Greeks Pledge Tomorrow Night

PLEDGING ENDS ANNUAL GREEK RUSH SEASON

Frats And Sororities To End Battling

PLEDGE TOMORROW

Men Pledge At 6:15 P.M. Women At 8

After three days of torrid rushing, the fraternities and sororities will cease operations tonight and wait for the pledging ceremony that will be held tomorrow at 6:15 p. m. Pledging will be by the preferential bidding system, and will be held in Palmer Hall.

The annual Greek War will be culminated tonight at 1 o'clock, when all freshmen will be released from their frat dates and given a chance to make up their minds, a task that the upperclassmen have been trying to do for them the past few days.

PLENTY OF MATERIAL

Each of the fraternities are anticipating a good bunch of pledges as their share of the rush season. The class of '36 has a large number of likely prospects and no doubt everyone will be well supplied with a good bag of freshman game.

The competition between fraternities has been unusually keen this year and the same holds true as to the sorority warfare. The sororities will garner in their catch at 8 p. m. tomorrow.

PLENTY OF TEA

After a three day tea marathon, the sorority sisters are all primed for pledging the best group of girls ever, so it has been rumored. Each of the sororities had an hour tea yesterday, and will again hold the teas this afternoon.

Tomorrow afternoon, all of the sororities will hold teas from 3 to 5 o'clock, and the freshettes will attend the tea of the sorority they intend to pledge. Pledging will be held in the Science Hall.

The sororities will hold an open house for the welcoming of their pledges tomorrow night after the pledging. The frats have been invited to bring their pledges around and show them to the sorority sisters.

Student Council To Form Constitution

A committee for drawing up a constitution for the student council was appointed by the president at the last meeting. The committee is composed of Louis Bornman, Franklin Kimbrough, and Goodlett Brown. At the present time, the council doesn't have a constitution.

The council also discussed plans for the election of the president of the publications board. The vacancy of this office was made by the failure of Guy Mitchell to return to college.

The president also announced that he would investigate the fact as to who was entitled to seats on the council. The exact organizations having seats will be named at the next meeting, which will be held some time next month.

Lost, One Wheel

Harvey Drake, Ripley, Ohio's, contribution to Southwestern, is bemoaning the fact that someone has stolen the left rear wheel from his Ford coupe.

The car was parked arear the science hall and sometime between the hours of 6 and 9 Monday, the tire disappeared. The culprit lifted wheel, tire, et al, and silently crept away.

Drake has replaced the lost member by the use of his spare, but has asked the Sou'wester to announce that he would appreciate all help that anyone could give him in helping him locate the lost wheel. Anyone knowing its whereabouts, please commute the same to Drake.

PEP BAND TO BE ORGANIZED

Bill Taylor To Direct Uniformed Brass

According to the "old maestro" of Southwestern, Bill Taylor, this season's Pep Band will outrank any previous organization of its kind. No definite decision has been reached as to the uniforms the players will wear, but if current reports are to be relied upon the band will cause quite a sensation when it appears in Fargason Field to aid the Lynx in their fight for football supremacy.

BAND ROSTER

The following boys have signed for the band: William H. Walker, Duff Gaither, Charles Beecher, Leslie McKee, J. M. Jones, Gene Gates, Alex Gilliam, M. A. Lightman, Clough Eaton, Jim Wadlington, John Parran, Harvey Heidelberg, Guy Meyers, William Eldred, Louis Baker, Harvey Creech, Leslie McCormack, Jack Brown, and Gene Vieh.

Nitist Club Will Hold First Meeting

The first meeting of the Nitist Club will be held in the private dining hall of Neely Hall sometime after Oct. 1, Ronald Hayhoe, president, announced yesterday. A paper of a philosophical nature will be read by one of the club members. Final arrangements will be completed this week for the meeting.

COLLEGE CLUB TO BE OPENED SAT., OCT. 1ST

Royal Collegians To Play At Lynx Dance

The College Club, a place where Southwestern students may spend a pleasant Saturday evening dancing, will be opened Oct. 1 at the Hotel Peabody. The club is being sponsored by Bill Taylor and His Royal Collegians, foremost and popular college orchestra.

Dancing will be enjoyed in the Italian Room of the Peabody Hotel and it will be exclusively for the students of Southwestern. For a number of years, the students have been hoping for a place where the college crowd might congregate. The College Club seems to be the answer to the problem.

The club is not to run for any monetary gain and the orchestra will not make any more than they would playing for a regular dance. The price of admission will be 75 cents for stags and one dollar for a couple.

Dancing will start at 9 o'clock and the genial leader announced that the first no-break would be called shortly after the dance started. The dance will be given in compliment to the football players of the varsity squad. A number of the players will be the guests of the management each week.

Students who have been asked their opinion about the club have answered favorably at all times and the Collegians are looking forward to making the dance a big success.

Tri-Delts Initiate Two New Members

The Delta Psi Chapter of Delta Delta Delta takes pleasure in announcing the initiation of Mary Frances McCollum and Elizabeth Featherstone Riley. The Star and Crescent degree was given last Friday night with Corinne Gautier, president, in charge.

Durham At the C. A.

Frances Durham, graduate of the class of '32, and a former student correspondent, has landed herself a swell job in the society department of the Commercial Appeal. Frances is remembered by the sophomore girls as the High Priestess of the San Hedrin last fall.

Senior Lettermen Choose Sponsors For Home Games

Twelve Co-Eds Selected For High Honor

Twelve of the fair Southwestern co-eds were selected by the senior lettermen to serve as sponsors for the team during the coming season. The Lynx will have two sponsors at each of the six home games.

The sponsors and the games for which they will be the sponsors are Dorothy Smith and Kate Cleveland, Millsaps; Jimmie Kate Johnson and Sarah Elizabeth Gemmill, Ole Miss; Eugenia Weeks and Lillian Gautier, Sewanee; Eloise Brett and Martha Burton, Springhill; Katherine Reid and Olive Black, Howard; Mary McDonald Eddins and Corinne Gautier, Mississippi State Teachers.

Each of the nine senior lettermen selected one sponsor and three were elected for the completion of the dozen. Senior lettermen making the selections were Capt. Harold High, Herbert Newton, Sib Hebert, Arthur Womble, Toxey Fortenberry, Zeke Knight, Cotton Perrette, Claude McCormick, and Butch Love.

This is the second year since the inauguration of the practice that the seniors choose the sponsors, that they have been so selected.

CLUB TO ELECT NEW MEMBERS

Boosters To Name Six Students

Six new members for the Boosters club will be selected at its meeting next week, Franklin Kimbrough, president, announced this morning. The new members will supplant those fraternity and sorority members who failed to return to college.

Members will be selected from the Pi Kappa Alpha, Theta Nu Epsilon, Kappa Alpha, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, and Alpha Omicron Pi. The various organizations will present a list of three members to the club and from the list one new student will be named.

LYNX ENGAGE CRIMSON TIDE SATURDAY P. M.

Squad Embarks Tonight For Tuscaloosa

TEAM MINUS NEWTON

Lynx Fortified With A Heavy Line

Tomorrow the Lynx face what is perhaps the toughest assignment that any Southwestern team has ever had. It is stopping the Crimson Tide of Alabama. Coach Frank Thomas' big team, which uses the Notre Dame system, is expected to be one of the strongest in the Southern Conference.

However, the Haygood-Miller aggregation can be depended on to give them a real battle. Coach Haygood expects to take about thirty stalwarts to Tuscaloosa and the competition to make the trip has been lively.

Alternate Captain "Cotton" Perrette will undoubtedly hold down one end, with Jimmy Wilson and John Barnes both apt to see considerable service at the other terminal. Big Cecil McCollum and Sid Hebert seem to have the first call at the tackle positions, with Fortenberry and Morris Thomas ready for any emergency.

Fred Bearden and Gordon Fox are the first-string guards, with "Little" McCollom and Mac Givens as their understudies. "Windy" McCormick will play center with Jim Talley as the reserve pivot man.

NEWTON OUT

The backfield is still an uncertain quantity. The loss of Herbert Newton, who is out with an injured ankle, will be keenly felt. The Amite triple threat star will be particularly missed when Southwestern needs to punt, as Newton is one of the leading kickers in the Dixie Conference.

Captain High will be at his regular post, quarterback. Sheriff Knight will be at full. Butch Love will probably play one half with Art Womble and Bill Pickens alternating at the blocking back.

Freshettes Prefer Upperclassmen

A recent interview of the members of the freshman class shows that both the frosh and freshettes have formed favorable opinions of each other. The frosh are strong for the freshettes, but thorough investigation shows that the freshettes admire the frosh for their erstwhile good appearance yet will give dating preference to upperclassmen.

This year's enrollment of new students gives Southwestern an unusually large freshman class, which in turn gives Daniel Cupid ample territory in which to carry on his activities.

The fact that there are many more co-eds than collegians in Southwestern will probably install in the hearts of freshettes a changed attitude toward freshmen. Until this change occurs the freshmen will have a hard row to hoe when it comes to dating the freshettes.

SUPPRESSED DESIRE

As for personal attitudes, The Inseparable Three, freshettes McMahan, Taylor, and McSpadden, each state that the freshmen are good as freshmen classes go. As for preference, well, they will take upperclassmen any day. They all three express a secret weakness for Dr. Townsend.

Freshette Barker was more cautious with her views. She "guesses" that the freshmen are all right, and she "guesses" that she would prefer upperclassmen. Life to freshette Barker seems to be just one "guess" after another.

Not so with freshette Watson. She thinks that both the freshmen and the upperclassmen are plenty cute. As for preference—she says she hasn't any.

LIKE FROSH

Freshettes Erskine, Stockard, Griffin, Painter, and Lee all seem to like both the frosh and the upperclassmen. It's hard to tell which they prefer.

The story of the freshmen is different. All the frosh like the freshettes, especially freshmen Razzberry, Gillam, and McKendrick. Freshman Gillam says that the freshettes are as good as those at Randolph-Macon. Razzberry says they are plenty keen—he likes 'em fine. The Dean, freshman McKendrick, says they are the best looking ever.

FROSH OPINE

Most of the frosh were content to make their statements brief and to the point. Freshman Strickland thinks freshettes are O. K. Frosh Ramsey says some of 'em are O. K. and some ain't.

Deputation Work Planned By Club

The Deputation Committee of the Ministerial Club has begun its activities, and the first service will be conducted at the Campbell's Clinic on Wednesday evening, October 4.

On October 11 a service will be held at the Crippled Children's Home. Other services are being planned, also. It is hoped that several Sunday School teachers will be placed again this year by the Deputation Committee. Last year seven collegians taught regular classes in various churches of the city.

Co-Ed Bible Class Sponsored by 'Y.W.'

The Y. W. C. A. started a Bible Class on the campus for the co-eds last Sunday with a very interesting program. Mrs. Townsend spoke to the girls and introduced to them "The Hound of Heaven," that impressive poem of Francis Thompson. After a reading of this, she gave a brief talk, explaining certain phases of it and helping to make clear its true significance.

KAMPUS KRAX

Elizabeth—Ah, Essex, my jewels, my land, my everything is yours for the asking.

Essex—Hmmm, not bad land.

* * *

McSpadden—I'll never go out with another soldier again!

McMahan—Why?

McSpadden—All he wanted to do was shoulder arms all night.

LEAP YEAR LETTERS

SHE:

Dear Sir—
You're far too handsome
A single man to be;
You'll surely marry someone
Eventually! Why not me?

HE:

Dear Madam—
Though I'm honored
To think that you should choose me,
I have a wife and seven kids,
So I beg that you excuse me!

THE GANGSTER SPEAKS

"How are your children getting along?"

"Oh, fine. Tony wants to be a racketeer, and Molly wants to be a chorus girl."

"But what happened to Al?"

"Oh, we had to kill him. He wanted to go to college."

* * *

Say, did you hear about the fellow who stood in front of the dental display window. "I think I'll get a pair like that," he mused.

"Hush," said his companion, "don't you know it's impolite to pick your teeth in public."

SEND A TELEGRAM

Tomorrow, Southwestern's gridiron warriors will open the 1932 football season for the college. The team, in meeting the strong Alabama aggregation, is facing probably its toughest game of the year. The team will no doubt feel the part of the underdog, lacking the self-confidence that is needed to put them on the pre-game edge.

If the varsity knew that the students of Southwestern were behind them one hundred per cent, they would go into the fray with a feeling that can only be expressed by those who play the game. A telegram from each of the organizations, fraternities and sororities, and from individual students will do a lot toward helping them to gain this necessary feeling of confidence.

The cost of a telegram to Tuscaloosa is very small, and the dividends received from the sending of such a message are great. It should behoove every student of the institution to send some sort of message to them to let them know that we really are behind them to the fullest extent, and though we can't be there in person, we are there in spirit.

GET INTO ACTIVITIES

A number of extra-curricula activities afford the students a chance to do something in a big way. Now is the time for freshmen to start entering these activities. If you wish a well rounded college life, get into the activities. The value of them is something that isn't measurable in dollars and cents but in work and accomplishments.

Southwestern has organizations of a number of types so that they cover all the fields of endeavor in which any and all students might be interested. Dramatics, literary, philosophical, journalistic, and a number of others are here at the college for the membership of the student.

These organizations are well organized and their value to the student is well known to upperclassmen. If the freshman overlooks all these organizations and sticks to himself, his scope of affairs will be considerably narrowed. For a most enjoyable time, freshmen, get into the activities.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Robb Hall

Things of all sorts are being done by Robb Hall men, but to be definite and start at the bottom, here is the dope:

Freshmen Julian Klaus and Harvey Heidelburg were given a lesson in freshman etiquette by the San Hedrin council. This was their first meeting with that illustrious group. They learned a new way to count five.

Gene Stewart and Tom Jones have resumed their old graft of printing placards and painting hats for the freshmen. If business continues to improve in the future as it has in the past, these promising young men will soon be given a rating in Bradstreet.

Rodney Baine and Reed Brock have acquired a radio and a percolator. They make coffee every night at ten thirty and all coffee drinkers are invited to attend these sessions.

Shorty Simmons and Harvey Heidelburg, as members of Bill Taylor's orchestra, will play every Saturday for the College Night Dances to be held in the Italian room of the Hotel Peabody, starting October first.

Evergreen Hall

The papers show that Billy Hughes has been winning new laurels for himself on the tennis courts again. Now, can a certain blond living in Evergreen have been the inspiration? Seems that his car is parked in front of the dormitory quite frequently this year.

Saw Sailor Anderson around here again today. My! My! Hazel Corley, what have you done to the boy?

"Sheriff" Knight has been heard plotting new ways to scare the girls and keep them awake nights with the use of cow-bells. Here's a warning to you, "Sheriff," everyone is prepared and if anything happens you'd better keep away for awhile.

Ask Malline Lyon about those Georgia Tech stickers all around her room and the letters in green ink.

Those two cute new transfers Adelia McConnell and Mary McD. Eddins, surely do rate. Looks like a certain few Kappa Sigs are going to be regular visitors around here from now on. And, what's this about the Thirteen Club last Saturday night?

The latest story to be told in Evergreen bull sessions is the one about the unusual ping-pong game that two co-eds saw while passing Robb Hall's Social Room the other night.

Calvin Hall

Inmates of Calvin Hall thought Pandemonium had broken loose one afternoon when a horde of Freshmen came tearing through the halls. Every time they found one of their compatriots, they forced him to sever the brim from his cowboy model straw "bonnet," and took him with them in search of more hapless victims.

Calvin has been even more overrun with first year men than usual. The reason for this is that it is rush week and three of the fraternities have their rooms on the second floor. This helps the frosh, as they often do not have very far to go for their next date.

Freshman George Hymers, Laurel, Miss., has been sick practically the entire time that he has been here. He is much better, however, and it is hoped that he will soon be able to rejoin the Bobcat football squad.

Another Short Story.

Spoon
(Boom!)
Groom.

Campus Candle

Now that the rushing season is nearly over, we wager the campus will look rather barren. The big "mothas," the influential visitors, and the choice alumns have gone their way. We've been thru rush season before.

Maybe you've heard that Dr. Hartley was cavorting on the Roof the other night. Watch out, Doc! And to change the subject, we've been asked to find out where Sigler's frat pin spent the summer.

Dixie Mae had the honor of making the first chapel announcement and we wonder if she's out to break the record of Berson and Cabaniss? If not, who will?

Queer noise emancipated from the Chi O. lodge last week. Upon investigating, the newsy reporter found Reynolds and Abbay indulging in a little "close" harmony. Try Luckies girls, they may help.

Watching Clara McGehee and Katy Reid on Pi Day, one puzzled freshette wanted to know if they belonged to the Red Cross, you know, badge, symbol, and all. Learn your organizations, freshie.

The dormitory boys learned with regret that Kate Cleveland is living out in town this year. Kate was one of the big attractions at Evergreen last season.

Here and there:

Former Co-Eds Work

Three former Southwestern co-eds have entered the business world and are now rolling in the cold cash from behind the counters of a local department store.

Those who are fortunate enough to have a job at this trying time are Nina Stansell, Virginia Richmond, and Marjorie Raymond. All are employed at Lowenstein's and ask that their Lynx friends pay them a visit.

SYNOD ELECTS BOARD MEMBER

Dr. McIntosh Succeeds Mayor Overton

Dr. W. H. McIntosh, of Hattiesburg, Miss., was elected to the board of directors of Southwestern to succeed Mayor Watkins Overton as the fourth member from the Mississippi Synod.

In naming Dr. McIntosh, the board called attention to the fact that the agreement that the fourth member of the board be a resident of Memphis expires this year.

The Synod recorded its appreciation for the valuable services rendered by Mayor Overton in a resolution. Pres. Charles E. Diehl was also praised by the resolution for his work. Before closing its 102nd meeting, the Synod voted to meet again next year in Jackson, Miss., at Bellhaven College.

Moore to U. of Manila

Sivley Moore, Memphis youth, and a freshman at Southwestern last year, will matriculate at the University of Manila this fall. The distance he has chosen to travel in order to go to school is the farthest of any ex-Lynx Student.

Lynx Student, Transfer From Scotland Has Life Brim Full Of Adventure

David Silcock Studies At Southwestern Preparing For Medical School

Among those this year enrolled within these hallowed portals is one who is slightly more unusual than the average student who enters Southwestern. His name is David Silcock, born in Stirlingshire, Scotland, and a transfer from the School of Medicine of the Royal Colleges in Edinburgh.

Mr. Silcock (he has been married to the former Miss Elizabeth Stout of Pisgah, Ky., for two years, ". . . and I'm still on my honeymoon") received his early education for a medical career from a private tutor. He matriculated at Glasgow University, Glasgow, enlisted in the war at the age of 16, and later continued his studies in Edinburgh.

TICKET EXPIRES

In 1923 he came to America on a summer excursion. While traveling in the western part of Canada, he discovered that the time limit of his ticket had expired, and thus decided to remain in this country. Being without funds and being unwilling to write home to his parents for money, he obtained a position as assistant in hospital laboratory and X-ray work in Lexington and later in Danville, Ky.

Through his intimate friend, Prof. Shewmaker, he heard of Southwestern. Partly because of Prof. Shewmaker and partly because of its Christian standing and high academic record, he selected Southwestern as the college in which he would seek his A.B. degree. If he is successful, he will enter the University of Tennessee in 1934 to delve deeper into medicine.

MASTER OF LATIN

Southwestern is furnishing him German, Chemistry, English, Biology and Math, subjects in which he is deficient. He is a master of Latin and French, having majored in these subjects in previous years. "After U. T., I think I'll be fully equipped to practice medicine," he said with a smile during the interview, "and then perhaps I can settle down peacefully with Mrs. Silcock."

Movie Crash

Former co-ed, Adelaide Anderson, has crashed the movies! On a recent trip to California, Adelaide was given a bit in Kay Francis' new picture, and we are betting that she steals the show.

However, the talkative co-ed didn't get a chance to do any vocal work. If given a chance along this line, there is no doubt that sh ewould have made the leading players take a back seat.

But the ex-Lynxer didn't let glory go to her head, for she is going back to Radcliffe to complete her college course and then think about the cinema.

Remodeling Brings Trade To Lynx Lair

"Success Due To Good Food," High Says

Verily, much can be done in a year. Take the Lynx Lair for an example. Marked improvements have been made since last year when the "Lair" first came into existence. Chicken High, manager, is justly proud of this cozy lunch room in Neely Hall.

"I attribute the success of the Lynx Lair to its good food and low prices," Chicken High said recently. "Our busiest hour is from one to two, and rainy days always bring lots of business," he added.

NEW IMPROVEMENTS

"Now, as to improvements," beamed the fond proprietor, "the Lair has been repainted and newly furnished." The cream colored tables and green stained chairs lend a bright charm to the lunch room. "Last year," Chicken continued, "we could only seat sixteen at a time; now, we can accommodate forty-four. And the corners are snugger, too," he grinned. To all students interested in this last remark we recommend the table just to the right of the steps leading down to Lynx Lair.

"Everything is very informal," High said, "cafeteria style and all that. Robert (the dusky assistant) furnishes the customers with an additional glass of milk, a forgotten knife and fork, and things like that."

PAPER CONSENTS

When questioned about running the Sou'wester out of its former office, the unabashed Chicken replied, "The Sou'wester was kind enough to 'consent' to the removal," adding that, "after all, eating is more important than reading."

Very diplomatic man, this Chicken High. Very nice lunch shoppe, this Lynx Lair.

QUERY RESULTS ARE GIVEN OUT

Christian Union Blank Reveals Hopes

The Southwestern Christian Union Questionnaire, given to all freshmen during Orientation week, has brought out a lot of secret hopes and ambitions centered in the minds and hearts of the class of '36.

Nine freshmen are planning to devote their life to the work of the Ministry. Leslie McKee desires to become a Medical Missionary. These new members were welcomed heartily into the Ministerial Club at its first meeting Tuesday evening in the Bell room of Neely Hall.

ENTER SERVICE

Dorothea Evans and Adelia McConnell have about decided to engage in social service work or go to the mission fields.

Several other freshmen and freshettes are seriously considering some form of Christian service as their life task.

Prof. MacCorkle To Return To Texas U

Dr. Stuart A. MacCorkle, associate professor of political science at Southwestern last year, will teach at the University of Texas at Austin this year. He will assume his old position in the government department of political science at the Longhorn school.

He was formerly a member of that faculty before coming to Southwestern last year. During the summer months, Dr. MacCorkle attended the International Lawyers' Conference, which was held by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

MINISTERS LAY YEAR'S PLANS

Deputation Work, Radio Programs Carded

The Ministerial Club met for the first time at 6 p. m. Tuesday in the private dining room. Immediately following the meeting, the club journeyed in a body to the Second Presbyterian Church to attend services there. This was in response to the invitation extended by Dr. Moore Moore to Southwestern students in chapel on Monday.

Though the club was hard hit by graduation, James Gregory, newly elected president, looks forward to a highly successful year. Paul Jones, last year's president, Allen Cabaniss, Norman Gibbs, and Harry Champlain were the passing seniors. Among the freshman members are Francis Benton and Hinky Jones.

WELFARE WORK

The club plans to carry on its welfare work of past years on a larger scale. Deputations are to go to hospitals, prisons, and homes for incurables on Sunday afternoons and if possible during the week. Vacancies in pulpits of Memphis churches will be filled by members of the club.

Radio programs featuring religious plays are to be given from time to time during the year. Five or six of these programs were broadcast over WNBR last year with great success. The same station and possibly WMC will be used this year. Russel Cross, hustling chairman of the Lookout Committee, urges the whole hearted co-operation of the student body in any work in which its service can be used.

John Fishbach, chairman of the program committee has yet to draw up plans for the coming year. In general, however, discussion programs will be varied with talks by members of the faculty and by men who visit the school. There will be special Christmas and Easter programs.

CHANGE OF MEETING TIME

In order to have more time for the program, the weekly meeting hour has been changed from noon on Wednesday to 6 p. m. on Tuesday.

ALUMNAE PLAN BRIDGE PARTY

Membership Plans Also Revised

The Memphis Chapter of the Southwestern Alumnae met last week in the Alpha Omicron Pi Lodge, and held its first meeting of the fall season. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. F. C. Old, president of the Women's Pan Hellenic council of Memphis.

The alumnae made plans for giving a benefit bridge party at the Casino the early part of November. They also devised a new plan for membership into the organization.

NEW PLAN

Heretofore, the individual alumnae have subscribed to membership in the association. The group revised this method of obtaining members and put it on a sorority membership basis. Each sorority will pay dues in proportion to the number of alumnae members they have from Southwestern. This will entitle all alumnae of the sorority to membership in the association.

MUSICAL PROGRAM

A musical program was given after the business meeting. Those on the program were Miss Donna Wilson, Miss Margaret Edmundson, Miss Eulauee Sloan, Miss Lucille Johnson, and Miss Nettie Jo Brust.

Lynx Club Elects 15 New Members

The Lynx club has elected 15 new members to the organization. The new members are Robert Brown, Charles Sherman, Raymond Brown, Thomas Jones, Ned Wright, Vernon Pettit, Harold Simmons, Harold Thomas, James Hall, Harvey Creech, Eugene Stewart, Clarke Porteous, James Wadlington, Henry Watkins and John Gather.

The first work of the new members was the distribution of posters throughout the uptown district last Tuesday afternoon. The Lynxers put out a whole flock of the football programs

"It'll all come out in the wash," he said as he remembered his frat pin was on the shirt he had sent to the laundry.

Officials Named for Lynx Games

CHANGES MADE FOR SEATING GRID CROWDS

West Side Stands Are Moved Forward

BOX SEATS HIGHER

Students And Band To Sit On East Side

When Southwestern goes out to see her football team this year, a greatly improved athletic field will be seen. The old stands have been moved forward to make room for the box seats, which will be placed at the back and above the bleachers. These boxes will be on a line with the press stand, and will be divided into individual compartments.

This improvement was necessitated as it was a constant complaint that the crowd could not see over the players' heads. With the boxes in their present location, a clear view of the field can be obtained.

NEW FENCE

Not only will these new boxes be built, but the stands will be improved. and a new fence placed around the playing field. The student body will sit on the east side of the field, the same side that they occupied last year. There will also be a section reserved for the Southwestern band. There is also some talk of having the police guard the field, and give the freshmen a rest.

FIX FIELD

Last year the field was rough in spots, so a chemist was consulted. After analyzing the soil, he found that it needed a certain chemical. Last summer this chemical was applied and now the field is covered with a thick bed of firm grass.

FROSH PREPARE FOR SENATOBIA

Squad Has Formidable Array Of Talent

The freshman squad gives promise of being one of the best Southwestern has ever had. Last Saturday they held the combination of varsity and reserves to a lone safety in twenty minutes of furious play. Jack Lloyd and Neal Tapp were impressive in the line, while Christian, Harwood, Mann, and Mays showed to advantage in the backfield.

SCHEDULE

On Oct. 7, the Bobcats tackle the Northwest Mississippi Junior College crew at Senatobia. On Oct. 4, they meet the Ole Miss yearlings under the arc lights at Clarksdale, Miss. Games with Holmes County Jr. College, T. M. I. and Union Frosh are pending.

Ex-Lynx Fullback Coaches at Hughes

Lamar Pittman, Lynx fullback for three years, and freshman coach at Union University last year, will serve as coach and principal of the Hughes Consolidated School at Hughes, Ark., this year.

Pittman was a bulwark in the backfield of the Lynx teams of '28, '29, and '30, and was exceptionally good as a defensive back. His steady line plunging brought to him the name of "Four Yards" Pittman. In his final year on the Lynx team he received honorable mention for the mythical S. I. A. A. eleven. The new Hughes coach hails from Cades, Tenn.

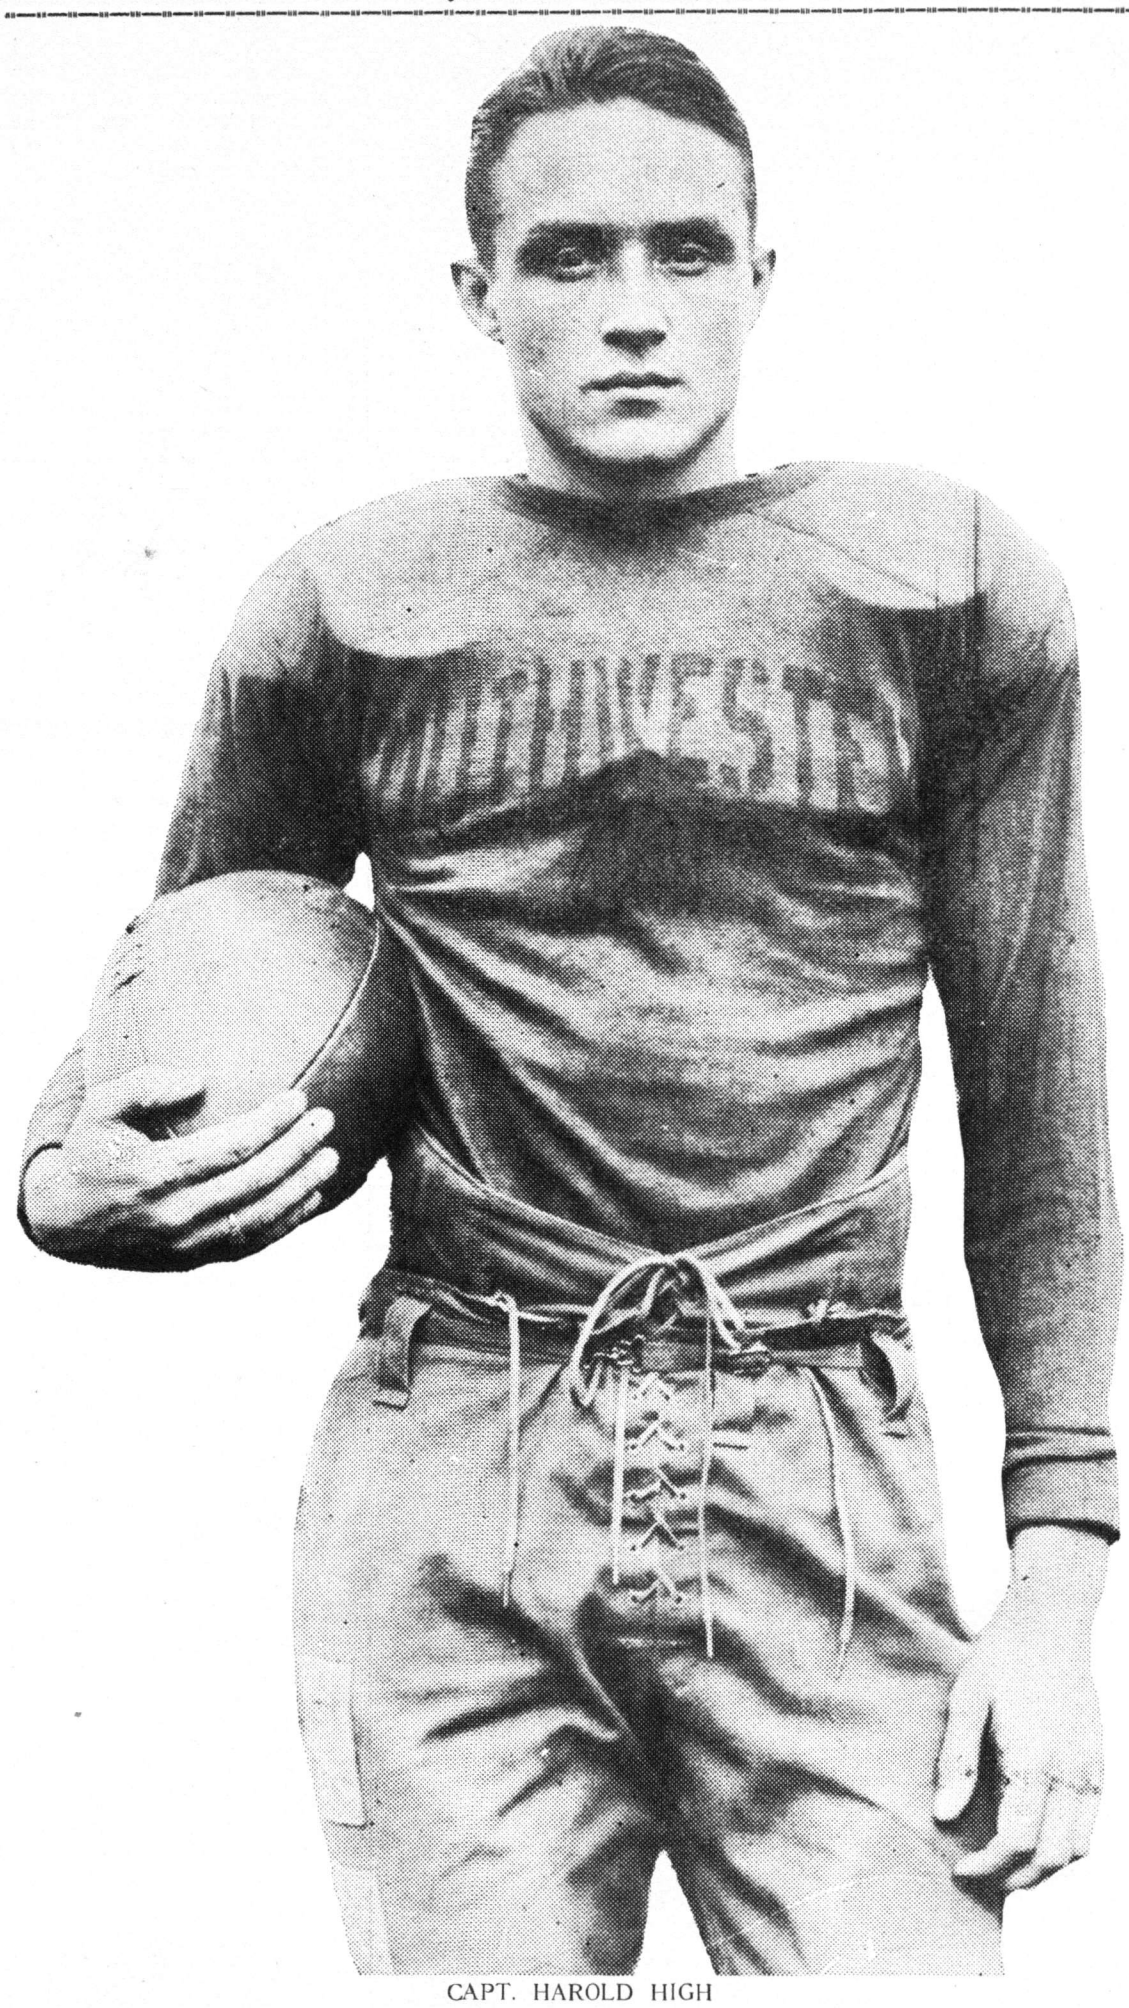
Miriam a Schoolmarm

Miriam Heidelberg, another of last June's lovely graduates, has taken up the teaching profession. Miriam is now ruling a schoolroom in Webb, Miss. There are quite a number of students now attending Southwestern who would like to be in her classroom.

Five Studes To Ole Miss

A quintet of Lynx students have enrolled at Ole Miss for the year. The Lynx students of last year who are deserting their Alma Mater are Guy Mitchell, Ethel Mae Rives, Elizabeth Townsend, Ruth McLean, and Baxter Sloss.

Lynx Leader



CAPT. HAROLD HIGH

LYNX TENNIS MEN DEFEATED

Frosh Dunlap Pulls Two Tourney Upsets

Three Lynx students were entered in the Memphis municipal night tennis tournament that was sponsored by the M. A. A. last week. The entries were Dick Dunlap, Paris, Tenn., Richard Mays, Memphis. both freshmen, and Henry Oliver, Union City, junior.

The most outstanding of the group was Dunlap, who pulled a couple of tourney upsets. He eliminated Jimmy Durham, seeded No. 7, and Tommy Bronson, another outstanding local player. The Paris boy defeated Durham in two out of three sets, and Bronson in straight sets.

Oliver lost to Seavy in the first round, Mays was defeated by Dr. John Metz in the first round. Metz was the runner-up in the tournament which was won by Billy Hughes, former Lynx tennis captain. Dunlap was eliminated by Metz also.

Twins At U. of T.

Jimmy and Johnny Hughes, a pair of ex-editors of the Sou'wester, will matriculate at the University of Tennessee Medical college this fall. The twins graduated from Southwestern last June.

"Foots" at Work

Charles Clements, alias "Foots," is now on the job aiding the Lynx football team get into shape. Clements will be remembered as the captain of the 1930 championship Alabama football aggregation.

The former Alabamian will assist the Lynx coaches at every opportunity. He is employed by a chemical company and is out of Memphis a good bit, but when in town, he will work with the Lynx gridders.

This week he worked with the linesmen showing them the way to break up the Notre Dame offense which the Alabama team will use tomorrow. He has particularly worked with the guards and tackles.

"Foots" earned his name from the size 12 shoe that he wears.

Painter To Leave

Marion Painter, grad of the class of '31, is preparing to go to Washington, D. C., next week to take the examinations for entrance to the United States diplomatic service. The exams will last for three days and all are written. If Painter passes the written exams, he will be eligible to take the oral examinations that will be given next month.

MILLER GOES TO SEE UNION PLAY

Coach Hies To Jackson To See Bulldogs

Coach John Miller will not accompany the Lynx gridiron team to Tuscaloosa, Ala., to see the team combat his Alma Mater, but instead, the assistant to Coach Haygood will hie to Jackson, Tenn., to see the Union Bulldogs in action.

Last week, Coach Haygood went to Sewanee to see what the Purple Tiger of 1932 has to show. He came back with a gleam in his eye and a lot of tales of a strong Sewanee team in the making.

MAP OUT WORK

The coaches are really mapping out their work this season and are not taking chances on losing any game to the opposition. The Lynx have a hard schedule and must be ready to the nth degree for all their opponents.

Hinson At Work

Meeks Hinson, better known to his intimate friends as "Goof," is now one of the town's leading business men. The "Goof" is now connected with the Standard Oil Refining Co., and he can daily be seen showing the other office workers how it really should be done.

LYNX ANNOUNCE GRID OFFICIALS FOR SEASON

Arbiters Chosen For Tilts At Fargason Field

EXPERT OFFICIATORS

Well Known Group of Judges Named

Southwestern grid officials have named the men who will serve as officials during the coming season. A complete list has not been announced, but announcements of the officials for several important games has been made.

Tomorrow in the Alabama game, the referee will be Lou Ervin. The other officials will be Frank Waddey, field judge; Slim Morarity, umpire; and Buzz Mouat, head linesman.

DR. SANDERS REFEREES

The Southwestern-Sewanee game will find some very capable officials serving. They will be Siler, Collins, and Willis McCabe. The opening game of the season at home against Millsaps will find Dr. Sammy Sanders acting as referee. The others named for this game are Harold Davis, Waddey, and Burchard.

The game with Mississippi State will find Burchard, Waddey, and Goat Hale serving. The Howard College game will have Dr. Sam Raines, Dr. Sanders, and Waddey officiating.

The officials for the final game of the season with Springhill College will be Pos Elam, Goat Hale, and Guy Stollenwreck. The officials for the rest of the Lynx games will be chosen next week. The choosing of the arbiters was done by Coach Haygood and Dr. Swan, chairman of the college athletic committee.

"S" CLUB WILL MEET MONDAY

Four New Members To Be Initiated

The "S" club will initiate four new members Monday night at 7:30 p. m. at the college gymnasium. The new members that will be brought into the club are Jimmy Wilson, Clarke Porteous, Carroll Cloar, and Beppo Sanders.

The celebrations will start at the north end of the gym and Dame Rumor has it that the end of the trail is the shower room. Sid Hebert, president of the organization, said that the Lynx lettermen were out for blood and meant to make it hard for the new club members.

MILLER IS CHEF

Coach John Miller has been appointed head chef for the occasion. He will fix up a delicious food course for the neophytes. The last course of Miller's menu is well remembered by the spring initiates.

The new members have been instructed to bring a whole bevy of dangerous instruments that will be used for savage purposes. The athletic department announced that insurance had been taken out against the neophytes.

Dixie Conference Teams Open Season

Although Southwestern seems to have the hardest opening game, other members of the Dixie Conference will know that they have been in a battle ere the closing whistle blows tomorrow.

Either Spring Hill or Howard should lead the conference, as they meet tomorrow in the first game between Conference members. Both are reported to be strong and are in the running for Conference honors.

CHAMPS MEET U. OF T.

Centre has a rather easy opponent in Murray Teachers. Chattanooga, the 1931 Dixie Conference Champs, have a real opportunity to test their mettle against Tennessee. Mercer will have their hands full trying to stop Vanderbilt. Mississippi College and Loyola of New Orleans appear rather evenly matched.

INSTALL HONOR COUNCIL GROUP

Frosh Representatives To Be Chosen Soon

Tuesday morning the honor council was officially installed. Dean Hartly called the council members to the platform and Dr. Diehl asked them three questions pertaining to their duties in upholding the honor system at Southwestern to the best of their ability.

Dr. Diehl also requested the student body to uphold the honor council, and they responded wholeheartedly.

James Daimwood, the new president, was presented with the shield of the council. He made a brief talk in acknowledgment of it, and stated clearly to the student body that the purpose and duty of the council is to promote and safeguard the honor system.

Ralph Booth, Harold High, and Ione Wall were the other senior members to be installed besides Daimwood; Robert Pfrangle, Charles Crump, and Catherine Davis, juniors; McLemore Elder, Charles Sherman, and Olive Black, sophomores.

The honor council will soon meet to select two men and two women from the freshmen class, and on October 17 the names of those chosen will be submitted to the freshman class so that they may elect one man and one woman from those chosen by the council as their council representative.

New Office

The Publications' office, which formerly occupied a small nook and cranny in the basement of Neely Hall, is now spaciously located in the Tower Room of Palmer Hall. The change was made during the summer months by the forces of Rollow & Co.

The new office affords the Sou'wester, Lucky Lynx, and Journal a place far from the noise and hum of campus activities so that the staff can work in peace, and the editors can swear in volumes.

A larger amount of floor space is to be had in the new location and the crowded days of past years are to be experienced no more. Five desks, cabinets, files, and all other equipment have been moved to the new office.

Here And There

If here were there and there were here
I would not like it much, my dear,
Because if I were there, I fear
That you would be, not there but here.

Then you'd come there to find me here,
And then you see it would be queer,
For when I'd think that you were near
You'd still be there and I'd be here.

Former Co-Eds On Radio

The week of Sept. 18, Goldsmith's, Memphis' Greatest Store, dedicated its series of radio broadcasts to the Southwestern co-ed. The five sororities were especially honored with individual dedications. The programs coming daily through WMC at 6 p. m. are up-to-the-minute fashion flashes adroitly handled by Helen Hoyt, Goldsmith's fashion expert. Musical interludes are given by Meredith Davis. Both Meredith Davis and "Helen Hoyt" (Hazel Edmunds) are former Southwestern students.

The above caricature was drawn by a Memphis artist, giving an insight into the "studio" lives of Miss Davis and Miss Edmunds.

BOLT STRIKES WYLIE TARGET

Lightning Causes Hired Hand To Flee

"Tell me lightning don't ever strike twice in the same place."

These were the disgusted words of Wylie, colored generalissimo of the dormitories, as he told of the narrow escape he had last summer from lightning during an unusually violent thunder storm.

It seems that the colored handy man of the college was hard at work repairing a gutter when the storm broke. Instead of getting off the ladder and taking shelter till it blew over, he worked right on, hoping to finish the job before the rain started. Let's hear his own version of how it happened.

"Well, suh, I was a-holdin' on ter the gutter and minding my own business when all at once there was a big flash of lightning and it seemed like every muscle in mah body wanted to check out. Luckily, it was a little bolt or I'd been long gone from here.

"I did more harm to that ladder getting down offen it, than the lightning did. I told Mr. Rollow that I was through fooling round with things in a storm like that, and he told me to lay off for awhile.

"Well, on the way over to the Science Building jest as I was passing that big oak tree by the fire plug there was another big flash and a ball of fire most as big as mah head rolled down the side of that tree and busted all up when it hit the ground. Didn't get much shock that time but the tree was split plumb wide open something awful.

"If it'd struck a second later I would'd been right even with that tree. Naw suh, I don't like storms. And tell 'um if they don't believe all this to ask Mr. Rollow or go take a look at the ole tree by the plug."

Golf Association To Draw Up Charter

The golf association has organized for the year and is planning a number of matches with leading southern colleges. Howard Cook was re-elected president, while Morys Hines was made secretary-treasurer. A committee was appointed to draw up a charter in order to have some working basis for the club.

There were 16 members present at the first meeting, with the promise of more during the year. Prof. Kelso acted as advisor to the club last year. The committee appointed was composed of Jack Elder, Jack Crosby and William Glover.

Porter—What is the difference between a model woman and a woman model?

Whitaker—A model woman is a bare possibility, while a woman model is a naked fact.

"Surely, honey, but the tuition is going to be high."

Y. W. C. A. WILL HOLD SUPPER ON WEDNESDAY

Judge Camille Kelly To Speak To Group

PLAN YEAR'S WORK

Continue Work on Women's Bible Class

The Y. W. C. A. will hold its first meeting of the year on Wednesday evening at 6 p. m. in the Chi Omega lodge. Supper will be enjoyed by the members of the organization, after the completion of the business meeting.

Mary Kennedy Hubbard has arranged a program upon which will appear some of the best of Southwestern talent. Judge Camille Kelly of the Juvenile Court will be the speaker for the evening.

REGISTRATION LARGE

The registration of new members have been very favorable, Malline Lyon, president, announced yesterday. Thelma Worthington is in charge of memberships, and she announced that the drive will continue until next Wednesday. Dues are one dollar for the year, and both old and new students are urged to pay their dues as soon as possible.

Many plans have been made for the year's work, including the sponsoring of the Women's Bible Class, which is held on Sunday mornings. The class has met for two Sundays. On the first Sunday, Mrs. Diehl spoke to the class, and last Sunday Mrs. Townsend spoke. A teacher for the class will be procured within the next two weeks.

There were all kinds of smoking tobaccos

. . . tobaccos made for cigarettes and pipes; granulated tobaccos. But there was plenty of room for a tobacco made solely for pipes.

If you look, you will find that a great many tobacco packages say "for pipe and cigarettes." But the Granger package says:

GRANGER ROUGH CUT
Pipe Tobacco

Granger is made by Wellman's Method and cut right for pipes—rough cut. Burns slower and cooler. Just try it!

LYNX PREXY IS AGAIN NAMED IN "WHO'S WHO"

Dr. Chas. Townsend Also Listed In Book

Southwestern has in the past been notably represented in "Who's Who." On statistics released last year, the numbers of our alumni who have been given mention in "Who's Who" ranked sixth among all the other colleges in the country.

This year, as in the past seven or eight years, Dr. Charles E. Diehl and Dr. Charles Louis Townsend were mentioned in "Who's Who." A resume of the articles in "Who's Who" about them follows:

Charles Edward Diehl was born in West Virginia. He received his A.B. degree at Johns Hopkins University, his M.A. at Princeton, his D.D. at Southwestern Presbyterian College, and his LL.D. at Davidson College. In addition to these degrees, he holds membership in Sigma Mu, Omicron Delta Kappa, The Rotary Club, The Egyptians Club. He is a Democrat and a writer of monograms and reviews.

Charles Louis Townsend received his A.B. degree at McGill University and his M.A. and Ph.D. at Harvard. He studied at the University of Leipzig, Ohio State U., University of Colorado, Cornell University, University of Chicago, and Oxford University.

Dr. Townsend is the author of a number of books, among which are: "The Foes Of Shakespeare," "Shakespeare and Woodrow Wilson," and "Problems On Nine Plays Of Shakespeare."

HOLD TRYOUTS FOR PLAYERS

Trials To Be Held In Chapel, Sept. 30

The tryouts for the Southwestern Players will be held Friday, September 30, in Hardie Auditorium from 1:30 'til 2 and from 3 'til 4 in the afternoon. Those trying out will be expected to read a short sketch selected by the judges.

Julia Marie Schwinn, who succeeds Albert Erskine as the president of the players, has chosen Margaret Lewis Tallichet, Alvan Tate, Russell Cross, and Anne Galbreath to judge the tryout with her.

A large number of freshmen will be expected to be there and also quite a few upperclassmen. Now is the time for those who have ever had a yearning to act to come and see if they have any ability according to these judges.

Four Cheerleaders Chosen By Students

When the noise of cheering had cleared away, four Southwestern cheerleaders were selected by the members of the student body. The new leaders are Howard Cook, Alvan Tate, Lillian Gautier, and Eugene McKendrick.

The students' ballot cast a big majority in favor of these four. The cheerleaders will have charge of all the cheering at the football games at Fargason Field. Cook will serve as head cheerleader with Tate and Miss Gautier assisting.

The freshmen cheerleader will be Eugene McKendricks, Magnolia, Miss. He will assume charge of all frosh cheering. The cheerleaders will be awarded white sweaters with a big red "S" on the front.

CHI DELTA TO CONVENE WED.

Will Meet At 1:25 P. M. In Chapel

Chi Delta, girls' literary society, will have its first meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon at 1:25 p. m. in Hardie Auditorium. All girl students are considered members of Chi Delta and are urged to attend the meeting.

Miss Julia Marie Schwinn, president of the club, will give a short talk concerning the founding and purpose of the organization. A discussion of the plans for the year's work will be held, and the year's study will be outlined by Mary Kennedy Hubbard.

Strange Case

Coming home from the Chi Omega convention this summer, Eloise Brett, Martha Johnson and Lucille Work had a wreck. The latter two escaped without injury, but Eloise wasn't so lucky.

They put her to bed when she began to suffer with a high fever. Frantically, the doctors sought the undiscoverable broken bones or what-have-you that was causing the temperature.

After an exhaustive examination, the Docs decided that she had malaria! Ella claims the world's record for an aftermath of an auto accident. The prize is readily granted.

Repetiteurs Chosen To Aid Choirmaster

Louis Nicholas, director of the choir, has appointed two "repetiteurs" as they will be known, to assist him in his work this fall. The newly appointed ones are Thelma Worthington and William Bensberg.

Bensberg will have charge of teaching the boys the interpretations of the music St. Nick chooses, and Miss Worthington will handle the girls' parts.

The old fashioned girl used to stay home when she had nothing to wear.

Freshmen Make Score of Freshettes On Army Alpha Tests Given Students

First Time In College's History That Men Students Have Equaled Score of Women

The members of Southwestern's class of '36 proved to the world in general, and the college authorities, in particular, that the age of miracles is not yet over. For the first time in the history of the college, the freshmen made as high scores as the freshettes on the intelligence tests that wre recently given. The Army Alpha test found the men students averaging 138 points, which was the same score as the women made.

The score doesn't indicate that the freshettes are particularly dumb, for that isn't true. They scored three points higher than the average of the freshettes throughout the country. The average national score for women on the Army Alpha is 135. The score for men is 130 for a national average.

173 TESTED

The tests were given to 173 students. Sixty of these being girls and the other 113 being men students. Out of a possible 212 points, nine students made above 170 points, which is extremely good. The highest score was 183, and it was made by a male student. While two boys made higher than any girl, three boys also made lower than any woman taking the test. Dr. W. R. Atkinson, who had charge of the tests, said that it was characteristic for the men's grades to be spread out more than the women's.

ANOTHER "FIRST"

The Iowa Standard test or comprehensive test brought to light more startling results. Two men tested scored over 200 points. This was the first time in the college's history that any student had made over 200 points on this test. The men averaged about 135, while the women averaged about 130. The country's average is something like 112. The Lynx studes' average was 133, which is quite a bit above the national average.

The tests show the class of '36 to be pretty good in their intelligence tests. A number of the students coming to Southwestern this year were valedictorians of their high school classes, and this in some measure, accounts for the high grades made on the tests.

Man in restaurant: "There's a fly in my soup."

Waiter: "That's all right he won't drink much."

Sou'western Gets Twenty Transfers

Along with the unusually large group of freshmen attending Southwestern this year, there are also twenty transfer students. The most notable of this group being David Silcock, who before his transfer to this school, was a member of the School of Medicine of Royal College, Edinburgh, Scotland. The others represent a large group of the leading universities.

They are Hershel Banks, University of Cincinnati; Lenore Binswanger, Ward Belmont; Therese Canale, St. Mary's College; Louise Coppedge, University of Cleveland; Hilda Duncan, Sophie Newcomb; Mary McEddins, Christian College; Sarabeth Farmer, Teachers' College; George Flinn, Georgia Tech; Carroll Johnson, North Mississippi Junior College; Hubert Lewis, University of Pennsylvania; Virginia McConnell, Montevello Woman's College; Zelda O'Brien, Randolph-Macon; Claire Pettit, Ward Belmont; Ruth Elizabeth Smith, Arlington College; Ann Sullens, Sophie Newcomb; Pinchbach Taylor, Arkansas College; Edward Tobey, Westminster College; Robert Edward Turner, Mississippi State.

Bunting To Knoxville

Dick Bunting, popular member of the college group and a junior last year, has deserted the ranks of the Lynx for a fling at the University of Tennessee. He joined a host of other Memphis boys and migrated to the Knoxville institute.

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

CUSTER'S LAST STAND

Copr., 1932, The American Tobacco Co.

They are not present in Luckies . . . the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.
