Cub Reporter Picks Nominees

Predicts Probable Candidates In Elections

NOW that the initial smoke and fire of the first election is over, and there are definite indications of how the campus groups are lined up, the political dopesters will now have the pleasure of speculating as to the outcome of the various class and minor office elections next week.

One of the cub reporters of The Sou'wester drank a schooner of 3.2 and shut himself up in a rumble seat to figure out the following predictions.

UNION TO BUY FILING CABINET

Plans to Give Party For Old Members

The cabinet of the Southwestern Christian Union met Monday night in the Bell Room. It was the first meeting of the newly elected cabinet, and Tom Jones presided for the initial time.

The cabinet decided to purchase a filing cabinet to be used as a central office by the Christian organizations on the campus. Data compiled by the Christian Union questionnaire, correspondence, Ministerial Club material, and Y. W. C. A. documents will be kept in the new filing cabinet, which will have four compartments. Russell Cross is chairman of the committee, with Jameson Jones and David Edington, which will select the cabinet.

It was decided to give a party for both the old and new cabinets. The nature and details of the party were left up to a committee consisting of Mary Kennedy Hubbard, chairman; Vernon Pettit, and David Edington.

TO PLAY FINALS IN VOLLEYBALL TODAY

The finals in the inter-fraternity volleyball tournament will take place between the A. T. O.'s and the S. A. E.'s at 3 p. m. today.

"SKIDDING" WILL MAKE TEARS FLOW

IF YOU could just see Tress get emotional!

Tress is "Aunt Milly" in the play, "Skidding" which is to be given in Hardie Auditorium Monday and Tuesday nights, by the Southwestern Players.

In the last act comes one of the many exciting climaxes in which Aunt Milly bursts forth in a speech which arouses tears in the eyes of even the cast, who have heard her do her part a thousand times.

The play will be a huge success, if for no other reason than the side remarks of Andy, the kid brother, played by Gene Stewart. When the director of the play can laugh at his antics at the fortieth rehearsal, Gene must be funny.

The heavy "drammer" falls on the shoulders of Margaret Clay Faulhaber and Johnny Hines, as Mr. and Mrs. Hardy, the parents of Marion (Margaret Tallichet) whose love scenes with Wayne (Fred Bearden) make Garbo and Gilbert look like amateurs.

More humor, of the hysterical and flustered variety, is furnished by Estelle (Anne Galbreath) one of the Hardy daughters. Estelle's big scene at the news of her child's strangling is ludicrously exciting.

Russell Cross in his loud, checkered suit and blustery "small-town politician" manner should make him one of the outstanding hits of the show. Peggy Walker's oration on the drudgeries of married life (she is Myra—the other married daughter of the Hardys) in the second act is one of the high spots.

If Reed Brock's white wig and shuffling walk don't make his "Grandfather" one of the fondest memories of the show, it won't be his fault. He is a typical old man, and laughs flow freely when Grandpa comes forth with one of his inane remarks.

Russell Cross reports that ticket sales are coming along nicely. Only a few seats remain for Monday night and over half those for Tuesday have been sold.

Merely a Bit Of Nonsense

One fellow who is sure that men came from monkeys is the man who sweeps up the peanut shells after the ball game.

"There's one thing I like about my girl."
"What's that?"
"The guy she goes with."

Romantic Lady—"Do you ever see pictures in the fire?"
Embittered Art Critic—"No. But I've seen lots that ought to be."

A farmer received a crate containing some jowls. He wrote to the sender, informing him that the crate was so badly made that it had come to pieces when he was taking the hens home with him, and they had all escaped, and after much searching, he had only succeeded in finding eleven of them. In due course he received the following reply:
"You were lucky to find eleven hens, because I sent you only six."

The return to the home town of the "local boy" who has made good in the big city is rarely, we have understood, what it might be. In connection with this we have to report the particularly sad experience of a young banker who, after eight years of absence, alighted at the station of the town of his birth. There was, despite his expectations, no one on the platform whom he knew. No one. Discouraged, he sought out the baggage master, a friend since boyhood. To him at least he would be welcome, and he was about to extend a hearty greeting, when the other spoke first.

"Hello, George!" he said. "Goin' away?"

THE CAUSE OF THE MAJORITY OF AUTO ACCIDENTS CAN BE TRACED DIRECTLY TO THE NUT THAT HOLDS THE WHEEL.

The collegiate car chugged painfully up to the gate at the races. The gatekeeper, demanding the usual fee for cars, called out:

"Twenty-five cents for the car!"
Ledsinger looked up with a pathetic smile of relief and said:
"Sold!"

Judge: Why did you beat your wife when she was sick?
Culprit: 'Cause I ain't strong enough to do it when she's well.

"If I were as lazy as you, I'd go hang myself in my barn."
Hobo—"No, you wouldn't. If you were as lazy as me you wouldn't have any barn."

The old-fashioned girl certainly knew how to get a dinner. The modern girl does too, but she uses a different method.

Jim—"Where did you get all the money?"
Jack—"I borrowed it from Tom."
Jim—"From Tom! Why, I thought he was pretty tight."
Jack—"He was."

I've heard the night-hawk's plaintive wail,
I've heard the whistle of the quail,
But there's one sound I've yet to hear
And that's the blubber of the whale.

"My poor fellow," said the lady, "here is a quarter for you. Goodness gracious, it must be dreadful to be lame, but just think how much worse it would be if you were blind."
"Yer right, lady," agreed the beggar, "when I was blind I was always getting counterfeit money."

The Little Gym Restaurant has taken out the electric fan formerly in operation there. Patrons had complained that its breezes were so strong that they couldn't hold the paper napkins on their laps unless they sat on them.

Customer—"I want a couple of pillow-cases."
Clerk—"What size?"
Customer—"I don't know, but I wear a size 7 hat."

Mrs. Dailey—"I gave you a piece of pie last week, and you've been sending your friends here ever since."
The Tramp—"You're mistaken, lady. Them was my enemies!"

"Sir, I want your daughter for my wife."
"And I, sir, am not willing to trade."

IT'S WORTH YOUR TIME AND MONEY

The Southwestern Players will present an excellent comedy, "Skidding," in Hardie Auditorium on Monday and Tuesday nights. The cast has been working very hard for weeks in order to give you a finished production. It is the only major performance that Southwestern presents in the field of drama this year. Mrs. Terrell Brame, an experienced director, has been giving her time in order to make the production a success.

Southwestern students will receive more than their money's worth by buying a ticket to the play. We could plead with you to support the production on the grounds that it is the biggest play of the year and that dramatics should be encouraged as much as athletics and other activities.

However, this is not necessary, because "Skidding" will be one of the best plays that you have ever seen anywhere. Come to "Skidding" and bring your friends and parents. You won't regret it.

Just a Bit of Dorm Life

ROBB HALL

Lots of Robbites deserted the hall over the week-end for the adventure that lurks on the Ole Miss campus. The big dance at the Tea Hound was a howling success, and the Lynx boys came back with such tales as caused unbelieving smiles to cross our faces. But they asked us, "Was you dere?" and squelched us miserably.

Information from Robb's reliable statistician shows that Wiley Jones gets an average of six and three-fourths telephone calls per day. The figures cover the last four months. And was the royal anger aroused when a group of fellows who had been drinking (Alex Gilliam, Bill Gammage, Shorty Simmons, etc.) tipsily violated the sanctity of his bedroom and disturbed the slumber of Prince Heidelberg.

The other day we were extremely astonished to hear a radio booming Beethoven's Sixth and to see Julio Robinson rapt, motionless before it. On approaching nearer we found the rapt attention to be deep sleep—with regular snores.

CALVIN HALL

The boys in Calvin have not gotten over the shock they received the other day when it was discovered that James Overholser had been "stepping-out" for the past few weeks. Overholser has been having dates on Sunday nights for four or five weeks. The names of the lucky girls were not disclosed. Studying and girls go together after all.

Charlie Woolfolk has been hobbling around for a few days suffering with a sprained ankle. It seems that Charlie and Herbert Pierce spent the week-end together and vied with each other as to who could do the greatest feats of skill. In accomplishing one of these feats, Charlie accomplished a sprained ankle.

Earl Christian is running around the campus these days in company with a Chi Omega. He was seen sitting in the car of a very popular C. O. the other morning.

FLASH!

Special to Sou'wester

NEW DICTIONARY WILL APPEAR SOON

It has been definitely and officially understood that a new dictionary is to be compiled within the very near future by Mr. Russell Perry, editor of the Sou'wester. It seems that at present the only drawback is the fact that he doesn't know how to devise a system by which to eliminate punctuation and spacing of words, otherwise we think the dictionary would have made its appearance long ago, as he has completed the process of eliminating capital letters entirely.

I wish Mr. Perry all the luck in the world in his new venture,

Yours,

TOM HOLLOWAY.

REACH 2ND ROUND IN GIRLS' NET PLAY

The second round of the girls' tennis matches must be played by Saturday, Miss Louise Stratmann announced yesterday.

Are You Listening?

This scatter-brained reporter grew tired this week of writing of the Chi Delta Phi meetings and decided to crash through with a little blood-stained dirt of the Mauve Decade variety.

The biggest piece of news this week in point of effect was the deep sea dive Jane Erskine took under a fifth aisle pew last Sunday in church.

As Pangloss in "Candide" intelligently pointed out, "There is no effect without a cause," so we have fallen to wondering if his name begins with the first letter of the alphabet. Aha! They say she fainted. We wonder of she was fainting.

The most over-rated girl on the campus, so our Mother Goose books tell me, has deserted that silent S. A. E. for a certain more or less dignified and bespectacled A. T. O.

The wee mite of a miss dances pretty vigorously, but we have fallen to wondering what these two totally different personalities think they have in common. Meow! Oh well, as the Camel adds signify, a miss is as good as a mile.

A certain affair between a blonde Chi O and a blonde A. T. O., of which affair we heartily approve, ran on a sandbar for a short interval last week with disheartening after-effects. He is now wearing his well-known sweater and red tie so life evidently has taken on a rosy tint again.

Our well-known tap dancer of the Southwestern Vanities seems to have the world (or a good many inhabitants thereof) on a string. We could name a Kappa Sig, two S. A. E.'s and a "I go to college" A. T. O. who find Evergreen romantic at night. Must be great to be popular.

One sweet and willowy A. O. Pi has finally discovered THE one. He is an S. A. E. and his last name is usually a boy's first. Both take an active interest in scholastic activities (he made the honor roll last month)

Dr. Henry J. Bassett will give a lecture to the American Association of University Women at their meeting at 3:30 p.m. today in Hardie Auditorium. The subject of the talk will be "Rome, the Eternal City."

3.2 Beer Is A Big Disappointment To Majority Of Lynx Students

Lynx Lair Practically Deserted On First Beer Day As Students, Professors Journey To Places Where Foamy Liquid Is Sold

The proverbial fatted calf was not waiting for the amber colored fluid around Southwestern, despite the fact that only four customers attended the Lynx Lair Monday. All of the "good" customers, usually about 40 in number, went to places where beer could be purchased. Even the eight professors who are regular customers perhaps went to unknown places where Prima, Budweiser, Schlitz, Blue Ribbon, and other malt drinks could be procured.

Most of the Southwestern eds and co-eds claimed that they had not yet tasted of the foamy beverage. The majority of those who have guzzled the 3.2 per cent stuff claim that it is a big disappointment.

Frank Goodlett and Reed Brock couldn't finish a bottle between them. Louis Nicholas said, "It may be all right, but I don't like it." Stick to chocolate malted milks, Nicky.

Rodney Baine, campus cynic, says that it tastes like soap. Thelma Worthington opines that it is worse than bitter medicine. Tom Jones tasted it in secret and won't divulge his reaction.

Margaret Clay Faulhaber and Eleanor Trezevant dashed up with Prima labels in their hands. "We don't like it," was their verdict.

Ronald Hayhoe thinks it is very good, and claims that it is one of the wisest moves yet made by our legislature. "It will restore prosperity and dispense with penury," said the Lynx promoter.

Ned Wright said, "There's nothing to it." King Bearden announced that the brew tastes like dishwater. Charley Woolfolk wants to know why they removed the "near" part of the sign. "It's mild as a Camel," he concluded.

LEAGUE ENDS IN TRIPLE TIE

Beta Sigs, Kappa Sigs, S. A. E. In Playoff

HOW THEY FINISHED

Team	W.	L.	Pct.
Kappa Sigma	6	1	.857
Beta Sigma	6	1	.857
S. A. E.	6	1	.857
A. T. O.	4	3	.570
K. A.	3	4	.428
Pi K. A.	2	5	.285
Non-Frat	1	6	.143
T. N. E.	0	7	.000

The inter-frat baseball league finished in a triple tie, with the Kappa Sigs, Beta Sigs, and S. A. E.'s all in the playoff. Monday the K. S.'s will play the B. S.'s in the first game of the round robin tournament between the three teams. Tuesday the S. A. E.'s will engage the Beta Sigs.

The final game Wednesday will pitting the Kappa Sigs against the S. A. E.'s. Two of the teams will be eliminated by this series, or else the triple tie will be maintained. A cup will be presented to the winner in chapel Friday.

3 JUNIORS SCORE ABOVE 500 ON TEST

The General Culture division of the Cooperative tests, which were recently given to Southwest-sophomores, juniors, and seniors, have been scored. It was possible to make 803 points on this test. The junior class had the highest two scores, one being 548 and the next 546. Another junior made 510.

The best sophomore score was 513. The seniors had the lowest class high score, as the leading senior only scored 502 points.

The median for the junior class was 199.5. The senior median was 174.5, while the average sophomore grade was only 164. The median for the school at large was 180.25.

LYNX TO ENTER S. I. A. A. MEET AT PINEVILLE

Miller To Take Squad To Participate In Annual Track Meet

The Southwestern track team will journey to Pineville La., for the annual S. I. A. A. track and field meet next Saturday. The Lynx did not attend the Conference meet last year, but Coach John Miller announced that he will take every man who can score a possible point this year in hope of winning the meet. Louisiana Normal will play host to the S. I. A. A. thinclads.

Led by Capt. Herbert Newton, Southwestern stands a fair chance to grab first honors. Newton won the 440 at the A. A. U. meet last Saturday in close to record time. He should win this event and has a chance to crack the Conference record. "Amite Annie" will also broad jump, run the 220, and the relay.

"Chicken" High is a strong contender in the 880. He ran a good race at Tuscaloosa, capturing second place in a half that was won in creditable time. The little Lynx mercury will run the 100 and a relay lap. Carrol Cloar, if he recovers from his pulled muscle, will be a dangerous contender in the 220, broad jump, and 440.

Sid Hebert has finally rounded into form and is sailing the discus out over 120 feet, which should place. Knight is working on the shot. Jimmy Wilson will handle the javelin and will run the relay. Drake is shaving fractions of seconds off his high hurdle time and "Red" Forman is learning the tricks of running the low barriers.

The Southwestern Group was entertained in the Lambuth Dining Hall at 1 o'clock, and met in the chapel for an informal discussion at 2 o'clock. Robert Pfrangle, former president of the State S. V., presided. Three colleges were represented, including Lane College, a negro school.

Something to Say

not just saying something

A friend of CHESTERFIELD writes us of a salesman who had "something to say":

"I dropped into a little tobacco shop, and when I asked for a pack of Chesterfields the man smiled and told me I was the seventh customer without a break to ask for Chesterfields. 'Smoker after smoker,' he said, 'tells me that Chesterfields click... I sell five times as many Chesterfields as I did a while back.'"

Yes, there's something to say about Chesterfields and it takes just six words to say it—"They're mild and yet they satisfy."

they Satisfy

Prof. Haden Carries On Tradition Of Noted Southwestern Family

Father Graduated From College At Clarksville In 1890. Professor Interested In Variety of Campus Activities

Professor Eric Haden nobly carries on the tradition of a noted Southwestern family. His father was a member of the class of 1890, and a missionary to China. He died a hero's death in 1917 in a gallant effort to save some Chinese passengers from a ship that had been torpedoed by a German "U" boat.

Eric Haden is the eldest of the Haden sons. He has the best characteristics of several civilizations embodied in his makeup. Born in China, he has the polite manners of the Orient. Trained largely in France and by French literature, he has all of the eloquence and brilliance of the Frenchman. Taking his doctor of divinity at Louisville Seminary, he has all the tact and ready sympathy of the minister. He also spent two years in the Theological Seminary of the University of Neuchatel, Switzerland, after receiving the Bach. es Lett. degree from that University.

Professor Haden is one of the most versatile of the clever and distinguished gentlemen who make up the Southwestern faculty. He preaches and conducts study classes in Memphis and neighboring churches; he teaches many of the French classes at Southwestern; he is a born musician; an authority on chess; in addition to all this, he is a chef de-luxe and many mouths water at the remembrances of the steaks he has roasted at Christian Union steak-roasts.

As a musician, Professor Haden is equally at home either conducting or performing. He sings, plays the violin, directs oratorios, operettas, glee clubs, and leads the music at religious services. He put the "Pirates of Penzance," a Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, over with a bang year before last.

If you ever see Dr. Haden extract a little leather book from his pocket and start poring over it eagerly, do not mistake it for a breviary. It's a pocket chess board, and he is busy originating or solving a chess problem. Find him a chess problem he can't work if you can. He is now writing a book on chess under the title, "The Second Year of Chess."

FROSH NETTERS DEFEAT C. B. C.

Win Four of Five Matches Played

The Bobcat racqueteers made their season's debut last Friday by defeating the team of Christian Brothers College local prep school, by a score of four matches to one. The sixth match ended in a draw when darkness intervened.

The baby Lynx won three of the four singles matches and the lone doubles match. Dickie Dunlap, No. 1 player of the Bobcats, defeated John Larmie of C. B. C. by the scores of 6-2, 6-1. David Flowers won over Breen Bland, 6-1, 6-0. Dorsey Barefield defeated John Kraft by the scores of 6-2, 6-4 in a hard fought match.

The lone Brothers victory was won by Garland Liles who won over Dick Mays, 6-2, 6-3.

The Bobcat doubles combination of Dunlap and Mays defeated Larmie and Kraft, 6-2, 6-1. Flowers and Barefield broke even in a doubles match with Bland and Liles. Each had one set to their credit when darkness forced the match to be called off. The score of both matches was 7-5.

LYNX FIFTH IN A. A. U. MEET

Newton Wins 440; High Second In 880

Southwestern made a creditable showing in the Southeastern A. A. U. meet at Tuscaloosa last Saturday. Although Coach Miller only took four athletes to the event, the Lynx scored 10 1/2 points to garner fifth place in a meet that had some of the best hurriers in the south present.

From Southwestern's point of view, the performance of Capt. Herbert Newton was the best thing of the meet. The Louisiana Antelope galloped the 440 in 50.4 seconds to win first place. His time was only a fraction of a second above the Southern record Bill Joyce of Alabama holds at 49.6. Newton also placed fourth in the 220.

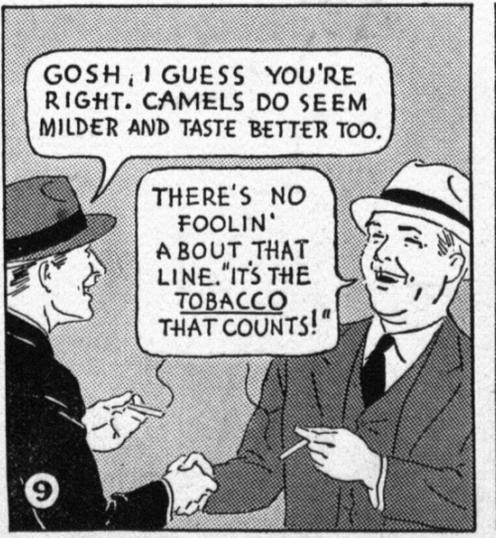

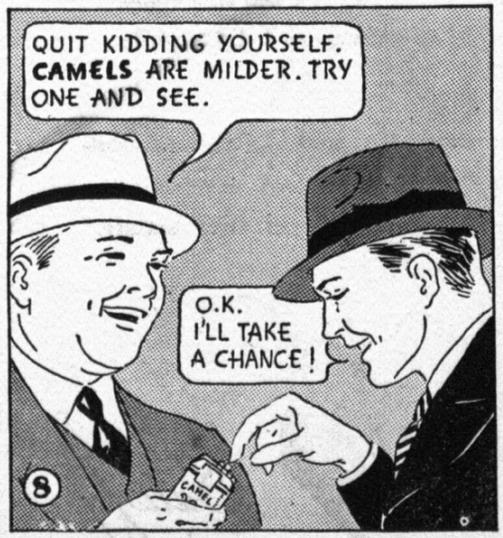

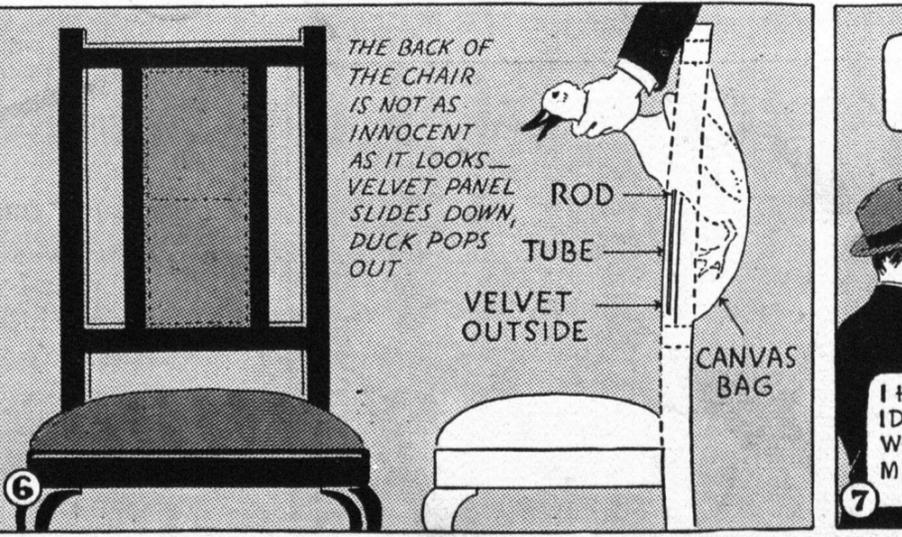

Harold High was second in the 880, losing a close race to "Blackie" Raymond, the sensational Alabama freshman half-miler. The race was won in 2.02 seconds and High's time was approximately 2.04.

In the two mile grind, Riley McCaughran ran his usual steady race to capture fourth place. His lack of a finish "kick" prevented him from finishing in a higher rank.
