Lynx" is said to be one of the most artistic annuals that has ever been put out at Southwestern. The art theme throughout is Gothic with the Gothic arch being used as a setting for the cuts on many of the pages of the book, and all original art work in the book is distinctive.

All photographs in the book are new, a feature not common in former annuals, and the pictures in the view section, which were taken last spring, are better than any used before in Southwestern annuals. The fraternity and athletic sections are also arranged in a new fashion which makes for attractive pages. Throughout the greater part of the "Lucky Lynx" a light blue border for the pages is used.

No expense or effort has been spared that would make the "Lucky Lynx" the most interesting and attractive of all annuals put out at Southwestern. It gives a true cross section of campus life and can be said to be representative of Southwestern activities.

K. D. Gang Smooths Wrinkles In Floor

As a climax to their spring housecleaning, the Kappa Deltas have had brand new hardwood floor put in place of the far-famed mountains which have for the last year attracted tourists from all over the country. The new floor is guaranteed to be permanent, according to the K. D.'s.

This repair work amounting to over $100, was made possible by the contributions of Mr. Martin, Mr. Cairns and Mr. Davis, all who have daughters in the active Kappa Delta chapter at Southwestern. The chapter and alumnae also chipped in to pay for the new floor.

Dame Rumor has it that the K. D.'s will sling some kind of affair at an early date to celebrate the rejuvenation of the house.

NUTTY STUDENTS SEE NUTS

Abnormal Psychologists Make Auto Trip To Bolivar

Bolivar has more nuts than a pecan tree.

At least that's what Dr. W. R. Atkinson's abnormal psychology class thinks after taking a trip out to the state asylum for the mentally unbalanced. The trip was made via automobiles last Thursday for the purpose of giving the class first-hand information on cases studied in the lecture room. The "excursion" is an annual event.

Many and weird are the tales reported by the twenty envied students who made the trip through the crazy house. But overshadowing the tragic side of the insane asylum is the neatness, consideration, and care with which the inmates are treated. Nothing is spared to make their lot as happy a one as possible. Radios, rocking chairs, baseball diamonds, tennis courts, and many other features help make existence softer on the afflicted.

But to get down to the humor of the trip. Suppose some guy glared savagely at you and told you you owned $400,000,000? Suppose another snuck up behind you and startled you with a terrific blast on a mouth organ, then bursted into peals of maniacal laughter? And suppose you were a girl and some bozo was so "nutty" he wanted to dance with you? If these questions and situations startle you, don't go to Bolivar. You'll meet just such emergencies and probably worse. Much worse.

The abnormal psychologists interviewed several "cases" and took mental notes on them. No horribly afflicted patients were quizzed.

One old geezer who announced himself as King of the World, Governor of Tennessee, and the inventor of the radio was quite a character. He swelled up with pride at the least notice.

Another asked for a blank check with which to pay a room and board bill of $150,000. Of course he had the money because he owned Wall

Street and the whole United States.

A religious fanatic called himself a saint and flailed Dr. Atkinson for being an evil Protestant bishop.

One old fellow wore forty medals pinned to his overlaid breast and would not be content until he had explained the meaning of each and every badge.

One fellow would have failed Math flat. He couldn't tell what two times one was and he didn't know what a fifty-cent piece was.

Don't get the idea these people were very unhappy. A few were, but the majority were quite content in their ignorance. How could anybody be happier than deeming himself king of the world, and all therein contained?

How could another type be any happier than considering himself the wealthiest man in the country?

Ignorance is bliss, the poet saith. If such is the case, Bolivar is seventh heaven.

IF ALL TRUE CONFESSION WRITERS WERE PLACED SIDE BY SIDE AGAINST A WALL, THEY'D STILL BE LYING.

No. Pets and fondles him.

"Stand behind your lover, false woman," thundered the Scotchman, who found his wife in another man's arms. "I'm going to shoot you both."

GET FAIR-MINDED.

There has been much talk lately of a student-owned airplane. This idea is a new one and thus a target for many jibes and jeers. It is new and therefore a large number will oppose it.

It is radical and therefore the conservatives will duly pounce upon it. One mustn't be too unusual, especially in a small college you know.

That is a sound economical enterprise, very few truly realize. There are so many being swept away by emotion that the clear hard facts of financial safety are being somewhat overlooked. But it is safe financially.

Don't condemn an idea before you understand that idea thoroughly. Don't condemn the airplane idea until you know what you are condemning. Even you may be wrong.

And if you don't like the idea, remember you don't have to get in on it. Don't hinder the work of those who are working for the plane just because you personally wouldn't care to pay three dollars or to ride in it. Others may care to do so.

HELP CLEAN UP

Spring has brought a new beauty to Southwestern's campus. The lawns and shrubbery have a well-groomed look.

Nothing spoils a campus like trash blowing over it. Don't be too proud to stoop down and pick up a piece of paper that looks ugly.

ON WITH HORSESHOES

What's the matter with the horseshoe pitching enthusiasts this year? The courts are still where they used to be and all that is needed is a little light work to put them in shape.

Every spring the campus males throw a horseshoe-pitching tournament. Such a worth-while undertaking as this should not be allowed to fall through because of neglect. Won't some energetic soul step forward and get the arc-twirlers started?

Tennis is strenuous. Baseball demands perspiration. Track is a stupendous effort. Ping pong keeps one indoors. Only horseshoe-pitching offers the combination of shade, quietness, and competition. Won't some lad step forward and start the ball rolling? Fame awaits.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Robb Hall

Since Dr. Cooper has been in every night this week, news from Robb Hall is in a slump.

About the most exciting event that has happened in a long time occurred in suite 303. When Buster Dial enrolled in school, he tied his sheets to the foot of the bed. Last Tuesday night Buster had them changed. All the occupants of the hall joined in the celebration.

There hasn't been much use made of the dormitory phone since the installation of the free one in the publication's office. However, Maury Hull may be seen hanging around it during the afternoons and sometimes he rates a call. But never fear, Harvey Drake still holds the record for the number of calls.

Jink Joyner, Buster Dial, Harvey Drake will represent Robb Hall on the week-end trip being planned by a group of students to Moon Lake, Mississippi.

Evergreen Hall

Elizabeth Binsberg and Mattie Reynolds of Camden, Arkansas, former students at Southwestern in '29 and '30, were week-end guests of Maria Hunt Negus and Margaret Ashley.

Sweet slumbers of those rooming next to the drive were broken late Monday night. At least there was some compensation—Coca Cola hauled up by a string. But two bottles didn't suffice the number awakened, so next time that generous person ought to bring along a few more cokes. Maybe milk would be better, because at least that won't completely wake us up for the rest of the night.

You'll have to hand it to Mary Abbay as far as sleeping is concerned—from 3 o'clock p. m. to late in the morning of the next day—right thru telephone calls, alarm clocks, fire engines, and other customary noises around Evergreen Hall.

When people have to resort to devil-in-the-ditch and see-who-can-chunk-the-farthest-with-a-rock, things have gone pretty far. Anyway, that seems to be the latest amusement after dinner until 8 o'clock.

Dick Bunting says he's a dormitory student for a week, and we can't decide whether he's moved to Evergreen or Stewart. Pretty even draw! Chi Omegas took the place by storm Sunday. Katy Reid, Lone Wall and Mary Fant were out for dinner. And you should have heard that concert early in the afternoon.

Civilization is not injured by democracy as such, but by lack of education on the part of holders of power, and by lack of respect for liberty.—Bertrand Russell.

SUE TO LOU

Dear Lou:

This fast and furious correspondence is becoming a burden, but there are a few nice fancy pieces of gossip I want you to know.

The operetta was a "howling" success and the dance afterwards was grand, thanks to Bill Brinkley and his Royal Collegians. Ask Helen Brown about the second no-break if you want a cheerful little earful.

A good many Southwesterners turned out for the Sewanee Glee Club. Frankie Durham was there all dressed in pink, and Leroy Montgomery was having a big time.

Dixie Mae Jennings had a date with God's gift to women Thursday night after the rehearsal. I wonder where they went.

I wonder what is gonna happen about this airplane business. Chief Moore has been keeping us up in the air about it all right.

I saw Margaret Kimbrough and Schuyler Lowe leaving the campus together today again. It always gets worse in the spring. Ritchie Morgan and Josephine Farley think so, too.

A certain one of our fair co-eds has been reporting telephone calls from a mysterious man. He is a fellow-student and seems to be very interested in track. Could it be the free telephone is going to cause trouble?

The main man-about-the-campus is growing a moustache. I wonder if he will have it when he gets back from the house party.

Lambuth Racquets Down Lynx Squad

Lambuth College defeated the Southwestern tennis team last Saturday morning by the score of 4 to 2. The matches were marked by a lot of action and plenty of form for this early in the season.

The doubles matches were played in the morning with Southwestern winning one match and Lambuth one. The singles matches were played in the afternoon with Lambuth showing more power to win three of the four matches.

DOUBLES TEAM WINS.

The doubles team for Southwestern composed of Jimmy Daimond and Paul Jones, defeated C. O. Miller and Aaron Walker of Lambuth in three good tennis rounds by the scores of 6-4; 4-6; and 8-6.

The other doubles team for the Lynx, Ernest Joyner and Charlie Diehl, were defeated by Carl Robbins and Richard Piggott of the Eagles.

LYNX LOSE SINGLES.

Southwestern did not fare so well in the singles competition in the afternoon, being able to break through with only one win. The lone win for the Lynx was the match played by Paul Jones when he defeated Robbins.

Poems of An Idiot Boy
There are lots of things to make me feel good.

There are also lots of things to make me feel bad. When the blue spring breeze leaps out of the blackberry thickets and chases off across the meadows, it leaves a silver footprint in the sand, and I can go out and look for the footprint, even if I can't find it.

People run up and down the steps all night long, but they don't know why they are running, and they carry evil-smelling cigars and don't really know why they are carrying them at all. It's an old custom, they say.

There's really no need for ever worrying, because, just between you and me, there's no fool like a young fool, particularly when he happens to be very much in love—which is, in itself, eccentric.

You remember the pale green star that we saw the other night? Well, it fell into a barrel of molasses, and—can you imagine it?—is now the loveliest shade of crimson that you ever saw.

Poems are strange enough when they are written under a name—but when they are written anonymously, there is an added taste, and the resulting stew is—unusual, to say the least.

BOBCATS MEET BULLDOG BOYS

Frosh Rivals Come to War On Track May 2.

The Frosh thin clad lads will meet the Union yearlings on Fargason Field May 2. The Bobcats expect to register a win, thereby bringing their percentage up to .500. They lost to Messick recently by a narrow margin.

Frank Key's knee should be entirely well by this meet. If so, he will be hard to beat on the 100 and 220. Sternberg and Andy Edington are improving steadily as sprinters. In the 440, C. Porteous looms as the best bet. However, Grover Durant is improving by leaps and bounds and should run a nice quarter by the date of the Union meet. The relay team will probably be chosen from C. Porteous, S. "Ducky" Porteous, Durant, Key, and Sternberg.

PORTEOUS AND CO. GOOD.

CLEAR FINE FIND.

A bright find for the first year lads is Carol Clear. This freshman is the best high-jumper on the squad and is pushing Sternberg for the broad jumping honors. Both jump around 20 feet. Henry Rice is the peer of the class of '34 as a pole-vaulter.

BUSBEE HEAVES WEIGHTS.

Wesley Busbee does not seem to know his own strength as a weight heaver. The "Big Boy" cleaves the ozone with the discus 130 feet or better on almost every attempt. He is steadily improving with the shot and javelin. Wesley may also prove useful as a quarter and half miler before the season is over. The other big "shove and grunt" man is Gordon Fox, who is making Busbee a capable mate with the weights.

According to investigators, eagles have never before been observed emerging from the egg. Science has never had eagles in captivity less than 15 days old before.

Color Experiments Yield Few Results

Not a sufficient number of students were interested in expressing their color preferences to make Dr. W. R. Atkinson's recent color preference experiment a success. He invited students to come over to the large lecture room in the science building to see his "color picture" show." Only about thirty students responded and Dr. Atkinson states that this is not enough from which to draw any conclusions.

RACQUETSQUAD MEETS MAJORS

Tennis Team in Second Dual Meet of Year.

Playing their second dual tennis meet of the year, Southwestern will engage Millsaps College on the clay courts tomorrow with the opening match scheduled to begin at 10 o'clock.

Rain during the first part of the week has prevented the Lynx men from getting in as much practice as they would like to, but they are going to do their best to give the Majors a lot of competition.

The doubles matches will be played in the morning and the singles are scheduled for the afternoon. The team will probably be composed of the same men as it was last week against Lambuth. Paul Jones and Jimmy Daimwood will form one doubles team and Ernest Joyner and Charley Diehl the other.

The singles competition will be played by Diehl, Jones, Daimwood and Jack Chambliss. Play will begin at 1:30 o'clock.

Coach Billy Hughes has been putting in more time with his tennis men during the last two weeks and expects them to do well in the forthcoming dual meets. There is plenty of good material available if the weather man will just lay off his funny stuff for a while to allow the racquet wielders to get in a few hours of practice.

The high point of the present season will be the S. I. A. A. tournament to be held on the Southwestern courts May 8 and 9.

I'm the Gink

I'm the gink who runs around the campus with my nose in the air. Of course, I have a right to ignore the rest of the poor nobodies with whom I, of necessity, come in contact. They haven't that financial backing I have and, besides, I really think they don't come from the very blue-blood class like I do.

I drive my car by Robb Hall and sometimes condescend to wave a little finger at students perched like blackbirds on the railing. I sit and stare from the depths of my smart automobile. I point my cigarettes at the clouds and bid good-bye to ordinary mortals.

I guess I'm just a lady-killer from way back yonder. Anyway, I trot around after quite a few. I think they're plenty interested in me, and why shouldn't they be? I'm the Gink!

SOPHS STAR AS LYNX WIN MEET

Newton and High Cop 6 Firsts; 9 New Records.

Sophomores carried off most of the honors Saturday when Southwestern reversed last year's finish to defeat Mississippi College and Union University at Fargason Field in the annual tri-angular meet. Southwestern scored 66 points, Mississippi College 44½ and Union 20½.

"Hurling Herb" Newton and Harold High, the bouncing rubber man from Bessemer, led the parade of Lynx Sophs with six first places, including four record-breaking performances. Sophomores Glen Scott (pole vault) and Harvey Drake (high hurdles), added the other two first places won by Southwestern.

Not a favorite to win due to weakness in field events, Southwestern swept every race up to the mile to maintain an early lead over the Choc-taws and Bulldogs. Somewhat surprising wins in the discus throw, pole vault, and broad jump left the Lynx far ahead near the close of the meet.

NINE RECORDS FALL.

Nine campus records fell during the day with five going to Mississippi College and four to Southwestern.

Newton's time of 22.7 seconds for the 220-yard dash and 22 feet 6½ inches in the broad jump were record performances. High, with 51.7 seconds for the 440-yard run and 2 minutes 42 seconds for the half-mile, contributed two new marks.

Niles Puckett of Mississippi College ran a terrific mile to defeat slim Riley McGaughran, Lynx ace distance runner, and set up a new record of 4 minutes nad 37 seconds.

Captain White (M. C.) upset predictions with a victory over favorites McGaughran and Lorenzo Johnson in the two-mile run. He was forced to carve a new mark of 10 minutes 22.6 seconds to win.

John Abernathy tossed the metal ball 38 feet 9½ inches to better the mark made the day before by Freshman Wesley Busbee against Messick. Chapel Spencer hurled the javelin 157 feet 11 inches for a new mark. Mississippi College's relay team did the mile in 3 minutes 35.1 seconds to set a new record.

Summary:
100-Yard Dash — High, Southwestern, first; Jones, Mississippi College, second; Thompson, Union, third. Time 10.3.

Javelin—Spencer, Mississippi College, first, 157 feet 11 inches; Bynum, Southwestern, second, 152.9; Bennett, Mississippi College, third, 149.

Pole Vault—Scott, Southwestern, first, 10 feet; Moore, Southwestern, second, 9-6; Fortenberry, Mississippi College, and Thompson, Union, tied for third, 9 feet.

Mile—Puckett, Mississippi College, first; McGaughran, Southwestern, second; White, Mississippi College, third. Time 4 minutes 37 seconds.

Shot Put—Abernathy, Mississippi College, first, 38 feet 9½ inches; Lauderdale, Union, second, 37 feet ½ inch; Hebert, Southwestern, third, 36-3½.

220-Yard Dash—Newton, Southwestern, first; Jones, Mississippi College, second; Thompson, Union, third. Time 22.7 seconds.

Broad Jump—Newton, Southwestern, first, 22 feet 6½ inches; Knight, Southwestern, second, 20-8; Holmes, Mississippi College, third, 20.4.

BASEBALL BOYS HARD AT WORK

With several tentative games in the offing, Coach Billy Hughes is putting his Lynx baseballers through some extra sessions of batting and defense practice in preparation for them.

The reporting of Pittman, Mobley and Perette, outfielders, for practice this week sends the stock of the Lynx up several points. It is certain that Hughes will be able to put nine men on the diamond who can go with the best among local sand-lotters, but a scarcity of reserves, due to a lack of material, will offer the Lynx mentor a serious handicap.

OUTFIELD IS GOOD.

Pittman, Mobley, and Perette compose an experienced and fairly capable outfield, but there is no one on hand for reserve duty. Hightower, who has yet to report, should furnish the needed punch.

Infield aspirants are abundant, but for the most part lack experience. Hutchinson and Cloar are fighting it out for a position at the initial sack, but due to needed experience will probably be benched for Jim Talley, whom Hughes is attempting to convert from catcher to infielder. Carl Nickle will in all probability be used at the keystone sack and should go far towards steadying the first line of defense. Jack Slack is also showing up nicely at this position. Harte Thomas has a strangle hold on the shortstop position and from his showing thus far should be in there all season. Syd Johnson has parked himself at the hot corner and is doing right well. He is a dependable hitter and works nicely afield.

PITCHERS CLASSY.

Knight, Streete, and McDougall are showing plenty of class at chunking the ball over the chinaware and it is on them that Coach Hughes is placing a great deal of hopes for a winning team. If this trio can come through with the flinging they are capable of, there will be plenty for Lynx opponents to think about this spring.

Definite arrangements for games will be made this week. At present it is only known that local prep school and sandlot games are sought.

Weather Postpones Intramural Classic

The Intramural track meet has been indefinitely postponed. Coach Rasberry desires good weather in which to condition his men for the S. I. A. A., thereby making it feasible not to attempt this meet in the near future. However, the Boosters' Club has a cup to be used for track, so the meet will be held some time before the close of the school, if weather ever permits.

SPORT SCRIBBLE

BY PALMER SHAFFER.

Tribute to Herbert Newton and Harold High, who totaled over one-half the points scored by Southwestern in its track victory over Mississippi College and Union University last Saturday. Razzle-dazzle boys.

Then there's Coach William C. Rasberry and ten other Lynx tracksters who deserve a lot of credit, but will not get it because of pressology.

The tennis team lost to Lambuth College Saturday, 4 to 2. If the act is repeated May 2 at Jackson, I shall start a student petition agin Coach Haygood to schedule West Tennessee State Teachers College on Oct. 31, open date on the Lynx grid schedule. And you may dunk that, me lads.

O'Goofy thinks student aviation will have no effect on the Lynx aerial game next fall. Who cares what O'Goofy thinks?

Merrill MacDougall, who will do considerable twirling when the Lynx baseball team swings into action, complains that he has not reached his public enough during spring training. Through this column Mc wishes to state that he is feeling great and promises "the boys" at least 25 wins this summer.

Messick Wins Relay to Conquer Bobcats

A speedy quartette from Messick High ran away from the Bobcats in the mile relay at Fargason Field Friday afternoon to break a deadlock and give the Panthers a victory, 49 to 44.

Clark Porteous and Wesley Busby of the freshmen and Raymond Griffith, Messick, won three first places each to tie for high point honors.
