LYNX GRIDDERS CHOOSE UP FOR REGULAR GAME

Opposing Teams Clash On Fargason Field

SQUAD WELL PRIMED

Terminate Third Week Of Spring Training

Hard work and lots of it has characterized this week's practice of spring football. The gridders have been put "through the mill" in a big way by Coach John Miller and the footballers are fast shaping up into something that looks like a football machine.

The coach has been driving the boys to a white heat and they are a long way from loafing each afternoon. This is the first year that spring football has really meant anything to the team. In the past they have considered it merely a matter of form, but this year they are realizing that it may mean whether they will hold down a varsity position next fall.

The coach is going to see how they are responding to practice each week by holding a regulation football game each Saturday afternoon from now on until the termination of the spring sessions. By these games the weak points can readily be brought out and alteration of defects can be more easily brought about.

Next week after the close of the S. I. A. A. tournament at Jackson, the basketeers will turn out in full force for the spring practice and then more extensive work than ever can be carried on. The basketball squad has seven varsity lettermen on it and this addition will be welcome to the thirty odd candidates now working out on Fargason Field each day.

Coach Haygood has intimated that the spring sessions will last more than six weeks if the present rainy weather keeps up. He is determined to get in some valuable training and he isn't going to let rain interfere.

Boosters Club Gets Up Carnival Plans

The Boosters Club has been granted a temporary seat on the Student Council which may become permanent, depending upon the will of the Council at the end of this semester. Harvey Drake, president of the Club, is its representative.

The Boosters have almost complete charge of arrangements for the April Fools' Carnival. Tentative plans include a skating party from 3 to 6 P. M., and then trek to the gym where at 7:30 the Carnival will get into full swing with the crowning of the king and queen and all attendant pomp and merrymaking. Use of the Skating Rink, however, will be procured only on the chance that its manager and the local purse can come to terms.

Whether stunts will be put on by the classes, by fraternities and sororities, or by different campus organizations has not yet been decided.

Members of the busy Boosters Club are: Franklin Kimbrough, Vice-President; Charline Tucker, Secretary; Lyle Stanage, Treasurer; Guy Mitchell, Goodlet Brown, John McFerrin, Clark Porteus, Raymond Brown, Lillian Christy, Julia Marie Schwinn and Eugenia Weeks.

Tri Delts Initiate

Delta Delta Delta sorority announces with pleasure the recent initiation of Lillian Gautier.

GIRLS PRIMED FOR LEAP YEAR

Will Give Party Monday For Blushing Eds

Next Monday evening the much talked of Leap Year Tea Dance is to be given. The members of the Woman's Pan-Hellenic Council will act as hostesses for the affair which will be held in the Zeta Tau Alpha house, beginning at 4 o'clock and ending at 8. During those four hours the "fair" dates of the bold and dashing co-eds will either suffer in silence and look longingly at the "stag" line or realize their great popularity and go home with tired and aching feet but with a satisfying sense of being fully appreciated. Bill Taylor and his Collegians will play and probably twenty no breaks will be called, according to the discretion of the orchestra. No bribes accepted. Several eds have threatened to bring their books along in case they turn out to be wall flowers, but it is sincerely hoped that nothing so humiliating could happen to any of our powerful men about the campus. So turn out girls, at least it will be a good time to make all your no breaks for the next Pan-Hellenic.

The members of the Pan-Hellenic Council and their dates are: Mary Allie Taylor with Malcolm Ritchie; Margaret Mason with Jimmy Hamilton; Anna Hudson with Paul Jones; Katherine Davis with Joe Moss; Elizabeth Smith with Grey Williams; Eugenia Weeks with Paul Calame; Lyle Stanage with J. P. Hollifield, and Margaret Gunn with MacLemore Elder.

O. D. K. Plants Elm Near Palmer Hall

Phi Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership fraternity, planted an elm tree back of Palmer Hall Monday afternoon as a part of the campus celebration of the 200th birthday of George Washington.

Gowned in black robes, seven student members and pledges and five professors participated in the ceremonies.

A feature of the services was a brief talk given by Dr. John H. Davis who spoke on "Washington and World Peace."

Members of the choir and of the fraternity sang "America." Dr. Davidson gave a short prayer. Pictures were made to perpetuate the event.

Paul Jones, president of Phi Circle, was in charge of the ceremonies.

S. T. A. B. Pledges

S. T. A. B. sorority announces with pleasure the recent pledging of Catherine Stratton and Margaret Tallchert.

Honor Roll Students Narrate Methods They Used To Attain Scholastic Peaks

Big Shots In the World of Knowledge Attribute Success To Hard Work, Luck, and Lettuce

"Make 'em talk," commanded ye editor of ye Sou'wester, leaning back in his swivel chair and sighing. "I've been pestered so much by those darned phone calls, let's get something out to pacify 'em."

Ye editor yawned. He hadn't had much sleep, evidently. He claims that phone calls have kept coming to him at all hours of the day and night, wanting to know how to get on the honor roll for the last semester.

"Let somebody tell 'em who knows," he yawned. Well, lamp these confessions from the ones who got their names in the paper the first semester. "Camel" Cabaniss: "I have no statement whatever. I attribute it to nothing but—"

Brains, of course. Meaning that he is afraid to let out any secret for fear of letting the honor roll get any longer that it is.

John McFerrin: "Plenty of hard work. All my hours are study hours."

James Breazeale: "To intelligent reading. I believe intelligent reading does one more good than excessive study."

Annabel Cox: "Study—study—and luck."

Mildred Brandes: "Oh, I bribe the professors. I feed them chocolate and cake."

Which would seem a darned good way, all things considered.

John Fishbach: "I have no formula for success. I only keep abreast of my studies so that if anything comes up. I also divide my time proportionately between work and recreation."

Yeah? We wonder in what proportion. Alice Rogers: "Luck, pure and simple. Study? No more than I have to."

James Cowan: "I attribute my success to two things: to the fact that I live in Calvin Hall (Hear! hear!), and to my unflinching perseverance."

James Overholser: "Work, and regular hours. I suppose I study six

Prof. McLean Will Talk on "Negroes"

Professor McLean will be the guest speaker when the Southwestern Bible Class meets Sunday at 9 o'clock in Room 100, Palmer Hall. He is to talk on the Negro Question, a topic particularly pertinent to every Southerner. He is expected to look at the affair from a non-partisan viewpoint and let the members of the class do the arguing when the talk is followed by open discussion. Students who are interested are cordially invited to hear Professor McLean.

A. T. O. Initiates

Alpha Tau Omega fraternity initiated the following boys Monday night, February 22, in the Kappa Delta house: Thomas Huckabee, Charles Maxey, Robert Brown, Walker Turner, Bond Dashiell, and Williford Gragg.

The following officers for the fraternity were elected: Bill Berson, President; David Edington, Vice-President; Goodlet Brown, Secretary; and Bill Walker, Treasurer.

REV. MARION OF MISSOURI CITY WILL BE GUEST

Observe Prayer Week for Schools and Colleges

BEGIN SERVICE AT 5

Choir Prepares Elaborate Program Of Music

Southwestern will close a special week for devotions at 5 o'clock, Sunday, when there will be held the annual Vesper Service of the Week of Prayer for Schools and Colleges. The Reverend Robert F. Davidson, Professor of Bible at Southwestern, will preside. The guest speaker selected by the Southwestern Christian Union is to be The Reverend John Hardin Marion, Jr., Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Caruthersville, Missouri. The program follows:

PROGRAM

Processional—"All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name"—Oliver Holden Hymn—"Tis the Blessed Hour of Prayer"—Doane

Choral—"O Rejoice, Ye Christians, Loudly"—J. S. Bach

Anthem—"Incense and a Pure Offering"—Cameron Brock Address—The Rev. John Hardin Marion, Jr.

Prayer Recessional—"Now God Be With Us"—Joseph Barnaby Benediction

The several soloists in the Anthem will be Constance Kahn, Elizabeth Smith, Joe Mobley and Reinhold Mathewson.

Reverting to the original custom, the program will include both the Processional and the Recessional, the only change being that at the end of the service the choir will sing two stanzas of the latter, march out silently, and conclude after the Benediction has been pronounced.

The decorations will be under the supervision of the Y. W. C. A.

Show 'Girls Demand Excitement' For 15c

Tomorrow night at 7:30 sharp "Girls Demand Excitement," a collegiate talkie will be shown in Hardie Auditorium. Admission is only 15 cents.

Proceeds from ticket sales will help provide for a student loan fund from which worthy students may borrow to help defray expenses.

Students have been particularly urged to tell parents and friends about the show tomorrow night.

A new $3,500 sound machine insures a high class performance.

Student Volunteers Make Pfrangle Pres

Members of the recently organized Student Volunteer Movement met Sunday in chapel and elected Bob Pfrangle; Henry Watkins, Vice-President, and Virginia Howry, Secretary and Treasurer.

The local organization will proceed immediately upon a program of discussion concerning life work in foreign fields.

Rev. William Miller, ten years a missionary in Persia, and a well known worker in the movement, will be at Southwestern from February 29 through March 2 to help the new group on the campus get started properly and to give inspiration to the movement here.

KAMPUS KRAX

Newton—Who said "don't give up the ship?"
Macgruder—I believe that it was some Scotchman.

"WATCH ME SHAKE THAT THING," SAID THE ELEPHANT, COMING TO A SUSPENSION BRIDGE.

J. Walls—Father says that the man I marry must be a millionaire.
Bynum—Money can't buy happiness.
Walls—Maybe not, but it can pay for a lot of satisfactory substitutes.

Govan—Is your family at home this evening?
McGehee—Sure, don't you see the light in the cellar?

ODE TO A SAILOR

"Every time I speak to you I have to grope for words."
"Oh yeah. Well the dictionary ain't painted on my back."

A Scotchman is reported to have sent the following telegram and you will note that he managed to stay within the ten word limit:
"Bill detained erased afford erector analysis hurt infectious dead."
The information he was trying to get across was as follows: "Bill detained; he raced a Ford; he wrecked her and Alice is hurt; in fact she is dead."

YOUNGSTER (ON CRUISE)—
"THEY ALL LAUGHED WHEN I SAID I FOUND TWO BITS ON THE QUARTER DECK."

Husband (to negro servant)—Do you know anything about my wife's whereabouts?
Rosie—Yes, sah! Ah thinks ah put them in the wash.

Old Man (lecturing his granddaughter)—I never see a blush on a girl's face now. In my day it was different.
Granddaughter—Why, granddad, what did you say to them?

Hazel—Gee, he surely has hair on his chest!
Red—Who?
Hazel—Rin-Tin-Tin.

"Are you John A. Van Dorly?" asked the young man beside a cloak rack.
"No," was the surprised reply.
"Well, I am," came the frosty reply, "and that is his slicker you are putting on."

EVERGREEN HALL

Tupelo certainly has its attractions for home town girls. Grace Rowland and T. Hudson left our midst during the whole week-end to visit the Mississippi shirtmaking metropolis.

Wirtie Golden has recovered from a severe cold which kept her down for several days.

Basketball games are a big help during the week nights. Let's have some more.

And now we notice Coach John Miller's bulk in Evergreen Hall.

Nell Davis has been beaming for the past week-end because her mother and brother from Laurel, Mississippi, paid her a visit of several days.

Would that some Santy-Claus would keep the Frigidaire stocked with cokes for thirsty college girls. It empties itself amazingly fast.

Several Zetas had a taste of dormitory life when they spent Saturday night with sisters. Among those noticed were Dorothy Jane Kerr and Helen Moore.

A PRAYER FOR STUDENTS

Hear us, O never-failing Light, Fount of all Truth, Source of all Wisdom, as we pray for those who are called to the tasks of learning, to the discipline of the intellect. Inspire all students with the desire for reality in thought, that they may know Thee, the ultimate Truth, the Infinite Mind, whose thoughts they can but think again. Cast out all intellectual vanity and vain-glory. Forbid that they should ever pretend to a knowledge they do not possess. Make them to be faithful in all their work, loyal to their teachers, earnestly desirous of the best gifts, yet ever rejoicing in another's success. Fill them with great hopes for the future, with pure and unselfish ambitions, that in due time they may give of what they have received and impart some good to those who are ignorant and out of the way. Spirit of all counsel and knowledge! Guide the feet of Thy servants into the paths of eternal life. May their souls be lamps of Thine, burning and shining with the truth, dimmed by no evil passion, darkened by no deadly sin. May it be theirs to have the secret of Christ, which is the secret of blessedness, without which all other learning is but dust and ashes. We ask this for His sake. Amen. From A Book of Prayers, by Samuel McComb.

SORORITY DRIVE

One of the eyesores on the Southwestern campus is the driveway over the sorority lodges. For years cars have lunged and bounced over this wagon road much to the disgust of the occupants but so far no one has done anything about it. It is up to the sororities to get together for their own convenience and see what they can do about alleviating an exasperating condition which affects a large per cent of the student body. The sororities have a right to ask a reasonable amount of help from the college authorities since the new road would redound not only to the initiative of the girls but to the credit of the administration.

But in trying times like these the sororities should not ask for aid, especially when even now a drive for money is being prepared. A good gravel surface for the present road would cost each sorority only a few dollars. But cinders are being given away. For $5.00 apiece the sororities could have a rainproof cinder road constructed that would last until the college could give more material help.

Why should a boy write an editorial that pertains solely to the girls? Because the Sou'wester believes that every girl in the sororities on the campus would like to have a good road leading over to the lodges, and because, as yet, no one has made a move to organize the sororities to plan this inexpensive work that would mean so much to all of the girls.

DRIVE CAREFULLY

The chains which for three months have blocked the driveway through the campus have been taken down under two conditions: first, that no cars speed past Robb Hall; and second, that students do not block the driveway by parking their cars in such a way that traffic is held up. Johnny Rollo, Superintendent of the Grounds, is mainly responsible for taking down the chains.

In their joy at once more being able to drive through the campus the students should be extra careful that they do not in any way violate the two rules of speeding and parking lest the chains go back up again. There will be no red tape about blocking the drive again. The first time the rules are broken the chains will be put in place and they will stay there until summer. The students should certainly have learned their lessons by this time.

SUE TO LOU

Dear Lou:

You'd never guess where I'm writing you from—and if you don't like prepositions at the end of sentences, I'm sorry, that's all. But to get back to the riddle; well, I'm in the private dining hall, the only quiet spot on the campus. I thought I was discovered a moment ago, but it was only a passing couple, speaking in such low tones that I sprang to the window to see what was the matter. It was Frances Mitchner wondering out loud when the basketball team would be home.

Bill Cobb tells me to tell you to tell everybody—phew!—to come to the Thirteen Club dance tomorrow night down at the DeVoy. The universal interest in this dance reminds me of a Pan, everybody's going, or so the predictions go. See you there early.

If you want to know who goes places and does things together, you should tour around University Place on Sundays. In one short hour I saw Ethel Mae and Streeter, Olga Hartman and Ray Sanders and then on rounding the corner my tin lizzie almost climbed a tree at sight of one of our fair co-eds speeding along accompanied by one of our young profs. More power, sez I.

Check Mary Catherine Whitman as the most powerful salesgirl on the campus. She just sold me a ticket to the Kappa Delta picture show, and me as broke as I am. Oh, to be a blond . . . they have what it takes and take what you have. After that I guess I had better stop, and, so with your welfare in mind, I'll close.

As ever yours,

SUE.

They used to hunt deers with a gun, now they do it with a roadster.

Tridelts Show Up Well In Tourney

Up to date the Tri Delta team is leading the intra-sorority basketball tournament in the number of games won, with the record of three victories and no defeats. At a game on last Monday the Tri Delts decisively defeated the A. O. Pi's, unconquered until then, with the score of 43 to 16.

On Friday afternoon at five o'clock the Zeta Tau Alpha team will challenge the Kappa Delta sextette.

In the intra-mural basketball tournament which is also being conducted at this time, the Freshettes whipped the Junior class. In a game last Friday, the Senior class swamped the Sophomores with a score of 60.

Nature Notes

The turtle dove, with its modest plumage of pearl grey which is soothing to the eye, is a most interesting bird. Its sparkling blue eyes and pretty little feet are a joy to the ornithologist. At certain seasons of the year, i. e. spring, summer, fall, and winter, its dulcet "Coo" may be heard from the depths of the forest as it plaintively calls its mate, while in the distance the encouraging bark of a fox drifts through the tall timber.

EDITOR'S NOTE: There is an open season on foxen this year. Turtle doves have always been open and above board.

ALUM JOURNAL IS ON CAMPUS

Editor MacQueen Chocks Magazine With News

Reviewing the success of the Tutorial Reading Course system at Southwestern during the past semester, Student President Hamilton gives the main advantages to be derived from the new system in his article, "A Student Appraisal of Southwestern's New Plan," in the Alumni Journal which came off the press last week. It is the first issue of the Journal in 1932.

The exercising of personal interest and close association with the professor are the main advantages attendant to this new plan, according to the writer. Hamilton does not advocate an increase in the number of reading courses as, at present, it represents a well balanced combination of two educational systems. He concludes the article with, "the tutorial reading course plan will not change the course of human existence, nor will it manufacture a thinker, but it does offer an opportunity for expression and attainment, of which the thinking student will eagerly take advantage."

Dr. Henry J. Bassett, Professor of Latin, presents the work of Mussolini in restoring some of the ancient cities of Italy, in his article, "Mussolini-Restitutor Urbis."

This issue of the Alumni Journal contains also some most interesting articles by Southwestern Alumni, campus news, alumni notes, and letters to the editor.

Prof. Marion MacQueen is editor of the magazine and secretary of the Alumni Association. Recently permanent offices have been established in the Science Building, and the work of the Alumni Association will be carried on from this point. The second issue of the Journal will appear in a few months.

Initiate Five Men In O. D. K.

Initiation of five new members into Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity, has been set for March 1. Three students and one faculty member are numbered among the five, the remaining initiate being Mr. Wharton S. Jones, prominent local educator.

Students upon whom the honor of membership will be conferred are William Berson, William Walker and Albert Erskine.

Dr. P. N. Rhodes, professor of physics, is the professor who will be admitted.

HONOR ROLL
hours a day on an average, sometimes more."

Wait, there are simpler ways. Margaret Tallichet: "All that I can say is that it won't happen again."

But it will, it will. Here you see an example of the most powerful of physiological factors at work on the defenseless profs. It is bound to get results.

Rodney Baine: "I maintain that it's lettuce and my morning calisthenics. Seven deep kneebends in the morning and a cool, fresh, luscious head of lettuce just before retiring will get anybody on the honor roll."

Henry Oliver: "Oh, I eat string beans. Since when have you been in this pestering business?"

"Oh, quite a while."
"Well, this is the first time I've been honored by one of your pestering."

And if his manners don't take a sudden turn for the better, it'll be the last.

Now, you can believe all this that these studious youths and maidens have said, or not. If I were you, I would—not.

Constance Bennett In "Lady With a Past"

Constance Bennett's latest picture, "Lady With a Past," which begins a week's showing Monday at the RKO Orpheum, is accredited with being her outstanding movie role. Unusual in story theme, dialogue and the beautiful, ultra-modern Parisian gowns worn by Miss Bennett, "Lady With a Past" is anticipated with great interest by Memphis theatergoers.

The story deals with Miss Bennett as a wealthy New York girl, yearning for love but denied it because she is too demure. She goes to Paris, hires a gigolo, in the person of Ben Lyon, and things begin to happen. David Manners also is in the supporting cast.

LADS PLAY HOT WICKER GAMES

Interfraternity Tourney Full Of Excitement

Playing through a schedule of ten games, the championship of the interfraternity basketball tournament and the winners of the consolation round was decided in the gym Wednesday night with the Non-Frat and Alpha Tau Omega teams playing for the championship and Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Beta Sigma playing to decide the consolation round.

Some very fast and exciting games have been played in the gym during the past week and the final game Wednesday night was probably the best of the entire tournament.

Going relentlessly on, the Alpha Tau Omega team defeated Pi Kappa Alpha and Kappa Sigma to advance to the final round of play. The Non-Frat team won over Beta Sigma and Theta Nu Epsilon in succession.

In the consolation round, Sigma Alpha Epsilon defeated Pi Kappa Alpha after having been defeated by Kappa Sigma. Beta Sigma lost to the Non-Frat team, but whipped the K. A.'s to play for the title in the consolation round.

The tournament is being sponsored by the Boosters Club and a trophy will be given to the winner.

Chi Delta Prepares Entertainment Plan

The Chi Delta is at present making plans for an entertainment to be given on the evening of March 23 in Hardie Auditorium. Admission will be free and the entire student body is invited.

Chi Delta has suspended its program of semi-monthly meetings for the rest of this year and will concentrate its entire attention upon this entertainment. Plans are being made for the presentation of a one-act play, and Louis Nicholas is arranging the musical program for the evening.

Annabelle Cox, president, has charge of all arrangements. She is being assisted by Margaret Kimbrough, vice-president.

● "I'm sort of restless . . . always on the look-out for something that hits the old taste spot . . . and clicks! But I've noticed that I never get tired of Chesterfields. They always taste better to me.

"That can't be an accident. It stands to reason . . . a cigarette that always tastes better . . . has got to be made better. You know what I mean . . . purer materials . . . more up-to-date ways of working. I'm willing to bet that's why my last Chesterfield of the day is as mild and satisfying as the first!"

THEY'RE Milder • • THEY'RE Pure • • THEY TASTE BETTER • • They Satisfy
