TUTOR SYSTEMS BRING NEW MEN HERE TO TEACH

Seven Professors Assume Duties at Southwestern

COACHES ARE NEW Increased Faculty Work Causes Growth

Due to the introduction of the tutorial system of instruction at Southwestern and the need for replacements in the faculty the number of professors has been increased by 7 this year.

Dr. Samuel H. Monk has returned to take his position on the faculty after a year's study in London at the library of the British Museum. The opportunity was afforded him when he was awarded a Research Fellowship in the Humanities in 1930 by the American Council of Learned Societies. Dr. Monk holds the position of Associate Professor of English.

Professor Robert F. Davidson, who will occupy the position of Associate Professor of Bible, has taught at the McCallie School and more recently at Hiram College. He is a Rhodes Scholar and a member of Phi Beta Kappa and O. D. K.

Professor Robert S. Pond, Associate Professor of Mathematic taught for ten years at the University of Georgia and for the past two years at Morris Harvey College in addition to other schools. He holds a Ph.D. from Kansas University and is member of Sigma XI, Chi Beta Phi. and Tau Delta Pi.

Professor Ardrey S. McIlwaine, who is an Assistant Professor of English, taught last at M. S. C. W. He belongs to Sigma Upsilon and the Modern Language Association of America.

Professor George A. McLean comes from Adrian College and will occupy the position of Assistant Professor of Sociology and Education. He is a member of the American Sociological Society. Alpha Phi Epsilon, and Iota Sigma.

Professor Coleman John Harris, Associate Professor of Biology, taught last at Morris Harvey College and is a member of Chi Beta Phi, Theta Phi Theta, A. A. A. S., and the American Botanical Society.

Philosophers Talk Crime Punishment

The Nitist Club will meet at eight o'clock next Thursday night in the Bell Room to discuss a paper on "Capital Punishment" by Johnny Hughes. Arguments are expected to be waged vociferously pro and con.

The Nitist Club is a philosophical group of students and professors which meets every two weeks to discuss problems and deep subjects. All the men students in the college are invited to attend the meeting Thursday night.

Stylus Club Meets Thursday Evening

Stylus chapter of Sigma Upsilon, national literary fraternity, will hold its first meeting of the year next Thursday night in the Bell Room of Neely Hall. No program has yet definitely been decided on but it will likely include the reading of literary selections composed by several members of the club.

Dazed Freshies Weep and Wait Whilst Savage San Hedrin Laughs in Cruelty

High Priest Joyner Pursues Stringent Course In Dealing With Breakers of Sacred Dictums

"And there shall be much weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth." So says High Priest Jinx Joyner of the Men's San Hedrin Council when he announces the policy of properly receiving the frosh into the college. The philosophy of the San Hedrin Council is that the main duty of the upperclassmen is to instruct the incoming freshmen class in those virtues which will stand them in good stead in later life. The members of the San Hedrin mean to, by close observance of the frosh, inculcate in them courtesy, respect, and a general attitude of "What ho, a jolly tally."

JUNE ELECTED CHEER LEADER

Howard Cook Has Role Of Assistant Pep Man

June Davidson, whose lively interest in Southwestern athletics has been a feature of his attendance at school, was elected head cheer leader Monday. Howard Cook, freshman peeper of ability, was elected to serve with him.

Try-outs were held in chapel Monday morning with a great display of spirit on the part of the leaders and the entire student body.

Davidson is taking his first turn at cheer leading, having been a member of the varsity eleven during the past two years. He is heart and soul behind the Lynx and transports this keen interest to the rest of the students.

Cook is an experienced leader. He was cheer leader in his high school. He shows promise of making a success at his new position here.

LYNX CLUB ADD TO THE ROSTER

Fourteen New Members In Ranks of Red Coats

The Lynx Club elected 14 men to membership in the club Monday afternoon. The new members of the organization are Dick Bunting, Dan Ross, Bob Pfrangle, Goodlet Brown, Guy Mitchell, Joe Moss, James Coleman, Charles Crump, Cy Johnson, Harte Thomas, John Streete, Russell Perry, Bill Gammage, and Robert Orr.

CLUB WORKS
The Lynx Club has general charge of the football games. The members have charge of seating arrangements and the selling of tickets. They make all plans for the visiting teams.

Harvey Drake is president of the club, Bill Taylor is vice-president, and Louis Bornman is secretary and treasurer. Other members are Paul Jones, Bill Berson, Jimmy Hamilton, Albert Erskine, Erle Howry, Elbert Huffman, Rheinhold Matheson, and Ralph Booth.

BOYS GIVE GIRL BLOOD

If little Laveine Yelvington, 11 year old lass of Clarendon, Ark., lives, it will be because of Southwestern students.

Laveine is seriously ill at the Baptist hospital and doctors despair of her life. She is suffering from a malady that is eating away her blood supply.

Sunday morning, following an announcement made in Idlewild Presbyterian Church by Dr. T. K. Young saying that Laveine needed an immediate blood transfusion, eleven Southwestern men left the services to donate their blood to the dying girl.

Miles Freeman, Southwestern graduate last year, "typed up" with the blood of Laveine and he was chosen to give 280 cubic centimeters of blood. The transfusion was made and Laveine lived. She is still in a critical condition but has a chance to recover.

Other Southwestern students who sought to give their blood to Laveine were Paul Jones, June Davidson, Travers Read, Bob Pfrangle, Frank Key, Howard White, Clair Coe, Guy Mitchell, Rodney Baine and several others whose names are not known.

Perhaps little Laveine will live to grow up and come to Southwestern some day. Certainly she is closely kin to the college now that Southwestern blood is in her veins.

Lowe Victim For Obnoxious Pest

He flees from fleas. That is the incredible accomplishment of Schuyler Lowe business manager of the Southwestern last year.

And here's how it he does it. This summer an inconsiderate cat chose the Publications Office for her home. It would have been O. K. if she hadn't insisted on having a whole family of kittens therein. But so she did and with the kittens came the fleas and thereby hangs the tale.

Lowe, hot and perspiring, rushed down into the office to get some old papers for school authorities and after rummaging an hour or so in the files he rewon the sunlight and took the papers to the office in Palmer.

Imagine his consternation when the girls in the office asked him if he had on a polka dot shirt. Lowe looked crazily at himself and screamed with rage and agony as he discovered a horde of fleas on his shirt.

BIG PARADE IS SET TO START

Frosh and Others Drum Up Crowds for Game

There'll be big doings tomorrow afternoon and "I'll tell you why." The Freshmen will meet at the end of the car line by Evergreen Hall and will march through the uptown district in a peppy parade in an effort to fill the stands with spectators when the Lynx take on the Delta State Teachers in their first game of the season.

Efforts are being made to get together a band for the occasion. The cheer leaders, of course, will be on hand to see that there is plenty of racket.

Plans for the Sewanee parade are already being made. Dame Rumor has it that the freshmen boys will be required to roll up their right pants leg above the knee and inscribe in green paint on the exposed limb the words "Down with Sewanee." For two years this custom has been observed and for two years the Tiger has been sent back to his lair beaten and downcast.

The annual bonfire which preceded the Sewanee game will be put off till the night before the Ole Miss game. During the week before the clash with the Mississippians the town freshmen will be required to bring a box a day to school to furnish material for the fire.

Berson Sets Record

Although Painter's daily announcements are sadly missed in the morning routine of chapel, it is seen that he has a most worthy and capable successor in the person of Mr. Berson. Bill is already conceded the non-stop record this early in the year. Long may he announce unheard!

Quartet Sings

A quartet from the Southwestern choir appeared last night at The Second Congregational Church and sang several numbers. The members of the quartet were Joe Mobley, John Mosby, Reinhold Matheson and Robert Pfrangle, accompanied by William Bensberg.

FRATS HEADED FOR LAST DAY HOT RUSHING

Campus Will Be Sane Again After Chatter

PLEDGE TOMORROW

Freshman Class As Good As Frosh Usually Are

Seven fraternities and five sororities on the Southwestern campus are swinging down the home stretch of the three day rushing season with the results in the balance. Tomorrow night it will all be over and once again the campus will get back to normalcy. For two days the great majority of the students haven't known whether they were coming or going.

The freshmen, too, should breathe a sigh of relief as should the freshettes after being "sweated" by this and that fraternity or sorority in order to make them say the magic "yes."

COMPETITION KEEN
Competition for pledges is unusually keen this year and nearly every Greek letter organization on the campus has redoubled its efforts to get the usual good bunch of neophytes.

It is a decidedly thrilling experience, though, for the freshettes and the freshmen to be treated so courteously by the upperclassmen, especially after the humiliating treatment received by the frosh during the first week of school when the older students tried to make the greenies feel as low as the very dust beneath their feet. What a come-down it will be after rushing is all over and the eulogized freshman finds that he is still meat for the San Hedrin and must take his daily allotment of tallies with a grin.

FROSH WARNED

Due to the kind treatment being accorded the frosh during this week the San Hedrin Council urges that all freshmen tally each other so that they will be in practice for the warm reception planned for the entire class next week.

The general consensus of opinion on the campus, as formed by Greeks from all the letter organizations is that the present freshman class is about normal, neither better nor worse than its predecessors. But you couldn't get a fraternity man or a sorority girl on the campus to say that during rush season. Until tomorrow night the frosh are THE thing.

Sororities Plan To Give Lively Parties

The first sorority party of the year is being planned by the A. O. Pi's for the week end of October 3; the day of the famed Sewanee game. The next Thursday the Girl's Undergraduate Association is planning an affair for all the girls, and the following Saturday the Chi Omega sorority will entertain.

October 24 has been spoken for by the Zeta Tau Alphas, and October 31 will be filled by the Kappa Delta's. Several dates in November have already been filled and it looks as if the fall months will not lack for gaiety.

"Tubby" Preaches

Miles Freeman, graduate from Southwestern in the class of 1931, who plans to enter Louisville Theological Seminary next week, held a service at The Second Congregational Church last night.

Kampus Kracks

Once there were two Irishmen. There have to be or there isn't any story. McCormick was taking his first flight in an airplane and Mike, the pilot, was flying over New York City. When they were up at 3000 feet, the plane went into a nosedive. "Ha, ha," exclaimed Mike. "Fifty per cent of the people down there thought we were falling." "Bogorra," admitted Mac. "and fifty per cent of the people up here thought the same thing."

LET'S BE TOLERANT

Four days of bedlam are almost at an end. The annual Greek rushing season will be concluded tomorrow. High-pressure talk will cease until another year. The freshmen who have been treated like kings for four days will be let down with a thud to the low level of mere frosh again and the campus will survive the social insanity of rushing.

When the dust of battle clears there will be many good men left outside the fraternal gates. And it is to these men that this message applies more than to the others.

Fraternities have been, are, and will be eternally narrow in the selection of men to enter their ranks. This narrowness of selection is not to be condemned for it is the essence of the fraternity. If all men were exactly alike there would be only one fraternity and consequently there would be no fraternity, for men alike do not tend to separate themselves.

There are a million types of humanity and thus there are a million types of freshmen. Just because a fellow fails to "type up" with the frats on the campus is no reason why he is not a good fellow and should be treated as such.

Let us have more tolerance, especially on a campus so small that every man is seen to have good qualities as well as bad.

PESTERING PEDESTRIANS

With a hint of cooler days in the air, the Southwestern-ward trek o'er hill and vale, through woodland glade will soon begin. Meaning that before long scores of students will be hitting the trail through Overton Park for school.

And again will passing motorists be confronted with the question whether the walker is employing such time honored means of transportation voluntarily or of necessity. "Does he want to ride or not? If I pass him up, and he wants to ride, I am snooty. If I stop, and he prefers to walk, then we are both unnecessarily inconvenienced. Hence the suggestion that all said pedestrians fly a warning flag—white signifying "I am in pursuit of highly coveted health, rosy cheeks and a balmy smile; pass me by,"—red meaning that due to cold, rain, lateness, or barking dogs, "I've walked enough; pick me up."

Other suggestions conducive to the same end are in order.

JUST A BIT OF DORM LIFE

Calvin Hall

Something or somebody is always taking the joy out of life. Jinks Joyner, high priest of the Sanhedrin, will probably testify to that fact. After his installation into that noble office he has been enthusiastic about teaching the freshmen the correct subordination to upper classmen.

COOPER ACTS

Thursday night of last week Joyner was busy at his work of tutoring a group of ten freshmen from Calvin and a few from Robb. He was punctuating his remarks with a few well placed strokes of thoroughly seasoned paddle.

He was most unceremoniously interrupted from his work by the entrance of Prof. Cooper who has always taken such a friendly interest in the well-being of all freshmen. Joyner was informed that the third floor of Calvin Hall was no place to hold an informative meeting of the Sanhedrin. The class in freshman duties was dismissed.

Evergreen Hall

With June Davidson and Fred Bearden rooming together in Stewart, there are promises of nightly musical entertainment for Evergreen Hall. Last Sunday night there was something of a singing party out on the terrace beneath the pale moonlight. June was making no end of music with his banjo, and was assisted by quite a few co-eds.

WALLS FIXTURE

Jimmy Walls professes an affection for this dormitory. At least she must, because during the summer months she went to school at Normal, slept at Evergreen, spent a two week's vacation at Holly Grove, and was back again for opening exercises last week.

Ole Miss lost two attractive co-eds when Hazel Corley and Ruth Billings came to Southwestern. And you don't see them sitting down for long, either, since they've arrived. At least not by themselves.

Clarine Wineman has left a large part of her interests at Greenville, but she promises to be with us longer than she was last spring.

WALK LOTS

Rides happen occasionally, but walks to the drug store after supper go on forever.

The shades of Mary and Roger haunt us yet, but several couples bid fair for competition.

Ida, the maid, has become an institution at Evergreen. She was the first to greet us on our arrival this fall, just as she was the last to bid us goodbye in June.

Robb Hall

Where there is music there is contentment was the theory of the Robb Hall boys when they vouched for the safety of the radio replaced after the destruction of the old one during the summer school session by someone desiring to find the resilient properties of a radio by bouncing it out of the window. The replacement of the set by Johnny Rollow, Sup't. of the Grounds, has again restored the customary musical atmosphere to the environs of Robb Hall.

PHONE IN SOON

Business with the townspeople will again be carried on when the pay telephone is restored after a vigorous attack by a wielder of an axe for the purpose of recovering two nickles vainly inserted in an effort to establish connection with central. The safety of the telephone has also been assured by the inmates of the hall.

SUE TO LOU

Dear Lou:

School has really begun and even so soon as this I saw a freshman studying. Can you believe it? But then there always are a few people like that. At least it is a bit of variety for the pros. Do you suppose they ever notice things like that?

Rushing is in full swing and everyone is enjoying the excitement as everyone always does. Pledging is Saturday night. I guess after that there will be peace and quiet again, at least for a while. I'll tell you all about it.

You know, last year Lip Read was selected to succeed Plummer as the most powerful freshman. I have been keeping my eyes peeled to see who is likely to take Lip's place but never a one do I see. These freshmen had better watch their step. When I do find "Power," I will spread the news wide and far and you shall not be the last to hear of it.

Mary Powell Abbay thought she wouldn't come back to school for a while but she changed her mind because she has to bring her little brother, Irwin, to school every day. I heard that was the reason but I've seen her so often lately strolling over the lawn with Dick Bunting that I am contemplating changing my ideas on the subject. What do you think?

Things have not changed so much as you might think. Miriam and Hinkey still drink coca-colas during off hours, Maury Hull still longs to be on the far side of the bounding blue, the girls all get self-conscious when the president takes the stage to tell us the news of the day (I must confess I am no exception to the rule). Marion Pape is keeping her eyes open for any excitement that may venture her way, Frances Durham is still helping Dr. Lackey (he needs it all right), Alice Rogers is still in all my classes and makes A's so I can hardly manage to get along, Mary Anderson still wears darling clothes but I hear she is getting lots of competition from a freshette, one Dixie Hess, who has the clothes and wears them well.

Speaking of freshettes, these are the worst bunch I ever saw! They refuse to wear their baby bonnets and they eat the hot dogs that Madam Sanhedrin bids them lead about. I don't know what is going to have to be done to them. Christine Gilmore had to dike herself out as Maggie the other day. Everyone thought that would fix her up plenty but bless me if she didn't look cute in spite of it all. Negotiations are now underway to put on a contest to see who can think of the most appropriate garb for rebellious freshettes. (Send all letters to the Grand Canyon.)

I heard a certain freshman yesterday say that he had seen cute girls but that Margaret Tallechet had them all in the shade. Margaret, here's the chance of a life time, don't let it get by unheeded.

Do you suppose anyone could tell me who has left school and caused so much sadness to Milly and Katy? It certainly is a shame.

I had better sling this letter in the mail before someone sees it and forthwith murders the author.

LYNX TRAMPLE FRESHMEN FOR PRACTICE GAME

Frosh crash through Team To Score Touchdown

BACKS LOOK SHIFTY

Line Rather Slow, Punts Uniformly Rotten

Southwestern's varsity showed the frosh how the game of football really should be played when they downed the Bobcats to the tune of a 39 to 6 score in a regulation game played last Saturday.

The varsity kicked off to the yearlings and the game was on. The varsity was represented by the second string contingent and consequently the kick was not the best. The Bobcats tore into the shock troops of the Lynx and pretty soon "Red" McLarty smashed through tackle for the first score of the game.

The second string boys were re-

HELEN TWELVETREES STARS AT ORPHEUM

Helen Twelvetrees, whose rise to movie stardom has been nothing short of sensational, is starred in "Bad Company," dramatic picture at the R-K-O Orpheum the week beginning Friday, Sept. 25th.

Opposite her is Ricardo Cortez, who has been staging a rapid comeback during the past few months. John Garrick, Paul Hurst and Harry Carey also are in the cast. The picture is based on the suffering and anxiety borne by a girl when she discovers shortly after her marriage that she has married a gangster instead of a respectable lawyer.

Cortez, as a gang leader, cruel and relentless, is determined to slay the husband so he can have the bride all to himself. He sets a trap, dangerously wounds the husband and then slays the bride's brother, who also is involved with the gangs. Nearly crazed by the gang chieftain's murderous orgy, the bride takes it upon herself to do something the law forces have been tryin' to do for months—get rid of him. And she does it in such a manner to give the picture a thrilling climax.—Adv.

NEW MEN FIGHT FOR PLACES ON VARSITY TEAM

Junior College Men Show Up Well on Gridiron

BOLSTER THE RESERVES

Three Backs and Five Men For Line Present

Southwestern's football team has been strengthened by the addition of a number of junior college men who have come to Southwestern to display their wares to Coaches Haygood and Miller.

Three backs and five linemen are now in the Lynx fold and have been making a favorable showing in their respective positions on the Fargason gridiron.

"Butch" Love, of Kingsland, Ark., comes to the Lynx from A. & M. College at Monticello, Ark. Love plays a mean halfback and from pre-season indications great things will be done by this hard driving player. Previous to entering Southwestern, Love played two years at quarter for the Arkansas school.

Another back who has been creating quite a furore on the field is Jonny Burnett, a halfback, who hails from Jonesboro, Ark. Johnny played two years on the team of Arkansas State College before coming to Southwestern. Burnett is a blocking back and no doubt will play an important part in the Lynx machine during the coming season.

Arthur Womble is a half from Hamburg, Ark. He played for two years at Monticello A. & M. before coming to the Lynx.

Southwestern's line will be strengthened by the addition of two tackles from junior colleges this year. The newcomers are Toxey Fortenberry, and Shelby Ruffin. Fortenberry played for two years at Holmes Junior College at Goodman, Miss., before coming to Memphis. Ruffin played for two years at Jones County Junior college.

Two new ends will bolster up the Lynx line also. The new men who will serve on the Terminals for the Lynx line also. The new men who dale, Miss., and Soak "Lather" Sanderson of Stuttgart, Ark. Branch played for Holmes Junior College and Sanderson was the shining light at Arkansas State College.

Jerome Brown of Ellisville, Miss., is the Lynx's new aspirant for the center position. Brown played for Jones County Junior College along with Ruffin for the past two years.

I'm The Gink

I'm the condescending gink who lolls about the campus giving everybody the eye and criticizing everybody but myself. I like to get a little group organized under a tree, in the hall, or in a parked car and from the heights of our social eminence look down on the faults of mere men. I love to get "catty" and I like to infect others with the germ.

Of course I know it's small town stuff, this gossipy existence, but I like it. You know there really must be some criticism or my elevated social position would be crowded with poor common folk. My blue blood shudders at the thought. And so I go on day in and day out destructively criticizing. And at this game there is no one else as skilled as I am for I'm such an old hand at it and anyway—I'm the Gink!

CHOIR TO SING LOT THIS YEAR

St. Nick's Songsters Are Ready for Vespers

Louis "Saint" Nicholas, director of the Southwestern choir, is planning a year of unusual activity, with a program at the 2nd Congregational church being the first of the year. Nicholas called for a practice Tuesday afternoon in the chapel and was well pleased with the spirit of co-operation evidenced by all members present.

The contraltos are, Catherine Bigelow, Virginia Richmond, Grace Carkeet, Alicia Keisker, Lyle Stanage, Elizabeth Smith, and Margaret Kimbrough.

The tenors are, Joe Mobley, J. P. Hollifield, Tom Holloway, William Bensberg, L. T. Webb, Joe Moss, Charles Power, John Walker, and Richard Bunting.

HAYGOOD PULLS GAME TO TRAIN FOR TIGER MEN

Coaches Expect to Learn How Lynx Stack Up

VARSITY TO START

Game Hailed As Strong Competition

As a preliminary warm-up game to the classic struggle with Sewanee on Oct. 3 Coach Jimmy Haygood has arranged a game with Delta State Teachers' College on Fargason Field tomorrow afternoon at 3:15 o'clock.

Negotiations with Coach Zimoski of the Teachers were concluded Monday morning.

Haygood has been perplexed by the problem of having to enter the first and possibly the most important game of the season without his team having any experience with spirited competition. He has been trying since the opening of school to arrange a game for tomorrow and his efforts brought success only with the Teachers.

GAME NO SET UP

The game tomorrow will be far from a set up. The Teachers last year whipped the Bobcats in impressive style and this year the team has been strengthened and Haygood is looking for a hard game.

The regular varsity eleven will be in the game, but if the opposition

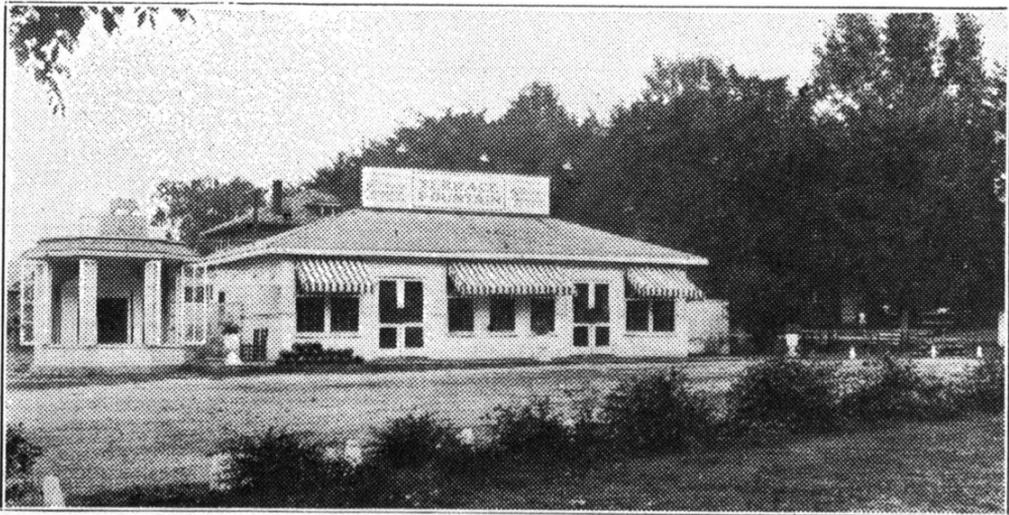

THE LINE-UP

The line-up is undecided and Coach Haygood failed to state conclusively who would start the game and who would not. The probable line-up will see the two regular ends, Johnny Hughes and Elliot "Cotton" Perrette at the terminals. Sid Herbert, Toxie Fortenberry, or Shelby Ruffin are slated to begin the game at the tackle positions. Capt. Bill Walker, if his injured leg has healed sufficiently, will fill one of the guard holes with Claude McCormick or Joe Wells as his partner. Jimmy Hughes will start at center and most likely will be replaced by Jerome Brown to give the latter a little more experience.

BACKS ALL SET

In the backfield Harold High will direct the team from the quarterback position. Sheriff Knight will play fullback, Herbert Newton will be placed at half back and the other half back position being very much contested. Chauncey Barbour, Meeks Hinson, Arthur Womble, Johnny Burnett and Butch Love are all eligible and willing to start the game.

placed shortly after this by the real varsity and things began to hum for the frosh. Ray Sanders blocked one of the Bobcats' punts and soon afterwards High galloped some 30 yards to score the initial touchdown for the Lynx.

RESERVES GO

After the rest period of the half, the reserves went in again for the varsity and did rather well. Butch Love went on a gallop of 70 yards down the field to score again for the uppers. Chauncey Barbour displayed his wares to the crowd present by plunging over for a touchdown through the center of the line.

HIGH RUNS

When the varsity was again put into play, things really happened on the gridiron. High showed some plain and fancy running for the admiration and approval of the spectators. He ran one touchdown over after a run of 65 yards and then made a 50 yard run but was nabbed on the goal line to prevent a score. Once again he got into a clear field and slipped and fell when he had a 90 yard sprint before him. Hinson scored the last Lynx touchdown when he intercepted a pass and raced 30 yards for the score.

LINE SLOW

The showing of the Lynx was not exactly gratifying to Coach Miller who had charge of the performance while Coach Haygood was out of town. The backs did their share but the line couldn't seem to get going. The line charged out slowly and did not seem to be able to get the heavier freshman team out of play. The showing of the punters was another point where the Lynx showed a weak point. The punts were nothing to speak of in the way of exceptionally good.

The Lynx have put in some hard licks on their defects during the last week and quite an improvement will show up at the game tomorrow.

PANHELL GIRLS GIVE FIRST TEA

Receives Freshettes Into Southwestern

The Woman's Pan-Hellenic Council of Southwestern entertained with a tea last Saturday afternoon, 4 o'clock till 6 o'clock, in the cloister of Palmer Hall, complimenting the freshettes and transfers and initiating them into the traditions and spirit of the college.

The guests were received by the following members of the council: Elizabeth Smith, Nelle Martin, Kappa Delta; Margaret Mason, Anna Hudson, Chi Omega; Mary Allie Taylor, Virginia Richmond, A. O. Pi; Mary Anderson, Dorothy Jane Kerr, Zeta Tau Alpha; and Lyle Stanage, Margaret Gunn, Tri Delta.

The lace-covered tea table was decorated with a centerpiece of pink and white roses and pink tapers burning in silver holders. The mints and ice course also carried out the pink and silver motif.

The tea, which is an annual campus affair, was one of the first entertainments of the season.

YEAR BOOK HAS HIT LONG TRAIL

Editor Berson Is Working Hard On Tough Job Editing Annual

Work which began with the signing of contracts at the end of the second semester of last semester for the 1932 Lynx has been going on during the summer with the planning of the book by the Editor-in-Chief, Bill Berson, and the Business Manager, Albert Erskine, and has begun in earnest with the taking of the individual photographs for the book.

SELECT STAFF

The editor stated Tuesday that he expected to pick his full editorial staff in the near future and that anyone interested in doing any of the work on the staff this year should apply to him as soon as possible. It is not yet known when the Business Manager will select his staff members.

No details as to the plan of the book have been issued by the Editor but he stated that on a visit to the printer during the past summer he selected a pleasing color design for the book and an unusual cover design.

AWARD CONTRACTS

Contracts which were awarded last spring were given to the following companies: Benson Printing Co., Nashville, Tenn.; Alabama Engraving Co., Birmingham, Ala.; Cassady's Studio, Photographers, Memphis.

Benson and the Alabama Engraving Co. did the work on last year's annual. Benson is the largest printing house in the South that specializes in the work on college annuals. They will also do the binding of the book.

At the time of this writing only about 200 of the students had had their pictures made for the annual. Cassady has been using a room in Palmer Hall for a campus studio to facilitate the making of pictures. Campus scenes for the view section have not yet been made.

Wax Words With Oxford, England

Southwestern debaters like international disputes.

Last year the forensic fiends took on the Cambridge, England, team and now they are making plans to meet the Oxford University team in a debate on the question, Resolved: That American Civilization Constitutes a Greater Danger to the World Than That of Russia."

The debate, which will take place in the latter part of October, will be held in Hardie Auditorium.

Try-outs for the honor of representing Southwestern have been held but no definite choices, have been made.

Ronald Hayhoe is in charge of arrangements for the debate.

Prof. A. P. Kelso is debating coach.

PROF. DAVIDSON TALKS TO BOYS

Speaks On Christian Life In Regard To Campus

Prof. Robert F. Davidson made a speech to the members of the Southwestern Men's Bible Class Sunday morning on Christian life in relation to the campus.

The class is hoping to raise the general moral tone of the campus and the speeches for the first two meetings have treated with that subject. Also the members of the class will begin an interesting study of the book, "Manhood of the Master," by Fosdick, next Sunday.

Paul Jones, president of the class, hopes to make the study of this book as important a part of the student's program as the study of his text-book.

James Gregory, president of the Ministerial Club, will lead the program Sunday morning.

The books for study were received at the first part of this week and are on the reserve shelf in the library.

Girls Give Teas In Honor of New Girls

With rushing now in full swing the members of all the sororities are busy with numerous teas, open houses, and other forms of entertainment for the benefit of the gay and gabbing freshettes.

Yesterday, today and tomorrow the vocal and persuasive powers of all members will be heard by many an awed and puzzled member of the class of '35. Each sorority has mapped out a program of teas for each of the three days and when the sun goes down on sorority row Saturday afternoon a great sigh of relief will go up.

HONOR COUNCIL TAKES CONTROL

All Freshmen Should Read This Article

HOW PLAN WORKS

Trials and Penalties Are Explained Herewith

The Honor Council will officially install Tuesday.

The purpose of the Honor Council is to foster the Honor Spirit at Southwestern.

It is composed of representatives of each class and is elected by the students. The representatives for the Freshman Class will be elected on the third Monday in October.

STUDENTS' DUTIES

It is the duty of all students, as indicated in the pledge signed on matriculation, to help in maintaining the Honor Spirit and to report to some member of the Council any dishonesty in academic pursuits which he or she may have witnessed. The members of the Council have a similar duty. This refers not merely to tests but to all class work and preparation of assignments, including improper use of references. The student should have no trouble in deciding what is and is not dishonest work as the professor will usually let the student know what he expects to be his own work.

METHOD OF TRIAL

When a student is reported to the Honor Council as caught or suspected of dishonest practices, it becomes the duty of the Council to call whatever witnesses may be necessary and try the student so suspected. If he is found guilty there is in general only one penalty: the immediate expulsion of the guilty student, the Dean being immediately informed of such action. If the Council desires to show leniency to a student found guilty of dishonest practices in the penalty of immediate expulsion to academic pursuits it may commute immediate suspension from the College for a period of not less than one semester.

Where extremely extenuating circumstances are involved the Council may invoke other penalties at its discretion. The name and charge and penalty of all persons found guilty and expelled or suspended by the Council shall be announced to the student body by the president of the Council.

APPEAL TO FACULTY

In event the Council has rendered a verdict of guilty or not guilty, the defendant, the accuser, or the minority of the Council may appeal to the faculty if they feel that an unjust decision has been made by the Council after duly trying the case. The appeal must be made within twenty-four hours after the decision of the Council has been made, otherwise the decision of the Council stands.

If the faculty reverses the decision of the Council a re-trial is recommended. The verdict reached by the Council in the re-trial is final and the case is closed.
