PRESENT THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS TUESDAY NIGHT

Lynx Dramatic Group Will Give Initial Performance

Southwestern Players will present three one-act plays Tuesday, Nov. 15, at 8:15 p.m., at Hardie Auditorium, admission is 15 cents. Tickets may be secured from any member of the players. Russell Cross is chairman of the ticket sales committee.

Three plays have been selected from the four that have been in rehearsal. Bill Taylor and the Royal Collegians will play between acts.

The plays presented were "The Trysting Place," by Booth Tarkington, directed by Dixie Mae Jennings. Members of the cast are: Sally Griffin, Pud Mahan, Gene Stewart, Louis Nicholas, Frances McDaniel and Robert Neill.

"Moonshiners," by Frank Hopkins, will be directed by Alvan Tate. Members of the cast are: Clark Porteous and Maurice Carlson.

Another play, "Suppressed Desires," by Susan Glaspell, is being directed by Julia Marie Schwinn. Members of the cast are: Boyce Leigh Sadler, Therese Canale and Douglas Grymes.

"Thursday Evening," by Christopher Morley, is being directed by Russell Cross. His cast is John Jordan, Margaret Clay Faulhaber, Savilla Martin and Virginia Watson.

PARSONS HUNT "BRER" POSSUM

Rev. Howie To Speak At Next Meeting

The regular meeting of the ministerial club was not held Tuesday, due to the fact that they will be the guests of a well known Memphis doctor on a 'possum hunt tonight.

The doctor has been so kind as to offer to show the budding ministers that a marsupial animal known as "Brer Possum" may be hunted just as relentlessly as "Old Satan" himself.

Next Tuesday the club will have as its speaker Rev. Howie, of Tupelo, Miss.

Co-Eds Can't Find Ideal

'Coop' Residents Say Ussery Freshest

SOUTHWESTERN dormitory girls can't find an ideal man on the campus.

It's hard but it's true, the men just haven't got a show with the hard-to-please "coop" residents.

For some reason, the Evergreen Hall girls had a popularity contest among themselves. None dared, or was venturesome enough, to voice an ideal on the campus.

Max Ussery, nice boy, was dubbed the freshest freshman.

Freshman Louis Graeber rules their hearts, for he drew the awful distinction of being the best-looking frosh. But Mrs. Rutland's idea of the best-looking is Herman Bass.

"Dean" McKendrick owns the superlative of "biggest pest."

Some doubt the sincerity of this, but Tom Holloway was termed campus version of Caruso, tho Holloway hides his vocal art from fellow students.

To Vernon Pettit goes the credit of wearing the deepest path to Evergreen Hall. He is some visitor.

Beta Sigs Pledge

Beta Sigma announces the pledging of Freshman Herbert Williams of Union City, Tenn.

LYNX TACKLE AGGIES IN GRID GRUDGE PARTY

A. O. PI'S PLAN BARN DANCE ON WED. EVENING

Actives Fete Pledges with Costume Party At Lodge

The Alpha Omicron Pi sorority will entertain with a "barn" dance at the sorority lodge Wednesday evening from 8 to 11. The dance will be given by the active chapter in honor of the pledges. All guests will wear costumes, and no one will be admitted without one. Music will be furnished by Bill Taylor and the Royal Collegians.

The house will be gaily decorated for the occasion. Cornstalks, chicken coops, dried peppers, dried hams, and sausages will be artistically placed about the room. A "well" will be at one end of the room from which punch will be served throughout the evening. Individual lunch baskets will be given to each guest during intermission.

MEMBERS

Members of the chapter and their dates are Pud Mahan, with William Gammage, Grace Braun with Walker Turner, Mary Laughlin with Dabney Crump, Ella Kate Malone with escort, Kathryn Harris with Traverse Read, Margaret Tallichet with John Gaither, Mary Allie Taylor with Mayo Thomas, Peggy Walker with escort, Dorothea Sledge with Paul Calame, Clara McGehee with escort, Margaret Mercer with Charles Crump, Jessie Richmond with Lucien Connell, Winona Bates with J. P. Hollifield, Ida Banks with Leniod Wright, Zelda O'Brien with Harvey Drake.

Girls invited from the other sororities are Lucille Woods, Z. T. A., Marjorie Davis, Kappa Delta, Elizabeth Pierce, Chi Omega, Rosine Worthington, Tri-Delta.

Council Will Have Important Meeting

The Student council meeting slated for this week has been postponed until next Thursday or Friday. The delay is due to the fact that President High was not in the city for the meeting which is to be an important one.

Students Discuss Free Telephone Issue

Southwestern students want a free telephone, so they told the inquiring reporter who nosed about trying to find out true campus sentiment.

Every student who was asked the question, "Do you want a free telephone installed on the campus?" answered in the affirmative, and in most cases the answer was very emphatic.

Ronald Hayhoe was the first approached and he said, "I think it one of the greatest needs at present." The reporter then passed through the cloister to a group of freshettes and

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE FREE PHONE?

For a number of weeks there has been current talk about the campus concerning a free telephone for the use of the students. So far nothing has been done about it—except talk.

What's the trouble? Is the student council falling down on its job? Do the students want the phone? Why hasn't some definite action been taken? When will the phone be installed? These and a number of similar questions have been asked. What are and will be the answers?

One thing is certain. A free phone is an urgent need on the campus. If it were installed, it would be a valuable asset to the students. Many students have the need to use a phone, and it is the duty of the student council to see that the students have the privilege of using a telephone without paying.

The phone should be installed in a place where it will be convenient for the students. The ante-room to the private dining hall seems the logical place. But wherever and however it is placed, it should be installed soon.

The matter has rocked along for seven weeks and what has been done about it? Nothing. It is high time that some kind of constructive action be brought about. If the students really want and need the phone, then we should have it.

PLAN BONFIRE FOR OLE MISS

Celebration Is Scheduled For Nov. 18

Southwestern students will hold their final bonfire and pep meeting of the year on the Friday night preceding the Ole Miss game. Bill Taylor will lead the college band in a ceremony in which Ole Miss will be burned in effigy.

Various members of the team will give short talks and Coach Haygood will be asked to speak. An uptown theater may be obtained for a college night program.

The following morning a surprise stunt is being planned for chapel, at which time it is hoped "Memphis Bill" Mallory will speak.

Deputation To Be At County Home

The Ministerial Club will hold a service at the Shelby County Home, Sunday at 3:30 p. m. The service is to be purely musical, and is being arranged by Russell Cross, chairman of the deputation committee.

Several piano numbers will be rendered by Charles Hamilton, Charles Beecher and Dorothy Jane Kerr will sing. Some violin solos will be played by Sarah Elizabeth Gemmill. William Bensberg will accompany the soloists.

Ministers To Give Play Over WNBR

The Ministerial Club will sponsor its first Radio Program over WNBR Friday afternoon, November 18. The Biblical playlet to be given is entitled "Sacrifice." The characters are: Abraham, Russell Cross; Isaac, his son, Harte Thomas; Sarah, his wife, Malline Lyon. Music will be rendered by several soloists.

LYNX-DAYTON WILL DEBATE

Final Plans Completed For Argument

The University of Dayton will invade Lynxland when the debaters from that school meet the Southwestern forensic team in the early spring. Plans have been made whereby Dayton is taking an extended debating tour. Southwestern is on the itinerary.

The question is, "Resolved: That all inter-allied war debts be cancelled."

As this is a question of popular interest and as Dayton always presents a formidable team, a large attendance is expected.

Princeton Chooses Highsaw On Team

James Highsaw, Jr., former Southwestern student, has been selected for the Princeton University debating team. Over 150 competed for a place on the team, whose membership is limited to eight.

Highsaw was a freshman at Southwestern last year, where he took part in many intercollegiate debates. He represented the Lynx in debates against Oxford University and Princeton.

With this new honor bestowed on him, he will meet the debating teams of universities such as Harvard, Yale, and Columbia.

Chi O's Entertain With Tea Dance

The Chi Omegas will entertain with a tea-dance Saturday, November 19, from five to eight, at the Chi O. lodge. Bill Taylor and his Royal Collegians will furnish the music.

HAYGOOD'S MEN MEET OLD FOES AT STARKVILLE

Full Power Will Be Available For S. I. C. Foe

Southwestern will play Mississippi State College at Starkville today. The Lynx are anxious to defeat the charges of Ray Dauber as this encounter will be the rubber game, each team having won a victory in the contests of the past two years.

The Lynx will be a stronger adversary than last week because Herb Newton will be in the lineup today. Newton's kicking was missed in Birmingham, as well as his all-round play.

The team is in good shape, as the injuries received in the Birmingham-Southern game were slight. The offense should click beautifully as Capt. Harold High, and Zeke Knight, the powerful line-plunging fullback, are in shape.

Southwestern must win today in order to climb back to a 500 percentage, having lost to Alabama, Sewanee, Howard and Birmingham-Southern. The Lynx have defeated Millsaps, Union and Mississippi Teachers.

SPANISH CLUB WILL CONVENE

Holds Monthly Meeting Tuesday

The Spanish Club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the home of Prof. Storn at 1831 Forrest Ave., on Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The program will consist of a speaker who has visited in a Spanish speaking country and a contest which will necessitate the learning of Spanish parliamentary expression. A prize of one dollar will be offered to the member who is most proficient in the use of these expressions.

It has been decided to admit the members of the second year class who have attained a grade of "A." The present membership is made up of third year students who make "B."

New members of the club are Ann Sullens, Bond Dashiell, Margaret Faulhaber, Carroll Cloar, Minnie Lee Hamer, Mary Laughlin, and L. T. Webb.

S.T.A.B. Announces Freshette Member

Betsy O'Brien is the new wearer of the red badge and dagger. S. T. A. B., inter-sorority association, announces her today as the ninth member. Only four more will be selected as the club is limited to thirteen, twelve brunettes and one blonde.

Hamilton To Lead Men's Bible Class

The program of the Men's Bible Class for Sunday morning will be led by Charles Hamilton. The discussion of "The Desire of All Nations" will be continued. Special music has been arranged by Louis Nicholas, choir director.

James Overholser, chairman of the program committee, has announced that he has several interesting programs planned and urges the attendance of the dormitory boys.

all were in favor of the proposed phone. Cornelia Henning, Anne Brown Taylor, Kate Galbreath, Charlotte Berlin, and Priscilla Painter all said that they wanted a phone. "And it's gotta be a free one," they emphasized.

Clough Eaton said, "I wish we would get a phone in pretty soon. It's been a lot of talk but I don't believe that anything will ever come of it."

Martha Shaeffer replied to the query thus, "Yes, I certainly do think we need a free phone. It would be a convenience to the students." Peggy Walker and Sarah Naill were accosted by the reporter of the Sou'wester and both said that they were in favor of the project. "Are we going to get a free phone?" was the excited answer to the question. "You bet we are for getting a phone installed," they concluded.

Numerous others were questioned, but they didn't wish their names used. It seems that the opinion on the campus is wholly in favor of getting a free phone put in as soon as possible.

Merely a Bit Of Nonsense

Butcher (to boy whistling outside show-window): "What are you making all that noise for, you young scamp"

Little Boy: "I've lost my dog."
Butcher: "Well, do you think I've got your dog?"

Little Boy: "I don't know, guv'nor, but every time I whistle those sausesages move."

David Eddington (in restaurant): "Are you the young lady who took my order?"

Waitress: "Yes, sir."
David Eddington: "Well, you're still looking fine. How are your grandchildren?"

There had been a terrible train wreck. Dr. Johnson gasped, "Good-bye, Sam. I'm afraid I'm done for."
Dr. Monk, horrified, replied, "Don't say that, old man. For Heaven's sake, don't end your sentence with a preposition!"

"Caught anything?" asked a rough-looking man of a dignified clergyman who was strolling along the lake shore accompanied by his two pretty daughters.

"I sir, am a fisher of men," replied the preacher, somewhat testily.

"Well," replied the man as he glanced at the girls, "all I've got to say is that you've got the right kind of bait."

The kind old gentleman met his friend, little Willie, one very hot day.

"Hello, Willie!" he exclaimed, "and how is your dear grandpa standing the heat?"

"Ain't heard yet," said Willie, "he's only been dead a week."

A Scotchman in line waiting to purchase seats for "The Miracle."

Behind him stood a Jew.
"Have you two one-dollar seats for this show?" inquired the Scot when he finally reached the window.

"I am sorry; we are all sold out of the dollar ones," was the answer.

"Then give me two four-dollar seats," said the Highlander.

When the Hebrew heard this, he immediately left the line. He was heard to mutter, "I will keep my money,—I have seen de Miracle."

A SCOTTISH PROVERB—IF A MAN SEEKS TO INSULT YOU BY OFFERING YOU A DRINK—SWALLOW THE INSULT.

Judge—"What have you to say for yourself?"

Prisoner—"Well, if you can find me guilty, I am open to conviction."

"SHE WAS GOOD AS COOKS GO, AND, AS COOKS GO, SHE WENT."

Newton—"Make your peace, bozo, I'm about to shoot you."
Frosh Mays—"How come?"

Newton—"I've always said I'd shoot anyone who looked like me."

Mays—"Do I look like you?"
Newton—"Yes."
Mays—"Go ahead and shoot."

"Say, niggah, did you join one of dem frat clubs?"

"Nassah, black boy, I done got whiteballed."

"Daddy, why is that man running up and down the smoking-car with his mouth open?"

"My son, he's a Scotchman getting a free smoke."

Dr. Basset—"So, Lester, you are going to be a doctor?"
Lester Goldsmith—"Yessir."
Dr. Basset—"And are you always going to be cheerful?"

Lester Goldsmith—"Yessir,—except when I am cutting out tonsils. Then I'll be kind of down in the mouth."

"GOOD-BYE," SAID THE PEDESTRIAN, AS HE STARTED TO CROSS THE STREET. "MEET YOU UP YONDER."

Optimist: "Oh, pshaw, I've swallowed my collar button—but anyhow I know where it is now."

Co-Ed (at hospital)—"May I see Lt. Barker, please?"
Matron—"We do not allow ordinary visiting. May I ask if you are a relative?"

Co-Ed—"Oh, yes, I'm his sister."
Matron—"Well, well, I'm very glad to meet you. I'm his mother."

CHECK UP

With the approach of the reports, the end of the first period, and a feeling that part of the work is beginning to be monotonous drudgery, students are apt to slacken the rapid and ambitious paces, they have already set, and lapse into habits of mediocre effort, carelessness, and procrastination.

Regardless of the ratings recorded on the first report, these grades should prove a new incentive to every student. For those who have done exceptionally well, a desire to maintain the same degree of excellence should be forthcoming.

Grades classed as neither good nor bad should tend to increase effort to effect a more positive achievement. Those who have failed should immediately feel a new seriousness in their work and earnestly attempt to redeem themselves after an unfavorable impression of that kind.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Evergreen Hall

The holiday was welcomed at Evergreen and all seemed to find something to do with every minute. Mary "Mc" and Adelia went on the A. O. Pi house party. Mary nearly killed herself staying up all Saturday night trying to do some sort of hanging stunt between chairs.

Martha Ann and Hazel went to Clarksdale; Susie Ellen took a trip home and Margaret Scheid got to Little Rock in time to see a football game.

What's this between Martha and Olga? Seems they've found several "things" in common and are keeping everyone guessing.

Bob Pfrangle's little sister, Barbara, spent last Saturday and Sunday on the campus and caused a lot of excitement among freshmen.

Stewart Hall

There were only a few of the faithful to watch over Stewart during the past week-end. With the exodus of the football boys, both varsity and freshman, and their followers, the old hall became virtually empty.

However, little Sambo was around to keep things going. Sambo, as most everyone knows by this time, is Stewart's latest find. The honor of discovering him goes to "Chicken" High, Ned Wright, Bill Pickens, Jimmy Haygood, and Howard White. They picked him up down by the Peabody Hotel one night last week, and brought him home.

The little ducky, whose real name is Sam George Williams, had breakfasted, lunched, and dined on one doughnut that day. It seems that he had had some slight misunderstanding with his step-father, and in order to give that gentleman more room to swing his arms, Sambo had taken a somewhat hurried departure. He is now earning a precarious living shining opulent Stewartites' shoes.

Herb Newton and John Barnes are just about recovered from their knee injuries, sustained in the Howard game. John Street, however, took their place on the sick list with an ailing heart.

It is reported that Mac Givens almost walked off with a hotel in Birmingham when the players left Sunday morning. His noble efforts were foiled, however.

Robb Hall

The Old Dorm was exceedingly quiet over the week-end. Most of the occupants were out of town for the holiday and the hall, usually so cheery, was gloomy.

Julio Robinson was seen finishing a two-mile walk—and through the park, too, at 3 a.m. Friday.

There is a report out that one of our most prominent boarders, Fred Bearden, was thrown in the pond Monday night, but the report is based only on circumstantial evidence, and furthermore, Bearden denies it. Somebody was calling on Andy Edington for help at that time and if it was not Bearden, lots of ears were deceived.

Calvin Hall

Things have been extremely quiet in Calvin Hall during the past week. This condition is due partly to the few boys who remained in the dormitory over the week-end. Those who left had been so well entertained in Clarksdale and other towns that they were not in the spirit to indulge in any noisy enterprises. John Jordan claims he had a big time when he went home. His home is in Franklin, Tenn. These boys who remained at Southwestern during the week-end festivities are still talking of the dull time they had while the others were enjoying themselves.

The usual number of letters to the homes has decidedly decreased this past week. The boys are apprehensive as to the reports which their parents will receive in a few days, and are therefore slowing up on their letters, hoping that the parents will slow up on their letters of condemnation after viewing the reports. However, from the looks of what some of the fellows have been doing in a scholastic way, a good many letters from the parents should contain praise.

Several of the residents of the "dorm" are complaining because there is not a list of residents and their respective room numbers under the telephones. It is often difficult to locate the desired boy when his room number is unknown. A list like the one in Robb would be a benefit.

Friday evening holds much interest for several of the Calvinites. That is the night on which the Ministerial Club will have its 'possum hunt.

This 'n That On Campus

Led by Gladys Jane Caughlin and Eva Gene Bruce, the blondes are voicing a formal protest against the decision rendered by the eds as to the superiority of the brunettes. "Tain't so," says Misses Bruce and Caughlin, "cause we know what we know."

Dean McKendrick, having conquered the hearts of all the freshettes, is now said to be extending his campaign to the upper-class co-eds, and to one in particular.

It is quite the vogue to play "adjectives," and it's done like this: You mention someone's name, then all agree, if possible, on the one word that best describes them. Here are some of the results:

Chloe Burch _____ Pert
Dutch Bornman _____ Friendly
Kathryn Harris _____ Feminine
It's a good game, you must play it sometime.

Don't we get something for not having to date mentioned the Stratton-Edwards and the Smith-McCormick cases? And while we're on the subject, it is whispered by "them as ought to know" that Lucille Woods and the young Haygood are about to line up with the sweethearts on parade.

The two most considerate people on the campus are Edna Barker and Dickie Dunlap, and if you want proof, ask Charlotte Berlin.

RADIO SPEAKER

Station WREC

Prof. A. S. McIlwaine spoke over radio station WREC on Nov. 4 in behalf of the National Council of English Teachers which will soon be in convention at the Hotel Peabody. Dr. McIlwaine spoke on the subject, "The Local Sense of Literature." The purpose of his talk was to point out the joy to be had in the love of places. Some of the authors about which the Lynx prof spoke and the places in which they were interested are Dr. Samuel Johnson and London, Oliver Wendell Holmes and Boston of the Brahmin caste, George Cable and Creole New Orleans, DuBose Heyward and Charleston, S. C., and numerous others.

What a week-end! What a week-end! This seems to be the consensus of opinion among the darling undergrads after three nights and two days of sublime rest (?) and relief from the strenuous toil and labor of monthly tests and whatnot (mostly whatnot to your correspondent).

PLAYERS PLAN ANOTHER PLAY

To Collaborate With Stable Players

The Southwestern Players, co-operating with the James Lee Memorial Academy of Arts, will present a three-act play Dec. 13-14-15 at the Stable Playhouse, Orleans and Adams. Margaret Tallichet, chairman of the Players' Reading Group at the Academy, and Russell Cross, business manager of the Southwestern Players, are in charge of the group and have helped in the selection of the play, Gogol's "The Inspector." The play is conceived by Gogol as genuine comedy. His aim was to picture all that was bad in Russia and hold it up to contempt. He succeeds in making both contemptible and ludicrous the official life of Russia, the corruption universally prevailing throughout the civil service, the alternate arrogance and servility of men in office. Parts have not been assigned. Tryouts were held Wednesday afternoon. Further tryouts will be held next week.

A vast majority, the roving reporter discovered, spent the majority of the week-end trying to dodge old man Orpheus instead of lying sprawled in their respective beds (as they would have you believe). In fact, ye olde reporter, who rested a little from the rigors of writing, is the only one who can apply for the title of "World's Champion Somnabulist," which you'll have to admit sounds imposing enough.

Kate Galbreath (who created quite a stir at the S. O. S. club Bowery dance, dressed as something you do NOT take to the Debutante's Ball), John Hines, Dorothy Schoolfield, and Bill Eldred all challenge the reporter's title, but their habitual haggard and bedraggled look of sleepy despair belie their assertions. (Whew!)

Peggy Walker was eating popcorn a mile-a-minute at the Central-South Side game Saturday, trying to eat, to listen to her mysterious escort, and to watch the game all in the same breath.

The Phi Kappa possum hunt was a little too juvenile for our sophisticated society "gels," although Priscilla Painter, after tramping for hours through the woods, insisted that it was the best possum hunt she had ever been on. Hmm...

Peggy Henderson, Priscilla, Virginia Reynolds, and Jane Erskine spent the week-end preparing for the Debut ball Tuesday night, which they attended with such an air of dignity and grandeur that they were hardly recognizable.

Jimmy Wilson asserts that he spent the better part of his holiday in search of the girl who it is rumored said, "I want to meet him. He has such beoooooootiful eyelashes." Can you blame him?

GET DATES

One of the most unusual occurrences was the method three attractive Chi Omega pledges employed in the selection of their escorts for the sorority's Nov. 19 tea dance. Two of them would sit on the parapet out in front of Palmer Hall while the third roamed aimlessly around the building enticing males to go out the door. The third person that walked out the door was chosen as the escort for one of the two outside. Things, we hear, worked out rather nicely.

Charlotte Berlin and Anne Brown Taylor spent most of Friday night chasing a squad car around town and avoiding the two sots who followed them from one end of Main street to the other. They insist they had no dates that night and were in search of two handsome theatre ushers. But why follow a police car?

Practically all of our Clarksdale freshmen went home for the dance and stayed over; Vivian Lee and Helen Hill returned to Gates to see their families; Charlotte Stanage and Lyle drove down to Birmingham for the game; and Dean McKendrick and Catherine Davis wore out the saddles on several unknown horses. And so it went!

Girls Uninterested In Rudy's Choice

Cleveland, Ohio—Rudy Vallee may be the cause of skipped heart beats on the part of ribbon counter girls, but to the co-eds of the School of Education at Western Reserve University he's just another man.

This, at least, was the conclusion drawn on the Western Reserve Campus after it was found that a beauty contest which Vallee had promised to judge was called off because of a lack of interest in the judge on the part of the girls.

"I think someone else would be better fitted for the job," was the comment made by Isabel Ellsworth, president of the student senate.

Agreement Saves Money On Socials

Walla Walla, Wash.—(IP)—An agreement between the men's fraternities at Whitman College here has shaved off the annual social expenses of each fraternity on the campus this year.

Another Loss

Franklin Kimbrough wants to know if this business of stealing the wheels and tires is a game. Franklin's car was parked on the campus last Friday when he left with the team to play Birmingham-Southern and when he came back someone had taken the right rear tire from his Ford roadster. "Seriously speaking," according to Franklin, "something ought to be done about it."

C. U. CABINET

Dr. McLean To Continue Discussion

The cabinet of the Southwestern Christian Union will hold its regular semi-monthly meeting at 6 p. m. Monday. Dr. G. A. McLean will speak on "What Constitutes a Christian."

The flag committee, composed of Mary Kennedy Hubbard, Nell Davis and Russell Cross, will buy a Christian flag for the use of the college.

Lynx Bow Down To B'ham-S'thern

Panthers Win To Tune of 20 to 6

Birmingham-Southern defeated Southwestern decisively last Saturday on Legion Field in Birmingham. The score was 20 to 6. Southern presented a clever aerial attack, but was also effective on off-tackle plays and sweeping end runs.

For the first time this season, the Lynx line was outcharged. The lighter Panther crew seemed to keep the jump on the Southwestern line throughout the game.

The score was tied at 6-all at the half. Capt. High carried the ball 14 yards off tackle for the Lynx tally that knotted the count. He had previously returned a punt to the Southern 44 yard stripe and had then run around end for 29 more yards.

The weakness of the Southwestern punting department proved their downfall in the second half. The long boots of Newton, out with injuries, were sorely missed, and the Lynx lost considerable yardage on every punt exchange.

Jimmy Wilson starred at left end. Cecil McCollum also made the Southern boys know that he was in the game. Perrette played his usual steady game at right end.

'ZEKE' GOING GOOD

SHERIFF KNIGHT

Tate Victor

Alvan Tate proved that he knows his football from another angle other than that of yelling by winning the Sou'wester contest last week. In a selection of games that was unique in that it had no tie games, Tate bagged 31 victories out of 35 games. He was hard-pressed by Joe Wilson, Red Foreman, and Jack Crawford, all of whom had 30 correct.

Olga Hartmann proved to be the worst guesser this week by only getting 18.

Ole Miss Frosh Swamp Bobcats

Lynx Yearlings Lose To Potent Team, 46 to 6

Ole Miss freshmen defeated the Bobcats of Southwestern last Friday at Clarksdale, score 46 to 6. The heavy Ole Miss line was too much for the light scrappy forward wall of the Baby Lynx.

Neal Tapp intercepted a lateral pass and raced 75 yards for the lone Lynx tally. J. R. Mann made some nice runs for the yearlings.

The freshmen held the Ole Miss boys scoreless in the first quarter, but weakened later, particularly in the second and fourth periods.

Tapp and Hammond were outstanding in the freshman line. Harwood played a good game at defensive fullback. Raspberry caught several passes and played a good defensive game.

Dixie Teams Have Tough League Foes

Mercer Meets Moccasins In Feature of Week

Mercer, only undefeated team in the Dixie Conference, meets the strong Chattanooga Moccasins Armistice Day at Chattanooga. Mercer beat the Praying Colonels of Centre last week.

Birmingham-Southern, as a result of defeating Southwestern, has three victories against a single defeat. It should add another victory when it plays Spring Hill Saturday. Southwestern goes out of the conference Armistice Day in an effort to gain the S. I. C. victory at the expense of Mississippi State at Starkville.

Howard has an excellent chance to raise her standing if she can beat Millsaps. Last week Millsaps bowed to Louisiana Tech while the Bulldogs were resting.

Mississippi College, after losing to Colgate in an intersectional fray last week, will attempt to stop the strong Louisiana Tech team at Clinton.

Co-Eds To Assist In Charity Drive

Plans have been made by Dr. Diehl and Mrs. Townsend for the part Southwestern will take in the Community Fund drive starting next week.

Twelve girls are to be chosen from the student body to canvass each day next week. Members of the sociology class will probably take an active part.

Mascot

Southwestern's gridiron warriors, High and Pickens, have adopted an official mascot for the football team. The mascot is an ebony colored human who answers to the name of "Lynx." "Lynx" is at the present time residing in the gym and is earning his board and lodging by shining shoes. After shining shoes of his friends on the campus, "Lynx" goes about the city shining 'em up for everyone else.

T. N. E.'s To Have Week-End Party

The Theta Nu Epsilon pledges will be honored with a house party this week-end at the home of Ben Douglas, an alumnus, in Stanton, Tenn. A feature of the party will be a possum hunt on Saturday evening.

The T. N. E.'s will assemble on the campus at three o'clock Saturday afternoon and drive to Stanton. They will return to Memphis sometime the next day.

The pledges to be honored are Leslie McKee, J. M. Hart, Maurice Carlson, Richard Alexander, Wiley Jones, Richard Drake, and Berry Holt. Among the actives and alumni planning to go are J. P. Hollifield, Jim Wadlington, Harvey Creech, Scutter Smith, George Siebold, Robert Orr, Wilburn Jenkins, and Ed Thompson.

Philosophers Plan Monthly Meeting

Four New Members To Be At Meeting

The Nitist Club will hold a meeting in the private dining hall at six o'clock on the evening of November 23. According to Ronald Hayhoe, "It should prove to be a very interesting meeting."

The four new members asked to join are: Mac Elder, Dan Ross, Morris Heins, and Franklin Kimbrough. Bill Duease will read the paper to the club at the meeting. His daring piece of literary art is titled, "The Cause of Our Present Instability Is Due Mainly to The Franchisement of Women."

Student Volunteers Will Meet Sunday

The student volunteers will have their regular monthly meeting Sunday, at which time they will be entertained by a musical program composed of out-of-town talent brought here especially for the program. J. B. Breazelle is in charge of the meeting.

Schwinn Selected To Ride On Float

The cabinet of the Southwestern Christian Union has honored Julia Marie Schwinn by selecting her to represent the school by riding on the float which the school is placing in the Armistice Day parade. Robert Pfrange will be her escort on the float.

CO-EDS TO DO CHARITY WORK

Girls To Sew Dresses For Needy

At a meeting in Hardie Auditorium Tuesday morning, Mrs. Townsend and the co-eds made plans for the annual Christmas charity work. The same system which was used last year with great success will again be tried.

The faculty wives will cut out various garments, one of which will be given to each girl in the student body, who will take them home to be sewed and then return them to Mrs. Townsend.

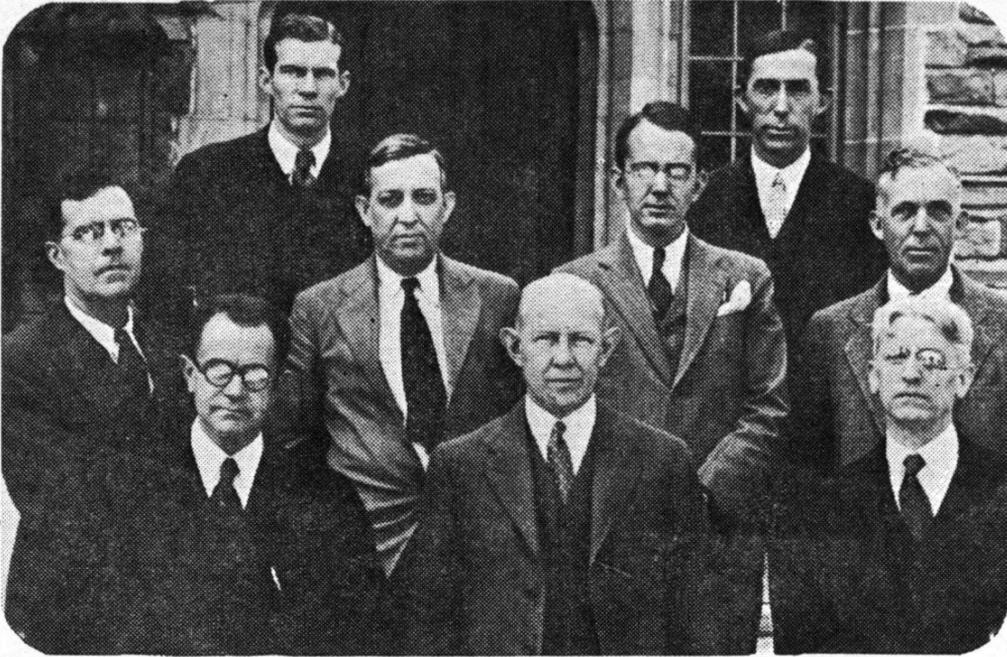

The finished garments will be given to the Family Welfare Agency or to the Salvation Army for distribution among the poor of Memphis. Because of the greater need for charity this year, Mrs. Townsend urged the girls to bring at least one old article of clothing besides the new one which they have made.

Boxes were put at the door of chapel Wednesday morning to receive the donations. If this plan carries through, Southwestern will have a very creditable offering to present to some charitable organization.

"I've just come from old Sam's funeral."

"Why, is old Sam dead?"
"Well, if he isn't, we certainly played him a dirty trick."

RHODES SCHOLARS

Southwestern was host to the various Rhodes scholars in the city last week, when the college gave a luncheon honoring Pres. Frank Aydelotte, prominent Rhodes committeeman of Swarthmore College.

Those in the photo reading from left to right are (first row): Dr. Robert Strickler, Pres. Aydelotte, Dr. Chos. Diehl; (second row): Dr. A. P. Kelso, J. W. Farley, Dr. John Davis, Dr. W. R. Cooper; (third row): Dr. Robert Davidson, and Dean R. W. Hartley.

But he hasn't any mind,
He stumbles thru' existence

country without a man."

COLLEGE CLUB PLANS DANCE

Panhellenic Council To Be Honored

Tennessee-Vandy game or no Tennessee-Vandy game, the College Club is expecting to have its usual gay crowd this Saturday night at the Peabody. It seems that everyone who is not planning to go to Nashville is counting on having a royally good time here at home Saturday.

The football game between Southwestern and Mississippi State will be played Friday and all the Lynx squad will get home in time for the dance. This week the members of the Panhellenic Council will be honored.

So successful have these dances been that people have complained about them not being long enough. As a result of such complaints the time has been moved up to 8:30. Members of the Panhellenic Council are A. T. O.—Goodlett Brown and McLemore Elder; Kappa Sig—Russell Perry and Harte Thomas; S. A. E.—Bill Gamme and Ralph Booth; Pi K. A.—Charlie Ledsinger and Charlie Crump; K. A.—Harvey Drake and James Colman; T. N. E.—James Wadlington and Harvey Creech; Beta Sig—Louis Bornman and Clark Porteous.

Among the others that are planning to attend are Sarah Elizabeth Gemmil and Raymond Sanders, Cornelia Henning and Charlie Ledsinger, Sara Naill and Charlie Cocks, Aylmarie Pearson and Tick Ulhorn, Margaret Tallichet and Charlie Crump, Ione Wall and Jimmy Daimwood, Helen Gordon and Oliver Cobb, Martha Chase and Russell Perry, Eva Gene Bruce and Cliff Mabie, Anne Brown Taylor and Douglas Grymes, Kathryn Stratton and Ben Edwards, Grace Braun and John Hines, Jane Erskine and Robert Neill, Dorothy Smith and Claude McCormick, Edna Barker and Dicky Dunlap, Kathryn Harris and Traverse Read, Peggy Walker and escort, Virginia Watson and escort; Alice Allen and Jim Carey, James Hughes and Jane Barker, Billy Hughes and Ann Sullens.

Here and There

Everyone is raving about the snapshot Lillias Christie has of Kate Cleveland. If more pictures like that were taken Lillias should have a very profitable business.

Have you seen the midget football team in action? If not see coaches Whitaker and Bearden about it.

Students are clamoring for a performance by Clarke Gable and Greta Garbo. Can nothing be done about this?

Martha Burton gets letters from her sisters, Louise and Cora, raving about what a whirl they had here at Southwestern, how great the school is, etc.

These boys who have regular picture galleries in their room! It is rumored that we have such power houses on our campus.

Ned Wright is awfully anxious to get to Nashville. Is it Ward-Belmont or the U. T.-Vandy game, Ned?

Why is Bobby Metcalf so depressed since he came back from Clarksdale? Oh, these Clarksdale girls. They seem to have their clutches on quite a few of our freshmen. Razz and er-rub—

I guess H. Drake kinda rates—being able to hold the interest of one of Memphis' most beautiful.

Dorsey Barefield is back on the campus after a severe illness.

Look Out, Boys

Jean "Effie" Reid has a new "get-your-man" policy.

She has been noted straying about blowing kisses to the masculine population on the campus. She refused to comment on whether or not she'd deliver them in person. You might ask her, though, that is you might if you want to see a transfiguration of a girl into a beet, a red, red beet or maybe just a carrot.

You also can score a point by asking her what "Sal" stands for.

Chesterfields are Milder—

Chesterfields Taste Better

You know how it is. If a cigarette is mild—that is, not harsh or bitter, but smokes cool and smooth—then you like it and don't worry about how many or how often you smoke.

And if it tastes right—that is, not oversweet, not flat—then you enjoy it all the more.

The right kind of ripe, sweet Domestic and Turkish tobacco... the right ageing and blending... make Chesterfields milder, better-tasting... They Satisfy!

Dr. Sam Monk Cops Title of Most Popular Professor On Lynx Campus

Others Get Votes For Coveted Honor Among Men Of Higher Knowledge

Long ago, according to Greek legend, Diogenes with his lantern searched through the country for an honest man. The search has now begun for the perfect professor. If none at Southwestern quite reach the mark at least some views on the subject can be quoted. Dr. Monk by far exceeds all others in this search for perfection, leaving Dr. Davis, the most popular professor of last year, far behind. Most of those students who refuse to have their names in print think Monk is "the most perfect" prof. John Farley and Charley Sherman both think he is a keen guy—his lectures in class are so amusing and keep everyone entertained.

Davis is still keeping his standard of last year to some extent—Peggy Walker casts her vote for him because of those A's she gets in history. Sarabeth Farmer likes for her professors to act crazy in class—not so strict and formal, you know. Davis seems to fill the order.

SENSE OF HUMOR

Dr. Bassett is extremely popular—among the freshettes especially. Bernice Cavett says that she adores his cute sense of humor when people are being annoying under his window—and the way he squelches them! Mary Anna Stockard likes for him to take time from class with his witty stories.

Ned Wright just could not make up his mind—the trouble with so many people. He says "Storn is friendly, more congenial than the other professors, and more human." But he also says, "McLean has more sense than any of the others." He thinks Dr. Swan should be mentioned for being human and interesting, but says McIlwaine and the others are O. K. too.

UNDERSTANDING

Clara McGehee says Dr. Davidson is a man she can talk to—so understanding. Jean Reid prefers Dr. Pond because he is human and understanding. Charlotte Stanage was wavering between Drs. Cooper and Atkinson.

Quite a few of those who balked at being quoted voted for Dr. and Mrs. Townsend because of their humor.

Although we see these professors only in class and relentlessly distributing grades from A to F, there is also another side. We can be sure they are striving and working so that their pupils will have a good opinion of them. Realize then, professors, that the most important requirements for popularity are to be humorous, understanding and human.

IDEAL WEDDING COMES TRUE

N'Western Students Are Good Choosers

Evanston, Ill.—The "most perfect wedding" is in the making on the campus of Northwestern University.

Last year the coeds on the campus elected Paul Cummins the "ideal man" of the university.

Last year the men of the university elected Miss Ruth Wenter the school's "most beautiful girl."

The engagement of the two has just been announced.

EX-YALE COACH IS IN POLITICS

Tad Jones Is Candidate For Congress

New Haven, Conn.—T. A. D. (Tad) Jones, one of the most famous of Yale football coaches, who retired two years ago to go into the coal business here, was nominated last week at the Republican Convention here as a candidate for the seat in Congress held by Representative John Q. Tilson.

Tilson, who lost the party leadership in the last session of Congress to Bertrand Snell of New York, recently announced his retirement after 22 years in Congress. Tilson himself pulled Jones' name in nomination.

Students Barbecue A Young Buffalo

Aberdeen, S. D.—The outstanding feature of the annual homecoming, or Gypsy Day, at Northern State Teachers College her this year was a buffalo barbecue.

The barbecue was a two-year-old steer buffalo.

FRAT DEBATES ARE SCHEDULED

Subject and Pairings Are Completed

The first round debates in the inter-fraternity tournament will be run off during the next few weeks, Harte Thomas, chairman, announces. The question is, "Resolved that Compulsory Chapel Should Be Abolished."

The question will no doubt be of popular enough interest to insure a large crowd at the debates. Each fraternity and a non-fraternity group plan to participate, and a cup will be given to the winning team.

NEW GROUND

This is the first time in some while that the inter-fraternity spirit has penetrated to the field of debating, but it will afford an excellent opportunity for some genuine unbiased arguments. As last year's debating team is ineligible for competition, the members will act as judges.

They are Clarke Porteous, Henry Oliver, Harte Thomas, Alvan Tate. The schedule is as follows: non-fraternity vs. Kappa Alpha; Kappa Sigma vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Alpha Tau Omega vs. Theta Nu Epsilon; Beta Sigma vs. Kappa Alpha.

A grass widow is a grasshopper that has no husband.

NUMEROUS LYNX STUDENTS PLAN TO ATTEND TENN.-VANDY GRIDIRON BATTLE

The old school will be all deserted tomorrow if all the students who are planning to go to Nashville for the Tennessee-Vandy game really do go.

Alice McSpadden is even planning to leave Friday so that she'll be in Nashville for the big party the S. A. E.'s are planning. Herbie Kay is going to play for the dance. Alice is looking forward to a good time for she has been invited to attend a dinner to be given for the debutants.

June Cunningham is driving up in her car and taking Ethel Taylor and Jim Gautier with her. Another car load going will be Jane Erskine, John Hines, Grace Braun, and Robert Neill.

Bernice Cavett and her mother are taking Lib Pearce, Gladys Jane Caughlin and Savilla Martin with them.

Louise Carroll is planning to leave Saturday morning by automobile and Herbert Pierce will be on hand to change tires and serve as protector. Mary Jane Stimson and Charles Woolfolk will accompany them.

Morris Heins, James Wadlington and William Glover don't seem to care for the ladies' company as they are driving up "stag." They plan to drive home right after the game, however.

Mary Laughlin is planning on a family reunion at Nashville, for brothers Harry and Albert are coming from Knoxville. Mary is driving up with Theresa Lily and Mary McCallum.

Eva Gene Bruce has plans for driving up and taking Cliff Mabie and Mary Allie Taylor with her. Ella Kate Malone, Douglas Heuer and Lucius Cook will make another party driving up.

Tri-Delta House Goes Up Rapidly

The newest addition to sorority row, the Tri-Delta lodge, is rapidly attaining the semblance of a real house. The concrete foundations have been finished; the floor boards have been laid; and the work on the stone walls has been started.

There is no definite information as to when the house will be completed, but Mr. George Mahan seems to be doing a record-breaking job in regards to speed. As somebody opines, the house will be done in at least three months, if not sooner.

C. U. Cabinet Has Float In Parade

Johnny Rollow, Gene Stewart, and Tom Jones are hard at work making the float which is going to be in the Armistice Day parade. One of the school trucks has been used as a foundation on which a frame work is built.

It has sloping sides with Southwestern seals around them, and on the back of the truck is a throne at the foot of which a lynx will recline. Tom Jones remarked that he thought that Will and Clara, an ex-janitress of the school, would grace the throne, but delving deeper into the matter, it was discovered that Julie Marie Schwinn and Bob Pfrangle have won this coveted seat of honor.

This float is being sponsored by the Southwestern Christian Union.

THE FALL OF TICONDEROGA
"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by F. C. Yohn...inspired by that horror-filled dawn when the bloodthirsty savages fell on Ethan Allan's gallant "Green Mountain Boys" of Fort Ticonderoga fame. "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes.

No raw tobaccos in Luckies —that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
