Elect Buckingham To Head Boosters

Henry Watkins Elected Vice-President

Beverly Buckingham is the new president of the Boosters' Club to succeed Franklin Kimbrough. Other new officers are Henry Watkins, vice-president; Margaret Tallichet, secretary; and Lillias Christie, treasurer.

The Club decided to award cups to fraternities for winning athletic events three times. It has been the custom to award cups only to fraternities winning events three years in a row, but it is difficult for any one group to win three consecutive times.

Former president Kimbrough is having the names of the fraternities engraved on all of the cups presented to them this year.

Cross Will Direct Volunteer's Play

The Student Volunteers met last Sunday afternoon. They have elected Russell Cross to direct the play, "Bathene," which will be given numerous showings in and around Memphis next year. The play will probably have its first staging at the Southwestern Christian Union Retreat. Cross will work on the play this summer, and the cast will work hard in order to make it a good presentation. Vernon Pettit, president, announces that a group of Volunteers has been started at LeMoyné College, a Memphis institution for colored.

K. A.'S INITIATE

Kappa Alpha fraternity initiated Robert Crisler Tuesday night. Crisler is a freshman and lives in Flora, Miss.

Figures In Commencement Program

Six honorary degrees will be conferred by Southwestern at the 58th annual commencement exercises of the college.

Above photos show those who will be especially honored during the Commencement. Top row, reading from left to right, they are Morse A. Cartwright, Commencement speaker and who will be awarded the Doctor of Laws degree; Rev. S. E. McFadden, Ruston, La., Doctor of Divinity degree; Rev. Richard A. Bolling, Cleveland, Miss., Doctor of Divinity; Rev. George W. Cheek, Bowling Green, Ky., Doctor of Divinity.

STUDENTS DO NOT WANT WAR

Big Majority In Favor of Peace

In the war ballot conducted last week by The Sou'wester and the Ministerial Club, 60 percent of the votes favored not going to war unless the mainland of the U. S. were actually invaded.

About 20 percent voted not to go to war at all, while the remaining 20 percent signified that they would go to any war declared by Congress. Less than half of the student body voted on the war question.

Seniors Must Get Regalia By June 3

Saturday noon, June 3, is the latest that seniors can get their caps and gowns, Miss Gates announced yesterday. The caps and gowns must be returned by the afternoon of June 6. Any seniors that need alterations on caps and gowns should see David Edington.

Dr. Diehl Speaks To Miss. State Grads

Dr. Charles Diehl, president of the college, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon to the graduates of Mississippi State College, Starkville, Miss., Sunday at 11 o'clock.

PERRY TO TAKE UP ALUMNI JOB

Becomes Managing Editor of Magazine

Immediately after doffing the cap and gown and storing the sheepskin away, Russell Perry, editor of The Sou'wester, will begin work as Assistant and Alumni Secretary and Managing Editor of the Alumni Magazine, according to an announcement made by Prof. M. L. MacQueen, Alumni Secretary.

Perry's duties in the Alumni Office on the campus will consist of maintaining alumni records, assisting in the publication of the Alumni Magazine, and the organization of alumni clubs. His experience and work as editor of the student paper should be of value to him in his new work.

"S" Club Inducts Three New Men

Three new members were initiated into the "S" Club Tuesday night. The neophytes honored by membership to the club of "S" wearers are Andrew Edington, track man; Joe Moss, track manager; and Beverly Buckingham, basketball manager.

The rigors of the initiations were very severe, but all three of the new men are gradually recovering from the ordeal.

FORM MEN'S SECRET CLUB

Freshmen Compose Inter-Frat Group

If 12 Southwestern eds are seen today or tomorrow strolling around the campus in practically identical costume and wearing the same insignia, they can be correctly taken as the charter members of the campus' latest organization.

The club is secret and inter-fraternal, composed of freshmen only, and plans to emulate S. T. A. B. and Pi. The membership is limited, but rumor has it that they plan to "bring out" other members of next year's sophomore class and next year's freshman class from time to time until the quota is complete.

The high mucky-mucks of the organization are John Hines, Dorsey Barefield, and Max Usrey. Their official titles and duties are unknown.

Other charter members of this "exclusive" society are John Jordan, Dick Dunlap, Louis Duffee, H. S. George, Sidney Strickland, Cliff Dinwiddie, Clint McKay, John Baker, and Robert Neill.

Final Edition of Journal Appears

The final issue of The Journal appeared Thursday. Some of the contributors to the magazine are Rodney Baine, Margaret Tallichet, William McCaskill, Clark Porteous.

GRADUATION TO BE JUNE 4 IN HARDIE CHAPEL

Morse A. Cartwright Will Be Commencement Speaker

Southwestern's 58th annual Commencement will start Sunday, June 4, with the baccalaureate sermon at the Second Presbyterian Church, and end with the graduating exercises on Tuesday, June 6. The annual baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by Dr. Charles Diehl.

On Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Dr. George Lang, professor of philosophy at the University of Alabama, will deliver the sermon before the Southwestern Christian Union at the Idlewild Presbyterian Church. Students are required to attend both of these services.

Alumni Day will be observed Monday, June 5. Registration of alumni will be held starting at 10 a.m. in Palmer Hall. At 11 o'clock the dedication of the senior class tree will be held.

At 12:30 o'clock, an alumni luncheon will be held in honor of the class of 1933 in Neely Hall. Rev. Richard Bolling, Cleveland, Miss., president of the alumni association, will preside.

The new feature of Alumni Day, the senior-alumni baseball game, will be played at 2:30 o'clock on the north campus. From 3 to 5 p.m. the Memphis chapter of the Southwestern Alumnae will entertain the women of the graduating class with a garden party on the college campus.

An alumni buffet supper will be held at 6:30 o'clock. The guests of honor for the occasion will be Senator Key Pittman, '87-'90, of Nevada, and Senator Nathan Bachman, '95-'97, of Tennessee.

The faculty reception of the seniors will be held at 8:30 p.m. All alumni are invited to the reception, as well as the members of the student body.

The senior class ceremony will be held at 10 o'clock in the Bell Room of Neely Hall.

The final event of the three-day Commencement will be the graduating exercises at 10 a.m. Tuesday. The commencement address will be delivered by Mr. Morse A. Cartwright, New York, director of the American Association for Adult Education. At this time, the honorary degrees will be conferred by the college. Prizes won during the year will also be announced. Students who will read for honors will also be named at the graduating exercise.

Fourteen classes will hold reunions on Alumni Day. They are the classes of '83, '84, '85, '86, '02, '03, '04, '05, '08, '21, '22, '23, '24, '32.

Those who will be awarded honorary degrees will be the Rev. S. E. McFadden, '11, Ruston, La., the Rev. R. A. Bolling, '10, Cleveland, Miss., the Rev. George Cheek, '09, Bowling Green, Ky., the Rev. James M. Graham, Prattville, Ala., all of whom will receive the Doctor of Divinity degree; Mrs. Virginia Frazer Boyle, Memphis, Doctor of Literature; Morse Cartwright, New York, Doctor of Laws.

Dr. Diehl To Preach At Starkville, Miss.

Dr. Charles Diehl will preach Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian Church, Starkville, Miss.

During the past week, the Southwestern president has spoken at several towns in Mississippi. He delivered the commencement address at the Columbia High School on Wednesday, and spoke before the Columbia Rotary Club on Thursday.

Thomas Elected To Attend Convention

Harte Thomas has been elected delegate to the biennial national Kappa Sigma convention at Madison, Wisconsin. The convention will meet July 19, 20, and 21. Robert Sigler is the alternate.

ALUMNI-SENIOR BASEBALL GAME SET FOR JUNE 5

Prof. MacQueen has inaugurated a new feature for Alumni day which will be June 5. It is a baseball game between the alumni and seniors. Elaborate plans are being made to make this a gala event, and Senator Bachman will throw the first ball.

Dr. George Belk of Evergreen Church has been invited to umpire the game, as he is big-enough to take care of himself.

Coach Jimmy Haygood will present a pennant to the team that wins the game.

The "Old Timer" line-up includes such former baseball notables as Johnson Garrott, J. Parchman Henry, Gerald Capers, R. M. Robinson, and Prof. McIlwaine. Dr. McIlwaine was a slugger of some repute at Clarksville.

"The Rookies" (class of '33) lineup such "stars" as Kimbrough, Bill Taylor, Tom Holloway, Russell Perry, and "Dutch" Borman. However, the "Old Timers" are expected to display some stars that will clinch the game in the early innings. Hence the fearful "Rookies" ask for loyal class support.

Will "Experience" triumph over "Youth"?—as usual!

A side attraction for those who are not baseball minded will be the first annual Alumni Horseshoe derby, another feature of Alumni day. The Alums will all fling shoes for an elaborate trophy—the nature of which is a deep, dark secret.

Are You Listening?

Of interest to countless sufferers of this institute of culture and refinement is the Black-Hole-of-Calcutta time our renowned Sanhedrin High Priest had after the S. A. E. party.

It seems that a blonde A. T. O. freshman latedated Saturday night said Wayne Trenton, III's pretty brunette with whom and others he had planned an early morning sojourn to Moon Lake; and that on the S. T. A. B. scavenger hunt, following the dance, in company with the same honor roll Chi Omega, his car keys were whisked away to a safe hiding place by another scavenger party and not returned to the distraught individual until the wee hours, while he vainly hunted a pair of deer antlers.

That's the irony of being a king. You can not stoop to vengeance. But everyone says the brawl, usually given by the Kappa Sigs, was really done up by the army in regal manner. A hot, very hot, time was had by all.

They are still whispering, tete-a-tete, of the young and evidently innocent Chi O blonde who wandered unwittingly into the sacred precincts of Robb Hall the other day. She avows that she had her mind on her approaching English exam.

A very brunette Kappa Sig whose stomach is beginning to show the effects of his daily quart of beer is still pursuing relentlessly a blonde Tri-Delt whose first name is a summer month. Rumor has it that all is not as it should be, however, and that our bow-tied friend will have to seek romance in foreign fields. Too bad. Another of our erotic illusions shattered.

One of this week's dirt high-spots is the news about one of our bachelor professors. Tired of watching and remarking sarcastically about the dozens of campus romances, he has taken to visiting two lovely old maids whose habitation is on McLean.

The Student Body of Southwestern, Memphis, Tenn.

My Dear Friends:

I wish that it were possible for me to thank every member of the student body personally for the $10.00 that you gave me, but since that is practically impossible, I want to take this means of expressing to you my sincere and deep appreciation for your kindness and thoughtfulness.

I want you to know that it is always a pleasure to serve you in any way that I can, and I am glad to inconvenience myself if I can be of service at any time.

I wish every Southwestern student the greatest success in life, and especially do I ask God's blessing on each member of the senior class.

With genuine gratitude, I am your friend,

WILL ELKINS.

Wishing You A Very Happy Summer and Thanking You For Your Patronage.

"THIRTY"

As this, the final edition of The Sou'wester, goes to press, it is with a great deal of regret that the editor must put aside his typewriter and vacate his chair. It is only fitting that before the final bit of type is set, that credit be given where credit is due.

First, a laurel wreath should be placed on the brow of the business manager, Thompson Holloway, who has done a splendid job. Not only is this job the most thankless one in the world, but it requires a lot of unpleasant work.

Next in order comes the staff. At times, they have been a good explanation for the many grey hairs that the editor has grown this year, but on the whole they have done a fine job and are to be commended. The circulation department also has been an integral part of the paper's work, and they, too, are due the plaudits of the readers.

Next year, The Sou'wester will have a most capable editor in Clark Porteous. He has promised a paper that will be a credit to Southwestern. It is only just that the students give him their loyal support as they have to the editor this year.

A WORD OF CAUTION

Examinations start Monday. A word to the wise should be sufficient. Remember the Honor Council pledges you signed and neither give nor receive any help. No one thinks that you are going to be dishonest and there will be no policemen watching you. Be fair to the trust that is placed in you by the faculty and do not even give the appearance of getting anything on exams that is not rightfully yours.

EVERGREEN HALL

Once again Evergreen is preparing for exams and, per usual, there is much last-minute work being done. Many plans are being made for the much-desired, much-needed vacation and everyone is planning to leave just as soon as possible.

Evergreen is very proud of her four seniors and great interest is being shown (not only by them) in the preparations for Commencement. The seniors are Martha Burton, Nell Davis, Louise Taylor and Hazel Corley.

The Curling Iron elections were a keen disappointment last week because we do think that we should have walked away with all honors and if the other girls had known Evergreen better we would have. However, Ann did get the unanimous election of "Peroxide Polly" and was quite overcome with the distinction.

TEST LEADERS ARE NAMED

Henry Oliver Leads In Five Departments

The leaders in the various departments of the cooperative tests taken recently by the sophomores, juniors, and seniors have been announced by Miss Annie Beth Gary, assistant registrar.

In history and social sciences, Henry Oliver led with a score of 232. John Fischbach was second with 197 and Annie Louise Taylor scored 186 for third place.

Oliver also led the foreign literature with 225. James Overholser was runner up with 208 and Rodney Baine next with 192.

Louis Nicholas led in fine arts with 189. Rodney Baine was second with 142 and Fischbach was third with 141.

Oliver made the highest on the total for general culture, which included all three of the above departments. He made 548. Nicholas was second with 546 and Baine scored 513.

On the English total, which included usage, vocabulary, and spelling, Oliver again led with 242. J. B. Breazeale was second, making 238. Louis Nicholas scored 237 for third place.

Oliver scored 180 points on the literary acquaintance test. Nicholas made 167 and Margaret Tallichet totaled 162 points.

Annabel Cox led on the general science total. Miss Cox scored 125 points. Scudder Smith made 122, and J. B. Breazeale made 111 points.

In addition to making the highest score of all Southwestern students on the tests, Henry Oliver led in history and social sciences, foreign literature, general culture, English total, and literary acquaintance.

Lynx Eds and Co-Eds to Indulge in Varied Activities During Summer

Students Plan To Travel To Many Foreign Climes. Several House Parties Planned

If the majority of Southwestern eds and co-eds do this summer what they have planned on, there will be very few spots in this great old U. S. untrod by a Southwestern foot (or feet). Plans range from a trip to Mexico by one of our fairer co-eds, Miss Julia Marie Schwinn, as a councilor in a girl's camp, to our more or less distinguished editor, who will remain in Memphis to work in the alumni office throughout the torrid summer months.

Bernice Cavett hopes to "ape" Julia Marie in going to Colorado as a girl's camp councilor, if she can induce enough of the youngest generation to go; Lone Wall is planning a summer of beer and pretzels in the home of the Ole Maestro, Minneapolis, despite the fact that she prefers Coca-Colas.

Anne Brown Taylor is going "somewhere or bust" but plans have not materialized; Eleanor Trezevant is off to St. Louis immediately after graduation exercises to see her cousin be honorably expelled from college; Louis Duffee will wear the Laurel (Miss.) wreath all summer, he is afraid, but hopes to take in the World's Fair at Chicago before the reopening of school.

William "Tillie" Thomas intends, like and with Clara McGehee, to paint the town a violent crimson, but hopes, in the meantime, to land a local situation worthy of his talents; H. S. George is off with Julius Klaus on their bouncing motorcycle next Thursday night for the glamour of Macon (Miss.) but both have definite plans for sojourning in Chicago at the Centennial Exposition, and H. S. is making vague plans for an all-summer house-warming.

A Round-Robin houseparty is being planned by six of the campus wallflowers, John Jordan, Sally Griffin, Adelia McConnell, John Hines, Mary MacEddins, and Tom Wood. They will remain in Memphis for a few days after the close of school, and then rumble off to visits in Helena, Woodville (Miss.), Franklin (Tenn.), and Talladega (Ala.). From the looks of things, there'll be a hot time in the ole towns these summer nights.

Martha Chase and Martha Shaeffer will split the summer staying at each other's homes; Martha Shaeffer has a small but cozy beer garden in the rear of her home and plans to spend the summer entertaining the Memphis horde.

Boyce Leigh Sadler will be a Richard Halliburton, if all her present plans become a reality; she is going to the World Fair after a few days in Louisiana, and will return to visit at Moon Lake and to stay with different Chi O's here for the remainder of the summer.

Nelle McMahan hopes to make her annual (more or less) pilgrimage to the wilds of Michigan, but details have not been worked out; Clint McKay will, unfortunate boy, continue the winter grind at Southwestern's summer school; Sidney Strickland, pending invitations from friends, will "mildew in Maud."

Helen Hill is away to the Kappa Delta Convention at Ann Arbor, Mich., with Katy Davis.

Carlson Gives Reading Hints

Lists Books He Deems Worthy of Consideration

M. Irwin Carlson suggests some books for your summer reading. Most of them are the latest works of the leading contemporary writers; others of them are not so recent, but well worth reading:

"Light in August," by William Faulkner.

"Death in the Afternoon," by Ernest Hemingway.

"Beyond Desire," by Sherwood Anderson.

"Ann Vickers," by Sinclair Lewis.

"A Draft of XXX Cantos," by Ezra Pound (poetry).

"Company K," by William March.

"One More Spring," by Robert Nathan.

"1919," by John Dos Passos.

"I, James Lewis," by Gilbert Gabriel.

"Finch's Fortune," by Mazo de la Roche.

"Shadows on the Rock," by Willa Cather.

"Best Short Stories of 1932," edited by William O'Brien.

"Upton Sinclair Presents William Fox," by Sinclair.

"Design for Living," by Noel Coward (a play).

Elect Co-Eds To Head Class Teams

Name Stange, Stratmann, Hyde as Leaders

Margaret Hyde, Charlotte Stange, and Marjorie Stratmann were elected to captain the girls' class athletic teams next year. Miss Hyde will head the seniors, Miss Stange the juniors, and Miss Stratmann the sophomores. A freshman captain will be elected next year.

The girls are selected to serve as an Athletic Board and work in cooperation with Louise Stratmann, women's athletic director. They captain all class teams throughout the year and have charge of the planning and organizing of teams.

The girls were elected from an eligibility list submitted by Miss Stratmann, choices being made because of good records in the various sports conducted during the year. Margaret Hyde, Catherine Davis, and Malline Lyon were nominated from the present junior class. Charlotte Stange, Olga Hartmann, Margaret McNicol and Helen Gordon were the sophomore candidates. Marjorie Stratmann, Sarah Naill, and Rosine Worthington were the women honored in the freshmen class.

The girls who captained this year's teams were Elizabeth Markham, seniors; Margaret Hyde, juniors; Olga Hartmann, sophomores; and Edna Barker, freshmen.
