OPEN TRACK SEASON TOMORROW

LOYOLA MEETS LYNX DEBATERS SATURDAY NITE

Sewanee Debaters Here Wednesday Night

BIG DEBATES CARDED

Porteous, Mitchell, Oliver, Tate For Lynx Teams

Southwestern forensic team, composed of Clarke Porteous and Henry Oliver, will swing into action tomorrow night when they meet the debaters of Loyola University at New Orleans at 8 o'clock in Hardie Auditorium. The Lynx team will have the negative side of the question, "Resolved, That Congress Should Enact Legislation Providing for the Centralized Control of Industry." The debate will be a non-decision affair.

On Wednesday night the Lynx debaters, Alvan Tate and Guy Mitchell, will have the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, That the United States Should Cancel All Inter-Allied Debts." The opposition for the Lynx will be furnished by the forensic team of the University of South, Sewanee. This is the second clash of the two colleges this year. The Lynx recently met the Purple debaters at Sewanee. This will be one of the feature debates of the year for the Southwestern debaters, and the last debate before the Lynx take off on their southern trip.

"Red" Brassell Will Talk To Press Club

Next Wednesday night at 6:00 p. m. in the private dining room Mr. Brassell, familiarly known to his friends as "Red," police reporter for the Commercial Appeal, will narrate to the Press Club a few of his thrilling adventures while serving his paper.

The last time Mr. Brassell spoke to the members of the club he made their hair stand on end with story after story, chock full of violence, paths, and murder. "Red's" job is to sit at his telephone in the police station till 3:00 a. m. every night and phone the hospitals around town at regular intervals to see if any accidents have happened, or anybody has been shot up. If an accident is particularly bad "Red" dives into his high-powered car and tears out to the scene. His screaming siren and his roaring motor are familiar sounds to the people who work around the police station.

A large attendance is expected for the meeting.

Pan Council Plans Last Party Of Year

The Men's Panhellenic Council has made tentative plans for their third and last party of the year. If pending negotiations are carried out the place will be the Casino; time, Wednesday night, April 20; music, Joe Cappel, of Chicago.

The Council has been trying for a month to locate an excursion steamer which will be in Memphis on that night but as yet their search has been fruitless. All the big steamers are unavailable and the council is not willing to sponsor such a big dance on a small boat for obvious reasons.

Mr. Bennett of the Casino is dickering with Joe Cappel for the week of April 18, and should he sign up the Great Maestro, the Panhellenic Council will probably secure his services for one night.

TRIDELTS GIVE PARTY TONIGHT

First Spring Formal Will Be At Tennessee Club

Delta Delta Delta sorority will give a spring formal dance tonight from 8 until 11:30 at the Tennessee Club. The college crowd is looking forward to this party as the first formal of the spring season.

The circular ballroom will be elaborately decorated in huge clusters of balloons in the sorority colors, silver, gold, and blue. An ice course will be served at intermission. There will be three no-breaks, two specials, and the Tri Delt Lead-out, at which "Tri Delt Moon" will be played.

Bill Taylor and his "Collegians" will furnish the music.

The following officers of the sorority with their escorts will receive the guests: Miss Lyle Stange president, with Joe Rand; Miss Catherine Bigelow with Mr. McLemore Elder; Miss Marguerite Conley, corresponding secretary, with Mr. Julian Curry; Miss Louise Mitchell, recording secretary, with Mr. Robert Orr; Miss Annabel Cox, treasurer, with Mr. Lee Hines.

Other members of the sorority and their escorts are: Miss Margaret Gunn with Mr. Douglas Huer, Miss Elise McDaniel with Mr. Bond Dashiell, Miss Grace Carkeet with Mr. Carrington Bacon, Miss Minnie Byrd Lockhart with Mr. Clare Coe, Miss Sarah Elizabeth Gemmill with Mr. Robert Sigler, Miss Malline Lyon with Mr. Dan Ross, Miss Lillian Gautier with Mr. George Corbett, Miss Elizabeth Riley with Mr. Roger Breytspraak, Miss Alice Kilpatrick with Mr. Sidney Hebert, Miss Frances Robinson with Mr. Chauncey Barbour, Miss Nell Sanders with Mr. Edward Edmondson, Miss Olivia Reames with Mr. William Walker, Miss Mary McCollum with Mr. James Wadlington, Miss Annie Laurie Pentecost with Mr. Warren Johnson, Miss Charlotte Stange with Mr. Reinhold Matheson, Miss Corinne Gautier with Mr. Spencer Baker, Miss Thelma Worthington with Mr. John Streete, Miss Annie Mae McDaniel with Mr. Alvan Tate, Miss Alice Rogers and Miss Edith Graff with escorts.

Specially invited guests from other sororities are: Miss Anita Wadlington, Alpha Omicron Pi, with escort; Miss Helen Gordon, Chi Omega, with Mr. Goodlet Brown; Miss Ruth Billings, Kappa Delta with Mr. Herbert Pierce, and Miss Meta Russell, Zeta Tau Alpha, with escort.

Other invited guests are: Miss Elizabeth Markham, Pi Phi; Miss Nell Barker Jones, Gamma Phi Beta, with John Hughes; Miss Mary Pond, Phi Mu, Miss Frances Brown, and Miss Myrtle Keltner with Harold Thomas.

A. O. Pi Elects

The A. O. Pi sorority has elected Elizabeth Ann Mahan as president for the next year. Other officers of the sorority will be Anita Wadlington, recording secretary; Mary Laughlin, vice-president; Kathryn Harris, corresponding secretary; Charline Tucker, treasurer; Grace Braun, assistant treasurer; Peggy Walker, rush captain; Jesse Richmond, "To Dragma" correspondent; Mary Clinton, doorkeeper; Dorothea Sledge, historian; Ella Kate Malone, Panhellenic representative.

Pi Elects Officers

The Pi sorority has elected Anne Galbreath as president for the year. Other officers are Elizabeth Ann Mahan, vice-president, and Kate Cleveland, secretary and treasurer.

STUDENTS VOTE TO HELP FUND

Play To Be Given Soon To Raise $1,000

The student body has voted to give its full support to the project for raising a one-thousand dollar contribution to the campaign fund by the presentation of a three-act play some time in May. Dr. Diehl put the proposal, which had been suggested to him by the Women's Panhellenic Council, before the students last Friday morning and it won unanimous approval.

The members of Theta Alpha Phi offered to assume responsibility for the play. They have secured Miss Fredericks Magnus, one of the foremost dramatic authorities of the city, as technical advisor and director of the production. Miss Magnus will also direct the advertising campaign.

The initiated and eligible members of Theta Alpha Phi, who met with Miss Magnus Wednesday afternoon to discuss the selection of a play and cast and to make other necessary arrangements, were Elizabeth Smith, Bob Sanders, Dixie Mae Jennings, Julia Marie Schwinn, Bill Berson, Russell Cross and Albert Erskine.

An attempt is being made to get the use of the concert hall of the Auditorium for the performance. If the concert hall is secured a large audience can be accommodated, and it will be the work of the student body as a whole to see that capacity crowds are had. All who are not in the play or are not directly connected with it in any way can help with the advertising and ticket selling. Everyone is requested to sell at least three tickets.

The Men's and Women's Panhellenic Councils, as well as most of the other campus organizations, have pledged their active co-operation towards the success of this undertaking.

Tri Delta Elects

Monday night at the regular meeting of the sorority Delta Delta Delta elected the following officers:

President, Corinne Gautier; Vice-President, Alice Kirkpatrick; Corresponding Secretary, Grace Carkeet; Recording Secretary, Nell Sanders; Treasurer, Charlotte Stange; Marshal, Annabel Cox; Chaplain, Sara Elizabeth Gemmill; Librarian, Thelma Worthington; Historian, Malline Lyon; Panhellenic Representative, Olivia Reamer; Athletic Chairman, Lillian Gautier; and Alumni Secretary, Lyle Stange.

In the Spring, the Campus...

Spring is here! Trola-tra-la! And the campus has come to life again. After having been completely deserted all winter, and left to the tender mercies of the north wind and dead leaves, it has regained all its old popularity. Within the last week, everybody has gotten off the radiators in the cloisters where they have been hibernating since last November, packed their overcoats in mothballs, and may now be seen frolicking in the gentle spring sunshine amid the jonquils.

The stone benches and the wall have come back in style with a bang, and soon signs of "Standing Room Only" will have to be posted. Once more cars are passing by the door of Robb Hall, not, however, with their old devil-may-care flourish; once more strains of blatant melody are issuing from the wide open windows of the social room, to demoralize the busy workers in the classroom; and once more couples may be found sweetly loitering beneath the yet leafless gum trees, or leaning pensively against the outside wall. NITISTS READY FOR BIG RALLY

Men Will Pick President Of United States

Mid great ballyhoo and enthusiasm the men of Southwestern will gather in Neely Hall at 8 o'clock next Friday night to nominate a candidate for the presidency of the United States. The convention is sponsored by the Nitist Club, campus philosophers, for the sake of promoting intelligent thought on the political problems of the country.

Ronald Hayhoe, who bearded the Tammany Tiger in the Lynx Lair, will serve as chairman for the convention. He reports that parties whose identities he has been ordered to conceal have threatened his person and property should he refuse to grant them the floor at any and all opportunities. Beppo Sanders will serve as body guard.

Although there will be a great deal of fun and frivolity, with witty wisecracks flying right and left, the meeting will be for the most part a serious gathering of the thinking students of the college to discuss a pertinent situation which will confront the country in a few months. Indications point to the formation of a powerful third party which will try to sweep the convention and elect their man in spite of the sturdy and determined opposition of the Democratic and Republican parties.

The various candidates will be nominated from the floor and a general discussion will then follow. If the group can come to an agreement on one candidate, that candidate's name will be proclaimed to the citizens of this, our city, as the Students' Candidate.

Bill Taylor and his "Collegians" will furnish music for the occasion.

LYNX'S CINDER MEN TURN GUN ON JONESBORO

Meet A. & M. on Fargason Tomorrow Afternoon

FIRST EVENT AT 2:30

Open Track Season After Three Weeks Practice

Southwestern track team will make its first start of the season tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when the thinclads meet Jonesboro A. & M. College at Fargason Field.

The Lynx are in pretty good shape for their first encounter, having put some two or three weeks of practice behind them. The Jonesboro aggregation will be quite a formidable foe for the Lynx. Last year the A. & M. meet at Jonesboro was one of the most thrilling of the Southwestern contests.

NEWTON CRIPPLED

The Lynx eked out a bare win over the Aggies last year. The Lynx will be well represented in the dashes although they are minus one of their stellar performers in the person of Messr. Herbert Newton. Newton's arms, recently operated upon, haven't sufficiently healed for work yet.

Harold High and Butch Love will take care of the dashes and no doubt the boys will give quite a good exhibition of early season form. Riley McCaughran and Clarke Porteous will handle the longer events. Riley is the S. I. A. A. two mile champ.

GOOD HURDLERS

Captain Bull King and Harvey Drake will take charge of the hurdles, and they are timber toppers of note. Glenn Scott, Fred Bearden, Zeke Knight, Sid Hebert, Gordon Fox will be the Lynx representatives in the field events.

The students are especially urged to come out and back the track team. No admission will be charged for the meet.

Forensic Men Will Take Extended Trip

Southwestern debaters will make an extended southern debating trip starting on April 15. The Lynx debaters will leave the campus on that date and will go to Millsaps at Jackson for the first forensic. Alvan Tate and Guy Mitchell will compose the Lynx team for the first debate.

The next night finds the Lynx facing the debaters of Mississippi College. Tate and Mitchell will again be the Lynx team. From Clinton, the debaters will travel to New Orleans where they will meet the debaters of Loyola University. The Southwestern team will be composed of Clarke Porteous and Woodrow Taylor. They will have the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved That the Trend Towards Industrialism in the South Is a Fact to Be Deplored."

Finishing their debates in the Crescent City, the Memphis debaters will go to Starkville to debate Mississippi State. Tate and Mitchell will be the local debaters. From the Aggie debate the Lynx will move to Oxford to debate the forensic team of Ole Miss. Porteous and Taylor will be the Southwestern team for the debate.

Must Not Be Content

Sylvia Thompson, who at 27 is the author of three popular novels and the mother of two children, believes that novelists cannot be good in their profession if they are too happy and contented.

KAMPUS KRAX

Dr. Drake—Have you been drinking 10 glasses of water every day as I told you?

Chicken—Yes, I have been drinking six cups of coffee and four glasses of water.

Dr. Drake—But coffee and water aren't the same?

Chicken—They are in my shop.

Mitch—Jinx is always seeking to protect the morals of others.

Hazel—How's that?

Mitch—Whenever he spends the evening visiting me, he hangs his hat over the doorknob so as to prevent anyone from looking through the keyhole.

SON—POP, I WANNA GO TO THE WASHINGTON BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION IN WASHINGTON.

DAD—I'M AFRAID THAT WE CAN'T AFFORD THE TRIP THIS TIME, BUT YOU CAN GO NEXT TIME.

Geezer—That blonde over there has the most wonderful taste.

Beezer—Look out! Don't let that peroxide give you indigestion.

"Oh, Doctor, I'm so afraid that my husband is losing his mind. He is always saying such things as 'Toot-unghangoo - bundsgooshow - shanghook.'"

"Don't worry, lady, he's just probably overwrought from reading about the Sino-Japanese conflict."

Mrs. Snapper—A burglar got into our house last night.

Mrs. Rapper—Did your husband rise to the occasion?

Mrs. Snapper—Well, his hair did.

NIP — IT'S FUNNY THAT SMITH SHOULD HAVE SUCH A BONEHEAD SON.

TUCK—OH, I DON'T KNOW. SMITH IS A PRETTY HARD-HEADED BUSINESS MAN.

Bill—Pa, what is an elevator starter?

Pop—A man who is hired to have an elevator at the top of the building when you're in a hurry.

Westerner—I'm facing a necktie party, Sheriff.

Sheriff—What did you do steal a horse or something?

Westerner—Nope, my wife and daughter are giving me a birthday party this evening.

Zimzimpur—I hear that Linburner couldn't get his cat to fly in his airplane with him.

Stphelia—No, it isn't a fly-by-night cat!

Mrs. Nerves—If you should take my only daughter away from me I think that I should die.

Son-in-law—Far be it from me to tell you what to do.

HENRY—YOU KNOW THAT I HAVE THE FASTEST CAR GOING.

ANNE—YES, AND THE SLOWEST ONE COMING BACK.

Banter—Was your landlord put out when you told him that you couldn't pay your rent?

Cantor—Naw, but I was.

1st Waitress—So you and the chef had a hot argument about those potatoes and scraps left over.

2nd Waitress—Yes, we hashed it all over again.

"My mother-in-law certainly put one over on me when I asked her for her daughter."

"What do you mean?"

"She said she was agreeable."

Cookencoff—How is it that you never carry a watch, yet you can always tell what time it is?

Dunkbrodt—I get hungry regularly at 7:30, 12:30, 5:30, and 10:30, and it takes me exactly a half hour to eat. Then, you see, I have my belt notched which I can pull up at any time—the belt is scaled in hours and minutes.

Relax—I see the Chinese army was defeated in a recent battle.

Reflux—Yes, they did very well on the offense, but their defense had too many chinks in it.

Mrs. Sauer—I'm going to sue my husband for divorce and alimony.

Mrs. Sweet—What's he got?

Mrs. Sauer—A fast stepping peroxide blonde.

LET'S DO OUR PART

The time has come when the loyal men and women must come to the aid of their Alma Mater. The college is facing a difficult problem in the way of raising funds for its continuance. The least that the students could do would be to give a portion of their time and money.

If the students do not think enough of their college to give something, how can we expect Memphians or anyone else to contribute to the fund which is needed to carry the college over for another year and a half?

For some it will be extremely hard while for others it will not be so difficult. Let everyone do as he or she is able. Let those who can give more than the average and let those hard pressed give their mite, even tho it be very small.

The problem facing the college at the present is not a plight of any one or group of individuals but it is a thing that concerns everyone. Let's show the people of Memphis that we believe in Southwestern, and they will certainly follow in the right path by aiding her.

THANK THE BOOSTERS' CLUB

The Boosters' Club, lively campus organization, is the one to thank for the splendid April Fool's carnival which was put on last week. Every member of the Boosters' Club put his shoulder to the wheel and pushed. The result was the fine time had by all last Friday night.

Incidentally, the Boosters' Club is doing a great deal to keep up the campus spirit and morale. The club sponsors a number of intra-mural events that perhaps the average student does not appreciate. It demands a lot of work on the part of the club members, and it wouldn't hurt to thank them for their good work next time you see a member.

FAMOUS REMARKS

Those that have wealth must be watchful and wary. Power, alas! naught but misery brings!—Thomas H. Bayly.

Public speaking is a form of dramatic art and has nothing to do with thinking.—Samuel Crowther.

None thrives for long upon the happiest dream.—Coventry K. D. Patmore.

Restraint is a virtue not worth mentioning until one has something to restrain.—Rebecca West.

Every man at his best state is altogether vanity.—Psalm XXXIX:5.

Nobody with character is vulgar.—A. A. Milne.

Every joy is gain And gain is gain, however small.—Robert Browning.

Romances come easier when one is young.—Anthony Hope.

To bear is to conquer our fate.—Thomas Campbell.

Honesty brings terrific isolation in life.—Rev. F. A. Fadden.

The gods approve The depth, and not the tumult, of the soul.—William Wordsworth.

To share with others is a great step toward happiness.—Adolph Lewisohn.

Diffused knowledge immortalizes itself.—James Mackintosh.

Labor cannot be called upon through wage cuts to pay a dole to idle capital.—D. B. Robertson.

Utelum—A good memory is a fine asset to business.

Hesay—Yes, except when the future of your business depends on your ability to forget the bitter experience of the past.

Evergreen Hall

Everyone has recovered from the flu which threatened to sweep the dormitory in an epidemic, and now we're all out basking in the April sun.

Sunday night was as near perfection as we've seen it in a long time; warm April twilight with a breeze every now and then, and some serenading from beneath the hackberry tree. How's that for atmosphere?

Dr. Townsend Will Speak On Sunday

Professor C. L. Townsend will speak to the Southwestern Bible Class Sunday at 9 o'clock in Room 101, Palmer Hall. His subject has not been announced. Dr. Townsend will also take charge of the devotional, and no set form of program will be followed. The public is cordially invited.

Volunteer Group to Meet Sunday 3 P.M.

The Student Volunteer group will meet at 3 o'clock Sunday, in Room 100, Palmer. Bob Pfrangle announced today. The topic for discussion will be the South American missions, and the speakers are to be Liliis Christie and J. B. Breazealle, so saith Harry Champlin, chairman of the Program Committee. The meeting is to be open to the public, and students especially are urged to attend.

Depression Hits

Oberlin, O.—Illumination Night, the pride of Oberlin College commencement exercises since 1908, will not be held this June because of the depression, college officials have announced.

On that night each year since 1908 the college has hung thousands of Japanese lanterns about the campus and about the town, and an alumni parade with colorful floats has wended its way through the streets near the campus.

SOU TO LOU

Dear Lou:

Here is your dead pal, popping up again after weeks of silence. Sorry to dash your hopes, but I insist on renewing the correspondence.

The main light of the social calendar has been and gone—the Carnival—and a gala affair it was, too. Wish you could have seen Queen Kate and King Clough and their court, not to mention the colorful and unexpected costumes which were many; the very incredible side-shows and that favorite actor of mine, Alvan Tate, who won the baby contest. It was really lots of fun. The "S" Club dance afterwards was really something. I noted Eloise Brett, whose costume won the prize, having a whirl, Dixie Mae and Cookie, little Gertie Mayo and of course the court in regal finery tripping the light fantastic ever so majestically.

The Tri-Delts are putting on the dog tonight and giving a dance at the Tennessee Club and the Zetas had a Sea-going party last Saturday, which was a big success—nautical but nice—(cat call from the gallery and apologies from the writer.)

Worthy of a paragraph all to itself is the news of the big discovery of Sheriff Knight's musical ability. He it was who did all the fancy singing over the Junior's radio carnival night. He sounded like big-time to me! Purty good, Zeke, purty good.

It has been days since I cracked a book and even with talents like mine you can't make A's that way. Think I'll trot the old friends out and take a peek.

Buenos noches, au-revoir, aufwiedersehen and oiseau. Why, of course I speak four languages fluently.

Yours of the intelligentia, Sou.

"Steady Company" and "Young Bride" At RKO

The RKO Orpheum theater for the first half of next week will show "Steady Company," starring June Clyde, Norman Foster and Zasu Pitts, while the attraction for next Thursday, Friday and Saturday is "Young Bride," with Helen Twelvetrees, Eric Linden and Arline Judge. "Steady Company" is the story of a youth who toils by day and at night studies to be a pugilist. A girl comes into his life and her love urges him on to fulfill his ambition. "Young Bride" deals with the love of a young couple who beat down adversity after it nearly wrecks their happiness.

MEN'S GRIDIRON BANQUET TO BE GIVEN IN NEELY

Annual Feature Will Be Held On April 27

WILL ELECT UGLIEST

Loquacious Lubricator To Also Be Named

Amid billowing clouds of black cigar smoke, the soft rhythm of a smooth orchestra, and a flood of wit and humor, Southwestern men will enjoy the annual Christian Union Gridiron Banquet Wednesday, April 27, in Neely Hall.

Plans have been laid and will soon be hatched. Allen "Camel" Cabaniss, toast of the town, will be toastmaster, or rather roastmaster, for his duty it will be to flay with torrid tongue each man in school.

Bill Taylor's Collegians will play for the assembled multitude and will vary the musical program in accordance with the menu, jazzy songs accompanying the soup and waltzes the ice cream.

SHEWMAKER TO COME

Vice-President Shewmaker will be on deck with a bag full of verbal tricks. Thirty minutes have been allotted him.

Dr. Diehl, relaxing from the strain of college finances, will say a few words and tell a joke or two.

With lusty shouts someone will be elected Bachelor of Ugliness, and receive the title Pug-Ug. Several men are under consideration.

MAD RUSH FOR ROOMS STARTED

Reed Brock First Frosh To Reserve Room

Any and all rooms are open to any and all students, Dr. Bassett announced this morning. The time for the renewal of room leases has expired, and the mad race is on.

Robb Hall is filling up nicely, Dr. Bassett said, as it does every year, and the Junior quota is practically completed. Rooms are still open for the others, however. Inroads are beginning on the choice rooms in Calvin, and these two dormitories are expected to soon be filled. Reservations are coming in as fast as usual, in spite of the shortage of ten dollar bills, it was announced.

Reed Brock has the honor of being the first youngster to pick out his future dwelling place. This freshman has a head on him, for what room did he reserve other than 106 Robb.

"I wanted to breathe the inspired atmosphere left behind by the renowned Cabaniss," he explained. "Maybe it will help me to become a great man like him."

shooters the Most Loquacious Lubricator will be elected and receive the symbolic oil can to reward his lingual propensities.

TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets will be on sale next week and are 50 cents for town students and 25 cents for dormitory men. Women are barred. The food is to be well-prepared, a special menu being made up for the occasion.

Step right up and buy yours, please.

Senorita Myrtle James Will Do Work In Evangelical Style Among Mexicans

Will Turn Her Back On All That Is Known And Bravely Cross The Rio Grande

Southwestern will soon lose one of its most picturesque figures when Miss Myrtle James, known affectionately to her intimates as "La Senorita James," will turn her footsteps back to her beloved Mexico. Instead of returning to Monterey, city of "stars and steel guitars, and luscious lips as red as wine," which was her headquarters during her former stay, she will continue her work of bringing a little sunshine into the lives of unfortunate Mexicans in Nuevo Laredo, a tough, hard-drinking, dice-throwing, border town.

"In the Senorita's own words, she is going back to a race capable of a wonderful development which has not yet been realized by the people of the world." While in the past she taught English in a mission school, she will henceforth devote her time to evangelical duties, such as preaching and conducting revival meetings, for which work she is especially fitted by her fluent mastery of the Spanish tongue. To be more explicit, she will make talks, do social service and religious work, and lead prayer services.

In her effort to uplift the poorer Mexicans to a higher level of spiritual appreciation she will distribute Christian Literature. Not only will she busy herself in the homes and hospitals, but she will dredge the lowest depths in order that no fragment of human wreckage may miss her high message.

In the short time that Miss James has been at Southwestern she has made a host of friends through her spontaneity and her interesting talks on the land of sky and sunshine.

Miss James, who was interviewed in the Lynx Lair as she was dining, smiled in reminiscence as she said, "Tell them that I go back where my heart has been for these last few months, back among those little Indian children, those bright little Mexican boys and girls, and those sweet souls who are so eager to learn what I have prepared myself to teach them. It is there that my work awaits me." Who would think as he watched this eager student cross the campus to her classes that she had faced trials and hardships of work in the mission field, that she had spent years and years among those strange people? Who knows what she will accomplish when once she has crossed the Rio Grande?

RISKS LIFE IN SCIENCE STUDY

Will Risk Spotted Fever For Experiment

Pittsburgh, Pa.—Risking death if he is bitten by sheep ticks, carriers of the fatal form of spotted fever, a young Sharpsburg scientist is leaving here to camp for several months in the Bitter Root Valley region of Idaho and Montana.

The valley, about 100 miles long and 50 miles wide, is virtually uninhabited because of the ticks there which spread the most virulent form of fever. More than 90 per cent of persons who contract the fever die.

The scientist, Dr. Walter R. Swadner, graduate assistant in zoology at the University of Pittsburgh, wants to discover how a species of insects can cross-breed.

He hopes that specially designed clothing will protect him from the ticks. He also will carry serum prepared by the federal government. The insects with which he plans to experiment are silk moths. Their silk is not of commercial value.

Greek Groups Initiate Members

With the ending of the first report period, several sororities and fraternities on the campus are initiating new members. The Alpha Omicron Pi initiated Christine Gilmore and Margaret Mercer last Monday night in the sorority lodge. The Chi Omega initiated Frances Mitchener on the same night.

Last week the Delta Delta Delta sorority initiated Charlotte Stange and Annie Laurie Pentecost. The Kappa Delta initiated Dorothy Schoolfield, Gertrude Pullen, Rosalee Keenon, and Olive Black. The Kappa Sigma fraternity initiated Ben Edwards last Monday night.

Seniors Lead Co-Eds In Class Division

The Chi Omegas, leading the volleyball tournament now in full swing, strengthened their lead by a victory over the A. O. Pi's last Monday afternoon. Up to date, the Chi O's, captained by Dixie Hess, have a record of three victories and no defeat; the Zeta's have two victories on their string, also the Tri Deltas, while the Kappa Deltas and A. O. Pi's are behind with no victories to their credit.

The Senior class is ahead in the intra-mural competition with two victories, the Junior class is next with one, while the Sophomores have suffered defeat twice.

A Freshette team has not been organized, since first year members are required to play on sorority teams, but a squad of star freshette players will be picked to compete against the winning upper class team.

Would Buy Sodas

Oberlin, O.—"If I had money I should spend it on sodas and sundaes," said Fraulein Sophie von Uslar-Gleichen, 20, Oberlin College exchange student from Germany.

"We in Germany have no such opportunity to indulge in luxuries," she said. "People really do not know my country's terrible economic situation."

A former student at the University of Munich and the University of Bonn, Fraulein von Uslar-Gleichen is here to study for her doctor's degree, to conduct German conversation classes at Oberlin and to represent her country's undergraduates here.

"Can you tell me the name of the Dean of this school?"
"Naw, I'm just a football player here."

I'm The Gink

I'm the gink who hangs around the campus smiling snugly to myself every time the financial status of the college is mentioned. Of course outwardly I appear very interested and eager to do my share of the work but inwardly I am planning just what alibis I will be able to give when I am asked to do some real work and make some real sacrifice to help keep the doors of the school open.

I can't see why I should have to devote my valuable time to a campaign that will not affect my position in the college. I am graduating this spring so it really doesn't matter at all to me whether the college opens next fall or not. Guess I've just got spring fever. What? Will I sell a ticket to the play? I'll be seeing you.

THE GINK.

"S" Clears $25

At the next meeting of the "S" Club the members will decide what they will do with the $25 which they cleared on the Hobo Party which was sponsored by the club at the Italian Hall after the April Fool Carnival last Friday night.

The "S" Club agreed to use the profits of the party for backing a baseball team, should they amount to $100. Now that all ticket money has been turned in, and the $100 is far from being reached, the Club must decide on some other use for the money. Announcement will be made in chapel of the time and place for the next meeting of the club.

FRAT BASEBALL LEAGUE STARTS

Finals To Be Played On Saturday Afternoon

Indoor baseball competition between the fraternities began yesterday. The first game of the season was played yesterday afternoon between the Pi K. A.'s and the non-frat teams.

Kappa Sigma and Sigma Alpha Epsilon will play this afternoon; with A. T. O. playing the Kappa Alphas on Monday. T. N. E. will clash with Beta Sigma in the final game of the first round Tuesday.

The semi-final round will be played on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The final game to decide the championship will be played Saturday, April 16.

AWARD TO WINNERS

A loving cup will be given to the winning team. The cup was presented to the Boosters club by Kappa Sigma. All games will begin at 3 p. m., and will be played on Fargason Field. The Boosters club is sponsoring the tourney.

Students Hurl Eggs

Cambridge, Mass.—When a constable appeared on the Harvard campus here recently to take possession of an automobile for repairs on which the student owner was alleged to have refused to make payment, students at the university laid down a barrage of ripe fruit and stale eggs which effectively kept the constable away.

The student owner of the car prepared a certified check before the police arrived to aid the constable, and everything was "jake."

Co-ed At Hobo College

Chicago—The famous Hobo College here was excited last week when it received as one of its students its first co-ed. She was a buxom blond from Nebraska.

CLOAR ASCENDS PONG THRONE

Beats Roseborough 6-2, 6-1 In Final Match

Carrol Cloar won the ping pong tournament this week by defeating Radford Roseborough in the final match, 6-2 and 6-1. Cloar dominated the tournament throughout and was never seriously threatened.

Cloar won the right to compete in the final match by winning over Jack Brown in the semi-final round, 6-3 and 6-2. Roseborough defeated Gene Stewart 6-3 and 8-6 to gain the right to play Cloar for the title.

45 ENTRANTS

More than 45 men entered the tournament this year, and the competition has become an annual affair. Emmett Farrar won the title last year.

Tennis Tourney For Girls Starts Soon

The Tennis tournament, for which the Tri Delta sorority is offering a silver loving cup to the highest ranking individual player, is scheduled to begin Monday, April 11. Final play-offs to determine the winner will be held on the Southwestern courts at a date to be announced later. Adelaide Anderson, freshette of last year, was winner of the tournament, then, but with Adelaide's absence this year, there is quite a bit of conjecture as to the winner.

ARTIST SAYS CO-EDS UGLY

Syracuse, N. Y.—Although he accepted the job of selecting the six prettiest girls in the junior class at Syracuse University, James Montgomery Flagg, the artist, took occasion to poke fun at the idea in his letter of acceptance.

He wrote:

"Sure—I'll pick out the prettiest gals—if any—or if six. All sorts of colleges every year do this to me, salt water, fresh water and bilge-water colleges, and I have had to gaze on some of the most god-awful female mugs in this broad though narrow land!

"I know now why there are so many pretty gals in New York—all the ugly ones are in colleges. What else can they do? . . . Let me see the worst! But as I allus say, if I don't think any of them are good to look upon, I'll say so."

RAY'S CHEAT SUN BATHERS

Pasadena, Cal.—Only two-thirds the usual amount of ultra-violet rays have been drifting down on sun bathers in the last few months, according to Dr. Edison Pettit, astronomer at Mount Wilson Observatory. "Just as radio reception apparently improved as the sun spots decreased in the cycle," he said, "so the ultra-violet radiation seemingly has fallen off. We are within two years of the turn in the sun spot cycle, when, if our assumptions are correct, ultra-violet rays will again begin to increase."

Animals and plant life, he said, are affected more by the rays than human beings because the latter spend so much of their time out of the rays of the sun.

Training For Girls' Track Meet Begins

Miss Louise Strattmann, women's athletic director, announced that training for girls' track work will begin on April 14 and that the yearly sorority track meet is scheduled for the latter part of this month. The A. O. Pi's were victorious last year, led by Virginia Richmond, high point woman of the event.

It Pays To Advertise

Mexico City—When the entire student body at the government's Indian agricultural school at Chicago went on strike as a protest against new methods of study, the university immediately advertised for a new student body.

The more than 400 students declared they would not return to their classes unless the reforms were abolished.

SCHOOL TENNIS TEAM LINES UP SIX NET MEETS

L. S. U., Mississippi State, and Frosh Played Here

Southwestern varsity netmen have arranged a schedule of six inter-collegiate matches for the coming season. Meets with Millsaps, Mississippi State, Mississippi College, Louisiana State University, Lambuth, and the frosh tennis team are carded.

The Lynx racquetters swing into action on April 9, when they will engage the racquet wielders from the freshman tennis team. The next week they will take the road, playing two games before they return. On Friday, April 15, they meet the netmen from Millsaps, and Saturday they journey a few miles to meet those of Mississippi College at Clinton.

The next two weeks have open dates but negotiations are under way for meets and will probably be held on the Southwestern courts. Louisiana State will be met on May 2 at Southwestern. On the 7th, the Lynx will journey to Jackson, Tenn., where they will fight the team of Lambuth College. The final meet of the year is carded for May 14, when the Lynx team will take on the racquetters of Mississippi State College on the Southwestern courts.
