"S" CLUB PLANS ARMISTICE HOP

First Dance To Be At Casino Nov. 11

Members of the "S" Club announce their first big dance for Saturday, Nov. 11 at the Casino. Bill Wellers orchestra will furnish the music and the dance will begin at 8:30.

There will be four no-breaks and three specials and an "S" Club lead-out.

Dial To Appear In Magazine Section

The third issue of the Southwestern Dial will appear Sunday in the Magazine Section of the Memphis Commercial Appeal. It will contain an article by Dr. James Wilson, entitled "The Four-Hundredth Anniversary of A Great Frenchman." The man discussed is Michel Montaigne, sixteenth century French philosopher. A short sketch on Disarmament by William McCaskill will also appear in this issue.

Beginning with next Sunday the Southwestern Dial will occupy a full page in the Magazine Section. Hitherto it had only been given four columns. Next Sunday, however, the form of the section will be changed, and will contain 16 pages instead of eight. It will also be reduced in size, similar to the New York Times Magazine Section.

Following Dr. Wilson's article—will appear a story by Dr. Rhodes on Radiation.

How About It?

In three separate short stories in this issue are accounts of parties to be given by newly formed social clubs. Another story tells of an interfraternity organization which is "bringing out" a member. Meanwhile, the Annual cannot get pictures made. Fraternities and sororities have not the money for the Yearbook pages, and a benefit dance is being planned to help finance fraternity pages. Another story tells of the threatened disruption of a national dramatic fraternity, the charter of which was hard to secure.

The faculty is considering drastic measures to curb the mania of too many parties. They claim that the little clubs organized for such a purpose are steps to get around the faculty party requirements. We offer no reproof to these new organizations. They may have a definite place on the campus. We only want the students to consider whether or not the time and money expended is worthwhile. There does not seem to be room for all the organizations we now have. Which shall we let die? Shall we be a society finishing school or a live-wire college?

Abe Fortas, Southwestern Graduate Continues Brilliant Work With N.R.A.

Former Lynx Student Compiles Remarkable Record At Yale; Drafted By Brain Trust

Abe Fortas has had a remarkable student career, and he is still adding laurels to his enviable record.

In 1926 his outstanding high school achievements were rewarded for Abe received the Israel H. Peres scholarship to Southwestern. It seems rather odd that the honors listed by his name while at Southwestern did not inspire the creation of a Hall of Fame earlier, for Abe was not only an honor student during the entire four years, but a prominent member of O.D.K., Sigma Upsilon, Nitist Club, Sophoclean Club, Debating Team, Journal staff, Orchestra, and non-frat Club.

Therefore, when Abe Fortas entered the Yale Law School, Southwestern expected this prominent alumnus to do well and he has in no way failed to live up to expectations.

At the end of his first year in Yale, he was elected to the board of the Yale Law Journal. Then during his second year, Abe was chosen editor of the Yale Law Journal and sent by the faculty to Chicago to do legal research for Yale.

Last June Abe received the degree of L.L.B. Magna Cum Laude, and his brilliant record won for him a place on the Yale Law faculty.

Abe's superior ability won recognition not only in New Haven, but also in Washington. During the month of July the brain trust succeeded in getting Abe's release from the Yale faculty for a year, and placed him as head counsel in the legal division of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration at Washington. Abe has already proved his worth there. Twice during the last few weeks, in the company of the U. S. District Attorney, Abe has flown across the country to San Francisco investigating a violation of the NRA Code. He has just won his case, "The Calistan Canning Case," and so he has now made his place as a valuable asset in Washington.

Group To Discuss War And Recovery

The threat of war in Europe and America's struggle for recovery will be the subjects of discussion for a student group which is being formed on the campus. Efforts will be made to have well-known speakers address the students.

The group is the successor of one formed on the campus last year largely through the efforts of Prof. George McLean.

GRAY AND QUALLS TIE IN CONTEST

The football contest last week resulted in a tie between Mabel Frances Gray, freshman, and Winfield Qualls, a sophomore. They will receive duplicate awards. Bob Pfrangle won the booby prize for the second straight week with eleven misses.

Science Club Has New Study Plans

The Science Club met last night at 7:30. It was decided that the Club would study Mineralogy and Astronomy since neither subject is given by the College. Also, committees were appointed to plan the various functions of the Club. Professor Huber, who will be advisor of the Club, spoke to the group.

To be eligible for the Science Club one must major in at least one science. He must write a paper on a subject pertaining to science which must be accepted by the Club.

The officers of the club are: Jack Brown, president; John Street, vice-president; Vernon Pettit, secretary, and Bill Hunt, treasurer.

Tennis Tourney Reaches Finals

Progress in the Tennis Tournament had reached the finals as this edition of the Southwestern went to press. Two survivors of the rounds were Dicky Dunlap and freshman Dunlap Cannon.

LYNX MEN BELIEVE WAR EMINENT

Recent events in Europe have turned the minds of Southwestern men toward thoughts of war. When asked the question, "What do you think of the European situation, and if there is a war in the near future would you give your services?" a wide diversity of opinion was readily expressed.

Dr. Davis ventured to say, "The situation is very dangerous, however, the United States will probably not be involved for some five years." He refused to prophesy about his own actions.

Henry Oliver was vehement in stating that he would not fight, and added that war seems fairly certain, citing the proposition offered by Lloyd, one of England's largest insurance firms, that there will be a major conflict in Europe within eighteen months, odds two to one.

Leon Jones and Charley Ledsinger were of the same opinion, that war is not far distant, and averred that they would enlist.

WEINER ROAST FOR MINISTERS TO BE TONIGHT

Parsons To Get Away To Secluded Spot for Frolic

The Ministerial Club will turn its attention to social life tonight with a weiner roast at a secluded spot where, in a grassy glade, the "parsons" will make the welkin ring with merriment. The school truck will be used for transportation.

Among those who will go are: John Fischbach, president, with Hope Brewster; Bob Pfrangle, vice-president, with Gene Brandon; Andy Edington, secretary, with date; David Edington with Cecile Porter; Vernon Pettit with Margaret Snyder; Richard Thomas with Grace Robertson; Tom Jones, Hinky Jones, Grover Durant, Young Wallace, Sherman Kelly, John Watts, Bobby Scott, J. B. Breazeale with dates. Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Baker will be the chaperons.

At a recent business meeting the club voted to cooperate with the Lynx staff by not publishing its own "Yearbook" this year. A page in the Lynx will be purchased instead.

Players Choose Casts For Plays

Southwestern Players are to produce six one-act plays in the near future. Three of the six will be selected by a committee of the faculty headed by Dr. C. L. Townsend and Dr. A. M. MacIlwaine and these three will be presented before the student body in Hardie Auditorium, November 20.

The directors of the plays have been busy all the week holding tryouts, but only two casts have been chosen. These are "Love Is the Sweetest Thing," which will be directed by John Hines, and "The Flower Shop," whose director is Kate Galbreath.

Cast of "Love Is the Sweetest Thing" is Norma Lee, Fred Rehfeldt, and Betty Jane Bloompot. That of "The Flower Shop" is Maurice Carlson, Tommy Fuller, and three out of the following five people: M. A. Lightman, Tom Jones, Mary Walton Sohm, Martha Bailey, and Savilla Martin.

Dixie Mae Jennings will direct and take the lead in "The Last Meeting," which will have Alvan Tate and another boy in the cast. Margaret Clay Faulhaber will direct "The Leap-Year Bride" with a cast composed of Charlie Taylor and two girls.

Boyce Leigh Sadler will direct "Overtones" which has an unselected cast of four girls. Eugene Stewart's play has not been chosen.

Chi Delta Phi Will Pick New Members

Sophomore literatae will vie for membership in Chi Delta Phi national society by preparing papers during the coming month.

The girls are: Louise Carroll, Eleanor Trezevant, Savilla Martin, Virginia Alexander and Martha Shaeffer.

An invitation to make contributions has also been extended to all transfer students.

Lynx Depart To Play Game With Howard

Bearden And Pickens Are Shifted To Bolster Attack

The Southwestern Lynx will leave tonight for Birmingham where they take on the Howard Bulldogs tomorrow in an effort to avenge last year's 14-13 defeat.

Coach Haygood has drilled the squad vigorously on blocking and tackling and expects the team to perform much better tomorrow in these departments. However, unless Mac Elder, Neil Tapp, and Mac Givens recover from injuries sustained in last Saturday's game and in practice this week, the team will be considerably weakened.

Several shifts have been tried this week and maybe put into action tomorrow. Bearden has been shifted to defensive center in an effort to bolster the pass defense and Pickens returned to the blocking back position, Haygood taking his old position at end.

RUN MILE RACE ON WEDNESDAY

Second Intramural Race To Be Held

The second intramural cross country run of the year will be held Wednesday at 2:30. It will be a one-mile run. The course will be from the east side of Tutwiler and University to Jackson back to the west side of Parkway and University. The leaders will earn points, both for themselves and their fraternities.

All freshmen except the football men are required to participate.

Billy Mitchell, Tom Jones, and John Bethea, who finished first, second, and third, respectively, in the last run are outstanding contenders. Young Wallace will also be watching.

Beverly Buckingham has charge of the arrangements, and Clark Porteous will be the official starter.

Theta Alpha Phi Invites 14 To Join

Fourteen members of the student body have been declared eligible and asked to join Theta Alpha Phi, national dramatic group which has a chapter at Southwestern. These are: Alvan Tate, Boyce Leigh Sadler, Clark Porteous, Dixie Jennings, Kate Galbreath, Louis Nicholas, Margaret Clay Faulhaber, John Hines, Eugene Stewart, Savilla Martin, Fred Bearden and Harte Thomas.

There is a definite possibility that the fraternity's charter will be returned by Julia Marie Schwinn, president, if a large number of the candidates do not join.

Merely a Bit Of Nonsense

Butler: "Just picking up a little dirt, sir."

"What's going on over there in the ring?" "Just about."

"Nope. I've been in a place much foggier than London."

"Where?" "Don't know—too foggy to see."

Yaler: "What are our chances against Harvard in hockey?"

Another Yaler: "Aw, the game's on ice."

"Your mouth is certainly pretty."

"Yes, I'll put it up against anyone's any time."

"DID YOU ENJOY YOURSELF WHEN YOU WERE A FRESHMAN AT COLLEGE?"

"DID I! WHY THOSE WERE THE HAPPIEST YEARS OF MY LIFE."

"Bridge, bridge, bridge," stormed Mr. Wampus. "You'll die at the bridge table."

"Bury me with simple honors," said Mrs. Wampus, sweetly.

"Yeah, razzberries, bologna and applesauce."

Seasick Passenger: "With an anchor on it."

The freshman bent over and placed his hands on his knees. He was tense and nervous. He was pale with apprehension as the big senior from his fraternity tested his stroke for that final swing.

Swiss, crack . . . "Ouch! What a wallop! And the freshman, peering through the hole in the fence, saw that fraternity brother swat a homer to win the game by one run.

ABOUT DRAMATICS

Southwestern has plenty of talented material for dramatic activities. There are a host of capable student actors, many with directing talent, writers, scenery designers, and even electricians. Without casting any aspersions on the student directors or the Southwestern Players, we believe that the histrionic talent is not being developed here as well as could be. What we need is a trained faculty director. The students have no higher authority to appeal to for technical advice. A skilful director could do wonders with the material on hand. We believe that any extra cost entailed would be more than offset by new students attracted and by increased revenue from the plays produced. The University of North Carolina showed just what a student workshop can do. The same could be done at Southwestern.

OUR ADVERTISERS

You have heard the same old words of "Please Patronize Our Advertisers" over and over. We hate to worry you with such a trite suggestion, but the fact remains that the advertisements solicited for the paper are what makes The Sou'wester possible. Therefore, we urge that you give your business to concerns that advertise with us whenever possible.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Evergreen Hall

THINGS EVERY INMATE KNOWS: Olga Hartmann celebrates on Tuesday. Those illustrated letters from New Orleans are awfully cute.

Gene Brandon gets that way over those long distance telephone calls.

Clara Davis can make more racket than anyone else on the hall.

Susie Knowlton could teach Sally Rand a thing or two.

Ellie Powell and Mary Merhle believe it pays to advertise.

Frances McKinnon looks good in her clothes.

"I'm warning you," says Helen Hill, "Hold your man."

Elizabeth Robinson would make a cute toothpaste ad.

Evelyn Hester has achieved success with SUCCESS AND CO.

Malline Lyon had the best set of circles under her eyes Monday morning we've seen this season.

Mary Mc—Ole Miss, 'nough said.

Virginia West has changed.

Sarah Gracey came to college to study.

Some of the green is beginning to wear off of Lyda Lyon.

Eleanor and Eva—well, the Kappa Sigs will tell you.

Kate Otey brightens when the Moon comes up.

Stewart Hall

J. A. Eddins, Jr., from Rosedale, was a visitor over the week-end, and strange to say, he stayed with Howard White, of all people.

The dormitory had three visitors Sunday night in the personages of C. F. Work, Buddy Hyman, and Carl Stanton. We will welcome them back after football season.

Killcreas seems to be doing quite well. He has achieved a new gray Plymouth with red wheels. Stewart points with pride to this, one of our favorite sons.

Jimmy Wilson came in Sunday night soaking wet. It seems he was in the midst of walking from Carr and Willet to McLean when the rain came. He has spent the week bitterly denouncing the thoughtlessness of having such a distant date.

Stewart's Theme Song this week: "Love Is the Sweetest Thing," Pu-lease, Mr. Bruce.

Calvin Hall

Calvin Hall boasts a freshman who is really well informed as to What's What and Who's Who on the campus. The other night at dinner he seemed unusually thoughtful. Suddenly he halted with his knife full of peas in mid-air, as if struck by something perplexing or hitherto unthought of. "Who's president of the Student Body?" was his surprising query. Won't he be surprised when he finds out who Dr. Deihl is?

The old dorm was visited by one of its ex-inmates last week-end. "Goof" Hinson, former Lynx footballer, was up for the Sewanee game.

"Whistle-Breeches" Williams' room was visited by vandals last Wednesday night. While he was out hunting possums (or something else), someone tore up his room, taking his bed down, hiding his mattress, and emptying his drawers. The underslung hashlinger threatened to whip every boy on the first floor.

Robb Hall

In answer to the clamors and urgent requests of countless students, this column makes its appearance after a brief absence of a week. The absence of this column last week was due to an unavoidable cause, but nevertheless we offer our apologies and promise that it will not happen again.

Where, oh where has Frank Oliver gone? Oh, where oh where can he be? Such is the woeful song that has been on the lips of every Robbite since last Wednesday, a week ago. To date (October 18) he has not been heard from since he took up and left one afternoon to go to spend the weekend with his family in Tupelo. It's been over a week now since he has been gone, and we are beginning to wonder if he is going to come back at all. All information concerning his whereabouts would greatly be appreciated by the Robbites.

Sidney Strickland, the Robb Hall Romeo, has gone and gotten all laid up with a sprained ankle. By now he is probably out and hobbling around. We all knew that you could not keep him away from the fairer element very long.

This'n That On Campus

Personal Nomination-of-the-week-for-the-Cinema: Alvan Tate as Eddie Cantor, and Meredith Davis as Mae West, to appear in a two-reel short entitled, "I'm No Angel, Kid from Spain."

Quiz for the Inquisitives: Didjever see Hiram Todd not merrily doing a Bing Crosby down the cloistered halls of Palmer?

It seems inevitable that the freshman class must have its idealistic romance. A naive little blonde A. T. O. frosh and a not-so-naive little blonde A.O.Pi pledge are rarely seen without the company of the other.

This bit of news is interesting because the sister of the little blonde A.O.Pi and the fraternity brother of the little blonde A.T.O. (with, incidentally, the same last name) are reciprocating nicely, too.

So much so that the fraternity brother walked the entire three miles to and from the sister's house the other night on one of his perennial visits. Cynic's Note: As the "Moonlight and Pretzels" theme song runs, "Ah, But Is It Love?"

The tall, handsome brute of an S.A.E. who has been giving the freshmen a hardy dose, and the lovely ex-president of Chi Omega (Theme song: "She's Got His Peekchair Now") the most boisterous and ring-leading beautiful brunette freshette and the Gene-Raymondish S.A.E., the boisterous freshette's athletic sister and a Kappa Sig pledge whose last name is a plural extent of time.

It is interesting to note, among other things, that our inimitable (thank heavens) best-dancer-in-Memphis is in dilemma over an ex-freshman S.A.E. with an alliterated name, now working in Kentucky, and a bespectacled A.T.O. who is in an equal dilemma over his Chi Omega "S" and this A.O.Pi "S."

Miscellany: A K.A. pledge with a savory last name is now engaged in CHASE-ing the Golden Dragon of Romance.

A tiny Chi Omega butterball sophomore and a Kappa Sig (in spite of the last name, no relation to the crooner) have found mutual interests for discussion (?)

Our Pi.K.A. crooner, first tenor in the glee club, y'know, is very much thatta way about an A.O.Pi blonde pledge noted for her solo dancing, Sohm I'm told.

A tall and slender Chi O golden-haired sophomore has delivered her affections to the care of an ex-sophomore Loquacious Lubricator, now working for an Advertising Company of great prominence.

A Kappa Sig dormitory pledge with the same last name as a Memphis Kappa Sig pledge is seen only too often with a Chi Omega pledge with the same last name as A Chi Omega active (Moral: What next?)

This Chi O active, incidentally, has gone in for Biology assistants. Rumor has it that Torchy-top is turning BROWN with envy. Now, now, Glow-worm!

The lovely captain of the Chi O's and the Lynx's S.A.E. star backfield man seem to be making quite some time sometime. (Ugh!)

Golden Fleece Is Severed From Park

The Allah Club, an organization of pre-torsorial students, functioned again last Friday, after a year of dormancy. This time Bob Park, special student and gentleman of the press, was the victim. Between halves of the Bob-Cat-Ole Miss game, Park was lured to the gym where half of his fine golden bristles were shaven, sans brush, lather, water, or other components of a good shave.

It seems that Park managed to escape unscathed for two weeks because the members of the Allah Club thought he was a Fuller Brush man.

Baine, Haden In Chess Finals

The finals of the Sou'wester Chess Tournament have been reached and find the student body, represented by Rodney Baine, challenging the faculty, represented by Prof. Eric G. Haden, for supremacy.

In second round matches played during the past week, Dr. Huber defaulted to Dr. Rhodes after dropping one game; Prof. Haden defeated Dr. Kelso two straight; and Dr. Hartley won both his games from Dr. Davis. In the semi-finals Rodney Baine eliminated Dr. Hartley, defending champion, after the first and second games had resulted in draws. In the other semi-final match Prof. Haden won two in a row from Dr. Rhodes.

The championship round is now in progress, being played on one of the boards and with one of the sets of men used by the present world's champion in his record-breaking blindfold exhibition in Chicago.

Poet Pestered By Painful Preppers

Richard Thomas, Jr., rushed tearfully up to the Sou'wester office on a morning following a certain slumber party held by a certain sorority. After carefully hearing his story the staff decided that the gals get the papers nomination for oblivion.

These wires were delivered about 1:30 in the morning, which makes the joke more painful:

GREEK GROWLS

More o'possum hunts. These urbanistic collegians they must have fresh air and moonlight to keep their constitutions in shape. Maybe that isn't the reason they hunt o'possums according to your way of thinking, because maybe you have been on one. To further burden you, however, here is the highlight of the Beta Sigma affair. Clark Porteous failed to come through when he climbed the tree after his threats of always bringing home the bacon—this would be a good place to start bacon puns, but I god a code id by node. He fell out of the tree without any catch. Ed Turner, the bold, the brave, the great, shinnied up the same tree, met the o'possum face to face grappled with him in a Tarzanlike manner, and lost his balance, to fall to the ground with a bloody sounding crash. He came up out of a pile of leaves with the animal, however, and scored first place as campus Chief Hunter. The thing was tied, hands and feet, and locked in a rabbit cage to rest until the next day, when his fate would be decided by his captor. He pulled a fast one, and escaped. Will anybody ever have a successful o'possum hunt, or will some combination football players and o'possum hunters have to be imported to keep the school social strata from decaying?

Marion Butler, pansy piano pounder, and pledge to the high order of Kappa Sig (Keppa Cigarette) was expounding at length to Rehfeldt and Watson (Calvin Hall 206 why don't you go up to see them sometime) about the fun he had at a DELTA DELTA darkness on the DELTA DELTA weiner sizzle—they always sizzled when I cooked them. Was he proud to know that he had a date with the Shirley Freshman. He had fun, though, and so did the other guys and gals that went, including yours truly.

That AOPi tea dance was keen. Of course, the little pledges were having a big time, and wondering what it was all about. Also, wondering why such a thing as that cost them so much. They possibly were wondering how in the

Erudite Group Will Throw Big Party

Alpha Theta Phi, fraternity of the erudite and hard working book lovers, has decided to cast aside its somber robes and assume the gay regalia of youth.

Wednesday night the three members, John Fischbach, Henry Oliver, and James Breazeale, will sally forth in Breazeale's ancient Dodge and seek adventure in the wilds of Shelby.

Rumor has it that they will be attended by members of the fairer sex, but at the time of writing, the scholars seemed reluctant to divulge the names of these favored.

world they ever managed to get into the midst of Southwestern Society by just saying yes. In fact yours truly was so busy having a big time that if anything happened that would be classed as a Greek Burp-Growl, what's the difference—he didn't see it.

The votes on last week's checked suit poll were surprising.

Do you like checked suits (1)	(352 1/2)
Do you like Max Usery's checked suits	(1/2)	(353 1/2)
If so don't tell why	(?)	(XXX)

The majority of the people didn't know who Max Usery was, in fact they hadn't seen anybody with checked suits on. Freshman Watts wanted to know about some details; if a checked suit is double breasted, is it a double check? Hot cha, those Freshmen are thinking again.

The editor was plainly in a dilemma . . . too many good headlines were running through his head to waste time on that Sphinx Club story . . . he had to have a caption however. Old Hiram Green bent over his desk and offered the following suggestions: Sphinx Selects Sissy, or even better: Pansies Parade Pepper. This brought roars from the editor, and so Hiram had to back down, and turn to his column to air out his very original idea.

and they said any one can write like gertrude stein even carlson can write like gertrude stein so they asked me to review the autobiography and I'll do it just as I think gertrude stein would do it and leave out punctuation marks just as I think gertrude stein would leave out punctuation marks etc alic b toklas came to paris to live with gertrude stein and a bell rang in her head and she knew gertrude stein was a genius just as she knew picasse and alfred whitehead were geniuses later when a bell rang in her head when she met them and gertrude stein said alic when are you going to write your autobiography and alic said she didn't know so gertrude wrote it for her just as defoe wrote robinson crusoe's but it is the memoirs of gertrude stein and very little biography of alic toklas and gertrude stein calls the roll of contemporary writers and artists and praises some especially joyce and hemingway who is ninety percent rotarian in spite of the fact that gertrude likes him and pound is a village explainer excellent if you are a village if not and others approach and gertrude comments and they pass on by with praise if gertrude was impressed was impressed by them but with condemnation if she found them boring or boring or uninteresting and wonder if gertrude stein is worthy and valuable and we are forced to think that she holds down a place that is justified when she writes as she does because it tends to give free expression free expression and lessons the pressure on the clamps that have cramped the lit forms and the forms of lit and we decide that her book on alic is significant because it tells what the men and women of our day are doing and thinking and how they are writing and it gives an idea of their importance and it raises doubts about some that we have considered great and it dictates what and how people should write and what is lit and what is lit not that is not lit and here carlson finishes his review just in time because he is beginning to ring his own bell and southwestern college can't have a genius on its campus.

Lynxmen Organize New Chess Club

In a well-attended meeting Wednesday night, a group of Southwestern chess enthusiasts met and organized a club to be known as the Southwestern Chess Club, purposed to foster intramural and intercollegiate chess at Southwestern. Meetings will be held regularly at 6:30 on Wednesday, twice a month, and an interesting series of lectures and tilts is being arranged.

Next meeting, October 25, a banquet is being planned, and Mr. R. B. Jefferson, Memphis champion and twice winner of the Western Chess Association tournament, is being sought as speaker.

Tri-Delt Pledges Fete New Co-eds

Pledges of the Tri Delta Sorority entertained last Tuesday afternoon from 3 to 5 at the lodge. The event was in honor of all new women students on the campus. This is an annual custom observed by Tri Delta chapters throughout the country.

The lodge was artistically decorated with large baskets of dahlias in vivid autumn colors. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. Charles Beatty.

Especially invited guests were Mrs. Charles Diehl, Mrs. C. L. Townsend, Mrs. India Rutland, and Mrs. William Orr.

FRENCH CLUB IS ORGANIZED

In order to promote interest in the French language and customs, a French club has been organized. All French students who are able to speak the language and who are interested are eligible. A constitution is to be drawn up in the near futrue. Meetings will be held once a month.

The following officers were elected: Norma Lee, president; John Hines, chairman of program committee; Kate Galbreath, secretary.

FROSH PLAY GOODMAN TOMORROW

BOBCATS MEET HOLMES Jr. COL. ON FARGASON

Frosh Ready For Foes After Ole Miss Defeat

Tomorrow afternoon on Fargason Field brings another frosh game. This time the opposition will be furnished by Holmes Jr. College, of Goodman Miss.

The Bobcats have sufficiently recovered from the Ole Miss tilt to give the Junior Collegians a good fight. Last year's game resulted in a deadlock, and the fight this year will be carried on from that point.

The services of "Jug-head" Owens star Bobcat backfield performer, probably will be lacking but Coach High expects to put a well-balanced team on the field. Owens suffered a twisted knee in the Ole Miss game last week.

Little hope on the Holmes team has been secured but from past performances a good battle is anticipated.

FROSH LOSE TO OLE MISS

Miss. Yearlings Win By Score Of 20 To 6

The Ole Miss Freshmen swooped down on the Southwestern Bobcats and left them dazed with a score of 20 to 6 last Friday. Though the "Frosh" fought hard, they were no match for the swift backs from Miss.

The visitors scored their markers as results of lateral passes, good broken field running, and the jumbling up of signals by the Bobcats. In the early part of the third quarter, Southwestern made their first and only tally on a pass from Tipton to Chapman. The score was then tied until the "Frosh" jumbled their signals and then the visitors scored. The last tally for the visitors came in the last quarter in the form of a pass from Peters to Poole.

Though defeated, the Bobcats put up a good fight and worked hard throughout the game. Very few yards were made through the Bobcat line. Two of the Ole Miss scores were made on lateral passes. Owens, Gartside, and Tipton played well in the backfield for the yearlings.

Bobcats	Pos.	Ole Miss.

STAR LINESMAN

Fred Bearden, burly Lynx Linesman, found himself in the Sewanee game. He is expected to do great things against Howard tomorrow.

LYNX LOSE TO SEWANEE 12 TO 7

Sewanee Uses Advantage Of Weak Pass Defense

In a characteristic Sewanee-Southwestern battle, the Lynx lost a heart-breaking struggle to the boys from the Mountain last Saturday. The final score was Sewanee 12, Southwestern 7.

All three touchdowns were via the aerial route, with the Lynx showing a particular weakness in pass defense. Sewanee scored first on a pass from Poage to Young, and Southwestern took the lead in the third quarter when lanky John Barnes grabbed a thirty-yard heave from Whitaker and shook off two would-be tacklers to cross the goal line.

In the last quarter, with the Tigers completing pass after pass through the seive like defense of the Lynx, Alex Wellford whipped a long pass over the goal line into the arms of Charlie Pearson.

For the Lynx, Barnes, Bearden and Fox starred in the line, with Whitaker doing some nice passing in the backfield.

Lineup:

Southwestern	Pos.	Sewanee
Barnes	L.E.	Young
White	L.T.	Castleberry
Fox (C)	L.G.	K. Clark
Tloyd	C.	Blair
Bearden	R.G.	Hall
M. Collum	R.T.	Hayes
Pickens	R.E.	Lawrence
Whitaker	Q.B.	Poage
Hammond	J.H.	Cravens
Tapp	R.H.	Wellford (C)
Elder	F.B.	Ruch

Score by Periods:	6	0	7	0-7
Southwestern	6	0	7	0-7
Sewanee	6	0	0	6-12

Scoring: Sewanee touchdowns, Young, Pearson. Southwestern touchdown, Barnes. Point after touchdown, Whitaker (placekick).

Memphis Alumni Form Organization

Over 100 Southwestern Alumni of Memphis met Friday, Oct. 13, for the purpose of organizing an active Alumni chapter.

A fund was started for the purpose of providing scholarships for five boys next year. A feature of the meet was the showing of the 1932 Lynx-Sewanee game in motion pictures.

The next meeting was set for Nov. 15. The officers elected were: Frank Trelawney, president; Ernest Atkins, vice-president; Russel Perry, business secretary; Ed McGiveran, recording secretary; Vern Baumgarten, treasurer, and Harold High, chairman of athletics.

AGN's Planing For Entertainment Soon

The A.G.N.'s, not to be outdone by their rivals, the A.P.O., also plans entertainment for its members. Specific plans have not developed, but something in the near future is to be expected.

Beta Sigs Initiate

WHO'S WHO

Virginia Reynolds was born in Memphis, Tenn., 100 years after the "War of 1812." Three years ago, she enrolled at Southwestern and enlisted with the Chi Omega Sorority. After some milling around, she has become the leader of the group by virtue of her accomplishments and pleasing personality. She holds the highest girl's office in the school. Secretary-treasurer of the student body, and she also heads the Women's Panhellenic Council. Virginia has, in addition, been chosen to "Cap and Gown," "S.T.A.B.," and the Southwestern Players. She is a good student and was selected as one of the group of Seniors to read for honors if she so desired.

Virginia spends her spare time in talking to, or in looking for a certain tall Kappa Sig.

Southwestern Glee Club Is New Chorus Name

Southwestern's male chorus has decided upon "Southwestern Glee Club" as a permanent name for the organization. Ned Wright, president of the group, has announced that the first public appearance of the Glee Club will be at the first vesper services some time in November. There is already hope that the club will present an operetta next spring.

Mr. Glynn, of the Idlewild Presbyterian Church, was out again last Tuesday night. It is his opinion that some more good tenors are needed. New applicants may see Director Glynn or Professor Haden, the assistant director, before the next meeting which is Tuesday night.

Frosh Gyp Sophs

When a dog bites a man, that is not news. But when a man bites a dog that is news. When two freshmen get gypped by two sophomores, that doesn't make news, but when two sophomores get gypped by two freshmen, that is news. Upperclassmen Williams and Johnson, wanted very much to go to the dance Saturday night, and Fuller and Bethea wanted to go more than that. After a little rehearsing, they went in, worked the old system on the former lads, and went to the dance, admission free.

ECHOES

Three Years Ago

Lynx meet Howard Bulldogs tomorrow. Promises to be a snappy battle. Professors Cooper, Shewmaker, and Atkinson vie for honors when co-eds pick faculty advisors. Dr. Cooper is in the lead. "All ye that desireth to be loved by women, become misogynists. I have spoken."

Four hundred and thirty-four students are enrolled at Southwestern. Me thinks we have dwindled—wonder why?

At the shoe race between the halves of the Southwestern-Lambuth game, Louis "Saint" Nicholas struggled in just ahead of L. T. Webb, and thus was saved by a narrow margin from a beating at the hands of freshman Pierce, the winner. Nick has speeded up considerably.

Two Years Ago

Bobcats battle Jonesboro College today. Power to you, yearlings.

Freshman Rodney Baine exerts uncanny brain power and defeats Professors Haden and Hartley in time-honored game of chess. So that's how the brain trust started!

Evergreen Hall is presented with an electric timepiece with the compliments of Perel and Lowenstein, Jewelers. "Chief" Pfrangle says that they ought to glance at it occasionally instead of playing upon his sympathies at the dining-hall door. Freshman Bethea says that it comes under the watchful eye of Mrs. Rutland entirely too often.

One Year Ago

Sewanee invades Lynx Lair tomorrow and the usual bonfire celebration takes place tonight. Down with Sewanee—next year!

John Chung graciously donates a copy of "Spoken English" to the library. This book was written by Eung Tyun Cho, Chung's guardian. Thanks, John.

Yesterday the mysterious Miss "X" strolled around the campus and through the dorms completely enthralled everyone with her winsome loveliness. Those who succumbed included Bearden, Porteous, Gaither, Walker, Perrette, Gilliam, Dr. Bassett, Dr. Cooper, and Pfrangle. Robert Neill says he didn't see her.

O. D. K.

Attention, all freshmen! A capable instructor has been obtained for the O.D.K. study hall on Tuesday nights. John "The Goof" Streete will teach math and chemistry on these nights.

His simple ingenuity is further backed up by a profuse and incessant line of chatter which the math and chemistry students have by now become accustomed to in class.

The Thursday and Friday night periods will be utilized as has been previously announced; so all freshmen who wish assistance in their work may obtain it on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights in 108 Science Hall.

Lynx Students Leave For Week-end Jaunts

Many campus lights will vacate the campus this week-end. Ella Kate Malone goes to Nashville. She's to be the guest of Dot McCarthey, Nashville debutante, at the Cotillion Party for Nashville debs.

Theresa Lilly, Mary McCallum, Mary Mc Eddins, Peggy Walker are going to Ole Miss to join in the big homecoming celebration, see the football game, and attend the dance afterward.

Ellen Canale is going to the Tennessee-Alabama game at Knoxville.

Harvey Heidelberg is going home for the week-end and Bunny Brown says he's going to Raleigh.

Oddity Club To Have Dance For Members

The Oddity Club composed of unusual, odd, and otherwise afflicted students, plan a dance that promises to be just as odd as their name represents.

A committee has been appointed by President Tate to care for arrangements: Kate Galbreath, Cornelia Henning, Peggy Walker and Sarah Naill.

Pres. Diehl Attends Assembly At Madison

Dr. Charles Diehl, president of Southwestern, is out of the city attending the assembly of the Nashville Presbytery which is being held in Madison, Tenn. Dr. Diehl, past moderator of the Presbytery, delivered the opening sermon Wednesday night.

Spanish Club Has Clever Meeting

An interesting meeting was held by the Spanish Club Wednesday night at the home of Dr. Storn. Mrs. Houston gave a talk on South American customs illustrated with photographs which she had taken.

The highlight of the program was a Mexican Circus. Margaret Clay Faulhaber, the new president of the group, served as ringmaster. The most popular act of the circus was the wedding of the trained fleas at which Carroll Cloar officiated. Dr. Storn secured the animal models from a man who had supplied Pancho Villa with arms during his bloody regime in Mexico.

Mrs. Storn served delicious refreshments.

Journal To Appear Early In December

The first issue of The Journal, a publication entirely made up of articles by the students of Southwestern, will be out about the first of December. Rodney Baine, editor, says that work will be started on the magazine the latter part of the month.

A noteworthy article of the first issue will be William McCaskill's "River Sounds." Other contributions will be poetry by Clark Porteous, Henry Oliver, and Richard Thomas and a story by Rodney Baine.

Music Club Meeting Time Is Moved Up

The Music Club will hold meetings on the first Sunday of every month at 3:30 p.m., instead of 2:30. This arrangement of time gives listeners an opportunity to hear the Philadelphia Philharmonic Orchestra before attending the Club meeting.

At the December meeting Miss Lois Maer will give a piano concert. Miss Maer is a well-known concert artist.

Student Council Postpones Meeting

The Student Council has postponed its meeting this week until next Friday.

SPORT SCRIBBLE

The Mighty Master Mind Wade kept his promise. When his Duke "Blue Devils" knocked the Tennessee Vols over Saturday, he kept his word of three years ago to "Watch Duke in 1933." They should cop the Southern Conference this year and stand an excellent chance of receiving the Rose Bowl bid.

Howard, even minus Sweeney, one of the greatest Southern backs of recent years, is still a potent threat in the Dixie Conference. However, the top-heavy victory over Union does not necessarily establish them as strong favorites over Southwestern. The Lynx took all of the fight out of Union, who seemed more intent on "Getting Southwestern" than on playing football.

Southwestern has the best line she has ever had. The inexperienced backfield has met its worst foes this season, and certainly should improve in the remaining games.

Ole Miss, who held Southwestern to a 6 to 6 deadlock, is picking up noticeably. Although hardly fulfilling their Rose Bowl promises, they stand an excellent chance to remain undefeated. The victory over Marquette established the Flood as a definite threat in the Southeastern.

Southwestern grid hopes are really looking up. Fox, Pickens, Bearden, and Wilson are the only losses this year. With a demon Bobcat line coming up, as well as some good yearling backs, the Lynx should have a powerhouse eleven in 1934.

Emmett Maum, in his column, "Gleanings from the Sport World," in the State Teachers' Tiger Rag advocates a post season game with Southwestern. He claims that such a game would be a big drawing card in Memphis. After comparing the records (always a poor method), it seems evident that a Bobcat-Tiger game would be a natural.

Campus Opinion Is Divided As To Most Interesting Sou'wester Feature

"Greek Growls" Gets Much Comment, Along With Scandal And Joke Columns

Campus opinion is divided as to what one feature of the Sou'wester is the most interesting and most eagerly read of all the "copy" in the paper. Your reporter humbly forecasts the addition of a thousand freshly-dyed grey hairs to the editor's head when he reads this article.

Probably the most popular and most favorably discussed feature of the paper is the "Greek Growls" column, which has caused more conversation and argument than anything begun in recent months.

Julia Marie Schwinn prefers box stories and features to the news section of the paper. She likes the scandal column when it is subtly written but says, "it has been too positive in the last few weeks to be popular."

Louis Duffee likes the scandal column under all conditions but thinks the "Greek Growls" is terrible.

Mary Allie Taylor says that the "Greek Growls" has by far the most student interest of any article in the paper. The scandal column, she says, should be a regular feature of the paper but "it should cut out slapping people in the face." Last week's theme-song column was swell. Let's have one or two included in the scandal column each week.

Kate Galbreath prefers the scandal column and the "Greek Growls," too. "The whole paper, for that matter, is a scandal column, but the students eat it up. They may resent anything said about them but they, nevertheless, love to read about it. That's just human nature. By all means keep the scandal column."

Sue Jenkinson, Susie Ellen Knowlton and Kate Farnsworth prefer the jokes. "They're the funniest, as a whole, we've ever read. Keep up the good work."

Charlie Taylor prefers the "Greek Growls." "What possible reason could any fraternity or sorority have for getting mad about that column?" he asks. "It romps on them all, and the author has a swell sense of humor. And by all means make the scandal column longer."

Jean Byars, Max Usrey (did you ever see a paper without his name in it fifteen times?) and Dorothy Anne

Ferguson says, "Why not have a 'free' ad in every issue? The students eat that up along with the scandal."

Beverly Boothe agrees with Kate Galbreath. "The Scandal column is frequently witty and that makes it doubly interesting. Keep the 'Greek Growls' and the jokes and let everything stay as personal as possible. Everybody likes that."

Dr. Johnson and Dr. Cooper paused to tell what they thought. "The paper is better as a whole than it has been in years but there ought to be more copies. We frequently don't get issues. Omitting the scandal column entirely from the paper would be a great idea. If Porteous would add an alumni column, it would lend general interest to the paper. One is badly needed."

Hiram Todd likes names on the jokes. "That makes them personal and doubles their humor. It takes real wit and campus knowledge to be able to do this though."

Louis Gauchat says, "The scandal column last week was the best thing I ever read in the paper. The musical idea went over big. Make the regular column dirtier and it'll be o.k."

Louis Graeber and "Shorty" Simmons agree that the sports section is the best thing in the paper and that it is "one of the best-written sport pages in any southern collegiate publication."

Sally Griffin thinks the chief fault of the paper is printing news that happened several days before the paper comes out. "Everybody has either been to the party or meeting, she says, and wants to know what is going to happen, not what is dead and buried."

Beta Sigmas Elect Bill Cobb President

Bill Cobb was elected president of the Beta Sigma Fraternity at the Monday night meeting. Cobb will supplant Henry Oliver, who was forced to resign due to conflicting duties.

Dr. Diehl To Speak To Bible Class Sun.

The Men's Bible Class, which will meet at 9 o'clock, Sunday morning, in the social room of Robb Hall, will have Dr. Diehl as their speaker. Dr. Diehl has not announced his subject yet. Special music will be furnished by Joe Moss and Carrol Cloar, who will sing a duet.

A sensible package

We wanted to sell it for 10 cents so we put Granger in a sensible soft foil pouch—easy to carry and keeps the tobacco just exactly right—just like it was made.

Granger... good tobacco... Wellman Method... cut right... packed right. And there is this much about it:

We have yet to know of a man who started to smoke Granger who didn't keep on. Folks seem to like it.
