LYNX EMBARK TO MEET UNION ELEVEN TONIGHT

Prying Reporter Finds Out How First Year Students Spend Idle Off Hours

Studying, Loafing, Eating, and Many Other Things Occupy Frosh's Time

"Gosh but these dopey freshmen can think of the dumbest things to do." Which remark, made by an upperclassman and overheard by the Sou'wester's chief inquiring reporter more than aptly describes the situation. Freshmen and freshettes alike do undoubtedly waste their spare time in the oddest of ways.

Consider Freshette Jane Erskine's case. At every lunch period she whips over to a certain home on Stonewall to eat spaghetti, yards upon yards of it. She explains that it (spaghetti) promotes digestion or sump'n.

SOCIAL ROOM

Palmer Hall's Social Room is the daily rendezvous of all of Southwestern's future Einsteins, Clarence Darrows, and such, or so it would seem. Cliff Mabie and J. M. Hart would probably feel lost the remainder of the day if they were denied their customary argument, in hardly what one would call low tones, over some intricate trig problem. In the meantime, John Dix tries to concentrate on his studies, but finds it well nigh impossible. Maurice Carlson, however, is so engrossed in reading a newly-arrived love letter that he doesn't pay much attention to the noise. The roof could fall down for all he would know or care.

Ping-pong, your correspondent read somewhere, is valuable as a muscle builder. That probably accounts for the mob daily playing this grand old game of the ancients down in the supply store.

SOME WORK

Richard Mays, Robert Williams, Gene Vieh and Knox Tate hie themselves there quite often, while Alex Gilliam and Charles Beecher, who spend their spare time passing cokes and peanut bars over the counter to those who want them, look on with a bored indifference, in the manner of Tallulah Bankhead.

Bobby Metcalf, Walker Lewis, Tom Wellford and Henry Nall might well call themselves "The Four Musketeers," for they are never out of sight of each other for even a moment.

Debaters Plan To Meet Every Week

The Debating club held its first meeting of the year Wednesday morning after chapel. The purpose of the meeting was to plan weekly meetings, in order to train the club members in the art of public speaking.

PLAYER TRIALS TODAY AT 1:30

Five Judges To Select New Members

The tryouts for the Southwestern Players will be held this afternoon in chapel from 1:30 'til 2 and from 3 'til 4.

The judges for these tryouts will be Julia Marie Schwinn, Ann Galbreath, Margaret Tallichet, Alvan Tate, and Russell Cross.

The aspirants will read lines from "The Play's the Thing," and from some other play not yet chosen, and will be admitted according to their ability shown in these impromptu roles.

The Players have one of the most live-wire of campus organizations. Last year they gave a play in the spring to help raise money for the college's financial campaign. A large number of students have signified their intention of trying out for the Players.

Alumni Magazine Be Out In October

The first edition of the Alumni Magazine will come out in October, Prof. Marion MacQueen announced yesterday. Mr. MacQueen is editor of the magazine.

The magazine is published four times a year and contains articles written by alumni and about alumni. One of the features of the magazine is the class correspondence plan, which was inaugurated last year.

CLASS PLAN

Under this plan each class has a representative, and he writes news about his class for each issue. This is the fifth year of the publication of the Alumni magazine. Miss Olive Walker is the assistant editor of the publication.

A Jinx?

The evil spell has been cast over Room 300 Robb Hall, or at least all the occupants think so. The room which is a four room suite has had all of its residents on the injured list since the start of the football season.

First, Grover Durant was laid low with a badly sprained ankle. Next to feel the spell was Fred Bearden, who injured his side. David Edgington succumbed to the jinx with minor injuries received in the Alabama game, and to top it all Andy Edgington hurt his ankle.

None of the roomers can explain the cause for the jinx. However, the freshmen have suggested that the High Priest is the true reason for it all.

EVACUATE LAIR TO MEET UNION IN JACKSON

Team After First Win Of Season

INITIAL S. I. A. A. FOE

Lynx To Meet Light And Fast Eleven

Southwestern's gridiron warriors will go after their first victory of the season tonight when the Lynx aggregation meets the Bulldog of Union University at Jackson, Tenn. The game will be the only engagement of the season that the Lynx will play under the arc lights.

The encounter will mark the meeting of the first S.I.A.A. opponent of the year, and will give the Southwestern team a chance to head the conference should they win the contest.

UNION LIGHT

Dispatches from Jackson say that the Union team is a fast though somewhat light aggregation and is primed to give the Lynx a trimming. Last year, the Southwestern team won a victory over the Bulldogs by a rather overwhelming score. The Union team is hoping to avenge the defeat this season.

The Lynx have spent a week of hard labor in preparedness for the game. The weak points noted by the coaches during the Alabama game have been carefully gone over during practice sessions, and the team will no doubt show an improved eleven.

The Lynx have been working on their aerial attack, and if their ground game fails to click, they will no doubt take to the air. Another of the points that has been given a great deal of attention this week is the defense. Linesmen have been instructed carefully by the coaches, and an improvement is due along that line.

The game will be the season's opener for the Union team and their exact quality is somewhat unknown. However, they are out to give the Lynx a real battle for a victory.

Miss Worthington Will Speak To Class

The Women's Bible Class is getting along splendidly under the capable leadership of Mollie Lyon. Each Sunday the programs grow more interesting and the specially planned music adds much to its enjoyment.

Sunday, Thelma Worthington who attended the Southwestern Christian Union's Retreat will speak on "Moulding Our Characters."

More girls are urged to attend. This is a campus activity and needs the support of every student. As yet, only dormitory girls have attended and a special invitation is sent to all town students who have not affiliated with any other Sunday Bible Class.

Z.T.A. Have College Inn At Fairgrounds

The Zeta Tau Alphas of Tennessee and Arkansas have again opened the "College Inn" at the Fair as they have had it the last few years.

There "Fair Goers" are able to obtain meals and refreshments. Students are invited to visit the Inn and to eat there if they are in the Fair Grounds at dinner time.

TO PICK STAFF OF SOU'WESTER

Writers To Be Named From 30 Aspirants

The staff of the Sou'wester will be selected next week. A number of students have signified their desire to work on the paper but as yet no definite crew of writers has been named.

All students who wish to try for the staff are asked to see the editor, if they haven't already done so. About 30 have put in their applications for writing and have been given assignments. From this group a staff of about 15 will be selected.

NEXT ISSUE

Announcement of the staff will be made in the columns of the publication next issue. All members of the Sou'wester staff are automatically made members of the Press Club, college journalistic organization.

The assistant editor of the Sou'wester will not be selected for another three weeks. This position will be given to the student who has shown the most ability and interest during the first month's work.

Student Council To Meet Friday Oct. 14

The next meeting of the Student Council will be held Friday, Oct. 14, in the private dining room. President Harold High has set this date and requests that all the members be present as there are important matters to be discussed.

STUDENTS PICK COSMOPOLITAN

College Humor, Good Housekeeping Named

The majority of the magazine reading Southwestern students are Cosmopolitan inclined. Those who were unanimously in favor of the Cosmopolitan for the best magazine on earth were Kathryn Harris, Ella Kate Malone, Bill Gammage, Freshette Fisher, and Freshette Watson.

Good Housekeeping followed Cosmopolitan a close second. Such campus celebrities as Ann Galbreath and Katy B. Reid praise its contents from the first page to the last. Freshette Naill also says that Good Housekeeping is her favorite magazine.

NEW YORKER SCORES

Pud Mahan seems to have a preference for the intellectual magazines. She prefers the New Yorker, and steadfastly denies that there is any other more worthwhile magazine. Pud would pick a magazine with a high "falutin'" name.

DETECTIVE STORIES

Bob Sigler says his favorite is Current Events. And Sara Gemmill, who, of course, was interviewed with Bob, prefers The Literary Digest. Zelda O'Brien likes Detective Stories.

Theresa Canale likes to read Child Life. Even though these students declare that these magazines are their favorites there is quite a bit of doubt regarding their truthfulness. Can you figure Sigler reading a Current Event magazine?

COLLEGE HUMOR

College Humor finds followers in Joe Moss, Freshette Bruce, and Harvey Drake. Joe likes the jokes, Harvey likes the stories, and Freshette Bruce likes to look at the pictures.

PREFER STUDIES

Among the unusual preferences: Clough Eaton says his favorite is Pep. Magazine or breakfast food, Clough? Grace Braun prefers Screen Snapshots. Frank Kimbrough is strong for Physical Culture. Herb Pierce and Ned Wright haven't time to read magazines. Ned says he had much rather read his Spanish and his Chemistry. Oh, yeah?

KAMPUS KRAX

"That pig is almost white, isn't he?"
 "Yep, but we call him 'Ink.'"
 "How come?"
 "Because he keeps running out of the pen!"

The bath attendant had a bad habit of coming into Miss Augusta's compartment before she had completely re clothed herself. One morning she said to him, "John, you ought to knock before you come in. Some day you might come in while I was undressed."

John—"Oh, no, I always take the precaution to peek through the keyhole before I come in."

Cobb: "Let me chew your gum?"
 Tucker: "Upper or lower?"

Mary has a little skirt,
 It is too scant by half—
 Who cares for Mary's little lamb
 Now they can see her calf?

Johnnie (who had never seen a negro): "But Uncle, is she black like that all over?"

Uncle: "Why—yes."
 Johnnie: "Gosh, Uncle, you know everything, don't you?"

Lots of girls use dumbbells to get color in their cheeks—and lots of girls use color in their cheeks to get dumbbells.

THE HONOR COUNCIL MIGHT BE CALLED SUSPENDERS FOR COLLEGE BREACHES.

"Young man, do you know anything about carpentry?"
 "Sure!"

"Do you know how to make a Venetian blind?"
 "Sure, I'll poke me finger in his eye!"

"And little man, what do you know about Moses?"

"Please teacher, it's my first Sunday here and I don't know anybody."

He was just handing her a line, just stringing her along,—gosh, but she was a sucker—and he was a fisherman.

Mrs. Newlywed (holding up a silk nightgown): "Isn't it gorgeous! And to think that it came from a poor little insignificant worm!"

Hubby: "Yeah, darn it, and I'm that fool worm."

A teacher sent a note home to the mother of a rather odorous pupil explaining the situation.

She received the following reply: "Tommy ain't no rose. Don't smell him. Learn him!"

Cohen (entering delicatessen store): "Gif me some of that salmon."
 Proprietor — "That's not salmon, that's ham."

Cohen—"Vell, who asked you what it vas?"

"Every time I see grandpa's sword I want to go to war."
 "Well?"

"But every time I notice his wooden leg I cool down."

Little Question for Today
 Have you ever seen a man who could look intelligent while he shaves his upper lip?

A campus big shot recently promised his girl some flowers for her birthday. He wrote her a note which read: "What kind of flowers do you like?"

Back came the answer: "Orchids they are so rare."

Back went his: "But girls are not." And with his note went a bunch of dandelions.

Little tapeworm to Papa tapeworm: Pop can't we have anything, but beans for supper?

Pappa tapeworm: Nope, that's all in sight.

'Twixt a jailer and a jeweler

SHOW YOUR INTEREST

One freshman asked the question, "Why don't the students come out to watch the team practice?" and a rather disturbed upperclassman stammered out some kind of an excuse. But the question before the house really is just what the frosh wanted to know.

In defense, it might be said that quite a few students do drop by in the afternoons to see the squad at work while the vast majority never give a thought to the daily practices. Surely the team means more to the students and Southwestern than this lack of interest seems to indicate. Games are won not on the football field but in the daily practices. Were it not for the hard licks put in during these daily sessions, no team could ever hope to win.

The practices often become a drudgery to the players, and they need a cheery word to spruce them up. No better sign of the students' interest can be exhibited than the coming out to watch the daily practices from time to time. The more encouragement the team gets, the more spirit they will put into their work. The more work the team can do the better the team will be. So in reality, when you go to see the gridiron candidates work out you are aiding the team.

A number of students have already been attending the afternoon sessions. But a few can easily be supplanted by a large number within a short time. Let's show the football players that we are really behind them to the end of the road and then some.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Calvin Hall

Doctor Bassett is strictly a Latin professor and does not encourage electrical experiments. The other night a Scotch member of Calvin Hall dropped a nickel into the telephone with a thread tied to a hole in the coin.

The thread broke and the coin clogged the phone. Unknowing inmates continued to drop coins in until the fabulous amount of thirty-five cents had been collected by the phone. Then some of the boys began to experiment. They believed that if they could touch the wires together they would get central to return their money.

They had rubbed the wires raw and were ready to make a new contribution to science when Dr. Bassett came in and halted the budding young geniuses in their destructive work.

Evergreen Hall

Pledging is over and Evergreen Hall is a better place to spend the evenings for now all students can get together and "Bull" sessions are starting again.

Ann Sullens and Susie Ellen Knowlton are the new Chi Omegas in the dorm; Mary McD. Eddins and Adelia McConnell went A. O. Pi; and Mary Merhle is a Tri-Delta "little" sister.

The dumbest stunt yet was pulled by the two freshmen who were afraid to come in at 3:00 P. M. and stood at the door timidly knocking, scared to death; after waiting in vain for so long a time they gave up hope and left, never to return again.

ELECT OFFICERS

Monday night a house meeting was held and officers for this year were elected. Martha Burton is president, Nell Davis vice-president, and the proctors are Hazel Vorley, Thelma Worthington and Olga Hartmann.

Friday, Nell Davis surprised everyone by appearing at dinner without her golden locks. Nell says that she feels like the "Shorn Lamb."

Ann claims that she takes her daily dozen by walking the flagpole outside her window but as no one else rises at such unearthly hours it can't be proven.

Stewart Hall

Stewart Hall was somewhat infested with sickness this week. Four of the students were under the weather. They were Messrs. Red McLarty, Cole, Henry, and Womble.

Calvin Hall has proved to be too great an attraction for some of the residents, and they have fled to take up residence on the campus. The movers are Sid Hebert, Joe Moss, and Carroll Cloar.

Well, now that rushing is over and the football team is back from Alabama, the upperclassmen have deemed it necessary to make the rounds at night, "disciplining" the newcomers.

The frosh hint of plans to make common cause, but in the meantime Sears-Roebuck reports that sales of corduroy pants have tripled in the last week (they seem to have a unique shock-absorbing property).

The most universally cursed out thing at Stewart is that doggone radio in the social room, which all day and all night does everything but play good music. By the way, we agree on another thing—it is hoped that the lady next door is unable to meet the next installment on that piano.

Robb Hall

The fan mail of "Our Sophisticated Parson" seems to indicate that he made headway socially as well as financially and educationally on his commercial tour of the South this summer. He has received several letters all in feminine handwriting from points south, proving that he made a great impression on the weaker sex. He is also making more calls of a "religious" nature than usual this year. They seem to be restricted to a certain house over on Hawthorne St., where Miss Catherine Campbell lives.

LOTS OF NOISE

There was a pre-band practice in room 205 Monday afternoon that drove the occupants of the hall out into the dark and damp world. If the cheering section needs noise this band will be some asset.

Miss Mary Quin Duke of Clarksdale with her escorts was parading the dormitories in search of "Deacon" Thomas last Monday. This caused quite a sensation.

Another procession of girls entered Robb and had wandered to the second floor where "Ladies' Man" Gregory resides. However, the parson told them it wouldn't be a bad idea to depart while all was quiet, and they did.

Campus Candle

Well it's all over but the shouting and all the frosh are duly pledged. At the various houses Saturday night, the proud Greeks were introducing their neophytes very elaborately and the air was thick with congratulatory remarks. After all there is nothing quite like rushing. (Thank heavens, murmurs ourselves, in a scared undertone.)

Martha Johnson had a very intriguing little book called "Mind Your P's and Q's." It is a graphology—handwriting analyzer to you. With it you can learn all sorts of unexpected things about yourself.

One sweet little thing discovered she showed decided evidence of treachery and deceit, and was her face red? It's lots of fun. You must try it sometime.

Ione Wall asked me to announce to the world, in general, that she has not received all that money that she is supposed to have inherited this summer.

On my asking if she intended to build a new stadium with her fortune, she smiled coyly and said "No." But she averred that she thought that she would install some padded covers for the radiators in the cloister, and buy us a "sody pop" if we would print her sad story.

The Chi O's are going to strut their stuff Saturday night and at the same time Bill Taylor is opening the College Club. It seems that there are plenty of places to go and things to do. Plenty of fun for everybody.

Mary Mac Eddins is something, being chosen a football sponsor. On the campus a week or so, and already one of the chosen few. That is almost a record of some kind.

LYNX DEFEATED BY ALABAMA IN OPENING GAME

Hold Crimson Tide To 13 Points In First Half

HIGH INDIVIDUAL STAR

Recovered Fumble Paves Way For Lynx Score

The fighting Lynx of Southwestern lost to the University of Alabama last Saturday 45 to 6. The game was much closer than the score indicates, for Southwestern held the big red machine to a single touchdown in each of the first two quarters.

It was then that the reserve power of Coach Thomas' machine began to tell on the tired Lynx. Alabama used three full teams against Southwestern, while the Lynx only inserted seven fresh men.

Southwestern has the distinction of having scored on the team that has a very good chance to lead the Southern conference this year.

RECOVER FUMBLE

High got off a quick kick which Bellini, the Tide safety man fumbled. Perrette recovered for the red and black, and Captain Harold High drove over for the touchdown from the five yard line. High's kick for extra point was blocked.

HIGH STARS

The individual hero of the game was this same High who starred on defense, as well as making two runs of 40 and 36 yards returning kick-offs.

Cotton Perrette and Claude McCormick stood out on defense, although the entire Lynx line put up a stubborn resistance.

NEWTON PUNTS WELL

Herbert Newton gave a nice exhibition of punting, despite his foot injury.

PLAN PROGRAM GIRLS' SPORTS

Athletic Committee Is Named By Director

Although the girls on the campus are allowed to have only inter-class and inter-sorority competition, Louise Stratmann, the girls' athletic director, has planned a more extensive program for this year.

The program is going to function thru the Southwestern Women's Athletic Association and captains will be appointed by this committee to be in charge of the different sports.

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

The Athletic Committee at present will consist of Louise Stratman; Margaret Hyde, senior Athletic Captain; Elizabeth Markham, junior Captain; Olga Hartmann, sophomore Athletic Captain; and a freshette who will be elected later in the season.

Captains of sports that have already been appointed are: Helen Gordon and Jimmie Kate Johnson, basketball; Margaret Tallichet and Lillian Gautier, tennis; and Margaret MacNicol, swimming.

BOBCATS TO INVADE MISSISSIPPI

Shoeless

Chicken High, Southwestern luminary at Alabama, was inadvertently forced to "shine" on the streets of Tuscaloosa by gaily tripping around a la Grecian nymph, Huck Finn, or what have you.

When the football game was over, the men returned to find their garments they had left in the bus either lost, stolen, maimed or missing.

Chicken's shoes were gone. Another prominent backfield man returned without his scanty-breeches. Shirts had disappeared. Ties weren't there. "Does Alabama have no honor system," Pickens cried.

Chicken declares that as a representative Lynx-cat he would like to do some pussy-footing around the Alabama campus and find out just who stole his shoes, Cotton's only tie, and —'s B. V. D.'s.

BOBCATS FORM STRONG TEAM OF PREP STARS

All-Memphis Grid Men Plentiful

HAS FAST BACKFIELD

Two All-State Players On Squad

Three weeks of hard and steady practice has brought something of a shape to the Bobcat football team. The squad which numbers something like 25 candidates at the present looms as a very formidable outfit.

The team has a number of classy players on its roster and from this group of former prep stars a strong freshman eleven is being formed. Coaches Haygood and Miller have been drilling the first year men for their first game which will be next Friday.

GOOD BACKS

The team has a number of backfield men who have the required class for college football material. The list is headed by a number of former All-Memphis football players. Hutchie Harwood, former captain of Central High; Richard Whitaker, J. R. Mann, Banks Christian are the backs who have been named on the mythical All-Memphis team.

Hilliard Jordan, a small speedy little back from Kosciusko, Miss., was an All-Mississippi state quarterback for two straight years and has been showing up well in practice. Harvey Jones and Richard Mays are other backs that have done well in the early sessions.

STAR WINGMEN

The line, which at first appeared to be rather weak, has gained some men who will furnish the required heft. At present, the line seems to be rather strong. Murray Rasberry, All-State man, seems to be destined for one end position, while Henry Hammond, All-Memphis man from Central, is a leading contender for the other flank. Other wingmen who have shown up well are William Hawkins and Jimmy Haygood, Jr.

STRONG LINE

The other line positions have a number of candidates trying for them. Neal Tapp, another All-Memphis of last year, is working for tackle post, while Jack Lloyd, All-Memphis center with the championship Tech High team, will probably fit in at guard or center.

The center situation finds a pair of foremost candidates. Fritz Schultz, All-Memphis man, and Douglas Grymes, are the leading aspirants for the pivot position.

GUARD CANDIDATES

James Rogers, Francis Benton, Walker Lewis Eugene McKendrick, Dorsey Barefield, and a host of others have done good work in the middle of the line. The supply of linesmen seems to be light though fast.

Mary had a little lamb,
She kept him on a shelf;
And every time he wagged his tail
He spanked his little self.

2nd Cannibal: "Yo' is, everybody's eaten."

: : LYNX WINGMAN : :

ALTERNATE CAPT. COTTON PERRETTE

Cotton Perrette, stellar end, is one of the Lynx stars counted upon heavily by Coach Haygood in the Union game tonight. Perrette turned in a fine performance at Alabama last week and was one of the shining defensive players of the game. It was his recovery of a 'Bama fumble that paved the way for the Southwestern score.

Lynx Players Review Alabama Game, Telling Big Moments and Thrills

Inquiring Reporter Finds That Players Were Both Amused and Excited

There are many and varied comments on the part of the Lynx players in regard to the Alabama game. The inquiring reporter of the Sou'wester had a tough time making the boys talk, but here are a few views and post mortems on the game.

Jack Crosby, playing his first varsity game, avers that he received his biggest thrill tackling Hillman Holley when the latter had a clear path for a touchdown. He confessed that tackling "Hurry" Cain was like "Shooting his shoulder against the Science Building."

Sid Hebert tells of a little Jew quarterback who remonstrated with Sid about tackling him by the jersey by saying, "I'm just too fast for you to tackle right."

"Doc" Talley got his thrill out of the play on which High scored the touchdown. "A perfect play," said Talley.

"Cotton" Perrette was too modest to tell us of any of the many plays in which he starred. However, when quizzed about his black eye, the dashing blonde replied that an unknown knee hit him in a pile-up.

Freshman Benton of Bessemer, who loyally followed the Lynx, tells us of Holley being brought down in a clear field from behind by "Chicken" High. "You know," quoth "Rabbit" Benton, "Hillman caught Harold once that way in high school. I'll bet the revenge was sweet to Chicken."

Pickens was amused by the fact that someone stole High's shoes. Anyway, Mr. High received a brand new pair to compensate him for his loss. "Wish they'd have got mine," grumbled Pick.

Art Womble was struck by the accuracy of 'Bama in getting the men out of play. "They did not hit particularly hard, but were very effective in their blocking," Coach Miller was amused at Bearden. Fred remarked on coming out of the game that he wished he could always find as easy a man to play against as the Alabama guard. The guard in question was Hupke, a candidate for All-Southern.

Fox allowed the following: "They kind of slipped up on you and blocked not very hard. It was painless but effective."

When "Little" McCollum was asked what struck him most about the game, he replied laconically, "The Alabama guards and tackles."

Lynx Club Member To Get Red Blazers

The new Lynx club members have already ordered their new red blazers, and they will be here for the Millsaps game, Ralph Booth, president, announced yesterday.

The members are paying half of the cost of the coat and the college is paying the rest. The club has already started making plans for the fall season and will again have charge of the decorating of the football field for the home games.

"My wife sure is thrifty, and made me a necktie out of an old dress of hers."

"That's nothing. My wife made her a dress out of one of my old neckties."

And considering the depression, how about the fellow that wired in reservations for a sleeping bench in the park?

BOBCATS MEET SENATOBIA ON NEXT FRIDAY

Journey To Foreign Soil For Game

HAVE STRONG TEAM

Prospects Bright For Frosh Victory

The Bobcats are slaving away every afternoon in order to get ready for their first game with Senatobia Junior College on Oct. 7.

Although they usually act as cannon fodder for the varsity, they have scimmaged together enough to show promise of being about the greatest first year eleven Southwestern has ever had.

There is a profusion of backfield material, many of them being All-Memphis selections. Jordan, Harwood, Whitaker, Mays, Christian, Mann and Harvey Jones are among the outstanding backs.

Henry Hammond a late arrival will bolster the end position. Jack Lloyd, Neal Tapp, McKendrick, Haygood, and Benton have done good work in the line.

The yearlings journey down into Mississippi for their first game next Friday with a resolution to compile a better record than former Bobcat teams.

Two Intra-Dixie Games Scheduled

There will be two games this week-end between Dixie Conference foes. The powerful Chattanooga Moccasins, defending champions, will take on Mike Donahue's Spring Hill outfit at the Lookout Mountain city.

Spring Hill was the cellar champion last year, but they may pull a surprise this season. Chattanooga held the powerful U. of Tenn. team to 13 points last Saturday.

MERCER VS HOWARD

In the other conference conflict, Mercer engages the Howard Bulldogs. Duke Russel has a fine crew of pigskinners at Mercer, but Coach Eddie McLean has 14 lettermen with which to stop the invasion of Mercer.

In the non-conference games, B'ham-Southern engages Loyola of New Orleans. Last week the Jesuit school defeated Mississippi College 6 to 0, so they should give a fair comparison between Southern and the Choctaws.

OTHER GAMES

The Centre "Praying Colonels" go to Cincinnati to meet Xavier. The Millsaps Majors meet Hattiesburg Teachers. The Pedagogues are the squad who upset the Lynx last year.

Mississippi College will attempt to make up for their loss to Loyola by defeating Louisiana College. Southwestern, the other Dixie Conference member should beat Union under the lights Friday night.

Frosh Scrimmage Against Tech High

The Bobcats will hold a scrimmage with the defending prep school champions, Tech High School, tomorrow afternoon on Fargason Field. The Yellowjackets are under the tutelage of Coach Charley Jamerson and have a very strong outfit.

The freshmen are rapidly rounding into shape and the coaches want to get a better line on their material by having some kind of a practice game before the Bobcats met Senatobia next week.

David Eddington Is Elected To Council

David Eddington, Mobile, Ala., has been elected to the Honor Council from the junior class. He succeeds to the place left vacant by Guy Mitchell, who didn't return to Southwestern this fall.

The count of the ballots for the nominees was Eddington 14; Jack Brown, 13; Jack Kelly, 8. Only the men students of the class voted.

SHE WAS ONLY A COACHMAN'S DAUGHTER, BUT OH! WHAT A CARRIAGE.

ST. NICK NAMES NEW ASSISTANT

Lillias Christie Takes Role Of Aide

Miss Lillias Christie has been appointed assistant director of the choir, Louis Nicholas announced yesterday. Miss Christie succeeds Constance Kahn to the position of helper. Miss Kahn is attending Teachers College this year. The choir has made plans for the year's work, the director said, and an even more extensive program than last year is carded for the singers. The choir will sing at each of the four vesper services and will also sing at various churches from time to time.

Y. W. C. A. HOLD FIRST SUPPER

Interesting Program At Initial Meeting

The Young Women's Christian Association entertained Wednesday night with a spaghetti supper at the Chi Omega lodge in honor of the freshmen. Mary Kennedy Hubbard had charge of the program. She gave a brief outline of the work the girls will do this winter. Miss Ethel Neihmeyer, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A., spoke. Olivia Reames played several piano selections, and Dixie Mae Jennings gave a reading. Mollie Lyon, president of the Y. W. C. A., was assisted in making arrangements by Mary Kennedy Hubbard, vice-president; Harriet Storms, secretary; and Thelma Worthington, treasurer.

SOCIAL SERVICE WORK PLANNED

First Deputation To Be Held Wednesday

The Ministerial Club will hold its first deputative service Wednesday evening, October 4, at Campbell's Clinic. William Bensberg will make a short talk, while Russell Cross, chairman of the Deputation Committee, will preside. Freshman Hamilton is in charge of the musical end of the program. The club will hold services at Campbell's the first Wednesday in each month throughout the school session and if plans materialize, one other service each month will be conducted for the patients.

SUNSHINE HOME
Plans are now being made to hold a service at the Sunshine Home in the very near future, and several men have already assumed their places as teachers of Sunday School classes in various Memphis churches. James Gregory, John Fishbach, and Russell Cross are teaching at Evergreen.

Candy Booth Run By Tri-Delta Group

The Tri-Delta sorority has a booth at the Tri-State Fair this week. The girls have been selling candy to those who find their craving for sweets can't be overcome. The Deltas have been in charge of the booth Monday and Wednesday and will have charge of it again today. Four girls have sold candy each day. The booth is located in the Woman's Building and they ask all their friends to drop in to see them.

Depression? "Yes, No, And Maybe," Are Answers Given By Lynx Students

Campus Big Shots Speak Favorably and Unfavorably On Big Current Topic

Is the Depression over? Some say yes and some say nay. One tall, slim blonde with a brand new permanent sides with the affirmative. Herbert Pierce was brief but determined in his decision. "Yeah!" was all Pierce had to remark as he left hurriedly to meet Abbey, whom he spied in the distance. We wonder if he knew then that Abbey was not returning to school, but was going to be one of Memphis' gay debs? Harold High was not enthusiastic—"Sure, this is going to be the best year we've had in four years. Later we found that he was talking about football.

DAIMWOOD SPEAKS
Another big campus man—Jimmy Daimwood gave out when interviewed—"I think it's over. I'm returning to school." These last words were also those of Kathryn Harris, but uttered with an entirely different meaning. No doubt she was thinking of Lip's meager salary. We did not need to ask Kate Cleveland, for we saw her drive by in a darling new Ford coupe.

QUEENIE ANSWERS
While interviewing the students we ran across one of last year's grads, "Queen" Katherine Reid. When questioned, her majesty calmly but emphatically replied, "I can't even afford to take cooking." So if Royalty is still hard up, we suppose that all the rest of us proletarian and Bourgeois haven't the effects of depression's being over—not yet, at any rate!

Editor's Note: This was the first journalistic attempt of these two students. They got the various interviews somewhat confused; so if you read of yourself saying what you did not say, just blame it on the green reporters. We apologize!

ALUMNI OFFICE IN NEW PLACE

Move Made Necessary By Volume of Work

Because alumni work quickly outgrew the small quarters which it acquired last year, the Alumni office was moved to a larger room during the summer vacation period. The first Alumni office was established on the first floor of the Science hall next to Dr. Drake's office. During the summer, the office was changed to what was formerly the psychology lab. The lab was moved to a larger room across the hall.

MORE ADEQUATE
The new quarters are much more adequate to carry on the work of the alumni secretary. The office contains the files of the records of both the non-graduate and the graduate alumni. Bookshelves hold the exchanges of the various college alumni magazines and a bountiful supply of Southwestern Alumni magazines. Alumni always come to the office whenever they make a visit to the college. Here they can find out all kinds of interesting information. All students knowing news about alumni of the college can be of great assistance to the alumni secretary if they will report same to the alumni office.

Martha Burton Is New Dorm Leader

Monday night, the first meeting of the year was held in Evergreen Hall and after a short talk by Mrs. Rutland, the resident head of all dormitories, election of officers for the year was held. Martha Burton was elected president and Nell Davis, vice-president. The girls in each hall then held election for proctors and Hazel Corley, Thelma Worthington, and Olga Hartmann were chosen.

Alvan Tate Named Head Cheerleader

Alvan Tate has been appointed cheerleader to succeed Howard Cook who had to withdraw from college. Tate has gotten into the spirit of the position and promises to make Southwestern a crackerjack leader for the yells. Another cheerleader to take the place of Lillian Gautier will be chosen soon. Harold High announced that the third cheerer would be picked and not elected as the first were.

FOUR STUDENTS READING FOR HONOR DEGREE

Two Men and Two Women Are Named

STUDENTS USE STACKS

Will Receive Honors At Commencement

Four ambitious students are reading for Honors this year, two co-eds and two eds. The students reading for Honors are Grace Carkeet, English and history; Annabel Cox, chemistry and math; Wilburn Jenkins, history and Spanish; James Overholser, history and Greek.

Reading for Honors was a forerunner of the tutorial reading system which is now in operation at the college, and in some degree has been supplanted by the latter. However, there is a difference in the purpose of the two.

PURPOSE
The purpose of Honors reading is to give those seniors who have been recognized scholastically an opportunity to do advanced work in their majors. The reading courses, on the other hand, are for the benefit of all upperclassmen.

There is a great deal of work entailed upon the Honor Students, so that they are required to take only four courses. Examinations in the elected courses are taken as they see fit. Among other privileges, they are allowed the constant use of the stacks in the library. A special reading room is set aside for them also.

MAKE APPLICATION
A student desiring to read for honors must make application in the spring of his junior year to the Honor committee of which Prof. Kelso is the head. At the end of the senior year the committee decides whether the student is to receive Honors or High Honors.

Kappa Sigs Elect
Jimmy Haygood, Jr., has been elected president of the Kappa Sigma pledges. The other officers are Banks Christian, vice-president, and John Parran, secretary-treasurer.

FROSH TO TOSS AWAY BONNETS

Will Burn Straws After Millsaps Game

Saturday, Oct. 8, will be a day of rejoicing for the freshman. Fred Bearden, High Priest of the Men's San Hedrin Council, stated that the freshmen may burn their straw hats after the Millsaps game.

The custom of wearing straw hats is an age old tradition at Southwestern, yet it is always with a feeling of relief that the first year men shed their monstrous "chapeaus."

NEW CAPS
This does not mean however that the freshmen will be allowed to go around bareheaded in the presence of the upperclassmen, but must purchase felt caps, which they will be required to wear until further orders from the San Hedrin.

Bearden in making this statement, threatened dire punishment to anyone who destroys his "top piece" before this date.

Reporter Discovers Youngest Students

Whether Susie Ellen Knowlton and Boyce Leigh Sadler know their own age or not is now the question! Upon gazing thru the matriculation cards it was found out that Boyce Lee and Susie Ellen were both born in 1917. Boyce taking the lead, her birthday being in November and Susie Ellen's in March.

If this is correct we pronounce Boyce Leigh our, youngest freshette, Jane Erskine and a few others claim 1916 as their year of birth—all hail ye freshettes!

Following in brother Paul's footsteps, that if getting distinction in one way or another, Hinky Jones has snatched the title of youngest freshman.

Taking Gene Stewart's place of last year, we hope he upholds his title as did Gene.

Here and There

Margaret Mercer is back in school after a serious illness. Her arrival created great excitement, etc.

A new addition to the campus—Peppy, attractive Ann Montedonico.

Eva Gene Bruce is tripping over to Little Rock this week-end. (She's the little freshette that so many have been raving about.)

HEADLINER:
Jim and Coo Gautier have an adorable baby brother, now about four days old. And I hear he's a blond!

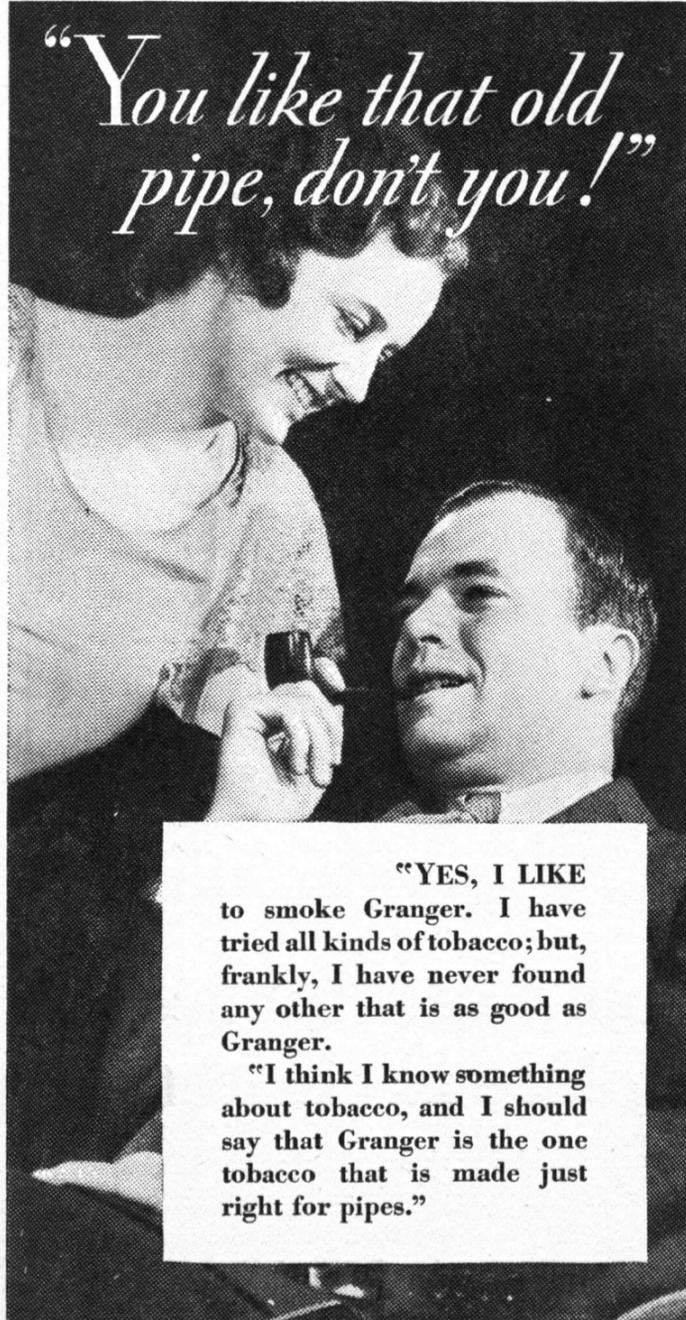

Malcolm Richie is to be a famous lawyer some day it seems. He is studying at Vandy.

ment between classes, and each takes his turn furnishing lunch for the rest at his home.

THE CLIQUE

Almost the entire freshman body is composed of pairs or cliques who cling to each other like a Southwestern sticker to a windshield. Margaret Clay Faulhaber and Willis Laura Hungerford loop off somewhere in Margaret Clay's Ford one day and Willie Laura's brand new Chevrolet (at least that's what she tells me) the other; so do Louise Carroll and Aylmarie Pearson, and Eva Gene Bruce's and Jean Ried.

Although Louise is the constant chauffeur for Aylmarie, and Eva Gene for Jean, neither cares because as Eva Gene says, "It takes at least two people to have a good time." Plato himself might be pacified by such philosophy.

FOUR HORSEWOMEN

The Four Horsewomen—freshettes Anne Brown Taylor, Alice McSpadden, Nelle McMahan, and Charlotte Berlin—would profit by hiring a Greyhound bus to carry all the crowd that tries to hang on as they tear over to Fortune's throughout the day. The question is: Is their attraction S. A. and Automobile?

Robert Neill, George Cook and John Hines have evidently inherited the spirit of knighthood, for most off-periods find them wandering aimlessly around town hoping to help stray ladies-in-distress, such as giving a ride to Hope Brewster and Frances McDaniel, who wend their respective footsore ways to school, and retrieving stray baby caps, tossed into the grass by a gust of wind.

A CHAUFFEUR

Two mighty upperclassmen (whose names she refused to divulge) transport Priscilla Painter to and from this institution at all hours of the day, and are generally seen escorting her around the campus.

Potato chips are the foil of Sally Griffin, used as an added inducement in enticing selected freshmen, such as Eugene McKendrick, away from their neglected studies. The old saying, that freshettes are never as dumb as they look, still holds true.

Other first-yearers spend their free periods loitering around the grounds, conversing on the parapet outside the south door of Palmer Hall, absorbed in checkers or listening to the radios in Robb Hall, playing tennis, like Charlie Wolfolk, Dorsey Barefield, and Harvey Heidleberg often do or in any of a dozen or so other malicious and evil practices.

All of this proves nothing, but it is sufficient evidence that the life of a freshman is hardly as difficult and monotonous as it is cracked up to be.

1 Man plus 1 wife equals house work.

1 man plus 2 wives equals work house.

Disappeared

One of the most mysterious of campus disappearances is that of the Stylus club of Sigma Upsilon. The club seems to have ceased operation and slipped into oblivion. Last spring, the organization boasted of a number of select members. Today, it doesn't even exist.

All of the members last year were seniors, and they graduated without initiating any new members. It seems that new members were elected but the ritual of the club was lost, and no initiation was held. The question that remains to be answered is, "Where is the ritual and where is the club?"

Z. T. A. CHOOSES NEW OFFICERS

Elect Members To Fill Three Vacancies

At the first meeting of the active chapter of Zeta Tau Alpha several new officers were elected to fill the places of those that were unable to return this year.

Olga Hartmann was elected new vice-president to succeed Meta Russell; Lucille Gwaltney, historian; and Minnie Lee Hamer, Pan-Hellenic Representative in place of Helen Moore.

CROWDS GOING TO UNION GAME

Many Students Drive To Jackson Tonight

Excitement and more excitement! If it isn't rushing, it's football games. It seems that half the student body is going up to Jackson to watch Southwestern beat Union (is that not the right spirit?).

Among the students in the different parties driving up are Herbert Pierce, Ned Wright, Banks Christian, Jimmy Haygood, and Clough Eaton; Dixie Mae Jennings and Howard Cook; Charles Taylor, Mary Allie Taylor, Vernon Pettit, and Herma Baker.

Virginia Fisher, Martha Burton, Dot Smith, and Dean McKendrick; Harvey Drake, Bill Ellis, and Ralph Booth; Mary Laughlin and Dabney Crump; Margaret Mercer, Jesse Richmond and Dorothea Sledge.

Charlie Layman, Shorty Simmons, Little Raspberry, Alex Gilliam, Ann Montedonico, Ed Tobey, Clara McGehee, and Newton Wilson; Sara Elizabeth Gimmel, Bethel Sanders, Jim Gautier and Louis Parrott; Marjorie Davis, Bill Taylor, Katy Davis and Joe Moss, Meredith Davis and Mr. X.

Chi Delta Phi To Get New Members

First Meeting To Be Held Soon

The first meeting of Chi Delta Phi, honorary-literary society will be held at the home of Miss Julia Marie Schwinn, 1429 Poplar Ave. At this meeting members will choose sophomores and transfers who are outstanding in English and literature appreciation and ask them to write a story, essay, or poem to be presented at a second meeting.

The Chi Delta Phis will then elect for membership those students who presented the most acceptable papers and whom they feel should receive the honor.

OFFICERS

Officers and members of Chi Delta Phi include Harriet Storms, president, Annabell Cox, vice-president, Mary Kennedy Hubbard secretary-treasurer, Elizabeth Ann Mahan, Malline Lyon, and Julia Marie Schwinn.

Schoolfield, Martha Schaefer and Margaret McNicol; John Gaither and Billy Walker; Andy Metcalf and Cliff Mabie; and mobs of others.

Tate, our famous cheer-leader, says that he is expecting the remainder of the student body there to boost the boys.

COLLEGE BAND HOLDS MEETING

Thirty Candidates Out At First Practice

Amidst a medley of college tunes, the school band held its first practice Monday afternoon from three until four in Hardie Auditorium.

About thirty blowers of horns were on hand. It was a bang-up good practice as students on the campus will testify. Bill Taylor, head bandman, says that the boys are plenty good. They all aver that horn blowing has gym beat "all hollow."

The band meets every Monday and Wednesday afternoon at three. Its repertoire consists mainly of college tunes.

At football games this fall, the band will lend a zest and color to the Southwestern cheering section. The Rotary and mixed bands that have played in past years never seem to quite harmonize with the college.

The Southwestern Christian Union is sponsoring the band and has already purchased music for them. Uniforms will be obtained before the opening game of the season at Far-gason Field.

Pledge Officers

The pledges of the A. O. Pi sorority have elected the following officers for the coming year: president, Sara Naill; vice-president, Sally Griffin; secretary, Therese Canale.

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"
 That package of mild Luckies

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, tho he build his house in the woods, the world will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
 Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?
