VARSITY INVADES ALABAMA

Dr. Atkinson Defines Love And Then Gives Advice To Co-Eds On Subject

"Love is a combination of facilitations and inhibitions," thus saith the honored and revered Professor of Education, Atkinson. "You can cultivate a liking for a disliked person by inhibiting your feelings toward traits and characteristics of disliked person."

CABINET PICKS NEW MEMBERS

Four Freshmen Named To Group

At the regular meeting of the Southwestern Christian Union Cabinet, Monday night, four members of the freshman class were selected to serve as members.

The students were chosen for their interest and leadership in religious activities on the campus. Those who were selected are Hope Brewster, Adele Bigelow, Charles Hamilton, and Francis Benton.

Hope Brewster and Adele Bigelow are residents of the city, and Hamilton and Benton are both ministerial students from out of the state.

The Christian Union Cabinet is made up of officers of the various religious organizations on the campus, and their duty is to foster religious life in the school.

A. O. PI'S PLAN HOUSE PARTY

M. Mercer Entertains At Jackson, Tenn.

Saturday, the O. A. Pi's will whizz "down" to Jackson, Tenn., for a house party at Margaret Mercer's. The "Apple Pies" have chartered a special coach on the train to be for their private use. They will embark from this fair city at 1:45 p. m. and will arrive at Jackson about 3 p. m.

HONOR GUESTS
That afternoon a tea will be given in their honor to which a large number of the young girls of Jackson will be invited. A dance will be given in their honor that night at the Jackson Country Club.

Sunday the girls will have dinner at the New Southern Hotel in a private dining room. To this, will also be invited the A. O. Pi alumnae who live in Jackson.

That afternoon various diversions will be enjoyed, and at 6:15 p. m. the private car will be hitched on to the Memphis Special. They will get home about 9 o'clock.

Bus To Take Group to Birmingham Tilt

The crowd going to the Lynx-Birmingham-Southern game has increased so that they have decided to hire a bus to convey them to Birmingham on Saturday.

Virginia Fisher, Hazel Corley, Martha Burton, Sailor Anderson, Goodlett Brown, Katy Reid, Martha Johnson, Eugenia Weeks, Tom Holloway, Alvan Tate, Russell Cross, Cole Henry, Charlotte Stange, Mary Hubbard, Louise Taylor, David and Scotty Edington, Francis Benton, and Elizabeth Markham will be in the group that plans to go.

Profs To Hand In Grades On Tuesday

Professors will hand in their grades for the first report period on Tuesday morning. Miss Gary, assistant registrar, announced that the first six weeks' report period ends on this day.

Ye ole Prof was discussing Love, that immortal subject, with his "deer" students of Education 51. Of course, the doctor asserts, one must feel something for an individual to love them. There is no such thing as love at first sight, since married people say this after several years of married life, during which time they have forgotten all the little details.

ADVISE
The doctor advised young girls in his classes, particularly Misses Storms, Brett, Davis, Burton, and Galbreath, not to fall in love if they had not already done so. We doubt whether they have or not, except in the one outstanding case.

College men are advised by the doctor's remarks to steer clear of the college woman, and marry the working girl type, the same holding true for college women.

PESSIMISTIC
As a last stroke of intelligentia, Dr. Atkinson, the noble veteran, advises, "Do not hitch your wagon to a star, and don't set your ideas and ideals too high. Aim low and you're almost certain to achieve success."

Hold Deputation On Sunday P. M.

Fourth Service To Be Held

The Ministerial Club will hold a service at the Home for Crippled Children Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. James Gregory will make a short talk; Freshman Hamilton will play a few piano selections; and Russell Cross will preside.

FOURTH SERVICE
This is the fourth deputation service in the chain of services to be held this year under the direction of the Deputation Committee.

Last Wednesday evening at 7:30, the club held a service at the Campbell's Clinic on Madison. This is a monthly feature sponsored by the club. James Breazeale made the talk at that time.

The next service will be at the Sunshine Home.

Elect Creech Vice President of Group

Harvey Creech has been elected vice-president of the men's Pan Hellenic council. Creech won the nomination by defeating Louis Bormanman. Creech succeeds Robert King who failed to return to college this fall.

PHI CIRCLE OF O. D. K. "TAPS" SIX MEMBERS

Four Juniors And Two Seniors Chosen

FIRST TAP SERVICE

Drake And Booth Named From Seniors

The Phi Circle of Omicron Delta Kappa, national honorary fraternity for leadership, has selected six new members for the organization. Four juniors and two seniors comprise the list of new members. The fraternity "taps" new members twice each college year. This was the initial "tap" service for this year.

NEW MEMBERS
The new members are Harvey Drake, Ripley, Ohio; Ralph Booth, Natchez, Miss.; Harte Thomas, Memphis; Charles Crump, Memphis; David Edington, Mobile, Ala.; and Andrew Edington, Mobile, Ala.

DRAKE
Drake is the president of the Senior class and an active campus worker. He has been a member of the varsity track team for two years; a member of the "S" club; member of the Pan Hellenic council; former president of the Boosters club; member of the student council; and president of the Kappa Alpha fraternity.

BOOTH
Booth is the president of the Lynx club; member of the Pan Hellenic council; former member of the publication board; and president of the S. A. E. fraternity.

Free Eats

Harold High, manager of the Lynx Lair, wishes to announce that, starting today at noon and lasting for an indefinite period, free coffee and pie will be given to all students who order as much as 20 cents worth in the Lair.

Every order that amounts to the stated amount will carry with it either a cup of coffee or a piece of chocolate pie. The student may choose the free sample that he wishes.

High stated that the free eats plan will be in vogue for several days and may last indefinitely if it works all right. The "gratis" food is merely a method that the Lair is using to cure the depression which seems to have hit all the eds and co-eds.

Alumnae Assn. Plans Scholarship

The girls on the campus are finally getting a break. Maybe all the fair co-eds won't think so but a most worth-while project is being made for them.

Year after year the college has bestowed scholarships on boys who, otherwise, could not attend school. But since Southwestern is a co-educational institution, why not give the girls a chance? There are plenty of girls who are denied a college education because their families do not have financial means and the records show the girls have stood higher scholastically than the boys.

AID ONE
The Alumnae chapter has planned to have a scholarship fund for girls. At first it can provide for only one scholarship but it hopes to expand the foundation to help more girls each year.

JUDGES
Details for the selection of the fortunate girl are still vague. The association will appoint a committee to look after the scholarship. The choice will be left up to the committee and Mrs. Townsend. Those who are particularly anxious to obtain this scholarship can make application thru Mrs. Townsend.

R. MORRISS JONES

MUSIC CLUB TO PRESENT JONES

Noted Musician To Be Here Wednesday

The Southwestern Music Club, Miss Nell Sanders, president, will present Mr. R. Morris Jones in a lecture, "The Romance of Music," Wednesday evening, November 9th, in Hardie Auditorium of Southwestern at 8 o'clock. Mr. Jones will illustrate his lecture with his own cartoons, and will also sing during the evening.

STUDIED ABROAD
Mr. Jones is a pupil of Madam Dexter, of Boston, and Madam Tumanaskaya, Royal Opera Company, Moscow. He has studied biographical sketches in New York, and has lectured at the "Gotham" in New York.

ARTIST
His art work appeared in the following publications: Courier Journal, Louisville, Ky.; Cleveland Plain Dealer, Cleveland, Ohio; Commercial Appeal, Memphis, Tenn., as well as minor publications in Texas, Mississippi, and California. He will be remembered in Memphis by his "Chalk Talks," a few years ago.

All students, the faculty and friends of Southwestern are cordially invited to hear Mr. Jones.

MEET POTENT PANTHER TEAM IN BIRMINGHAM

Strive For Dixie Race Victory

NEWTON IS INJURED

B'ham-S'thern Has Team Of Veterans

Southwestern's Lynx will make their second Alabama invasion tomorrow when they meet the strong team of Birmingham-Southern College at Birmingham. The Memphis team will have quite a formidable foe to combat in the Panther aggregation.

SOUTHERN FAVORED
Comparative scores show the Lynx to have the better record for the season, but the B'ham-Southern aggregation has developed into a powerful combination and are the favorites to down the Lynx.

Dispatches from Birmingham sing praises of Vaughn, stellar Southern halfback, who has run wild at every performance of the Panther eleven this season. He is a triple threat man and is an excellent broken field runner.

FIRST MEETING
The game marks the first meeting of the two teams on the gridiron and the Lynx are anxious to get the first victory in the start of the football warfare.

The Southwestern team will be minus the services of their star halfback, Herbert Newton. Newton sustained a badly injured knee in the Howard battle and will not be in the opening lineup. The rest of the squad is in good shape for the battle.

Probable lineup:
B'ham-S'thern Pos. Lynx
Allbrooks R.E. Barnes
Currie R.T. Fortenberry
Lecroy R.G. Fox
Beard C. McCormick
McBee L.G. Bearden
Fisher L.T. Hebert
Owens L.E. Perrette
O'Neal Q.B. High

GIRL RIFLERS TO HUNT DUCKS

Six Co-Eds Exhibit Skill

The Rifle Club is coming along splendidly and has taken in a new member, Margaret MacNicol. The other members are Misses Corley, Weeks, Hyde, Sullens, and Fisher. After a few more weeks of practice, when the season opens, they plan to go to Stuttgart, Ark., with Louise Stratmann for a duck hunt.

It's hoped that they'll kill enough to supply the dining hall but, unless the members get their own rifles before then this will hardly be possible. So far, they possess two rifles, one of which belongs to Jack Crosby. It's an 1890 model and when Hazel starts to shoot it looks pretty dangerous. We thought that all pre-war arms, etc., had been destroyed.

College To Have Float In Parade

Southwestern will have a float in the Armistice Day parade if present plans of the Southwestern Christian Union materialize. Each year, the college is represented in the annual parade, in some way or other.

KAMPUS KRAX

The fairy knight from a far country slew the dragon and rescued the lovely princess.

In accordance with the traditional rules of chivalry, he said, "Will you marry me?"

She refused him.
And both lived happily ever after.

A. Pearson: "But why are you running that steam roller over your field?"

Farmer (spitting reflectively): "Wall, you see, I'm gonna raise mashed potatoes this year."

"Oh! if you could only make biscuits like mother used to make"
"Oh! if you could only make the dough that father used to make."

Little Alice was talking to a family of kittens, which she snuggled closely in her arms.

"Kitty," said the little girl, "I know your little brothers and sisters, but I've never seen your papa. I s'pect he must be a traveling man just like daddy."

WITH WIVES NOWADAYS, MEN ARE SIMPLY BUY-PRODUCTS.

"Now, children," said the infant-class teacher before the children's concert, "whatever any of you do don't break down. If you can't remember your words just keep to the tune and sing 'tummy, tum, tum,' or something like that until the words come back to you."

And little Rose, half-way through her song, bore the advice in mind and sang, "She wore a wreath of roses. 'Round her—tummy, tum, tum."

Q—"That is a diplomat?"
A—"A diplomat is a guy who upon accidentally entering a ladies' bath house says, 'Excuse me, fellows.'"

Judge—"You admit that you ran over this man, drove around the block and ran over him again?"

Bob Walker—"Yes, your honor."
Judge—"What have you to say in your defense?"

Bob Walker—"Well, you see I didn't know I got him the first time."

Walker Turner—"Is that clock right?"

Grace Braun (yawning)—"Oh, no. That's the clock we always call 'The visitor.'"

Walker Turner—"Why such a dumb name?"

Grace Braun (sweetly)—"You see, we call it that because we can never make it go!"

Little Girl: "Papa, it's raining."
Papa (whose temper is somewhat ruffled): "Well, let it rain."

Little Girl (timidly): "I was going to, papa."

Cop—"How many times is this, anyway, that I've arrested you for being drunk?"

Bridge Player who has gone to the bow-wows—"Hic, don't ask me. I thought you was keeping score."

After a month's observation of Charley Woolfolk we have decided that his eyes are like a bird—always hopping from limb to limb.

Warden—"He was the coolest and most thoughtful convict that ever escaped."

Warden—"Yes. He left a note in his cell, for the governor of the state, that began, 'I hope you will pardon me for the liberty I am taking.'"

Proud Father: "So that's the little chap who is to carry on my name! Quite a responsibility, eh, nurse?"

Nurse: "It certainly is, Mr. Skokorowski."

"HE DONE ME WRONG," WAILED THE ALGEBRA PROBLEM AS THE FRESHMAN HANDED IN HIS EXAM PAPER.

Elizabeth M.—"How do you like my new hunting outfit?"
Olga H.—"Simply devastating, —but why only one spur?"

Elizabeth M.—"Well, I figure that if one side of the horse gets a move on, the other's got to follow."

"Billy, did you do anything besides eat at the school picnic?"

"Yes, Mummie, we sang a hymn called, 'We Can Sing, Full Though We Be.'"

Inquiries revealed that the title of the hymn was, "Weak and Sinful Though We Be."

SPORTSMANSHIP

One of the most deplorable incidents in the history of Southwestern took place at Fargason Field Saturday afternoon. We have yet to witness a scene more devastating to the interests of the school. At the outset may we go on record as favoring any action, however drastic, the administration may take in attempting to rectify the conditions that were prevalent last week.

From a spectator's standpoint the whole occurrence was intensely revolting. We hope that the student body will do its best to prevent any future disturbances of this sort, as many of Southwestern's most ardent football fans were thoroughly disgusted with what took place.

The local press has dealt with the whole affair in an attitude of comparative restraint. However, we do not believe enough emphasis has been laid on the fact that the more serious consequences were caused by a crazed, middle-aged drunk, rather than by the riotous conduct of Southwestern students. We trust that the degenerate who seriously wounded W. C. Rasberry and Harvey Drake will be justly punished.

During the remainder of the season the student body can change the public's existing impression of Southwestern games by staying on the sidelines regardless of the provoking decisions of officials or the unsportsmanlike behavior of opposing players.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Calvin Hall

Are Calvin Hall residents being good these last few nights? You bet they are for they are afraid to be otherwise after an occurrence in the "dorm" this past week. Every night has to have its pranks to be complete, and this certain night was no exception, except this night's escapade took on serious proportions since it concerned Southwestern's assistant dean, Mr. Bassett.

KIDNAPED

The upper classmen decided that they would play a super-joke on a freshman, and going to his room, they seized him unmercifully and proceeded down the hall. Next they politely ushered him into the lavatory and then locked the door, leaving the poor freshman literally a prisoner.

THREAT

And was that freshman mad? Yes, sir he was. He was going to get revenge by splashing a whole glass full of water on the first student to show his face in the door. But the students too were going to stay clear of that door, although they made a terrible racket exclaiming over their feat.

BIG SPLASH

At that time, Dr. Bassett appeared on the scene and, having discovered the trouble, went to the door, unlocked it, and opened it. Dr. Bassett received the water. How that freshman did feel, throwing water on the assistant dean.

Stewart Hall

Stewart, the haven of the wounded football hero, has two new recruits for the injured list as a result of the Howard game. Herb Newton, who has at different times been out with a sprained ankle and a wrenched back, is suffering from a wrenched knee this time.

John (Long) Barnes limps around, the victim of the same dislocation. The chances are that neither will take part in the Birmingham-Southern clash Saturday. Red McLarty, another of whom Stewart is justly proud, is subbing for the lanky end.

Evergreen Hall

Thelma Worthington was supposed to attend the Student Volunteers' Convention this week-end but we wonder about that trip. Seems that the car just wouldn't run, and she's come back telling these tales about sitting by the hours on the side of the road waiting for Pfrangle and Breazeale (who thoroughly lost their tempers) to fix the motor.

ON LOOKOUT

Mrs. Rutland is still looking for the freshmen who put the stray dog on our front porch last week. The pup did not know it was a dormitory (which means sleeping quarters) and howled during the wee, small hours until he'd roused everyone.

TO OLE MISS

Olga Hartmann went to Ole Miss last week-end to visit Ethel Mae Rives. Reports are out that Ole Miss students frankly told the visitor that they can't wait until the day of the clash and they're not only expecting a good football game but a free-for-all as well. They're going to be terribly disappointed.

And, ask Molline Lyon about her trip to Nashville. We really should like to know if one human could be all that wonderful.

Robb Hall

While Dorsey Barefield was in bed two ardent female admirers sent him a lovely bouquet of flowers. His friends would like to know who they are, but the great lover refuses to disclose the identity of the senders.

VISIT

Julio Robinson, Harold Simmons, Harvey Heidleberg, Tom Woods and Tom Mills are going to spend the week-end in Clarksdale, Mississippi. Judging from the number of rooms mused up, one would think that Robb was a prep school dormitory. Some protective measures are now afoot, which are intended to put an end to this infantile practice.

Campus Candle

The A. T. O. possum hunt was one of those well-known things. Everybody had the best time of their respective lives, and are clamoring to go back.

Of course, a few little accidents occurred such as Louise Carroll nearly breaking her leg when, in hot pursuit of the possum, she fell in a hole. However, they should have agreed on just how many of the prey they caught before they came back. Katie Davis says 15, but Andy Edington modestly claims only twelve.

For one evening this week, this man's world belonged to the ladies. You ask us did they like it? Yes, they did. In other words, the Leap Year dance was a Wow. We wouldn't dare men-

LYNX STUDENTS TEACH SUNDAY SCHOOL GROUPS

Large Number Of Men Instruct

SEVEN AT EVERGREEN

Census Shows Others At Work

Southwestern is adding a great deal each year to the Sunday School life of Memphis. Several boys are teaching classes in various Memphis Sunday Schools, and it is hoped that by the end of the year a representative will be posted in every school.

TEACHERS

At present, Russell Cross is teaching in the Intermediate Department at Evergreen; James Gregory is teaching in the Senior Department, Evergreen; Francis Benton, David Edington, Andrew Edington, Charles Hamilton and John Henry Fishbach are teaching in the Junior Department, Evergreen; Harold Thomas is teaching a Junior Class at Trinity Methodist; Earnest Sawrie is teaching an Intermediate Class at Epworth Methodist.

Some twenty-five or thirty Memphis students are also teaching classes in their individual Sunday Schools, among whom are J. B. Brezeale, who teaches at Epworth Methodist; Dick Keeton, who has a Junior Class at Grace Covenant Presbyterian; Richard Dunlap who teaches at the First Christian Church; Walker Lewis is president of the Young People's Department at the Idlewild Presbyterian Church; Leslie McKee teaches at the Buntyn Presbyterian Church; and Edward Govin Mays teaches at the First Methodist Church.

COLLEGIANS TO PLAY TONIGHT

Clarksdale Is Scene Of Activity

Bill Taylor and His Royal Collegians are looking forward with the utmost pleasure to playing at the dance to be given tonight at Clarksdale, Miss. They have played in that town before, according to Bill, and they know what a swell dance it's going to be.

HONOR FROSH

The party has been arranged in honor of the freshmen football teams of Southwestern and Ole Miss. It will start after the game at approximately 10 p.m., and will last until two.

The Elk's Hotel has been reserved for the occasion, and it is expected that quite a number of the Southwestern students will motor down for both the game and the dance.

MEETING HELD BY C.U. CABINET

Prof. McLean Speaks To Group

Prof. George A. McLean, assistant professor of sociology and education, spoke to the members of the Southwestern Christian Union cabinet Monday evening when the cabinet held its semi-monthly meeting. Prof. McLean spoke on the purposes and aims of the cabinet and Christian Union in getting a better religious aspect on the campus.

COMMITTEE

At the business meeting, Robert Pfrangle appointed a committee to investigate the buying of a Christian flag for the college. The committee in charge of this is Nell Davis, Mary Kennedy Hubbard, and Russell Cross.

SPEAKER

Plans for the regular week of prayer that the Union sponsors each year were discussed, and Dr. Diehl announced that President Ben R. Lacy of the Union Theological Seminary would be the speaker. The week of prayer will culminate with the third vesper service which will be held in February.

He (out driving): You look lovelier to me every minute. Do you know what that's the sign of?

She: Sure. You're going to run out of gas any minute.

Sou'wester Exchanges With Sixty-Three National College Publications

Twenty-Three States Are Included In List Of Colleges That Send Editions

Though most people don't realize it, our own Sou'wester is quite a famous paper, and its exchanges come from far and near—North, East, South, and West—from all parts of the country. It is even connected with an international network of exchanges, for quite a few exchanges have been received and published from the school paper of the university of Manitoba at Winnipeg, Manitoba, Canada.

The Sou'wester exchanges with about sixty-three different college publications, most of which are published weekly, but not quite all of these have been heard from this year.

TENNESSEE

About twenty-three states are represented on this list of exchanges but Tennessee heads the list with thirteen different college papers and there are three papers in Memphis with which the Sou'wester exchanges—Central High's "Warrior," Bellevue Junior High's "Spirit of Bellevue," and West Tennessee Teachers College's "Student Publication."

Missouri is the next state in line with seven different papers and then comes Arkansas with six. Other states included on the list are South Carolina, Texas, Idaho, Pennsylvania, New York, Indiana, Louisiana, Ohio, Washington, Minnesota, Alabama, Virginia, North Carolina, South Dakota, Mississippi, Illinois, Georgia, Kentucky.

In case some do not know what an exchange is and this article is all in vain—an exchange is a bit of news or an interesting happening, originally printed in another paper and in which Sou'wester readers might be interested and therefore printed in the Sou'wester; or the other way around—an article from the Sou'wester sent to another college paper.

Religious Statistics

Eleven religious denominations are represented by the 183 new students on the campus. The Presbyterian Church has the largest number, 45 men and 24 women students making a total of 69.

The Methodists run a close second with 49, while the Episcopalians are third with 29. There are 12 who tend toward the Baptists and 9 Christians, 5 Catholics, 4 Jewish, 2 Non-Church members, and 1 each of the following—Cumberland Presbyterians, Lutherans, Unitarian, and Christian Science.

According to records, it seems that the Methodists always rank second with the Baptists ranking third. However, the Episcopalians are climbing each year and it is expected that by 1942 (ye writer predicts!) the Episcos will be up to second instead of third.

DEBATERS MAY FACE ARKANSAS COLLEGE TEAM

December 5 Is Probable Date

Lynx debaters will be given an opportunity to meet the forensic team of Arkansas College, should the Quibblers Forum decide to accept Dec. 5 as the date for the meeting of the two teams.

Arkansas College situated at Jonesboro, Ark., was one of the schools that debated Southwestern last fall. The college has a specialized department of speech and puts out formidable forensic teams.

DUBLIN DEBATE

It is doubtful whether the Lynx debaters will be able to clash with the team from Arkansas as the Dublin debate takes place on Dec. 10. Southwestern utilizes its fall session, mainly to get a line on its forensic material, but the real debating season is in the spring.

What is Cross Blending?

an Artist

might explain it this way...

"Let's say you're painting clouds. You've got your primary colors here on the palette. But you haven't the clouds until you blend certain colors into the special tone you want.

"This is very much what happens in making a good cigarette. And I gather that what Chesterfield means by Cross-Blending is what an artist does with colors. Their Domestic and Turkish tobaccos—many varieties of each—are the primary colors.

They blend and cross-blend these tobaccos until they get the special tone they want—in other words, the Chesterfield flavor.

"And just as each color you use acts on the others to change and enrich them, so each Chesterfield tobacco partakes of the fine qualities of every other.

"You 'weld' different kinds to get a better kind. That's Cross-Blending!"

BIG TILTS ARE CARDED IN THE DIXIE CIRCUIT

Mercer and Centre Meet In Big Game

TO DETERMINE CHAMP

Miss. College Journeys To New York

Three important intra-Dixie Conference games are scheduled for this week-end. The most important game in the conference is the battle between Mercer and Centre. The winner of this game will in all probability be the champion of the conference. Neither team has been defeated so far this season.

PLAY LOYOLA

Chattanooga will take on Loyola of New Orleans tomorrow in the Crescent City. The Moccasins suffered their first defeat of the season last Saturday at the hands of the Mississippi College eleven. This was the biggest upset of the conference race so far.

PANTHER VS. LYNX

In another important battle at Birmingham, the Lynx will take on the potent Birmingham-Southern team. Howard, the team that defeated the Lynx last Saturday will have an off-day in preparation for the game with Millsaps next week.

MEET COLGATE

Millsaps will meet the strong Louisiana Tech team at Ruston, La. The Majors have been improving steadily and should give the Tech team quite a battle. Mississippi College will journey to Hamilton, N. Y., to meet the powerful Colgate University team. Colgate has been undefeated in five games so far this year and is a national contender.

Springhill, the other conference team, will have an off-week. They will play Birmingham-Southern next week at Mobile.

Girl Swimmers Are Training For Meet

The girls are still practicing for the coming swimming meet and there will be many participating in all events. Jimmie Kate Johnson and Margaret MacNicol have been put in charge of all events and entrants are asked to sign up with them as soon as possible.

Besides the regular swimming and diving events there will be endurance swims, games, and novelty races.

VETERAN TACKLE

SID HEBERT

Sid Hebert has been one of the most consistent players in the Lynx forward wall all season. This is the third year that the Californian has performed for the Southwestern team. Particularly has the work of Hebert been good on the defense. Coach Haygood is counting heavily on the big tackle in tomorrow's game with Southern.

PICK THE WINNERS

The Sou'wester will conduct a contest each week for the students so that they will have a chance to pick the winners of the various standout football games throughout the country. The one who picks the greatest number of winners each week will be awarded a pair of passes to a local theater.

Check the team that you think will win tomorrow. Then put the slip in the box that has been placed in the College Supply Store. All slips must be in by 1 p.m. tomorrow. Be sure to put your name at the bottom of each slip.

Student Council To Convene Next Week

To Take Final Action On Free Phone

The next Student Council meeting is slated for the middle of next week. Chicken High said, "We'll decide about the free phone and several other matters that I'll tell you all about after the meeting." Sounds rather mysterious and interesting.

But as Chicken said, "There's no prospect of a called meeting between now and then," we'll just have to keep the old curiosity box locked.

Mother (leaving Egyptian room in museum): "What did you think of it, dear?"

Bobby—"Well, it was all right, but I don't see why there were so many mummies and no daddies."

Guess Right

The winners of last week Sou'wester football contests were Bill Pickens and Tom Jones. Both guessed 24 correct to lead the large pack of prognosticators that handed in their guesses.

The contests are gaining in popularity each week and over 175 students entered the last one.

By winning the prize this week, Pickens kept up the honor of the room of High and Pickens in Stewart Hall. So far either one or the other has won the contest every week. High has won for two weeks and Pickens for one. Both winners will be awarded tickets for their winning guesses.

LYNX LOSE TO HOWARD, 14-13

Eliminate Locals From Dixie Race

In a last minute drive that netted two touchdowns and the conversion of both extra points, Howard Bulldogs defeated the Southwestern team Saturday by the score of 14 to 13 and wrecked the hopes of the Lynx followers for a Dixie Conference championship.

HOWARD SCORES

Completely outplayed for three quarters, the Bulldogs made a concerted drive at the start of the final period and rushed the Lynx off their feet with a pair of tallies. Moore, Howard back, made the first score after catching a pass from Sweeney. The deciding score was made by Capt. Sweeney, who smashed through the line for two yards and a touchdown. Stuart made both conversions from placement.

LYNX TALLIES

Both Lynx scores were made by Herbert Newton. He made the first in the opening quarter after a 38 yard jaunt off tackle. The second score came as a result of Newton's interception of a Howard pass and racing 30 yards over the goal line without being touched. Knight plunged over guard for the extra point.

RIOT

The final period was marred by a riot that brought some 500 fans on the field, resulting in a free-for-all fight after Capt. High and Kincaid had been banished from the game for slugging one another.

Lineup:

Southwestern	Pos.	Howard
Barnes	L.E.	Stuart
Fortenberry	L.T.	Brown
Fox	L.G.	Osborne
McCormick	C.	Holmstedt
Bearden	R.G.	Laney
Hebert	R.T.	Scifres
Perrette	R.E.	R. Garrett
High (c)	Q.B.	Gresham
Newton	L.H.	Sweeney
Pickens	R.H.	Hulsey
Knight	F.B.	Ewing

Score by periods—
Southwestern 6 0 7 0—13
Howard 0 0 0 14—14

Scoring: Southwestern, touchdowns, Newton 2. Point after touchdown, Knight (line buck). Howard touchdowns, Moore, Sweeney. Point after touchdown, Stuart 2 (placements).

Officials: Referee, Dr. Sammy Sanders (U. of T. Doctor); umpire, Frank Waddey (Georgia Tech); head linesman, Goat Hale (Mississippi College); field judge, Dr. Sammy Raines.

Co-Eds Indulge In Horseback Riding

Now it's horseback riding and all our fair co-eds are out to show their skill. Malline Lyon, Margaret Drake, Virginia Fisher, Hazel Corley, Sarah Fox Martin, Ann Sullens, and Elizabeth Markham are regular riders.

THE GUARDS

They claim it's love of the sport but so much interest is being shown that various other reasons are being discovered. Some like the National Guards, others love to wear riding clothes and Hazel seems to enjoy wearing Bob Sigler's size ten boots.

BOBCATS MEET FROSH OF OLE MISS TONIGHT

Game To Be Played Under Incandescents

CLARKSDALE SCENE

Bobcats Have Never Won Over Red and Blue

Fur will fly when the Southwestern Bobcats clash with the Ole Miss freshmen tonight at Clarksdale, Miss. The game will begin at eight o'clock and an unusually large crowd is anticipated. A close score should be in order for although the Mississippi yearlings will outweigh the Bobcats, the latter will make up in speed what they lack in weight.

POWERFUL

The Oxonians showed power in their close game with the Alabama freshmen who managed to eke out an 8 to 6 win. The Baby Lynx have a record themselves, having won three games and tying the undefeated Holmes Jr. College. From all indications the breaks in the game will decide the margin of victory.

GOOD SHAPE

The Bobcats are in good condition and will be strengthened in the guard position considerably should Eugene McKendrick be able to play. Hammond has been shifted from end to tackle to bolster the middle of the line against the Ole Miss power plays which clicked so well against Alabama, while Hawkins will hold down his end.

BIGGEST GAME

Coach Miller has spent the week working with the freshmen in preparation for what promises to be their biggest game of the year.

Although no definite selection has been made, the probable lineup will be as follows: Haygood at center, Lloyd and Dix at guards, Tapp and Hammond at tackles and Hawkins and Rasberry at ends. The backfield will be composed of Whittaker at quarter, Mann and Jones at halves and Harwood at the fullback post.

BOBCATS WIN THIRD VICTORY

Defeat Senatobia By Score 13 to 6

Southwestern freshmen annexed their third victory of the season Friday when the Bobcats defeated the Northwest Mississippi Junior College of Senatobia, Miss., by the score of 13 to 6. The Bobcats scored twice in the third period, and the Aggies made their lone tally in the final minutes of the fourth period.

LONG DASH

Dick Whitaker accounted for the first Bobcat score by returning the opening kickoff of the second period 92 yards for a touchdown. The second score was a result of a sustained drive down the field by the baby Lynx with Harwood plunging over for the score. A pass from Whitaker to Rasberry accounted for the extra point.

Senatobia scored their touchdown on a 30-yard pass from Stevens to R. Jones, who was standing in the end zone. The attempted conversion was blocked. A heated dispute arose over the legality of the Senatobia score when the Bobcats contended the pass receiver was standing outside of the end zone when he received the pass. However, the protest was disallowed.

Lineup:

Bobcats	Pos.	Senatobia
Rasberry	R.E.	Tidwell
Hammond	R.T.	Watson
Dix	R.G.	France
Haygood	C.	A. Barnett
Lloyd	L.G.	G. Barnett
Tapp	L.T.	Pettit
Hawkins	L.E.	L. Jones
Whitaker	Q.B.	Stevens
Mann	H.B.	Wilroy
H. Jones	H.B.	R. Jones
Harwood	F.B.	Shelton

Score by periods—
Bobcats 0 0 13 0—13
Senatobia 0 0 0 6—6

Scoring: Touchdowns, Whitaker, Harwood, R. Jones. Points after touchdown, Rasberry.

Tri-Deltas Break Ground For New House

TRI-DELTS GET HOUSE STARTED

C. Gautier Turns First Spadeful of Dirt

The Tri-Deltas broke ground for their new house Saturday. Both the active members and the alums gathered round on the lot next to the Chi Omega lodge at 1:30 p.m., and Corinne Gautier dug up the first spadeful of dirt.

Mrs. Hosch, the national deputy who has been a guest of the chapter for several days, christened the house-to-be by breaking a bottle of water over the spot. As the bottle crashed, a great cheer went up from the assemblage; for the house has been a long cherished dream of the Tri-Deltas.

Although it rained Monday, work was started on the excavation of the basement. With this start, they hope to have the house completed by Christmas.

Pi Announces Two Freshette Members

Pi, inter-sorority group, announces the initiation of two new members. They are Sarah Naill and Cornelia Henning. The two co-eds are the latest to be "brought out" by the organization.

Miss Naill is the secretary of the freshman class, and a pledge to the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. Miss Henning is the secretary of the freshman girls undergraduate society, and a pledge to the Chi Omega sorority.

PARSONS AGAIN HOLD SERVICE

Send Deputation To Campbell's

The Ministerial club has made it a policy to try to bring cheer to the shut-ins, and other unfortunates. From time to time they have visited hospitals, clinics, and other institutions of mercy.

AT CAMPBELL'S

This week they have planned a program that will be held at the Campbell's Clinic on Madison Avenue. A talk will be made by J. B. Breazeale. The entire group will attend to furnish religious singing, and prayer service will be conducted after the talk by Breazeale.

Reporter Delves Into Archives To Determine Secrets of Oddity Club

Tricks Members Performed To Gain Admittance Is Exposed Also

A new and extremely select organization has been formed on the Southwestern campus, which is none other than the much discussed Oddity Club. While the entire student body is clamoring to be admitted, the charter members have given the following information to be made public: the membership of the club will be limited to an "odd" minimum.

ALL FREAKS

A Bostonian was showing a visiting Briton around. "This is Bunker Hill monument—where Warren fell, you know?"

The visitor surveyed the lofty shaft thoroughly and then said: "Nasty fall! Killed him, of course?"

All the members must be freaks of nature. This requirement must be native to them, and cannot be acquired. The charter members are: Bill Taylor, grand president, Margaret Tallichet, vice president, Alvan Tate, secretary-treasurer, Ella Kate Malone, Shorty Simmons, Mary Laughlin, Lewis Graeber, Peggy Walker, Charles Woolfolk, and Sara Naill. Pledges are Therese Canale and Clough Eaton. The society is very well organized in that it has already its own hand shake and "high sign," both as freakish as possible.

MEETINGS

A gathering of the Oddity society would be enough to drive any witness, who is not a full fledged member, to complete insanity, since it is at the meetings that the members give exhibitions of their peculiar talents. For this reason, the society has ordained that all its meetings must be in the most secluded privacy, in order that the public will not suffer any evil consequences.

HEAD FREAK

President Taylor ranks highest of all on his ability to perform freakish tricks. At the last census he led the list with a total of four imitations, that of a goldfish, a pig, a horse and a "lung" fish.

Margaret Tallichet and Shorty Simmons gained entrance by their ability to twist their feet. Tallichet can make her toes point in all four directions, and Shorty can lean sideways at a twenty degree angle.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES

Alvan Tate was admitted on general principles, besides which he is able to do the Hungarian Goose step. Ella Kate is also talented in that direction, plus an ability to imitate the walk of any living creature. Sara Naill and Charles Woolfolk were able to join because they could wiggle their ears both ways. Lewis Graeber can twist his tongue. Mary Laughlin also looks like a goldfish.

PLEDGES

Pledge Canale can both look and swim like a goldfish at the same time, and on dry land at that. Pledge Eaton can do a stiff-legged shuffle, blow up his tongue, and call kittens exactly like a cat. Because of these numerous accomplishments, it is expected that he will be the next president.

In the Editor's Mail

Dear Editor:

For more than 10 years I've witnessed football games. I've viewed one of the foremost teams in the country, Southern California, in action. I've seen such teams as Tennessee, Vanderbilt and Florida play. I've watched Southwestern games for four years, against teams in, above and below its class. I've been an interested spectator at games in which high schools, grammar schools or playgrounds took part. Even boys playing on the corner lot have come under my observation. But during all that time I never saw a team employ such unethical tactics, such unheard of, uncalled for, unnecessary and unfair methods, such a dirty, low-down, scurrilous and lousy system, in oppression and persecution, of an opposing team as that used by Howard College last Saturday. It is no wonder that after watching 58 minutes of such unorthodox unkind and unmerciful actions, Southwestern supporters and students swarmed onto the field, at the slightest outbreak, to let loose their pent-up indignation on anyone who had anything to do with Howard. And while the purpose of this letter is not to alibi for the actions of the Lynx followers, there was certainly more cause for such an outbreak, than at the Sewanee game.

Why should Howard College be included on Southwestern's schedule in the future? Southwestern's team as a whole is too clean and fair a group of players to be so unnecessarily subjected to such treatment as accorded it by last Saturday's opponent. There are too many teams in Southwestern's class, whose conduct is as sportsmanlike as that of the Lynx, to bother with playing against a bunch of thugs. Why should Southwestern take the risk of losing the remaining games on its schedule because Howard College made an effort to cripple the whole backfield as well as any of the linemen who gave them a little competition? Why should the individual members suffer the indignities heaped upon them in the form of slugging, kneeling, kicking and biting? Why shouldn't Howard College be kicked out of the Dixie Conference because of its actions? Why shouldn't it be disqualified from playing anyone except such teams as those representing Booker T. Washington High School and LeMoyne College? The only reason I can think of, is that the negroes couldn't stand it.

However, if Coach Haygood continues to include Howard on the schedule I'd suggest he follow the example of one Lorin King, a rugged Lynx guard of several years ago. Lorin chewed tobacco on all occasions, and it was always evident in a football game. When an opposing player became a bit rough or unmanageable, Lorin let him have a load of it (the horrid word). Now if Coach Haygood, the week prior to the Howard game, would, instead of practicing chewing tobacco, I believe he would break Howard College forever of its bad habits. Furthermore, I believe that such actions on the part of the Lynx players would so disable and disconcert the Howard team, that even the Frosh could beat them.

Yours for more sportsmanlike teams for Southwestern's opposition.

Ideal Co-Ed Must Be a Combination Of Dignity and Pep, Lynx Eds Opine

Men Do Not Prefer Blondes But Strive For Brunettes. Also Require Brains

Southwestern freshmen and upperclassmen agree rather completely that the ideal co-ed should be a good combination of dignity and pep. By far the majority prefer brunettes (GENTLEMEN prefer blondes), and they insist that brains are as important as beauty.

Lewis Graeber, than whom there is none more qualified to give an opinion, was rather contradictory. Blondes or brunettes seem to be of equal interest to him, but he insists that they be good conversationalists, witty, tho dignified on occasions.

NEILL QUOTED

Robert Neill emphatically prefers brunettes. "Blondes get dirty too easy," he said. "They must be chic at all times, and must be able to dance and entertain better than anyone else. They must have a good knowledge of literature, art, and poetry, and must be able to play at least one musical instrument, preferably a fiddle (although an organ will do). They must have a good sense of humor, so that they will not mind his playing Bach or Chopin at 2 a.m." Your correspondent rather thinks he wants a robot, not a female.

WOOLFOLK SAYS

Charlie Woolfolk, however, emphatically prefers blondes. "Where there's light, there's heat," he said. Which is something for the dark-tressed ladies to ponder over. She must have a dreamy look in her eyes, he told your inquiring reporter as he grew poetic. Beauty is not essential, but poise and grace are. She must have pep all the time.

DICKIE SPEAKS

Dickie Dunlap also prefers blondes. They must be pretty and must be good dancers. He doesn't want them to talk very much, but they must be entertaining. Blue eyes are essential. Hurrah for a certain pretty blonde A. O. Pi pledge!

KING CLOUGH

Clough Eaton prefers brunettes. His ideal lady would also have green eyes. "There's something fascinating and mysterious about emerald eyes," he said. "I like them peppy, not too tall, and sparkling conversationalists."

SHORT AND SWEET

Maurice Carlson's preference runs to short, stumpy girls, who adore dancing. They must love outdoor sports and must be able to write fiery love letters. He likes those who sing love songs in a deep, throaty voice, too. Must be brunettes.

George Cook is hardly discriminative. "I like those who will listen to my lousy jokes and worn-out line," he said. "They must be sweet-natured and good dancers and very entertaining. Chrystine Gilmore is my ideal."

HIGH ORATES

"Chicken" High is another who isn't particular. They must be pretty, rather olive-complexioned and ultra-feminine. He likes those who dance well, and are interesting.

Earl Christian likes pretty brunettes. They must be dignified, but not snooty. They must like golf, tennis, and other sports, and must play a good game of bridge, "so they can teach me the fine points," he modestly admitted. "They must dance beautifully."

Henry Nalf is one who loves passionately and fervently. "I like those who aren't too dignified, who know how to smoke, who are sophisticated, and tall." A pretty brunette out on Cherry Circle evidently fills the bill.

MAYS HERE

Richard Mays insists that they play a good game of ping-pong and of bridge. They must be pretty, rather short, must be full of fun, and like to dance. Smoking is optional.

Harvey Drake likes tall, very brunettish, lovely ladies. They must be very smart, must be beautiful dancers, and must look well in evening dress. Hmm—

FRAT DEBATERS ARRANGE PLANS

Committee Selects The Question

Inter-fraternity debating is creating quite a stir since the debating club announced that they were sponsoring a tournament. The presidents of the various fraternities are co-operating with the club and have promised teams representing their frats.

This will afford an excellent opportunity for the society to get a line on the new material, as last year's team is ineligible. There will be one question throughout the entire tournament, and from present indications it will be, "Resolved, that compulsory chapel attendance should be abolished."

COMMITTEE

A committee has been appointed with Harte Thomas as chairman to make the necessary arrangements for the tournament. The club is going to get a report concerning this at the next meeting.

NAME JUDGES

Tryouts for the Dublin debate are drawing near and although the supply of information is limited, the members of the club are working hard. Dr. Shewmaker, Dr. Davis, and Dr. Pond will act as judges at the tryouts, at which time they will pick a two man team to represent the school.

W. P. Armstrong To Speak on Armistice

Walter P. Armstrong, prominent local attorney, will be the speaker at the annual Armistice Day celebration that will be held at the college. Mr. Armstrong will deliver an address to the students during the chapel hour. Further arrangements for the celebration haven't been completed.

MUSIC CLUB TO HOLD MEETING

To Present Fine Program Sunday

The Southwestern Music Club will present a program of Bach, Sunday, November 6, at 3 p.m. The program will consist of "Little Preludes and Fugues," to be played by Nell Sanders, "Inventions, Preludes and Fugues," to be played by Louis Nicholas, "Gavotte in E," which will be given by Hope Brewster, "Three Sarabandes," played by Professor John Henry Davis, "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor," also played by Nell Sanders and "Double Concerto" which will be played by Hope Brewster and Rodney Baine.

Julia Van Landingham: "Stop that man! He wanted to kiss me!"
Cop: "That's all right, miss, there will be another along in a minute."
