FRESHETTES IN SWELL REVOLT

Girls' Sanhedrin Has Tough Job

Scratches, fists, paddles, kicks, screeches, screams and squalls! Hardie Auditorium was a grand conglomeration of struggling femininity. The freshettes had revolted! Commodore Gordon and General Painter received rather the worst of the freshette revolt. "Prissy" with hair flying, was rushing around swinging a young canoe paddle, seemingly berserk.

With the help of brawny Catherine Davis, the freshettes were quelled a slight degree, but on the whole the upperclass women were a bedraggled outfit.

Southwestern Professors Give Opinions On New Cut System

Instructors Plan Various Ways Of Enforcing Classroom Attendance

The instructors at Southwestern have determined for the most part their individual policies as regards absences from class.

Professor Shewmaker will give "a big zero" for a recitation absence, as will Professor Orr. Professor Storn will take no excuses but will allow two cuts per semester. Excessive absences will disqualify a pupil to take exams.

Prof. Davis will allow three absences but work missed can not be made up. Prof. Hon will give two absences per semester. Dean Hartley lowers the student's grade on two absences but work missed can be made up when a legitimate excuse is given.

Professor Swan will give zero for quizzes missed and will lower grade for continued absence. Prof. Cooper will hand in a grade of F for three unexcused absences, and an absence from Professor Strickler's classes is a zero recitation.

Prof. Atkinson and Prof. Bassett are handling cases individually, but unexcused cuts go a long way towards an F. Prof. Pond has the same rule, but does not give make-up quizzes. Coaches Miller and Stratmann will lower grades one letter per absence.

Three absences from Dr. Huber's hygiene or Prof. Baker's biology classes merit an F. Prof. Wilson and Townsend will lower grades for absences, but will deal with cases individually, allowing some to make up missed work and others not to do so, depending upon attitude.

The English department, consisting of Profs. Johnson, Monk, McLlwaime, and Mrs. Townsend have not defined "excessive absence," but have stated that indulgence in absences will be fatal to the pupil's grade.

The remaining professors of school have not decided upon their policy as yet.

Library Receives New Legal Books

The imposing looking, big, brown books in the room adjoining Miss Marsh's office are law books. The books, together with the cases, were donated by Mr. B. W. Hirsh in memory of his wife, Mary Weiss Hirsh.

There are 750 volumes in this group which include, Lawyers Reports From 1888 to 1920, Supreme Court Decisions and Cyclopedias Of Law and Procedure.

Mr. Hirsh was once a prominent lawyer in Memphis. He is now retired. Southwestern is grateful to him for his generous gift.

Students Opine On Mae West

Although Hope Brewster states in her inimitable emphatic way, "She's a vulgar, low-down hussie!" the vast majority of Southwestern's male element agree with Max Usrey, who states, "I don't know what it is she has, but boy she has plenty of it."

The subject for discussion was that blazing satellite of the silver screen, Mae West herself. Various members of the student body were questioned as to their opinion of her and equally as various were the answers.

Martha Shaeffer lists her remarks in history-test manner: (1) She's not funny but instructive. (2) Her experiments are successful. (3) I like her as long as she's in Hollywood. (4) I don't think she's pretty, beautiful, or handsome, but she's got what it takes. Louis Duffee is eagerly awaiting

"I'm No Angel." Sez he, "She's the outstanding actress on the screen today. She's one person I'd go to see if she played in a newsreel."

Ella Kate Malone (Humpko, to her friends) agrees. "I've never enjoyed a picture as much as 'She Done Him Wrong.'" Mae West has more wit and sophistication than any other star in the movies.

Billy Blue reiterates, "I don't think she's funny, by any means but I think she is as pretty as any other star. I think her pictures are a knockout."

Boyce Leigh Sadler likes her wit. "That woman has a sense of humor that can't quit. Her ideas are peculiar, I admit. She's not pretty, in my opinion, but she's certainly fascinating."

Clint McKay, slyly says, "I don't know her personally but be-

Strong Team Will Invade Southwestern

Birmingham-Southern Crew Hopes To Repeat Over Lynx

A strong Birmingham-Southern crew will invade the Lynx lair tomorrow. The battle between the Lynx and Panthers will begin at 2:30 on Fargason Field.

Jenks Gillam's Birmingham crew defeated Southwestern last year. Led by Capt. Johnson, redoubtable fullback, they expect to repeat tomorrow.

The Lynx are weakened by injuries to Elder and Harwood, who may not start tomorrow. Jimmie Wilson may be back, however. Henry Hammond has been showing up well in the backfield, and may start there tomorrow.

Probable lineup:

Lynx	Pos.	Panthers
Barnes	L.E.	Haygood
White	L.T.	Curry
Fox (c)	L.G.	Townsend
Lloyd	C.	Wedgeworth
Bearden	R.G.	Clark
McCullum	R.T.	Fisher
Pickens	R.E.	Davis

Harwood	H.B.	Teel

DR. SIEFKIN IS NEW PROFESSOR IN ECONOMICS

Rhodes Scholar Comes To Aid In Reading Courses

Due to the fact that there is a larger percentage of upperclassmen enrolled than expected, it has been found necessary to engage another professor. Dr. Charles Gordon Siefkin, recent Oxford graduate and Rhodes scholar from Iowa, is the new tutor in Economics.

Dr. Siefkin secured his B. A. from Iowa University, and has been an instructor in that institution. He has just returned from completing his M. A. requirements at Oxford. He will serve as a reading course instructor for the most part at Southwestern. He majored in Economics and Political Science.

The new professor has travelled extensively in Germany, Italy, Austria, France, Spain, and northern Africa. He is a Phi Beta Kappa, and a member of Sigma Nu social fraternity.

Dr. Siefkin was an intercollegiate debater, and winner of several oratorical contests. He is a member of the British Royal Economics society.

SPANISH CLUB TO MEET SOON

Group Gathers At Home Of Dr. Storn

The first official meeting of the Spanish Club will be held Oct. 18 at the home of Senor Storn, 1831 Forrest Ave. A preliminary meeting will be held at which new officers will be elected and a program selected for the opening meeting.

The members of the advanced courses will form the nucleus of the club. Members of the second year courses who make "A" will also be admitted. All former members who are not now taking Spanish are invited.

Merely a Bit Of Nonsense

Benton: "Say, is May the kind of a girl who'd encourage a fellow any?"

Lumpkin: "Form your own opinion. The last time I was with her she kept wondering how it would feel to have whiskers on her face."

"The Dean is absent-minded, isn't he?"

"What do you mean?"

"Well, the other night when he got home he knew there was something special he wanted to do that evening, but he couldn't think what it was. After worrying over it for a couple of hours he remembered what it was."

"What was it?"

"He wanted to go to bed early!"

Father: "I won't have you standing at the door with that young man of yours."

Lib: "But I only stayed for a second."

Father: "Nonsense. I distinctly heard the third, fourth and fifth."

Angry Widow: "He didn't leave me a thing. I want you to take 'Rest in Peace' off that stone."

Stone Cutter: "I'm sorry I can't do that, but I can put something underneath."

Widow: "All right, put 'Til I come'."

Dorsey Barefield was said to have remarked that he would like to have a nickel for every girl he has kissed.

"What would you do with the money, Dorsey? Buy a coke?"

Everybody ought to cheer up. Rome, which celebrated the other day its 2,686th birthday, started out with a wolf at the door.—New York Times.

"There is now less flogging in our great schools than formerly,—but then less is learned there; so that what the boys get at one end they lose at the other."

"DOES YOUR BOY FRIEND HAVE AMBITIONS?"
"MERCY, YES, EVER SINCE HE'S BEEN KNEE-HIGH."

In South Dakota a farmer left his horses in the field and went for a drink of water. When he returned the grasshoppers had eaten the horses and were pitching horseshoes to see who would eat the harness.

"Nick": So you think my composition will be played after Beethoven, Mozart, Tchaikowsky and Rachmaninoff are forgotten?

Critic—Yes, but not until then.

And in a letter from a northern university comes this one: "Is your daughter at home?"

"NO. And now get out and stay out."

"But I'm the sheriff."
"Oh, Come on in. I thought that was a Sigma Nu pin."

She: "That girl has never been kissed, she swears."
It: "I don't blame her for swearing."

Essay On Pants

Pants are made for men and not for women. Women are made for men and not for pants. When a man pants for a woman and a woman pants for a man, that makes a pair of pants. Pants are like molasses—they are thinner in hot weather and thicker in cold weather. There has been much discussion as to whether pants is singular or plural. Seems to us that when you wear pants it is plural, and when you don't wear them, it is singular. If you want to make pants last, make the coat first.

EXPRESS YOUR OPINION

The editor has been the recipient of several anonymous letters regarding conditions on the campus. Some of these have been good, but the very fact that a letter is anonymous makes it unsuitable for print. We are glad to get student opinions, but they must be signed. All letters will be treated as strictly confidential. Let us know what you like or don't like, what you want done or left undone, and we will be glad to publish it, if it is suitable. Address communications to Editor, The Sou'wester, Box 206.

A COMPLAINT

Last week's issue of The Sou'wester carried an advertisement designated to allow each student to receive one free soda, sundae, or other fountain concoction. Due to the fact that a few of the students took more papers than was their share, part of the student body failed to receive their Sou'westers. It is obvious that the management cannot print several hundred extra copies for such an ad. If a small minority cannot be more thoughtful, such a method of advertising cannot be pursued in the future. Then, too, it is hardly fair to impose on his generosity by getting more than your just share of free sodas.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

Stewart Hall

Stewart Hall has already opened the golfing season. "Moon" White and Ned Wright were the first to "tea" off. They frequent the new girls' dorm quite a bit. Kate Otey Eddins is to be "Miss Rosedale" in the coming Clarksdale Cotton carnival. One of our own boys, "Nibbler" White, is to act as Mr. Lamouts. We're quite honored.

Rasberry, Stewart's only hope with the women, is "painting" quite steadily now, but apparently is not covering much territory.

"Doc" Barnes, Big Mac, Howard White, Mac Givens, "Truck" Wilson, Murray Rasberry, "Gilbert" Haygood, "Frasier" Crosby, and "Seymour" Pickens all motored to Jackson last Friday for the game.

One of our recent and quite distinguished visitors has been "Blanche" Buckingham.

Stewart this year boasts quite a contingent of freshmen included in which are Herman "Red" Davis, Voiman Cy Williams, the Beebe flash, and "Wimpy" Beard, 285 pounds of dainty cooking fat from Ripley, Tenn. Look to your laurels, "Humko."

We sincerely regret the loss of "Lightning" Benton, "Darling" Gilliam, and "Goof" Streete. Au Revoir, boys.

Evergreen Hall

The dorm is getting to be quite a hangout and no matter under what pretense the "eds" blame their presence there they always stay for the same reason—a date. Ben Weddington is still in the lead and others will have to go some to keep up with him but at present there are several giving him competition in wearing the path smooth to Evergreen Hall. Eugene Stewart is offering Bob Pfrangle and several others competition over the favors of a cute, little blonde and everyone is waiting to see the outcome.

Wonder why Gene Brandon was so happy last week-end and why Malline Lyon became so jubilant over a certain phone call from far away.

Calvin Hall

Freshman Billy Barr, who suffered a severely pulled muscle on the gridiron, is up and hobbling about again. Porteous was stricken with some dreadful malady Monday morning, but was soon up meandering around with a girl. We don't know what to attribute his sudden recovery to. Freshman Lapsley caught a severe cold (but nothing else) on the A. T. O. possum hunt. "Goof" Streete has been suffering from chronic pains in the face. Cloar has had his mirror removed.

To the list of sufferers, we might add the names of Johnny Bethea and Hal Atkinson, Calvin's most heinous freshmen, who came off second best in the skirmish with the Sanhedrin.

It was rumored that Dunlap Cannon, erstwhile woman-hater, had fallen for a young blonde on Auburndale, sister to straw-colored thatched Chi Omega, but investigation revealed that the half-pint freshman was also enamoured to five others. So what?

Our hash-slingers, Moss, Streete, "Whistle-breeches" Williams, Duffee, and "Screw-Loose" Sherman are eagerly looking forward to the waiters' weiner roast Friday. What a mad gathering that will be.

This'n That On Campus

Well, Cupid seems to have hit the campus with a bang and more people are going around that love light shining from their brown, blue or green eyes.

Personal Nomination - of - the - week-for-the-Cinema: Sally Naill, as Kay Francis, and John Hines, as Robert Woolsey (of Wheeler and Woolsey) to appear in an epic of the cattle business entitled "I, A Diplomat, Loved a Woman."

Quiz for the Inquisitives: Didja ever see Nelle McMahan not about to break out in a terrific case of the giggles?

Southwestern Page In Sunday Appeal

Beginning with next Sunday's issue of The Commercial Appeal, there will be a special page of Southwestern news. The page will be entitled The Dial, and will be found in the magazine section. It will contain material contributed by both students and faculty.

In the first issue will be articles by Profs. Wilson and Hon. The subject of Professor Wilson's column will be: "Montaigne—The Four Hundredth Anniversary of a Great Frenchman." Prof. Hon will write on: "Out of the NRA A New America Emerges." There will also be an accompanying illustration carrying out this idea drawn by Burton Callicott, director of art at Tech High.

William McCaskill is representative of the paper at school, and will be editor of student contributions. He is very anxious for students to submit articles for the paper.

Miller Picks Men To Sell Programs

Coach John Miller has announced that the following freshman football players will sell programs at the Birmingham-Southern game: William Evans, Herman Davis, Cy Williams, Louis Weeks, and Scott Chapman. These men will be the only program salesmen to work Saturday.

Robb Hall

Robb Hall was all agog Monday night what with Freshmen running about all through the halls and yelling for the "High Priest." All the upperclassmen began to disappear as if by magic and Goodlett almost tripped up over himself trying to lock himself in his room. Anyway, all the boys on the north side of the hall thought the Frosh had resorted to arson as a means of consoling themselves in their failure to find Bearden, when they watched the first-year men burn up their straw hats only a few feet from the north end of Robb Hall's foundation.

It has been publicly announced (on the book store bulletin board) that a certain Robbette "paid homage to the god Hymen" last week-end. (In your language, dear reader, the phrase above would read "got married last week-end") Anyway the young man denies it and says that the news of it was as big a surprise to him as it was to everybody else.

Frank Goodlett left school last week-end, and in doing so incidentally disrupted a tennis match, to pay a short visit with his parents in Tupelo.

The boys on the third floor can't understand why Dr. Cooper wanted to break up their hamburger party the other night. It was only about three o'clock in the morning and they weren't making much noise. That is, you could not have heard them from over in the chapel or from the library or somewhere else about as far away.

Did you know that Dr. Cooper was a pianist? He had the same position at Washington and Lee that "Nick" has here, and was quite a musician in his day.

SPHINX Wears Purple and White

If you should happen to notice several sophomore boys wearing a color scheme of purple and white each Wednesday, don't be alarmed. They are just members of the newly formed Sphinx Club, showing off their colors.

Sphinx was founded during the spring semester of last year. There were originally fifteen members, and the membership will be limited to that number this year. As only seven of the charter members have returned to school this year, there will be eight initiates "brought out," one by one, at regular intervals during the year.

All three of the officers have come back. John Hines is president, Dorsey Barefield, vice-president, and Max Usrey, secretary-treasurer. Other members back on the campus include Sidney Strickland, Clint McKay, Louis Duffee, and John Baker. The boys to be brought out have not all been selected, but they will be decided upon in the near future.

Elizabeth, said a friend of the family to the colored washerwoman, have you seen Miss Edith's fiance?

No ma'am. It ain't been in the wash yet.

GREEK GROWLS

—HIRAM GREEN.

Since I am not an Alpha Tau I missed out on that possum hunt the other night. I might have known I wanted to hunt possums worse than I wanted to study, but that is my fault. They must have had a swell "possum" hunt from what some of the boys said. One of the boys across the hall came in about 3 o'clock in the morning and I was still up, studying, and I asked him about the possum hunt. He said, "What possum hunt? Shucks, we didn't see no possums." I got kinda suspicious then, but figured I wouldn't bother him anymore until the next morning. The next morning I went down to breakfast and happened to sit at the table where Max Usrey, Dickie Lamb Dunlap, Dunlap Cannon, and a bunch of other A.T.O.'s were eating, and how they eat? They got to talking about it and asking each other what they did. From the way they acted, all of them were in different parts of Arkansas. "Dickie, I saw you once, where were you going?"

"Well, who wants to know?"
 "What's the matter, Lambie, can't you take it?"
 "Naw, but I can dish it out!"
 It turned out that there weren't any dogs even any where around, and it seemed to me that they didn't have any idea of going possum hunting. One of the boys laughed and said he saw a possum on the way home. He said it ran across the road, but he didn't feel like turning everything loose and chasing the thing.

Sawrie hollered down to the end of the table where Walker Turner was sitting.

"Walker, who was that lady I seen you with last night?"

"That wasn't no lady, that was your girl."

Boy, did Sawrie blow up. Then Walker hollered back.

"What's the matter, Sawrie, can't you take it? People that dish it out, and can't take it. Haw!"

The least thing that A.O.P. could do would be to furnish their guests with food and drink, especially these dormitories students. If you think that you came down to just see your pledges, you are wrong. After tramping through the mud, and rain to get there, and then find that some freshman had just fished out the last Coca-Cola. The masculines are agin' it gals.

"Say, you oughta win that prize given by the College Club next Saturday night. Us S.A.E.'s should get that easy. There is so much safety in numbers." That was an S.A.E. talking, but little did he know that there was another fraternity on the campus . . . he didn't get bid to another one, how should he know . . . especially since one sees nothing but SAE pins. But these Kappa Sigmas showed them, yes, they did. They won the five dollars. Rumor has it that S.A.E. is definitely disgusted, but not defeated. They are going to open up their recruiting station back of the kitchen, and look over a few shock troops, to help them get the five dollars to make another payment on that pool table.

At the K. D. house Babe Black was proud in displaying a 1929 copy of Fortune Magazine. Also some ancient New Yorkers. Such prosperity, such gross deceit. The Kappa Alphas (Southern) were there in great flocks, if anything but the S.A.E.'s could, flock, and casting proud eyes on the prominent electric clock, the scholarship medal, and their star piano player, who was tickling the keys for the guests.

After lying awake nights worrying, old Hiram Green finally found out what those secret panels in the Chi Omega house were for—you know, the things that look like walls but are really doors. To hide wandering Kappa Sigs when the Greek Army makes an invasion. When Cleopatra Painter and An-

In all the crowd at the Tri-Delta mansion, I ruined my $3.95 white shoes. I saw that balcony that Certainly, I mean—Surely—Freshman wired home about. The punch was certainly a redeeming feature. Of course, this would not account for the number of young men seen flitting about—oh, no!

So and so went to the Z.T.A. house and had a fine time. Someone else we know didn't go and had a better time.

WAITERS WILL ROAST WEINERS

White Coat Lads Go To Secret Place

The dining hall waiters, having long felt the need for more social life to interrupt their heavy routine, plan to go weiner roasting this evening. Their destination is being kept secret from all but a favored few. John Streete will provide the amusement for the affair, as usual.

Mrs. Dailey will chaperone the group, which will be made up of the following couples:

Bob Pfrangle and Gene Brannon, Joe Moss and Ethel Taylor, John Streete and Frances McKinnon, Tom Jones and Cornelia Henning, Francis Benton and Lucille Woods, and Herbert Williams and Mary Grace Broadfoot. Charles Sherman, "Hinkey" Jones, Louis Duffee, and John Fishbach were still searching wildly for dates at the time this article went to press.

Kappa Alpha's Elect

The Kappa Alpha Fraternity has recently completed election for two offices left vacant by transfer and graduation last year. Duff Gaither is the new Vice-President and John Hines is the new secretary-treasurer. John Pepper was elected president of the pledges at a recent meeting.

—about Cigarettes

Of all the ways in which tobacco is used the cigarette is the mildest form

YOU know, ever since the Indians found out the pleasure of smoking tobacco, there have been many ways of enjoying it.

But of all the ways in which tobacco is used, the cigarette is the mildest form.

Another thing—cigarettes are about the most convenient smoke. All you have to do is strike a match.

Everything that money can buy and everything that science knows about is used to make Chesterfields.

The right home-grown tobaccos—seasoned with just enough aromatic Turkish—are blended and cross-blended the Chesterfield way.

Then the cigarettes are made right—firm, well-filled. Chesterfield uses the right kind of pure cigarette paper.

There are other good cigarettes, of course, but Chesterfield is the cigarette that's milder, the cigarette that tastes better. Chesterfields satisfy—we ask you to try them.

LYNX DEFEAT UNION 18 TO 0

Whitaker And Jones Star In Victory

Southwestern found an improved Union team a little tougher than usual Friday night, but came through with an 18 to 0 victory. The Lynx pushed over touchdowns in the first, second, and last quarters, with Mac Elder accounting for two and Hutsie Harwood the other.

Some brilliant running by Dick Whitaker and Harvey Jones aided the cause no little. The Southwestern defense that functioned so well against Ole Miss was up to form, with Tapp ably backing up the line, and White, McCollum, and Bearden shining in the line.

In the final period, the reserves came into action, advancing the ball into Union territory, only to lose it through a mishap. Skinny Jordan, Jack Kelly, and Tom Huckabee did some good work.

Lineup:

Southwestern	Pos.	Union
Barnes	L.E.	Armstrong
Fox (c)	L.T.	Ammons
White	L.G.	Phillips
Loyd	C.	Perry
Bearden	R.G.	Wright
McCollum	R.T.	Burks
Pickens	R.E.	Mullens
Whitaker	Q.B.	Lett
Harwood	L.H.	Williams
Tapp	R.H.	King
Elder	F.B.	Alexander

Score by Periods:

Southwestern	6	6	0	6-18
Union	0	0	0	0-0

Southwestern scoring: Touchdowns—Elder 2, Harwood. Southwestern substitutions—Haygood for Pickens; Jones for Whitaker, Givens for Bearden, Hammond for Barnes, Barnes for Hammond, Bearden for Givens, Pickens for Haygood, Jones for Whitaker. SEWANEE TEAM TO BE POTENT

Held Kentucky Wildcats To Close Score

The Sewanee Tigers, when they descend on Southwestern October 14 from their mountain lair, will not come creeping or sneaking as is the nature of the beasts, but with self-confidence, inspired by the excellent showing made against the University of Kentucky last Saturday. Although greatly outweighed by the 'Cats, the scrappy little Sewanee team outplayed them through three quarters, and but for a 77-yard run for a touchdown by Bach, a substitute Kentucky player, the score might have been in favor of the Tennessee team. Displaying a well-rounded passing and running attack, the Tigers scored four first downs to three for their opponents.

The Sewanee lineup contains eight lettermen, two sophomores, and one reserve. Aided considerably by Castleberry, giant 220-lb. tackle, the line averages about 180 pounds; the backfield averages 165 pounds.

Coach Haygood states that he regards Cravens, 150 pound half-back, as the most dangerous runner on the team. Alex Wellford, a Memphis boy, also at half, is the best all-round back, being especially adept at punting.

Editor-in-Chief of The Sou'wester,
My Dear Mr. Editor:

If The Sou'wester has a place for an honest response to campus life, this letter will be printed.

Last week's paper contained on the first page, in balanced spaces, two accounts of events at Southwestern. One story is that a scholar, brilliant in appreciation and in expression, has found campus life unbearable. The other story contains no element of surprise. It is an account that a social group "will entertain the 1933-1934 Debutante Club with an elaborate dance, the place to be decided upon." The reason for the elaboration is that "several members of the sorority are making their bow to Memphis society this winter."

Where do we go? A student who has done the best piece of writing ever done by one of (presumably) Mrs. Townsend's pupils suffered miserably. She sought intellectual life at college—at Southwestern—but the search must have been unbearably lonely. The center of the campus stage is held by thirty young women who arrange to sponsor "several members" in Memphis society!

Southwestern holds academic rank second to no other Liberal Arts College in America. The only academic honor which remains to be desired is a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, and that recognition is being sought. Southwestern has more Rhodes scholars on her faculty than any other college. Her buildings are a silent faculty. Her library is more excellent than that of many universities. Her moral and ethical standards are those of the Presbyterian Church. Funds for the college have been contributed by self-denying Christian men and women of the Mississippi Valley. The college has not been built by large gifts. Craig, Swan, Neely, Lupton, are the few names which represent bounty. The Mississippi Synod has administered a scathing rebuke to Southwestern. The Tennessee Synod looks, questions.

Is the situation represented on the front page of the paper right? Is it fair to Southwestern? Our red blotters contain a reminder of the reward of Thomas Sutton. Would he give to Southwestern today?

Southwestern's student body is carefully selected. Her faculty has advanced far in the search for the kalon. Probably no student here will find at any other time in life such an opportunity to join the search.

The tinsel of the Debutante Club glitters. The way toward the kalon is lonely.

Where do we go?

Beat Strong Jonesboro Outfit 14 To 12

The Bobcats opened their football season Saturday afternoon with a well-earned victory over the Jonesboro Baptists by a score of 14 to 12.

During the first quarter the ball was constantly in Jonesboro territory, while in the remaining quarters it was in the possession of the "Frosh." All during the first quarter the crowd was thrilled by the accurate forward passes thrown by Adams, a Jonesboro back, while Gartside yearling back, made some beautiful runs.

Very few yards were made through the Freshman line. Davis, Gray, Evans, Sowell, Medaris, and McDonald played well in the line. Tipton, Houts, Owens, and Gartside took care of the backfield.

MILE RUN TO BE AT GRID GAME

First 10 In Road Race To Run During Half

During the half of the game between Birmingham-Southern and Southwestern Saturday, the next Intramural Event will be held. The first ten men that finished last Wednesday are to be the runners in a one mile race on the track around the football field.

It shouldn't be a surprise to see Billy Mitchell pull up to the tape first. Billy, you know, won the race Wednesday. He not only is a good runner, but he is in good condition since he is out for freshman football.

Tom Jones and Johnny Bethea, the second and third place winners, also have good chances of adding ten points to their Frats' standing in the intramural contest.

The other men who will run are Charles Crump, Dickie Dunlap, Young Wallace, Jim Breyt-spraak, Tommy Fuller, James Hunt and Douglas Johnston.

Chess Tournament Advances Rapidly

With an entrance list of twenty, including eight members of the faculty, The Sou'wester's Chess Tournament is progressing rapidly. The results through yesterday are a default by Dunlap Cannon to Henry Oliver, first round wins by Rodney Baine, Scudder Smith, and Dickie Dunlap. Baine defeated Dr. Pond, of the mathematics department two out of two games, while Scudder Smith won two in a row over Dr. Townsend. The first upset of the competition occurred when Dickie Dunlap defeated David Flowers, seeded No. 4, two-one.

Prof. Haden has offered for use in the championship round a board and a set of men used by the present world's champion, Alikhine, in his record breaking exhibition of 32 simultaneous blind-fold games, played this summer at a Century of Progress in Chicago.

Rodney Baine and Prof. Haden are anxious to have all scores reported to them as soon as games are finished, in order that they might be posted with the other late scores on the outdodor bulletin board near Palmer Hall.

WHO'S WHO

Henry Oliver came to us from Union City, Tenn. Henry, besides being the foremost of our thinkers, has distinguished himself in various lines of activity. High honors for two years, and second honors the third are sufficient attestations of his scholarship. Last year he edited the Journal and was active in the Stylus Club. However, unlike most sages, he has found time for athletics. He has been a mainstay of the varsity tennis team for the past two years, serving as captain and president of the tennis association.

This year he has added the honors of vice-president of Alpha Theta Pi, Editor of the Lynx, president of Beta Sigma fraternity, and Honor Council membership.

Besides tennis, Oliver has such hobbies as bridge, basketball, handball, and dashes off a sonnet now and then. He is an interested follower of almost all branches of sport.

K.D. Pledges Will Be Feted Often

Kappa Delta pledges are looking forward to a series of entertainments to be given in their honor; the first of which was a luncheon given by Martha Shaeffer Thursday in her home on Agnes Street. Dixie Mae Jennings will entertain both actives and pledges with a buffet supper and slumber party Saturday night.

Next Wednesday night the active members will compliment the pledges and their dates with a steak roast, the place to be decided later. Helen Hill is planning a luncheon.

Catherine Davis and Julia Marie Schwinn will be co-hostesses to the pledges and their dates at a night party in the next two weeks. Dorothy Schoolfield is also planning a party. The final affair in compliment of the pledges will be the annual Kappa Delta Hallowe'en party, to which the guests come in masquerade, on Friday night, October 27.

REVIEWS

(We, The People. A play by Elmer Rice. Published by Coward-McCann, Inc. 1933).

In We, The People, Elmer Rice departs from the usual romances of the stage and gives play lovers some real drama found in the problems and perplexities of the lives of the people who live across the street, across the railroad tracks, or around the corner. It is, admittedly, propaganda for the masses, for the proletariat. C. Carter Sloane, dismissed from his professorship at the State U. because of his humanitarian principles, sums up the theme of the play in the last scene. His speech is an appeal for youth: "The right to live! That's all any of them asks. And no social system which denies them that right has a claim for the continuance of its existence. In the name of common-sense what is society for if not to promote the safety and well-being of the people who compose it? . . . It is our house: this America. Let's cleanse it and put it in order and make it a decent place for decent people to live in."

Elmer Rice is among the foremost class-conscious writers of the

A.P.O. Selects New Members For Year

A. P. O. exclusive social fraternity has announced its pledges for the coming year. APO, meaning "Ain't Putting Out," is purely social. The requisites of a good freshman to this high order are that they buy the drinks for the members.

Pledging ceremonies were held Wednesday morning.

The pledges:

Elizabeth Ford, Seldon Ford, Kate Farnsworth, Mabel Frances Gray, Norma Lee, Cecile Porter, Ann Grymes, Evelyn Hester, Sis Portlock, Ellen Canale, Mary Walton Sohm, Evelyn Cragg.

John Bethea, Billy Bethea, Bob Armstrong, Henry Webb, Woody Butler, Jim Hill, Tom Mills, John Pepper, Richard Turner, Tommy Fuller, J. O. Wallis, Glenn Gates, Charles Taylor, Leon Jones.

He realizes that the class struggle exists and that the victory of the proletariat is necessary before a classless society can be effected. Therefore, to him, that literature is best which creates struggle for the proletariat.

BIG BONFIRE TO BLAZE BEFORE SEWANEE GAME

Frosh Make Huge Pyre. Plan College Night At Orpheum

Again the Lynx-yearling students will gather inflammable material from all over the city. Again there will be a huge funeral pyre erected to be set off the night before the Sewanee game. Subdued after their recent revolt, the freshmen are lending a willing hand to make this year's bonfire the best ever.

The freshmen will erect a huge stack of boxes on the vacant lot just south of the ex-home of the fair co-eds, and on the Friday night before the game, these boxes will be set on fire. Freshmen will be required to be dressed in costume, the nature of which has not been decided upon. They will throw off their robes of civilization and perform actions around the bonfire becoming to Choctaws on the warpath. Speeches will be given by Coach Haygood, member of the team, and possibly a few others, after which the entire student body is planning to go to the Orpheum theater. Provided that the plans materialize, Friday night will be set aside by theater officials as Southwestern Night. Features of added interest at the Orpheum will be the vaudeville which begins next week, and a pep meeting conducted by the college cheerleaders.

ELECT CANNON

Dunlap Cannon, Brownsville, Tenn., has been elected president of the A.T.O. pledge group.

Honor Sponsors At Grid Dance

The Sewanee-Southwestern dance, sponsored by the Athletic Committee promises to be an outstanding social event. It will be the night of the game with Sewanee and will honor the girls who were sponsors for the afternoon.

There will be four no-breaks, two specials, a Sewanee lead-out, and an S club lead-out. The orchestra has not yet been selected.

Zeta Pledges Are Honored By Picnic

The first of a series of affairs to be given this fall for the pledges of Zeta Tau Alpha was a canoeing party and picnic supper held last Monday evening at the home of Anna Louise Cobb at Whitehaven, Tenn.

Specially invited guests included Imogene Scott, Olga Scharff, Ruth McLain, Helen Acroyd, Margaret Graves, Martha Bradshaw, Mrs. O. P. Cobb, Jr., Elizabeth Markham, and Gene Steward.

Progress Slow In Tennis Tourney

First round run-off in the Tennis tournament is progressing slowly. According to Henry Oliver, in charge of the tournament, very few brackets have been played off in the initial round. Oliver expressed the wish that those entered in the tournament will see the board in the Book-Store, find who they are to play, and get the elimination under way as fast as possible.

Saturday is the day set for all first-round matches to have been played, next Wednesday for second-round, and Saturday week for the third round.

DEBATE PLANS ANNOUNCED

Inter-frat Meet To Be Again This Year

Fall activities of the Debating Club, together with the preparation for the regular debating season which starts in January, were announced this week by Alvan Tate, president of the Club.

Starting soon regular meetings of the Debating Club will be held once a week, at which time all Freshmen and upperclassmen who are interested in debating or public speaking will be given an opportunity of receiving instruction in these arts from members of the faculty, who are advisors of the Club.

Activities for the fall include two major debates and the renewal of the inter-fraternity competition which proved so successful last year. Every frat had a team in last year's meet, which was won by the non-frats, the A.T.O.'s running second on close margin. Much interest has been shown in these debates and they are expected to prove more popular this year.

Plans for the coming season include an extended tour of Southern cities. Last year the team debated in the North. As yet no definite arrangement has been made for any visiting foreign teams to come here, but negotiations are under way.

Southwestern has six key men returning to the team. These are Henry Oliver, Clark Porteous, Harte Thomas, Alvan Tate, Francis Benton and John Fishbach. Benton will serve both as vice-president and business manager due to the vacancy left by Morris Heins, business manager-elect, when he transferred to the University of Virginia.

PERRY WINS

When the contest editor was unearthed from the avalanche of football selections that poured in last week, he was very much elated to report that Russell Perry was the winner, with a perfect score, except for one tie game.

Three persons tied for second place, only missing on the Tulane, Texas A. & M. game. These were Jack Crawford, Winfield Qualls, and Bob Pfrangle. The guessing was generally good, due to a good many set-ups.

The second place winners also received show passes.

Arrange Series Of Talks For Girls

Mrs. Townsend has made arrangements for a very interesting and unusual feature for the girls at Southwestern. Through her influence, Judge Camille Kelly of the Juvenile Court has consented to give a series of weekly talks on "The Art of Living." This is certainly a real opportunity as Judge Kelly has attained national recognition and admiration for her work at the Juvenile Court.

A time will be set which will be convenient for most of the girls to attend. Judge Kelly outlined her talks at the Y. W. C. A. meeting on Wednesday night. This was the first of the "Y" meetings of the year. Supper was served at 6, after which there was a short devotional, which in turn was followed by Judge Kelly's talk.

Chapman Transfers

Scott Chapman, Ripley, Tenn., is a sophomore transfer from the University of Tennessee. Scott is an A.T.O. and is a candidate for the freshman eleven.

FRESHMEN ARE SUBDUED AFTER OPEN REVOLT

Baffled by Bearden, Frosh Burn Straw Hats On Drive

Unable to stand the humiliations of straw hats and Sanhedrin meetings, the Freshman Class of 1933-34 rose in rebellion Monday night. Led by the fiery oratory of Johnny Bethea, and the urgings of Herman "Red" Davis, the Frosh stormed Robb Hall, burned their straw hats, and otherwise disturbed the quiet of the Southwestern campus.

Ired by the actions of Fred Bearden, High Priest of the Sanhedrin, the tortured first year men ran amuck through the corridors of Robb Hall in an effort to catch their tormentor and give him a customary ducking in one of the Overton Park water holes. Mr. Bearden was not to be found and the freshmen were foiled. Undaunted by one defeat, they gathered on the drive near the President's residence and burned their straw hats in a premature bonfire. The rioters continued far into the night, becoming more and more angry, while Bethea, "Jug" Owen and Davis led them from pillar to post. Motorists passing through the campus drive reported that they had been stopped by the confused mob, and that their automobiles had been searched. The crew were unable to find Bearden, however.

The freshmen have been very quiet for the first three weeks, but the disturbance came after High Priest Bearden ordered the new class to wear aprons to classes until otherwise notified.
