

Two Lynxmen Striving For Rhodes Prize

Oliver, Fishbach Hope For Rhodes Recognition January 2

Henry Oliver and John Fishbach are candidates for a Rhodes Scholarship this year. They, along with David and Andrew Edington, were granted permission to apply by the faculty, but the Edingtons elected to defer their candidacy until next year.

Oliver and Fishbach have filed in the necessary blanks, and will appear before the examining board at Vanderbilt Jan. 2, along with 16 other Tennessee college students. The field will be narrowed down to two at this time.

Four men will be granted Rhodes scholarships Jan. 6. The men selected will be picked from the winning pairs of six states, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, and Florida. This is the Rhodes district that Southwestern is affiliated with.

Initiation for Chi Delta Phi was held Thursday, Nov. 23, in American room of Hotel Peabody following the banquet which started at 6:30.

Mrs. Frank Sturm and Mrs. Kate Trader Barrow were made honorary members.

Lynx Laddies Do Gigolo Act

Southwestern has acquired since last Friday night the nickname of "Gigolo College." The reason for this is slightly obscure, but perhaps and probably it can be traced to the small herd of eds who assisted the Goodfellows at their NRA-Christmas ball Friday at the Auditorium.

Lucius Cook's baby-doll date disappeared a few minutes after the ball began. Someone told him that she was out with Frankie Masters. Lucius was quite disgusted when the sweet young thing barged into the room ably supported on the strong arms of her mother and father.

Paul Freeman ditched his adolescent baby-doll in favor of one, Miss Rachel Hall, who said in an exclusive interview to the Press-Scimitar, "I like these Southwestern fraternity men." And the Press-Scimitar added, "what courage! what grit!"

Scudder Smith and a pretty young Jewess from the delta were whooping it up while Frankie Masters played, "There'll be a Hot Time in the Ole Town Tonight." Scudder tried his derndest to entice the young lady up for the Panhellenic, but she would have none of it. Too bad.

Truly Southwestern's he-men have demonstrated that they are of some use after all. Any time these smart little things from the wilds of the sticks can fall completely for the noted line of the Red and Black's best... Oh well!

THANKSGIVING MENU

Tomorrow dinner will be served in Neely Hall as usual at 1 p.m. However, it will be anything but usual. Here is the menu:

- I. Oyster Soup
Crackers Celery
- II. Roast Turkey, Dressing and Gravy

- III. Frozen Pudding Sand Tarts
No supper will be served.

ONE-ACT PLAYS ARE GREAT HIT

Southwestern Players Open Season

Three one-act plays recently conducted by Southwestern Players were a great hit. A fair crowd witnessed the performances, the first this year.

First was "A Leap Year Bride," directed by Margaret Clay Faulhaber, who did a splendid job with a vehicle about which the kindest thing one could say is that it creaked. The situation was a novel mix-up in an automobile company office. A dumb stenographer, in love with a co-worker named Alf, finally finds herself engaged to another member of the office force whose name also happens to be Alf. Several rather absurd situations occur, notably when Sally the Stenographer thinks that John Alden Alf has really proposed to her instead of his friend. He happened to be a married man, though, and the stenog had to take the other Alf.

Walter May was great as the sporty, corpulent Alf who thought of the world as a beautiful place. Louis Weeks was the disgruntled Alf who was even willing to propose to the dumb Sally to get her out of the office. Mary Walton Sohm was as naive a Sally as could be desired.

In the "Dying Soldier," Charley Taylor did one of the nicest pieces of acting ever done in Hardie Auditorium. Dixie Mae Jennings directed the play in capable manner and also did a difficult, dramatic role with the air of a professional. Alvan Tate turned in his usual good work as the doctor.

Taylor took the part of a young soldier, dying on a hospital cot, and his gasps, moans, and quick breathing had the audience on pins and needles. He had loved the wife of the doctor when home wounded in England. She was again at his bedside, and Dr. Tate recognizes her, but does not let Taylor know. Taylor dies, and Miss Copeland, the wife, is reconciled with her doctor husband, realizing how big and fine he is by the side of the poor, dying boy, who is just an ordinary young fellow.

John Hines directed the last of the plays, "Love Is the Sweetest Thing," which gave Norma Lee opportunity to show her beauty, and provided some quick repartee and "patter" between Miss Lee and Fred Rehfeldt. Betty Jane Bloompot livened up the play when she breezed in as a very vampish vamp. Nothing much happened, except that Fred and Norma, married fully an hour, fussed and made up a half dozen times, each reconciliation being beautifully sealed with a kiss; and several pseudo-cocktails were imbibed. It was reminiscent of "Private Lives" in spots, without the fight.

Lynx Students Have Found Little Cause To Be Thankful—Maybe

Thanksgiving, barring its religious aspect, means little to some few Southwestern students, judging by the opinions expressed in individual interviews Monday, other than the fact that it is a holiday!

Herbert Newton summed it all up when he said, "Who wants to be thankful?" Skinny Jordan is thankful over "nothing at all," and J. B. Heyman, Hiram Todd, and John Quanthay agree. But it is apparently only the male element who are suffering from melancholia. Peggy Walker is delighted with life, "just because I'm so happy all the time," and Kate Galbreath "because I'm living even though I'm not all that I'd like to be."

Mabel Frances Gray is happy over "every little thing," and Nelle McMahan, "that I'm alive." Clough Eaton agrees that life is a beautiful thing. "I'm free, white, and 21. Ain't that enough?" (Perhaps—for you).

When Charlie Ledsinger admitted his thanksgiving will be "because the leaves on the trees aren't heavier, hurt-

Southwestern Had Many Strict Rules And Regulations In Good Old Days

Living Was Cheap, But Modern Lads And Lassies Would Balk At Catalogue Restrictions

"Lynx lassies and lads who grow disgruntled at Southwestern's restrictions such as no co-ed smoking and no visiting fraternity lodges should have lived back in the good old days when the College of the Mississippi valley was known as Stewart College.

Yes, Southwestern was known as Stewart until 1878, when it became Southwestern Presbyterian University. Following are excerpts from catalogues ranging from 1871 to 1895:

"Students are not permitted to visit saloons, pool-rooms, public billiard halls, or to board at hotels. Card-playing is strictly forbidden and any students known to engage in it will be subject to discipline."

"There will be chapel services at least once a day. Board in Robb Hall will be less than $2.50 a day."

READING ROOM
"Open daily, is furnished with the leading religious and secular news papers of the land, with magazines, illustrated papers, scientific and technical journals, and affords many a pleasant hour to students."

ATHLETICS
Baseball and lawn-tennis grounds, well located and graded. Cumberland and Red Rivers and a fair-sized sheet of water on the campus afford rare facilities for rowing and skating."

"Students are advanced from a lower to a higher class only upon merit. A certain grade must be attained in order to pass to a higher class, and the rule is applied rigidly and impartially."

"No games may be played on the front campus. No games may be played (Continued on Page Three)

Lois Maer Will Give Recital Sun.

Miss Lois Maer will be presented in recital by the Southwestern Music Club at its next meeting Sunday, Dec. 10, at 3:30 p.m., in SAE lodge.

Miss Maer is well known as an artist and teacher throughout the tri-states. After finishing her work here, she spent four years in New York studying with Sigismund Stojowski, the renowned Polish Pianist. Her ability was recognized by the Aeolian Co., and she was engaged to make Duo-Art records during her student days.

Since returning to Memphis she has won a secure place in her position as artist-teacher at the Bollinger-Musser School of Music, and as teacher at Miss Hutchinson's School.

Millsaps Writer Opines On Lynx

In the column "Millsaps Class by Class" (Apologies to McIntyre—somebody ought to get them) in The Purple and White, the columnist lauds Lynx hospitality, but pans our cheering squad.

The following paragraphs are excerpts from the Purple and White:

"Southwestern lived up to the southern hospitality for which it became so famous last year. Every student there seemed to be willing to aid a visitor find his way about and to generally take care of the country boys in the big city."

"One more word about Southwestern and then we'll call a moratorium. The lads and lassies up there cheer worse than we do and you may believe that or not just as you wish. Their cheering section is the quietest that I have ever heard and I have had the displeasure to hear some pretty quiet ones in my time."

Tri-Deltas Have Founders' Banquet

Tri-Delta's annual founders day banquet will be tonight in the Louis XIV Room at the Peabody. The Sorority was founded at Boston University, Thanksgiving Eve, 1888, and is celebrating its 45th anniversary this year.

Miss Lyle Stange and Mrs. Tole, president of the alumnae, are in charge of arrangements assisted by Virginia Alexander and Malline Lyon, president of the active chapter.

All alumnae of Tri-Delta in Memphis and surrounding territory as well as members and pledges of active chapter and patronesses are planning to attend.

GULF COAST TEAM HOPES FOR REVENGE

Both Crews Plan To End Season With Victory

Southwestern ends the '33 football season tomorrow in Mobile when they engage the Spring Hill team. Both elevens have lost several games, and are determined to end the season with another victory to their credit. By comparison of records, the Lynx have some edge over the boys from the Gulf Coast, but the Spring Hillians are determined to avenge last year's 41 to 0 defeat.

Coach Haygood has announced that he will play his seniors in a large part of the game, probably starting all of them. As long as they click, they will remain in the game.

Jack Crosby and "Hi" Lumpkin have been playing jam-up ball in the middle of the line, and Coach indicated that they would see considerable service before the referee whistle blows the swan song to Lynx gridders.

Probable starting line-ups are:

| Lynx     | Pos. | Spring Hill |
|----------|------|-------------|
| Barnes   | L.E. | Rejoll      |
| White    | L.T. | Thomson     |
| Bearden  | L.G. | Shirley     |
| Lloyd    | C.   | R. Ching    |
| Fox (c)  | R.G. | Wulff       |
| McCollum | R.T. | Spartford   |
| Wilson   | R.E. | Kelly       |
| Whitaker | Q.B. | Traynor     |
| Kelly    | H.B. | Brassell    |

C.U. TREE FOR NEEDY DEC. 17

To Sponser A Tag Day Soon

Christian Union's annual Christmas Tree will be given Dec. 19. Money is being raised by the sale of apples and a tag day will be sponsored before the holiday season. Poor children will be given clothes, shoes, food, and other necessities.

President Tommy Jones announced that $12.40 had been cleared in the first 10 days of apple-selling.

Y. W. C. A. is helping collect clothes to be donated at the tree. Benton is chairman of a committee, along with Jameson Jones, Thelma Worthington, and Kate Farnsworth to work out details for the tree.

First Panhellenic Will Be Formal

First Panhellenic will be at Casino Friday at 8:30 p.m. The party will be formal. There will be four no-breaks, three specials, and an all-Greek leadout.

Panhellenic Council requests men not on the Council to refrain from sending corsages.

Library Receives Varied New Books

Kingdom Come, a new negro story by Roark Bradford, the author of Old Man Adam and his Children, from which Green Pastures was taken is one of the late additions to the Library. Other amusing books seen on the shelf are Julia Newberry's Diary, Peter Abelard, by Helen Waddell, and Eyes of the Wilderness, by Charles G. D. Roberts, who has been called "the O. Henry of Animal Stories."

Pottles' Stretchers and Aldington's All Men Are Enemies are new novels of the World War.

Hitler's Autobiography, which the Library received last week, is a sensation in Europe and is almost compulsory reading for all intelligent observers of the modern political scene. In this volume, called My Battle, Hitler tells the story of his life, traces the growth of his social, economical and political philosophy and states both his views and his methods.

For those interested in sociology and economics are Insecurity, by Epstein and End the Crisis, by Somary, Internal Debts of the United States, by Clark, and Overtones of We Move In New Directions.

Ministerial Club Will Meet Today

Ministerial Club will have its regular meeting today instead of Thursday. Several religious questions will be discussed. Sunday, Nov. 26, the Club visited the Crippled Adult's Hospital.

Tri Delta Initiates

Tri-Delta announces the initiation of Margaret Varner.

EDINGTON INJURED

Andrew Edington received a severe sprained ankle in football scrimmage Monday afternoon. The injury forced him from the starting lineup for the Lynx-Spring Hill game tomorrow.

Although used as a reserve, "Scotty" showed perseverance and was always ready when needed. He is a senior, and the mishap abruptly ended his football career.

Episcopal Club In First Meeting

Newly-formed Episcopal Club met at St. Luke's Church Sunday at 4 p.m. Rev. Mr. Alfred Loaring-Clark, Rector of St. John's Church, and Miss Annie Martin Stout, head of Young Peoples Work in Memphis, spoke on Ideals and purposes of the club.

Temporary officers appointed were: Kate Farnsworth, president. Woody Butler, vice-president. Walter Cain, secretary.

Episcopal members of the faculty are honorary sponsors. Dr. Huber is the active sponsor.

Future meetings will be held bi-weekly on Sunday at 4:30 p.m. at St. Luke's Parish House, Peabody and Le-master. Refreshments are served. The next meeting will be Sunday afternoon.

Pan Bids

Non-Frat men who desire stag bids and girls who want double bids for the Panhellenic can get them from Miss Gary in the office. Non-frat men who want double bids may get them at the Bursar's office upon payment of one dollar.

Peculiar Sights At College Club

Lavitor Gilliam besieging Boyce Sadler in Orange crepe; Clark Porteous hotchally in time with the music for once—; Sidney Strickland buzzing off with B. ## THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving time is at hand again. It is a good thing to stop yearly and think of the many things we have to be thankful for, but it is much nicer if we also think of the countless unfortunates who have not so much to be thankful of.

We who attend Southwestern are a fortunate lot. Sometimes we may think that our lives are hard, but we are usually happy. We are comfortably situated in a cultural atmosphere, and general conditions throughout the country are looking up. This has ceased to be mere "pep" propaganda and is now a fact.

Let us show how really thankful we are by helping, in whatever measure possible, those less fortunate than ourselves. There is a Community Chest fund Campaign on now. All should contribute as much as they feel able to spare.

THE FREE PHONE

Before the free phone had been in two weeks, the directory was removed. This does not show the proper honor spirit which is supposed to guide use of the phone. Selfishness has caused someone to deprive students of the use of the phone book, and it should be returned immediately, so that all can use it.

Furthermore, the phone should not be monopolized. Use it when necessary, but not for long-winded conversations when others need it. If you must talk to the girl, go to see her. Also, do not lock the door when using the phone, as it blocks the way to The Sou'wester office. It is a phone for the convenience of the student body, not for private courting.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Evergreen Hall

Inmates are in a perfect hum of excitement over Thanksgiving and are making big plans! Mary Mac and Ellie are both going to Helena to partake of food and good cheer with their families. Mary Merle is going home to Caruthersville, Mo., and is coming back on a honeymoon—but not her own!

Little Eva is going home to Starksville—thrilled over the turkey waiting for her there. Eleanor's family are coming up to spend Thanksgiving with her, and Olga is expecting to show her kid brother the campus. Clara is going to Blytheville and Frances says "I don't know yet."

Susie can't make up her mind but expects she'll end up at home. Maline is going to Atlanta to see her grandmother, also Georgia Tech beat Duke.

Sarah Gracey is going home to Covington and is taking "Icky" with her. Helen Hill will be very happy that day in Ripley and Evelyn just can't wait to get to Tunica. Lyda Lyon, Virginia West, Katy Otey and Gene are expecting to stay here and hope to make a good job of taking care of the Dorm.

Calvin Hall

John Street, Joe Moss, Herbert Williams, and Carroll Cloar have been going over to Evergreen Church every Thursday night and Sunday and lending their voices to the choir.

Calvinites take great pleasure in welcoming a new comer into our midst. Richard Turner, late of Robb, has moved over into room 300, with Barefield, Gee, and Houts. You can't blame him for wanting to move into a good dormitory, and he says you can talk over the phone over here with more privacy. Freshman Lackey has left school. He returned to Chattanooga Sunday.

Robb Hall

When ye editor subtly reminded me that there were at least one or two men in Robb Hall who weren't SAE's and who were also clamoring for publicity in this column, this writer began looking for these said desirers of publicity in order to satisfy requests.

Rodney Baine said that he had been living in Robb Hall since September (believe it or not) and that his roommate was none other than Sir Fishbach. Both boys said they would appreciate any publicity we might give them.

Benton and "Hiram" Lumpkin, on the third floor, also said they wouldn't mind if their names were scattered through this column every now and then. Likewise said the Edington brothers and "Schnozzle" Durant.

"Nick" and Pfrangle said they didn't need to look to Robb Hall for publicity—they could have all they wanted by making daily chapel announcements.

With Christian and Brock and the two Cains, the only ones left in Robb Hall whom we haven't publicly lauded, the writer thinks he has done a noble thing by giving all these guys the recognition they have been desiring.

There, Mr. Editor, who says we don't ever give the few non-SAE's in Robb Hall a break?

This'n That On Campus

Personal Nomination-of-the-Week-for-the-Cinema: Mary Mac Eddins as Gracie Allen and Russell Perry as George Burns to appear in a fast-moving scandal: "A CHASE IN THE WOODS."

Rumor has it that the Bing Crosby-ish ATO is on the crest of a wave. The most elite (we know it's beginning to be trite) Chi O pledge smiled sweetly for him several times Saturday night. But this did not dampen the effect of the huge bill which he owes the Parkview for the mishap of two weeks ago. We know he won't get such a kick out of that.

The Gene Raymondish SAE can't seem to make up his mind between the most boisterous Chi O pledge and the equally so Apple-pie pledge. From latest reports, the AOP's brunette who talks to the birds when she's lonely (but is hardly an old man of the mountain) seems to be three laps ahead. Ah, Southwestern, our two war-like groups are at it again!

Our most unique Design for Living has come to the front. It seems that both young men like, equally well, both young Chi O women, and that both young women, being sorority sisters, like each other. The only drawback to the arrangement is that one "he" is a Kappa Sig and the other, an SAE. Which, in itself, is explanation enough. We're betting on the Kappa Sig to win the laurel wreath. He had a head start.

The Sigma Nu frosh with the most unusual Dutch last name is seldom seen at night without the winsome high school miss who is the daughter of our Ebony and Scarlet's football coach. A mutual agreement has arranged things for the future, we understand.

The Sigma Nu, who has been a Sigma Nu for two years, has earned himself the title of Tri-Delta Supreme. The young lady has locks equally as dusky as his and is one of the officers of Chi Delta Phi. Everything is rosy, including life, love, and the pursuit of happiness. (Courtesy of Dicky-Bird).

Cupid predictions: The blonde ATO soph who has been, figuratively speaking, off to a desert isle to die for love, and the Chi O brunette soph (mentioned above) who is heartily in need of new raw material; the Kappa Sig frosh (also heretofore mentioned) whose last name is a man's domestic profession and the songbird Chi O frosh who is noted for her rendition of "Shanghai Lil" at the Kerledge Klurb; the Kappa Sig frosh vice-president and the lovely president of the Chi O pledges, both of whom evidently need a change of environment.

The choicest morsel of unrefined rumor which has come to our venerable and timeworn ears is the delightful news that the lovely, if elephantine, Kappa Delta star pledge of last year is home forevermore from the University of Arkansas. It seems that the passionate crooning of the star Bing Crosby of Bill Taylor's orchestra was too savage a plea for her burning heart. Unnecessary theme song: "Because of You-ooooo."

Proclaim good will and good health to all by using a Christmas Seal on every package and letter.

GREEK GROWLS

—HIRAM GREEN.

The Lynx Debut Party occurred at the Casino last Thursday from 4 to 7:30 p.m. Southwestern's own Debutante Club, was composed of Charlie Taylor, Dorsey Barefield, Dicky Dunlap, John Hines, Raford Herbert, Jerry Porter, Louis Graeber (naturally), Harry Webb, Skinny Jordan and Marion Butler.

The occasion was a backwards teardance sponsored by the DBS sorority and when old Hiram looked at the agonized expression on the face of the cow-like debutantes, he thought it a fitting place for the young dears to make their entrance into the most holy of holy ranks of high school society.

Dorsey Barefield, in a tapering model of canvas-blue serge, was telling his escort, Mary Allie Taylor, that he had never met so many cute people and was thanking her for the shoulder bouquet of radishes which she had sent him.

Raford Herbert, in a Lelong model of mauve tweed was tripping gracefully along the outer extremities of the ballroom with her escort, Betsy O'Brien.

John Hines, in a stunning rhinestone creation with velvet trimming, was smiling concernedly at the stag line during the first special. Not having realized the evil intentions of most gay young members of the floor committee, he was searching frantically for his mother and father to rescue him from the dire clutches of some drunken sot when Hiram chanced to see her.

Dicky Dunlap spent the majority of this inaugural night exhibiting to the army of female swains her lengthy bouquet of cabbage and lettuce leaves while mannish Sally Griffin demonstrated to him the eccentricities of the new Cuban tango.

Louis Graeber, all Pepsodent sweetness as usual, had to resort to a line, something of which he has NEVER done before to strengthen the waiting line after the third special, for she did want to be socially popular. Hmmm.

Charles Taylor, in a dignified evening frock of sky-blue silk was listening naively to the prattling of a score or more he-manish co-eds who were endeavoring to lead her adolescent mind from the straight and narrow. Now, girls, remember that was her FIRST social affair and the little LAYDIE doesn't know all she should as yet.

Harry Webb, daughter of Mrs. Harry Webb, who bids fair to be among the most popular of those season's crop of debutantes was gayly refusing a cocktail in her most tactful manner when spied by ole Hiram.

Jerry Porter, dressed simply in a white cotton Schiaparelli tea-gown, stumbled over the hefty tootsies of boisterous Sara Naill who mumbled an embarrassed apology for almost wrecking ruin on the young man's entrance to the four hundred.

Skinny Jordan, than whom none looked more enticing, dressed as she was in a Patou special of chartreuse, reprimanded her escort in her sweetest manner for stepping on the sequoin train of her new frock and almost causing something to burst loose.

All in all it was a gala day for Southwestern's debutante club and the season's array of parties are the only natural reward for such a sea of lovely figures and voluptuous countenances which the members showed to their best advantage. Southwestern should be justly proud of her bevy of sweet young things.

Nelle McMahan sho does like Chaw-kulit-ice-kream-kones. Yes, she does. For the benefit of our advertisers (the old business eye, you know) we asked Miss McMahan for a statement, but Wild Nelle of the Plains refused to say anything other than: "I sho do like chaw-kulit-ice-kream-kones."

on other parts of the campus before 2 o'clock, except on holidays." "Students are not allowed to drink intoxicants, gamble, play cards or have weapons on the college premises."

"Entertainments may not be given on the campus or in the buildings without the consent of the faculty."

EXAMINATIONS

"The students are subjected to a searching and comprehensive examination, both written and oral, twice a year. Advancement in the classes will be made to depend on these tests."

"Diplomas, certificates of proficiency, and distinction will be given only to those who reach the required grade. We are satisfied that the efforts required to pass these tests will secure the largest average advancement, even though comparatively few may achieve the highest success. Moreover, common honesty forbids us to endorse the successful and unsuccessful alike."

TERMS

"Average yearly expenses $200 to $260, depending on the class."
Tuition, per annum.....$ 70.00
Extra for modern languages..... 20.00
Incidentals and gym fee..... 5.00
Board $4.50 a week..... 180.00
Washing, $1.50 a month..... 15.00

SOCIAL FEATURES

"The students are cordially received into the best society in the city, instead of being thrown off as a separate community and they soon feel at home in the church and in the family. In social style, our people are substantial and conventional rather than frivolous and extravagant. This is a city of churches and church members, and there is an entire absence of that semi-infidel class whose influence is so pernicious to young men."

HEALTH

The health record of Clarksville is remarkable. Bilious fevers are very rare in recent years and typhoid is almost unknown. Cistern water is used exclusively and construction and management of cisterns has been brought to great perfection."

"Taken as a whole, they must have led exceedingly sheltered and cloistered lives in the post war days at dear old Stewart and S. P. U. The one advantage was that life was very inexpensive."

DIAL Article

Dr. C. L. Baker will write the article in the Southwestern Dial of the Commercial Appeal Sunday, Dec. 3. The title of Dr. Baker's article will be "Is Rejuvenation Possible?"

O. D. K.

The six O.D.K. delegates to the province convention at the University of Alabama last week-end were entertained with the genuine old Alabama hospitality. Dr. A. Theodore "Papa" Johnson and Dr. J. H. Davis, affectionately known at 'Bama as "Pajamas", were two luminaries of the convention. They were introduced at public assemblies, and "Pajamas" did the pouring at the teas.

All the delegates except "Papa" enjoyed two dances and the same number of dates. Bessemer's Baby Battler, Harold High, was socially second to none save Professor Davis. D. Edington and Crump had some trouble stemming the feminine tide and as a result spent most of their time in the sorority row.

The Southwestern delegation behaved very well, especially Andy Edington, who gave no sign of being girl-struck, something that could not be said about the others. Dr. Davis unknowingly ran afoul of twins, meeting one the first night and the other the second, and he wondered why he could not take up the second night where he left off the first.

The convention was a huge success, and Southwestern's "A" rating was kept up to its previous standing. For further information in regard to the convention or to the origin of the titles, "Pajamas" and "Papa", see any delegate.

Kappa Deltas Plan Thanksgiving Charity

Kappa Delta actives and pledges are preparing baskets of food and a package of clothing for Thanksgiving charity work to be given to a needy family.

Thirty-seven Pupils Are On Probation

Quarterly reports given out last week showed 37 students were placed on probation.

To be placed on probation a student has failed three out of five major courses, or two out of four major courses.

Two students are passing no major courses, 12 are only passing one, and 23 are passing but two courses.

"I must get my winter coat out of the moth balls."

Lynx Students Are Not Thankful

is growing out." (We are so thankful, too).

Duff Gaiter perfectly seriously contended that he was thankful, "for the adorable date I have for the Panhellenic." Day Brennan showed a somewhat frigid side of herself when her selection was, "it might snow."

Dr. Wilson and Dr. Orr, realizing their names were to appear in print, meekly said, "We're thankful for our dear students," which left your interviewer with a warm glow in her heart. She happens to be one of them.

John Gaiter and Louis Graeber shouted, almost before the question was asked, "It's a holiday. Wheeps!" Dick Whitaker will be overflowing with grace Thursday, "because of my mother-in-law." What he means by that will ever remain a secret.

Cornelia Henning gravely admitted that her chief interest in Thanksgiving was that "Harvey Jones may break down and pay me my two-bits." (Poor Harvey! No peace even on Thanksgiving.)

Allete Gates is thankful "because I'm not a turkey," which, in another light, was the opinion of Dick Turner. "Maybe I'll get one that can be eaten," he said with a grim smile. "I'm going to Mobile, you know." Betty Bruce, nearby as ever, agreed. "I'm thankful for the Mobile trip," she said.

Dr. Cooper smilingly asserted that he felt benevolent because "of all the pretty girls on the campus." Beverly Moore will feel pious chiefly "because Christmas is not far off."

Dorothy Anne Ferguson is content because "I'm not Beverly Booth," which latter unfortunate young lady said, "because I know Evelyn Gragg," which latter unfortunate young lady repeated the sweet (?) sentiment, "because I know Beverly Booth." (We had to leave at this point).

Don Owens is happy "because McDonald is in school. He's even dumber than I am." Biology Pettit is delighted that he's alive. We wonder if the tiny brunette has anything to do with this.

Jimmy Haygood's feeling of gladness comes from his Bergeracian protuberance. Translated, as he said it, "I like my big nose." He is, like Alvan Tate, and from what we gathered, the majority of the campus, "looking at the world through rose-colored glasses," which is an appropriate attitude for this day of loving grace.

Girls Will Shoot Against Indiana

Reserve Officers' Training Corps of Indiana Univ., Bloomington, Ind., has challenged Southwestern Girls' Rifle Club to a telegraphic target match. The results must be in for the week ending Dec. 9. As many as wish to compete may do so—the ten highest scores will count.

Contest—Two sighting and ten shots for record in prone position.

Conditions—Regular N. R. A. Rules to govern.

DR. SWAN OFF FOR DIXIE MEET

Dr. W. O. Swan, member of the executive board of the Dixie Conference, will attend its annual meeting next week.

Plans for the coming basketball and track activities of the Conference will be discussed at the meeting. Dr. Swan states Southwestern will not bid for the basketball tournament.

Southwestern coaches and Dr. Swan will attend the S.I.A.A. meeting in Birmingham.

WHO'S WHO

Bob Pfrangle, commonly called "Burr-head," is a native of McComb, Miss. He came to Southwestern three years ago with the intention of studying for the ministry. In pursuance of this object, he has become quite prominent in the Christian Union, Ministerial Club, and the Men's Bible Class. In his Sophomore year, he was vice-president of the Christian Union and the Ministerial Club, and was president of the Christian Union and the Bible Class in his Junior year. He has been on the Honor Council two years and is now president of it. He has been a member of the Sanhedrin Council for three years, the Nitist Club for two, the Choir three, Lynx Club three, and the Student Council two years.

Bob has been very active in religious work throughout his college career. He organized the Student Volunteer movement at Southwestern, and is president of the Student Volunteers of Tennessee. He played basketball on his freshman team, but since then he has not found much time for athletics.

As most everyone knows, "Burr-head" bosses the mad crew of waiters in the dining hall, and that is indeed a job. It is said that "Foots" Clements quit eating in the dining hall because he couldn't bear to see a man (Pfrangle) with bigger feet than his.

Ussery—Wright

Roger Wright, member of the class of '31 and BS Fraternity, will be married tonight to Miss Sadie Ussery at the home of the bride's parents on North Bellevue. Dr. W. O. Shewmaker will officiate. Only the immediate families and a few close friends will be present.

OF FINE TURKISH TOBACCOS

—why Luckies taste better, smoother

On certain mountains in the Near East is a limited collar of earth—called in Turkish, "Yacca." Tobaccos grown there cost as high as $1.00 a pound. Carefully they are examined, leaf by leaf. Often it takes a man a whole day to select two pounds of certain of these fine tobaccos. Lucky Strike is the world's biggest user of fine Turkish tobaccos. For these tender, delicate Turkish leaves are blended with choice tobaccos from our own Southland—to make your Lucky Strike a cigarette that is fully packed—round and firm—free from loose ends. That's why Luckies taste better, smoother.

VANDY VS. LYNX PROBABLE IN '34

McGugin Wants Game In Memphis

Vanderbilt versus Southwestern in 1934! Communication with Coach Dan McGugin of the Commodores brings the game to Fargason field next Oct. 13, tentatively.

The Oct. 13 date was considered for Sewanee, but in case papers are given to sign, the game on that date will be with Vanderbilt and Sewanee will get another date.

Washington and Lee has put in a bid for a game with the Lynx but it probably will have to be delayed until the 1935 schedule.

Games with Kentucky, Sewanee, Chattanooga, Millsaps and certain for the 1934 card. The Chattanooga date is Oct. 27, in Chattanooga.

Coach Haygood hopes to complete the 1934 dates shortly. Arrangements are now being carried on with Tennessee, and L. S. U. in hope of landing games with those schools.

Inter-frat Volley Ball Starts Monday

Inter-fraternity volley ball will begin next Monday. The same schedule as the basketball tournament used will be followed. Games will be played on a court that is being erected just outside the gym and will start at 3 p.m.

Standings to date in the Inter-mural program will be in print in next week's issue after the finals of the basketball meet are concluded.

Pre-medical Tests Will Be Wednesday

Pre-medical aptitude tests will be held Wednesday at 3 p.m., in room 206. Applicants register with Dr. Huber as soon as possible.

Brilliant blurbs of brilliant people: Norma Lee: "Why do so many people eat in the Lynx Lair?" Shirley Freshman: "Cause They're hungry."

Lynx Lair by the way, will install girl waitresses for male customers. Yeah, when all restrictions are removed from Evergreen Hall, and girls can smoke on the campus.

Beta Sigs Defeat A.T.O.'s Monday

In the most thrilling game of the inter-fraternity series, Beta Sigma copped a close decision from Alpha Tau Omega 19 to 15, Monday night. It was a nip and tuck affair throughout, with the ATO's taking a early lead, only to lose it in the later stages of the game.

Broadfoot was highpoint man for the evening with six points. Cannon led his teammates with five points. Billy Lapsley and Dick Mays displayed nice floor work and starred on defense for their respective lodges.

This was the first of a two out of three series to decide the school fraternity championship. The next game will be played Monday night.

Second Vespers Will Be Held Christmas

Southwestern Christian Union's second vesper services of the year will be held Dec. 17 in Hardie Auditorium. The Rev. C. E. Guice of McComb will be the speaker.

Services are being sponsored by the Christian Union, but will actually be conducted by the junior class, under the personal direction of McLemore Elder, president.

The vespers will be the second in a series sponsored by the four classes.

Farmer—Newt

Sarah Beth Farmer, a member of last year's freshman class and a pledge of Tri-delta Sorority will be married today to Louis Newt. The ceremony will be performed at high noon at Trinity Church.

FOUR TIE FOR FIRST IN GRID CONTEST

The football contest last week resulted in a four-way tie between Hardison, Usrey, Moss and Cy Williams. It seems that Boyce Leigh Sadler was under the impression that an election was taking place and, from force of habit, she handed in eight ballots bearing her name. She won four second places, two thirds, and the booby prize as well.

In and Out

The students of Southwestern who seem most thankful are the week-end trippers . . . Andy Edington, his brother, Dave, Grover Durant, Goody Brown, Ann Galbreath and several more are planning to have a gay week-end in Mobile . . . Dorsey Barefield (Chubby Cheeks to you) and Thayer Houts are to be among the guests at the Cotillion party and the City-Central game in Chattanooga . . . Ella Kate Malone and Nellie Coe will accompany Mary Louise Trigg and the Crump twins to Nashville to the Vanderbilt-Alabama game and Herbie Kay dance . . . Charlie Taylor, Betty Bruce, Dick Turner, and Anne Maury are zooming to Mobile to be Dick's guests for the week-end . . . Charlie will return Friday to greet his guest for the Panhellenic, Billy Battle Crooks of Meridian, Miss.

Graves Withdraws

Margaret Graves, Kappa Delta pledge, who has been absent for several days because of illness, will not return to school until next semester.

McDaniel Ill

Oscar McDaniel, KA pledge, is in the Methodist hospital suffering from an appendectomy.

Varsity Cagers Start Practice

Varsity basketball team, under Coach High's tutelage, should go places this season.

Practice started Nov. 20, with a number of candidates unable to report because of football practice. Without a single returning letter man the squad will be composed of some of last year's reserves and freshmen, who, although small, will make a speedy outfit.

No games have been scheduled as yet, but four or five local teams will probably be played before Christmas. The regular season will not start until after the holidays.

Among candidates are Sherman, Barefield, Razberry, Pfrangle, Wallace, and Strickland. Barnes, Mays, Durante, Haygood, Huckabee, and McCollum are still practicing football.

You say
Chesterfields are

CIGARETTES are made of tobacco, wrapped in paper, and they may look alike; but that doesn't mean that they are alike.

Chesterfield Cigarettes are not like other cigarettes. The tobacco is not like the tobacco used in other cigarettes. It is mild, ripe—not harsh, or strong.

Then again, Chesterfields taste better. They are seasoned in the right way with the right kind of Turkish Tobacco. There is nothing flat or tasteless about them.

You're telling me "They Satisfy"!
